DUST STORM RUINS FALL WHEAT CROP IN COLORADO AREA

Investigators Discount Effect of Silt Clouds on Humans and Livestock; Scores Suffer Discomfort

(By The Associated Press) DENVER, March 23—A 95 percent loss of Beaca county's fall wheat crop was attributed today to this week's deluge of dust in southeastern Colorado, but investigators coincidentally discounted the effect of the black blizzard on humans and livestock.

As the swirling storm subsided in the isolated region, which borders Kansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, health authorities inclined to the belief that four deaths in Springfield and two in Lamar, Colorado, were unrelated to the dust.

Scores of adults and children suffered discomfort and lung infections from the constant blowing of dust. None was expected to result in permanent injury. Four cows perished in the dust on scattered farms.

Red Cross officials conferred here on the situation, but were informed by the Beaca county chairman that physicians there were now adequately handling the situation and emergency assistance was not needed.

Dust clouds were rolling over Wyoming today from the southeast, gradually increasing in density by accumulations of Wyoming silt.

Irrigation Projects Needed WASHINGTON, March 23—The dust storms sweeping over the western states today were being met by members of congress from western irrigation projects.

Representatives Clark and White, leading Democratic leaders, were among numerous irrigation development projects in their home areas.

Italy Calls 220,000 More Men to Colors

(Copyright, 1935, by Associated Press) PARIS, March 23—France, Italy and England agreed today to stand together in complete unity of purpose in dealing with the German arms crisis.

At Britain's insistence, the tri-power parley held here to prepare the way for Anglo-German conversations in Berlin Monday and Tuesday agreed to proceed cautiously and survey the ground thoroughly before forcing the issue before the League of Nations.

Eden Speaks for England Captain Anthony Eden, who will occupy Foreign Minister Sir John Simon's British foreign minister's seat, spoke for Great Britain; Foreign Minister Pierre Laval, who yesterday demanded re-grouping of the allies' position.

Even as the three met, the French general staff announced transfer of some 30,000 troops to gardens near the Rhine frontier.

Hitler Reported Ready to Pledge Reichsfuehrer Returns to Berlin for Conversations With Simon

(By The Associated Press) Rome, March 23—Italy mobilized 220,000 more soldiers and France made ready to shift 30,000 men closer to the German border Saturday as French, Italian and British conferences at Paris advanced today.

With any thought of asking penalties for Germany, the forthcoming League of Nations council session "pushed into the background," Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, prepared to fly to Berlin Sunday to start official security conversations with Adolf Hitler.

In the German capital Hitler, who returned from Wiesbaden to take personal charge of the conversations, was described as ready to sign bi-lateral non-aggression pacts.

It was considered probable that the joint attitude of the three powers would be "purely exploratory."

The official communique which announced the tri-partite parley's "unity of purpose" confirmed Sir John's statement that the British heads-of-comms-what Sir John Eden's conference with Adolf Hitler would be "purely exploratory."

After the Berlin visit and Eden's subsequent trip to Moscow, Warsaw and Prague, the British, French and Italian foreign ministers will meet at Biscia, Italy, on April 11, the communique said.

This meeting originally was scheduled for Lake Como, Italy, next week. Its postponement indicated French and Italian willingness to let the British try to find some common ground for conciliation before the next tri-part meeting.

Drive in Congress For New and Huge Taxes Under Way

Administration Leaders Rally Forces to Repel Attempt in Senate at Upward Revision of Income Rates

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, March 23—A drive for new and huge taxes, involving in some degree the thorny bonus issue, hung threateningly today over administration leaders in congress.

Looking ahead, they gathered their forces to repel an attempt in the senate next week at upward revision of the income tax rates schedule that will accompany changes repealing the pink slip publicity feature of the present law.

Meanwhile, the Chamber of Commerce and the National Tax Association are warning that a senate "drive" is forming to force consideration of drastic income tax increases, particularly corporate.

It also laid up the possibility that new taxes will be needed to finance payment of the bonus, if that is passed over President Roosevelt's veto.

Supporters of the Patman plan to pay the bonus in newly issued currency approved yesterday by the house, denied that it called for any such action.

Commanders-in-Chief Meanwhile, James E. Van Zandt, commander of the United States Foreign War, who backed the Patman amendment, invited Frank N. Rowley, commander of the American Legion, who backed the Vinson appropriation method bonus bill to a conference.

It is proposed that "we now utilize our forces" and "drive this legislation (the Patman bill) for this payment through the senate with the fastest possible delay." Belgrano made no immediate answer.

In the matter of new taxes, administration leaders had planned to introduce such legislation until late in the session when estimated outgo would be almost at once compared. The senate's liberal bloc, however, has taken steps to bring forward an almost at once.

The "pink slip" issue, involving repeal of present provisions making income tax returns open to public inspection, may be taken up Monday, when Senator La Follette (R-Wis.) plans to demand revision of the tax schedules.

Warning Issued The chamber warned that La Follette's proposal calls for an increase from four to six per cent in normal income.

Complexity of the referendum law was brought out today when Secretary of State Franklin D. Roosevelt transmitted an application for referendum petitions to Attorney General Clegg.

Mr. Miller prepared the official copy of the petitions that are to be printed for circulation.

Gilford Figures Cost Secretary of State Clegg said studying the law several hours said there is a possibility of a referendum law will have to be printed and distributed to all qualified electors in the state.

If that is true it will cost the sponsors of this movement several thousand dollars besides the time they will take to circulate the law.

They have the required approximately 17,000 signatures.

Referendum petitions are signed—if they are, Attorney General Miller said, "there's the same."

ROOVER STATEMENT STIRS WASHINGTON

Democrats See Bid for Re-Election, Republicans Call to Arms

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—Herbert Hoover, whether he chose or not, set the 1936 presidential campaign rolling more audibly today with his communication to California Republicans condemning the New Deal.

Scorned by Democrats as a "pitiful effort to get back in the White House," the message was attacked by some Republicans as the work of Chairman Henry P. Fletcher—as a "call to arms" of all who believe in our American system.

Readiness of the former president to speak out combined with other factors to herald a quickening of political spirit in the 18 months between now and the party convention.

Opposition Encouraged. The administration took what was considered a bold step in the passage of the work-relief bill at last. While President Roosevelt apparently set the record for the longest delay on his program and house of representatives in the past few years, the administration's management to the opposition that few looked for when the Democratic victory was announced last November.

The situation has made leaders in both parties campaign-minded, and the Hoover administration has been seen as championing the C. O. P. cause against a Roosevelt program which is a sign of hope for development to come.

SECRETARY TELLS LABOR OBJECTIVE

Mrs. Perkins at Berkeley Demands Collective Bargaining

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins today told a group of labor leaders at Berkeley, Calif., that the objective of the United States is to secure "free self-regulated" labor.

These practices, she contended, "will be the result of the right of labor to bargain in a manner which is no longer a matter of force against both resistance and the government."

TWIN FALLS DAILY NEWS

Published every morning except Monday, by The Twin Falls Daily News Publishing Co., Inc., Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, Idaho. Established 1904.

Daily edition entered as second class mail matter, April 1, 1918, at the postoffice at Twin Falls, Idaho, under the act of March 3, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier: Payable in Advance: 10 per week or 40 cents, payable to carrier in full at office.

MEMBERS OF ASSOCIATED PRESS: The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it, or published in its newspapers.

MAKING MONEY: Issuing money is a sovereign power—a prerogative of the sovereign. In this country the sovereign is Uncle Sam, acting through Congress and President.

HOW SYMPATHY WORKS: One of the many strange quirks of human nature is demonstrated in the difference with which the world reacts to the suffering of an individual and the suffering of thousands.

IMAGINARY SAVINGS DON'T HELP RELIEF: The controversial issue during the recent legislative session has been the raising of tax revenue for operation of state government and matching funds received from the federal treasury for relief purposes.

EMPTY VICTORIES: The recently discovered and published letters of Napoleon Bonaparte to the Empress Marie Louise are called love letters because of the steadily reiterated devotion of the writer to his wife.

WAR IN NAPOLEON'S DAY: As the reader follows Napoleon about Europe and into Russia and back again, he is increasingly impressed with the falseness and weakness of military power and conquest.

WAR IN NAPOLEON'S DAY (continued): In one of the letters Napoleon wrote: "We are determined to die rather than agree to a shameful and unfair peace, which, moreover, would be bad policy, for it would not last."

WAR IN NAPOLEON'S DAY (continued): "War in Napoleon's day was conducted on a grand scale, but it looks puny now in the light of the bigger and better war the World saw in 1914-1918."

RACKETEERING ATTORNEYS: New York City, in its current anti-racket campaign, is not content with getting the police and courts after the ordinary gangsters and racketeers. It is getting after lawyers who go far beyond mere legal defense, acting as their spokesmen and participating in their crimes. The New York Bar Association is courageous enough to join hands with the metropolitan government in this effort, announcing that any lawyers found to be implicated in racketeering or serving as regular "mouthpieces" of racketeers, will be promptly disbanded.

"There is a definite distinction," observes an editor, "between the criminal lawyer and the lawyer criminal. The latter is so closely associated with the underworld that he is a definite and highly important cog in the criminal machine."

Two years is minimum (Pocatello Tribune): Sentencing an offender on a second conviction of driving an automobile while licensed the other day, Justice E. Johnson in district court at Lewiston, said:

"A few years ago the legislature fixed the penalty for driving a car while under the influence of liquor beyond the jurisdiction of justice courts. The legislature then reduced the penalty giving jurisdiction for this offense to justice courts but did not change the law prescribing a penalty for a second violation and fixed the minimum punishment at not less than two years in the penitentiary at hard labor and the maximum at five years."

HOW SYMPATHY WORKS (continued): A crippled newboy down at Santa Ana, California, needed a blood transfusion after an operation last week. The doctor, a leading surgeon for the hospital and social leader of the city, refused to perform the operation.

IMAGINARY SAVINGS DON'T HELP RELIEF (continued): The controversial issue during the recent legislative session has been the raising of tax revenue for operation of state government and matching funds received from the federal treasury for relief purposes.

29 Years Ago: March 23, 1910. 16 Years Ago: March 23, 1920.

LOCAL HOOPERS WIN: Victory crowned the efforts of Twin Falls high school basketball players in two games played Friday evening. The local varsity team defeated the Elmer, Idaho team by a score of 60-20, and the local girls' team, in their first game of the season, overcame points as they won one for the Murtagh lassies. The local lineup in the first half was as follows: Forward—Estelwood; Guards—Carter and Reed. In the second half Krangel and Yochum went in as forwards, and Robert Butler took Carter's place as guard. The local girls' lineup included: Center, Mary Coates; forwards, Edith and Rebecca Benwell; guards, Carolyn Van Tassel and Ida Laird. Lois McCracken substituted for Edith Taylor in the second half and Dorothy Irwin and Pansie Humphrey for Carol Van Tassel and Ida Laird.

LOCAL LIBRARY WANTED: The Owl club is agitating the public library question. The Townsite company has promised a site and the library will be opened on negotiations with Andrew Carnegie.

IDEAL HOME FOR NEWLYWEDS CAN BE CONSTRUCTED FOR LITTLE

With a limited budget for newlyweds with a small family, the architect has designed a house which is both practical and unusually attractive in appearance. The cost need not run above $4000. Later, an addition may be made which will enlarge the living room and dining room and bring the total cost to $6000.

WHEAT AND POTATO FIELDS DIMINISH

Idaho Farmers Turn to Hay, Beans and Feed Grains, Estimates Show

BOISE, March 20 (AP)—Idaho's 1933 harvest of corn, oats, barley, beans and hay will be materially larger than that in 1932, it reports of farmers, Richard C. Ross, federal agricultural statistician, for Idaho, estimates today.

The acreage to be planted in spring wheat and potatoes will be smaller than last year, though, he said in a report he released this afternoon.

The total acreage of these crops now indicated for harvest in 1933 is 2,112,000 acres, compared with 1,983,000 acres harvested in 1932, 2,112,000 acres in 1933 and 2,170,000 acres in 1932, Ross estimated.

The acreages actually harvested in 1933 may turn out to be larger or smaller than those reported, because of weather conditions, price changes, labor supply, financial conditions, developments in the department of agriculture for any average adjustment and the effect of the intentions report filed upon farmers' actions," he noted.

Feed Crops Lead

The 1933 harvest acreage of spring wheat, he now indicated, to be about 435,000 acres, compared with 427,000 acres in 1932, 475,000 acres in 1933 and 510,000 acres in 1932. Increased plantings of winter wheat, relative to low wheat prices, and unfavorable moisture conditions in some areas are reported to be responsible for the low acreage of this crop.

Low prices received for the 1934 potato crop will result in the harvest of about 84,000 acres this coming season, according to producers. This acreage is considerably lower than last year. Bean growers, on the other hand, intend to increase acreage from 122,000 acres in 1932 to 138,000 acres in 1933. The acreage of dry peas will probably be about 10 per cent greater than last year, according to information received from growers.

The harvest acreage of the feed grains, oats, barley and corn, is expected to be the same as last year. Tame hay acreage is indicated to be greater than last year, but smaller than in either 1932 or 1933.

RETREAT FOR YOUNG MAN

Warm Colors Help To Create Cheerful Effect

Decorative touches include a ship model and duck pictures.

Light and cheerfulness are brought into the room by the use of warm browns and bright yellows against a sunny-green wall. Occasional touches of red in the accessories and rugs add vitality and even more cheerfulness to the scheme. The brightness is even carried down to the floor in the rug before the fireplace which itself serves to tie together the central unit of the room.

The ship model globe, duck pictures and aquaristic statuettes serve admirably as decorative touches.

Prepared by the Decorators Club of New York for The News. While this room was designed for a college boy, it is equally well adapted to the man who wants to withdraw occasionally from the family circle that he may rest or write.

By using a small table as a writing desk at the window and relative small chairs, made comfortable by deep, quilted cushions, at either side of the fireplace, two centers of usefulness are provided without making the room too full of furniture.

for, Carl Nims; exchanges, Warren Kays; music reporter, Alfred Flechtner; feature editor, Emma Smith; art editor, John Stratton; and managing editor, Richard Davis.

The paper was discontinued last December when all but two members of the staff resigned.

GIANT FISH IN PIPE

BOB'S TOWN OF WATER

CHERAW, S. C. (AP)—With all the feeders river to swim in, a 16-pound catfish preferred the main pipeline of the Cheraw waterworks—and the town well, besides for a day. When the pipes ran dry, workmen started an investigation that finally led them to the mouth of the six-inch intake pipe, which extends 40 feet into the river.

And there they found the three-foot fish firmly wedged. He was too big to get through and his fins wouldn't let him back out.

FINDS BURIED METEOR

SPIKING RUMORS

Following the usual practice of gang politics those opposed to these men are spreading rumors.

(1) That if they are elected Ralph Leighton will be made Chief of Police. MR. LEIGHTON SAYS:

"I was chief of police of this city for a good many years, and I know what it takes to do the job right. My health would not permit me to stand up under it, and I have a business association that I would not leave. I would not take the job if it were offered to me."

(2) That Bert Sweet is in favor of low wages. MR. SWEET SAYS:

"I am a merchant. I know that the more money in the community the better are business conditions. Much of my business is with the laboring people. For the opposition to accuse me of being in favor of low wages is the same as to say I have no business sense. Good wages help all business. I am very much in favor of good wages."

Mdivani Marriage Tradition Holds Up As Princes Barbara Heads For Reno

By MARK HARRISON

NEW YORK (AP)—The country generally turned into a republic by the "marriage revolution" here of the marrying Mdivani, prince of Georgia, turned to a much more painful calling—wedding.

In less than 10 years it has netted them two social register betrothals, two motion picture stars and one opera prima donna.

When, shortly after his wedding with the blond cinema star, Mad Murray, Prince David who announces it "Dah-veed" was arrested for speeding, he was asked his occupation.

Busy Being Husband—

With the exception of a brief experiment at oil well promotion, the three royal brothers have given their chief attention to the task of being husbands, although none of their marital careers has been successful long.

For reasons why these handsome, titled sons of Gen. Zakhari Mdivani, Mohammedan by a Caucasian state, have been unable to hold their wealthy and famous wives, one must look to the testimony of a divorcee.

Ironically, it was her own wedding gift, according to friends, that led Miss Blanton into trouble.

My Till December Union—

The announcement of Barbara Mdivani's marriage (left) that she will seek a divorce (center) and her divorce (right) indicates she will join the "divorcees club."

Members include Lenore Van Allen, first wife of Alexis; Pola Negri and Mary McCormack, ex-wives of Prince Serge; Mdivani (second from right); Miss Murray, ex-wife of Prince David; and Mdivani (right).

Miss Murray, ex-wife of Prince David and Mdivani, and Serge and his two brides, Pola Negri and Mary McCormack.

Now Miss Mdivani plans to join the "Princess Club" and she and Alexis are no longer allied to one another.

SCOUTING SPORTS by RUSS NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22—Leo Lomax, who exchanged a minor's pick for a pair of batting gloves a dozen or so years ago and became a ranking contender for the light heavyweight title during his ring activities, is now a special policeman in San Francisco.

Four former crack football players are members of the Oakland baseball club this year. Pitcher Spurgeon Chandler and Ed Walsh performed on the gridiron for the University of Georgia and Notre Dame respectively. Catcher Jack Hill judged the oval for University of Nevada and infielder Keith Motesworth played for the Chicago Bears professional season last year.

Some Record Sparks, Nevada, high school rings the bell this season with a basketball record that will do until a better one is made. The team closed the 1934-35 season with 39 consecutive victories and its second straight state championship. The last defeat was January 25, 1934, Proctor High, former University of Nevada athlete, is the coach. According to Carroll Cross, the Rose Newman, every school in Nevada with five kids in it has a basketball team and more interest is taken in high school basketball than in any other sport.

Oregon University Council Votes in Favor of Callison

Resignation Rumors Heard at Eugene; Manager Gets Authority to Negotiate for One-Year Contract

EUGENE, Ore., March 23 (AP)—Graduate Manager Hugh Ross tonight announced that the University of Oregon student executive council authorized him to negotiate for a new contract with Prince Callison, head football coach whose resignation had been strongly rumored.

Rosson said the results of his negotiations with Callison would be presented to the executive council at the start of the next term for consideration. Confirmation of any coaching appointment must be made by the state board of higher education after the associated students have made their decision.

Disaffection Expressed Sources close to the faculty and the executive council of students today revealed that dissatisfaction with Callison's administration had been reported to the council. Nevertheless, 80 per cent in the win column and his 1934 Webboos, two-time champions of the Pacific coast conference.

The "wrenching" situation at the university was carefully gone over by the executive council yesterday and today, and as a result "it has been empowered to negotiate with Callison on a contract for the coming year," Rosson stated.

Bambo Confined To Florida Home

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 23 (AP)—With Babe Ruth missing his first exhibition game as the result of a mild attack of pneumonia, his only field is now a Florida home. He is confined to his home, his former teammates, the New York Yankees, blasted out a 7 to 2 victory over the Boston Braves today to even their spring exhibition series at two games each.

Astoria Cagers Take Hoop Championship

SALEM, Ore., March 23 (AP)—Astoria high won its second consecutive state basketball championship by defeating Jefferson high of Portland 46 to 26 tonight in the tournament final.

try in the 1935 Pacific Coast league baseball race will be composed of players in top-notch condition. Oscar Vilt, new manager, will see to that. In spring training Vilt gives his players calisthenics on a large scale. Every man on the club had stiff muscles in the early part of training. Despite the fact some had worked all winter at tough jobs. Fred Miller, second baseman, operated a traction on his California ranch since last season yet he still was child's play compared to Vilt's workouts.

A story by it was not shortly involving a change in the head football coach at one of the Pacific Coast conference universities. The only thing that will hold it up will be inability to line up a successor at the right price. The man sought is coaching in another territory.

FRIENDLY ENEMIES MEET AT GAME

ON THE SIDELINES by Edward J. Neil

Lower Your Sights, Babe! Somehow or other, as long as you're writing or talking baseball, you just seem to get away from "That Man Ruth."

The big Dammer has contributed so much to the game's legend and folk lore, as well as to its statistics down through his 21 years in the big show, that it is hardly conceivable baseball fanning has gotten around to him sooner or later, usually sooner.

And since his epochal switch from the Yankees to the Braves he's been even more abundant "copy" than ever before. Sixty-nine items from anybody and everybody connected with the game, regarding the big jump and the Babe's future, have become automatically available in anybody's "sport-sheet."

But it remained for Rogers Hornsby, who seems never at a loss for words or the temerity to use them, to top up with the most daring prediction of all regarding the Bambling. The Rajah warns one and all not to be surprised if Ruth comes up with a new season record for home runs this season.

Hornsby, always one of the most practical fellows in the world, agrees with all the experts that the implication of new surroundings, new hosts of babbling fans, and new playmates will do much to give the Babe a hit this season, but his prediction is based pretty much on the cold facts of the sizes of the parks in which Ruth will be playing this summer.

The Targets Are Closer! Consultation of the baseball almanac indicates there is plenty of bases for believing Ruth will find it much less of a physical feat to nudge the ball over National league right field fences in general than he did American league barriers.

The yardstick shows that five of the eight parks in which he'll be playing have shorter right fields than their American league counterparts. As for the other three, one—at St. Louis—is the same for both leagues; Cincinnati's right field is only five feet longer than Detroit's, and Pittsburgh's is only 10 feet longer than Cleveland's.

Here's the way the home-plate-to-right-field footages of the two leagues compare:

Table with 3 columns: American League, National League, and Footage. Rows include Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis, Washington-Brooklyn, Detroit-Cincinnati, and Cleveland-Pittsburgh.

Let The Record Book Tell It! There have been thousands of the most eloquent of sports scribes' reports tapper out in press boxes and editorial offices around the big league circuit, but there's still a thrill in just looking over the plain, unvarnished statistics of the Babe's home run procession.

Most homers in consecutive games (1924) 70 Most homers (including regular series) 123 Most homers, one season (1927) 60 Most years leading league in homers 12 Most years hitting 40 or more homers 11 Most times hitting two homers in one game 70 Most homers with bases full 15 Most times two homers in one game (season) 3 Three homers in one day 2 Three homers in one game (world series) 2 Most homers in consecutive games (1924) 70 Most homers in successive games at bat (first) 3

So even if he doesn't set the National league on fire this summer, but don't be dejected! Old Man Ruth has left quite a mark already, eh?

Picard Continues Hot Pace to Win Open Tournament

70 on Wind-Swept Course Gives Former Charleston Golf Pro. Championship by Two-Stroke Margin

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 23 (AP)—Leading from the opening round, Henry Picard continued his hot pace today, and won today and won the $3,000 Charleston open golf tournament to the delight of a wild gallery which surged over the Wando course, the wake of the former local pro.

A 70 on his wind-swept round of the 72 holes gave Picard the championship by a two stroke margin over Johnny Revolta of Milwaukee.

Picard's aggregate of 278 was five strokes higher than the winning total turned in last year by Paul Runyan when the White Plains, New York, marvel closed out with a 65.

Victor Ghezal, Deal, New Jersey, took the lowest round of the final day, but he could do no better. His closing rush came into a tie for third place at 282 with Harry Cooper, Chicago.

Breaks Far Only Once Runyan, so completely the master of the wind-swept, seaside links last year, could break par of 71 only once in his defense of his title. Ted Bank Outlines Plans In Message To Moscow School

Bob McCue Looms As Mainstay in Former Tulane Mentor's System; Offense Calls For Six-Man Line

MOSCOW, March 23 (AP)—Ted Paul Bank, Idaho's new football coach, revealed today what he plans to do with the Vandals when he begins spring practice April 1.

Bank definitely hopes to carry on the type of football that brought Tulane and the University of Minnesota to the front rank in the last decade. And with this in mind, the new coach said he would concentrate on five fundamentals—blocking, tackling, punting and passing, lining and coordination, and day after day drill for perfection.

Bank's offense calls for a six man line, with the center back to a roving position to become the strongest point in his defense system.

Passing, he thinks, is more than a threat; indeed, it is one of the most powerful weapons of offense.

Bob McCue, who was dragged from the line to pass for Callahan, possibly will be a mainstay in Bank's system. McCue, threw the ball accurately, and was not surpassed by any player in the west last year for distance.

'Old Sarge' Bagby Coaches Jim Junior And Hopes He'll Be Pitcher Like Uhle

By KENNETH GREGORY (Associated Press Staff Writer) ATLANTA, March 18—Will Jim Bagby prove to be a chip off the old block?

The younger, 18-year-old protégé of his father—"Old Sarge" Bagby—has been in the 1920 world champion Cleveland Indians—has joined the training camp of the Cincinnati Reds at Tampa for trial.

Under the scrutiny of Manager Chuck Dressen, the strapping lad of six feet will expect to be eventually, hopeful that the opportunity for him to follow in his father's footsteps is near.

The elder Bagby left the majors several years ago and now operates a cleaning and prearranged business here. His son has been interested in baseball since he was able to swing a bat and has always wanted to "burn up the league" with "Tricks of the baseball trade and hustling gulls as he knew it have been passed along to Young Bagby by the "old Sarge."

"Jim sure hall make a great ball player," says the father, "but he's not ready to step right up just now, but he's a great prospect. He has control and confidence. His curve ball is better than mine and he has the speed and plenty of will power."

Best Season in 1928 It was in 1928—22 years ago when the elder Bagby left Montgomery, Ala. to join the same ball club. The first time he was sent back to Montgomery was to be signed by New Orleans. He went from there to Cleveland, where he attained fame.

"I don't care whether he's a chip off the old block or not," Jim says. "I'd rather he'd be like George Uhle than any other pitcher I can think of."

George Uhle, remember, stepped right off the Cleveland sledge to join our team in 1918 and helped us win the pennant the next year and remained in the big leagues about 15 years.

'Old Sarge' Bagby must think back on his own days of big league glory as he coaches his 18-year-old son, Jim junior, buying tricks in preparation for a whirl at the big league game.

"Nothing would please me more," said Jim, "than to see the boy go straight into the majors. He's got the ball, but he's not ready to step right up just now, but he's a great prospect. He has control and confidence. His curve ball is better than mine and he has the speed and plenty of will power."

Great Game in '28 Series The elder Bagby likes to recall the thrill-packed days of 1928 when the Indians had their first and only Game-championship team.

That year was manager and centerfielder. That was the season that Ray Chapman's Cleveland's shortstop, had died after being struck on the temple by one of Carl Mays' pitches.

The playing with black eye bands on the same day memory of Chapman, the Indians swung to an inspired finish to win the pennant and then whipped Brooklyn as the World Series.

Stage Lines Quintet Rallies to Overcome Missouri Valley Rivals, 45 to 26, In A.A.U. Tournament Final

By CHARLES GRUBMICH (Associated Press Sports Writer) DENVER, March 23 (AP)—The Missouri Valley Stage Lines of Kansas City quelled the "fire department" attack of the Missouri Valley Globes Refiners in a rousing half rally to win the national A.A.U. basketball championship before a roaring crowd of 5,800 here tonight.

Turning an early battle into a rout, the Liners romped home with a lopsided 45-26 victory over the Missouri valley rivals, who lifted the league title from Kansas City in a three game playoff series.

ALL-AMERICA SELECTIONS

By CHARLES GRUBMICH (Associated Press Sports Writer) DENVER, March 23 (AP)—The 1935 all-America basketball selections made at the conclusion of the National A. A. U. tournament here tonight:

Player First Team Team Coach

Apprentice position and playing without their mainstay center, Bob Weir, who fouled out before the half-time intermission, the Liners made the greatest rally of the tournament, in a furiously fought second half.

Man of the Hour Dick Quinn, doubling for the ousted Weir, took over the duties of six foot, slick Joe Fortenberry and proved himself to be the man of the hour.

It was a ding-dong battle for the last half, but the Liners outscored a team noted for outrunning its opposition.

The Liners began the final half with a 12-10 lead, but the furiously fought second half allowed the distraught Missouri valley champs to work a perfect defense.

The 16 goals after intermission were spread among half a dozen players, whose slick under-basket plays worked to perfection.

As the rally started, goals were hard won but soon the Liners were throwing the leather through the hoop as they pleased.

Ray Piper, liner forward, directed the attack as freer and main scorer. He made five goals in the second half, after retiring two in the first as high point man of the game with 16 points.

Omar "Bud" Browning, Herman Fischer and Jay Wallstrom collected most of the game's rebounds. Coach Weaver brought out the reserves, who made their first tournament appearance in the finals and it was more than a stand-off for the Kansas City team even then.

The new champion succeeded the two-champion Tulsa Oilers in the title role after beating the Tulsians in the semi-final last night.

Tulsa landed third place by defeating University of Hollywood, 42 to 23, in a preliminary game—a game of losing semi-finals.

Oregon University Council Votes in Favor of Callison

Resignation Rumors Heard at Eugene; Manager Gets Authority to Negotiate for One-Year Contract

EUGENE, Ore., March 23 (AP)—University Manager Hugh Rosson tonight announced that the University of Oregon student executive council authorized him to negotiate for a new contract with Ernie Callison, head football coach whose resignation had been strongly rumored.

Rosson said the results of his negotiations with Callison would be presented to the executive council at the start of the next term for consideration.

Disatisfaction Expressed Sources close to the faculty and the executive council today revealed that disatisfaction with Callison's administration had been carried to the council.

The whole coaching situation at the university was carefully scrutinized by the executive council yesterday and today, and as a result I have been empowered to negotiate with Callison on a contract for the coming year," Rosson stated.

A victory is due to pop shortly involving a change in the head football coach at one of the Pacific Coast conference universities. The only thing that will hold it up will be inability to line up a successor at the right price. The man sought is coaching in another territory.

Big Task Ahead of Liquor Commission

BOISE, March 23 (AP)—The Idaho state liquor commission today is busy preparing to assume by them of their official duties Monday.

The three members, Robert Coulter, J. B. Veaman, and Homer Moore, met in Boise today to take the oath of office and arrange to obtain their bonds, and they adjourned until Monday.

One of their tasks next week will be to appoint various attachés including an attorney, auditor, stenographers and other attaches.

Governor Ross said yesterday he would direct the state store to be operating by the end of the coming week.

The commissioners will have to obtain quarters in some 20 towns and cities, and they will purchase fuel supplies, arrange for the licensing of buyers, and select approximately 100 district officers who will sell liquor in towns and villages too small to support stores.

ON THE SIDELINES by Edward J. Neill

Lower Your Sighs, Babe Somhow or other, as long as you're writing or talking baseball, you just can't seem to get away from that Man Ruth.

The Big Bammer has contributed so much to the game's legends and folk lore, as well as to its skatified down through his 21 years in the big show, that it's inevitable every baseball fanning bee gets around to him sooner or later, usually sooner.

And since his epochal switch from the Yankees to the Braves he's been even more abundant "copy" than ever before. Statements from anybody and everybody connected with the game, regarding the big jump and the Babe's future, have become automatically quotable material in anybody's sport sheet.

But if reminded for Rogers Hornsby, who seems never at a loss for words or tenacity to use them, to top up with the most daring prediction of all regarding the Bammer, "The Rajah warns one and all not to be surprised if Ruth comes up with a new season record for home runs this season."

Hornsby, always one of the most practical fellows in the world, agrees with all the experts that the inspiration of new surroundings, new hosts of ballfans, and new playmates will do much to give the Babe a lift this season, but his prediction is based pretty much on the cold facts of the sizes of the parks in which Ruth will be playing this summer.

The Targelet Are Closer Consultation of the baseball almanac indicates there is plenty of balls for believing Ruth will find it much less of a physical feat to nudge the ball over National league right field fences in general than he did American league barriers.

The statistics shows that five of the eight parks in which he'll be playing have shorter right field paths than their American league counterparts. As for the other three, one—at St. Louis—is the same for both leagues; Cincinnati's right field is only five feet longer than Detroit's, and Pittsburgh's is only 10 feet longer than Cleveland's.

Here's the way the home-plate-to-right-field footages of the two leagues compare:

Table with 3 columns: American League, National League, and Footage. Rows include Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis, Washington-Brooklyn, Detroit-Cincinnati, and Cleveland-Pittsburgh.

Let The Record Book Tell It There have been thousands of the most eloquent of sports scientists' phrases tugged out by press boxes and editorial offices around the big league circuit, but there's still a thrill in just looking over the plain, unvarnished statistics of the Babe's home run procession.

Just consider some of these all-time highs which are opposite Ruth's: Most homers in regular season (1927) 60 Most homers in one game (1927) 7 Most years leading league in homers 12 Most years hitting 60 or more homers 11 Most times hitting two homers in one game 10 Most homers with bases full 15 Most times two homers in one game (season) 8 Three homers in one day 3 Three homers in one game (world series) 7 Most homers in consecutive games (1924) 7 Most homers in one game (world series) 7

So even if he doesn't set the National league on fire this summer (but don't bet he doesn't) Old Man Ruth has left quite a mark already, eh?

Picard Continues Hot Pace to Win Open Tournament

70 on Wind-Swept Course Gives Former Charleston Golf Pro -Championship by Two-Stroke Margin

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 23 (AP)—Leading from the opening round, Henry Picard continued his hot pace down an stretch today to win the $2,000 Charleston open golf tournament to the delight of a wild gallery which surged over a Wappoo course in the wake of the former local pro.

A 70 on his wind-up round of the 72 holes gave Picard the championship by a two stroke margin over Johnny Revolta of St. Louis.

Picard's aggregate of 278 was five strokes higher than the winning lead of 71 turned in last year by Paul Runyan when the White Plains, New York, marvel closed out with a 63.

Victor Ghersi, Deal, New Jersey, shot the lowest round of the final day, a 61, to finish second.

Harold McSpadden of Kansas City, after shooting sub-par golf for three days and holding second place at the three-quarter mark, cracked wide open on his final round and scored an 83 which left him out of the money with 294.

Willy Cox closed out with his third round of the tournament under 70 and finished behind Ghersi and Cooper with 283.

Runyan, so completely the master of the wind-swept seaside links last year, could break par of 71 only once in his defense of his title. His 68 yesterday brought him back into the running after previous rounds of 76, 71, but he could do no better than a 73 on his final try and finished seven strokes behind Picard and a 16 at 283 with Jay LaFolton, Charles and Lee McIlroy, of Newton, Connecticut.

Ted Bank Outlines Plans In Message To Moscow School

Bob McCue Looms As Mainstay in Former Tulane Mentor's System; Offense Calls For Six-Man Line

MOSCOW, March 23 (P)—Ted Paul Bank, Idaho's new football coach, revealed today what he plans to do with the Vandals when he begins spring practice April 1.

Bank and his assistant, Bob Fessler, will arrive here Wednesday afternoon. He outlined his plans in instructions reaching here today.

Bank definitely hopes to carry on the type of football that brought Tulane and the University of Minnesota to the front rank in the last decade. And with this in mind, the new coach said he would concentrate on five fundamentals—blocking, blocking, blocking, punting and passing, timing and coordination, and day after day drill for perfection.

Prefers Speed The new coach said he definitely prefers speed in coordination to power and weight. Leo B. Callahan, retiring coach, concentrated on the back and power angles.

Bank offense calls for a six man line, with the center back to a roving position to become the strongest point in his defense system.

Passing, he thinks, is more than a three-headed dog—it is "one of the most powerful weapons of offense."

Bob McCue, who was dragged from the line to pass for Callahan, possibly will be a mainstay in Bank's offense, and was not surprised by any player in the west last year for distance.

The spring practice session will last about six weeks.

Time Supply Finishes Second, Gusto Third And Darkwinger Fourth; Race Worth $20,300 to Winner

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND (Associated Press Sports Writer) SAN MATEO, Cal., March 23 (AP)—Rounding through the mud with grand training strides that left the field far behind, Head Play, big five-year-old chestnut sired by Mrs. Silas B. Mason, won today's $25,000 added Bay Meadows handicap over a mile and one eighth.

Dodgers Defeat Detroit Tigers

Time Supply, winner of the first Bay Meadows handicap, ran second and Gusto third. Darkwinger ran fourth and Thomaville trailed. Rounding the first turn, Harry Kurlinger, a Louisville boy who established the Kentucky Derby record on Twenty Grand in 1931, upset Head Play into a lead. The big chestnut was never headed.

Head Play went to the post a three to five favorite and paid off at $2.20 on the money. He won by $2.40 to both place and show. Time Supply paid $3.40 and $2.00 and Gusto $2.00. The race was worth $20,300 to the winner. Time Supply drew from $2,000, $1,000, $2,000 and $1,000.

Bad track conditions caused three horses to be scratched. They were Head Play, $2.00 to win and $2.40 to both place and show. The program's mutual handle for eight races was slightly over $200,000.

Newsom Ready to 'Burn Up League'

There's One Guy I'll Never Walk Again, I Declare St. Louis Flinger

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Louis "Buck" Newsom, who last season as a rookie won 16 games while losing 20 with the St. Louis Browns, is all set to burn up the American league.

The incendiary pitcher is confident that he is ready to burn up the American league. "I don't care whether he's a chip off the old block," said Newsom.

Under the scrutiny of Manager Chuck Dressen, the strapping lad of five feet was seen to be a natural at bat. It's not that he's a natural at bat. It's not that he's a natural at bat. It's not that he's a natural at bat.

Not Worrying Newsom knew that Ott wasn't in the American league, but it didn't seem to worry him that Ott and Gehrig were.

"I don't care whether he's a chip off the old block," said Newsom. "I'm sure he'll make a great pitcher," said Newsom.

It was in 1920—the championship year—that Jim Bagby made his best season. His son has been interested in baseball since he was a boy.

NEW YORK, March 23 (AP)—Norris D. Holt of Yale created a new national collegiate record in a 3:43 in the 300-yard individual medley final of the 29th annual intercollegiate swimming association individual championships tonight.

Former Queen of Tennis Hopes to Stage Comeback

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23 (AP)—Helen Wills Moody, former queen of the tennis world, baited a ball softly against a marked wall here today and announced she was preparing for a comeback that will lead to national tournaments next year—"if everything goes all right."

Mrs. Moody, whose will practice today, was her third since her career on the courts was interrupted by an injury in September, 1933, stated.

Her explanation on any competition this year, I don't want to make any plans, because I might disappoint myself. If I do it will be in local tournaments first. You know you can't play in national tournaments until you're sure of yourself. Next year, if everything goes all right, I'll play.

Senators Overwhelm Kansas City, 11 to 1

MOBILE, Ala., March 23 (AP)—Bump Hadley, hurler purchased some weeks ago from St. Louis, and Monte Weaver, combined today to pitch the Washington Senators to an 11 to 1 victory over the Kansas City Blues in an exhibition game here.

Mound Aces Hurl Giants to Victory

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., March 23 (AP)—Cot Hubbell and Hal Schumacher, New York mound aces, hurled effective ball today as the Giants defeated the Philadelphia Athletics 4 to 3 to pull up to the 500 rating in 16 games played in the "Grapefruit" league.

The two Giant pitchers combined to limit the Athletics to nine hits. Joe Moore led the National leaguers' 13-hit attack of Dietrich and Casanova, retiring three hits, one of them a triple, in six innings at bat.

'Old Sarge' Bagby Coaches Jim Junior And Hopes He'll Be Pitcher Like Uhle

By KENNETH GREGORY (Associated Press Sports Writer) ATLANTA, March 19—Will Jim Bagby, Jr. prove to be a chip off the old block?

The younger, 18-year-old proger of his father—"Old Sarge" Bagby, pitching coach of the 1926 world champion Cleveland Indians—has joined the training camp of the Cincinnati Reds at Tampa Bay today.

Under the scrutiny of Manager Chuck Dressen, the strapping lad of five feet was seen to be a natural at bat. It's not that he's a natural at bat. It's not that he's a natural at bat.

The elder Bagby left the majors several years ago and now operates a cleaning and pressing business here. His son has been interested in baseball since he was a boy.

"I don't care whether he's a chip off the old block," said Newsom. "I'm sure he'll make a great pitcher," said Newsom.

FOUR FORMER KENTUCKY DERBY CHAMPIONS FURNISH DOZEN 'SONS' FOR 1935 CLASSIC

By CHARLES M. GUTHRIE (Associated Press Staff Writer) LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 23 (AP)—Twelve top-ranking three-year-olds, entered in the 1935 running of the Kentucky Derby, will be raising to uphold family fame if they go to the post at Churchill Downs May 4.

Listed among the entries are the progeny of four bluebloods that made turf history with victories in this most glamorous of races—Gallant Fox, War Reluctant, Omaha and Frying Iron.

Only two sons have won. Only twice since the Derby inaugurated in 1875 has the son of a derby winner triumphed. Halma won in 1886. Seven years later one of his colts, Alan-a-Dale, raced to victory.

The only other father-son combination to turn the trick was Publishing Over and Burgo King. The former sped home ahead in 1928 and Burgo King led the pack in 1922.

Gallant Fox, an easy victor over Gallant Knight in the 1930 classic, stands a good chance—mathematically at least—of being the sire of this year's winner. Six of his offspring are entered. They are Omaha, Gallant Prince, Thruster, Fory Arnes, Calumet Dick and South Gallant.

The mighty Morrich, winner of the 1922 Derby, may have a pride in his offspring. Among the illustrious parents' reputation—Earl Fawn, Golden Boy and Morpick. Two colts of Belgh Cous, in 1924, acclaimed as one of the greatest horses ever to lead the Derby field, are entered. They are Our list of derby-winner offspring in the money column. Morpick, which has been in the money in seven races, has won twice and also looms as a contender. He boasts winnings of $6,250.

Costas has finished in the money eight times in 10 starts, coming home in front four times, with winnings totaling $7,800. He leads the second of a series of weekly trapshooting events will be held beginning at 10 o'clock this morning at the Twin Falls Rod and Gun club grounds, three miles north of Five Point corner.

The first shoot of the season was held last Sunday, but few spectators taking part, due to the adverse weather conditions. Officials of the club, however, anticipate a greater attendance and a keener interest in today's trapshooting.

Homeer Barton, club secretary, said last evening that the public was cordially invited to participate in the event.

NEW ORLEANS, March 23 (AP)—The Indiana continued their batting rampage in an exhibition game against the Pelicans today, winning 10 to 2. They were led by Hal Truex, who clouted out a home run in the fifth.

FLAN ATHLETIC BANQUET EDEN, March 23—The Eden high school students participating in the various branches of athletics are to be guests of honor at a banquet to be held here Friday evening. The mothers of the students are sponsoring the event.

CAMBRIDGE WINS OVER OXFORD TRACK TEAM LONDON, March 23 (AP)—Cambridge scored its 14th victory over its old rival, Oxford, in the 67th Oxford-Cambridge track and field meet, held in one of 10 races and third twice, winning $2,825. Several super-horses of the past, with few exceptions, were equally great sires, will have no youngsters in the approaching Derby. No colts of the incomparable Man O' War will face the barrier. Bubbling Over will not be represented, nor will Zen, winner of the 1925 classic.

Mammoth Italian Deals Death Blow To Ring Tourney

Athletic Commission Stands In Way of Madison Garden Promoter's Plan for Championship Scrap

By BOB CAYANANO (Associated Press Sports Writer) NEW YORK, March 23 (AP)—The heavyweight boxing situation "looked like a walk-away platform during commuting hours today. Everybody was in a hurry but getting nowhere."

The only thing about it that remained positive was mad-capper Max Baer is still the champion. Otherwise matters stood as follows:

James J. Braddock, the Jersey City veteran, who won a clean-cut 15-round decision from Art Lasky last night is dickering for a bout with Schmeling. Max Schmeling now that Primo Carners has "sold out" Madison Square Garden for the 20th Century Sporting Club and the youth with Joe Louis, emotional Negro.

Commissioner stands in way. Jimmy Johnston, the Garden's fello matchmaker, is just itching to announce a Schmeling championship fight for the month of May. In view of the probability that the New York state athletic commission won't sanction it before Schmeling tackles Braddock.

Added to those developments is the anticipated demise to the Garden's slumping business by the opening of a new, white challenge. When Owens turned the back on Madison Square and signed with the Garden, he secured the honorarium's death knell for he was scheduled to meet the winner of the Braddock-Lasky affair in the Garden on April 5. A late check-up indicated the Garden would be dark that night and, perhaps, for the remainder of the season. It would mean the street money in early in April.

Lasky's Outlook is Red. Meanwhile the combats of last night's hot boxers of the leading battle, Braddock was up and ready to meet Schmeling. He was a swollen eye, and Lasky was confined to bed, suffering from a sore throat and a pulled neck. Lasky plans to depart for the Pacific coast by plane tomorrow while his brother-manager is going to Detroit to witness a fight against Nate Brown next Friday.

In a steady rain at White City today, Cambridge won 7 points to 4.
