CONVICTS HERDED INTO CELLS AFTER THREE-HOUR RIOT

Property Loss Caused by Destructive Tactics of 200 Rampaging Prisoners Estimated at $100,000

(By The Associated Press) COLLEGEVILLE, Pa., Aug. 25.—Forty Idaho policemen cowed 200 rampaging convicts and herded them into cells today at the Graterford prison farm of the eastern state penitentiary after a riotous three hours.

Incendiary fires and other destructive tactics cost the state thousands of dollars, it was said officially, but no shot was fired, there were no serious casualties and no escape.

Denial of knowledge of the spark that set off the outbreak was made by Dr. Guy T. Holsinger, chairman of the board of trustees, who announced an investigation was starting without delay.

He estimated the loss at $100,000. Although the explosive prison ground confines more than 1,600 convicts, only a small fraction of them participated, he said.

"This thing broke at 8:45 a. m., Dr. Holsinger said. 'For what reason we do not know yet.'

Trouble started in kitchen. As near as we can find out, one of the trucks inside the prison pulled up to the kitchen platform. The truck was loaded with 40 men.

The trouble started inside the kitchen and thousands of dollars worth of damage was done.

The rioting spread to C, D and E cell blocks and more damage was done in those blocks.

In the industrial plant, operated by the welfare department, was thousands of dollars worth of new machinery that had never turned over.

"Then a barn inside the wall, known as No. 11, was set on fire. About noon 200 of the prisoners, armed with clubs and bars of iron and tools, who apparently are responsible for the riot, after doing all manner of mischief, broke into cell blocks, got on a hill and defied the guards, came on and set them.

MARY AND DOUG'S WEALTH DIMINISHES

Secret Trusts Mark Rejuvenation of Famous Pair's Romance

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 25 (AP)—The private lives of Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks today were focused by secret trusts and revelations of diminished wealth.

Progress of the rejuvenation of their romance after a separation of 14 months was shown in a new way, which each of them had feared. Every precaution was taken to keep to themselves their respective and the number and frequency of their telephone calls.

Meanwhile, the records of the court revealed that the taxable wealth of Mary in Los Angeles had dropped three-quarters of a million dollars in the past year, while the wealth of Doug here went down about two-thirds of a million.

Mary Pickford's assessed taxable wealth in Los Angeles this year is recorded as $1,050,000, compared with $2,683,300 last year. Actual value may be many times these assessment figures.

Douglas Fairbanks rates assessed valuation for holdings in Los Angeles this year at $1,065,530, compared with $1,020,000 last year.

The furniture at Mary's Pickford is listed at an assessed valuation of $13,000, with her jewelry assessed at $1500.

Douglas Fairbanks has some automobiles that are used, one of them being assessed at $50, while the other two were assessed at $500 and $740, respectively.

Meanwhile, in another file of county records lists the little paper that Mary filed last December, which made news around the world, that she had divorced.

September 4 is the next significant date in the life of the couple, the date of completion of notice of publication of summons, after which the date for hearing and trial may be set.

HITLERITES EXPEL WIFE OF FAMOUS AMERICAN AUTHOR

Mrs. Sinclair Lewis, Free Lance Writer, 'Invited' to Leave as Result of Two-Year-Old Article

(By The Associated Press) BERLIN, Aug. 25.—A "pleasant young man in civilian clothes" yesterday delivered to Dorothy Thompson, Mrs. Sinclair Lewis—an invitation to leave "Nazi Germany."

Tonight the wife of the Nobel prize winner, herself widely known for magazine and other writings, was ready to go to Paris.

The German government had expelled an American newspaper correspondent for "damaging Germany" in the world press for the first time since Adolf Hitler came to power, and tonight diplomatic and newspaper circles, a-buzz over the case, wondered whether it might be the prelude to wholesale expulsion of foreign correspondents.

The free lance contributor to the New York Times, near the end of the Peck King fire, near the end of the Peck King fire, near the end of the Peck King fire.

"Outlets are warned," she said. "That Germans have the right to any form of government they choose. I agree to that and personally I have consistently opposed all organized attempts such as a boycott which would reform this government from without."

World Outlook "But national socialism, on its own claim, is not only a system of German government but is a world outlook which is frankly directed against the liberal and democratic conception under which a great part of the world still lives and which some of us, curiously enough, still cherish."

It cannot expect to set itself against the most sacred institutions and creeds of other countries without courting robust and energetic opposition.

Mrs. Thompson's offense, apparently, was her personal and unfavorable comment on Germany but unfavorable personal impressions of Hitler himself published in connection with an interview she had with him more than two years ago.

She was ready with her words. "I should like to point out," she said, "that the Hitler article was written some time before Hitler became chancellor and when he did not enjoy the support of more than 10 per cent of the German people."

"It is difficult to see how an adverse impression at that time could be interpreted as an attack on Germany."

Plan of Battle Against Idaho Fire Awaits Reports From Field

SPOKANE, Aug. 25 (AP)—The forest service's plan of battle against one of the three most troublesome fires in central Idaho tonight awaited reports from the field.

So dense was the smoke from the east flank of the Peck King fire, near the end of the Peck King fire, near the end of the Peck King fire.

Another bad spot in Idaho was burn near Avery. So rough is the country on the north fork of the St. Joe river that it was virtually impossible to place men, said Major Kelley.

Under Nelson peak. The Avery fire was held on other flanks, however, and 100 more men were ordered to the front from Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, making about 700 battling the 12,000-acre fire.

The other trouble spot was in the Clearwater forest in central Idaho, where the Rock creek fire blew into a single burn on Larson creek along the north fork of the Clearwater.

The largest fire in the region, the 10,000-acre McLeunden burn in the Clearwater forest was nearing control, the wind having been favorable. The men were on the backfiring stage.

In the same forest, the Martin creek blaze appeared to be submitting to the impurities of the forest. It is difficult to see how an adverse impression at that time could be interpreted as an attack on Germany.

New Violence Marks Field Workers' Walkout

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (AP)—The bureau of agricultural economics reported today that despite heavy marksmanship of farm troops, a rise in prices, farm income during July was 6 per cent below the figure for July 1933.

MUTILATED BODY FOUND IN TRUNK

Victim With Crime Record Identified Through Fingerprints

NEW YORK, Aug. 25 (AP)—The mutilated body of a small-time convict was found in a trunk today in the arway of the home of a former law partner of Faller County, Minn., John C. O'Hara.

The body, a law-lacked away, was identified as that of Bernard McMahon, 41, arrested six times since 1914 and who served a term in the Elmira, New York, reformatory, through fingerprints.

Tony Tarantino, caretaker at the West 74th street home of General Louis W. Stoenberg, former O'Hara partner, made the gruesome discovery when he went to the cleaning man to remove his morning machine gun.

The body, and the body was shoved into the metal trunk three feet in length and two feet in width, lay head toward one of the drawers. The body was wrapped in brown paper, the other in a double-breasted suit which had all marks of identification removed.

HUNGER STRIKE AT RADIO STATION ENDS

Artists and Announcers Enjoy Food When Owners Pay Back Salaries

MEXICO, D. F., Aug. 25 (AP)—Radio station XEAL's unique hunger strike ended here late this afternoon, as Pan American Radio company announced it had agreed to pay the full amount of back salaries they were demanding.

The 22 artists, announcers, electricians, and mechanics who had gone on strike for 10 days, had been on a hunger strike, but had been eating and sleeping, broadcast continually all the while, and 40 other employees of the station were given pay checks totaling $10,000.

Settlement of the strike was arranged by the Federal Reserve Bank, which had been appointed by the company's check, representing unpaid salaries for approximately three months.

The company, it was learned, had petitioned the courts for liquidation of the station, which was owned by the radio station and given grapes and milk.

As fast as the hunger strikers were paid they were taken to an emergency hospital, where they remained for several days.

NEW DIVISION OF NRA ESTABLISHED

Reorganization Step Taken
by National Recovery Administration

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (AP)—Another step in the reorganization of the National Recovery Administration was taken today with the creation of a new division, to handle public utility, transportation and communication matters.

This was done just as President Roosevelt—prior to departing tonight for Hyde Park, N. Y.—called in high ranking recovery administrative officers to discuss policy changes involved in NRA's new set-up.

Under the new plan, the chief executive worked at top speed throughout the day to dispose of a mass of routine business before leaving around midnight to establish a summer White House. He will remain in it until late in September.

Confers With Hopkins

One of the president's most important conferences during the day was with Harry Hopkins, his chief administrative officer, who has just returned from a six-week tour of Europe on congressional relief problems.

Colonel George A. Lynch and Captain Smith, NRA's chief executive officers, who were left behind by Hugh S. Johnson to carry on his vacations at Bethesda, Md., were later conferred with Mr. Roosevelt over policy changes.

Both are active in the first steps of reorganization now going forward, and will have a voice in saying what final form NRA is to take when Congress next meets.

Legislation H. H. Fiebel is becoming chairman of the new division created today by executive order. Public utility, transportation and communication for which a code is being drafted, will now come under a single division. The shipping industry, whose code is on President Roosevelt's desk for approval, also is to be placed under the new agency.

Five "Sector" Plans

Tentative reorganization plans call for lumping all of the more than 800 codes into 22 "sectors" grouped in turn to be placed under five "sectors."

The president hopes to have an interim organization completed within two weeks to rule NRA until such time as Congress enacts a permanent legislation embracing the basic features of the national recovery plan.

In connection with the recovery campaign, the president has named Dr. William L. Thorp, former American university professor, as director of the new division of the National Recovery Administration.

Thorpe's task will be to coordinate economic activities of the NRA and the Federal Reserve Bank, which began a run on farm and industrial products.

600,000 WORKERS
PREPARE TO STRIKE

of Labor, it was made plain that now is considered an opportune time for a strike involving a national industry since the government has pledged itself to "see one go hungry."

The United Textile Workers' union, that ordered the strike, has less than a million dollars to finance it. George said, and strike relief will be left up to the local union.

Given these conditions, the union money on hand and the national fund would last but a short time. The workers, when their personal funds are gone, are expected to appeal to the federal emergency relief administration for food and clothing.

Some of the workers said the strike indefinitely as long as the present policy of relief is followed. The president said he believed the present would stop the strike but, he did not, that all union members would walk out within a week after the strike date is fixed. The national organization has ordered it into effect on or before September 1.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 25 (AP)—The debonair Adolph Menjou and Verree Teasdale of the movie world were observed married today by a municipal judge, and then drove out to look after the unloading of their new furniture.

They applied for a marriage license last Tuesday, three days before Menjou's divorce from Kathryn Carver became final.

Today, they slipped through a side door into the chambers of Judge James H. Pope in the hall of justice and he performed the ceremony. Tears came briefly to the actress' eyes after the wedding was over.

Roosevelt's Forest Troopers Almost Certain to Be Continued

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (AP)—President Roosevelt's Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) is almost certain to be made a permanent institution during the next Congress.

The time for a decision on the CCC expires next March 31. Little opposition to recommitment without any time limit, however, is anticipated by the administration.

Proposals have been made that legislation for the permanent CCC be made a part of the social security program now being drafted for presentation to the 74th Congress.

Mr. Harvey was elected by the chamber's directors last Friday to be secretary following Newell S. Wright, who resigned following an almost 10-year tenure of the office and has entered upon his new duties in federal rehabilitation offices at Boise.

STATE TAX BOARD OKENS VALUATIONS

Equalization Sessions End
Without Material
Change in Rolls

BOISE, Aug. 25 (AP)—Tax valuations of public utilities and general property were largely unchanged from last year by the board of equalization today as it summarized its past 10 days' work.

Main line railroad valuations were left unchanged but a few reductions were granted branch lines and small lines because of lowered income. Other utilities remained about at the level fixed last year.

The few reductions in utilities included, together with a cut of $1,251,175 in assessment of general property other than utilities, as made the county assessment proposed to trim the state's tax valuation somewhat below the $737,815,111 fixed by the house last year.

Of this amount, $268,521,511 was for real and personal property other than utilities. The total sum was trimmed to $268,521,511, a drop of $62,511,775, or 23 per cent, and this, said George R. Roach, chairman, was to be left largely unchanged by the board. A lower assessment of dry farm land in Adams and Washington counties was ordered on the appeal of a group of farmers appearing before the board.

UTILITY VALUES

Utility value for last year, for the most part unchanged by the board this year, showed a total of $72,487,127, electric power companies $27,487,127, telephone companies $4,604,635, telegraph companies $507,162, car companies $1,451,945, Pullman company $159,600.

A suit discussed by railroads at the beginning of the board heard today did not materialize as the railroad valuations were not increased.

For many years the railroads have protested that steady reduction of assessments on other property was throwing upon the utilities a vastly increased amount of the tax burden.

They made every preparation for a suit this year, introducing a mass of testimony, all recorded by court reporters. Many heated battles were fought in the board's chambers.

ONE PRIMARY RACE STILL UNSETTLED

Four Counties Outstanding Leave Ward, Keating Contest in Doubt

BOISE, Aug. 25 (AP)—The nomination of Heber Q. Hale of Boise as Republican candidate for congress from the Second district was established today with official reports from 22 of the 23 counties in the district combined with unofficial reports from the other three.

The combination gave Hale 620 votes to 5272 for Henry C. Dwarshak, his nearest competitor of the eight running for the nomination.

The four outstanding counties, however, left in doubt the outcome of one other race undecided by unofficial tabulation. Mrs. Margaret Ward of Blackfoot had a lead of 71 votes over James Keating of the Republican nomination for state treasurer, with the tally including official returns from 40 counties and unofficial returns from four counties. The vote, by this process, was Ward 15,582, Keating 15,511.

Albino, Blaine Lead—James P. Albino of Coeur d'Alene and Sam Blaine of Blaine held the lead for the two places on the non-partisan ballot for supreme court on official returns from 40 counties and unofficial returns from one.

The vote was: Albino 31,008, Blaine 28,269, C. C. Hall, 28,268, N. D. Wernette, 17,048.

The outstanding counties are Blaine, Caribou, Jefferson and Latah. Of these, only Latah was recorded in the unofficial tabulation for supreme court.

The state board of canvassers, officially required to pass on the primary election returns met today but immediately adjourned to await reports from the outstanding four counties. The board is composed of Governor Ross, Secretary of State Clifford, Attorney General Miller, Auditor Parsons, and Mrs. Enking, treasurer.

All other nominations were well established by returns in the unofficial tabulation by Associated Press newspapers at the time of the election.

Bannock Reports Returns—POCAHELLO, Aug. 25 (AP)—Bannock county's primary election returns, delayed four days when ballot boxes were sent back to the county's 37 precincts for a re-check by judges when discrepancies were found by the commissioners, were officially reported today.

Mrs. Margaret Ward of Blackfoot, Republican candidate for state treasurer, gained some much-needed votes in this county over James Keating of Harrison, her opponent. The tabulation showed 707 votes for Mrs. Ward and 588 for Keating, a majority of 241 votes.

In the race for Republican nomination for Second district congressman, Heber Q. Hale of Boise added 140 more votes to his majority over Henry Dwarshak of Burley. The official count stood: Hale 399 and Dwarshak 190.

For judges of the Idaho supreme court, James Albino led three other candidates with 3411, followed by C. C. Hall 2827, Sam Blaine 2587 and Nicholas Wernette, 1351.

Holden, French List Campaign Expenses—BOISE, Aug. 25 (AP)—J. Wesley Holden spent $638 in his unsuccessful race for the Republican nomination for governor, his report to the secretary of state disclosed today.

OUTPUT INCREASED BY CREAMERY AT BURLEY

BURLEY, Aug. 25.—C. W. Road, manager of the local plant of the Jerome cooperative creamery, reports that this organization is increasing its output of dairy products, in line with increases reported in such products by farmers' cooperative associations in the United States. According to a recent report issued by the farm credit administration, the output of butter by farmer co-operatives has increased each year since 1926.

Better business methods used in farm co-operatives, and more efficient service to the patrons, are given by the federal dairy administration as strong factors in attracting more business to them. Regional sales and marketing organizations are pointed to as benefiting the distribution of dairy products, and it is declared that about one-half of all butter manufactured in the United States is made by members of five regional co-operative sales agencies.

The 1933 output of 1480 farm organizations reporting the making of butter amounted to 636,703,000 pounds, an increase of more than 26,000,000 pounds over the previous year.

COMING MODERN — GRADUALLY

Colors Add Warmth To A 'Cold' Bedroom

Yellow walls and gold rug add a modern note.

(Prepared by the Decorators Club of New York for The News)

If you are interested in having a modern bedroom, but can't afford to furnish your present room completely, here are some suggestions by the decorators: Yellow, gold, and green. This room has north and east exposures, which means it is likely to be cold. Therefore, to give it warmth, the walls have been painted yellow, with a chartreuse cast. The gold rug adds to the warmth. An inexpensive fabric—in modern horizontal stripes and blue-green, chartreuse, green and ivory—makes the curtains and green combs finish the window treatment. All the furniture has been repainted light green.

The bedspread is made of yellow linen, and the little modern lamp beside the bed has a green base with a two-tiered lampshade of yellow stretched silk, bound with tomato red, to pick up the color in the modern linen in yellow, tomato and green which covers the chaise longue.

Since there is just a suggestion of the modern about this room, it has the added advantage of gradual transition for those aren't sure they like modern things.

BROWSINGS From Our Library

By the Brower

Lloyd C. Douglas says he has definitely left the pulpit for the writing of stories—"religious novels" he calls them—and thousands of readers are hopeful of more frequent books from this popular author.

Following his two "best-sellers" a short Christmas story, "Precious Journey," which is not only delightful but thought provoking. It is good for any season of the year and is one of the few books which will not fall flat when read aloud. The story actually begins on the first page, and gathers interest right through to the sixtieth, where it ends just as you want it to, in the good old-fashioned way.

And you are left with a warm, glowing feeling, and a few little pricklings of conscience, which is old-fashioned too. Perhaps conscientious are coming in again with happy endings, picture hats, and curves. Let's watch and see.

On the very first page of Mrs. Katharine Ball Ripley's book, "Sand in My Shoes," she gives the reason for the development of tracks like the one in Twin Falls, Idaho, by saying that "there is something very enticing in the idea of farming to people who have never farmed." Then in a very frank and decidedly fascinating way she tells the story of the peach orchard on which she and her husband have been living for seven years. It is a delightful tale, and much as one may sympathize with the family over their financial losses, it is impossible not to feel that they are much richer for the experience of the peach farm. In and out of the story is a thread of the chaste language, and the Sandhills of Carolina, and Mrs. Ripley is clever enough to let the reader do his own philosophizing. She furnishes such obvious material for it that one finishes the book a philosopher in his own right, and in spite of himself.

Then follows another story, "Sand Dollars," and I shall not tell you what sand dollars are, but perhaps you know. It is a story of a family that is very easy come and easy go, which seems to be the kind of dollars most people have had during the past five years. It would be hard to find a more honest and interesting narrative of the ups and downs of the period just passing than in this book. The reactions of people to prosperity and adversity, the bewilderment, which follows when money acquired by speculation takes wings, the adjustments of different families to conditions of poverty after having so recently adopted ways of wealth, all are told without bitterness and with good humor in this charming book. I think when you have finished reading these volumes you will do just what

I did—go to the library to find another one by Mrs. Ripley and feel disappointed that there are no more. I shall watch carefully among the notices of new books for her name, and hope it will not be very long before she is again in print.

Napoleon decided "an army travels on its belly" only after his splendid army perished in the snow in Russia. They got too far from their food supply winter came on and they were cut off from food entirely. They ate their horses, their cannons were buried in snow. ## TRUCK DRIVER IN CRASH CONVICTED

Five - to - One Verdict Declares Young Guilty of Liquor Possession

A commercial freight truck driver, O. E. Young of Boise, had illegal possession of several cases of whiskey in his truck when it was wrecked in a collision near Piler last August 10, according to a five to one verdict returned in Justice of the Peace H. M. Heller's court here last yesterday. One juror declined to sign the verdict. The magistrate announced sentence will be pronounced next Tuesday. Trial closed three days.

Defense counsel has indicated purpose to appeal.

Liquor involved in the case was alleged by the prosecution to have been in transit from San Francisco to two purchasers in Boise. In the course of this contention the prosecution introduced in evidence orders for the liquor, invoices and bills of lading, and placed on the witness stand the two asserted liquor buyers, C. H. Fraser and Benito Vaux, both of Boise.

Defense testimony was confined to examination today of the accused truck driver. It was brought out on cross-examination that the cargo had been re-loaded in Twin Falls into the truck with which he was driving at the time and a few minutes later was wrecked on the highway when he attempted to avoid a collision with a truck driven by Max Paul, Twin Falls hide dealer.

Inventory placed in evidence indicated Young had paid $400 deposit on a $1074.85 order for 35 cases of liquor, and that Fraser had paid $100 on an order for $600.35 worth of liquor. The indictment was returned by Edward J. O'Leary, justice of the peace of San Francisco, evidence disclosed.

Members of the jury who signed the verdict were C. T. Bracken, D. E. Shuman, J. E. Bailey, J. W. Smith and John W. Golden. T. A. O'Leary declined to sign.

LAST CHAPTER IN GRAVEL PIT MINE

Court Cancels Agreement of Sale to Placer Promoters

The final chapter in the story of Twin Falls county's gravel pit mine was written in the district court here Friday when District Judge Adam B. Barclay of Jerome entered an uncontested judgment cancelling an agreement under which A. C. Rutherford contracted in August, 1930, to sell the property to the Twin Falls Placer company, a New Jersey corporation organized by Wilmet A. Gibbs and W. J. Mack.

Rutherford claimed Gibbs and Mack misrepresented to him that the property contained gold, and asserted that they abandoned operation there after a few weeks. He asked for the court order to remove a cloud cast by the agreement of sale upon his property, which lies along the Snake river canyon rim northeast of Piler.

MANY CHILDREN NEED OUTFITS FOR SCHOOL

An appeal for childrens clothing has just been issued by Adjutant B. T. Black of the Salvation Army who states that a great many children are desperately in need of shoes and clothing in order to outfit them for school.

The relief room at the organization's headquarters is practically bare of all sorts of clothing, and those families who have outfitted their children for school with new shoes and clothing will do well to send the outgrown or otherwise usable clothing to the army headquarters for use in supplying children of the needy with school togs.

It was pointed out by Adjutant Black that school starts in a little over a week and he would like to get some children outfitted in time for the opening day. A telephone call to the Salvation Army will bring someone to call for your bundle.

Snowballs and Cherry Blossoms Flourish All on An August Day

Snowballs in August don't make sense, but O. J. Sahlgren presented the Twin Falls News with a shrewdly snowball last night.

And what's more, he got it in the front yard of his home, 166 Blue Lakes boulevard. When the snowball burst turned green and white, in showmanship style, he and May Mr. Sahlgren was pleased. It was quite a beautiful sight. But he didn't expect the bush to seek a repeat performance.

Now the thing's blooming again. The snowball he brought to the News was on a long stem, fully leaved, not quite so deep-clustered as the "first crop," but still easily identified as a snowball.

"It's all on account of this bloomin' weather," is the way O. M. Simpson explains the phenomenon at his home, 441 Fourth avenue north.

The cherry tree leafed and blossomed last spring at the customary time. Then the leaves, apparently blighted, died, and the tree was bare. Now it's dressed in a full crop of green leaves again, fully apris of blossoms here and there to lend spirit to the ensemble.

Even the plant life's gone crazy with the heat.

next year, was the challenge of the membership chairman, who suggested that this could be accomplished through personal contact, offering the real benefits of the P.-T. A. in the community.
