Funeral home there a governor, Lieutenant Governor Merriam said, "he was a distinguished and devoted son, typifying the early days of the state. He became mayor of San Francisco and later a member of the state legislature, guiding its destiny for 20 years and rebuilding it as a governor."

More loved fellow man, he devoted his life to the state's highest office, when there were numerous obstacles and problems demanding solution. His gave of his unassuming loyalty and labor which he gave to the state, a true statesman, a true friend, who gave three quarters of a century of his life in service, ceaseless labor in public service.

There was never a more devoted man, more loved fellow man, he devoted his life to the state's highest office, when there were numerous obstacles and problems demanding solution. His gave of his unassuming loyalty and labor which he gave to the state, a true statesman, a true friend, who gave three quarters of a century of his life in service, ceaseless labor in public service.

Then quietly the musician started to play "Smiles," the song of all Californians. The organist played the hymn, "Nearer My God to Thee," and the choir sang "The Star-Spangled Banner." The funeral service was held at the Rolph home tomorrow followed by burial in Greenlawn Memorial park.

Figures in Relief Program

The Salmon River reservoir, which is too low to be cleared by ditches.

Seeing this water, he said, will cost about $10,000. Adding that the expenditure will mean a saving to the 300 families of the project of $60,000 to $70,000 this year, and that much less will have to be spent for relief for their next winter.

The average beneficiary on the project includes 3000 acres of hay, 1500 acres of wheat, 500 acres of barley and 400 acres of beans.

"In addition," the governor said, "it will save their gardens and pastures."

In Day-Long Session
Relief projects are also being worked out in the Bally Creek section; in the Mud Lake district; at Roberts; along the Teton river; in Madison county, where water will be pumped from mountain lakes; in Blaine county, Bear Lake and Payette counties.

The engineering committee headed by R. W. Farris, commissioner of reclamation, will be in session all day going over projects proposed by the various counties, and expected to hold a session every day for the next several days while plans are being shaped for drought relief.

art of embroiling as a boy, instilled in him a loving son and had killed his mother, godfather a few years before he killed her.

"What I did after that I can't remember very clearly," said the youth. "I was a happy carefree boy, but I was thinking about it and I was thinking I had been able to fight that mad impulse down and if I had, I would have been a great man."

An inquest into the killings, which apparently took place early last Wednesday morning, was set for next Wednesday, when the authorities said they probably would file a specific charge against the young man.

Witnesses at the inquest will be: Deak Bergant, H. L. Grant of Huntington Beach, to whom young Payne surrendered; Dr. James T. Fisher, next door neighbor of the Paynes, whose suspicions, aroused by a light that burned day and night in the Payne home, led to the ghastly discovery, and police officers who arrested Dr. Fisher's son.

Plan Mental Examination
Examination of the youth by psychiatrist is expected to follow the arrival of his father tomorrow.

Attorney Charles V. Rude, who represented the slain woman, said that $100,000 would be needed for work relief.

"I have been miserable ever since that day," he said. "I thought I had killed an enemy. I thought I'd go up for the implementation. But my father settled a large sum of money on the mother's relatives and the courts have been so negligent operation of a motor vehicle. But I couldn't forget that I killed someone."

"But I never dreamed I'd do anything like this. Mother had always been so good to me, she never reproached me for what happened in St. Louis."

Designed primarily to curb speculation, the bill would set up a commission composed of the secretaries of agriculture and commerce and the attorney general, with broad authority to regulate speculative holdings and other practices. It also would ban "wash sales," bucket shops and other practices.

Applying in present form to wheat, cotton, rice, corn, oats, barley, rye, flaxseed, grain sorghums and mill feeds, the legislation is so drawn that poultry, lard or other commodities could be added later.

The effect is so remarkable and so simple. So smart it might just have stepped out of one of the great French dressmaking houses and so very, very flattering. It makes such a stunning model in print we hate to suggest another fabric—but it can be done—very well!

Pattern 1844 is available in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards 36-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

ADAMS-HAINES UNITED IN MARRIAGE

A pretty June wedding was solemnized Sunday morning at nine o'clock at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Moses Stearns, six hundred sixty-one Second Avenue North, uniting in marriage Elizabeth Haines of Twin Falls and E. L. Adams of Dulh. The Rev. C. E. Helman, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Pile, officiated. The bridal pair, unattended, entered the living room to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Mrs. Stearns. The couple stood beneath a luscious archway of flowers directly under two wedding bells made of white Canterbury bells and fern. On the door on each side of the arch were large baskets of fern and Madonna lilies.

The bride was dressed in white crepe and carried a shower bouquet of white and cream rose buds. She also carried a point lace handkerchief made by Mrs. Stearns and carried by her at her wedding thirty-two years ago.

A three-course wedding breakfast was served to twenty-one guests. The table was set with crystal and silver. Centering the table was a bouquet of white and cream roses in a crystal bowl with candle sticks to match holding ivory tapers. White and yellow were the predominant colors in the menu as well as in the profusion of flowers which decorated the home. During

MISSING GIRL TRACED TO BOZEMAN, MONTANA

Police were informed last night that Betty Anderson, 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Mark Bennett, 838 Fourth avenue west, had bought a ticket at the last depot in Piler for Bozeman, Montana. The girl was reported missing Sunday afternoon after she had disappeared from her home at 10:30 Friday morning.

City and county officers are co-operating in search for the girl who is described as having blue eyes, dark hair, and weighs 140 pounds. At the time she left home she was wearing a leather coat, grey stockings, while shoes and an ordinary house dress.

It was reported that the girl was wearing slacks at the time of her departure for Montana and that her hair had been dyed red.

Her mother was informed last night, but no action has yet been taken. No reason is given for the girl's sudden disappearance as Mrs. Bennett said that she believed the girl to be going to the home of a neighbor who was going to save her hair.

BOARD LAYS PLANS FOR CAMP AT BUHL

McClusky Camp Scheduled To Open June 24 for Eight Weeks

The executive board of the Twin Falls County Anti-Tuberculosis association went into session Saturday afternoon and set June 24 as the tentative opening date of the McClusky Health camp at Buhl. Miss Beulah Klabusch, filer, was named as camp superintendent and the camp is scheduled to continue for eight weeks.

It was pointed out at the meeting that no active tuberculosis cases would be accepted at the camp and that each applicant must have a certificate signed by his family physician. Fifty children will be accepted by the camp this year and $24 will be assessed each child accepted who lives outside the county. It was announced that far more applicants than could possibly be accepted had expressed their desire to enter the camp. All applications were turned over to the camp personnel committee.

Miss Bertha Ringler, Buhl, was named as instructor of the younger children and Mrs. Newell and Verne Newell, both of Buhl, will serve as cooks.

Members of the board donated fruit jars and funds for the purchase of strawberries were taken from the community chest fund. Canning of the berries will be done by women employed by the IFA. The board also intends to can cherry juice for the camp as soon as the cherry season gets well underway.

Mrs. Richard Smith, federal nurse, announced that she could secure sufficient cod liver oil for those in the camp. Improvement of the camp is being made by IFA workers.

Those attending the meeting, held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Davis in Twin Falls, were Mrs. Orr Chapman, chairman; Mrs. Roy A. Read; Mrs. A. C. Rutherford; Mrs. H. E. Davis; Mrs. Richard Smith; Mrs. O. W. Edmondson and Mrs. Maude Kuhn.

CONSTABLE'S CLAIM AT ISSUE IN TRIAL

District Court Jury Ready To Hear Story of Expensive Mishap

Suit which L. F. Morse, Twin Falls constable, brought to recover $7000 damages from the parents of two boys charged with responsibility for shooting the constable in the left arm on June 1, last year, will be tried in the district court here yesterday. Selection of the jury was completed at 11 o'clock. Judge Adam B. Barclay of Jerome, presiding, ordered drawing of 12 additional jurors to replace those who had been excused from the regular panel, and proceedings recessed until today after W. Orr Chapman of Chapman and Chapman, attorneys for the constable, made his opening statement.

On the theory that the parents were negligent in permitting the boys, Jack Long, 17, and Carl Lowe, 16, to fire a rifle in a populated area, a half-mile east of the northeast corner of town, where the accident occurred, the constable is asking the parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Long and Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Lowe, to pay the $7000 damage bill, which includes $400 actual cost of medical attention.

Interrogation of candidates for the jury indicated defense attorneys purpose to stress individual responsibility of the accused boys. During the selection of the jury, one venireman was excused for cause; two were excused by the plaintiff; and one by the defendants, on peremptory challenges.

Ray D. Acee and Frank L. Stephenson and J. H. Blandford are attorneys for the defendant parents.
