OUTING OFFERED AT MINIMUM EXPENSE

Hundred Camp Fire Girls Expected to Make Mountain Trip

Willie Willis by Robert Quillen

Maybe a man is innocent till he's proved guilty, but everybody thinks a kid guilty without trying to find out.

Eight days of camp life in the vigorous Sawtooth mountains, filled with health-building mountain aspirational contacts, instruction in camp science and nature lore, and lessons in handicraft, for the approximate sum of $5.50 are promised more than 100 Camp Fire girls of Twin Falls county by the Camp Fire Guardians' association.

Camp cooks are being kept to the minimum to permit as many girls as possible from Castelford, Filer, Buhl and Twin Falls to attend the outing at the Presbyterians on conference grounds July 22-30, according to the guardians who met this week to outline camp details.

Each Camp Fire group is urged to submit a name for the camp, Rules and regulations are being formulated by Mrs. Ben Elder and Mrs. Floyd Campbell. Approved outdoor toys will be the camp attire, and the service uniforms, dark skirts and ties and white middie, will be worn on Sunday. All girls having rank will be expected to take their ceremonial gowns.

All guardians are planning to attend the camp this summer. Mrs. W. A. Van Engelen is taking the four-day training course at Seattle, prior to the summer outing. Five training courses are being conducted by national workers and secretaries throughout the United States.

Parents and friends of the girls will be privileged to enjoy a day's camp with the girls, Sunday, July 28, that has designated as visitors' day. Those making reservations in advance...

IDAHO'S DENTISTS WIND UP SESSIONS

Banquet Marks Close of Two-Day Annual Meeting Here

Idaho State Dental association wound up two-day sessions of its fifteenth annual meeting at a banquet last evening following a full day's program of lectures, discussions and table clinics.

Introduced for brief remarks at the banquet were the four dentists who came from other states to take part in the two-day program. They were Dr. Fred S. Meyers of Minneapolis, Dr. Roy F. West of Seattle, Dr. Fred Gilling of Portland, and Dr. Melbeth A. Milne of Portland. Master of ceremonies was John O. Love of Burley, retiring president of the association.

A program of entertainment at the banquet included dance numbers by Marie Dunn Heim and three of her pupils, Thelma Turner, Eileen White and Agnes Davis.

BONFIRE BURNS SHED, KILLS FIVE CHICKENS

Flamma, from a bonfire yesterday completely destroyed the straw chicken shed of B. D. Satterwhite, 336 Washington street, and five chickens were burned to death.

The fire department was called at 4:30 o'clock but the fire had gained too much headway to prevent the damage. The fire was reported to have started from a bonfire which Satterwhite was cleaning his yard.

SUMMER ROUND-UP OF PUPILS BEGINS

Parents of children who will start school for the first time next fall are being urged by members of the Parent-Teacher associations of Twin Falls grade schools to have their children examined, and the necessary corrections made before they start to school in September.

A complete survey of boys and girls entering the first grade in the autumn is being made. As soon as all names are available, parents of these children will be contacted, and asked to have the children examined by these family physicians. The parents and teachers will assist in making such examinations available if the parents feel that they are unable to make the arrangements themselves. The full cooperation of local doctors is assured.

Mrs. James Harvey is in charge of the summer round-up work for Lincoln school. Mrs. Harry Ball of Washington, and Mrs. Evan Tarr of Bickel, Mrs. R. L. Reed and Mrs. Richard Smith are also assisting in this project.

PATMAN BILL TO PAY BONUS IN NEW MONEY

Under the Patman bill the average veteran who had not borrowed on his certificate would get $1,000 immediately. The average veteran who has borrowed would get around $407. Altogether 3,500,000 veterans in round numbers hold the adjusted service certificates.

Today's rapid series of votes kept senators in their chairs throughout the session. Back of them standing in the rear of the chamber were scores of house members, including Representative Wright Patman (D-Tex.), author of the bill which finally passed.

Overhead in the front row of the galleries was Frank Belgrano, national commander of the American Legion, and a group of his colleagues, including John W. Timmerman, the legion's legislative counsel, who kept close tabs on the voting with pencil and paper.

On the final ballot a Democratic vote for the Patman bill, veto threats notwithstanding, together with 10 Republicans, stipulated, the legislation appeared ready to go to President Roosevelt as soon as signed by Vice-President Garner and Speaker, Byrns. But Senator Clark (D-Mo) served notice of a motion to reconsider—the vote which would hold up the bill. This probably will be disposed of promptly, barring unforeseen developments.

The first vote today came on the motion by Senator Clark (D-Mo) to substitute the Vinson bill for the Patman compromise under which the veterans would get only partial payment. This carried easily with Patmanites voting for the bill.

On the vote to substitute the Patman plan for the Vinson bill, both sides split. Some of the anti-bonus leaders argued that the Vinson bill had a better chance to pass over a veto than the currency measure. On the other hand, some of the administration senators who were opposed to either cash payment plan voted for Patman on the theory that it would be easier to veto and easier to beat after a veto.

Thus both Senator Harrison (D-Iowa), author of the compromise, and Senator Robinson, the Democratic leader, both voted for the Patman measure. On the final ballot, however, they recorded themselves against the bill.

Before the final vote senators turned around and listened carefully as McGahey, the war time secretary rose for one of his first public speeches in a low, but clear, voice. He said if the Vinson bill passed it would require a bond issue of about $2,200,000,000. He said this would require an annual interest charge of $68,000,000. If the bonds were permitted to run 30 years, he said, the government would pay $222,000,000 in interest and would still owe the principal.

On the other hand, McGahey said a sinking fund supplied with $31,000,000 a year for 30 years would wipe out the entire issue of non-interest-bearing notes proposed in the Patman bill.

McGahey contended that all currency now in existence is actually green back money, back of which was only the "honor and good faith of the American people."

"It is more comforting that these notes are inflation," he said. "I have been unable to find anyone to tell me where sound money ends and inflation begins."

The former treasury head contended the government is "matching credits" and the issuance of $2,000,000,000 in new currency would have no more effect than throwing a handful of sand on the seashore in the hopes of affecting the incoming tides."

Twenty-one Democrats were joined by 13 Republicans in opposition to the measure.

Including the pair, 234 senators were recorded against the bill, only 32 would be necessary to sustain a veto with the present senate, which has only 64 members.

Surprising Chicagoans Increase Lead Over Cleveland 'Champion' Cardinals Can't Lose Announces J. Herman Dean

White Sox Pound Gomez, Yank Ace, To Win By 4-3

Rip Radcliffe, Freshman Left Fielder, Leads Successful Attack In First Two Innings

CHICAGO, May 7 (AP)—The rampaging Chicago White Sox kept intact their perfect home record today when they turned back the New York Yankees 4 to 3 in the belated opening of their series. Inevitably their newly acquired lead in the American league to one and one-half games over the idle Cincinnati Indians over the White Sox's ninth successive triumph at home and their victory in 16 games.

With Rip Radcliffe, freshman left fielder, leading the attack, a pair of consecutive doubles, the surprising Chicagoans jumped on Lefty Gomez for seven of their runs and their first run in the first two innings. The defeat was the Yankee southpaw's second of the season. Tony Hila homer, Tony Hila's veteran right arm, who was touched for seven hits, kept the Sox surging with one run until Tony Lazerri hit a homer with Lefty Gomez in base in the eighth.

Cy Blanton, New Sensation, Bought At Bargain Price

Bill Benswanger, 'Admiral' of Pittsburgh's Pirates, Discusses Purchase of Tulsa's Brilliant Hurler

PITTSBURGH, May 7 (AP)—Chuckling at his desk today is the diminutive 'admiral' of the Pittsburgh Pirates, William (Bill) Benswanger, son-in-law of the late Barney Dreyfuss.

He is chuckling over one bright spot of his big-league career—the record of 100 out of 100 pitched innings, shopped as Darrel Kuyaj Blanton but better known as Cy, an effectionate term given him by his manager, Fred Hunter, and given to Greenboro, N. C., who had pitched for the Cardinals in 1931.

Blanton belonged to the Cards in 1931 when he pitched 100 out of 100 innings. He was released to Springfield, Ill., then Independence, Kan., and finally to Tulsa, Okla., where he became a free agent before he was willing to waive back salary due him.

It is interesting to note that Benswanger is looking over Blanton's brief but amazing record with the Pirates: 1931—100 out of 100 innings pitched with one hit, fanned 6. April 24—Beat Cincinnati, 4-2. April 25—Beat St. Louis and St. Louis, 3-2. B. Hila, fanned 5. May 5—Beat Brooklyn 10-3 in 10 innings.

May 6—Saved Boston game, pitching one inning, fanning 2. Total: Wins 4, fanned 21, hits pitched 10, runs allowed 0, home runs 0.

Senators 7, Browns 3
ST. LOUIS, May 7 (AP)—A six-day off day failed to shake the dogging of St. Louis Browns, and they dropped their ninth straight game today to the Washington Senators today, 7 to 3. Buddy Myer, Washington second baseman, in five times up knocked a double, two singles, and a home run.

GOODING DEFEATS FERRYMEN, 10-7

GLENN'S FERRY, May 7 (AP)—Gooding baseball team invaded Glenn's Ferry Sunday and emerged with a 10 to 7 victory after a hectic though loosely played game.

While the American league champions were getting to Merritt Park on the fourth day of their four of their runs in the first five innings and Johnny Marcano for the remainder in the remaining three innings, Tommy Bricker and Athletics down with his one. One of the latter was a fluke home run by Wally Moses in the eighth.
