NEW YORK POLICE
ENTER SEARCH FOR
AGNES TUFTVERSONAuthorities Seek Messages
Which May Have Been Sent by Ivan Poderjy
During Mysterious Visit

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 19.—The search for Agnes Tufterson, missing bride of Ivan Ivanovich Poderjy, swain of many women, turned abruptly again to New York today from London and Vienna as the police here started a renewed attempt to locate the Detroit-New York woman lawyer.

Police subpoenaed all cable and wireless messages which the Yugoslavian adventurer may have sent or received during mysterious visit here last fall and winter. Assistant Chief Inspector John J. Sullivan would not say whether the search here on such a systematic scale, but promised important developments within a few days. The police also considered with the district attorney's office, legal advisers, how to proceed in the case of Poderjy from Vienna, where he is now in jail.

Now in Jail Charge
The detective division, which must act quickly, as Vienna has refused to allow Poderjy to leave indefinitely without a charge against him, was reported to have secured the district attorney's consent to an indictment against Poderjy for grand larceny on June 19, 1934, for the alleged theft of a diamond necklace and other valuables.

Efforts are still being centered on piecing together details of Miss Tufterson's movements in New York prior to Poderjy's sailing December 22.

A subpoena was issued for the business firm of Brown Brothers and Harriman to produce any and all records which they may have that would show Poderjy's stock in the Chase National Bank or the Commonwealth and Southern Corporation.

The district attorney's office announced the inquiry was being made as to Poderjy's whereabouts if any of them had belonged to Miss Tufterson, said it they had been taken to him by Poderjy, but name.

A check of baggage records, police reported, has established that Poderjy entered New York with one trunk but that when he left on the Olympic he had four trunks and six pieces of hand baggage. It was also established that two of the four trunks he took with him were those of Agnes Tufterson, and the fourth was purchased here by him.

The check determined further that Poderjy permitted three of the trunks to be stored in the locker of his hotel, but that he kept one in his baggage.

ROOSEVELT SIGNS
BILL CALLING FOR
SILVER PURCHASEGovernment Required to Buy
1,300,000,000 Ounces
Of Metal, According to Estimate by Experts

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 19.—The Roosevelt administration tonight extended its new monetary policy into another field with the signature by the president of the Pittman silver purchase bill.

The measure directs buying of the metal by the treasury until it comprises 25 per cent of the nation's metallic monetary stocks.

Mr. Roosevelt invited Senator Frank D. Rowan, whose name the bill bears; Chairman Doughton (D-N.C.) of the house ways and means committee; Senator King (D-Kan.), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee; and others active in drafting the legislation to witness his signature of the bill.

The chief executive delayed signing until the exchanges were closed. Simultaneously Guy T. Hoberg, commissioner of internal revenue, promulgated regulations concerning the transfers of interests in silver bullion to carry out the purposes of the silver purchase act.

Treasury experts have estimated that the purchase of approximately 1,300,000,000 ounces of silver will be required to reach the 25 per cent goal.

The department estimates its present stocks of silver bullion and the silver coin in circulation are about 700,000,000 ounces, 12 per cent of the metallic monetary stocks.

A group of Western senators who deeply held out for silver action, however, are disappointed that the bill is not the most significant measure in the monetary field.

Others, however, including Senator Thomas (D-Calif.), said the bill would have little effect in accomplishing their primary aim of optional inflation.

Conservative Alarm
Midway between the two groups were the conservative Republicans who viewed it as another alarming move away from the orthodox gold standard abandoned by the Roosevelt administration.

The bill has inflationary possibilities. The treasury is directed to money aid certificates equal to the money spent in the purchase program.

BOISE JAIL BREAKThree Armed Men on Duty
Following Discovery
Of Escape Plot

BOISE, June 19.—Two armed Ada county jailers and a deputy sheriff, were standing guard over Walter D. Smith, 35, western desperado, in the Ada county jail here tonight, following Smith's attempt to saw his way out of his cell.

He and an alleged accomplice in crime, Homer Frank, are awaiting trial in Third district court here June 23 on charges of burglarizing two Boise business houses.

Both men were apprehended in Reno, Nevada, about two months ago and returned here.

Smith, described by Ada jailers as a former inmate of Alcatraz Island, Mexico Island and Nevada penitentiaries and the Idaho state prison, had sawed through two of the three heavy hinges on his cell door.

He was taken to the prison by Deputy Joe Anderson who was taking food to the prisoners.

Smith escaped, they said, from the Idaho prison and was apprehended in St. Paul, Minn., during a holdup.

For example, if the treasury paid $500,000,000 for silver, it is estimated that it would cost $1,300,000,000 to buy the same amount of silver.

But the time for the silver purchases was left entirely in the hands of the treasury.

Labor Secretary
Roosevelt Agent
In Steel DisputePresident Names Woman Cabinet Member as Negotiator Between Mill Owners and Workers; Signs New Law

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 19.—President Roosevelt, in two swift strokes, today sought to meet the immediate problem of a threatened steel strike and to be prepared for potential troubles elsewhere in industry.

He named his secretary of labor, Frances Perkins, to serve as a negotiator between the steel mill owners and those workers who have threatened to strike over collective bargaining.

He signed into law a bill allowing him to set up a national board and regional adjuncts to investigate issues between employer and employee arising out of the controverted labor provision of the recovery act.

The designation of Perkins came in a conference with the president, Miss Perkins, international officers of the Amalgamated Coal and Iron Workers and William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Executive Answer
Mike F. Tigh, international president of the Amalgamated Coal and Iron Workers, who was accompanied by Green, went to the White House to request Perkins to be named as a negotiator between the three men, impartial board, plan proposed by Green at a Pittsburgh meeting on "Arbitration" which approved the proposal.

Mr. Roosevelt's answer was a formal statement that he had named Perkins as the secretary of labor every detail of the proposal made by the Amalgamated. He added:

"It is my hope that some method will be found to settle the points that are in controversy and to preserve orderly conditions without resorting to any strike or lockout."

President Takes
Time With Bills

Executive Indicates Some
Measures May Be Signed
On Shipboard

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Five important bills and scores of minor measures tonight awaited President Roosevelt's signature after the presidential yacht left the White House for the Chesapeake Bay.

The signing of some of them may be delayed, at least as far as the time remaining to the president before he leaves the White House is concerned, for some of the measures will be carried along the coast on the cruise to the Chesapeake Bay.

Today most of them were scattered about the various departments or study by experts and routing recommendations—yes or against presidential approval.

But the presidential yacht sailed to pick him up in New England later in the week, the president is expected to sign the bills on the ship.

The measure authorizes the president to name boards to settle strikes and to report to the president on the progress of the work of the boards.

Of these Miss Harlow and Roosevelt separated several weeks ago and speculation has arisen at Washington that the actress had been romantically involved with some other man, no divorce action has been filed.

The actress is Miss Harlow's third husband. Her first was Charles F. McGraw, director of the film industry, who was married to her in 1927.

Paul Bern, film executive who committed suicide a few months after their wedding.

MARINE WORKERS REDUCE DEMANDS

Strikers Willing to 'Recede Somewhat' in Effort to Settle Dispute

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19 (AP)—Striking marine workers told Mayor Angelo Rossi today they would "recede somewhat" from their original demands to facilitate speedier settlement of the strike of 27,000 Pacific coast workers as preparation was made for opening the port of Seattle, Tacoma and Portland to commerce.

Fifty members of the joint committee, headed by Harry Bridges, met with Mayor Rossi for three hours and then asked him to arrange a conference with employers on the following basic fundamentals:

- 1—Absolute assurance and protection against discrimination of any character whatsoever or blacklisting of union or strike activities.
- 2—Joint settlement for all unions in future strikes.

Mrs. Chapman Explains Re- quirements for Children Entering McClosky

Parents of children applying for admission to McClosky Health Camp are asked to read the following announcement, issued by Mrs. W. O. Chapman, Twin Falls county Anti-Tuberculosis chairman:

"The camp will open July 1 instead of June 24, a much longer time than it is to be built with 1934 assistance. The project has been approved but the work has not yet started.

"The waivers and application blanks must be signed by the parent or guardian before a child will be accepted.

"The physical examination should be given by a physician who should fill out that part of the history sheet. These should accompany the above application blank and should be sent to the camp chairman in your section.

"Physical defects, such as infected tonsils and bad teeth, must be corrected so that the child will have a chance to gain and retain his gain. These corrections should be noted on the history sheet.

"Children should also be immunized against diphtheria and tetanus. An epidemic in camp would be a dreadful thing.

"These details must be attended to and the informed last night and chairman, Mrs. Chapman, not later than Monday, June 25."

D. LANDRETH SEED PLANT MOVES HERE

Offices Located in Filer

For 14 Years Transferred to Twin Falls

The Twin Falls seed plant of the D. Landreth Seed company, for 14 years located at Filer, is being moved to Twin Falls this week to the new building at 2000 N. Main.

Hicks said that between 30 and 40 plants will be employed in the new building and that seeds, especially peas and beans, would be handled exclusively. At the present time an extensive program of remodeling and renovating is under way at the new location. In addition to the girls at the plant, Hicks said there will be seven regularly employed men at work.

Contracted by the D. Landreth Seed company is this year celebrating its 150th anniversary and is the oldest seed house in America, having served the public for five generations, covering three centuries. The firm was founded by David Landreth in Bristol, Pennsylvania, in 1774.

The plans will give Twin Falls the headquarters of the western area for the company. Hicks said the change in location was due to the cramped space in the Filer plant.

GEYSER BREAKS OUT TO SNOWER HOMES

Water Main Crack Submerges Lots on Third Avenue East

A phenomenal geyser burst from the street in the 800 block on Third avenue east at approximately 11:15 o'clock this morning and threatened to thoroughly bathe an entire neighborhood. Another water main had broken.

A gusher of water about a foot in width and four feet in length sprayed to a height approximating 75 feet and washed down the roof of the house directly across the street. The front yards of the residences were submerged in virtually a foot of the city filtered fluid. Most of the soaking took place at the homes of A. O. Martin and Bert Wilson with the Martin home getting the least the worst of the deal.

The police station was notified at 11:20 o'clock and J. M. Dimond, superintendent of streets and waterworks, was immediately informed of the break. However, at 2 o'clock residents reported no water works men had arrived and the houses continued to receive their unexpected bath.

The pressure gauge of the city waterworks department and three o'clock residents reported no water works men had arrived and the houses continued to receive their unexpected bath.
