PARADE OF WOMEN FIGURES IN HUNT FOR MISSING BRIDE

Three Countries Join in Tracing Record of Ivan Ponderjey, Held-as-Murder Suspect in Vienna

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 22.—
Scotland Yard was asked to-night to locate the two witnesses to the marriage of Ivan Ponderjey and Miss Susanne Ferrand in March, 1933, nine months before Ponderjey's second bride, Agnes C. Tufterson, mysteriously disappeared.

If the witnesses consent to appear in New York, Captain John H. Ayres of the missing person bureau said, charges of perjury will be filed against Ponderjey. It is an extraditable crime.

When Ponderjey, now held in Vienna on "honor" parole, was last seen in New York last December, he swore he had not been married before.

Scottish police sent a report here that a woman believed to be Miss Tufterson had been seen in a clearing establishment in New York and again in London. Captain Ayres discounted the possibility.

Miss Sally Tufterson, a sister of Agnes, also was seen in New York and said:

"Absolutely not. No, that's not her. Sister, she said, wore size 36 clothes, smaller than the garments the woman had left to be cleaned."

An unidentified woman was projected briefly into the investigation, but Captain Ayres said extensive inquiry had disclosed him she was not more than a casual companion of the romantic Ponderjey. The latter had introduced her to his bride.

For a time it was believed the woman might have been Miss Fer-rand, but Ayres discounted this possibility.

Still another woman came to police attention, but Ayres said she buried her face in her hands and burst into tears when asked to identify the woman.

A further check of Miss Tufer-son's record in New York and London after marriage, Ponderjey gave him a $5000 draft on a London bank.
The remaining $5000 in her account

Verdict Returned by Jury at Los Angeles Carries
Death Penalty

LOS ANGELES, June 22 (AP)— A verdict of guilty, without recommendation, was returned by a jury in superior court tonight against Mrs. Nellie D. Madison, accused of murdering her husband, Eric D. Madison, film story employee and the son of a Danish senator. The verdict carries the death penalty.

Mrs. Madison heard the verdict without show of emotion.

The conviction of Mrs. Madison made it mandatory for the trial judge, Charles W. Fricke, to sentence her to death.

Officials say no woman has ever been hanged by court order in California.

The jury took the case at 10 yesterday and early tonight had appeared to be hopelessly deadlocked.

A woman was accused of shooting her husband to death after a quarrel in their Burbank apartment house last March 24 shortly before midnight. The body was found the next morning, ten hours after the shooting, and two hours after the husband's death. She maintained her toy calm until she took the witness stand.

Her defense was that she did not believe her husband dead, the victim's "stray" never shot an enemy of her husband. She maintained she attended the funeral by herself.

She was charged with "murder in the first degree" and "murder in the second degree."

Mrs. Madison was married four times and has a sister, Mrs. Mary former sheriff at Dillon, Montana.
The prosecution maintained she was a jealous nature and had deliberately shot her husband as he lay on the bed in their apartment.

The prosecution branded her defense as "fantastic."

Presbyterians Vote
Down Merger Plan

OXFORD, Ohio, June 22 (AP)— The 70th annual assembly of the United Presbyterian church today declined a move to merge with the Methodist church, voting 112 for and 122 against.

The assembly was held at the University of Chicago, where the two churches have been working toward a union for many years.

The vote was a surprise, as many observers expected a merger to be approved.

The assembly will adjourn tonight.

ASHES OF WEALTHY WOMAN WEIRD ANGLE TO MYSTERY

Silver Casket Brought to Yakima by Widow of Capitalist Accused of Having Taken $5,000,000

(By The Associated Press)
YAKIMA, Wash., June 22.— A silver casket allegedly containing the ashes of Mrs. Sarah E. Smith-Scollard, long-missing possessor of a fortune estimated as high as $14,000,000, was brought here today by the widow of Reese B. Brown, Yakima capitalist accused of having taken $5,000,000 from the wealthy woman.

The bizarre turn in the five-year-old mystery came during the penultimate of a suit by Brown's relatives against the estate of Mrs. Scollard, charging the latter with having stolen the money.

Brown said she found the casket among the private effects of her husband only yesterday and that she did not know who had kept the matter a secret. She stated she had brought it to Yakima as soon as possible, because she wanted to see the body.

Presented in court the casket was turned over to Attorney George Rumsey of Seattle, counsel for relatives of Mrs. Scollard, and he announced that he would place them in the custody of a Seattle court. They will probably finally be placed in the care of a sister, Mrs.
Katherine Kirkpatrick of Oakland, California, he added.

Accompanying the casket were papers stating Mrs. Scollard, who had been known as the "city girl," had been killed in a speculative car crash in real estate operations in Chicago, 1923, of which she was a partner.

Disappeared in 1923
Mrs. Scollard was about 67 years old when she disappeared in April, 1923. A $500,000 deposit in her name was made at the same time.
She was last seen in Portland, Ore., in company with a man.

Brown died last January 27, in an automobile accident.

The silver casket and the papers Mrs. Brown said she was acting in the interest of her husband's estate in bringing the casket and papers to Yakima.

Certificates Among Papers Among the papers brought by Mrs. Brown and her attorney, John Reba Hunt of Spokane, were documents.

Increase Figured In Buoying Power Of Farm Income

WASHINGTON, June 22 (AP)— A 25 per cent increase in the purchasing power of farm income during the first nine months in which AAA benefit payments were distributed was reported today by the farm administration.

The U. S. Bureau of economic advisers to the administration reported farm prices, plus benefit payments on an average exchange value 30 per cent higher during May than in May, 1933, and 60 per cent higher than in March, 1933.

From August 1933, when benefit payments began, the average value of farm products totalled $14,990, compared with $10,000 in August, 1932.

This represented a 33 per cent increase. Bean declared, however, the increase was not due to a rise in prices paid by farmers, increased expenses and farm costs.

Allowing for these higher costs, the net increase in purchasing power was approximately 25 per cent, of which increase benefit payments contributed about 20 per cent.

Kidnaped ABDUCTED WOMAN FOUND IN EL PASO

Mrs. Sibyl Fidanque, Seized By Men and Woman From San Jose, Found

EL PASO, Texas, June 22 (AP)— Exhausted and her mind clouded, Mrs. Sibyl Fidanque, 30-year-old wife of a Panama business man, was found here today in a hotel taken by a man and a woman who kidnapped her from San Jose, California, in 1929.

"I've been through a lot," she said. "I can laugh now, but several times I've almost lost my mind."

She said she had been driven and could remember her trip only in fragments.

Her 20-year-old son, Jack, who identified her by long distance telephone, hurried from San Jose by airplane tonight. "That's my mother," he said as soon as he heard the voice on the other end of the telephone line, and then, with tears starting in his eyes: "Mummy."

California police and department of justice agents had joined in a widespread search for the radio singer after she vanished last Saturday from her San Jose home.
Several federal agents at San Jose said they would pursue all clues in an effort to find the kidnappers.

Protective Custody
Mrs. Fidanque retired tonight at the home of a friend, Mrs. J. W.
Sheriff, Harry Wiley. Officers took her into protective custody after she was found.

Mrs. Fidanque said the kidnappers found her eyes with cotton and taped and made her wear a mask.
She said she was blindfolded and died, she declared, the man said:
"Now she's a dead singer for the world."

Utah Boy Dies From Bullet Fired In Play

PHILMONT, Utah, June 22 (AP)— A 12-year-old boy, son of a local farmer, died tonight from a bullet fired by a 11-year-old playmate.
The boy was playing soldier with the rifle, the corner was told, and in adjoining rooms of the Day hotel he died in his mother's arms.
Don is the son of Mr. and Mrs.
Timmer Day. The coroner's jury held the death accidental.

Just Sunday, Mrs. Colum Timmer, 40, wife of the boy's father, said she was at the hotel when the tragedy occurred.

Neighbors, alarmed by the boy's screams, carried him to the hotel where he died in his mother's arms.

Fire Breaks Out During Rioting On Pier At San Pedro

A fire broke out on a pier at San Pedro, where 300 workers were loading a freighter at San Pedro and minor disturbances between strikers and non-strikers were reported.

The general hospital today took steps toward the employment of army medical personnel in caring for victims of the present siege of infantile paralysis.

Four Non-Strikers,
Four Officers
Injured

Police blame the attack was led by non-striker men and four officers were injured. The attack was in the transit shed of the pier while the fight was raging. The strikers broke and fled at the approach of police riot cars and fire apparatus.

Lawmaker Plans Probe of Federal Bids on Ford Bids

Representative, Kvale Hopes To Ascertain Why Auto Manufacturer 'Can't Get Government—Contracts'

Representative Kvale (R-Ill.) said today he planned to have the house military affairs sub-committee investigating department purchases ascertain "why Henry Ford can't get government contracts."

Kvale, a committee member, said he intended to introduce into Ford's difficulties with the administration during an examination of army contracts specifications for trucks.

Kvale said he understood Ford was complying with the motor manufacturers code and that the ruling which barred his products from government use was unjust.

Ford has never signed the motor manufacturers code, and bids by Ford dealers for government contracts have been turned down by Comptroller General McCar on the ground they were unaccompanied by the necessary drawings and specifications.

McCar said he was acting under an executive order issued by the president.

Kvale said he planned to learn the attitude of the war department and other departments on the position taken by McCar and might even lay the matter before the president.

"I don't think Mr. Roosevelt has been misled by the situation," the Farmer-Laborite said.

The committee heard today that Harry H. Woodring, assistant secretary of war, had directed an official to write a contract which would be awarded by a board of Columbia grand jury.

Colonel Joseph L. McQuinn, chief of the General Land Office, said he testified that the contract was one involving the purchase by Joseph Silverman, Jr. of a large quantity of surplus clothing from the army.

The contract involved the sale of army surplus property.

Jury Criticizes Activity
The grand jury failed to return indictments but it severely criticized the activity of lawyer-politicians.
Born afterward a number of Democratic politicians were named.

Many party, among them Robert Jackson, former secretary to the president, and several others were mentioned in testimony today.

The committee was told by Mc-

A COAT, FROCK—SMART AND EASY TO GET INTO Pattern 1810

by Anne Adams

Since it is perfectly obvious from the sketch how smart this house frock is, we are going to begin by calling your attention to how nice it is to slip into a real dress the first thing in the morning or when one comes in from outdoors and wishes to get into "morning clothes" as quickly as possible. One throws it around her—ties the sash—and that is that, so far as putting it on is concerned. But the enjoying of it has just begun. It is such a satisfaction to know that one is looking pretty and well dressed as one goes about doing this little thing and that—everything seems easier!

Pattern-1810 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 18 takes 4 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Members present were Misses Margaret Read, Annabelle Gee, Helen Wilson, Ruth Taylor, Clarence Bowles, Betty McClary, Ruth Heller and Janet Fell.

AND A SENSE OF LOYALTY TO THIS COMMUNITY SETS THE PRICE OF OUR QUALITY GAS AT

22 1/2¢ PER GALLON

We have lived in, and been a part of this community, for over twenty-five years. During that time we have always appreciated the patronage of our customers... from the time of the old acetylene-lighted "gasoline buggies" to the high-powered luxurious autos of today, we have seen the automobile arrive and thrive in this community.

Since we are so well acquainted with the part the automobile plays in the life of our city and farm community, we realize that the 24 to 26 cent price of gasoline is away out of line. Our farmers are not yet receiving a price on the commodities that dictates a higher price for motor fuel—necessity in their livelihood. Nor are our wage earners receiving a wage commensurate with higher prices.

A sense of loyalty to patrons who have been so loyal to us in the past moves us to withstand the badgering of competition to raise the price, and to pledge ourselves to our patrons that as long as conditions prevail as they are now, and we can continue to get quality gasoline, we will sell gas at the lowest possible price—instead of the highest.
