OREGON GOVERNOR PROMISES TO OPEN PORTLAND HARBOR

Meler Pledges Use of Authority to Restore Water Commerce by Force if Negotiations End in Failure

(By The Associated Press) PORTLAND, Ore., July 27.—In a radio address tonight, Governor Julius Meler of Oregon served public notice on striking longshoremen he would "use the authority of his office" to open the port of Portland to normal commerce if a peaceful opening is not effected by Monday.

Meler asserted another delay of substantial length would "complete the ruin" of thousands of producers.

"I sincerely hope this desirable result—opening of the port—may be accomplished by interested parties or as a result of the efforts of the president's board," Meler said. "But if both of these fail, then by the exercise of the power vested in me, that degree of protection will be afforded which is necessary to complete opening of our waterfront."

"Intolerable Conditions" The present intolerable condition cannot continue. The inability of the civic authorities of Portland and Multnomah county to afford proper protection to those desiring to carry on their lawful business cannot longer justify the welfare of the entire state.

The governor's speech followed a letter from the ultimatum, delivered by Mayor Joseph K. Carlin in a letter to Conrad Negandhi, president of the Portland International Longshoremen's Association. The mayor warned Negandhi that police officers would remove pickets above a "proper" number from waterfront streets.

New Crisis Develops

San Francisco, July 27 (AP)—The possible approach of another crisis in the Pacific coast maritime dispute was indicated today by President Roosevelt's mediation board, announced with no announcement as to the date of its return to work conditions offered previously by employers.

The board's possible crisis in the proposed dispute, which has crippled shipping since May 8, was indicated by the board's statement that it would be unable to return to work conditions offered previously by employers.

One thing is going to break for good or for evil by tomorrow, Scharenberg, who is secretary of the California State Federation of Labor, declared. "It is the only way to see that it breaks right," he declared to comment further.

Two weeks ago, the San Francisco waterfront employers' organization here, meanwhile, started advising its replacement dock workers but Thomas G. Plant, president of the association, indicated the action had no direct significance in relation to negotiations. He said men and workers who were quitting.

WISCONSIN TOWN CALLS FOR TROOPS

Situation Following Strike Battle and Killing Out of Hand

KOHLER, Wis., July 28 (Saturday Star)—Shelby county early today telegraphed Governor A. G. La Follette a demand that federal guard troops be sent to control the situation following the strike at the Kohler company plant there.

The governor informed Adjutant Ralph M. Imnell at Camp Douglas, Wisconsin, that this demand for troops Imnell said he probably would make a decision within an hour.

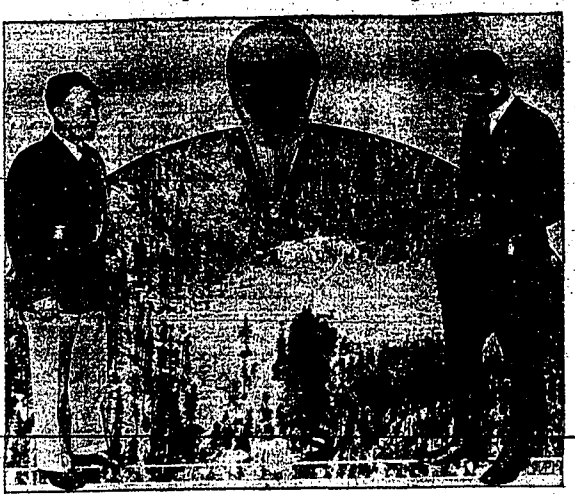

Shelby county decided on the first of the strike when the death of Lee Wakefield of Shobergon in a barrage of shotgun slugs fired by deputy sheriffs last night.

Wakefield's death and the injuries of at least 20 others in the shooting last night were laid "squarely upon the shoulders of Walter J. Kohler," by David R. Morris, counsel for the American Federation of Labor Union which called the strike. Kohler, former governor, is president of the company.

Officials of the company said they were "too busy" to offer their views on the strike.

Henry Ohl, Jr., president of the Wisconsin State Federation of Labor, said last night's violence was "private warfare" and "military in death."

Stratosphere Craft Ready For Flight

FROM THIS natural bowl in the Black Hills of South Dakota, Major Kepner (left) and Captain Stevens were completing preparations last night to cast off in their huge balloon—in an effort to soar 15 miles high. The bowl's high walls afford needed protection from wind currents. An idea of the balloon's shape and the way it will take off is indicated in the picture.

FLIERS POISED FOR STRATOSPHERE HOP

Soldiers Begin Inflating Huge Sky Craft for Flight-at-Dawn

RAPID CITY, S. D., July 27 (AP)—The stratosphere hop, which is being prepared to take off at dawn tomorrow on a long awaited flight into the stratosphere.

Cumulating more than six weeks of preparation, Major William J. Kepner announced that the historic flight, the seventh of its kind in history, would begin tomorrow, unless unexpected unfavorable weather develops.

Accompanied by Captain Albert J. Stevens as scientific observer, Major Kepner plans to pilot the huge free balloon, the largest in the world, at least 15 miles into the upper atmosphere, where it will be released. The balloon is a two-man venture, became known late this afternoon that Captain Orvil A. Anderson, alternate pilot, also might be taken along.

A trained crew of 120 men from Ft. Meade began inflation of the huge sky craft.

A gusty wind was dipping into the natural bowl in the Black Hills, 11 miles west of here from where the flight will start, as the inflation was started.

While the flight, sponsored by the National Geographic Society and the U. S. army air corps, was originally planned as a two-man venture, became known late this afternoon that Captain Orvil A. Anderson, alternate pilot, also might be taken along.

'Baby Face' Nelson Tied To Bank Raid

HENDERSON, Ky., July 27 (AP)—Belief that George "Baby Face" Nelson drove the automobile in which four bandits were slain from Henderson after robbing the Farmers Bank and Trust company of $54,327, was expressed today by department of justice agents and local officers.

Employees of the bank and the operators of a filling station where one of the robbers purchased a tire viewed photographs of Nelson today and told the investigating officers that the pictures resembled one of the men in the holdup yesterday.

Least-15 Reveals Jeshke and Bride Kidnaped, Released

LOS ANGELES, July 27 (AP)—Three men and the wife of one were arrested here tonight by police, sheriff's deputies and district attorney's investigators as the asserted kidnapers of John Jeshke, former companion of the late Lon Chaney, and his bride of three weeks.

The revelation of the alleged kidnaping came with the arrest. Authorities said two other women were sought as suspects in the asserted kidnaping ring.

Those held, officers said, gave the names of Floyd Britton and his wife, Ida; Cyril Russell and Jerry Lamont.

They were booked on suspicion of kidnaping, robbery and criminal attempt.

Jeshke, who acted as make-up man and chauffeur for Chaney, the star who earned the pseudonym of "the man of a thousand faces," was a beneficiary in the sum of $25,000 in the will of Mrs. Chaney, who followed her husband in death.

Green Credits U. S. Jobs With Unemployment Drop

WASHINGTON, July 27 (AP)—William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, today said the government was striving to meet increasing unemployment in industry and agriculture with more public works and relief activities.

The labor executive asserted latest published figures showed relief payments at the highest level in recent years.

The latest relief figures contained in his statement were for April, when he said 16,823,000 persons were on relief rolls and relief payments totaled $112,527,000, compared with $73,000,000 in April last year.

The decline in private employment from May to June was described as "not large."

Over 100,000 more workers were laid off from factories and 25,000 from mines, Green reported, but this was offset in part by 60,000 taken on by farmers for the busy June season, 15,000 for road building and 10,000 on railroads. In all trades, there was an increase in unemployment of 64,000 from May to June.

The government met this, he said, by adding nearly 100,000 to public works payrolls in June and increasing the number on relief work from 16,800,000 at the end of May to 16,823,000 on July 5.

A Kind Hearted But Cautious Motorist Picks Up A Hitch-Hiker

FARM AUTHORITIES DENY COMPULSION IN EXODUS SCHEME

Government Officials, Declaring for Abandonment Of Drouth Stricken Area Count on Persuasion

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, July 27.—Government officials today, hastened to reassure Dakota farmers that there was no intention—and had never been—of forcing them to move from land ravaged by recurring drouth over a period of years.

Dr. Elwood Mead, head of the bureau of reclamation, said his statement that "tens of thousands of persons must be moved from the drouth stricken western half of the Dakotas, and the eastern slope of the Rocky mountains" has been misunderstood.

Mead said he was "not advocating forced evacuation of the drouth area but that he believed 'removal' of the farmers from this section is the best means of furnishing relief."

Governor Tom Berry of South Dakota and North Dakota officials said after Mead's original statement they saw no need for removal of families because of periodical dry spells.

Explanation Not Advocated Other officials in charge of the farm administration and federal surplus relief corporation had by this program reiterated today that

Heat-Crazed Panther Attacks Girl Trainer At Zoological Garden

LOS ANGELES, July 27 (AP)—Apparently crazed by the heat, a black panther, said to be the only one of his kind in captivity in this country, today attacked Auguste Cole, young and attractive animal trainer at the California zoological garden.

The panther was being schooled by Cole when it turned on her, leaping upon her and knocking her to the floor of the cage. The young woman, though deeply injured, was not seriously hurt. The panther bit her right arm, inflicting five wounds.

An attendant, Harvey Stewart, attracted by the woman's cries and the panther's noise, rushed to Miss Cole's aid and he and the trainer successfully fought off the animal.

Bleeding profusely, Miss Cole was rushed to the Santa Fe hospital where her wounds were treated. Her condition is not serious.

Soaring Mercury Hits 122 In Imperial Valley; Idaho Swelters

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27 (AP)—With 122 degrees registered at one point, a blistering sun which caused one death, sent temperatures in the Pacific southwest to all time high today, while the mercury hovered at 74 degrees in sections of the Pacific northwest.

The heat endangered vineyard and avocado crops and created an extreme hazard from forest and brush fires in southern California.

Along the southern coastal plain, the thermometer varied from 60 degrees, registered in Santa Monica, Cal., to 115, recorded at San Bernardino and Riverside in the heart of the California citrus belt.

The sun's rays, always one of the hot spots of the nation, saw the mercury go as high as 122. This mark was official at Brawley. Unofficial readings were higher. Residents of the valley, however, termed the weather as "moderate" and predicted highest temperatures in August.

The Los Angeles temperature of 84 set a new high mark for the year. Residents, Cal., reported the hottest day in weather bureau history, when at 2 p. m. the mercury reached 115 degrees. The previous high mark was 114, reached in 1917 and 1925.

ITALY GIRDS FOR DECISIVE ACTION

Plans for Intervention in Austria Revealed at Rome

ROME, July 27 (AP)—A stronger Italian position, calling for intervention in Austria if the Italian situation justifies such action, was revealed today by a government spokesman.

Heretofore the government has been represented as ready to move into Austria—on whose borders 45,000 troops are concentrated—in event of independence of that nation was threatened from the outside.

Today, with reports of severe fighting in Carinthia province, the spokesman said that if action is required, there will be no necessity for delay for any diplomatic protest.

The troops will simply move into the country when such action is required as necessary, the spokesman indicated.

The move, he continued, will be rapid and decisive just as soon as it becomes apparent that the Austrian government cannot control the situation.

Looks to Guarantee

If Austria is able to settle the present crisis without outside help, Italy will consider what steps should be taken to guarantee that country against further terrorism, it was indicated.

Revelation of the attitude came after Premier Mussolini had conferred with Fulvio Biondi, under-secretary for foreign affairs.

The appointment of Franz von Papen as German minister to Austria was said to have failed to create either a favorable or unfavorable reaction with the premier.

While the decision on the border was ready to move at any time, the newspapers spoke of intervention and declared that every Italian is behind Mussolini.

Anxiety of the public increased with the publication of accounts of the fighting in the border province of Carinthia between Nazis and the Austrian government.

FRIGHTENED HORSE PERILS ROOSEVELT

Speeding Animal Hits Second Car Behind President's Vehicle

HONOLULU, July 27 (AP)—President Roosevelt got in another flat in Honolulu today, marked by the stunning animal attack on a frightened horse while returning from an inspection of the Pearl harbor naval base.

The horse, which was drawing a vegetable cart, dashed into the presidential motor procession after becoming frightened by sirens of police cars. The stunning animal struck the second car behind the machine in which the president was riding, diving the second car over the side of the road.

The president's car appeared concerned over the accident, but the procession moved along soon after it occurred. The president was riding in an automobile between the presidential machine and the car occupied by the pressmen.

The president made a thorough inspection of the Pearl harbor base with Rear Admiral Harry Yarnell, crossing a ferry to the island which was bustling with aircraft. He told newsmen he was immensely impressed by the state of conditions on the island and the evident good health of those stationed there.

Tonight the president prepared an address to be delivered by radio at 11 a. m. tomorrow (4:30 p. m. Eastern Standard time) just before embarking aboard the cruiser Houston for the return voyage home.

ODDITIES --of Life

(By The Associated Press)

No Accident—GREENFIELD, Mass.—Death from sunstroke is not accidental, Judge Thomas J. Hammond ruled yesterday.

He upheld an insurance company which claimed that the death of Herbert L. Brockton, 62-year-old dentist because he was aware of the effect of the sun rays.

Nothing's Permanent—PITTSBURGH, July 27.—Mayor William W. McWhir today surprised his friends by declaring a "day of Herbert L. Brockton," which he hastened to explain, will disappear before Mrs. McWhir returns from her vacation.

The mayor added that the mistake was necessary because of a slip up. Asked how he got the sore lip he replied:

Violent Civil War Continues In Provinces; Rebel Nazis Winning In Carinthia; Hunger Riots Add To Chaos

(Copyright, 1934, By The Associated Press) VIENNA, July 27.—A no-compromise deft was hurled at revolting Nazis tonight by the new head of the government, Prince Ernst von Starheimberg, after another day of bitter fighting which brought casualty estimates close to 3,000.

Protected by guns which they fear for the safety of the capital itself, the youthful von Starheimberg exhorted Austria over the radio:

"Do not depart one inch from the way prescribed by Dollfuss!"

"I declare solemnly that we regard as the holy heritage of our dead chancellor that there can never be a compromise with national socialism."

Call For Reinforcements Even the police alarming reports of Rebel Nazi military successes in Carinthia were accompanied by appeals for reinforcements of loyal battalions.

The government assured the people that von Papen is coming! And that the former German chancellor would bring peace to Austria.

Peace assurances were offset by chaos in whole sections of the country caused by Nazi uprisings and hunger riots.

Unverified rumors that Italian troops were crossing the border brought fled refugees from Italy. They had carried apprehension in neighboring Yugoslavia, which declared that nation must mobilize if Austria is invaded by foreigners.

The government was hard put to answer 50 O. B. calls against the rebels in sections where the rebels were winning.

Government Successes Long-expected reinforcements and soldiers were reported to have recaptured St. Veit in Carinthia, killed 100 rebels, and the government also claimed to have secured Zellbach successfully.

The Nazis, led by Starheimberg and Benito Mussolini, as well as many others, left fighting on the borders of Austria.

The government forces were said to be doing better in Styria than in Carinthia, but were not in complete control.

The socialists and communists warned "our hour will come" as their fascist enemies killed each other.

Communications with the centers of disturbance in Styria and Carinthia were cut off except for the dispatches sent to the public in doubt as to the extent of the slaughter.

Battles Against Brother The battles sometimes pitted father against son and brother against brother.

Headquarters of the fascist movement here estimated that 2,500 Nazis had been killed in the border fighting. They said 180 helpsmen had died defeating the government of von Starheimberg up to the toll today. The best available estimates put the dead well over 500.

Government officials, battling desperately to solve their own problems while Italian troops waited at the border, kept over 100,000 people in danger, but no precautions were overlooked.

Capital Armed Camp The capital city, in which the military police, led by the Vice-Chancellor Dollfuss, echoed with the sounds of marching feet and the clang of steel weapons.

Strong detachments of the helmet-protected districts in which government buildings are located. Machine gun companies commanded the Ballhausplatz, the huge square before the chancellery.

The state of affairs in the "Hoehhaus," Vienna's skyscraper, machine-gunners and snipers were posted in the ranks of rebels here as they should attempt a march against the seat of government.

"Von Papen is coming!" In bills scattered from airplanes—the government sought to allay the fears of the public and to urge the rebels to lay down arms.

"Von Papen is coming!" was the slogan of the government. Many are sending flowers and telegrams to the new head of the government as a special minister would convince them that the government was not from the third rank.

But the southern rebels were patrolling no position—they believed nothing they heard or read.

They fought on in ignorance of the true state of affairs in the capital. The government itself was in doubt as to exactly what was happening in some of the rebel ranks.

Hitler in Red Position Calls for Reinforcements Coming from the province of Carinthia even as the guard in the capital itself was being strengthened.

STATE WINS FIGHT FOR BUS LICENSE

Federal Judges Hold Freight, Passenger Carrying Vehicles Liable

BOISE, July 27.—Provisions of the Idaho uniform motor vehicle registration act imposing a license fee and requiring registration of foreign and domestic motor vehicles carrying persons or property for compensation on public highways of Idaho were declared constitutional in an opinion written by Federal Judge C. C. Cavanaugh and filed this afternoon in the United States district court.

Plaintiffs in the case were the Consolidated Freight Lines, Incorporated of Portland, Oregon, the Montana Consolidated, Incorporated, of Butte, Montana, and the Ashbury Transportation company of Oregon, Incorporated, also of Portland.

The defendants were Bert H. Miller, Idaho attorney general, and Emil F. Frost, state commissioner of law enforcement.

"The court's conclusion was a big victory for the state," it states, "it establishes our right to revenues of approximately $500,000 annually."

The plaintiffs operate freight carrying vehicles over Idaho highways, transporting property for compensation in interstate commerce.

They brought suit against the state to restrain the enforcement of the act upon which the decision was given, assuming the "status-in-question" as being "regulatory to the commerce clause" of the federal constitution when applied to the plaintiffs.

Three-Man Court
The case was heard before three judges sitting in Boise, P. A. Garrecht of San Francisco, member of the circuit court of appeals of the ninth district; J. Stanley Webster of Spokane, of the federal district court and Judge Cavanaugh.

It is difficult to perceive any other conclusion than that heavy weight of vehicles operating upon the highways, and the damage to the highways, and that when the fees charged under the present act and the laws of the state reach the state highway fund and are used in defraying its costs and upkeep, it is a fair method and not repugnant to the commerce clause and when applied to the plaintiffs can not be regarded as an unreasonable exercise of the legislative power.

The three judges concurred in denying plaintiffs' application for an interlocutory injunction and denied a permanent injunction with defendant's costs.

PIONEER OF BURLEY SUGGUMBS AT BOISE
BOISE, July 27.—Mr. Stoddard, 64, Boise dairyman and former pioneer resident of Burley, died at 4 p. m. today at his home here following a long illness from high blood pressure. He had been a resident of the Boise vicinity for 15 years.

Stoddard was one of the first settlers of the Burley project and was one of the first water users upon the completion of the Minidoka dam. He farmed 160 acres three miles from Burley until he moved with his family to Boise in 1919.

He is survived by his wife, Hannah B. Stoddard, a son, William Stoddard, and a daughter, Mrs. Dolly Morris, all of Boise.

Funeral services will be held in the Boise L. O. S. Tabernacle Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment will be in Morris Hill cemetery.

WRAY AND LUCAS WILL APPEAR IN ROXY FILM

One of the most amusing and highly entertaining pictures of the season is promised the patrons of Joe's Roxy theater with the two-day booking starting tomorrow of "The Countess of Monte Carlo." Universal's say and intriguing comedical drama, with Pay Wray and Paul Lukas in the featured leading roles.

The story presents the unique situation of a little film extra girl who masquerades as a countess and the embarrassing moments she lives through before she is discovered and rocketed to fame on the crest of publicity.

The artistic direction of Earl Freund, who has made pictures both here and abroad, assures this one a first class production built around a delightful theme.

Coming Events

The annual picnic of the Community-Sunday-school will be held Sunday, July 29, after the Sunday school, at Nat. Soc. Yab. Each family is to bring their own picnic luncheon and table service.

PARTIAL RECOVERY ON STOCK MARKET

Majority of Issues Develop Firm Tone During
Day's Session

MARKETS AT A GLANCE
NEW YORK, July 27.—The stock market today showed a partial recovery from the losses of the previous day. The Dow Jones industrial average closed at 114.12, up 1.12 points from 113.00. The volume of trading was heavy, with over 10 million shares changing hands.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Except for a few weak spots, the stock market was on a firm ground today and recovered part of the losses of the preceding session.

War fears seemed to have subsided, with a general reflection on the Austrian situation. Cooler weather and rains in the West moved emphasis from deficit issues, although the plight of the farmer still caused a good deal of uneasiness.

A sharp break in Consolidated Gas brought some nervousness and led to another flurry of selling. The selling was short-lived, however, and the market turned again before the finish.

Many rails and industrials that were high on the decline yesterday gained 1 or 2 points of their losses.

Bonds and commodities joined the recovery. Wheat finished unchanged at 36 to the lowest level recorded for the present season and closed at 27 1/2. Selling was absorbed at 27 1/2, then rallied a little to close 2 points lower.

Comstock staged a rally, with a sharp recovery in shares. The market was strong, with a sharp recovery in shares.

General Motors, Chrysler, American Can, Montgomery Ward, U. S. Steel, American Smelting, and American Chemical, all showed gains.

COULSON GRANARY YIELDS TREASURE

Brother-in-Law's Search Uncovers Nearly $14,000 More

A granary on the Chris Coulson farm at Murtaugh from which the late Mr. W. W. Coulson removed a cache of $1054 when Coulson's body was found last Sunday in a hay field near his home, has been searched and yielded approximately $14,000 more in money, bonds and securities when Bert Jackson, Nephew, Utah brother-in-law of Coulson, scoured the premises, it was announced at the sheriff's office last evening.

Scouring out the loose grain, Jackson first came upon a tin tobacco box that contained a portion of the buried treasure. He summoned the sheriff and resumed the search and was rewarded by discovery of a flour sack containing more money and securities, including Liberty bonds, U. S. treasury notes, Twin Falls county tax anticipation notes, and Idaho Power company stock.

Coulson, a pioneer settler and resident of this district for nearly 30 years, was reported to have been a heavy loser in two bank fires. An inventory of his estate filed in the probate court here yesterday, however, listed a $3800 deposit in the Bank of Idaho, bank.

BEAN INTERESTS TO GATHER HERE

Public Meeting on Marketing Proposal Scheduled For August 6

WASHINGTON, July 21 (AP)—The farm administration announced today that it has decided to hold a public hearing on proposed marketing agreements for the dry edible bean industry.

The hearings will be held at Berkeley, Cal., July 31; Saginaw, Mich., August 1; Twin Falls, Idaho, August 6; Billings, Mont., August 10; and Austin, Tex., August 11.

The proposed agreements, together with one for the pinto bean industry on which a hearing was held July 20 at Trinidad, Colo., will bring practically the entire bean industry of the country under control.

Joint Session at Denver

Following the public hearings representatives from the five areas will meet in a joint conference at Denver, about August 15, to discuss coordination upon final approval of the marketing program.

Agricultural adjustment officials said the agreements for the various regions to be reached at the hearings varied only enough to make provisions for local conditions.

Grangers to Picnic—Twin Falls Grange will have a picnic Sunday at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McClain instead of the regular Friday evening meeting. The picnic will begin at 1 o'clock and all Grange and their families are urged to attend.

Home from Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Ole Bercombe with Mrs. Bercombe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Noh of Filer, returned Wednesday from a three weeks' trip to the Century of Progress, visiting friends and relatives in Nebraska and Iowa. On the return trip they went to Pike's Peak, the Royal Gorge and other scenic spots of Colorado.

MISSOURI HARD HIT BY DROUGHT SCOURGE

Seventy-five per cent of the population of an old-settled region in northern Missouri is on government relief rolls, following growth that in last May, J. D. Tucker, former Twin Falls mayor, was told by his son who is a University of Missouri research director and PEPA administrator for northern Missouri. The former mayor returned late Tuesday following three weeks visit with his son at Columbia, Missouri.

Wheat crops of immense height, he said, ruined one of the best corn crop prospects in Missouri's history. Corn burned white from the top and stalks dropped, he said, so that subsequent rains would be of no avail in saving the crop.

STROKE FATAL TO DAVID K. EGBERT

Aged Murtaugh Man Succumbs in Twin Falls County Hospital

MURTAUGH, July 21.—David Kenyon Egbert, 75, died this morning at 4 o'clock at the Twin Falls county hospital following a stroke of paralysis Tuesday. He was taken to the hospital Thursday afternoon and was unconscious until death.

He was a resident of Murtaugh, living here for the past 12 years. He was born in Kayaville, Utah, June 2, 1859, the son of Joseph H. and Louisa Taylor Egbert. He married Emma, Dore, of Kayaville, November 21, 1882. He moved from Utah to Preston and from there to Oakley in 1912. In 1921 he moved to Murtaugh where he established a residence on the banks of Murtaugh lake; the present home of his widow.

Mr. Egbert was the father of 12 children, nine of whom were here at the time of his death. They are: David Charles Egbert, Salt Lake City; Albert L. Egbert, Joseph H. Egbert, Frances M. Other survivors are 36 grand-children, one brother, George W. Egbert, Fairview, and sister, Corilla Egbert, Twin Falls, and one half sister, Mrs. Elmer Davis, Salt Lake City.

All of the deceased man's children with the exception of David O. Egbert of Salt Lake City attended a family reunion at the family home at Murtaugh lake Tuesday. At this reunion Mr. Egbert became ill and died this evening suffered the stroke that caused his death.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Murtaugh L. D. G. chapel with Bishop David O. Meyer officiating. Interment will be in Murtaugh cemetery in charge of Joseph P. Payne. The body lies at the Twin Falls mortuary in Idaho.

TWO WOMEN, ONE MAN GET DIVORCE DECREES

Two women and one man obtained divorce decrees following hearings on their unopposed petitions before Judge Adam B. Barclay of Jerome in the district court here yesterday.

Mrs. Anna Roby, mother of three children, 13 to 20 years old, seeking a divorce on grounds of cruelty and non-support from William Roby, to whom she was married at Prague, Oklahoma, in September, 1913, was granted an order for $15 a month temporary alimony and attorney's fees.

Divorce decrees were granted to Mrs. Lulu M. Ezelton, mother of an 18-year-old daughter, from Eugene Ezelton, to whom she was married in Oklahoma in June, 1913, and to Maurine Roselle from Lawrence Roselle, both on grounds of alleged non-support. Jack O. Dwight also was granted a decree of divorce from Phyllis Dwight.

GAS TANK RAID STILL UNSOLVED

Theft and Waste of 2600 Gallons of Fluid Fuel New Affair Here

Twin Falls biggest gasoline raid which cost the Texas company some 2600 gallons of gasoline valued at approximately $800 sometime last Wednesday night, was still an unsolved mystery last night. City and county officers were continuing efforts to run down the persons who cut eight locks on a big tank at the Texas company's Twin Falls yard, drained out the contents, quantities of which sluiced on the ground, presumably after a motor tank was filled with the stolen fluid.

A similar theft, though of considerably smaller proportions, was staged at Rogers several months ago, and gasoline raids are not infrequent in some sections of the country, but there has never before been a gasoline theft on such a wholesale scale in Twin Falls.

Many Varieties of Designs Featured In Whisker Growth

Varied prospects of work seem to be in store for Twin Falls barbers as the dead line nears for the growing of whiskers in commemoration of the thirtieth anniversary of the opening of the Twin Falls tract and which is to be celebrated here with the Magic City Jubilee.

Many local citizens declare it will be worth the $5 set aside to fine to enjoy the smoothness of a clean shave. Others, falling into the trap of the jubilee to their chagrin, are endeavoring to save the five and let their sublimated personalities run rampant in the designs and types of whiskers which they contemplate cultivating.

Barbers faces fall as they listen to some lending citizens declare they are going in for a full face growth—in other words to let the beard fall where they may—with no regard for trimming or design. On the other hand some of the wide awake consensual artists have been spending the last week in submitting costly and designs, guaranteed to resemble nothing short of a Japanese garden, as celebration time nears.

Many well known faces have appeared in well designed and due to the patterns of barely perceptible whiskers which have been expertly blocked out at the hands of some of the barbers. Everything from old-timer facial decorations to "Paddy Finn" chin whiskers have become apparent.

At any rate, members of the vigilance committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce declare they will do their first heavy checking up at the benefit dance which is to be held August 8 and which is designed to help the local chamber raise adequate funds for celebration activities.

DWORSHAK REPORTS REPUBLICAN GAINS

Henry G. Dworschak of Burley, publisher and candidate for the Republican nomination for second district congressman, said during a brief visit here yesterday that he has found throughout the district a material improvement in Republican morale.

"After covering about 15 counties in the Second congressional district in Idaho," he said, "I find a material improvement in Republican morale, with leaders generally hopeful for a Republican victory in the fall election."

MODERN LIFE CREATES DEMAND FOR MEN'S SPORTWEAR

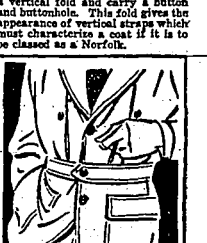

More Time for Play, Says Duncan Page

Creating a style that will receive ready acceptance by the public is never a matter of ingenuity alone. It is a matter of common sense, and is influenced by the prevailing mode of living.

The cry of the moment is for freedom of movement, freedom from constraint. The lifting of unpopular bars, the shortening of working hours, automatically lengthening the hours for play, all account for the changes brought before you in clothing for this spring.

This is the Free-reach shoulder.

Notes the vertical pockets.

With half or more of your working hours yours to do with as you please, it becomes essential that your wardrobe be equipped with garments for play—garments signed and tailored so as to permit you to observe the same standard of dress as you do during your social and business hours.
