IDAHO'S TEACHERS ASSEMBLE IN BOISE

State Education Association Brings Problems to Focus

BOISE, Nov. 29.—The annual session of the Idaho education association will begin here Friday morning with a few preliminary meetings of officers on the program for Thanksgiving day.

Registration was expected to total about 200, as at previous meetings, with the time of the visiting instructors considered particularly important as a session which, in effect, are critical periods in which school room teachers have been asked to address the meeting Friday morning, to be followed by the annual meeting of the association.

Dr. B. Smith of Twin Falls, "Forum" speaker, superintendent of schools, will discuss school finance at the Friday session.

Nominations for a new president, state president and members of the executive committee will be made at a Friday night meeting of the association. The election is held by mail ballot during the winter.

On Saturday morning the program will be held in the Idaho Falls Hotel, Pullman, Idaho.

WEATHER

FORECAST FOR TODAY AND TOMORROW: Fair, slightly warmer; Friday, scattered, probably rain or snow.

Temperature observations last night by The News were: 11 o'clock, 18; midnight, 15; 1 a. m., 16 degrees.

JUNIORS Praised ON LITTLE WOMEN

Beloved Characters Vividly Re-Created on Birthday Of World-Famed Writer

Placed in actual situations, some of them difficult to handle, but bathos rather than pathos; the result; interpreting their roles with sincerity, members of the junior play cast "kept faith" with their audience at the Twin Falls high school auditorium last evening when they presented "Little Women."

A capacity audience witnessed the presentation of the play, a fitting tribute to the author, Louisa May Alcott, whose novel, 101 years after her death, continues to appeal to the more sophisticated tastes of this generation. Probably three-fourths of the audience were familiar with the story, and therefore the characters lived as the manner-in-which the actors brought the beloved characters to life.

The play is an expert in role.

One named in Jo's kinship to Boston may Alcott herself, whose character was a woman struggling for recognition as an author, were similar to those of the heroine, who was a member of the church family. David Clark was Jo's father, presented as an author, struggling for recognition as an author, were similar to those of the heroine, who was a member of the church family.

SEIZED in the county jail and dragged a 100 yards away to St. James park, John M. Holmes and Thomas H. Thurmond were lynched by a mob in San Jose, California. The hanging occurred after the body of Brooks Hart, their kidnaped victim, had been found in lower San Francisco bay. The mob broke into the jail after a tear-gas bombardment failed to halt it. ### COUNTY HIGHWAY PROJECT PROPOSED

Twin Falls Mayor Suggests Widening of Road From City Limits to Hospital

Application for federal public works money to widen the highway between city limits and Twin Falls to the county general hospital was recommended to Twin Falls county commissioners yesterday by Duane McD. Johnston, Twin Falls mayor and chairman of the county city commission, which is in charge of the project was given as $30,000.

The proposed improvement would consist of widening the highway from the city limits to the hospital, a total of 1.5 miles, to 30 feet wide.

Commissioners adjourned to reconvene here next Friday.

LETTERS

Letters—containing—Christmas Seal sale was held by Mrs. Mabel Buhl in Twin Falls business house for their monthly statement, she reminded of the 100 letters, each containing $1 worth of Seal, will be mailed next Monday to homes throughout the county.

TWO YOUNG WOMEN GANGLAND VICTIMS

Bodies of Girls Who "Knew Too Much" Discovered in Shallow Roadside Grave

DOWNINGTON, Pa., Nov. 29.—(AP)—From a shallow grave scooped out in a lonely corridor, the bodies of two young women were dug today, the victims of what police described as gangland-style slaying of the girls.

The girls were identified as Florence Miller and Edith Marshall, 19 and 20 years old, respectively, and their racketeer companions, John Zuckerman and Edward (Cowboy) Wadsworth, who were shot to death in New Jersey. Wallace was shot to death; Zuckerman survived the shooting.

An iron bar, marking the three-foot deep burial place, attracted the attention of farmer Fred McLaughlin and his helper as they hiked across in the field, two miles from the scene of the slaying, near the town of Downington, about 10 miles north of Coatsville.

Freshly Dig Earth

The freshly dug earth into which the bodies had been dumped only 10 yards from the Coatsville-Downington road, aroused the farmer's interest. The bodies were found in a shallow trench about 100 feet long and 3 feet deep. A portion of a body was uncovered of earth.

LIQUOR DISTILLERS COME UNDER CODE

Brewers Win Government Consent for Unlimited Production of Beer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Liquor distillers came under a code today under federal control of the industry while brewers won government consent for unlimited plant capacity and production.

President Roosevelt signed the distillers code in Warm Springs Monday to become effective Tuesday in preparation for repeal December 6.

The code creates a federal alcohol control administration of five divisions to be appointed by president Roosevelt probably within 48 hours.

Distillers Will Not Organize A spokesman for the organization distillers for the first time said a while had no intention of organizing the new body would advise if it felt that the industry was being unfairly treated.

Meanwhile the farm administration has laid aside temporarily, at least for the time being, the proposal by the president's inter-departmental alcohol committee.

John E. Dillon, chairman of the code administration committee, assailed the brewers' proposal for posting prices, which would be set by the government.

GRATITUDE

By Rev. H. S. Will, Pastor of the Church of the Brethren and President of Twin Falls Ministerial association. O LIVER Wendell Holmes once said "There is a little plain called Gratitude in the corner of my soul's garden, which I love to have watered about once a week."

GRATITUDE

Another little plant in the soul's garden that needs occasional watering is Gratitude. That's why we have a national Thanksgiving Day—not to eat a big dinner, or provide us a holiday, or see a foot-ball game...

GRATITUDE

Gratitude is the language of the heart. It is the music of happiness. It is not dependent upon external circumstances...

GRATITUDE

Gratitude may die. How tragic to see people who "allow it to wither, permitting themselves to become morose and complaining! I rather think we all need to have it watered a bit. God, the gardener, planted it in our soul, and I know of no better way to have it watered than to go to the house of God."

GRATITUDE

May Thanksgiving Day, 1933, wherever we spend it or whatever we may do, find us a grateful people and leave us with a growing sense of gratitude.

GRATITUDE

Gratitude may die. How tragic to see people who "allow it to wither, permitting themselves to become morose and complaining! I rather think we all need to have it watered a bit. God, the gardener, planted it in our soul, and I know of no better way to have it watered than to go to the house of God."

What a break—just at this time! And they make such practical and appreciated gifts too! An exceptionally large purchase by the Penney Company to begin with . . . and one that was made nearly six months ago, before rug prices had advanced. That will explain, in part, such an amazingly low price on rugs that are made by the foremost manufacturer of fine rugs in this country! And when you see them, you'll see why, even apart from price; we say this is the year's greatest rug event! Come early! Buy them for every room in your home! Buy them for appreciated gifts.
