U. S. AUTHORITIES CHARGE AT TORREYS SHARED IN RANSOM

Arrests Mark Opening of Drive Against Alleged Ties Between Crime and Criminal Lawyers

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 17.—The federal government opened its heretofore drive against alleged ties between crime and criminal lawyers today with the arrest of two attorneys charged with sharing in the $200,000 ransom paid the kidnapers of Charles E. Urschel.

Both appeared as defense attorneys in the trial of the notorious criminals convicted of abducting the wealthy Oklahoma City oil man.

The indictments allege that Laska, a Denver attorney, was guilty of aiding in the defense of suspects in the $200,000 ransom kidnapping of Charles Goodrich, 23, of Denver, received through Urschel's ransom and paid $1000 of it to Mathers.

Bond reduced to $10,000. Mathers, dark, stocky son of John W. Mathers, attorney, was held under $20,000 bond but Federal Judge Edgar B. Vaughn later reduced the amount to $10,000.

The action taken against these lawyers reflects the determination of the division of investigation (headed by the chief of justice) to appropriately known as criminal attorneys who sponsor, guide, advise and protect the members of the underworld in the criminal operations receive appropriate punishment, said Dwight Brantley, division chief here.

Brantley also announced that conspiracy indictments had been returned against Clara Feldman, wife of Albert Feldman, 49, of age, a well-known attorney, and his son, and Alvin Scott, her brother-in-law. The three were arrested in connection with the

Louisiana Legislators OK Kingfish's Bills

Dictator On Floor of Chamber Back Slapping And Jostling; No Voice In Opposition

(By The Associated Press) BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 17.—Senator Huey Long's legislative program to tighten his grip on Louisiana was advanced in the house tonight to a position for final enactment tomorrow as a "mystery session" of the senate stirred new rumors.

The legislation increases the tax on corporations, extends the political authority of Long over local government and gives his administration control over the hiring of school teachers.

A business session of the senate was called to order at 8 o'clock, but it was adjourned until tomorrow when it will receive the bills from the house.

Senator Coleman Lindsey, administration leader, last night announced the session of the senate for tonight and said there might be "some business" done, but it might be informed the preceding evening that there was "no business" and more adjournment.

Lindsey's first announcement aroused speculation in some quarters a report might be made tonight to the senate on Long's legislative committee investigation of the "corruption" of Mayor T. Semmes Wainwright's "old regular" politicians in the New Orleans city administration, against which many of Long's dictatorial policies are aimed in his bill to reorganize the city from Wainwright's control.

The bills drawn by Long, which are expected to pass, include: (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

DU PONT'S APPROVE WAR PROFIT PLAN

Contractors to Six Per Cent of Investment

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17 (AP)—With some qualifications, members of the Du Pont family today approved a war department plan for the contractors to speed up work and encourage investment.

Both Irenée and Pierre Du Pont, the senate relations committee, they thought the scheme a good one. They suggested, however, allowance should be made for bonuses by the contractors to speed up work and encourage investment.

The famous Delaware munitions manufacturers were asked for their opinion on the plan after the committee had received the outline of elaborate war department "preparations to mobilize 12,000 privately owned firms quickly into a vast war supplies network."

Contracts Drawn Up. Blank contracts—not including the cost-plus type which aroused so much controversy—were drawn up and the contractors who had been drawn up. Legislation is ready for congressional consideration.

Immediately upon a declaration of war the contractors will be required to constant modernizing revision. Lieutenant Colonel O. T. Harris of the war department testified the contract would be a fixed price and the other of an "adjusted compensation" character, involving the six per cent limitation. This, he said, had been approved by the department.

"It seems to me," said Irenée Du Pont, "that it is a very good question" "if fixing a definite percentage would eliminate the embarrassment of trusteeship to the stockholders, and let the price go up."

Doing "Grand Job." "It would take away a great deal of the feeling that some were being better treated than others. The war effort is a big job and it is important to get the best out of it."

Pierre Du Pont agreed in general, but raised the question of bonuses. The company he said, found the money invested in bonuses during the war yielded the best return, in the opinion of the committee.

"It works so well in industries that it ought not to be passed over lightly."

DEPUTY SHERIFFS DISPLACE TROOPS AT CLOSED PLANT

Local Authorities Can Handle the Situation, Commander of Guardsmen in Kentucky Area Announces

(By The Associated Press) MOREHEAD, Ky., Dec. 17.—Seventy-five deputy sheriffs tonight displaced national guard troops on duty at the strike-closed Kentucky Fire Brick company plant at Haldeman.

Adjutant General H. H. Demhardt, at Frankfort, Ky., advised that the troops, including the 325 employes of the plant, were ordered to leave the plant and board up its commissary building.

The guardsmen were assigned to Haldeman, near Morehead, after L. J. Haldeman, president of the company, appealed to County Judge O. E. Jennings, citing "threats and intimidation" to protect the property and the majority of employes. Protection also was asked so the company could keep burning brick in the kilns where thousands of dollars worth of bricks are being baked.

Group of the 325 employes laid off by the shutdown gathered about the plants but there was no disturbance.

Lashed By Storm Norwegian Ship Asks For Rescue

NEW YORK, Dec. 17 (AP)—Lashed by the most devastating storm to sweep the north Atlantic in many winters, the tiny Norwegian freighter, the S/S Orest, is asking for "urgent assistance."

Immediately all wireless stations, both in the British Isles and in America, concentrated for further messages from the little ship. Further word was forthcoming.

The exact nature of the vessel's danger could not be learned, but apparently it had lost its rudder. At once a number of liners made at top speed for the position given by the S/S Orest, which was between 230 and 300 miles off the Irish coast in the northernmost shipping lanes.

Like-life-boat-fragments were reported in the sea. The vessel was among the last vessels to clear the port of Montreal before the closing of the St. Lawrence to water traffic.

YOUTH BOUND OVER ON MURDER CHARGE

Aviator Testifies to Hearing Phillip Kennamer Predict Student's Death

TULSA, Okla., Dec. 17 (AP)—Nineteen-year-old Phillip Kennamer faced an hour and a half preliminary hearing today—a forecast of his murder trial January 23 for the slaying of John P. Girell—and was hustled back to his cell past 11 p.m.

Before Fies Judge Bradford J. Williams bound him over for July 23 on a charge of murder. Phillip Kennamer is alleged to have killed the Tulsa county court house.

The pale and taut defendant, center of a drama which has shocked the city, was confronted by Dr. John P. Girell, father of the slain man, and retired weeping.

Group Forces Doors Open. A crowd fit for the courtroom entrance was averted narrowly after the curious crowd outside had forced the door open.

His testimony was the high light of the procedure. "Phillip Kennamer told me he was going to kill Girell," declared Irenée Du Pont, who was a witness to the slaying. "There was a strained silence to catch his words from that point on until he finished a bizarre tale of contrived death for one who called him friend."

The threat, Irenée said, was made during an all-night automobile ride from Kansas City to Tulsa, more than a week before Girell actually was found shot to death in exclusive Forest Hills.

A. Flint Moss, chief defense counsel, declared the preparation of the defense was just started. Holly Anderson, county attorney, disclosed only one definite prosecution plan. He said that Dr. Felix Adams, physician who promised to testify if needed.

There was a brief flurry of excitement when the hearing was over. Officers reported the finding of the

President Maps Long-Range Program While Cabinet and Congress Members Study Next Year's Costs

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—With members of his cabinet divided over the amount that should be spent, President Roosevelt worked today at a multi-billion long range program of public works to be sent to congress early in January.

Before him was a report from his national-resources board mentioning a possible hundred billion dollar expenditure for a number of years. It opened up broad new fields of public works and outlined suggestions for a multiplicity of activities.

Not only the cabinet, but members of congress were divided over the extent of the program. It was to be carried out. Some senate and house members thought it proposed too little. Others regarded it too big. Bill stillers declined to comment.

Minimum of Four Billions. How high the figure for next year's public works will be, remained a matter of conjecture. The lowest one mentioned by responsible officials was $4 billion. It was mentioned by the president's spokesman, who said that the figure might be five billions. At one point it was $4 billion.

Whether five billions a year for roads, parks, sewers, public libraries, forests, waterways, good housing and countless other such facilities is a matter of record. It is a problem which we will have to solve in the light of future developments.

STREET NUMBER IS STILL THE SAME

—BUT THE UNSALEABLE HOUSE IS NOW A VALUABLE PROPERTY

For practical purposes—rental—live in—the house in the top picture has a value of $25,000. The house in the lower picture is worth many thousands of dollars for any of the purposes mentioned.

The repairs which gave the house in the lower picture its value $25,000, and of course they are the same house... cost about 25% of its value.

In simplest terms this means—THAT THE 25% SPENT PRODUCED THE 75% WHICH IS NOW VALUE.

The street number is still the same—but a simple, monthly-payment long-term, NATIONAL HOUSING ACT MODERNIZING LOAN has created THREE DOUSIN in value for each one spent.

WORK BEGINS ON RELIEF HOUSING

Dispossessed Families to Be Cared for in Temporary Tents

Work started yesterday on the first of a series of tent houses which will be erected in the near future through a combined effort of Twin Falls county and city officials, the IERA and the Twin Falls Associated Charities, to care for needy families who have been dispossessed of their homes. It was announced at Twin Falls city council meeting last night.

The houses will be located on lots owned by G. W. Tarr at the corner of Second street west and Sixth avenue west. Tarr donated the use of his lots for the temporary dwellings. The county is furnishing the materials, the IERA the labor, the associated charities the tents, and free service for installing necessary water and plumbing materials, including electrical and plumbing inspections by the city and H. H. Fredehelm, plumbing and electrical inspector.

Appearing before the council last night in behalf of the plan, Sheriff E. F. Prater outlined the situation confronting him when property owners requested that tents be moved off the premises. He showed the necessity of finding a place for these opportunities to go and stressed the point that these tents would furnish but a temporary solution.

United support from the council members was voiced and the matter was turned over to G. O. Johnson, street and waterworks commissioner.

A building permit was granted to the IERA social service to erect four tents, 12 by 14 feet in dimensions, at a cost of $40 each.

Looks to Legislature

Mayor Duncan M. D. Johnston suggested to the council that each member visit the state legislative session in Boise and make an effort to secure funds for municipal use which will be realized with the taxing of liquor sales. Johnston stressed the point that most of the enforcement of such a law would be in the hands of city and county officials and pointed out that Twin Falls should be a leader in the movement for such a law.

Other building permits granted at the meeting last night included: G. V. Hinde, to erect a garage at the corner of 420 in the block between Ninth avenue east; Peter Pearson, to erect a dwelling in the 400 block; Fourth avenue north, at a cost of $500; Bernard Young, to move building from 375 Harrison street to the Dougherty subdivision, at a cost of $20; Mrs. C. B. Janks, to re-roof dwelling in the 400 block on Third avenue east; at a cost of $100; W. J. Merrill, to shingle dwelling at the corner of Second avenue north and Addison avenue at a cost of $150.

ATTACK ON CHILD BASIS OF CHARGE

Authorities Hold 33-Year-Old Man for Felony Prosecution

Accused of criminally attacking a five-year-old girl whose parents had left her and her two-year-old brother in his keeping while they went to a picture show last Saturday night, Bruce Harris, 33, will be prosecuted on a felony charge. O. W. Witham, prosecuting attorney, said last evening.

Harris, arrested by a deputy sheriff at his one-room shack residence on Fifth avenue west, shortly after the alleged attack, is held in the jail here.

Residents for some weeks past of a cabin in a local tourist park, the parents of the child told county authorities Harris had attempted to remain with the children while they went to the show after Harris was their guest at supper Saturday evening. Harris has been known as a friend of the family, the parents told authorities.

Other residents of the tourist park heard the screaming something between 9:30 and 10 o'clock, and going to the cabin to investigate, met Harris on the way, but they did not see Harris until he was summoned after the parents' return some time later.

Officers said Harris was found in the cabin, some of the season's earnings of liquor, and that he professed to remember nothing that had happened after he was taken in charge of the children.

Harris told officers he was born in Tennessee, and that he came here about two years ago after working for some time at a coal mine in Angeles. He was never married, he was quoted as saying.

Announcing increased value of "Easynomy," directors of Twin Falls Empire exposition met last night to lay plans for the continuance of the city-wide merchandising program.

Hereafter the script, which away dollar-for-dollar, with every purchase by local merchants, will take on a new sense of value. Not only will the gift certificates be more valuable, but it will be used as a means of purchase at an exhibition to be conducted at exposition headquarters. Merchandise of virtually every description will be put up for sale at a listed 50 per cent discount.

"Easynomy" distributed by airplane on the initial day of the exhibition will be accepted only on denominations of $50 or less on one purchase. It was decided, and this money will not be accepted on purchases made after January 1. This action was taken due to the fact that the bulk of the script distributed on the 15th and 16th was comparatively few hands on the initial day.

The third of the series of "Easynomy" auctions will be held Wednesday at exposition headquarters.

Louisianans Strive To Patch Up Coach's Row With Huey Long

Hammas' Contract To Meet Schmeling Calls For Guarantee Of $25,000

'Biff' Jones Gives Notice Of Intention To Quit At L. S. U.

Grid Team Sitting In Middle Of Dispute

BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 17 (AP)—The Louisiana Tigers, plucky little band of football players were sitting in the gymnasium tonight of the heated row between their coach, "Biff" Jones, and Louisiana's boss politician, Huey Long. They were wondering if their coach could survive the heated argument he had with Long during the Christmas game Saturday when Jones refused to let Long talk to the team at the half when the Tigers were trailing. Long challenged Jones' authority to prevent his talking to the squad and the conversation went somewhat like this:

"I want to talk to the team," said Long.

"Well, you'll stop me if I do," "Well, you won't talk," "You had better let me talk," "I'm through," asked Jones.

"You're a damned Long," "Well, get this with you or draw, I'm through," shouted Jones, trembling in anger.

"All right," yelled Long. Long did not talk to the team at the half, but Jones did and the Tigers came out and won the game by one point.

Annual kick peace After the game alumni and university officials sought to smooth out the row but Jones said he was not sure he would consent to such and Jones refused to say anything about the incident.

At Jones, officially Captain Lawrence Jones, came to Louisiana State university from West Point on assignment from the war department and took over the football squad as head coach. When he arrived Long announced Jones and his staff would have entire charge of the running of the football squad and that the senator would not interfere as he had done under the former coach.

As the situation stood tonight, Jones had notified verbally James M. Smith, university president, of his intention to resign. If the row can be patched up Jones probably will remain another season, but whether he will be transferred to some other duty by the war department, in Washington, his war department position and his football coaching as his assignment at L. S. U. officially was military duty.

Virginia Van Wie To Seek Record

Chicago Golfer to Try for Fourth Straight Title at Interlachen

NEW YORK, Dec. 17 (AP)—The Interlachen country club of Minneapolis, one of the four golf courses that constituted the "Big Four" grand slam of 1930, 21 years ago, have an opportunity to play a part in creating another golf record.

It was four years ago at Interlachen that the great Georgian completed a four-round aggregate of 287 to win the National Open and the third of his four titles of the season, and it will be at Interlachen next August that Virginia Van Wie of Chicago will strive for her fourth consecutive national women's championship.

Thus far Miss Van Wie and three others, Beatrice Hoyt, Alexa Strubing Passer and Glenna Collett Vasey, are tied for the honor of having won this title the most consecutive times—three each.

Miss Van Wie will have a distinct advantage in her record-breaking attempt. Only one championship thus far has been played at Interlachen and that gave Jones a brilliant victory over a large home-seeking field.

Officials of the United States Golf association, while for her fourth championship for the week beginning August 26, smiled when it was suggested she attempt to win Miss Van Wie's record try on a course which hasn't failed in the past.

317-Pound Mat Artist Sued for $60,000 Damages

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 17 (AP)—Frank "Man Mountain" Dean, 317-pound wrestler, was sued for $60,000 damages today by James G. McKinley, 135-pounder who claims the Georgia grappler assaulted him with ring tactics on a San Pedro street.

Dean's wife took a hand in the assault, the complaint charged. McKinley, who is 20 and lives in San Pedro, charged Mrs. Dean showed him road rage against his automobile, and that the "man mountain" knocked him down. He asked $10,000 on grounds his right eye was injured, and $50,000 punitive damages.

Time Supply Wins $25,000 Handicap

Dark Winter Takes Second Money, Fleam Third at Bay Meadows

SAN MATEO, Cal., Dec. 17 (AP)—Time Supply won the lead at the head of the stretch and won the $25,000 Bay Meadows handicap here Sunday. Dark Winter was second and Fleam third. The time was 1 minute, 53 and 4-5 seconds for one mile and one-eighth.

Running through mist and mud, the winner ran with the field until the wire was in sight. Then with his next to top weight 123 pounds, he came out, crossing the line a length ahead of Dark Winter.

The second place contender led from the start. Top Boy was fourth, a length behind Fleam. The winning 3-year-old colt, owned by Mrs. F. A. Carreault of El Paso, had been more or less of a favorite but his showing in the face of track conditions was a surprise. Top Boy had gone to the post at the favorite.

Only a week ago Johnny Tommy Luthers, the winning rider, piloted Top Boy to a new record for a mile and one-eighth here. The winner took $10,000 in the event. Norman W. Church's Rikulus, finished fifth. Onyx of the Jack Alvin President stable was sixth, and Paleno, carrying top weight of 120 pounds, was last. Five were scratched.

The part-mutuel "take" on the feature race alone was announced at $30,452 for the largest for any single race at the new Bay Meadows plant. Despite the weather, the wagering was heavy also for the other events on the program and track officials said the total play for the day probably would reach about a quarter of a million dollars. Time Supply paid $12,800, 620 and $350. Dark Winter yielded $5 and $3 and Fleam $2.

Two very determined pugilists arrived in Twin Falls last night to take part in the American Legion's sweet-fest tonight. They are Jack Burke of Ogden who will attempt to regain his lost intermountain welter-title from Kid Cannon in the ten round main go, and Bud Pitman—a newcomer to the Twin Falls fight fraternity who will meet with Jimmy Walsh in the six round semi-windup.

As a result of their last meeting at Pocatello which Cannon won by a decision, there exists much resentment and ill-feeling between them. Remarks made by each since their meeting are somewhat revealing. Burke said he would win by a decision, there exists much resentment and ill-feeling between them. Yanks Sweep Decks Clean In '34 Yacht Competition

Anglo-American Relations Reach New Low When Rainbow Defeats Endeavour

By TOM HORGAN (Associated Press Staff Writer) reviewing the 1934 sports parade. Amongst golf, tennis, racing, track, football and hockey.

BOSTON (AP)—With the sleek contenders all tucked away in winter storage after the most active season in many years, 1934 has been written down in history as a year in which American rule of the yachting seas remained virtually unbroken.

The defeat of T. O. M. Sopwith and his Endeavour, English challenger for the historic America's cup by Harold S. Vanderbilt and Rainbow, of course attracted the lion's share of public attention.

Contrary to expectations of the optimistic, however, America's cup series, sailed off Rhode Island, did little to improve Anglo-American relations. Sopwith won the first two races of the series scheduled as the best four out of seven, and Endeavour won the top-heavy favorite—Vanderbilt's second four straight victories and turned the tide in the 1934 America's cup series for the 83-year-old trophy, but before protest flags had begun to fly, The New York Yacht club declined to entertain the first of the protest flags which it did not know, or did not abide by the rules through a delay in breaking out his protest flag, and the Englishman went home, promising never to return.

But there were many other sailing contests with an international flavor which lacked any trace of serimony. Second in importance, perhaps, was the successful defense of the cup by the British in the 1934 America's cup series, sailed by William V. Castle of the Rochester Yacht club. The challenger, Invader II, skippered by Thomas K. Wade of the Royal Canadian Yacht club, was turned back in three straight defeats.

Good Year For Yankee Sailors

Another international prize, the British-American trophy, was successfully defended by the Seawanhauk Corinthian Yacht club. The club's team of four 6-meter yachts took three straight races from a similar team of the Royal Northern Yacht club. To make the victory doubly impressive, the best boat in each team contested the Seawanhauk trophy, and the American boat, Robert Myers' Bob-Mat II, took three straight races from Kryn, sailed by William Russell of the British club.

In the U.S. Star class, American skipper also kept his flag waving, although foreign competition was rather mild. Massachusetts' Haddock-Hobbs-Corbally, early in the spring America's "Stars" yacht in an international championship at Nassau, B. W. I., easily handled local contenders.

It was Sopwith who had the only setback for foreign yachmen was found in sailing contests at Bermuda, in which a team of four Long Island sound interclub class boats were trounced in four straight races by four local craft. In the same trophy, with teams of three 6-meter boats representing the United States, the Bermuda team beat the Americans three straight.

Title Contender Signs to Fight In German Ring

Agreement Upsets Plans of Madison Square Garden; Stadium Will Be Built for Battle in Hamburg

NEW YORK, Dec. 17 (AP)—Charlie Harvey, manager of Steve Hammas, New Jersey contender for the world's heavyweight boxing championship, announced tonight he had signed a contract for Hammas to meet Max Schmeling of Germany in a 12-round bout in Hamburg on March 10.

Harvey's announcement followed two months of negotiations with Walter Rutenburg, German promoter. The contract calls for a flat guarantee of $25,000 and stipulates that Hammas does not fight between now and his engagement with the former world's champion. A special stadium with a seating capacity of more than 25,000 will be built in Hamburg, Harvey said.

The signing of Hammas to meet Schmeling in Hamburg throws a monkey wrench in the water plans of the Madison Square Garden corporation, which has been counting on staging the rematch for the former Penn State collegian and Schmeling in Miami next February.

Alabamans Drill On Wet Gridiron

Preparations Move Forward for New Year's Rose Bowl Battle

UNIVERSITY, Ala., Dec. 17 (AP)—Taking advantage of every practice period without regard to weather conditions, Alabama's Crimson Tide football team today drilled on a wet field side as preparations moved steadily forward for the New Year's bowl engagement with Stanford university.

Only three more practice sessions remain before the old boarders a team that will reach Pasadena on Christmas eve. The football party is scheduled to leave Friday.

No other players have developed since Ed Morrow, guard, showed up with a broken nose after a practice session last week.
