NEW RULES HELP IDAHO EDUCATORS

State Board Sets Up Regulations to Protect Talents Trained in Gem State

BOISE, Dec. 16 (AP)—With a view to reserving educational positions in Idaho for resident Idaho-trained teachers, the board of education today adopted a new series of rules for summer school certificates.

The more drastic rules were formulated, the board announced, "during these times of economic stress" because "surrounding states have devised means of reserving educational positions for teachers who are residents of their respective states, and to protect the educational institutions of mid states."

The rules provided that any one teaching in the elementary and high schools in Idaho must meet all the requirements of the Idaho law as well as the requirements of the other state, and shall attend a term of school in Idaho in the summer of the year of their certificate, in the case of elementary teachers, credit for six hours of supervision credit for each year is required.

To prevent students of other professions stepping temporarily into the teaching profession, either from military or other service, the board required that no state education certificate will be issued to a full teacher who has not completed two full years of work in the educational department of his school, and in the case of the high school certificate, the applicant must meet all the final two years of the four-year college requirement in the school of education.

One Exception

An exception was made in the case of home economics and agriculture teachers who will conform to federal regulations established for Smith-Hughes law.

Applicants for life certificates must complete one term in an Idaho educational institution.

All the rules go into effect January 1.

PROFESSOR FAVORS FARM RELIEF PLAN

Domestic Allotment Measure Receives Endorsement by Original Montana Sponsor

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16 (AP)—Credited with being the original sponsor of the domestic allotment relief plan as the alternative to "doing nothing and letting the fittest survive," Professor M. L. Wilson of Montana state college, appeared before the house agriculture committee to endorse the allotment principle which he proposed to the committee last spring for the first time.

Wilson stressed that the plan, as now presented was designed to restore a parity between agriculture and other industries.

In earlier testimony during the day, the creation of a new ill-fated "four booting" bill as a probable result of the allotment plan was predicted by a spokesman for the mining industry who said the booting would be one of the most profitable industries in the United States.

Chief Executive Defers Decision, However, on Next Step Against Defaulting Debtor Nations

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—With restoration of five nations' debts to details still pending, President Hoover said today that a new review of the debt bill had deferred on his next step pending developments abroad.

An authority close to the president disclosed today that plans for a special debt money bill, recommending a commission to review international financial obligations, had been changed and the communication would be dispatched only after further developments in Europe. Earlier there were indications the measure would go to Capitol Hill Monday.

An impression was given that this administration will seek principally to keep the negotiations with foreign powers in proper form for action at "Market."

Calls Off Address

With the expressed intention of doing nothing that might interfere with efforts of French delegates to the special debt money bill, President Hoover said today that he would not make a special address for making the payment now defaulted. Senator Harrison, Democrat, Minnesota, called off at the last minute his intended address which had been expected to set off a row in the senate.

President Hoover and his chief aides in the debt negotiations—Secretary of State and Mr. Mellon—held a round of conference and discussion with the cabinet.

Ambassador Paul Claudel, France, called off at the last minute his intended address which had been expected to set off a row in the senate.

C. BEN ROSS ASKS FOR $400,000 AID

Idaho Chief Executive Calls On Reconstruction Finance Corporation Once More

BOISE, Dec. 16 (AP)—Governor C. Ben Ross today asked the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for $400,000 in relief funds for Idaho for the next two months, as the $300,000 already allotted to the state had been used during the past three months.

The amount requested was virtually equal to the request from the counties, although four of these had to be estimated on the basis of requirements of the past relief period.

In announcing the amount he had requested, Governor Ross reiterated his statement on the policy of administering the previous fund, that it would not be apportioned to the counties according to population but according to requirements.

"It is likely some small county with a closed lumber mill will need more relief than a larger county with less unemployment," he said. "Where this is the case, of course more money will go to the smaller county, regardless of its size."

The counties said they need for the next two months, divided $242,487 for January and $223,274 for February. For the two months they estimated their local welfare resources would amount to $49,002 during January and $44,850 during February, reducing the amount needed from the finance corporation.

"The counties are asking the governor at $300,000 in requests from the counties, the request goes forward to Washington for $400,000."

MINNEAPOLIS BANDITS KILL ONE POLICEMAN

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 16 (AP)—A policeman was killed and two other persons were critically wounded today by bandits who held up the Third Northwestern National bank and escaped with approximately $20,000 in cash and $100,000 in securities.

SIX MINNAPOLIS employees were in the bank, located in a small neighborhood community two miles from St. Paul. An employee presented a burglar alarm button and Patrolman Ira L. Evans and Le R. Coraki, arrived just as three bandits entered the bank. A fourth bandit, armed with a machine-gun, followed and opened fire as the police car drew up. Evans fell with more than 20 wounds. Coraki, who received at least five wounds, had only a slight chance of recovery.

The bandits then drove to Como park St. Paul, shooting Al Erickson, peddling Christmas wreaths nearby. He was not expected to live.

NEVADA'S GAMBLING LAWS AROUSE CITIZENS

CARSON CITY, Nev., Dec. 16 (AP)—Repeal of Nevada's gambling laws by the next legislature was asked in letters to the editors of state here today and bearing the signatures of approximately 100 citizens.

The petitions demanded the enactment of a law prohibiting all forms of gambling except pari-mutuel betting on horse races. They were circulated by a committee headed by Frank Williams, University of Nevada professor.

The petitioners claimed that gambling "brings three quarters of a million dollars annually from Nevada people who do not return but depleted pocket-books, garrisoned homes and wasted time."

When it meets next January four courses will be open to the legislature in disposing of the initiative measure. It can either pass, reject, or pass a substitute for it.

Christmas Sweets Help Solve Problem Of Finding Presents

Home-Made Confections Offer Medium for Appropriate Remembrances

By LOUISE BENNETT WEAVER Author of "Helping The Homemaker" In The News

Christmas is hardly making it a task that makes many litchies lively as the holiday season nears, in preparing sweets for the home table as well as for remembrances.

CHRISTMAS CONFECTIONS

Boxes or baskets of home-made confections are popular gifts for neighbors and friends. Bright-colored papers, holiday baskets, a sprig of holly or evergreen, Christmas ribbons and seals add much to the attractiveness of packages.

Mix the sugar, water and cream of tartar. Boil gently and without stirring until the syrup forms a light tan or straw-colored syrup.

Mix the molasses, sugar, vinegar and water for 2 minutes. Add the water and mix well. Boil gently and without stirring until a "click" ball forms when a portion of the candy is tested in cold water.

Mix the sugar, chocolate, milk and butter. Boil gently, stirring frequently, until a soft ball forms when a portion is tested in cold water.

Cover the orange shells with water. Boil slowly for 40 minutes. Rinse in cold water. Remove and discard pulp and the white part next to the skin. With scissors, Home-made candy and other confections make thoughtful remembrances for Christmas and fill the heavy demand for sweets on holiday tables. There are many recipes from which the housewife may choose.

His wife, whose maiden name was Maggie Quinn, lived only a short time. She left one son, John, now a Rupert man.

In 1922, Mr. McKevitt and Miss Nora Carroll were married and they moved to Bate, Montana, where Mr. McKevitt engaged in mining. BURLEY ALTERCATION

BURLEY, Dec. 16 (Special to The News)—Dean Barlow, son of Truman Barlow, Burlly, was wounded in his left arm by a bullet, and John Cater, a neighbor, was arrested on a charge of assault, following an altercation said to have taken place on the Cater farm a mile south of here this evening.

The altercation followed a dispute over cattle which strayed from the Barlow farm and was preceded by several months of quarreling. The quarrel reached a climax about a month ago, when members of the Cater family were charged by the Bar-lows with assault. The Cater was subsequently acquitted in probate court.

Young Cater received treatment in a local hospital, where examination revealed that the bullet had struck his chest, over the heart, and entered in his arm.

Young Cater was arrested on a charge of assault after Truman Barlow, father of the wounded boy, had sworn out a warrant. Cater was released under bond this evening.

GRANGERS SPONSOR
"SHARE-WORK" PLAN

BURLY, Dec. 16 (Special to The News)—Deep Creek Grange, with approval of the Twin Falls County Board of Grange, has issued a statement in the form of a resolution, calling attention to the scarcity of work in the county, and asking that the board should take steps to employ unemployed persons, and not to persons employed in other work.

The resolution concerning the "share-work" plan follows:
"We wish to call your attention to the fact that the business firms of this county are at present times employing a extra help persons who have positions of regular employment. Some of these are federal employees, who receive adequate and living wages. We insist that in the case of the great unemployment situation, this is both unfair and un-American.

"Numbers of persons capable, qualified and willing to serve in such positions are in dire need of work and the same may be forced to appeal for help from local relief organizations, unless they obtain work.

"Therefore, be it resolved by Deep Creek Grange that we heartily disapprove of the same and consider it an injustice during the present conditions to be distributed among as many families as possible."

FLAMES CONSUME PIONEER LANDMARK

Fire From Unknown Cause Destroys H. B. Johnson Building and Contents

Fire, the origin of which has not been definitely ascertained, broke out in the H. B. Johnson two-story frame building, 123 Main avenue, yesterday at 8:40 A. M. Virtually destroying the structure and much of its contents and causing a loss of between $4000 and $5000, partially covered with insurance. Aside from damage to the building, which was owned by Mr. Johnson, and upon which the total loss is estimated at $4000, tenants including DeWitt and Hanes, real estate dealers, Mrs. Frances Graham, proprietor of furnished rooms, and the New Era Shoe Repairing shop, all and quarters, were so far as could be learned the only insurance was a small policy held by DeWitt and Hanes. The fire was extinguished by John G. Deakin, whose daughter, Mrs. Frances Graham, conducted a rooming house and small grocery store on second floor. Mr. Deakin was ill with influenza in his room when he smelled smoke and investigated. He saw smoke apparently issuing from around a fire extending from the lower floor and called the fire department. It is thought that fire had arrived at the time to open their office. It is thought that fire might have smoldered overnight in soot in the flue.

Telephone From Garage

Notice of the fire was telephoned to the department from the Lind garage. It is said, Mr. Deakin and John P. Stockham, a roofer, rushed out partly clad. A rumor to the effect that Mr. Deakin was in his room and that he thought the fire was spreading through the crowd and was being investigated by members of the fire department, when he was discovered on the street, coatless and shoeless.

The flames spread with alarming rapidity, and into the dry walls of the building and behind paper and plastering. Five streams of water from 2000 feet of hose played on the doomed building for an hour. The flames were armor of iron, while the sidewalk and Main avenue were coated with a cover of the same substance. Effort of the fire companies prevented spreading into adjoining buildings and finally saved the skeleton of the structure in which it originated.

The building was constructed by Mr. Johnson, its present owner; in the spring of 1916 on the site now occupied by the Balthazary Plumbing and Heating company, 145 Second avenue east. Mr. Johnson opened a hardware store in the structure which he moved to its present site something more than a year later and conducted his hardware business there for seven years.

Value of the furniture and property owned by Mrs. Deakin in the apartments and rooms which she operated has not been ascertained. It was a total loss and was not insured. The New Era shoe repairing shop of Al Plington, which occupied one of the rooms on the lower floor was more or less damaged with water. Much of the contents of the DeWitt and Hanes real estate office was destroyed with a loss of between $3000 and $4000, nearly covered with insurance. Smoke and water on the roof damaged the Balthazary flat to the extent of between $500 and $1000.

Willie Willis

Willie Willis, a young boy, was seen at the scene of the fire. He was holding a bow and arrow, and a dog was standing next to him.

CHEVROLET DISPLAYS IMPROVED NEW MODEL

The new 1933 model Chevrolet car, which incorporates 192 improvements, and which has put nearly 100,000 people back to work, arrived in Twin Falls yesterday for the preliminary showing today at the showroom of Nelson-Jenkins, Incorporated, 113 Main avenue west, where special arrangements have been completed for accommodation of a crowd of interested visitors. The new special arrangements have been completed for accommodation of a crowd of interested visitors. The new special arrangements have been completed for accommodation of a crowd of interested visitors.

The cars, of the new Chevrolet line, of 1933, and a coach, have been obtained for the showing here today. Introduction of the new model, Nelson-Jenkins, Incorporated, said, has provided employment for 100,000 men in domestic Chevrolet plants and in the Fisher body plants which manufacture bodies for the Chevrolet line.

For four of the past six years, Mr. Jenkins said, Chevrolet has led in building and selling more automobiles than any other manufacturer, and this year, he added, Chevrolet offers a car which is in keeping with its first-place position in the automobile industry.

Improvements in the new car include a longer wheelbase, a more powerful six-cylinder engine, an entirely new "aero-stream" body styling which reflects the master craftsmanship of bodies by Fisher and new skinned fenders that conceal all the under parts of the car. Distribution is very emphatic in pointing out that in spite of the new engine's greater power and the increased size of the car, the 1933 Chevrolet is more economical.

SWINE MEN FAVOR MARKETING POOLS

Meeting at Buhl Launches Movement With Election Of Three Directors

Twin Falls county swine growers will pool their hogs, following the lead of the county's farm product growers who have pooled for a number of years, according to a marketing organization which was organized at a meeting of nearly 50 of the county's swine growers in the City hall at Buhl yesterday afternoon.

The marketing organization was launched at the meeting with the election of L. P. Stinson, George W. Leitch and Arthur L. Swin as directors. A number of Twin Falls district swine growers attended the Buhl meeting, and it was deemed not necessary to continue with plans for a similar meeting to be held in other parts of the county.

Harvey S. Hale, Twin Falls county agent, said, O. C. McConnell, Gooding county agent, who assisted Gooding county swine growers in forming their county's first swine marketing pool two years ago, outlined the plan at the Buhl meeting. During the first year, he said, Gooding county swine growers pooled 4000 hogs, and the second year they sold 7945 hogs in pools.

The average price received during the year ending last December 1, was a little more than $7 per hog, Mr. McConnell said. A comparison with prices paid in adjacent counties, Mr. McConnell said, Gooding county paid them 75 cents to $1 for each animal sold in the pool. Average shipping costs through the year including shrink, he said, was 95 cents per hundred pounds.

Twin Falls county's cattle growers have assembled a carded lot of cattle which will be shipped from Buhl next Monday, Mr. Hale said, and will continue marketing of individual lots, rather than in pools.

Feed Lots Yield Crop

The county's twenty-fifth carded lot of pooled hogs, the year's first, was shipped from Buhl the first of next week, Mr. Hale said. Movement of hogs to market from Twin Falls county pastures and feed lots has been going forward in heavy volume the past several days, the county agent said. Lambs brought from Oregon and Nevada 90 to 90 days ago at a cost of $4, have put on an average of 20 pounds gain, weight to weigh 80 to 95 pounds each, and are moving out now at $4.50 average price, he said. Exceptionally favorable weather conditions, prior to a week ago, have contributed to successful results attending the first season's lamb feeding operations on a big scale in the county.

NAZARENE EVANGELIST DENOUNCES DANCING

Rev. W. B. Leonard, Portland evangelist, scathingly denounced dancing and modern amusements in a sermon on "The Great Judgment Morning" at the Twin Falls Church of the Nazarene last night, with an enthusiasm and eloquence which many cheered and applauded.

Declaring that he had been saved from a dukar's life of debauchery and sin he denounced the dance as "rotten to the core."

"I know girls who went to the dance pool and left despoiled," he said, "seventy per cent of immoral young people have become so through the dance. Listen father, mother, son and daughter, there is a great judgment day on which you will meet your record. Fifty-six million boys and girls in the United States never go to church or Sunday school. God alone can save them from sin and hell. God wake up professing Christians to help rescue lost youth."

The ladies quartet of the Buhl Nazarene church, composed of Miss Florence Myers, Miss Corde Myers, Mrs. L. M. Chapman and Miss Fern Thompson, furnished a special music. Rev. G. A. Finch, Buhl Nazarene pastor, attended the service. Revival service will close Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock with the sermon subject, "The Last Invitation." Sunday morning at 11 o'clock he will preach on "The Cross of Calvary." He will leave Monday for Portland and return to Buhl January 16 to begin a revival there.

Rev. Mackey J. Brown will assist the pastor, Rev. Horchell Murphy during the services tomorrow.

Lyons, accused in a misdemeanor charge of dealing in potatoes last November 29 in violation of the state farm products license law, was continued to next January 12. Members of a jury were on hand ready to play their part in the proceedings when the absence of the missing witness was announced. A. B. Hopkin, deputy state horticultural inspector, signed the complaint.
