Opening of New Twin Falls Institution Nears With Completion of Legal Procedure for Purchase

The old First National bank building at the corner of Main street and Sheehone street east, was purchased yesterday by the First National bank of Filer for the Fidelity National bank of Twin Falls, which is to open for business on or before Monday.

Guy Shearer of Filer, president, announced the new bank's opening date following a hearing before District Judge Adam B. Brock in the district court here yesterday at which the court approved the petition of C. D. Thompson, First National bank receiver, for approval of his acceptance of the bank's bid of $47,000 for the building. There was no other bid. The deal now is subject to confirmation by the comptroller of the currency, which is expected.

Notice of the proposed sale of the building had been given and the hearing was held following the initial announcement of plans for opening the new bank in Twin Falls. The spectators attended the hearing on the receiver's application in the district court yesterday, but there was no response when Judge Brock inquired whether there were any other bids for the property.

The First National receiver was questioned briefly by the court, and then the court ordered approving the sale was issued.

Judge William A. Babcock, one of the new bank's directors, appeared at the hearing as legal advisor to the purchaser. The receiver's attorneys, Chapman and Chapman, also were in the court room.

Charles transferred the new bank into the field by transfer of the charter of the First National bank to the Fidelity National bank with Earl B. Latta, president, and Roy Painter, former cashier of the Casita National bank of Burley.

'Stogie' Wins 'Crookedest Horse Race In The World'

SEATTLE, April 13 (AP)—Stogie, a 100-to-1 shot about 10 minutes before the park board's great sprint derby, the crookedest horse race in the world, was crowned today when he won first prize a leg of beef and a crown of carrots by accident.

Stogie had staggered into the race, the American Legion here, that roan stallion never would have had a chance to make third for being most of the race Stogie was out.

High School Athletes Auto Crash Victims

One Member of Coeur d'Alene Track Team Killed; Four Teammates, Five Others Injured

COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho, April 13 (AP)—Death and injuries snatched the joy of victory from the Coeur d'Alene high school track team and flung a pall of sorrow over students and citizens today.

Within a few hours after a quadrangular meet in Spokane, Robert Wilson, 17, was dead of a broken neck, and five of his team mates were injured and five other persons hurt in a head-on automobile collision on the highway between Spokane and Coeur d'Alene.

The injured were: John Eider, driver of the track squad's automobile, internal injuries; Douglas Diggle, team member, fractured ribs and internal injuries; Bill Roemer and Charles McLaughlin, team members, severe bruises and minor cuts.

Reginald Good, driver of the second car, Reginald Good, Monday and Mrs. Phillip Fordyce and Clifford Helwick, all of Coeur d'Alene, cuts and bruises, none dangerous.

The accident happened, investigating officers said, when Eider swung around a stalled freight truck which crashed into the Good machine. Wilson was the son of Ralph Wilson, a druggist here. Diggle is the son of Hestley Diggle, a University of Idaho football star a generation ago. Eider is the son of Paul Eider, a hardware dealer, and nephew of Robert Eider, former Idaho national committee for the Democratic party. McLaughlin is the son of H. K. McLaughlin, former supervisor of the Coeur d'Alene national forest.

SEATTLE, April 13 (AP)—Fears of a paralyzing strike in the lumber industry of five western states were expressed here today by Charles W. Hope, director of the regional labor board, after an "opinion sounding" tour of the area.

He asserted the threatened strike of loggers and lumber mill workers in Idaho, Oregon, Washington, California and Nevada, which would affect more than last year's lumber output, is a "serious" one.

The regional director toured Washington, part of Oregon and northern Idaho and received reports from the other states concerning the situation in California. The result of his findings was air-mailed to officials in Washington, D. C.

May Close Mills Employers have indicated, however, that they will not close their mills until after the end of the season.

SEATTLE, April 13 (AP)—A seaman was rescued today from buckshot wounds fired from a waterfront guard's shotgun last night when strikers allegedly attempted to push the boat toward the coast.

The seaman, James W. Lister, 25, suffered minor wounds in the arms and legs and several others narrowly escaped injury.

Seattle union officials denied the pickets were attempting to board the tanker when the guard fired.

IDAHO SALES TAX DISPUTE INVOLVES WOOLWORTH CHAIN

Miller Seeks Injunction to Cause 'Five and Ten' Stores to Cease Collecting on Basis of Schedule

BOISE, April 13—The battle over the Idaho retail sales tax not flared anew tonight. This time it involved the "Five and Ten" dynasty of the late F. W. Woolworth.

The attorney general, Bert E. Miller, knocked off the legal fireworks late today when he instituted judicial action designed to halt collection of the tax on amounts of less than 50 cents, and to prohibit the use of a 5 percent tax on sales of 50 cents to $1.25 and on up.

The attorney general instituted his proceedings in the seventh district court at Caldwell on a complaint against the F. W. Woolworth company, dealers in a retail corporation, organized in New York.

Mr. Miller seeks an injunction to cause the Woolworth company to cease collecting the 2 percent tax on the basis of a schedule now generally in use by Idaho retail merchants. It calls for a 1 cent tax on amounts of 15 to 25 cents, a 2 percent tax on sales of 25 cents to $1.25 and on up.

The case will come before Judge John C. Rice, veteran Canyon county jurist, whose first official experience with the new Idaho sales tax act was obtained a few weeks ago in the Idaho supreme court when he was called to fill the place of Justice James P. Allshouse during the hearing of a question involving the tax law and a referendum petition, held titles for which Mr. Miller refused to issue until the voters returned him to office.

The non-petition ranged from a Benton side show with cabinet members as the freaks, to a new version of the Pied Piper of Hamelin when the country was portrayed as plagued by Senators Long, McNamara and Schwellenbach, Father Coughlin, Dr. Townsend and Governor.

Already as a result of the supreme court test, referendum petitions are being circulated by members of the anti-sales tax league who have expressed the hope they can make the law inoperative until the next general election day as soon as they have complied with provisions of

La Guardia Rules Spain, According To Idaho Senior

PROSECUTOR, Idaho, April 13 (AP) If Huey Long is a lightweight boxer and Fiorello La Guardia is the dictator of Spain, two senior students at the University of Idaho got "100" in their quiz on current events.

Prof. Lawrence Chamberlain, a political science instructor at the university, announced those and other answers today.

On student came closer on the La Guardia question by saying the mayor of New York, whose ancestor was Italian, was the ambassador from Italy.

Bernard Baruch, New York capitalist who made his fortune selling on his territory in the scenic munitions inquiry, was identified variously as an orchestra leader, a professional baseball player, a radio singer, a motion picture director.

Erstrude Stein, the author who wrote poetry and prose that few people can understand, is, according to three students, a social worker who has been reported for seditious writings, and a famous German contralto.

And the Mayo brothers, widely known surgeons of Rochester, Minnesota, are a team of movie actors, one student said.

Akron Manufacturers and Federation of Labor Reach Agreement

WASHINGTON, April 13 (AP)—Akron, Ohio, rubber manufacturers and the American Federation of Labor reached an agreement today to avert the threatened strike of rubber workers in the Goddard-Goodrich-Firestone plants.

The four-point agreement provided: 1.—That the management would give representatives of any group of employees for collective bargaining.

2.—That the company would post on its bulletin boards any changes in hours, wages, or working conditions arrived at by those negotiations.

3.—That the company would recognize postponement of labor relations board-ordered elections in the Firestone and Goodrich plants until the company's court appeals were concluded.

4.—That there should be no strike or lockout or discrimination pending the outcome of the appeal. Further, that any grievances not satisfactorily settled should be referred to a fact finding board of three to be approved by the secretary of labor.

Italy, France And Britain Reach Agreement On Ways To Save Europe From War

Church Dictator Reich Acceptance Of Non-Aggression Pact Leads List

STRESA, April 13—Italy, France and England closed tonight their history-making conference, asserting they had reached full agreement on ways to save Europe from war.

The tri-power parley was called after Adolf Hitler's dramatic decision to rearm the Wehrmacht. France in an appeal to the League of Nations, declared perilous to peace.

For the first time since the Paris peace conference, heads of the three great western European powers—Benito Mussolini of Italy, Pierre-Etienne Flandin of France, Ramsay MacDonald of England—met face-to-face to talk over Europe's prospects for peace.

Definite Results After 18-hour talks, the conference table, these were the authoritative military assistance, peace, 1. A German offer to enter an eastern non-aggression pact provided she is exempt from any military assistance, peace, 2. Decision to call Danubian nations into conference at Rome May 20 to discuss ways of keeping little states independent, 3. United support for Franco's appeal to Geneva against Germany's treaty violation, 4. Approval of the principle of an air pact for immediate aerial assistance against an aggressor, 5. Approval of Austrian, Bulgarian and Hungarian rearmament, 6. Approval of a general conference to discuss ways of keeping peace, 7. A general European conference to discuss ways of keeping peace, 8. A proposed eastern Mediterranean pact linking Italy, Greece, Turkey and Bulgaria. Furthermore, France agreed to

NAZIS CRACK DOWN CHURCH OPPOSITION

No Quarter in Renewed Battle Against Non-Conformists

BRUNNEN, GERMANY, April 13 (AP)—A meeting of all Nazi secretaries here in the "Brown House" here has decided that the church opposition should be crushed, it was reported today.

The "heavy hand" of the Nazis will be brought down without mercy on the heads of all clergymen and laymen who oppose the regime of Reichsbishop Ludwig Mueller, Hitler-appointed dictator of Protestant churches in Germany.

This decision, which is being withheld from the German public for the present, was revealed by the Associated Press by an unimpeachable authority on church affairs.

Four Heavily and two Saxton clergymen who have been taken to concentration camps for their activities against Mueller, not only will not be released now but their heads have been shaved and they have been put in regular prison garb, it was learned.

From the little that has leaked out concerning the Nazi department chiefs' meeting, over which Reichsbishop Mueller presided, it is apparent, it is believed, that Alfred Rosenberg's radicals apparently had won.

This was true to such an extent that although the ministry of the interior decided April 9 to release the church opposition, it was not able to put its decision into effect.

Paraguay Troops Conquer Bolivians

ASUNCION, Paraguay, April 13 (AP)—Paraguay troops today captured, invading the Bolivian department of Santa Cruz, today crushing the Bolivian army, the Bolivian infantry regiment, the defense ministry announced tonight.

More than 600 Bolivians, among them Lieutenant Carmelo Cuellar, were killed in the announcement. The encounter with the Bolivian force occurred 30 miles east of the Parapiti river, it was stated.

SAINT LAURENCE CITY, April 13 (AP)—Mrs. L. E. Wright, who chose to spend the week-end in jail rather than pay a $10 fine for a traffic violation of which she declared herself innocent, today found herself not so unpleasant.

"Jail isn't such a bad place, after all," she said today, after she had spent her first night in the women's ward and had breakfast from tin dishes on the usual fare of much.

"Of course it's not what I'm used to," she explained.

Neither was awaking in the early hours to find herself in a cell with two other women—not sentenced on traffic charges.

"When I awoke this morning I had forgotten for the moment where I was," she said. "The first thing I saw when I dawned my eyes was that I was an old dirty mop in a cell, ferner."

Typewriter Traps Snake

BEAUMONT, Texas—Employees of a Beaumont typewriter shop gained relief after completing their most ticklish job—unraveling a 25-foot kingsnake from the mechanism of a portable typewriter.

The snake, a pet of Miss E. Simpson, a school teacher, became entangled while investigating the machine's make-up. The pet was not injured in removal, and was necessary to dismantle the typewriter.

Beards Fall—WALLACE, Neb.—Beards were scraped from 63 chins here to celebrate a recent victory when the dust in this section of Nebraska was a big job for the two barbers in the town of less than 400 persons, but a number of members of the whittakers, a group of men who last March 20 voted to let their whiskers grow until it rains, were necessary to dismantle the typewriter.

JAPAN 'WINNS' LOSS OF COTTON MARKET

U. S. Move to Keep Nippon Out of Latin America Draws Fire

TOKYO, April 13 (AP)—Japan kind-ly plainly told the United States "reported efforts to deprive her of her Latin American markets might cost the American cotton grower some of his big market in Japan."

A statement the foreign office handed to the Japanese press said United States commercial interests were agitating to exclude Japanese goods from Central and South America.

If Nippon's exports to those markets are restricted, the statement added, "it will affect our purchasing power, especially with reference to United States cotton, and will considerably restrict unfavorably upon America's foreign trade to Japan."

United States cotton sales to Japan averaged some $100,000,000 annually. They constitute the largest single item in America's agricultural export trade.

It is pointed out that last year totaled slightly more than all Japan's exports to the United States—$61,000,000 yen against $39,000,000 yen in the currency quoted at about 23 1/2 United States cents.

Lending point to the foreign office's hint is the fact that Japanese commercial and industrial leaders are seeking to improve trade with Brazil, buying larger quantities of Brazilian cotton and selling more Japanese products there.

If the plan proves feasible, it is expected to remove the cramping effect on Japanese export trade of Brazil's rigid control of foreign exchange, which makes it imperative for any country wishing to sell goods in Brazil to buy there first.

The foreign office statement, issued during the visit of American industrial leaders and "interlocks" concerns in the United States, which fear loss of their Latin American markets, are feverishly agitating for the exclusion of Japanese goods from those (Latin American) countries.

It is that agitation it blamed the tendency of Latin American nations to denounce commercial treaties with Japan or restrict Japanese imports.

Respond to Picas

At the sound of the gong most of the horses kept on sleeping. When the gong blew, the crowd of spectators when Pielan begged them, they started. Saxophones and Piccolos were blowing wheezily at the quarter.

Efforts of Harry Westfall, president of the party, failed to entice a kangaroo were balked by Starter Pielan, who said the jockey would have to ride it inside of being carried in his pocket. Other things attempted in the crooked spavin derby were a mauling dog and a turtle, neither of which could be inter-viewed as to its sponsor.

"We have upheld the tradition of the horse in western history," said Mayor Smith after the derby. "The only accident of the derby occurred when Raviola, entry of the Italian club, attempted to put on the jockey's boots and stepped on the foot of his rider."

ON RELIEF

FERA Offices Run Like Big Business

Millions of persons have found it necessary to accept relief in one form or another. Relief plans occupy a major part of the administration's time and vitally affect the congressional program. Relief is a big problem everywhere. This article, first in a series of six, shows how those in the relief administration's central headquarters tackle the problem. Subsequent ones will present actual cases of "those on relief."

BY SIGRID ARNE
WASHINGTON, April 10 (AP)—The 400 men and women who make up the federal relief organization staff here have gone through three phases of philosophy since they took their places on the distress relief line.

First, great shock and worry over the hundreds of thousands of families unemployed here.

Then, punch-drunk, a phase of annoyance at the insistence of many that the relief organization should be run like a business.

Now the office force has settled to a workmanlike organization that would be difficult to distinguish from any large business concern. Stenographers in rows; filing clerks at cabinets; deputy administrators pouring over reports; regional centers returning to describe their territories.

The Washington office—and thousands of unemployed forget this—is merely a clearing house. It has no money to spend on its own activity. It can't send shock doctors or the rent to the needy; it can only grant money to the states and advise and check the spending.

Another group at headquarters acts as accountants. It goes over the books of the states and determines how much money can be afforded to pay for their own poor.

Determine Human Needs
Another group determines the human needs of the unemployed, the sort of people they are, the stores they frequent, the habits they have.

Another group gives technical advice on work projects.

Reveals Engagement

A few days here on a business visit.

Here From Wyoming—George Craig of Rawlins, Wyoming, former Twin Falls restaurant owner, arrived yesterday for a few days' visit here.

Back From Utah—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lorenz and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Horvick spent the first of the week in Salt Lake City on a business and pleasure trip.

Concludes Visit—Bob Powell of Reno, Nevada, former Twin Falls resident, will leave today returning to Nevada following a few days' visit here and in Wyoming.

Returns to Office—Dr. D. L. Alexander, who has been confined to his home through illness, is so far recovered he is able to again appear at his office.

Mother Dies—Frank L. Stephan, Twin Falls attorney, has been called to Chicago by the death of his mother, Mrs. John Stephan. He will be away about two weeks. Mrs. Stephan died yesterday morning.

In Serious Condition—Word received at Twin Falls from Har-Beam now at Harvard, Nebraska, with his father, Good Beam, is to the effect that Mr. Beam is still in a semi-conscious condition as a result of an automobile accident some ten days ago.

The unemployed line up for relief work.

And the fourth deals with the rural poor and stranded populations, such as lumber towns where the forests are gone.

But the people on relief know little of the organization. They forget their own state is responsible for them, and they write their troubles to Washington. They write of everything from hunger to sick cows and unfaithful husbands.

Many Can Still Laugh
Sheer terror rings through many letters. Absolute lack of morals is written into them. Surprisingly many still can laugh. They write witty accounts of their difficulties.

The Washington headquarters had no intention of dealing directly with the unemployed, but the letters started coming, and a special staff of 70 persons had to be set up to handle the letters.

They have to face another 1,500 to 2,500 letters every day. Every night that day's work is "cleaned up," and they're proud of it.

Misses Licenses Issued at Twin Falls county recorder's office yesterday. Applicants were Norman Johnson and Gladys Johnson, both of Dubois; Robert Lee Powell and Alice Hagan, both of Kimberly.

Insurance Business—O. M. Ellwiler, who was for some time associated with the White mortuary in Twin Falls, has purchased an interest in a mortuary at Ashland, Oregon, friends here have been advised.

Leases Farm—Earl T. Klontz of Hansen has leased from Jack Craig of Hansen a 24-acre tract two and one-half miles south of Hansen on a crop-sharing basis for the season ending next November 1, according to a lease agreement placed on record here yesterday.

Attends Funeral—E. H. Martin returned yesterday from Wallburg, Washington, where he attended funeral services for his mother, who died at the age of 82 years following a few days' illness with pneumonia.

Daughter Born—According to word received by relatives here, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jensen at their home in Los Angeles yesterday. Mrs. Jensen was formerly Miss Miriam Ballantyne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Ballantyne of Twin Falls.

At License Counter—Two marriages were solemnized at the license counter at the county clerk's office here yesterday.

The souvenir of the dinner was carried out the golden anniversary idea. It was a large cartoon by Clifford K. Berryman of the Washington Star, portraying a parade of the famous guests of the club since its founding in 1835.

Weber and Fields were called upon to elucidate the gold decision. Two club members' impressions of the comedians engaged in a discussion of the famous verdict and of other monetary matters, including "devaluation."

"Today the dollar is only 89 cents," explained one.

"May, were did you go to school?" At Columbia.

"No, I read it in a book by Mr. Roosevelt, called 'Out of My Mind'."

"What the Court said?" They finally decided to see if they could "hook" their gold bonds for a dollar and half, and invest the proceeds in baby bonds.

"Are they gold, too?" "No, they are 10, and 20."

"Can they do it under the constitution?" "No."

"Yes, you mean, do you mean?" "Well, don't you see, I found the burghmaster informing the public that the country was under a plague."

"We are gathered tonight," he said, "to free ourselves from the transcendent therapeutics of asceticism."

Three characters appeared upon the stage while the chorus sang "The Raisin Have Come to Town." The burghmaster asked the first if his name was Long.

"Yes, sir," he answered. "I am the head round around here. The others are just amateur cheese-chasers. I want rich cheese—the Rockefeller Roosevelt, that Cossack cameraman, that Guggenheim gonzola, and when I get it, I'll wrap it up in small bundles and pass it around."

"So yours are the fingerprints that are found in all our best pastries," a burgher observed. "What a cute little rat he is after all."

They Little Fingerprint
A solist and chorus then obliged with "They Little Fingerprint."

"Everyone as artful as can be," "They little fingerprints that put us in a fix."

"Are just a great big smudge to me." Senator Coughlin refused to make a speech because no microphone was present, but Townsend promised that each person reaching the age of 50 would be given $500 a month.

The "Pied Piper of the Potomac" appeared, but his most enticing tunes failed to attract the children and the rats.

The Barnum skill had the famous showman serving as Barker for his own side show and introducing "the historic predecessor of Franklin D. Roosevelt."

He presented "the most amazing groups of oddities ever nothing more than Comfort Zone Riding."

SIT back in the rear seat of the 1935 Ford V-8—and change your idea of what an automobile ride is like!

A way has been found to give rear seat passengers the comfort of "a front seat ride!" Ford has done this with a new engineering development—Full-floating Springbase with Comfort Zone Seating.

You might have been satisfied with nothing more than Comfort Zone Riding and the proved Ford V-8 engine together in one car. But the 1935 Ford V-8 offers you many other features almost as important. It is a roomier car—with more leg room—more deeper seats. It strikes a new note in streamlined beauty. Interior fittings are almost luxurious. Large, soft-pressure tires are standard. Safety glass all around comes at no extra cost.

And, in addition to low purchase price, the new Ford V-8 gives you traditional Ford economy. It uses no more gas than a 4-cylinder car—with low oil consumption—seldom needs valve grinding or carbon removed.

See this 1935 Ford V-8 today. It's a new automobile value!

IMPROVEMENT SEEN IN C. O. P. CHANCES

Senator Borah: First on Colonel Knox' Calling-List at Capital

WASHINGTON, April 13 (AP)—An assertion that Republican chances for the presidency in 1936 are improving, but varying views as to how they should be capitalized, today emerged from brief and informal political meetings here between Colonel Frank Knox, Chicago publisher, and Republican senators.

Put forward by some senators as a possible presidential candidate against Franklin D. Roosevelt next year, Colonel Knox first called on Senator Borah of Idaho, who wants the party reorganized with new principles and leaders. He then spent another ten minutes in the office of Senator Capper of Kansas.

Hastings Renews Fire

The conferences coincided, but had no connection, with a fresh assault on the administration by Senator Hastings (D-De). He challenged what he said were Democratic claims that Roosevelt platform promises had been fulfilled. He asserted the people were "awakening to this perfidy" and a year from November would be reorganized in their own way for the "deception" practiced upon them.

The spur of Republican activity recalled recent reports that Hoover might be planning to play a prominent role in grooming the C. O. P. for 1936. One Republican senator asserted privately he understood the former president felt he could stage a comeback. In Cleveland did under somewhat similar economic circumstances in the thirties.

Hoover, who conferred with scores of political leaders and business men during a visit in New York this week, was represented variously by callers as not seeking or expecting the Republican nomination in 1936, and as desirous of carrying the C. O. P. standard again if the chance offered.

Hoover Makes Rounds

Some leaders here saw significance in the former president's activities. On top of this heavy round of conferences in New York he conferred last night in nearby Maryland with Governor Nice of that state, a Republican, and Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., president of the National Republican Club.

Moving on from this overnight stop near Thurmont, Maryland, Hoover today met with "strong" Republicans and friends at Wheeling, West Virginia. Those close to him said there was no political significance to his talks but from his former president's itinerary it appears that more conferences were on the schedule before he returns to his Palo Alto, California, home.

Colonel Knox, here for the Old-Time club banquet tonight, supported Theodore Roosevelt in the memorable 1912 party split. He refused today to discuss reports about his personal chances for the nomination.

"I am running the Chicago Daily News," he replied with a smile, when asked about the reports. He did say, however, that Republican prospects looked brighter.

Means to Same End

Borah said afterward that he received the impression that the 61-year-old publisher, a close personal friend, agreed with him as to the need for reorganization, but possibly not as to the method of bringing that about.

"I think he feels the same thing can be accomplished without an open fight," said the Idahoan. The two also discussed the proposed Midwest Republican meeting next month at Kansas City, but while Borah did not go into details on this, Capper said Knox looked with favor on the proposal.

Borah feels the preliminary platform meeting will get nowhere unless it repudiates those now in control of the party and adopts a liberal set of principles. As some others, the Idahoan likewise believes Chairman Henry P. Fletcher of the national committee should step down and Hoover should definitely state he is not a candidate.

Architectural features play an important part in producing this interesting and unusual room, but its decoration plays no less a role.

The decorative scheme is essentially French provincial in character. The decorator, Amy Sommers Phillips, selected this type of design because it is suitable to feminine tastes, but not so effeminate as to seem ludicrous for a man. The same limitation has guided the decorator in her selection of color and type of fabric.

The walls are painted creamy beige. The rug is rose-beige, and the curtains are a rough textured rose motté, somewhat lighter than

P. T. A. PROGRAM

GIVEN AT JEROME

JEROME, April 13.—The Magic Hat, an entertainment sponsored by the Jerome Parent-Teacher Association, was presented Friday evening in the Jerome high school auditorium.

The master magician of the evening was Harold B. Roberts, principal of the high school. Loyalists of the night school, Leonard and his assistants. This pair of magicians performed several acts of magic, much to the delight of the audience.

The magic act was followed by a program of instrumental and vocal numbers. Alice Goemery, Kathryn Webster, Mary Kougendoller, Margaret Franzen, Nina Nims, Doris Walker, Wanda Wilham, Elaine Miller, Lila Rose Goff and Miriam Polman gave a novelty act. Mrs. Raymond Cornwell, Jr. gave a reading, "The Arkansas Willows." Elizabeth Smith gave a dance, "The Spring Bonnet."

A vitamin song, with the singers attired to represent different fruits and foods, was given by Patricia Tilly, Valina Terry, Dorothy Snow, Marian Owens, Betty Lyttige, Jean Ivy, Hazel Pratt, Doris Johnson, Anna Lou Giles and Lila Austin. Virginia Hart gave a piano solo, "Camp of Glory," and Ella Jean Thomason a reading, "The Surprising Package." Mrs. A. J. Goff gave a reading, "The Arkansas Willows," by Margaret Fyle and Ann Burdick. Billy Spaeth gave a military dance, and Irene Callen, accompanied by Mrs. A. I. Bug, two musical readings.

Robert Woodhead and Walter Henry played a piano duo and Ella Meuser gave a piano solo, "Valse Arabesque," and Phyllis Ann Smith a tap dance. Eleanor Craven and Lucille Webster played a duet on the piano. Alice Goemery gave a reading, "Leeds Jacob Straub," followed by Irish jig by Faye Esther Rusell.

Kathryn Webster gave a reading, "Audrey in the Auto." June Woolley gave a Mexican Hat dance, followed by a piano solo by Janice Freeman. "All For You" was sung by Arta Burns. Fred Burkhalter gave a waltz clog, and Morton Hall played a piano solo, "Burglar Rap-sody." Ann Turletoff gave a dance, "Waltz of the Flowers."

Miss La Nella Breckinridge of Twin Falls accompanied most of the numbers. Miss Joy Beem announced the numbers.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID

RESTAURANT OWNER

JEROME, April 13.—Largely attended services were held from 10 to 11 a. m. at the Jerome funeral chapel Thursday afternoon for Tom T. Hoto, 50, proprietor of restaurant in Jerome and Twin Falls since 1908.

Rev. O. L. Johnson, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated, his subject being "The Garden and the Grave." Misses Joy and Marjorie Stern and Joe Day, accompanied by Mrs. E. C. Connor, sang "No Tears in Paradise" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Joe Day sang "Fare Thee Well."

pallbearers were Mr. Yanada, Mr. Morimoto, Mr. Tanaka, Mr. Maruyama, Mr. Mizushima and Mr. Yamamoto. All of Twin Falls. Honorary pallbearers were Fred C. Reed, Gilbert White and George Bremer, of Jerome; B. W. White, W. R. Priebe and Frank Kliffner, of Twin Falls; and Tom Holmes and Jack Mose of Eden.

Interment was in Twin Falls cemetery, the Jerome funeral chapel directing.

LONG TERM PUBLIC WORKS PLANS TOLD TO CONGRESSMEN

Times had been provided $200,000,000. He said $100,000,000 would go into construction and $100,000,000 to the financing of other government agencies.

In discussing the permanent planning agency, informed quarters said many of the chief advisers of the president were agreed that it would be necessary for the government to continue public works as a permanent part of the national life.

With this in mind, they said, it would be necessary to have a planning agency to direct these works along lines of well grounded policy. The planning board would pass up on projects with a view to keeping them in step with long range improvement plan. It would cooperate with the more than 40 state planning agencies that have been set up.

Outlines Setup

The president already had indicated that the major part of the spending of the four billion dollars would be done by existing government agencies, the bulk of which would comprise a board over which he would preside.

The function of the board, as outlined in the proposal that has been put before the chief executive, would be to serve as a clearing house for significant plans developed by federal, state or local agencies. In its work, the board would, under this suggestion, help to coordinate the different federal, state and local plans where close cooperation appeared needed.

The proposal calls for a board of not more than five members with a rotating panel of consultants to be chosen by the board.

Congress Wants Hand

In general, the test which informed officials expect to see applied to proposed projects under the work program is whether they fit into a time effort to promote better use and conservation of land, water, mineral and human resources.

A long list of projects that fall into these classifications already has been culled from the files of government departments.

The conference sought today at the White House by members of the house steering committee was an outgrowth of the same feeling that led the senate to attempt to earmark the four billion dollar fund. Mem-

Canal Company Secretary Announces Deadline for Payment

A belated spring season has delayed the beginning of the irrigation season, and also held back payment of the Twin Falls Canal company's 1935 annual maintenance assessment of $1 an acre against approximately 200,000 acres under the canal system. It was stated at the canal company's office in connection with announcement by the canal company's secretary, J. P. Cordes, that a penalty charge of one percent per month will be assessed on delinquent assessments beginning next Tuesday.

A year ago, it was recalled, the irrigation was in full swing in the Twin Falls district, because of the earlier season.

This year, there have been few calls for irrigation water delivery, and those for the most part were for early plantings of onion crops, canal company officials said.

News of Marlon Talley's Month-Old Marriage Leaks Out

NEW CITY, N. Y., April 13 (AP)—A two-year-old romance between Marlon Talley and Adolph Eckstrom, a New York City singer, was terminated in a secret wedding here last month. The news leaked out with the filing of the marriage license return at the county clerk's office.

The wedding, it was disclosed, was performed March 23 by the Rev. D. H. Grisdley, pastor of the New City Methodist Episcopal church, with Charles Peterson of New York City, and George Link, Jr. of New City, as witnesses.

Her first was her marriage to Michael Rauber, a German pianist, in a similarly unceremonious ceremony at White Plains, N. Y., in June, 1932. This marriage was annulled six months later in California, however.

Rauchelson, remarried about a year ago, to Maria Xrogun, also a singer.

No inkling of an impending marriage between Miss Talley and Eckstrom had been given even to Miss Talley's associates.

George Eneick, her manager, said he had heard indirectly of a budding romance, but had heard nothing but belated reports of the wedding itself.

Miss Talley's friends said they understood the couple were en route to California, where the singer is under contract to produce a motion picture.

MURTAUGH GRANGERS IN REGULAR SESSION

MURTAUGH, April 13 (AP)—Murtaugh Grangers met at the Lloyd Davis home Wednesday evening. Twenty members were present. Refractions were served by the hostess.

The pupils of the fourth and fifth grade rooms honored their "newly wed" teachers, Mrs. George McCondy, hall, with a miscellaneous shower Wednesday. Miss Claire Perkins also celebrated her birthday. The honored guests received many presents. Refreshments were served.

The school staff and the faculty advisor, Miss Fozie Keatinger, left this morning for Burley to attend a Journalism meeting. Staff members are Lois Fischer, Mrs. Wright, Marlon Lewis and Alvin White.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davis entertained at their home Monday night. Mrs. John Rigney of Twin Falls, Tuesday evening, honoring the birthday of Mrs. Blancy.

Seventy-five couples attended the junior prom held in the high school gymnasium, Friday evening. Decorations were in orange and white, the senior colors. Refreshments of ice cream, punch and waters were served through the evening. Music was furnished by Paul Belter's orchestra.

Mrs. Emma Egbert was honored at a birthday dinner at her home Wednesday. The birthday supper was enjoyed by the following members of her family: Messrs and Misses Bert Egbert, Harry Egbert, Frank Egbert, Cleveland Egbert, William Egbert, Parley Egbert and Arthur Taylor. Appropriate gifts were received by the guest of honor.

Coalition Government Called U. S. Salvation

Babson Charges Statesmanship Has Collapsed Today As Did Banking System, In 1932-33

By ROBERT W. BABSON
NEW YORK, Feb. 13 (AP)—The "brain trust" made a vital mistake in the spring of 1933. Two main points below concern the "Forgotten Man" is wondering who, besides the politicians, have benefited from the New Deal. I only have to point to the huge volume of mail which Huey Long receives daily and to the millions who signed the Townsend petitions to bear out my point that the "Forgotten Man" is looking for a new leader. And remember, our modern managers have the powerful weapon of the radio by which they can reach millions of listeners at once—a situation which never before existed.

Coalition Saved Nation
The plain fact is that statesmanship has collapsed today as did the banking system in 1932 and 1933. The same cut-throat methods are now being used by politicians as were used by Wall Street in the 20's. The plain truth is that the farmers, the unemployed, the returned, organized labor, and state officials are taking the federal Treasury on such a coalition ticket with Republicans are making cowardly and unpatriotic speeches. The Democrats have completely forgotten the Republic's Jefferson while the Republicans have turned from rugged individualism to rugged collectivism. But we need not resort to Fascism to clean up the mess.

The simplest and quickest way to cure our ills is for the conservative of both major parties to form a coalition government. President Roosevelt could be the candidate on such a coalition ticket with a Republican, such as Knox, for vice-president and with a conservative cabinet agreed upon in advance. If this plan is not workable, then the Republican party should nominate a conservative Democrat, such as Senator Clegg, or former Judge-Inspector Douglas for president. This would unite conservative Democrats with Republicans until the present mess is cleaned up. The first, major move of this party would be to immediately begin balancing the budget and curtailing expense of useless and evil public spending.

My chief criticism of the administration is the fact that it has set in motion dangerous and even suicidal forces. It has undermined people's morale; it has destroyed confidence in the government; it has upheld the doctrine of producing less and wasting more. Worst of all, it has made the people believe that its interests are different from the interests of his employer. The spill-over of our nation's policy of separate groups is socially wicked and economically wrong. Everyone is a wage earner and everyone is a capitalist and the interest of one is the interest of the other.

The country is today fertile soil for the seeds of discontent sown by radicals and demagogues. In 1932, the "Forgotten Man" put his faith in the New Deal, three years later, with the relief of 1935, with the cost of food rising daily, and with business still twenty-one per cent below normal, the "Forgotten Man" is wondering who, besides the politicians, have benefited from the New Deal. I only have to point to the huge volume of mail which Huey Long receives daily and to the millions who signed the Townsend petitions to bear out my point that the "Forgotten Man" is looking for a new leader. And remember, our modern managers have the powerful weapon of the radio by which they can reach millions of listeners at once—a situation which never before existed.

BUS DIVISION POINT LOCATED AT BURLEY

BURLEY, April 13 (AP)—Burley has been made a division point for bus travel by the Union Pacific System. Drivers will change here on the Salt Lake to Portland route, with air men in Burley at all times. Beginning Thursday, April 11, stages began operating over the Stretzel cut-off, which will save four hours from the scheduled time between Burley and Salt Lake City.

One of the through buses will be routed by way of Gooding and Jerome and in addition to the regular service between Salt Lake and Boise, a smaller bus will make two trips daily between Burley and Pocatello.

The Union Pacific system, through its Utah state sales C. C. Cope, announces the following changes on account of the establishment of three daily transcontinental trips in each direction through Burley and the reduction of from 12 to 18 hours between the Pacific coast and Chicago.

Bus departures from the bus depot at the National hotel on and after April 11, 1935 will be 8 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 9:15 p. m. for Salt Lake City and points east and south over U. S. Highway 30; 1:40 a. m., 6:35 p. m. and 8:20 a. m. for Boise, Pocatello, Portland and points north; 8:20 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. for Pocatello and points east.

COMMISSIONER LISTS SALES TAX EXEMPTIONS

BOISE, April 13—A bulletin issued from the office of Ben Glendign, commissioner of finance, in opposition to the sales tax, lists the following exemptions: Wholesale sales, which mean sales made to a purchaser for resale. Sales to the United States government, date of Idaho or political subdivisions, which mean counties, villages, school districts, etc. Sales of real property, which mean lands and buildings of a permanent nature. Sales of intangibles, which mean stocks, bonds, mortgages, etc. Sales of service or labor (except hauling and service of motor vehicles) collecting a tax. Sales made by religious, educational or charitable institutions. Sales of property of religious, charitable or educational functions. Sales of farm products and live stock when sold by the grower or producer thereof.

Johnson Tells Vividly Of Idaho Thirty Years Ago

State Commissioner of Agriculture, One of First Settlers of Murtaugh, Reminisces on Early History of Tract

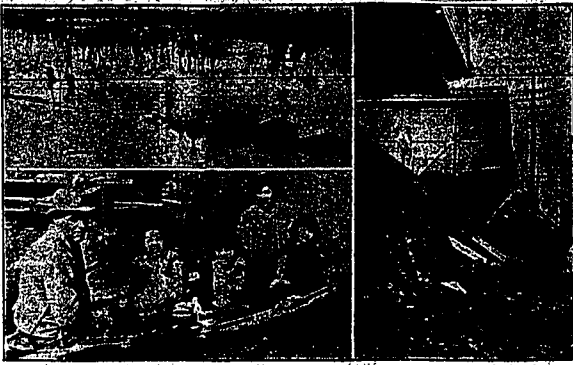

F. Lee Johnson has been a resident of Idaho for 30 years. He took an active part in the location and development of the town of Murtaugh. He was a member of the original Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce which finally took over the management of the canal system from the Land and Water company. He was one of the few road overseers in the county and was active in the securing of the early bridges over the canal as well as the bridge over the Snake between Murtaugh and Eden. Mr. Johnson was engaged in the produce business in Twin Falls for a number of years, leaving in 1916 to establish his home at Parma. In 1917 he was appointed state commissioner of agriculture which position he still holds. His experience along general agricultural lines is practical and extensive.

By F. LEE JOHNSON
What does 30 years mean to any of us? How many of us can check back and remember what we were doing 30 years ago today, unless it was the day when we got married or other great event of our lives took place.
I remember 30 years ago today, 30 days ago this morning, I woke up in a hay mow on the Frank Terrill ranch south of the Murtaugh lake, situated on Dry Creek. This old ranch has been a stage stand and roadhouse and a headquarters ranch for one of the big cattle companies of the country.
We reached there the night before on our way in from Minidoka. The night before we had camped on the north bank of the Snake river at the old ferry crossing just north of Burley. My horse and I were driven into what was to be the railroad bridge as soon as the track could be brought down. The road beds had been graded part way to the river and the steel was laid out from Minidoka about five miles the night before our camping on the north bank of the river we had camped at a little town known as Sherer, now Acapulca.

Report Was Destination
We had left Minidoka about noon the day expecting to get down to what is now known as Rupert where a few tents and a well was the beginning of this city. I had a couple of Frank Wilmendines, James H. Boyd, Ben Jahn and E. E. True. We had brought our emigrant effects from Colorado in several cars and unloaded them at Minidoka, where we stored everything except the necessities of our first camp. We also had several head of loose cattle and horses. There were several tents in the company with tents and equipment which we moved on to new locations.
We found the roads, especially on the north side of the river, very bad for hauling heavy loads. The roads were half-mud deep in many places with loose sand and our horses were not used to it. It worried them a great deal and we were glad to get on the south side of the river.

Camp of Emigrants
The night we camped on the north side of the river there were 22 wagons waiting to get across the river, loaded with all kinds of supplies some for Twin Falls tract, some for Oakley and some for the new town of Burley, which at that time consisted of a few tents, a few shacks and piles of lumber.
We put in a long, hard day between the river and the Terrill ranch, but felt like we were nearing the promised land. Water had been turned into the canal some time about the first week of March this year and we knew that we could get water for our stock in the canal. At that time there was no turn-out of outlet from the canal anywhere from the head at Milner dam to the big drop. If I remember right all the lateral openings and

Storm Takes Heavy Toll In Lives And Property

LASHED by a driving April rain, Northern and Southern California suffered thousands of dollars in property damage and more than a score of persons were killed—ten of them in a train wreck when a railroad motor car carrying a crew who had been repairing a washed out track collided with a locomotive. A farm and its buildings north of Sacramento are shown under water at upper left. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gomez and three children are shown rowing to safety when their home was submerged by the American river and (right) two days of heavy rain washed away enough of this Los Angeles garage to drop the car into an alley.—(P) Photos.

HERDER SENTENCED FOR TEXAS SLAYING

Utah since the disappearance of her father near Sulphur Springs early in 1924. Palmer told Texas officers in 1924 that she had the girl killed. She told Texas officers she had witnessed the slaying of Oliver in Utah and gave a vivid picture of their flight to Texas as police sought them in southeastern Utah and northern Arizona.
Luttrell was an ace witness against Palmer here, adding many links to the state's chain of circumstantial evidence testimony which convicted the former Oklahoman.

NO CHICKEN DINNERS FOR SEATTLE POLICEMEN

SEATTLE, April 13 (AP)—There will be no chicken dinners for Seattle police on Easter Sunday.
They had impounded 17 fowls in the Georgetown precinct jail. The chickens were stolen property, recovered Thursday. Ever since, the hens walked aimlessly between the cell bars, laying eggs casually in the station, while the roosters crowed.
"It sounds more like a barnyard than a bullpen," said Capt. George Comstock. "We find the owner or we eat in self-defense."
The owner got his chickens today.

He has proven to be one of the world's outstanding figures in development. His name and fame has gone around the world as one of the men who has done great things. Yes, we are glad we came to Idaho 30 years ago today and we are hoping to be able 30 years hence to express our joy again for the opportunity of living in Idaho.

Wounded Bodyguard Refuses to Talk

CHICAGO, April 13 (AP)—A hoodlum's gun, remnant of a gang war, was parked on the "bridge" the downtown "loop" today and Benford "Lumpy" Rosenbaum, bodyguard of Alvin Karpis, refused to talk.
"Double-parking his sedan for a quick get-away on Wells street, western rim of the loop, the hoodlum stroled across the street and accosted Rosenbaum. They chatted a moment, then the stranger pulled his revolver and fired three times. Bullets ripped through Rosenbaum's right arm, left shoulder and chin. He slumped against a steel pillar of the elevated railway. The stranger jumped into his car and sped off.
Physicians said Rosenbaum probably would recover. Detectives, believing he knew his assailant, tried to question him at the hospital but he refused to talk.

Making Sports News In Anne Adams Costume

We were too busy admiring this three-in-one sports costume designed especially by your own Anne Adams, director of our pattern department, to pay much attention to the tennis match! The camera was taking it in, too, as you see. It was—and will continue to be the news of the day, for the gentle sex! And no wonder! Look at the lines... simple, slender, demure. Think of the clever "trickiness" of it. Button on the skirt and you could wear the costume to church! Whisk off the skirt and there you're set for the beach... a smashing game of tennis... an hour's work in the garden... or your spring housecleaning. The material to use for this stunning and practical costume? Almost anything you like that's washable. But Anne Adams specialty recommends pique, shantung, broadcloth. Sizes 12 to 20 and 30 to 40. Send 15c today for pattern X113 to Twin Falls News, and add this really necessary sports frock to your summer wardrobe.

Washington Crews Flash To Victory Over Californians California Track And Field Artists Win Over Michigan Team

Huskies Defeat Bear Eight In Thrilling Three-Mile Classic

Confusion Following Close Race Ended By Judges' Official Verdict in Favor of Northerners

OAKLAND, Cal., April 13 (AP)—Driving their gleaming shells over choppy waters in almost tireless fashion, University of Washington's varsity oarsmen rowed to a thrilling victory over California today in a three mile race so close it was first announced California had won the classic.

In the confusion following the "nose and nose" finish, the public address system announced California had won by a matter of two feet.

While thousands of followers were cheering what they thought was the first Bear victory over the Huskies on Oakland Estuary since 1929, judges returned the official verdict that Washington had won by nearly six feet.

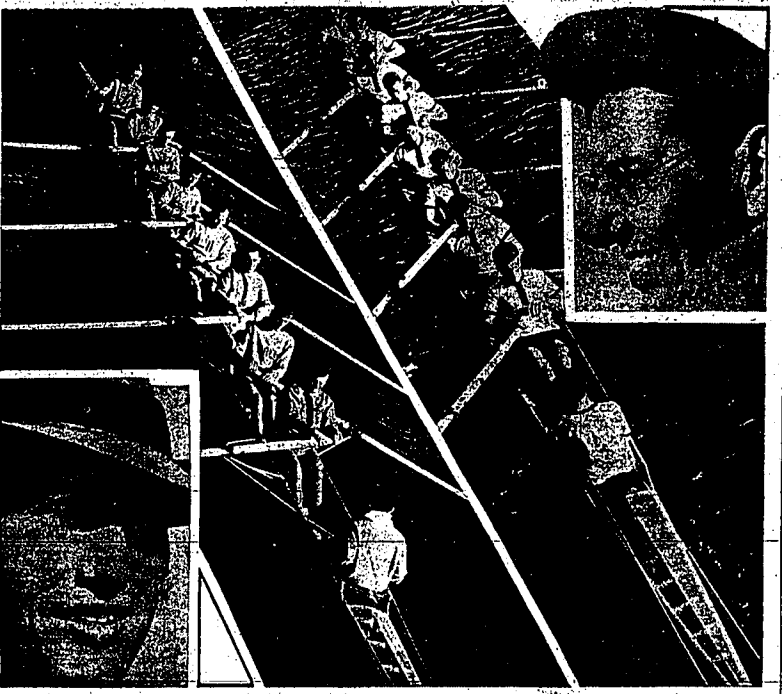

Washington's winning time was 16 minutes, 12 seconds, considerably slower than the course record of 14:45 set by the Huskies in 1931.

Class Sweep For Huskies With the varsity victory, Washington wrote a brilliant chapter into the far western regatta history, as the junior varsity and freshmen crews won their races earlier in the afternoon.

The Husky jayve shell won its three mile race in 17 minutes, 43 seconds by a margin of five and one-half lengths while the varsity crew won the 1000 yard race in the time of 11:44, 8/10.

The freshmen finished three lengths ahead of their California rivals.

Northerners Outspeed Bears On Oakland Estuary

TWO of the most consistently powerful hoists in the country matched strokes yesterday on Oakland Estuary. Washington's Huskies, tutored by Al Ulbrickson (lower left), won a close race from Ky Ebright's, varsity oarsmen of California. Ebright (upper right) has successfully coached the Bears into the last two Olympic games and is ambitious to repeat next year while Ulbrickson, with a crew of sophomores, also looks longingly toward Berlin. ## White Sox Win Over Cubs, 5-2

American Leaguers Chalk Up Third Victory Against Cross Town Rivals

CHICAGO, April 13 (AP)—The White Sox defeated their cross town rivals, the Cubs, in their first home game of the exhibition season today, 5 to 2, before 8000 shivering fans at Comiskey park.

The victory was the third for the American Leaguers in as many meetings this spring.

The Sox combed Larry French, center fielder, for four hits and as many runs in the first three innings, including a homer by Vernon Brown, second base right fielder. Washington's second baseman, Charley Root, hit a four-run homer in the fourth.

The teams meet tomorrow at Wrigley field.

Aggrets Collect Total of 32 Points to Annex A. A. U. Title

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 13 (AP)—Winning five titles and amassing a total of 32 points during the championship round of the Oklahoma A. A. U. college mat team tonight clinched the National A. A. U. wrestling title.

The Aggrets, who recently won the national collegiate championship at Bethlehem, Pa., led central Oklahoma Teachers by 22 points when the smoke the championship finals had cleared away.

Only one out of state man—Robert Myers, Bloomington, Ind., who defeated Ernest Young, Stillwater, Okla., won a championship. He carried off the 125 pound crown.

The only other invader to win his way into the finals—Dale Brand, Cornell college, Iowa—lost to Ralph Raper, Oklahoma A. & M. in the battle for the lightweight crown.

Future Athletic Stars Drill On Point System At Junior High School

By M. C. BALENGER

One hundred forty future athletes of the Twin Falls Junior High School are drilling on the point system at graduation time this year. As least, approximately that number of the seventh and eighth graders will prove their superior physical ability through the point system.

The system of tests which is the basis for awarding these letters is generally to the junior high school. The school has no varsity teams in the major sports and no awards are made for outstanding ability in any of these sports.

Katherine Rawls Holder of Three Swimming Titles

CHICAGO, April 13 (AP)—Katherine Rawls, 17-year-old Miami school girl, was crowned queen of the indoor waves tonight with Lenore Knight and Eleanor Holm Jarrett her ladies in waiting.

Katy won the all around championship with three titles, winning the 100-yard free style, 100-yard breast stroke and the 300-yard individual medley, an event she repeated in an exhibition tonight in the world record time of 4:04 as against her own mark of 4:124 as a final flourish.

Miss Knight, beaten by the tiny Katy in the 100-yard free style, came right back to win the 220-yard and 500-yard free style events, while the ladies in waiting won the 100-yard medley relay victory of the Swimming association of New York last night, returned tonight to crack her 17:10.9 record in the 100-yard medley relay of a second to retain the national 100-yard breast stroke title.

Wolverine Runner Suffers Compound Fracture of Leg

Allix, Favorite to Take Race at Berkeley, Turns Ankle and Falls Heavily; Bears Triumph, 76 1-2 to 54 1-2

BERKELEY, Cal., April 13 (AP)—In a meet climaxed by the injury of Nerece Allix, Michigan two mile runner, University of California defeated the Wolverines on the track and field today by the score of 76 1-2 to 54 1-2.

Allix, favorite to win the eight-lap meet, and leading at the time, suffered a compound fracture of the right leg just above the ankle.

The plucky little Michigan long distance man was two yards ahead of his teammate, Walter Beck, when the ankle caught in the stirrups of the oval. He turned his ankle and fell heavily. His leg bones protruded through the flesh as he writhed in pain on the track. Some were forced to hurdle over his fallen mate.

He was taken to the infirmary hospital while the race went on. Bob Fowler, California's undefeated runner, led the event by one yard over Stone while Roderic Howell of Michigan came in third.

Howell was the outstanding individual performer in Willis Ward, all around Negro star, jumping from track to jumping bar, won the high jump, pole hurdles and broad jump; tied for first in the high jump and took second in the pole vault to score 17 points, while 5,000 fans who sat through drizzling rain gave him a tremendous ovation.

SCOUTING western SPORTS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13 (AP)—The four leading fast ball pitchers in the Pacific Coast league this season, are Art Herrington, Los Angeles; Jim Densmore of the Seals and Clarence Flicker of Seattle.

But the league's rookie ranks can produce a young fellow who makes the grade. The name is John Rohr, who is known to the average fan although the baseball writers and other close followers remember him as a member of the squad last year.

He dropped into the Mission during the winter at Woodland, had a season coming from a CCC camp in Oregon. Manager Gabby Street was so impressed with Rohr's speed that he signed him for the season. Rohr has shown that he has caught the steaming tosses of the pros and only Yeller Johnson.

On the strength of a speed ball Rohr was carried by the Missions during 1934. The only action he saw was the wonderful game of the pros and only Yeller Johnson.

There are only two kinds of pitchers in Street's baseball line, and "the best of the best" and the "other kind." There isn't any "in between" to the man who pitched the 100 times but the same one would throw the ball away trying to put it over the plate with a bat.

Baseball Magnates See Signs Of Returning Prosperity Braddock Signs Contract To Meet Max Baer In 15-Round Bout

Widespread Interest Marks Opening Of Pennant Campaign

Close to 250,000 Fans May Witness First Clashes of Season; Club Owners Look For Big Comeback

By ALAN GOULD (Associated Press Sports Editor) NEW YORK, April 13 (AP)—That time-honored American institution and annual spring athletic tonic, major league baseball, is just around the corner.

It's all rigged up for its biggest and perhaps most entertaining show since the players wore whickers and four strikes were out. Unmistakable signs of returning prosperity have followed a series of noteworthy changes in the big league setup.

Not even dietary spring has checked manifestations of widespread national interest.

The big comeback, which club owners have been looking for since 1929 and which actually got under way amid the enthusiasm generated by the smashing success to last year's pennant campaign, appears certain to be countered by the rapid whirl of the turnstile this season.

Sensational Deals It was stimulated during the winter by a succession of sensational deals, climaxed by the shift of Babe Ruth from the New York Yankees to the Boston Braves. Night baseball.

Starting Pitchers NEW YORK, April 13 (AP)—Probable starting pitchers for the opening games of the major league baseball season Tuesday are:

NATIONAL LEAGUE At Boston: Hubbell for New York; Brandt for Boston. At Philadelphia: Mungo for Brooklyn; Davis for Philadelphia. At Cincinnati: Hoyt for Pittsburgh; Derringer for Cincinnati. At Chicago: J. Don for St. Louis; Warren for Cleveland. AMERICAN LEAGUE At New York: Fetter for Cincinnati; Gimes for New York. At Detroit: Jones for Chicago; Hoyt for Detroit. At Cleveland: Miller for Cleveland; Newsum for St. Louis. At Washington: Marcus for Philadelphia; Whitehill for Washington.

to be tried by the National league for the first time this year, and the return to old-time "pitching" tactics on the field have contributed to the feeling that things are on the upswing. It's all due to the changes in pitching when the tumbling and shuffling heralds the advent of the championship conflicts next Tuesday on eight major league grounds.

If the carefully planned proceedings are not handed another jolt by the capricious weather, close to 250,000 fans may witness the ceremonial send-offs for the American league's 58th season and the National league's 80th campaign.

President Roosevelt, a dyed-in-the-wool fan, today proclaimed his interest in throwing out the first ball for operators between the Washington Senators and Philadelphia Athletics at the nation's capital. Upcoming are the annual send-offs from executives of the two big leagues. The president expressed his hope of attending additional games during the regular season as well as witnessing the world series next October.

BATTER UP!

Now is the time for all road baseball fans to watch the deluge of their favorite clubs and players in the big league show. Tuesday afternoon, weather permitting, annual major league warfare gets under way, with the world-champion Cardinals determined to repeat. The big feat above above with his No. 12 shoe pined in the air, of course, is Dixie Dean, "the greatest pitcher on earth."

ON THE SIDELINES by Edward J. Nell Forecasting A Subway Series

My personal reasons for picking the Giants to win the National league pennant, and the Yankees to win the American league flag, thus returning the world series to the subway circuit for the first time in 10 years, are as follows: 1. I bet Bill Terry a hat the Giants wouldn't win, which makes them a cinch to do so, and me a certainty to lose the best kelly that $5 can buy. 2. The Cardinals are probably the best looking all-around ball club ever gathered together in baseball, which means more power, pitching and outfielding. The Cardinals have the best bat for 154 games they should have more of the same. The Pirates will be tougher than the Cubs. 3. The Detroit Tigers, improved by a year of fiery experience, the heat of tragedy, have only to whip the same clubs that they trounced going away last summer, but for reasons unknown to me, are to be developed later, they won't. Always Bet Against "Cliches" This bettings book is for you, my theme, namely, that as soon as you get a cinch in any sport, are convinced that a team or a person is going to lose, that's the time to go right out, mortgage the house, set the silver, rock the children's clothes away, and bet they will lose. They'll fool you sometimes, but they only make it more interesting. Do you know that of all the experts in the country, a high water mark of TWO successfully named the National and American league winners one year before the season started in the Associated Press annual poll? So if two is a high average, then I feel at liberty to disagree with the majority choices. The Cards and Cleveland Indians, this year. So I give you the Giants and the Yanks. That Tiger Luck Just Can't Hold Mickey Cochrane is a grand manager, but he's not a player. He's a smart, sturdy ball club, but the Tigers don't figure to escape injuries to vital men, as they did last season, and they do have a definite outfield weakness in right, and in center. The Indians are the same as last year, which wasn't good enough. The Red Sox aren't ready yet, with the right side of the infield questionable, and the Athletics need

Austrian Captures National Ski Title On Mount Ramier

Schroll Averages Mile-a-Minute Speed in Breath-Taking Swoop to Take National Championship

By FRANK G. GORMAN (Associated Press Sports Writer) PARADISE VALLEY, Rainer National Park, Wash., April 13.—On only a pair of slender skis, Hannes Schroll of Austria rivaled the speed of motor cars today when he averaged a mile a minute in a breath-taking swoop down the Mount Ramier course to win the United States national downhill championship.

Holding his arms high and waving his ski poles, the Austrian yodler averaged a mile a minute in the swooping two and three-tenths mile course in two minutes, 35 2/3 seconds.

Outside of the Canadian entries, Schroll was the only foreigner competing in the national and international Olympic Games. In 1934, he and his partner, Hans Schuster, were the only men who had left ahead of his one minute intervals in the dense fog at Sugar Loaf, 6500 feet above sea level, to beat the field of 49 by a big margin.

Durance Second Richard Durance, the famous Dartmouth ski rider, finished second to become American best in a sure member of the United States Olympic team, but his time of three minutes, 2 1/2 seconds, was a minute slower than the Austrian, who has captured 77 championships in Europe. Durance fell over while negotiating the treacherous course while Schroll "rode her out."

Only American entries were eligible to compete for position on the U. S. Olympic team, and they will be selected on the basis of their performances in the downhill race today, the slalom competition tomorrow and their past records. They will be announced at a later date by the Olympic ski committee in New York.

Women's Champion Ellis-Avr Smith of Tacoma, Washington, became the winner of the first women's national downhill championship when she triumphed easily over a field of 14 this morning.

Which drops 1,000 feet, in the exceptionally fast time of 1 minute, 57 1/2 seconds. The fastest time on the precarious slopes while most of her competitors consorted many times in their races against time.

New Jersey Veteran Prepares To Battle Champion For Title

Baer Hunter NEW YORK, April 13 (AP)—James J. Braddock, 28-year-old New Jersey veteran, who little more than a year ago was not regarded as a suitable opponent for Germany's Walter Neusel, signed a contract today with Madison Square Garden to meet Champion Max Baer in a 15-round heavyweight boxing title bout in June. The date for the fight will be announced next week.

Braddock, whose recent victories over John Henry Lewis and Art Laaky made him an outstanding contender for the crown, signed for 15 per cent of the net receipts after deductions for federal and state taxes. Baer, who is under contract to the Garden for one title defense, will receive the champion's customary 37 1/2 per cent, the Garden said.

No Alternative The Garden's selection of Braddock, made after futile attempts to induce Max Schmeling to come over from Germany to fight him, virtually leaves Baer with no alternative but to approve the Jersey veteran.

It is the champion's prerogative to reject a challenger. Should Baer do this, the meeting of the New York state athletic commission next Tuesday, then the title would face suspension in this state until such time as he agreed to meet Braddock. The commission already has designated Braddock the leading contender.

UNEXPECTEDLY designated as the No. 1 contender for Max Baer's heavyweight title by the New York commission, James J. Braddock said he'd go back to working on the docks as his training strategy in case he really got the Baer-scholarship designed a victory at Madison Square Garden yesterday to meet the champion in a 15-round bout. Braddock attributed much of his spectacular comeback to his work on Jersey docks, where, his right hand broken, he learned he could do things with his left.

LOS ANGELES, April 13 (AP)—Stanford's track and field team, although apparently lacking the strength of 1934 when it won the national collegiate championship, ran away with its dual meet with the University of California at Los Angeles today, winning by 82 to 46.

Lou Gehrig Leads Drive on Dodgers

New York Yankees Hammer Offerings of Four Brooklyn Hurriers

BROOKLYN, April 13 (AP)—The New York Yankees made effective use of their 11 bats today to defeat the Brooklyn Dodgers 16 to 4 in 8000 fans, braving adverse weather, turned out to welcome both teams home from their southern training tour.

With Lou Gehrig driving in the initial run in the first frame with a single and then connecting with a homer in the third, the Yanks found little difficulty in solving the offerings of Watson Clark, Van Mungo, Johnny Babcock and Bob Logan.

LAMB POOL MOVING TO EASTER MARKET

A mixed carload of lambs, including a number of the December crop, will be placed on the Easter market in a pool awarded to the Buhl and Twin Falls tomorrow. Thomas Parks of the Twin Falls County Cooperative Livestock Marketing association announced here last evening. Lambs are to be loaded at Buhl up to 10 a. m. and at Twin Falls at 1 p. m. Monday.

INDIANA MAN PUNISHES SHOES FOR LIQUOR

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 13 (AP)—Accused of paying his son's shoes to obtain money to buy liquor, Thomas Shouley of Evansville today was under sentence to serve six months on the state penal farm and pay a fine of $500.

WE WOULDN'T DARE TO SAY THE GOOD THINGS ABOUT ROLLATOR REFRIGERATION THAT NORGE OWNERS SAY!

But owners do say them and... WE CLAIM ONLY THAT... NORGE IS A SOUND INVESTMENT IN HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY... SAVINGS IN FOOD AND REFRIGERATION COSTS... THAT THE TOTAL OF THESE SAVINGS AMOUNT TO AS MUCH AS $11 A MONTH.

NORGE OWNERS CLAIM THAT...

"...50% more pleasure and happiness in our home since we have made the purchase" "The savings are absolutely perfect" "...savings of $17.00 a month."

THERE'S only one way you can understand the enthusiasm Norge owners have for Rollator Refrigeration. That is to own a Norge yourself.

And here's the reason. The best part of the Norge is the part you never see. It's the famous Rollator cold-making mechanism. With but three slowly moving parts, the Rollator has power to make more cold than you'll ever need, uses very little current, is almost everlasting, actually improves with use.

THE ROLLATOR... Smooth, easy, rolling power instead of hurried back-and-forth action. Reclaim more cold for the copper rent used.

Only Norge has the Rollator. Learn how important that statement is before you buy a refrigerator. See the Norge. NORGE CORPORATION Division of Hoover Corp., Detroit, Michigan.
