Blizzard Evades Only Parts of Dusty Plains Country; Colorado and Wyoming Share in Moisture Relief

(By The Associated Press) DENVER, April 24 — A spring blizzard traveled a crooked path through the west today, evading only parts of the dust-bowl in the plains country where prayers for moisture went unanswered.

The storm rode the crest of the continental divide from Montana to New Mexico, spreading east and west for a hundred miles into dry farm and stock ranges.

Federal crop statisticians in Colorado and Wyoming agreed the snow, from a few inches to several in depth, was "the most favorable thing that has happened for months."

Blizzards with a downpour of rain in western Nebraska laid yesterday, the storm spread rapidly southward and westward to a section of blanket of new white snow fringing the dust lands from Lamar, Colorado, to the south and from La Junta, Colorado, to the north.

A drop of moisture was reported in any of the southeastern Colorado counties where drought conditions were reported to have reached a critical stage.

Bleeding with a downpour of rain in western Nebraska laid yesterday, the storm spread rapidly southward and westward to a section of blanket of new white snow fringing the dust lands from Lamar, Colorado, to the south and from La Junta, Colorado, to the north.

Almost enough rain and snow fell at Denver within 24 hours to change the city's moisture deficiency, 1.18 inches, to a surplus of .04 inches.

Mountain highways along the continental divide were now closed, and many sections were at a standstill.

Six Million Dollar Bankruptcy Closes Chicago Grain Pit

Rules In Bankruptcy Re-opening Arranged After One-Day Suspension

FEDERAL JUDGE WILLIAM H. HOLLY declines to modify his injunction restraining the Board of Trade from suspending the bankrupt Rosebaum Grain corporation's trading privileges.

CHICAGO, April 24 (AP) — The Board of Trade was closed today while officials sought to adjust problems raised by the $6,000,000 bankruptcy petition of the Rosebaum Grain corporation in time for reopening the market tomorrow.

Activity also ceased in the Kansas City, St. Louis and Toledo markets but quotations at Minneapolis and Winnipeg suffered only slight nervousness because of the Chicago situation. The Chicago grain market will be open at the usual time tomorrow, board officials announced, and it was expected the other affected markets would follow suit.

Stands by Injunction Federal Judge William H. Holly, who received a petition for reorganization under the amended federal bankruptcy law from the Rosebaum concern Tuesday, met counsel for the board and the corporation in his chambers today. The judge declined to modify his injunction restraining the board from suspending the trading privileges of the manhood corporation, but it was understood the corporation agreed to undertake no further trading under its own name until the reorganization had been effected.

The board announced that the Rosebaum accounts with the board of trade clearing house would be closed out and liquidated. The disposition of these accounts was being debated tonight. Two courses were open—they could be sold in the open pits or taken over by commission houses to avert pressure of liquidation on the market. The size of the open interest was not disclosed, but it was estimated to be in excess of $100 million.

Board directors apparently closed the pits as an emergency measure to prevent grain interests ranging from farmer to broker after a three days downturn in wheat late Tuesday.

Announcement of the suspension of trading was made just before the time for the opening gong.

Detroit Gives Ovation to Priest Opening War on False Promisers

DETROIT, April 24 (AP) — Under a banner of "United We Stand, Divided We Fall" the Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin led his national union for social justice into Detroit to active participation in American politics tonight.

The priest, promised a crowd which precisely filled Olympia stadium, senting 17,000 persons, "to drive out of public life the men who have promised us redress" and failed.

Father Coughlin read from a prepared manuscript, but announced that because of the lateness of the hour, he would not be able to finish; but would deliver it at a later time.

The meeting was the first of a series of state convocations. Father Coughlin has proposed to call a Congress on Platforms.

A grand ovation was given the priest and the members of congress who spoke, both mingled with the cheers when Louis Ward, an associate of Father Coughlin, opened the meeting and referred to "the time when Father Coughlin was under attack by a certain 'kept general, Hugh S. Johnson."

Among the speakers were Senators Elmer Thomas, of Oklahoma, and Gerald P. Nye, of North Dakota, who came by plane to speak at the meeting. Representative William (Continued on page 8, Col. 6)

SHOSHONE COUNTY TO PAY STRIKERS' 'NECESSARY BILLS'

Commissioners Make Offer in Response to Demand of Relief Recipients for Additional $2,500

(By The Associated Press) WALLACE, Idaho, April 24 — Shoshone county commissioners promised striking unemployed here today they would take care of any "necessary bills" they were unable to meet as a result of reduced IERA allotments in this county this month.

The offer came at the end of a conference among striking relief workers—the commissioners and relief officials during which the workers demanded an additional $2,500 be allotted to the county for relief this month.

The workers' attack Monday in protest against what they described as the "starvation allotment" available to them this month.

Appeal to Taxpayers During the meeting the commissioners signed an appeal directed to Shoshone county citizens urging them to "pay something" on $240,000 in delinquent taxes in the county. The commissioners informed the citizens that relief funds are "critically low, creating a serious condition at this time to care for the needy and distressed."

The strikers will meet tonight to determine whether they will continue the "strike."

Quiet Prevalts In Ranks Of Strikers

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 24 (AP) Quiet prevailed among 2,000 striking relief camp workers today as they scattered throughout the city but their spokesmen said trade unions had been invited to consider a general strike in protest against the handling of the riot act by demonstrators yesterday.

Eighteen men arrested during the rioting appeared in police court and were remanded for trial. Special guards were stationed in police headquarters to prevent the possibility of riot by demonstrators.

F. D. R. DESIGNATES AGENCIES TO SPEND WORK RELIEF FUND

President Creates Three New Divisions to Handle Part of Federal Government's $4,000,000,000 Program

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 24 — Opening the channels through which will flow the $4,000,000,000 work relief program, President Roosevelt today designated 43 existing governmental agencies and created three new divisions to handle the task.

The move in itself served to generate work that will mean the employment here of about 10,000,000 and white collar workers. The chief executive reserved until tomorrow, however, his appointment of the highly important advisory board, which he himself will head. This agency will decide how much money will be spent for the various projects proposed.

The name of Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator, was mentioned in high quarters tonight as likely to have an important place on the money allotting board.

The three new agencies created by Mr. Roosevelt will handle rapid crossing elimination, rural electrification and rural rehabilitation.

Silver Producers Count $1,486,250 In Paper Profits

NEW YORK, April 24 (AP) — American silver producers gained $1,486,250 tonight in paper profits with the increase in the treasury price to 77.57 cents an ounce. Early Wall street saw a new mark at which they expected world prices to shoot.

The producer's calculation was based on the 1935-36 difference between the world price today of 77.57 cents for foreign bar silver in New York and the new treasury price of 77.57 cents, plus from the old quotation of 64.64 cents, the best of the 1934 domestic production of about 25,000,000 ounces.

The second advance this month did not surmount silver interests in New York since the increase by the treasury has been preceded by the past two days and some quarters had believed the treasury would advance its price to 85 cents an ounce on the present jump for newly mined domestic metal.

Executive Order Sets Offer At 77.57 Cents

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 24 — Responding to leaping world silver prices, President Roosevelt tonight boosted the government's offer for newly mined domestic metal to 77.57 cents an ounce.

The proclamation, effective on the silver produced from United States deposits today and hereafter, added more than six cents an ounce to the domestic miner's income over what the treasury has been paying and world markets bidding.

The announcement, made by Secretary Morgenthau, was received jubilantly by senators from silver states who have forecast that $1 silver soon would be reached and eventually the coinage value of $1.29 an ounce.

Rising Quotations Tonight's increase in the treasury silver price was the second in two weeks. From the beginning of the coinage plan in December, 1933 until April 10, the mint price was 65 cents an ounce, which meant that for every ounce turned over to the government's share—and paid the mint the coinage value of the other half.

But during that period world silver prices—gradually advanced from a 35 cent level to reach the treasury figure. To meet the rising market the treasury on April 10, lifted its standing offer to 77.11 cents an ounce.

Strike Blamed In Sweepstakes Fire

Flames Destroy Famous 'Drum of Fortune' at Dublin

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, April 24 (AP) — Fire destroyed the famous Irish swastika "drum of fortune" in a blackened mass today and destroyed the famous plaza which housed it. The derby draw will be held as usual.

Police said a humble employee named Lawlor was the possible innocent cause of the blaze, as they pursued clues to incendiary arson.

The investigators were a tenable incineration theory around Lawlor, former railway employee and was the innocent cause of the city's two months low-railway strike. There was a dispute, and he recently was given a minor post in the sweepstakes organization in hope of settling the tram strike. The action, however, served only to aggravate the situation.

The result was that a police guard was mounted on all sweepstakes buildings in Dublin and the police held to the theory the fire was the work of strikers.

'Better Babies' Chemical Produced From Soy Beans

NEW YORK, April 24 (AP) — The full story of the "better babies" hormone, proestrin, which you can get from soy beans if necessary, was given by the American Chemical Society tonight.

It was given out when a 30-year-old chemist, Dr. Willard M. Allen, told me that his other man, when for his share in the achievement $1000 in cash and a medal, the first in the country, was given to him by the American Chemical Society.

Proestrin is a reproduction hormone, necessary to expectant mothers. It is a chemical normally produced by the human body. It can also be obtained from animals, and when a mother lacks it, the animal substitute is effective.

Dr. Allen and Dr. O. Winterstein, of Columbia, under the aegis of this better babies hormone in pure crystalline form from female pigs. Stimulating with this test, Fred B. Burtman and David and Dr. K. H. Stieglitz of Brauau got the pure substance in other ways, but the best was by Dr. Allen.

He extracted the wax from the brains. When it was reextracted, purified, and crystallized, it was found to be identical hormone that the human body manufactures for its mothers.

This puts soy beans on a scientific pedestal. They used to be just food.

F. D. R. Told In Confidence That Sentiment Shifts

WASHINGTON, April 24 (AP)—Confidential political reports now before the Democratic officials were described in an informed quarter today as indicating a shift in sentiment against the Roosevelt administration in some sections.

Because of the unbroken tenor of favorable reports from the usual political channels, it was said in confidential sources that officials of the Democratic national committee decided to obtain confidential information by other means.

Some of this information from close and impartial observers indicates a general official shift, while the high sentiment still is strong for President Roosevelt and his program, that in some sections the sentiment was "softer."

Questioned today about the report that he planned having traveled through the country to obtain confidential reports to him of his findings on prospective barnstorming political tours within the next few months, Charles Michelson, publicity director of the Democratic national committee, today said he did not know whether any such tour was planned.

Michelson also indicated immediate intention of going on tour.

SURVEY SHOWS TAX DELINQUENCY LOWER

IERA Accountants Find $12,500,000 on Books of Idaho Counties

BOISE, April 24 (AP)—On the basis of reports from 23 counties there is approximately $12,500,000 in real property tax delinquencies on the books of the 44 counties in Idaho at the present time, Paul Davis of Boise, accountant in charge of Idaho emergency relief administration public finance investigation, estimated today.

The reduction, he said, amounts to approximately 7 per cent as compared with figures for 1933.

"It would seem that economic conditions are improving somewhat when we analyze these figures," he commented.

He noted that during the recent legislature $18,000,000 was frequently spoken of as the amount of real property tax delinquencies in the state.

"These figures apparently were too high," he observed.

Outstanding warrants of county governing units were reduced 34 per cent, Davis stated, in the 44 counties during the past year.

Cash for all government units increased 13 1/2 per cent during the year, and cutoff county funds increased 22 per cent, Davis said.

IDAHO'S POULTRY COUNT DECLINES

Federal Statistician Estimates Farm Flock Numbers and Value

BOISE, April 24 (AP)—The number of chickens on Idaho farms on January 1, 1935, was estimated at 2,170,000 and valued at $998,000, Richard C. Ross, federal agricultural statistician for Idaho, estimated in a report made public today.

"The chicken population on January 1 was the smallest since 1923 and marked a continuation of the decline in chicken numbers which began during 1931," he explained.

"Chicken sales in 1934 were greater than in any year since 1930, being estimated at 1,850,000 head. The value of sales was about 30 cents a head, or a total of $555,000. There were about 3,029,000 chickens raised in 1934."

"The number of hens and pullets on farms January 1, 1935, was about 2,021,000 head, or 93 per cent of the total chicken population. The number was somewhat smaller than the previous year when it was estimated there were 2,293,000 hens and pullets on hand."

"Egg sales amounted to 125,000,000 eggs, bringing in $1,563,000 to egg producers. It was estimated 57,000,000 eggs were consumed on Idaho farms during the year."

Is Your Car over 70 horsepower?

If it is, you must have motor oil of extra high film strength to get SAFE LUBRICATION

YOUR car today has twice the horsepower and speed of the car you drove ten years ago! The average of 22 leading cars in 1934 was 108 horsepower.

Bearing pressures and temperature have increased correspondingly—so greatly that motor parts are now made of new alloy metals of extra strength and durability to stand the load!

To protect such a motor you need an oil with enough extra oiliness and film strength to withstand the extreme pressures and temperature!

Yet motor oils generally have no more oiliness and film strength now than they had ten years ago. New refining methods have recently come into use to make oils free from carbon and sludge. But these methods have not increased oiliness and film strength—the very qualities on which depends an oil's lubricating value!

There is one exception—Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. It, too, is free from carbon and sludge troubles. But, more important, the new Germ Process—adding concentrated oiliness to highly refined oil—fits into this oil 2 to 4 times the film strength of any straight mineral oil, as tests on Timken and other machines have proved! That extra film strength gives safe lubrication under the most extreme pressures!

Germ Processed Oil protects your motor another way. Its penetrative film, the "Hidden Quirt," stays up in your motor and cuts down starting wear.

Germ Processed Oil gives longer mileage with greater motor protection, as the Indianapolis Demonstration Test proved.

5% OILY FILM—fill with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil and drive with the assurance that your oil meets your motor's need!

SARAH MAKES A CALL

James' second courtship did not progress as rapidly as the first. He had a long and unfruitful summer to it. Most of the courtship took place on horseback.

James already had a riding horse, a handsome black gelding with one white foot. He bought a beautiful little bay mare, guaranteed to be gentle, and hunted up a saddle. Almost every late afternoon, passing the hills in the early morning, Miss Julia would see him passing her house, astride Ted and leading Lady.

Leahle was always ready and waiting for him. James would dismount, lift Leahle into the saddle and off they would go. Leahle, following timidly to the saddle horn. James assuring her that there was nothing to be afraid of. Leahle, frankly eye-dropping from her basement window heard Leahle say, "I'm an awful coward. But I'm really afraid as long as you keep close to me. If you get a foot ahead I'm panicky. I don't worry. I'll stick closer than a brother. You'll get over that presently it's all a matter of keeping at it. I don't know, Ted and Leahle are so big and powerful. You only laughed yesterday when Ted reared. I would have fallen right off. Aren't you ever afraid? I don't believe you. You're giving me a terrific inferiority complex. Am I afraid? Good God. I've spent most of my life being afraid. You must know, everyone, know, I'm a poor coward."

James' voice was bitter. Leahle stamped her foot, and said sharply, "Stupid!"

"Yes, stupid. You have the gift of the gift. You are an unusual sensitive. But it isn't worthy of your intelligence to go on under estimation of yourself. I have known you a long time. You call yourself a coward, but I'm her voice broadcast, but I'm her bravest man I know."

James said thickly, "Bless you." And he rode into the saddle. They rode off down the street and Miss Julia stood a long time watching out of her cellar window.

Weeks went by. The horseback rides continued. But summer evening after summer evening Leahle sat alone with her father and mother on their side porch. This irritated Miss Julia, beyond endurance. One evening Leahle was watering her flowers Miss Julia went out and asked her, "Where's James tonight?" she asked abruptly. "Home, I suppose."

"Doing what?"

"Probably reading."

"Oh, he might like that. Why isn't he here? You can tell James for me. I think he's a nincompoop."

"Don't you know he's a night owl?"

"Or you might, she thought to water a drooping snapper, you might take it up with Father."

"Your father? What has your father got to do with it?"

"A good deal, I'm afraid. Father is determined that no upward of the house of Buchanan shall participate in the house of Harris, but when James comes that Father stands to see that James doesn't."

"Humph! said Miss Julia. "Would it make it any easier if Sarah Wilson called on you and your mother?"

"It might. I'm not sure. But I don't worry. Miss Julia, I'm not the silly sort you think I am."

"Leahle," said Miss Julia humbly, "I've always wanted to ask you forgiveness for what I did to you and James a year ago, going out my way to interfere in what was none of my business. I was an old fool. Perhaps you'll forgive me."

"Yes, I know. I hurt me... rather a bit. But do you suppose I would have let you and Mrs. Millard and Miss Sarah and the rest of you take James away from me if I hadn't been willing?"

"You didn't honestly care for him?"

"More than my life. That isn't an exaggeration. I sacrificed James to my silly, silly pride. It isn't you I have to forgive by myself. If I could live a thousand years I don't believe I'd ever be able to forgive myself."

"You've already done a lot to make up for it. Why be a different man these days. But for my part I won't feel satisfied until I see you two safely married and settled. Don't let him wait too long. Leahle, that's all."

"I'm mighty little I'm asking of you, considering the interesting busy bodies we were once. But at least just as you stand, you won't make any real difference anyway. Mark my words, James is going to marry Leahle. I'm sure of it. The sooner you make friends with her the better."

The next afternoon Miss Sarah and her emerald white linen and white silk gloves and a green sunshade, rang the Harris door bell. card case and hat. She had meant to stay at the most fifteen minutes. She stayed for over an hour. Miss Julia layd her afterwards and made her sit down on her porch.

"Well," asked Miss Julia.

"Well, I actually had a good time," Miss Sarah admitted. "Something was said about Father and Leahle began asking me questions. I hadn't had a good talk about Father for years. He seems interested. Leahle's almost forgotten. But Leahle remembers Jim perfectly. Leahle says you don't think Leahle's so dreadful?"

"I think she's what Father said. Leahle's a stick closer than a brother. You'll get over that presently it's all a matter of keeping at it. I don't know, Ted and Leahle are so big and powerful. You only laughed yesterday when Ted reared. I would have fallen right off. Aren't you ever afraid? I don't believe you. You're giving me a terrific inferiority complex. Am I afraid? Good God. I've spent most of my life being afraid. You must know, everyone, know, I'm a poor coward."

With Bases Loaded, Fay Thomas Walks Roy Hughes

CLEVELAND, April 24 (AP)—With the bases filled and the score tied in the ninth inning, Fay Thomas, St. Louis pitcher, walked Roy Hughes of Cleveland, forcing Bruce Campbell across the plate and giving the Indians a 3 to 2 victory over Rogers Hornsby's men.

Thomas led the tribe 2 for 4 hits. Lloyd Brown replaced Oral Hildebrand on the mound in the ninth inning for Cleveland and walked with the victory.

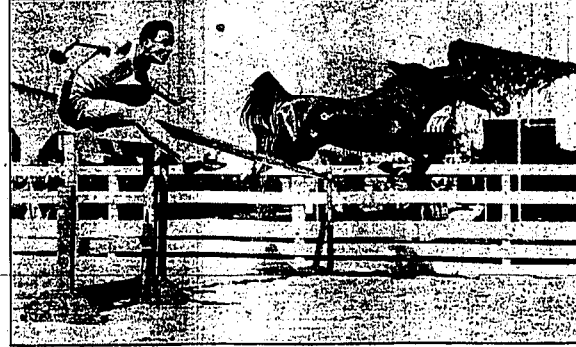

The Browns tallied in the second inning but the Tribe tied the count at one all in the seventh. St. Louis went ahead in the eighth only to have Cleveland again tie the score in their half of the inning.

Hildebrand, who had only three outs of rest since his 14-inning victory in Detroit, allowed six hits in eight innings.

Repper, Strang and Thomas led the St. Louis attack with doubles. Pepper doubled in the first inning, Strang in the eighth and Thomas led and came home on a single by Burnett. The Indians tied the count in the seventh when Truog doubled, carrying later as Hildebrand slipped through Strang's legs.

In the same manner St. Louis struck ahead in the eighth when Thomas doubled and later came home as Berger fumbled Weaver's grounder. In the tribe's half of the eighth Wright, batting for Hildebrand, got a single. Averill's single brought the eighth home.

FORGOTTEN MEN OF GOLF—SOUTHPAWS—DEMAND RIGHTS

ST. LOUIS, April 24 (AP)—The forgotten men of golf, those wild swinging, dirt digging southpaws, have organized to demand their rights.

Three hundred amateur Missouri brethren have banded together to insist that facilities and equipment give some consideration to the worries of the left hander.

From Missouri the sponsors of the organization hope to carry the scope of the "overlooked left" to the far corners of the nation.

Ben Richter, professional player in St. Louis, once regarded as the southpaw champion of the United States, is the guiding genius of the Missouri division of the National Association of Left Handed Golfers.

"Today he announced" he had written every club in the "Golf Me" state sound the rallying cry of the southpaws, that 300 golfers had forwarded their names, and that more members were being received by each mail.

"We left handers are the forgotten men of golf," Richter explained. "Golf courses, golf associations, golf equipment and everything else pertaining to the game are primarily intended for the benefit of the right handers."

"We get the leavings, if any."

Giants 3, Braves 1

NEW YORK, April 24 (AP)—Shorn of the glamor and color of opening day and the return of Babe Ruth with the position, the Giants continued their winning form today to ring up a 3 to 1 victory over the Braves in the third inning.

The husky right hander did some of his best work since 1933 as he set the Beantons down with three hits and belted home one of the runs himself as the Giants concentrated on their scoring off Flint Rhem in the third inning.

Ruth, who complained of a slight ache about the time a shower damped the field before the game, appeared only as a pinch hitter for Rhem in the eighth and struck out. It was the first time this season he had failed to start a game.

Although the Giants could punch their blows effectively was in the third. Then Mack Koenig opened with a long strike and was sacrificed to second by Gus Mancuso. The Cardinals went the route for the visitors and got credit for his third victory of the season. Dizzy Dean's long relief, "Rabbit" in the eighth, and gave three hits in the ninth, was the losing pitcher.
