

House Passes Senate Bill To Give 250,000 Jobless Employment

Chorus Beauties Pen Description Of "Perfect Man"

HOLLYWOOD, March 29 (AP)—The perfect, but slightly non-existent man, has evolved from a questionnaire circulated among 100 Hollywood chorus beauties.

Athletic type; 28 years old; 5 ft. 11 in. tall; weight 160 lbs.; hair, wavy brown hair, and blue eyes.

Although none of the girls have ever been with a man, they specify that he must be wealthy and have a car. He must be a drink, smoke and swear in moderation, but must refrain from gambling once he is married, and he must not, by any means, put cigarette butts in his coffee cup.

A college education is not mandatory, those answering the questionnaire said. The ideal man must be a smart dresser, good dancer, and may even wear glasses or sing in the bath tub. Smoking is taboo.

Measure Returns To Upper Branch For Final Action

Republican Opposition Fails To Engineer Parliamentary Maneuvers Well Enough To Turn Back Majority

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—The House Democratic majority today floundered through a parliamentary maze, engineered by Republican "opponents," but finally succeeded in passing President Roosevelt's bill designed to provide employment for 250,000 persons and to conserve the forests.

Opposition—temporarily thrown aside for the first time during the passage of the bill—today floundered through a maze of parliamentary maneuvers, but finally failed to turn back the majority.

RESCUE WORKERS SAVE MAN BURIED 100 HOURS

MP GARNET, 35, March 29 (AP)—Buried in an abandoned mine for 100 hours, a man was rescued tonight.

Cheslock was chilled and weak from his long imprisonment under a fall of rock. He was found by rescue workers who had labored fruitlessly to reach the man for 100 hours. He had been abandoned, they communicated with him this afternoon for the first time since he was trapped 75 feet under ground four days ago.

Cheslock was picking coal when he was trapped.

AGED CHINESE TRIES TO TEND LIFE IN FIRE

POCAHONTON, WYOMING, (AP)—Yang Sing, 66, known among his countrymen as Yang Soong, is the first Chinese in the history of Bonanza county, and perhaps in Idaho, to be sent to a county poor farm at request of his Chinese friends who are no longer able to support him as they have for 13 years.

Yang Sing, crippled in both feet and without food nor strength to seek nourishment, crawled into the building of the poor farm on the alley on North Fourth street today, pulled the covers over his head and died.

Lewis Hogg, who acted as interpreter, said old Charley came to Idaho with his mother but only five years ago to help lay the rails on the first iron-rose-gate road constructed through here by the Idaho Northern.

COAST COMPANY BIDS LOW ON BRIDGE WORK

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29 (AP)—The Coast Construction Co., San Francisco, submitted the lowest of 10 bids opened here today for the building of a new steel truss anchorage for the San Francisco-Oakland trans-bay bridge, the $12,650,000. The engineer's estimate was $12,100.

The Clifton Construction company of this city was the runner-up with an offer of $10,875. A competitor bid by Watson Brothers Construction Co. of San Francisco, $11,750. The George Pacific company, with $11,670, was next.

Engineers announced the low bid of $10,875, but only after a review of all those offered to date on the project to $28,911,215. This total is $1,000,000 below the engineer's estimate.

Taps Sound At Carey For Blaine County's Last Civil War Hero

CAREY, Idaho, March 29 (Special to The News)—As the plaintive notes of a tap followed the salute at Carey cemetery tomorrow, men who served America in the World war, and will stand in solemn tribute to a victim of another great conflict, the Civil War.

Death quieted the final chapter of the 65-year-old veteran's colorful life yesterday at 5 P. M. at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Brooks with whom he had resided since arriving in Carey in 1908.

First fighting as a drafted member of the Confederate forces, Charles Brooks was shot by the Federal Militia when that vessel engaged in the famous battle with the Monitor at Hampton Roads on March 9, 1862. Unconscious as the result of injuries suffered when the Monitor triumphed, he was picked up and taken to New York City for treatment.

In Thick of Fight

After recovering the former Confederate enlisted in the ranks of the Blue, fighting the scores of battles in several of the major encounters of the rebellion. He was in the thick of the furious fighting at Bull Run where the Union army lost 2700 men.

When General Robert Lee surrendered to General U. S. Grant at Appomattox-courthouse, April 9, 1865, Private Bates in the capacity of a non-commissioned sergeant's cook, accompanied the victor's making retreat.

In addition to compelling his own period of enlistment, the veteran served in his brother's place to save the latter from execution for desertion.

Sen At Salmon

So, Bates, through the years of residence in Carey, told of his own experiences only when urged by the four children at the Brooks home. He was active until a year ago when, advanced age confined him to his bed. A son-in-law, Bates, resides at Salmon. Mr. Bates has not been received from relatives believed to be living in the East.

In keeping with the veteran's last request, only brief military services, including a salute and burial in a flag-draped casket, will be held. Frank Boone, commander of the American Legion post of Blaine county, will be in charge of the services.

LIBBY REYNOLDS BREAKS SILENCE One-Time Star on Broadway Hopes Her Baby Some Day Will Become an Aviator

PHILADELPHIA, March 29 (AP)—Libby Holman Reynolds hopes her baby will become an aviator.

Reynolds, who for the first time since her son was born 11 weeks ago, the former Broadway "singer" said it would be the realization of a fond dream because "Southey Reynolds, his father, was a coachman and an aviator."

As for herself any intention she has to return to the stage must wait until the baby no longer needs her entire attention.

Craves "Private Life"

For the present she craves a "private life, surrounded by the peace and quiet which every baby needs."

Mrs. Reynolds met visitors at the hospital where her son still officially is recorded as "Baby Reynolds," was prematurely born January 10. His father, her 10 months, had been fatally shot in his North Carolina home six months before.

Mrs. Reynolds proudly announced that her "fair, blue-eyed giant of a child" now weighs seven pounds. He has a "nose and ears which were kept in a modified incubator."

SMITH FIGURES AGAIN IN POLITICAL GOSSIP

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP)—President Roosevelt's political maneuvering is being brought to bear on Alfred E. Smith by his friends and associates, it was learned tonight.

Smith, who is being urged to persuade him to re-enter the political arena as a candidate either for mayor of New York City or United States senator.

The office of mayor will be filled at the November election, while the office of senator will be filled by Dr. Royal B. Copeland will be the object of a ballot contest in 1934.

Smith himself, a close associate of Roosevelt, has been in contact with one of his most intimate advisors.

The Incompatibles

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—The House and Senate today were engaged in a battle over the proposed federal reserve bill. The House passed the bill on Tuesday, but the Senate has not yet acted on it.

The bill is designed to reorganize the Federal Reserve System and to give the Federal Reserve Board more power over the money supply.

The Senate has expressed concern over the bill's impact on the banking system and the public's confidence in the government.

ROSS HOLDS HIGHWAY EXPENSES TO INCOME

BOISE, March 29 (AP)—Advised today that receipts of the gasoline tax during the first months of this year had fallen about 18 per cent over the corresponding period of 1932, Governor C. Ross today declared in an interview that he expected to file the bill.

The bill would require that appropriations be made by the legislature, he said, or what estimates are made by the state auditor, and the source, we will spend only what we receive.

A significant feature of the bill is the reduction of approximately 30 per cent in the gasoline tax revenue for the year 1933 compared with the same month a year ago.

Revenue for the three months was $2,012,212 this year compared with $2,808,158 in the same month last year. Revenue for March of this year was $671,714 compared with $1,019,975 in March a year ago.

DECLAIMERS AWAIT TWIN FALLS EVENT

Representatives of South-west and Central District Meet on Platform

Annual Southwest Idaho and South Central district declaiming contest will open here Friday evening, March 31, with the one-act plays and declaiming through Saturday afternoon with representatives of the two districts in competition. The declaiming contest will be held in Lewiston, April 1 and 2.

The contest will open at 8 o'clock Friday evening in the high school auditorium with Boise and Elmerby presenting the two one-act plays of the contest. Saturday forenoon at 9 o'clock will be held the debate contest in a double debate between the Caldwell and Twin Falls teams. The first debate will match the Caldwell affirmative and the Twin Falls negative and the second, at 10 o'clock, will bring together the Caldwell negative and the Twin Falls affirmative.

Victim receives a card offering six dollars of silk stockings for $1. After sending the dollar, however, only one pair of cheap stockings is received, along with the explanation that an avalanche of orders has prevented the company from sending the other five pairs, and requesting the recipient to send the names and addresses of 10 friends who might be interested in the bargain. The remaining five pairs are never received.

He touched on recent financial upheavals of large concerns, with their relation to racketeering, and said that the cost of racketeering to the country had been approximated at from two and one-half to 12 billion dollars and was believed to total one-fourth the cost of government.

The program was arranged by Arthur E. Swain, program chairman, and presided over by Ralph Pink, president of the club.

CHAMBER'S BOARD DISAPPROVES SCRIP

Directors See No Need Here For Exchange Medium Based Upon Warrants

Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce directors see no need for use of scrip to facilitate business transactions in Twin Falls, they declared at a luncheon meeting today in the course of discussion of the subject.

Discussion dealt in particular with the proposition of issuance of scrip secured by county or school district warrants.

"Assuming that the warrants are good," Secretary Newell S. Wright said expressing the directors' opinion, "there is no reason why the warrants could not be issued in small amounts and serve every purpose that scrip would be expected to fill correctly."

WORK FOR MANY IN SUGAR BEET FIELDS

Amalgamated Company Superintendent Asks Men To Make Early Contracts

Cultivation of the Twin Falls district's biggest sugar beet crop will afford employment for many Twin Falls people during a period of some 60 days beginning in the latter part of May and ending in June. R. H. Tallman, district manager for the Amalgamated Sugar company, told Twin Falls county commissioners yesterday.

It is the policy of the Amalgamated company, Mr. Tallman said, to encourage employment of local labor, and to hold out no inducements to non-residents who already are finding the company's office with applications for work in the beet fields here.

It was Mr. Tallman's suggestion that persons intending to work in the beet fields this season should make arrangements with growers at the earliest opportunity. Persons who worked in the beet fields last year should contact that year's employers first.

Twin Falls district's 1933 beet crop, as indicated by contracts signed up to yesterday, will approximate 20,000 acres, as compared with approximately 20,000 acres last season. Actually contracted up to yesterday were 13,765 acres.

"Planting of the crop already is under way in many parts of the district," Mr. Tallman said.

A recent place on which O. L. Arn, son of B. S. Arn, Twin Falls, buried his father while living in a little town in Kansas in 1885, nearly a half century ago, showed up this week in the cash drawer at Twin Falls county recorder's office. It was disclosed this week when E. J. Finch, clerk in the recorder's office, noticed the engraving on the coin and called it to Mr. Arn's attention.

Peckinpough Expects To Succeed With Cleveland Team

Indians' Skipper Doesn't Make Any Definite Promises

Manager Stakes High Hopes On Pitching Staff and Brilliant Band of Talent

By RALPH WHEATLEY (Associated Press Staff Writer)
NEW ORLEANS, March 29.—With an infield on its feet, a complete pitching staff and a brilliant band of talent, Peckinpough expects to lead the Cleveland Indians to a winning effort in the American league pennant race.

How far up he would not venture a guess, but he believes it will be higher than last year's fourth place.

Peckinpough regards his present team as the best he ever has managed and it being the "two-year" has developed into a winning outfit at the start of the season.

He believes that he has his "big three" and the hitting-power of his men. The Indians have done some things in the past year and a half in the season series and pitching and hitting in about all that is needed to win a pennant.

Five Starting Pitchers

The five starting pitchers, Brown, Perini, Harder, Hildebrand and Hines, are expected to give the batters plenty of trouble. They will be supported by Brant, Hildebrand, Hines, and Hines.

Peckinpough, brought up from the Toledo farm, and Perini are the two big names in the Cleveland lineup. Wood, who has been developed well in camp and he will have a chance to prove his mettle in the field.

The pitchers' mound is a hotbed of society compared to the rest of the team. It is hardly any wonder that the game in that circuit because of the battles between players over jobs and money.

Cuyler Breaks Leg In Contest

Chicago's Chances of Retaining Pennant Receives One of Worst Blows

LOS ANGELES, March 29.—Chicago's chance of retaining the National League pennant received a severe blow today when Hamlin (Reddy) Cuyler, one of the fielders in the senior circuit, suffered a fracture of his right leg in an exhibition game with Hollywood.

The contest happened in the fourth inning of the contest when Cuyler was hit by a "kilt" that struck a moment as he approached the base and then stepped on the leg. He was laid a step late in the day decision, and his foot caught in the bag, giving his leg a severe fracture.

Examination at the Cedars of Lebanon hospital showed that Cuyler sustained a compound fracture of the lower end of the tibia, the smaller bone of the leg, three to four inches from the knee joint.

The Chicago manager was not prepared to say just how long it would take for Cuyler to get back to the Pacific coast league; was considered to be the logical choice.

Production cost would include a return on the investment. The surplus left after the domestic share was taken out of whatever the farmer had for sale, would be disposed of in part market by the middleman who took the farmer's crop.

Only minor changes were made to the bill by the agriculture committee, which this far has not decided the last point of whether to accept the substitute measure sponsored by Smith.

PHYSICIANS ISSUE STATEMENT PERTAINING TO OPERATION OF TWIN FALLS COUNTY HOSPITAL

Medical Men Disagree With Leasing Idea And Endorse Plan of Management Under Direction Of Nonpartisan Board, With Superintendent In Charge

A statement clarifying the attitude of physicians in Twin Falls county as to medical services, care of indigent sick and operation of the Twin Falls county general hospital, was adopted yesterday afternoon without a dissenting voice. The statement said to have been adopted by practically the entire profession of the county.

In the course of their discussion of hospitalization in their community, the physicians pointed to the inefficiencies resulting from operations in Boise, Salt Lake City and other cities. At the present time, due to economic conditions, and with records as opposed to leasing the hospital as a business enterprise, a physician is not qualified in his own profession on the grounds that the management to operate the institution to the satisfaction of this entire community.

The meeting also endorsed appointment of a nonpartisan board made up of persons of the community appointed for long terms. This management of the hospital would be a state individual, a business manager, who would be responsible directly to the board and to the public.

The statement is as follows: "The medical profession recognizes its obligation to the community to furnish information and to state its own judgment both as doctors and as substantial taxpayers. A general hospital is a public institution, self-sustaining in times of normal depression. This is true even when the truly indigent sick are paid for out of tax funds. The two general hospitals in Boise are operating at a heavy loss, although Ada county conducts a similar hospital, operating in the care of the indigent sick. The same situation exists in Salt Lake City and practically everywhere.

The only way general hospitals are ever self-sustaining is by the devoted self-sacrifice of individuals and groups of individuals. The members of Catholic hospitals are an example. The contribution of service and money made in other church hospitals is notable and necessary. Being guided furnish and maintain supplies, clothes and internal facilities furnish and maintain beds, rooms, meals and department of the hospital are endowed or otherwise supported by contribution.

"To be self-sustaining a private hospital must be in a community with enough people of adequate means to pay well for their services, and must deny its services to all others. Those others must be cared for by other institutions or allowed to die. The other way this is privately controlled hospital run by a doctor or a group of doctors can ever pay, in to use its facilities. In fact, care into the care of a certain doctor or doctors who can get enough from the professional fees so obtained to be able to meet the hospital's

Our Sunday School teacher said we ought to forget ourselves, but guess she didn't mean the little ones we can lick."

It is as much the function of society to have adequate hospital services available to the people as it is to have adequate educational institutions available, and there can be no doubt that society is obligated to care for the indigent sick and that such burden is now greater than ever before in the history of this community.

"In our own community there can be no doubt as to the necessity for hospital service, and suggestions as to how our hospital should be operated.

"The medical profession contributes gratuitously to the care of indigent sick each year as much or more than it receives for the purpose of the county from tax funds. It would be unfair to ask the doctors to assume the added burden of maintaining loss from leaving our hospital. More than being unfair, the doctors have already done so for many years at the cost of unpaid medical care that is impossible to collect.

"It is not unthinkable that if not given fair consideration by the continued maintenance of an efficient hospital, the doctors might have a choice but to unload the indigent burden they now carry onto the public.

"Hospital management is a highly specialized business, and much of it is far removed from the professional training of nurses or doctors. The best hospital managers are often recruited from hotel managers. The strictly professional work of the nursing staff is administered by the chief nurse, and the person best fitted for such work is from training and personality unlikely to be equipped to manage the other business of a hospital. The supervisor of nurses should be subordinate to the general superintendent of a hospital. To become efficient a hospital superintendent must have the experience that can only come from a continuity of service untrammelled by political interference or the whims of individual doctors or patients.

"A good hospital is as much a asset to a community as good schools, good hotels, good newspapers or good merchants. It attracts and citizens who would otherwise leave a community. It brings much outside money into a community to its hotels, restaurants, stores, auto supply merchants and many others besides the doctors, nurses and druggists.

"The ideal and reasonable and only successful way for a comparatively small community to have a hospital is to make it a community enterprise supported by every possible citizen, by individuals, by fraternal and church groups, and only as a last resort by tax funds. If the hospital has continuity of management and service to community, interest will be aroused and devoted support will result.

"Hospitals leasing cannot give as terms as to assure continuity of management and to provide any one person with the responsibility of the board of trustees. The board should function very much as a board of directors for years. They would learn the hospital business, and they would give devoted service to it. The county would pay them for the care of the indigent sick, and would an appropriate sum to them for an appropriate fund and the maintenance of the plant. If such a board were established, the hospital would become a community enterprise, would be removed of the gross and burden of politics, and would soon cease to be an appreciable tax burden.

"A hospital association could be formed among the citizens and duly chartered which would elect a board of trustees to operate the hospital. This association should attract the support of all churches, fraternal and social groups and would thereby be assured of success. It should be given the hospital either by the purchase of the property or by the lease of the same.

"What should be the plan for the immediate future of the hospital? 1. When economic conditions in our county are sufficiently favorable, some hospital organization such as many churches have, might be organized to assume the conduct of the hospital provided they were vitally furnished the plant as a gift and given a contract for the care of the indigent sick.

"What should be the plan for the immediate future of the hospital? 2. The new lay manager should be continued in his position and given an opportunity to learn the business. He should be freed from political interference in the selection of his employees, in the purchase of his supplies, and in the collection of accounts. This is a good plan. The people will soon know whether he is being allowed to use his best judgment or not.

"There should be an immediate separate conduct of the poor house activities from the hospital management.

"The hospital accounting system should be kept clearly as well as accurately.

"Plans should be definitely made for the transfer of the hospital to a nonpartisan board, a local hospital association, or some outside hospital organization.

"All proposals or bids for leasing the hospital should be carefully scrutinized, and if not clearly and only of public benefit should be rejected. In our judgment there is no need in the health idea.

"Contrary to common opinion the doctors of the county have never had a voice in the operation of the hospital. It is their opinion that the time has come when they should give their intimate knowledge of the hospital to the community at large. They are determined to protect the welfare of the patients whose lives are entrusted to them by making themselves heard in regard to the hospital.

"To lease the hospital to an individual doctor in active practice would kill it as a community benefit and would automatically prevent cooperation from the other doctors of the county which would be necessary to make it a success. The lack of cooperation would remove a large proportion of the good patients and greatly support the indigent burden on either the lease or the county.

"The entire scheme of combining the functions of the hospital and poor house is a mistake, and the poor house feature of the county's activities should be physically removed from the hospital premises.

"What should we look forward to as the future of our hospital? Different plans are possible. 1. There could be legislation requiring the county commissioners to turn over the hospital to a nonpartisan lay board appointed for special arrangements for making the lease as final details of the lease are arranged. H. B. Long, local produce dealer, returned this week from Boise, where he conferred with Harry Yost, in charge of the credit corporation loans for Idaho. Mr. Long said that Mr. Yost would be in Twin Falls to confer with local growers as soon as final arrangements for making the lease were completed. He said that money to assist fruit growers is available and would only the completion of selection blanks from many local dealers. H. B. Long said.

He expects the meeting here in be held within the next week. Meanwhile, growers may secure the application blanks from many local dealers. H. B. Long said.

OLDSMOBILE • CHEVROLET DEALER

the First Public Showing of the

NEW OLDSMOBILE 6 and 8

STYLE LEADERS FOR 1933

We take great pleasure in announcing our appointment as dealer for the Oldsmobile 6 and 8 in this community.

These two new style leaders for 1933—a roomier, more powerful Oldsmobile Six, at $745, and a larger, more luxurious Eight at $845—are now on display at our showrooms, where we cordially invite you to see them and have a demonstration!

They are entirely different from anything you ever saw. New Fisher bodies—radiators—lamps—hoods. New fenders and wheels! New rear contours—bumpers. Attractive new interior—dash—steering wheel—seats—excellent price.

And with all this style appeal, the 1933 Oldsmobiles are brilliant, dependable performers, greatly advanced in engineering. Both the 80 h.p. Six engine and the 90 h.p. Straight Eight engine are cradled in rubber with a three-point mounting of new scientific design, making these inherently smooth power plants still quieter and smoother throughout the entire speed range. Fisher No Draft Ventilation, Individually Controlled, beyond question the greatest contribution to comfort, health and safety since the introduction of the closed body, is built into all 1933 Oldsmobile closed cars.

In addition to our display of the new Oldsmobiles, we invite you to inspect our facilities for servicing Oldsmobile cars. Our service department is already stocked with genuine Oldsmobile parts and equipped with factory-approved machines and tools. In charge of expert mechanics, ensuring a high standard of prompt, efficient service. We will also continue to provide Chevrolet owners with the same complete service they have enjoyed in the past.

See the new Oldsmobiles at your earliest convenience, and arrange a trial ride for a demonstration of the balanced excellence now available in these cars, at the lowest prices in ten years—$745 and up, f. o. b. Lansing—bumpers and spare tire extra.
