ZERO WEATHER IN NORTH, MID-WEST

Old Fashioned Winter Settles Down With Snow and Cold

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Old-fashioned winter, with snow and all the sub-zero trimmings, made itself at home in the North and Middle West Thursday.

Chicago slithered on pavement shrouded in ice and dug out from under a six-inch snowfall while preparing to take another on the city Friday. Forecast for tomorrow freezing prevailed Thursday, but a drop to 15 was forecast.

At White River, Ontario, it was 20 below.

In Nebraska there was a steady fall snow in the western part of the state, with heavy snow from 14 to 17. From Wyoming came warm weather, with drifting down the eastern slope of the Rockies headed for the prairie.

Sunny California was, of course, not hit with snow. It was 24 inches of snow, Oklahoma City was 4 and 40, Salt Lake City 24 and 48 and Portland 12 was the coldest of the year.

BANKERS AGAIN FURTHER CHARGES

Separate Chairman's Questionnaire Shows Definite Opposition

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (AP)—A cross-section of banking opinion was revealed today by a further definite opposition to any further radical changes in the Federal Reserve Act. Chairman Fletcher of the senate banking committee reported this in a series of opinions of the 40 bankers, economists and students of finance who have thus far replied to his questionnaire. Fletcher subscribed to this feeling of opposition. He indicated that his committee would grant hearings on all new banking and monetary proposals, including those for a central bank and unified banking system.

He said: "I am inclined to think that this is a sound position, that we should not disturb the present arrangement by some drastic legislation at this time, but should give an opportunity to show their worth or weakness." While Fletcher was analyzing the replies to his questionnaire, Senator Thomas (D-Okla.) started another on the way to senators, representatives, congressmen, editors, publishers, editors, editors, editors, and others seeking opinions of the public for further definition of the dollar.

Thomas said the dollar already had been cut from 133 to 120 and had resulted in a shifting of $12,000,000,000 in values to the benefit of taxpayers and the public generally.

A return to the 100 cent dollar, he said, would, in 1934, result in a loss of "benefit to the masses of the people" to $11,000,000,000.

Fletcher's questionnaire also included views on proposed legislation in addition to banking law proposals, but he has yet to study the replies.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 6 (AP)—Federal Agent Alvin H. Scott of the U. S. Commissioner recommended that a pair of men, charged with the federal district court, to which the commissioner made a report, be sent back to Oklahoma.

The decision followed a three-day hearing during which Urschel, maintained that the two men, charged with the federal district court, to which the commissioner made a report, be sent back to Oklahoma.

Evidence introduced included $600 in currency which federal agents said they found on Scott's person and at the Meador property which had been in the hands of a woman friend. Witnesses identified it as part of the $100,000 Urschel had taken from the bank.

BRIGHT FUTURE FOR RECLAMATION SEEN

Drouth Plays Part in Reviving Interest, Oregon Man Says

BALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 6 (AP)—There is a "current idea" that "we are approaching a 'showdown' in reclamation," Marshall N. Dana of Portland, Oregon, said here tonight shortly after arriving to preside tomorrow at the third annual convention of the National Reclamation association.

One hundred delegates from 11 Western states are expected to attend the two-day session which is to close Saturday night.

Dr. Elwood Mead of Washington, D. C., United States commissioner of reclamation, is among the speakers. Others on the program are Governor Henry H. Blood of Utah and United States Senator James P. Pope of Idaho.

"The spending of allocations for reclamation from the public works fund goes chiefly to the acquisition of further reclamation allocations from an additional fund," Dana said.

"The question of reclamation in national policy is reopened. The valuation of reclamation due to the drouth is a high light. We confront the whole issue of possible further accomplishment by united action and organization."

CLASH THREATENS ON YUGOSLAVIAN, HUNGARIAN BORDER

Yugoslavia without foregoing their allegiance to Hungary.

(Available records show 400,000 Hungarians live in Yugoslavia, most of these have become naturalized Yugoslavs.)

The League government does not wish the presence of the unnaturalized Hungarians to be used as the basis for agitation for revision of treaties whereby the Hungarian kingdom might revert to Hungary, it was stated.

In an exclusive interview at Purich, assistant minister for foreign affairs, asserted stories originating in Hungary that those expelled were badly treated were untrue.

European Council
Thousands of those stated for expulsion, he said, have been allowed up to 10 days to wind up their affairs, while no legitimate request for delay has been refused.

These 27,000 Hungarian citizens, Purich said, "have been living and working here on permits renewable every three or six months."

"In view of the general situation, including the unemployment of Yugoslav citizens, the Hungarian attitude at Geneva and the fact that Hungary recently has withdrawn permits for several hundred Yugoslavs who have been living in Hungary, we decided not to renew the permits when they fall due."

"What we are doing is perfectly legal and has been done frequently in other European states during recent years."

Appeals to League

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Dec. 6 (AP)—A Hungarian appeal against Yugoslavia's expulsion of Hungarians went forward to the League of Nations today as the cabinet was called into special session to discuss the new issue rising between the two nations.

With refugees from the Slav kingdom pouring into Hungary by the hundreds, the government took drastic steps to forestall an event that might increase the prevailing tension.

Indignation ran high in Budapest after many refugees asserted they were hurried out of Yugoslavia without being given time to gather their possessions.

Government officials went to Escard and other frontier stations to take testimony from refugees concerning their alleged ill treatment, but authorities were represented as apprehensive that the situation might lead to an open break with Yugoslavia. House newspapers were instructed to keep silent concerning number or condition of the arrivals.

The refugees, estimated to number some 2,000 included two 65-year-old women leading their 85-year-old blind father, a young mother with her babe born along the route, a four-year-old girl who had lost both of her parents in her flight, and many tramp-like in search of friends, relatives or hospitable strangers in the interior of Hungary.

HARLOW'S AIRPLANE MARRIAGE CRASHES

Silver-Blonde Headed Actress Charges Mental Cruelty

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—The airplane-closeted marriage 15 months ago of the film and stage actress Jean Harlow and her cameraman Hal O. Rosson definitely cracked up yesterday.

Charging mental cruelty, the silver-blond headed actress filed suit for divorce. She asserted Rosson often read until a late hour in her bedroom preventing her from getting sleep necessary to carry on her screen activities.

The papers cited numerous instances of marital discord. Harlow was accused by Rosson of being "sullen and irritable and of an ungentle character."

She complained that he refused to assist her in her screen work. Friends and associates of the movie colony, which she resided in, constituted "continuous brutality."

Holds Afloat for Party Once, on October 7, 1933, just a month after the divorce, Jean Harlow said Rosson remained aloof in a room in their Beverly Hills home while she entertained in another part of the house.

When she returned to her room, she found the guests departed, however, she said Rosson arranged to bid them a "happy new year."

On another occasion, October 7 of this year, she charged he "acted up" while they were attending a buffet dinner given in their honor.

When she was late getting home from the studio for an appointment with her husband, he scolded her. She refused to attend the wedding of two of Miss Harlow's best friends, her petition set forth. No property division was made. Her earnings and holdings separately.

EARLY RETURNS ON SEALS GRATIFYING

Mall Sale Totals $76.25 for First Two Days; Association to Meet

Almost 100 per cent response to the Christmas Seal mall sale was given by the first 78 returns, according to Mrs. H. E. Delta, mall sale chairman of the Twin Falls County Anti-Tuberculosis Association, she announced last evening. Although the letters, each containing $1 worth of health stamps, have been in the mail but two days, the returns total $76.25, an encouraging beginning.

It is anticipated that even more encouraging reports on the progress of the seal sale will be heard when the Twin Falls County Anti-Tuberculosis Association meets at 8 o'clock at the home of the chairman, Mrs. O. F. Barlow, on Monday, December 10.

Seals finance a beneficial health program, and the number of seals purchased during the annual seal sale determines the degree of service rendered.

Educational phase of the Idaho Anti-Tuberculosis campaign offers information to the public about tuberculosis through health talks, moving pictures, posters, literature and publications.

An extensive preventative work is carried on by building individual health, especially that of children. Through a state-wide health education program in the schools, all supplies are furnished to the teachers gratis. Physically under-par children are given physical examinations, defects are corrected, and special care and feeding offered. The services of public health nurses in home and school are also furnished. One of the most vital phases of the work is the maintenance of public health camps, such as the McCloskey Memorial camp at Eagle.

IDAHO CITIES ASK FOR DIVISION OF LIQUOR REVENUES

decided. The association's recommendations involving requests for new legislation are to be referred to a special committee which with the executive committee is yet to be named by the association's president.

The resolutions adopted yesterday by the municipal officers called on the legislature to grant great authority in case of emergency to pay workmen's compensation insurance and also to make legislative provision for the state to share this burden.

A division of motor vehicle license revenues also was requested under which cities in counties that have no highway districts with bonds outstanding would receive one-half of the proportion of this revenue allotted to such counties.

Another resolution requested a simplified procedure for creation of street sprinkling districts, and recommended legal provision under which cities may levy a special tax for street sprinkling the same as is now levied for street lighting.

An overhauling of the local improvement district code also was recommended.

During yesterday's sessions, K. C. Barlow of Burley, discussed municipal finance, and Colonel F. C. Blum of Boise, member of the state planning commission and supervising architect in Idaho for the federal housing act, spoke on federal housing activities in relation to municipal planning.

on relief rolls are to be put to work but options varied as to the extent that low cost housing, subsistence, homecare, slum clearance or other projects would be used in giving them jobs.

Throughout the day, the conference that had marked the president's stay at Warm Springs were continued at the White House with a steady stream of cabinet and other official callers flowing through his newly remodeled executive office.

A radio report to the nation tonight in the next week or so may bring the first definite word from Mr. Roosevelt regarding his plan, but some officials said it was more likely that the full measure would not be disclosed until the opening health camp will be discussed at Saturday's meeting.

of congress. Harry L. Hopkins, the relief administrator, who returned to the president, said in a late afternoon press conference that he did not expect any increase in the amount of emergency relief administration work relief this winter. He did stress the value of such work relief as slum clearance, rural rehabilitation and like projects.

Other Agencies in Picture One point, however, was particularly emphasized in other quarters. The president was said to be determined that the four million employable persons on relief shall be taken off and put to work. Between this point and Hopkins' statement many concluded that while the F.P.A. might not expand its work relief, some agency would. All of the emergency and permanent agencies of the government during the last few months have made broad surveys of the work that needs to be done. Numerous efforts have been made to encourage private activities which would absorb some of those on relief. Administration advisers were despondent as to this, however, that there was a wide gap the federal government must fill.

Hopkins said today that if the 4,000,000 able bodied persons on relief rolls were put to work it would reduce to a very small figure the number of persons left. He said there were about 4,200,000 families on relief and some 4,500,000 employables, or about 1.8 employable persons to each family.

Hopkins made one point which many of his hearers considered significant. He said it had been figured that 1,500,000 families on relief rolls could be established in rural farming and industrial communities without disturbing agriculture and without expense to the government.

Just what will emerge from this rush of suggestions and ideas probably will not finally be told until next summer.

Almost immediately upon his return today the chief executive turned to the congressional program, which, many expect, will be dominated by the work-relief legislation.

Vice President Garner, one of the president's chief liaison officers with congress, came to Washington today to work with Mr. Roosevelt and was among his first callers of the afternoon.

Showing his determination to carry on with the New Deal policies, Mr. Roosevelt brought back with him orders for continuance of the acreage control program as a general agricultural policy.

Titleholder Shows Killing Power in Four-Round Bout

DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 6 (AP)—Max Baer, king of the heavyweights, returned to active ring warfare tonight as he smashed an opponent in his way to a one-sided victory over Johnny Miller, light-heavyweight pride of southern Iowa's coal fields, in a four round bout before 2500 persons.

MAX BAER

Making his first appearance as a contestant since he brought the world's heavyweight title back to America by beating the massive Italian, Primo Carnera, last June, Baer showed he had lost none of his killing punch, and also none of his flare for showmanship as he "killed" through the two minute rounds.

Alabama Gridders Show Spirit in Pass, Signal Drill

'We Expect You to Roll Over Stanford New Year's Day,' Alumni Inform Undeleted Crimson Tide

UNIVERSITY, Ala., Dec. 6 (AP)—Inspired by an alumni admonition that "we expect you to roll over Stanford New Year's day," the University of Alabama Crimson Tide charged through a peppery pass and signal drill this afternoon—as preparations continued for the invasion of the Rose Bowl.

Cochs Paul Burnum of the freshman squad had charge of today's workout and sent the players through a series of maneuvers of their intricate Notre Dame system.

Yets punctured the practice as three squads charged up and down Denney stadium, Burnum and they showed more "spirit and cut up" than he's seen all year.

"Rough Work" Next Week

The squad will enjoy another holiday tomorrow, but a signal drill is slated Saturday and "rough work" will begin Monday, Coach Thomas has warned his men there will be no let up after December until they leave for California Monday 21.

Enthusiasm has been mounting by leaps and bounds among undergraduates since it was announced Alabama would play in the Rose Bowl game. Railway reservations for the trip were snapped up and a "Rose Bowl homecoming" has been organized, members hoping they will win it all themselves in a freight car to Pasadena and back.

Gomez led the league in victories; 26 against five defeats, and had the best earned run average, .233. In addition, although far from being the majestic moundman he was in the circuit, he pitched the most innings, 250. Led in the circuit in the number of games won, 25, and on nine occasions he won in five innings or less. He also struck out 225 batters and led the league in the number of innings pitched, 250.

INJURIES IN AUTO CRASH KILL WOMAN

Mrs. Sarah Bolton, Mother of Three Children, Fatally Hurt

Fatally injured when the car in which she was riding was struck by another car and overturned on the highway three miles west of Elletts last Wednesday evening, Mrs. Sarah Lydia Bolton, 35, mother of three children, died at a Duhi hospital at 9:50 a. m. yesterday, without regaining consciousness.

Her companion, Charles F. Diggs, 41, of Elletts, and Carl Hollenbeck, 21, of Twin Falls, driver of the other car, with the assistance of W. L. Hawkins, resident of Elletts, identified the car under which Mrs. Bolton was pinned, and a passing motorist took Diggs and the injured woman to the hospital. Diggs received a deep cut over the left eye.

NEW DODGE, PLYMOUTH SLATED FOR SHOWING

Initial-southern-Idaho-showing of the new 1935 model Dodge and Plymouth automobiles will take place beginning at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the show rooms of the Magel Automobile company, company officials announced last night.

Although the new Dodge unofficially made its appearance here early this week when the initial carload arrived, the Plymouth has yet to be seen in Twin Falls. An additional carload of Dodges and two carloads of Plymouths are scheduled to arrive here at 11 o'clock this morning.

HOUSE MOVED INTO BUSINESS DISTRICT

Exposition Dwelling Makes First Appearance in Twin Falls

Entering Twin Falls to really set the Twin Falls Empire exposition fireworks off, a little yellow house formerly occupied by a series of section foremen at Hollister, made its way into the downtown district yesterday and finally came to a stop in the middle of Second street north between the Idaho Power company and the C. W. M. company building.

The arrival of the house, which will later be completely remodeled and modernized to be given away to the exposition, had great publicity announced in the morning; and by 11 a. m. a tractor pulled the structure into its three-month location. The arrival of the house brought to a close a week of labor at Contractor John DeKlatis and his moving crew, who struggled against the winter blizzard at Hollister to bring the building to Twin Falls.

DEBATE WINS HIGH ESTEEM OF SCHOOL

Marked Increase in Popularity of Forensics Seen by Loyal Perry

Extraordinary enthusiasm for debate among the student body this year has raised the quality of high school forensics in Twin Falls considerably. The large number of under-classmen participating in inter-class competition has pushed class debate to a high standard and prompted well for inter-scholastic work later this year.

Loyal J. Perry, debate mentor, commented yesterday, Perry made this statement in appreciation of school cooperation in forensics and in anticipation of the inter-mural championship debate to be held today.

The senior class team and the freshman squad will meet in a student body assembly at nine o'clock this morning to contest for the title and the points toward the citizenship cup. Island High and Elletts Junior High will represent the first year students and Homer Mason and James Hines compose the senior team. The seniors defeated the Juniors, and the freshmen conquered over the sophomore team November 27 for the right to enter the finals.

The four boys participating in today's debate-laws-earned the honor by indirect elimination.

With the exception of seven boys who were on the varsity squad last year, everyone in the high school was eligible for class teams, and the boys debating today have earned the honor through direct or indirectly eliminating all these other students.

Present dimensions of the building are 24 by 22 feet and DeKlatis announced last night that plans are to make the house into a 32 by 44 foot structure. All local labor and materials will be used, he added.

Furnishings for the house will be purchased from Twin Falls merchants by the committee and will be on exhibition at Empire headquarters on an early date, Harold B. Hart, vice, exposition manager, said yesterday.

Work at exposition headquarters continued last night as a new window display of merchandise for next Wednesday's auction was prepared, and punch boards were placed in the basement of the building. "Easy-money" tokens less than 10 cents will be used on these boards.

Work also continued on the Empire "oditorium" as new collections of curio were put into place.

Funeral Services

The body of Mrs. Bolton is to be laid to rest beside the grave of her father in the Filer cemetery, following funeral services which will be held at the White mortuary chapel in Twin Falls at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. G. L. Lewis of the Presbyterian church is to conduct the services.

Mrs. Bolton was born in Pawnee county, Nebraska, February 25, 1898. Her children, who have made their home with their grandmother, Mrs. Rachel Tannahill of Twin Falls, are Benny Howard, Ellen Howard and Juanita Howard. She leaves also two brothers and three sisters, Milo L. Tannahill of Idaho, Setta L. Tannahill of Twin Falls, Mrs. Anna Fyle of Bush, Mrs. Frelma LaPray of Filer and Mrs. Ruth Malone of Castleford.

The paternal grandparents of the Howard children died in the Titanic disaster.

MAN CHARGED CRUELTY

Alleging cruelty, Alma Billman of Duhi started suit in the district court here yesterday for divorce from Miss Edith Billman, and for custody of their two small daughters, 19 months and 8 months old. The children, according to the complaint, were left in the father's keeping when the mother abandoned their home last July. She is believed to have gone to Los Angeles. The Billmans were married at Burley, July 7, 1932.

GOVERNMENT BACKS RURAL SETTLEMENT

Back-to-Land Movement Called Core of Long-Term Relief

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (AP)—A back-to-the-land movement, of exodus proportions, is being fostered by federal funds, lies at the core of the government's long-time plans for the destitute unemployed.

Scores of rural-industrial communities are to be built with funds to speed this migration next year. Harry L. Hopkins, the relief administrator, has given his word that such villages will be multiplied as fast as they can be developed on a sound basis.

Government-financed suburban homes for industrial workers in the low wage class also are being fitted into the administrator's program for 1935. Some officials would like to spend $1,500,000,000 for such projects during the next five years.

Best Unemployment Insurance
Both schemes are based on the theory that the best form of unemployment insurance is a garden or small farm, but coupled with this is industrial employment, on a part-time basis.

Facilities to buy small tracts of land and build inexpensive homes for those already have been established in the FEPA and the public works administration.

Many New Deal plans are concentrating on another phase of the problem. That is the difficulty of providing part-time industrial occupations for families transplanted to rural settlements.

Cooperative workshops financed by government loans are considered a partial solution. Officials count more heavily on decentralizing private industry. They claim that stable labor conditions, low tax rates and nearness to raw materials will attract branch plants to the new communities.

Administration figures show that 25 per cent of the nation's industry is concentrated in New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago and Los Angeles.

Fifty Projects Approved
Fifty rural-industrial communities for the needy unemployed have been approved tentatively by the administration. These include one community already completed and two now under way, are to be built with relief funds and relief labor. These settlements are to engage in any commercial farming on a large scale but are to raise food for their own use.

As fast as they are finished, homes in these communities are to be rented to the unemployed. They include an interest charge in line with farm credit administration. The financing plan is to be completed by the end of the year. Relief loans for tools, seed and other supplies are contemplated.

The relief administration estimates that 100 homes in the community at Woodlake, Texas, cost an average of $1,000 including land and outbuildings. The cost of homesteads in another relief settlement near Ocala, Ark., ranges from $300 to $1,300.

Secretary Ickes' substance home-steads organization follows a somewhat different plan. Most of its houses are built by private contractors and sold by government at a 3 per cent interest in families with small incomes. The buyers are given 30 years to complete payments.

NOT VERY SATISFACTORY, NO MATTER HOW WE LOOK AT IT

ALASKA-YUKON SOURDOUGHS IN SEATTLE FOR RE-UNION

SEATTLE, Dec. 6 (AP)—Sourdoughs who broke snow trails north of the Aurora Borealis "marched" toward Seattle today for the annual banquet of Alaska-Yukon pioneers and the greatest collection of souped-up moose steaks and hot-rotting stews since the days of Robert W. Service.

Most of them were gold hunters in the days when men died death on the dangerous Chilkoot pass for a handful of nuggets, but there were prospectors of other kinds, also—men like Peter Trimble Howe, first Episcopal missionary bishop of Alaska; Judge Charles E. Cropp, who brought the law to the North; Frank Cotter, newspaperman and gold miner; and Captain Joe R. Matthews, Yukon river boat man.

About 600 are expected for the banquet and dance Saturday night, many from Alaska and Yukon, Canada. Governor Troy of Alaska is invited, as is George Blane, speaker of the house of commons of the Dominion of Canada, and a long list of celebrities who cut their start in the gold mines. They'll wear the furs and mitts of the Eskimos.

Tail tales of the Yukon grow tall, as these banquets, which recall the annual international sourdough reunion, with its "order of exalted prelatars," the whisky drinking, the stories that catch fish, the frozen echoes of the valley of 10,000 curves and all the other favorite lies of Norland are due for restoration.

Frank Cotter will relate the tale of how a house of cotton and silk was set of snowshoes to escape the hordes—unless someone stops him. Judge Cropp is worried some-thing about the whisky drinking. He is asked, because people believe the stories that catch fish, the frozen echoes of the valley of 10,000 curves and all the other favorite lies of Norland are due for restoration.

NEW SERUM CALLED DEATH TO CANCER

English Scientist Announces Achievement After 10 Years' Work

(Copyright, 1934, by The Associated Press)
LONDON, Dec. 6.—A new serum he described as able to kill cancer cells removed from the human body and do no harm to healthy tissue, was announced yesterday by Dr. Thomas Lamson, whose last 10 years have been devoted to the fight of cancer.

The scientist, head of the cancer research laboratories of the London hospital, emphasized strongly in his report to the hospital's court of governors that the serum, obtained from the blood of an animal after cancerous cells from an animal of different species had been implanted, was not ready to use in treating human beings.

"The serum is only in the experimental stage and has not reached the point where it can be tried on human beings," Dr. Lamson's report set forth.

He asserted, however, that the serum he had discovered would kill cancer tissues taken from the human body while at the same time leaving unharmed healthy tissue removed with it.

"Scientists in experiment with cancerous tissues outside the body keep cancer cells and healthy tissue alive and growing in test tubes for indefinite periods.

Distinct Encouragement
Dr. Lamson, whose work since March, 1926, has been aided by grants from the British empire cancer campaign, declared in his report that the cure of the problem in fighting the dread disease was to evolve some specific which would infect and kill cancer cells but would not injure normal cells.

"This new serum does, the report stated, pointing out, however, that the most that can be said is that this line of research offers distinct encouragement. It might be mentioned that there is no evidence that cancer is due to a germ or is infectious in the general sense."
In the course of his investigation, the British scientist said, it was found that the serum would kill cancer cells implanted from one animal to another of the same species, and so raise the resistance that, once animals are cured, it is impossible to re-infect them.

The report said Lamson and his co-workers were engaged in refining the serum, which it was anticipated would be the result of a year of accurate scientific process. No details of the processes involved were given.

Vandalism Brings Sad Christmas to Hagerman Pioneer

HAGERMAN, Dec. 6.—"Get your Christmas tree early" must have been the idea of two young persons, a boy and girl, who evidently came to Hagerman valley Sunday for the purpose and decided an old Juniper tree, long a well known landmark on Mrs. Willa Justice's 40 acre tract near Hagerman was just what they wanted.

With a saw they climbed into the tree and while the Justice family was enjoying Sunday dinner, cut the cooler top out of the Juniper and dragged it some distance to the highway where their car was in waiting. They made a clean sweep away despite the fact the Justice family were in close pursuit, having been informed by neighbors who saw what was going on.

"They certainly got a nice Christmas tree," Mrs. Justice said, "but they ruined a very old landmark for me. I have cared for and watered that tree for nearly 40 years. It was on the ranch when my husband and I have never allowed a single limb of it to be used for any purpose in all that time."

MEDFORD, Ore., Dec. 6 (AP)—A petition asking Governor Meyer to grant a full pardon to Albert W. Reed, former Medford resident, serving a life term for slaying Victor Kautz, Ashland policeman, was served today upon the district attorney here. Reed was shot to death two years ago.

District Attorney George Coffield said granting of clemency would be based on the alleviation of conscience of a judge of error by the court in admitting evidence of California history, and on reputedly low evidence.

HOPKINS TACKLES YOUTH'S PROBLEMS

Plight of School'd But Job-less Young Americans Claims Attention

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (AP)—In a month's time, the federal relief plans today rested a program designed to give to many school-leavers the jobs for which they trained.

The relief administrator wants to keep the eagerness for vocations which they so recently brought fresh from high schools and colleges.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt shares Hopkins' interest in this problem. Letters from discouraged young men and women—many of them just out of high school and college—called attention. A survey indicated 3,500,000 young folks in this group were neither in school nor at work.

Special FEPC aid for youth is limited largely at present to part-time work relief jobs for poor college students. The government is spending $1,500,000 a month to keep 12,000 students in school. They are paid an average wage of $15 a month for helping librarians and registrars, building campus flower beds, repairing school playgrounds and other "socially desirable" projects.

Employment for Teachers

Another relief activity in the educational field is the employment to 40,000 jobless teachers at an average salary of $50 a month. Among other things they teach 12,000,000 children to read and write. Nurses for children and hospital employes also are conducted by the relief-paid teachers.

The promise of relief funds is keeping schools open in hard-pressed rural districts of Arkansas, North and South Dakota. A total of $1,000,000 is being made available on January 31. By that time relief officials hope congress will determine whether assistance of this type should be continued.

Relief outlays in the field of education totaled $23,200,000 from the beginning of the FEPC in May, 1933, through October this year. Of this $18,500,000 was poured into rural school districts last spring.

The government's plan of aiding poor college students has been accepted by every state university in the country. Cooperating in the program are 146 colleges and universities. By far, including Harvard, Yale and the students, have declined to use the William aid.

BRAZIL LAUNCHES MUNITIONS PROGRAM TO BE INDEPENDENT OF FOREIGN ARMS

RIO DE JANEIRO, Dec. 6 (AP)—Self sufficiency is being applied by Brazil to her defense force on land, sea and in the air.

Under the impetus of Pedro Góes Monteiro, minister of war and director of the Instituto Tecnológico Militar, the navy department, plans are being made to make the country independent of foreign sources for arms, munitions, planes and other supplies necessary for a thorough modernization program.

The first plane factory is being built in the state of Pernambuco. The nation's first military airplane factory, in fact its first airplane factory of any kind, is being erected. The first plant for turning out projectiles will be built soon and steel are being selected for factories which will produce brass and guns.

A new naval arsenal is to be expanded on Brazil will have its own manufacturing plants.

Naval airplanes are making new maps of the coast. Army fliers are carrying mail into the interior. Recently in the chamber of deputies a motion was made to establish adequate landing fields in each of Brazil's 20 states.

Army goes to school. Wireless communications devices are being developed by the army and navy. In the recent maneuvers the messages were transmitted by instruments made in Brazilian factories.

Army cadets are trained in the use of the state school for non-commissioned officers and a cavalry for that special service.

Modernization of the navy on a coast defense basis has been going on for some time. Admiral Outre recently visited the latest acquisition in the four-masted schooner, the Almirante Saldanha da Gama, named for a former navy commander who campaigned extensively for efficiency in naval training.

The whole campaign is centered on the thesis that Brazil, with an area surpassed only by China and the Soviet Union and with its coastline of 3,652 miles the greatest in the world, is inadequately defended.

This Army's Going Modern, Too

Brail, relying hitherto upon defensive weapons which proved their worth before the days of gas warfare, submarines and airplanes, is modernizing her army, navy and air. ### U. S. Negotiates $30,000,000 Swap For German Wares

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (AP)—Completion of a $30,000,000 cotton barter deal with Germany apparently started yesterday when American officials were informed that the Hitler government had approved the transaction.

Only clearance at the state and treasury departments remained. Informal sources said, to consummate the transaction expected to furnish an outlet for 500,000 bales—and perhaps 800,000 of the country's principal export product.

Officials said the exchange had been approved by the export-import AAR cotton joint, and the agricultural adjustment administration.

The treasury is to give its ruling within the next few days and indications today were that it would be favorable.

A strong effort was being made by Bond interests to persuade the state department that the deal was vital to the welfare of the South.

In return for the cotton this country is to accept German goods approximating the value of the staple. Situations are not German products mentioned but it was explained American importers are to select the German products in the trade area.

Involved in the negotiations which led the Germans to accept the trade proposals, but whether a large quantity of pork products included in the deal was not known.

Tutta Follows Greta Sweden Sends Gayer Actress To Hollywood

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Sweden is sending a new motion picture actress to Hollywood—a brown-eyed young lady, far removed in personality from Miss Greta Garbo's type—the so-called "Stockholm bomb" in 1934.

Tutta Bertensson-Rolf, who is lively, animated, fun-loving, and whom many consider the leading motion picture actress in Scandinavia, has signed a contract to appear in American production.

Has Met Hollywood

Tutta plans to sail for New York late in December, her contract calling for arrival in Hollywood next later than Greta Garbo's.

She is no stranger to Hollywood, having visited there in 1930 to appear in a Scandinavian version of the film "Parasites on Parade." This time she is going to the Fox studio.

Born in Norway, although now a Swedish subject through marriage, Tutta began her theatrical career in Oslo when she was 16. She later gained great popularity in Stockholm through her singing and dancing, and then directed suddenly into the picture business. Several of her pictures carried favorable comment in the United States.

She's Trademarked Also

While comedy is Tutta's forte, and evincing her delight, she has of late endeavored ambitiously also in serious roles. She recently secured a triumph as Ophelia in a stage production of Hamlet in Copenhagen. Her chief interest, aside from the theater, is her 100-year-old son, and beyond that a variety of sports, with skating a specialty.

She speaks more English than the average foreign find, has never met Garbo, and is a "little afraid" of Hollywood.

STAMPS

In The News

Some rather startling designs comprise the group of five stamps from Russia, the issue of the twentieth anniversary of the start of the world war.

Each depicts some phase of the war, and the designs are rather than military illustrations. The designs show an unfractured city brought to its knees by a rain of bombs, a plume of a battle and the application of the front and rear of the machine, before and after the battle, with soldiers marching in precision to the front and returning to the rear with crutches. The sword as a plow with humanity as the motive power is the theme of the 20, which the 35-kopec illustrates front-line trenching.

Another value, 25 centimes, of the recent Swiss pictorial issue has been designated "Soldiers des Nations" for the war. The 20, which had been previously issued with the overprint, incidentally, these stamps are obtainable by the public only in a cancelled condition.

A new printing of the Belgian 50 centime postage due in gray blue, in addition to the 10-cent French of the Ades stamps issued by Argentine in connection with the recent Eucharist congress at Buenos Aires, a 15-cent value was printed. It was never used, but has a postage due series, at least to the 41-50 cent value.

The new picture, approximately $1,500,000 were on display at the recent philatelic exhibition at Melbourne, Australia. They included 3-cent stamps, which have been valued into the thousands.

French-Oceanic has just issued its first annual stamp, a 5-franc green.

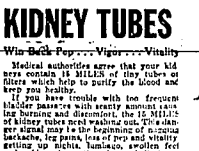

The color of the 3-cent Indo-Chinese stamp picturing the tower at Hanoi, has been changed from deep brown to green.

FATEFUL REYNOLDS FORTUNE IN COURT

Final Action Awaits Disposition of Seven Questions

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Dec. 6 (AP)—After two years of marinating legal fingers are seeking to unwind the red tape that binds up the $25,000,000 trust estate of Zachary Smith Reynolds and bring it to an early settlement.

The courts have been concerned with issues arising from young Reynolds' two marriages. At last virtually every legal point has been uncovered and now final action awaits disposition of the following questions:

1. A court test of the locality of Zachary's residence from his first wife, the former Anne Cannon, daughter of a wealthy Concord, N. C., cotton manufacturer. A daughter, Anne II, was born of this union and her guardian, the Cabarrus bank and trust company of Concord is demanding that the Reynolds was validly divorced six days before he married Libby Holman, former Broadway torch singer.
2. The legal status of Libby, as second wife, and of their son, Christopher Smith Reynolds, who was born five months after the divorce and was about during a joy birthday party at "Reynolds", palatial estate of the Reynolds family.
3. Christopher's share of the estate of the point raised by Libby Christopher, through his "next friend", that he is entitled to all of the income of the $100,000 which Zachary settled on Anne and Anne II at the time of the divorce. The infant asks the courts to confirm the settlement; the trustee of the bank opposes it as invalid in that the first wife had no right to sue for the full inheritance of her infant daughter.
4. Final court decision on a proposal by Zachary's brother and two sisters that Libby be paid $150,000; Christopher, $500,000; Libby Anne, $500,000; and that the remainder, about $10,000,000, be used for creation of a charitable foundation in memory of the dead youth.

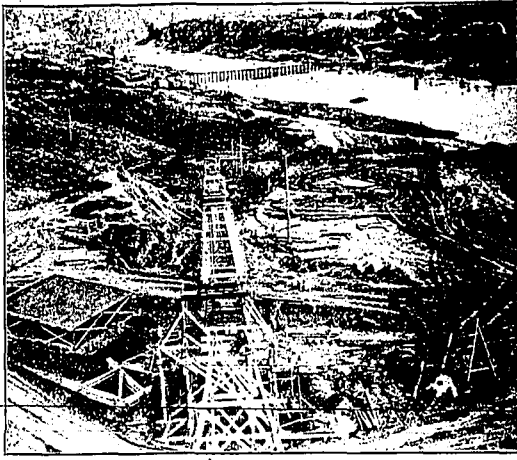

5. Settlement of claims by the state of North Carolina to a portion of the estate for inheritance taxes estimated at $2,000,000 which is divided as the brother and sister proposed.
6. Questions regarding the validity of a will filed by Zachary in New York state which was designed to leave his share of his father's estate to his brother, R. J. Reynolds, Jr., and his sisters, Mrs. Charles Babcock and Mrs. Henry W. Dancy. One complaint is pending in this will is found in R. J. Reynolds' provisions that his children shall not come into his inheritance until they are 28. Zachary died at 21.
7. Settlement of contentions by the State of North Carolina and Baltimore, trustees under R. J. Reynolds' will, that Zachary's share of the fortune cannot be traced until 1929, the year the youth would have been 28.

In 1925 R. J. Reynolds came here with $16,000 in a carpet bag and founded a $100,000,000 fortune on his small chewing tobacco factory. His son Zachary was married at 2 a. m. one October day in 1920 to Anne Cannon by a magistrate at York, S. C. Her father, F. Cannon, had the family chauffeur were the only witnesses.

Within a year the newlyweds dispersed. Six days after the marital bonds were severed, he and Libby were married, but the wedding was hasty and until he completed an airplane-steamer trip around the world.

Plated Shot Rings Out. Soon thereafter they came to Reynolds for a sojourn. Friends were invited from New York and elsewhere for a house party. Some time after

KISS FOR FEE BUILDS TRADE FOR MARRIAGE LICENSE CLERK

HARRISON, N. Y., Dec. 6 (AP)—A kiss on the lips of the bride is the "fee" exacted by Town Clerk William A. Wilding, who almost single-handedly has made this town into the "kiss" town of the Hudson Valley.

Marilyn Miller, Ruth Chatterton, Sylvia Fox, Ruth Campbell, Jean Howard, Jenn May and Frances Deere some of the state and screen stars from whom Wilding has exacted the fee.

Wilding has issued 2500 marriage licenses, mostly to out-of-towners, in a little less than five years. He only has been a town clerk a number of kisses, but he has collected in the town's revenues from it.

The kissing clerk is middle-aged, married, and shy about his age. "Even my wife doesn't know," he has a son in college.

Harrison's popularity as a marriage spot came after Connecticut proved a law requiring five days to elapse between issuance of the license and performance of the marriage ceremony. Until then, Greenwich, Connecticut, had been the most heavily patronized Green in the East for elopers and others who wanted secret weddings.

The two marrying justices of Greenwich, Pike and O'Brien, knew Wilding and knew he could be counted on to help an eloper couple any hour of the day or night.

So couples coming to Greenwich were directed to Harrison. Sometimes one of the Greenwich judges plucked the bride from Wilding's hands.

When the town clerk is out in the evening, police headquarters know where to get him.

The town gets $1. from each license. The state gets the other dollar, the judge or minister who performs the wedding gets from nothing up and the clerk rarely is tipped. So Wilding started his own fee system, assessing the bride.

acted his fee for filling out their marriage licenses.

"Marilyn Miller—there was the thrill! Wilding said tonight, smack his lips in recollection. "I can still feel it. She kissed me before it was no stage kiss."

He nuzzled kissing Lila Lee yesterday morning because he didn't know it was she, and there were two young witnesses, he said sadly. "Sometimes there are too many people around; then I miss out. Usually the kiss is my fee when they come without witnesses and want me to stand up for the bride."

SOVIET GIVES HERO FUNERAL TO KIROFF

Russian Leaders Pledge Renewed Vengeance as Slain Chief Is Buried

MOSCOW, Dec. 6.—A hero's funeral was given Sergei Kiroff, assassinated communist leader, today as Soviet leaders renewed their vows to wreak vengeance on the "enemies of the revolution."

The bodies of 60 convicted counter-revolutionaries, executed yesterday, bore graphic evidence to the terror of those vows.

"Bolsheviks do not know how to keep," Dmitri Manuilsky, secretary of the Committee for the United Front, declared, just before Kiroff's ashes were deposited in the niche in the Kremlin wall, "but they know how to avenge."

"Comrade Kiroff is a martyr like Rosa Luxemburg and Karl Liebknecht," he said. "Let us beat the enemies of the revolution."

Diames "Class Enemies" As the rigid investigation that followed hard on the heels of Kiroff's murder in Leningrad Saturday night, the only real evidence of counter-revolutionary activity, Vladimir Molotov, president of the council of people's commissars, charged his murderer was sent by "class enemies."

They must be stamped out, he insisted, even though they have been so weakened by the bolsheviks that they can only shoot men from behind.

Josef Stalin, though he said no enemy over Kiroff's ashes, helped carry the urn to the red catafalque before the tomb of Nikolai Lenin, father of the bolshevik revolution, and stood with the communist leaders during the funeral ceremony.

A faintly-shining sun in gray skies above did little to warm the biting cold of the dull winter day.

The military guard of honor for the dead leader, who started to power in the Soviet army with his skillful handling of the bolshevik communist army that routed anti-bolsheviks in the Caucasus 15 years ago, consisted largely of infantry wearing blue helmets, high boots and heavy khaki overcoats reaching al-

After the ashes were deposited in the massive wall, taps sounded and fanned Red Square was opened to the workers. Hours after hour they marched past Kiroff's last resting place.

Meanwhile, presumably the questioning of Leonid Nikoliev, held as Kiroff's assassin, went on as new anti-terrorism decrees speeded the pace and closed the loopholes of the so-called terrible Soviet justice.

What evidence was brought against the 61 executed yesterday, all but five of the 71 alleged "white guards" rounded up after the assassination was not divulged, nor did the indignant nation know how they met their death.

A woman, Zinaida Bulbena, was among them.

They were tried by the supreme military courts; no appeal was permitted; their property was confiscated.

1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1 egg yolk, well beaten
1/2 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg yolk, beat well. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla. Bake in greased pan, 8x8x2 inches, in moderate oven (350° F.) 35 minutes or until done. Spread cooled frosting made with brown sugar on top and sides of cake.

And notice! Just one level teaspoon to a cup of sifted flour. Calumet goes farther—its thrifty!
