The pact was signed tonight after all problems of Panama in the country had been closed for the day so that all provisions of the new act, and minor changes in tariffs involving approximately 50 products, could go into effect simultaneously tomorrow at all ports of entry.

Eagles Separate

HELENA, Mont.—The Blue Eagle today is split into two camps as it goes to sever relations with the White Eagle.

Miles Romney, state NRA director, received notice from Washington today to remove the insignia of the White Eagle from all Great Falls products.

"Under the 1930 tariff act," he pointed out, "the eagle symbol was used by many countries as a device to impose a higher duty was imposed on articles from any country which imposed a higher tariff than that designated in the act on similar American articles."

The new act automatically repealed those provisions for excess duties on goods imported from above the basic tariff on automobile vehicles

SENATE APPROVES GRAZING MEASURE

Bill Vesting Control in Interior Department Returns to House

WASHINGTON, June 12 (AP)—The Senate passed today the Taylor Grazing bill without a recorded vote after three days of debate, which was punctuated with a speech by Senator McCarran (Dem., Nev.), at a filibuster.

Representative Taylor (Dem., Colorado), author of the bill, and Representative De Haven (Dem., Louisiana), chairman of the house public lands committee, said they planned to move expeditiously in the Senate amendments when the bill reaches the house tomorrow. Such action would prevent the possibility of the bill dying in conference through failure of committees from the two branches of congress to reach an agreement prior to adjournment.

The filibuster threat petered out when an amendment the Nevada senator had offered was withdrawn and accepted by the managers of the bill. It provided that renewal of grazing permits could not be denied if denial would affect the value of livestock units of permits which had been pledged as security for bona fide loans.

Meets Bank's Objective

The McCarran amendment was designed to remove sections of farm loan banks to the making of long term loans to Nevada livestockmen, and was the only important amendment other than those proposed by the senate public lands committee, to be adopted on the floor.

When the senate, the bill was changed in several important particulars from the form in which it was adopted. However, were known to have been made with the approval of the interior department.

Spokes of the bill

Bills similar to the Taylor bill have been before congress for 123 years. This session the administration has the full weight of its qualified support behind the measure, designed to set up control of the remaining unappropriated public domain.

The bill would vest control of the public domain to the interior department, and would prevent the granting of grazing permits to livestockmen without the approval of the secretary of the interior.

ask just what action I will take but I am going to get this port open."

The mayor demanded that ship operators and longshoremen, selected from each to appear at his office at 10 a. m. tomorrow to effect an immediate strike settlement.

Calls Conference

Mayor Angelo Rossi of San Francisco also called a conference to reach a settlement if possible on the disputed issue of who should operate the hiring halls or employment agencies at either point of the strike, which began May 21.

President J. W. Mallard, Jr., of the San Francisco chamber of commerce, made public a letter he sent today to President John F. Forbes of the United Association of San Francisco, summarizing the dire results of the strike and asking the latter to call on the union to sponsor a solution to the situation.

"The strike has cost San Francisco millions of dollars," Mallard wrote. "Today not a truck is moving on the waterfront. Approximately $10,000,000 worth of merchandise lies on docks, in warehouses and in the holds of 96 ships stalled here by the strike. Freight entering the port for the first month of the strike was less by $600,000 tons, worth approximately $400,000, than in the month preceding the calling of the strike. Meanwhile, shipping that belongs to San Francisco is being diverted to Los Angeles where the port has been kept open."

The people of this city cannot be left longer at the mercy of a handful of radicals who are paralyzing our industry, our commerce, our present and our future as a great seaport and our very security."

Step - Mother Faces
$10,000 - Suit - Filed
By 11-Year-Old Girl

ATLANTA, June 12 (AP)—An 11-year-old girl today filed suit for $10,000 against her step-mother of three days charging alienation of her father's affections.

The suit was brought by Martha Louise Bridwell through a "next friend," her mother, Mrs. Louise Bridwell, and seeks $10,000 damages. Mrs. Louise Bridwell, who now, says the suit, is on a honeymoon with the girl's father, MAX M. Bridwell.

The petition charges that Martha Louise, until she was about five years old, enjoyed the "love, affection and support" of her father but that he gradually abandoned them. The petition further charges that her step-mother was responsible for the abandonment.

Mrs. Louise Bridwell obtained a final decree of divorce in 1932.

Traces Of Rain In Mountain Regions

A large area of rather low pressure covers the interior west. It is attended by abnormally warm weather in much of the plateau and Rocky mountain region, and has caused local showers in open Nevada, and traces of rain in Idaho, Montana and Wyoming. Another low pressure area peaking off the middle Atlantic coast has produced fairly heavy local thunderstorms in the region. Fair weather and moderate temperatures prevail in the middle states.

"Under One Blue"

Veterans of the Civil war, western of the blue uniform of the United States Army, assembled at the annual camp program last evening at Legion Memorial hall, following the convention banquet and parade, and swapped yarn on the famous battles of the Civil war. No Confederate veterans were present. The martial music, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Tenting Tonight," and "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp" brought back vivid memories of the struggle of the nation from 1861 to 1865.

In addition to reminiscences of the veterans the camp fire program, directed by James Reynolds, included Invocation, Command E. A. Padlock; salute and pledge to the flag; Boy Scouts; vocal selection, James Reynolds; Camp Fire ritual and song, members of the W. T. M. A. Chick and Tillium Camp Fire girls; tableaux, "The Old Spinning Wheel," Curtis Leighton and Blanche Gwert; dance, Betty Yarrhough; selections by the harmonica band of St. Edwards Catholic school; symbolic Indian dance, Rhoda Phillips; and acrobatic selections.

Delegation Banquet

Harry Benoit, Idaho's national committee chairman for the American Legion, presided as toastmaster at the convention banquet, of which Mrs. Ida Sweet was general chairman. Rev. E. A. Padlock pronounced the invocation, and Russell C. Wright, secretary of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, gave the address of welcome. Toasts were given by Jeremiah Williams, assistant director of the Grand Army; Anna Stieglitz, Payette, president of the Women's Relief Corps; Laura Greig, president, Dan McCook circle, Ladies of the O. A. U.; Mrs. Pearl Evans, Daughters of Union Veterans; Musical numbers included community singing, "America," piano selection, Althia Everett; violin solo, Lou Anderson; dance, "Mighty Lat a Rose," Rhoda Phillips, and harp selections, Mrs. Miriam D. Regan. Mrs. Hazel Leighton introduced the acrobatic team.

Today's events will include a picnic dinner to be served at noon in the city park, following the joint installation of officers, and a delegate drive to several points of interest in this district.

Social Events

Yesterday's social events, in addition to the banquet, included the Betty Ross luncheon, attended by 30 past department and past circle presidents of the Legion of the Grand Army of the Republic, at the Rogers hotel, presided over by Ida M. Ballantyne, president. Patriotic colors were featured in the decorations. Officers elected were Lou Blaisell, Weiser, president; Lulu Severns, Hansen, vice president; Hazel Leighton, Twin Falls, patriotic instructor; Rachel Baldwin, Boise, chaplain; Ida M. Ballantyne, Twin Falls, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. D. E. Regan was in charge of the musical program which included violin selections by Melchiora Jensen, accompanied by Miss Joan Jensen; tenor solo, Pat Daly, accompanied by Mrs. Regan; and harp solo, Mrs. Regan.

Given Recognition

have exploded. He asserted further that the chemicals in no way contributed to the fire that swept the wreckage of the plane, since the vials containing them were found intact.

After further examination of the victims' bodies, Dr. Bourke told newspapermen there had been no explosion in the ship but was still unable to say whether it had been caused by gasoline or another agent.

The coroner based his conclusion on the fact that all the bodies except one had been evaporated. He said this was evidence of an explosion having taken place, although the coroner's jury carried over might produce the same result on the bodies.

Dr. Bourke held to the explosion theory definitely, however, because one body, which was not seriously burned, also had been evaporated.

The coroner declared Bennett had questioned him closely as to whether any bodies, possibly carried over, had been found. He declared no details on the nature of the inquiry had been given him.

That's why we are holding an inquiry," he added, "because we have no information that we can't get in any other way."

He said tomorrow's inquiry would be adjourned unless chemists were available to identify the chemical crystals found in Bader's luggage.

Navy Looks Information
In Washington, navy department officials said they had no knowledge that anything of special interest to the navy was aboard the plane.

Meanwhile, another factor of the investigation developed.

In Newark, N. J., where the plane took off for Chicago, County Prosecutor William J. Washburn declared he had asked the commonwealth department investigators for a complete report.

While saying he had no information that the plane was not in good condition on the take-off, the prosecutor declared he wanted to assure himself there was no criminal negligence.

The bodies of two other Buffalo passengers, W. P. Whaley and Harold Coppins, were claimed today and will be returned to their homes tomorrow. That of the fourth passenger, Harry Finney, New York, had been taken to New York and prepared for burial in Chicago.

The three others killed were the crew of the plane: Clyde Hubbard, a noted aviator with World War service; John Barron, co-pilot; and Miss Ada Huckerby, stewardess.

terprises injuriously affected; consumers are asked to exercise their power that seems to demand recognition inquiry on even greater grounds than those of economic justice." The report said there was a change in the trade compact on advertising which "of course humps all the life and validity out of the original intention and leaves it limp and meaningless to Johnson."

"As to the authorship of the change that overthrew the hopes of hundreds of thousands of conscientious business men, we are left in the dark," the report said. "On November 4, the administrator of the National Recovery Act said this: 'I myself wrote the worst inaccuracies into the retail code before the president had signed it. I did it on my own responsibility.'"

Of other changes in the retail code, it said: "It is a matter of public concern to know how and by whom codes thus prepared for public protection and the welfare of industry are in this shabby manner ruined. As to the least of these changes, the record leaves to us no doubt; the others are matters for surmise."

"Turning to a discussion of an institute in the cement industry, the report said: "The function of this device had been inadequate attention. It appears to operate in each industry as a kind of slowing motion of the government where the greater unit can manage, dominate and have these will over the weaker."

The report discussed public ownership of natural resources in connection with the petroleum code, administered by the alteration of interior instead of NRA, and recommended enactment of the "Roosevelt bill" to make permanent the provisions of the temporary oil code.

"The report spoke of the 'assumed prerogative' of oil producers and added: "Since they did not put petroleum under the tariff, and it is not there, but belong to the public, and since it has become a virtual universal necessity, there is as much reason to recognize their right to control it as there would be to allow them to control the supply of air or sunshine or to monopolize the use and navigation of the Hudson river."

RELIEF FUNDS FOR WOMEN'S SCHOOLS

FERA Administrator Announces New Phase of Government Activities

BOISE, June 12 (AP)—F. H. Horrell, FERA administrator, announced today that funds may be obtained now by Idaho for establishing schools and educational camps for unemployed women. The location of the schools tented by J. W. Condit, state superintendent of education, is being discussed. Horrell said that the schools would be located in the state capital, Boise, and in other parts of the state.

Funds will be available for immediate use, Horrell said. The schools will be in general charge of the educational program, and W. W. Garton of Boise will be the supervisor.

An advisory committee, whose functions are to review personnel applying for staff positions, to keep in touch with employment opportunities for women and to act as a reviewing committee in advance of the schools, has been appointed by J. W. Condit, state superintendent of education, who is to be the chairman.

Others on the committee include Mrs. C. Ben Ross, major M. H. Quisenberry, CDD commandant for southern Idaho, and C. L. Harlow, representing the Idaho Grange and Mrs. J. K. Hadley, representing the Idaho State Federation of Labor. Requirements for eligibility of candidates specify that they must be unemployed, and eligible for relief, must manifest genuine interest in an educational program and must be in good health, physically and mentally. The schools, Horrell said, are to promote social usefulness of individuals by providing health education and recreation, training and home management, vocational and avocational guidance, stimulation of interest in social and economic conditions, and to develop a sense of responsibility for their situation.

Southeastern Idaho Road Contracts Let

BOISE, June 12 (AP)—J. C. Campbell, company of McMillan, Ore., submitted a bid of $43,967.50 for surfacing 8.17 miles of Bear Lake highway between Montpelier and Paris, and 3.36 miles of the Grace-Trail highway between Alexander and Drury. It was announced tonight at the office of J. M. Stiemmer, state director of highways. The award will be made tomorrow. Determination of the low bidder virtually decided what contractor will receive the contract.

William Hoopes and Robinson Construction company of Twin Falls submitted a bid of $44,010, and Olaf Nelson of Logan, Utah, offered to do the work for $44,309.45. Morrison-Rundeen company and the Triangle Construction company, both of Boise, bid $48,896.92 and $49,011, respectively.

The engineer's estimate was $39,033.45. Both are federal aid projects.

His death was blamed for his act.

OREGON GRANGERS STRESS CROP USE

State Master Advises More Thought of Increased Consumption

ROSEBURG, Ore., June 12 (AP)—Abolition of the lower house of the Oregon legislature, imposition of heavier taxes on the wealthy and local option by prohibition in control of liquor, was urged by Ray W. Gill, Portland, master of the Oregon Grange, as he opened the first convention of the State Grange here today.

About 1300 delegates and visitors were here for the convention, which will end Friday night.

The need of increased consumption rather than the curtailment of farm products was stressed by Gill in his address. He urged for more aggressive action for cooperative marketing.

In touching on the agricultural adjustment act and the national recovery act, the Grange master declared that while crop marketing must be had, farmers of America cannot be forced to submit to regulation of their crops.

The problem, he stated, must be approached from another angle. He said much can be accomplished by withdrawing margins and sub-subsiding from cultivation, but I am convinced we have been thinking too much about crop reductions rather than increased consumption.

Rose Festival and Canadian Veterans Enliven Portland

PORTLAND, June 12 (AP)—The beauty of the rose and the spirit of peace and friendship between Canada and the United States were stressed last night at Portland's rose festival, and the annual convention of the British Columbia command of the Canadian Legion continued.

Flaps fluttered above throngs moving through streets banked with thousands of yards of burning and bedecked with bouquets and baskets of roses.

Trin in their blue and white uniforms, authors from U. S. S. cruiser San Francisco added color to the busy streets.

This is the first time any Canadian legion group has held its convention outside its domain.

Also in the line this time the annual convention of the British Columbia command of the Canadian Legion continued.

The Rev. E. C. Johnson, of Tacoma, was named president of the American Rose society, although he was unable to attend because of illness.

Vico Motor Oil Proves Superior In Rigid Tests

Content Reveals Many Remarkable Records By Quality Lubricant

Cars that have gone more than 84,000 miles without having the crankcase rebuilt, motors that have delivered 150,000 miles without requiring the addition of any oil between rebuilds, that have gone 100,000 miles without having valves ground; buses with as many as 700,000 miles service and still going strong! These are typical experiences reported by users of Vico motor oil in the contest held during May.

The subject of the contest was "How Vico is giving my car economical lubrication." So many remarkable records were submitted that the judges had a difficult task in selecting the winners. Finally they had to base their decisions almost entirely on the basis of length of service and mileage records.

Some of the participants reported extra gasoline mileage from their cars when lubricated with Vico.

With each copy of "Fishing Hints"—free of course—comes a contest card. The book itself will help you fill your car. For it gives valuable suggestions—compiled by experienced anglers. Two Deaths Charged To Poisonous Spider

SALT LAKE CITY, June 12 (AP)—The poisonous Black Widow spider was blamed for two deaths today, here and another at Winston, Mississippi.

William Russell, a mill worker of Bauer, Utah, died last week of what was then thought to be blood poisoning from a small blister on his foot. His physician today had decided the "blister" in reality was the wound caused by the bite of the spider, several of which had been found about the Russell home.

The "spider bite" death was that of the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell, Johnsons of Vaden. The child was bitten on the wrist Friday and died in a hospital today.

Ralph A. Drake, M. D., of 223 S. Shoshone North, Phone 128, advised.

Bellevue-Ketchum Road Bids Called

BOISE, June 12 (AP)—A call for bids on grading and bituminous surfacing of 17.13 miles of Sawtooth Park highway between Bellevue and Ketchum in Blaine county was issued at the office of J. H. Stiemmer, director of highways, here today.

Sealed bids, it was announced, will be received at the office of the commissioner of public works, O. E. McElvey, in Boise until 2 p. m. June 22.

The project will virtually complete the surfacing of an arterial highway connecting at Twin Falls with the Old Oregon Trail and extending to the scenic Sawtooth mountains playground for many youth (cabins and tourists during the summer months).

The project must be completed earlier by August 1, the call indicated.

Farmers May Plant Any Crop Desired On Abandoned Beet Land

BOONVILLE, Neb., June 12 (AP)—Beet growers who abandon their land may plant any crop they desire without interference from the government, it was announced under the crop reversion plan.

R. O. Turvill, assistant secretary of agriculture, yesterday notified A. E. Wierick, president of the Nebraska Beet Growers' association.

"There is no production control program on 1934 sugar beet acreage," Turvill's telegram said. "Therefore growers with past performance records can plant abandoned acreage in any crop they desire, without interference of benefit payments."

It was indicated here that under this ruling a great deal of beet land, where crop outlook is uncertain because of water shortage, will be planted to potatoes. This is virtually the only cash crop which can be planted so late in the year.

Colonel F. C. Blumenthal, commandant, announced G. H. Brown, first sergeant, said that the day has been set for June 21 when a review of the maneuvers will be held with Governor C. Ben Ross participating.

No accidents resulting in injuries were reported today.

A delicious seasoning for soups, stews, all meat and poultry dressings all the year around.

In the contest just completed, facts and figures came to light about Vico lubricated cars that have gone as far as 700,000 miles, and are still going strong! Records of 100,000 miles and more are common with cars, trucks and buses using this motor oil.

We cordially thank everyone who participated in the contest.

Here is the First-Prize Winner for the Final Week

"On September 6, 1932, I purchased a new Ford coach. I have never used anything but Vico oil since. I still have the same car have driven it 188,000 miles and it still drives like new. I had the valves ground at 10,000 miles and the pan has never been off the car since. None of the bearings were touched when the valves were ground."

COUNCILMEN VOTE TO TABLE PROTEST

Flusher to Stay Purchased
Despite Kicks From Five Bidders

Motion to "not reconsider" the purchase of a new city truck and street flusher, tank from the Barnard Auto company, was unanimously passed by Twin Falls city council, Monday night and the signed protests of five disappointed bidders were tabled.

The protests, presented to each member of the council last Wednesday, were formally read at the meeting and Mayor Dumas and Johnston made the motion which brought the matter to a close. The dealers charged that the action of the mayor and city council in attempting to purchase a truck different from that called for by the specifications is unfair, unreasonable and unjust, insofar as this objector is concerned.

Before any action was taken on the protests, the mayor said: "The motion to be adopted is to follow up this protest. Well, the authority to purchase the truck and flusher unit was given by this council to Street Commissioner Jim Johnston and the purchase was made on the recommendation of a committee appointed to investigate the situation."

At first the mayor called for a yes or no vote on the proposition, but after city attorney George Paulson intervened, he moved that the council do not reconsider the purchase of the truck and flusher unit.

The motion was unanimously passed. I. G. Prescott was awarded the bid for removal of city garbage when he submitted a low bid of $125 per month. There were three other bidders for the contract. An ordinance was passed under suspension of the rules which gave the Oregon Short Line the right to run a single track spur switch across Athol street in conjunction with the new city truck lane. Police Officer E. R. Reed reported that there were 32 arrests during the month of May and that there were 256 complaints investigated. Sixty-five dollars was taken in from fines and of the arrests two were for violation of city ordinances, five for violation of traffic ordinances, seven for drunkenness and nine for misdemeanors or felonies.

BARNARD COMPANY BEGINS EXPANSION

Automobile Concern Doubles
Floor Space With Extensive Remodeling

Doubling floor space in an expansion move to occupy quarters at 10x125 feet in dimensions at the corner of Second avenue and Second street east, the Barnard Auto company, Nash, Chrysler and Plymouth cars dealer, has secured the Dandeland pavilion adjoining its present quarters and has begun remodeling of both buildings. Cost of the improvement has been estimated at approximately $10,000. Under general direction of E. E. Blorling, workmen have begun reconstruction of the two structures which when completed will afford one of the most modern and best appointed automobile sales and service establishments in this region. P. R. Thompson, building contractor, has begun remodeling at the rear of both buildings, which spaces are to be occupied by the service department. Decorative and other workmen will carry on the work as the remodeling proceeds. A new front of white stucco is to be constructed with a canopy extending out over the walk on the Avenue side.

Sales rooms and offices are to be accommodated in the new portion, opening from a driveway that is to be cut through the corner of the building. Expansion plans, now under way, have been contemplated for several months, W. H. Barnard, owner of the business, said yesterday.

Wallace Rescinds Processing Tax on Large Cotton Bags

WASHINGTON, June 12 (AP)—The farm administration today abandoned one group of processing (APR) and at the same time it rescinded the wheat processing tax which would continue at the present rate of 30 cents a bushel.

Secretary Wallace signed a certification terminating the processing tax on large size cotton bags, the compensating tax on jute fabric used in the manufacture of bags and the compensating tax on paper used in the manufacture of large paper bags.

The compensating tax on paper used in the manufacture of paper bags and the compensating tax on paper bags also was adjusted by modification.

Defining the definition of such paper, Potato, onion and other truck crop farmers urged the changes, contending the jute tax was a contribution by them to benefit payments made to cotton farmers and that the tax was unjust.

Official notice of continuation of the wheat processing tax at the present rate will be made within a short time officials said. Action has been brought in recent weeks since wheat prices climbed to the 11 mark to persuade the administration to reduce the tax to 25 or even 20 cents a bushel.

Abandonment of the jute tax does not apply to floor stocks of bags already manufactured and complaints were received almost immediately by the administration on this point.

MINISTERS SAVE YOUTH'S PAROLE

Liberty to Inter-
cession

Sentenced on a misdemeanor charge of attacking a man and his wife at Kimberly last May 5 after previously being convicted and sentenced to a 1-to-15-year prison term for burglary at Kimberly last September 27, Eugene Copeland, 18-year-old Kimberly youth, owes his continued liberty under parole to the intercession of two Methodist ministers, Rev. Mackey J. Brown of Twin Falls and Rev. Theodore Martin of Kimberly.

Concluding a twice previously postponed hearing on the prosecuting attorney's application for cancellation of Copeland's parole, District Judge W. A. Babcock yesterday denied the prosecutor's application and continued the parole.

In support of the prosecutor's application, an affidavit by the sheriff of Twin Falls, Copeland, said he had failed to make required reports and had not remained a good citizen nor refrained from the use of intoxicating liquor.

COMPLAINT AGAINST RABBITS NOT FILED

Petitioners Fail to Take
Legal Action Protesting Bunies

No complaint has yet been signed by petitioners with the neighborhood of 528 Fourth avenue north against the so-called "offensive rabbits" that are housed on premises of that address, City Attorney George Paulson said last night.

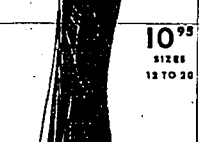

Eleven rats petitioners against the housing of the rabbits within the city limits appeared before Twin Falls city council Monday night with a continuation of their protest against the rabbits. Paulson informed them at that time that a complaint would have to be drawn up and signed and that the matter would have to be taken up in court.

J. M. Dimond, city sanitary inspector, investigated the matter following the first protest and reported that no nuisance existed. Petitioners describe the raising of "some 400 rabbits" as a nuisance in that the odor is unbearable and that flies are an unsanitary evil in the community. Butchers of the rabbits was also strongly protested.

A new Fisher body type for five passengers furnished in the deluxe manner and equipped with a smart spacious streamline trunk built in at the rear

PEOPLE who have an eye for handsome lines will admire the way the spacious trunk merges into the body lines. The long streamlined sweep sets this car apart in any company. controlled brakes; and all the rest—is mounted a body that combines full five-passenger capacity, the luxury of custom cars, and the convenience of exceptional luggage space. There is no crowding in this smart car—Fisher craftsmen have provided plenty of leg room and elbow room. And there are more de luxe touches than we have space to tell about. If appearance and convenience come first with you, and you wish to stay in the low-price field—here, beyond a doubt, is your car.
