TAX BILL AT POINT OF HOUSE PASSAGE; EXECUTIVE WIFFED

Republicans Agree Roll Call Vote Will Pile Up Huge Majority for $270,000,000 Revenue Measure

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The $270,000,000 tax bill was pushed to the point of passage by the house today despite warnings that President Roosevelt does not like its present form.

A formal roll call vote was given until Monday. But even the Republicans, who had filibustered it as the start and later gave up attempts to amend it, agreed that the bill, which will carry the bill to the Senate (D-Mass) had a motion pending to return the bill to committee but that too, was not done.

In brief, the measure would boost the taxes on individual incomes over $50,000; reduce the present flat 20 percent income tax with a graduated levy; subject inheritances and gifts to new levies on top of those already imposed; and raising duties on certain goods to 5 to 20 percent on excess corporation profits.

Business Attacks Bill Business renewed its attack on the revamped bill today through Edward Sullivan, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce. He said it would increase the forces of disorganization.

Writing in the chamber's "Washington Review," Sullivan promised there would be no relaxation of efforts to defeat the bill, which "demands that the hands which grip the business enterprises, regardless of size, will run so long as public finance are not brought into an ordered condition."

Whatever the other effects of the bill and however inopportune they may be, the repercussions of business of every size, through drawing away capital, where essential to business, and causing disruptions upon the death of any of the principal owners, would increase the forces of disorganization.

The president had proposed new taxes to bring a "water distribution of wealth" in many respects, but in these instances it differed.

He proposed the present flat 20 percent tax on corporation income be replaced with a levy graduated, according to the size of the

CARAVAN LICENSE LAW UNDER FIRE

Violation of Interstate Commerce Clause Alleged

DUBUIN, Aug. 3.—The constitutionality of the motor caravan law passed by the second extraordinary session of the state legislature a few days ago was questioned in a suit filed in the Third district court here late today.

The action was instituted against Emmitt Pflig, commissioner of law enforcement, by George B. Wallace, Inc., of Spokane, Wash., the Raymer Motor company of Boise and West Smith and Irwin, Inc., of Portland, Ore.

Judge Charles E. Whistard issued an order showing after the complaint was filed calling upon the commissioner, who is administrator of the act, to show cause August 5 why an injunction should not issue as asked by the plaintiffs.

The act defines motor caravanning as the operation of a motor caravan for sale and requires payment of $5 on each motor vehicle which is brought into this state for use here or is transported across the state on the highways.

Jean Ellington, 12, Comes Home After 10 Mute Years In Hospital

DUBUIN, Ga. 67.—Jean Ellington, 12-year-old girl, returned to her home to play with her brothers and sisters, make friends with the other children and find her place in the community she left at the age of two in September, she will go to school for the first time.

Jean has suffered with a paralysis throat since she was an infant. Now she is able to speak by using a tube in her throat, though her voice still is almost a whisper.

Pen Knife Operation

When she returned recently from the hospital, Jean met five younger brothers and sisters whom she never had seen. She could not recognize her parents and four other brothers and sisters.

Back in 1925, diphtheria sent Jean to the Dubuin hospital. As her mother and Dr. C. A. Hodget at bedside her col, the baby was seized by a violent paroxysm. They knew she was choking to death, thus breathing passages had closed and that her heart would stop beating soon.

There was no time to prepare for an operation. The doctor took a pen knife, made a small slit in the dysic child's throat and blew into the incision until she began to breathe again. Then a tube was inserted in the opening.

Carries On Her Studies

Jean recovered from diphtheria, but her throat remained paralyzed and she could neither breathe nor talk.

During her decade in the Philadelphia hospital, where she underwent six operations, the child took up school work and carried on her studies and brought her home.

The doctors have assured Jean that by September she can discard the tube, speak aloud and take her place in school with the other members of the sixth grade.

After spending 10 years in a hospital, Jean Ellington, 12-year-old Dubuin, Ga. girl, has regained her voice and is restored to her family. She is shown standing with her brother, as she looks today, and in the inset as she appeared at the age of two when her throat was paralyzed.

HEALTH CAMP STAFF UNDERGOES CHANGES

DUBUIN, Aug. 3.—Several changes have been made in the personnel of the McClusky health camp. Miss Ruth Moyer has taken the place of Miss Margaret Griffin. Miss Griffin has been connected with the health camp for the past three years and has returned to go to Moscow to take some advanced training in night school work. Miss Thelma Nelson has been taken from the playground service and Miss Maxine Hoffman, the new dietitian, is proving herself very capable, as the gains in weight show.

The greatest gains for the past week were made by Mildred McCarty, of Montpelier, two and one-fourth pounds, and Ernest Johnson, of Detroit, two and three-fourths pounds. No boys have been recorded for any of the children of the camp. Girls have an attendance of 48 students at this time.

The new wading pool has been completed. It is hoped by the near future to arrange matters so that bathing of the city park pool will not affect the health camp wading pool.

Last Sunday the Christian church sent a Sunday school representative to take care of the Sunday services. During the dinner hour on the same day, Mr. Gaines, Presbyterian Sunday school representative, entertaining the children with a story and then by giving them some suggestions and bird calls and songs.

The state traveling library has sent 69 volumes of stories for the children. The boys of the camp have been constructing boats and airplanes for their project work this week. The girls are doing some sewing work as projects.

For the next week the L. D. S. church will furnish the food supply for the camp. There are many empty jars that could be filled with any kind of fruit and vegetables for the children.

ITS CONSTRUCTION—ECONOMICAL; ITS DESIRABLE FEATURES—MANY

This Colonial home of two stories, with a center entrance represents the most economical of all types of construction, yet embodies a number of desirable features.

The main rooms on both floors are grouped at the rear, with large windows overlooking the garden. The spacious kitchen has a dining alcove, and the living room has an attractive fireplace. Two bedrooms, located conveniently, serve the four bedrooms, and all available space is utilized in large closets. There is also a lavatory on the first floor.

The portico here protecting the kitchen makes it possible to enter from the driveway without exposure to bad weather.

Brick is used for the first floor exterior and clapboards for the second. Box bushes should be placed on both sides of the entrance, with flowers and shrubs flanking the lower portions of the house.

Construction estimates are approximately $2000, a low figure considering size, including plumbing and heating.

There's lots of room in the FORD V-8

EVERY ONE who steps into the Ford V-8 for the first time is surprised at its roominess. There's exceptional seat room, leg room and head room in all body types—the whole car gives you a feeling of substantial size.

The Ford gives you extra body room because of the compact design of the V-8 engine—an exclusive Ford feature at a low price. This V-8 engine takes up less space in the hood and permits more of the car's length to be used for passenger comfort.

Many a car selling at a higher price does not give you as much interior room as the Ford V-8.

Rear seats are wide and restful... three people can ride comfortably in the front seat of the Fordor Sedan, Fordor Touring Sedan, Convertible Sedan and Phaeton, and in the Coupes and Roadster. The seat of the Ford V-8 Roadster is 52 inches wide.

A ride in the Ford V-8 will show that it combines unusual body room with fine-car performance, safety, beauty and riding comfort.

STATE INSTITUTION VETERANS' HAVEN

Commandant Urges Provision for Domiciliary Care

BOISE, Aug. 3 (AP)—After operating 40 years during which more than 4,000 veterans of American wars have been cared for within its walls, the Idaho state Soldiers' Home here now has only 49 occupants, two of whom took part in the Civil war.

In sharp contrast to the baptism of shellfire which made them eligible to enter the home, the veterans now are at peace on the 40-acre plot which was set aside for them in 1883 by citizens of Boise who contributed $4,791 as an initial contribution to the institution.

Nearing Sunset

Aided by small pensions from the federal government, the former warriors now have little to do but work the farm, care for the livestock and enjoy life as they will, until they, too, join those who have gone on.

Construction on the home was started in 1889 and was completed the next year with the help of two appropriations of $25,000 and $28,000 from the state legislature.

The same year marked the official opening when 10 veterans were admitted on May 10.

The greatest number of ex-soldiers to occupy the home in one year was reached in 1914 when 235 were registered.

In 1901 the institution was partially destroyed by fire. It was rebuilt shortly after with insurance money.

A more serious fire ravaged the home in 1917 and required an expenditure of $42,850 for reconstruction.

Enrollment Bulges

Until 1923 the home enjoyed the presence of veterans from a Civil Indian, Spanish-American and World wars. At that time, the passage of the economy act reduced pensions of Spanish-American war veterans to 85 a month for those who remained in institutions, took many of the occupants from the home.

The veterans preferred to live outside and draw the 75 per cent of the pensions as allowed prior to March 20, 1923.

A reduction of more than 50 per cent of the veterans in the Boise home was attributed to the economy act.

The Civil war veterans in the home now are Colonel Judson Spoford, 80, who was admitted in 1913 as a member of the 10th Vermont Infantry, and John B. Wheeler, 80, who was admitted in 1920 as a member of the 134th Ohio Infantry, company E.

Three men who saw action in the Indian war are inmates of the home. World war veterans predominate at present.

In his annual report, W. E. Watdrott, commandant of the soldiers' home, said "the Civil war and Indian war veterans are so few in number that they have practically ceased to be a factor for maintaining this home. There is a distinct need in this state for domiciliary care for Spanish-American war veterans but due to the reduction of their pensions, they remain outside.

Major Requirement

"In my opinion, the greatest need for a state home lies with the non-service connected disabled war veterans. This class of veterans represents, for the past, the majority of our membership. We find them to be the older faces from 50 to 65. Those under those ages are the more seriously disabled who cannot earn a living outside.

"Due to the number of this class of veterans in the state, the need for domiciliary care will increase very rapidly within the next five to ten years.

Source of income for the home are now divided as follows: State appropriation, 50 per cent; federal aid, 25 per cent; endowment interest, 25 per cent.

To be eligible for admission to the home, veterans must have seen action with a United States regiment, must have lived in Idaho for at least two years and must have voted at the last general election.

Domiciliary care is available to veterans at the hospital now maintained by the federal government.

A New
Alexander Store
for Twin Falls

Alexanders' take pleasure in announcing the acquirement of the store and stock of the well and favorably known Straus Clothing—at 138 Main Ave. South. We feel that the name Alexander is sufficiently known in this section without the formality of introduction. Ex-Governor Alexander established his first store in Idaho at Boise 46 years ago. For many years it has been our desire to have Twin Falls in the Alexander family, but rather than overburden this community with additional stores we patiently abided our time until the presentation of the proper opening.

Plans are already being drawn for extensive interior remodeling and any and all improvements will be done by Twin Falls contractors and labor. (Our Boise interior as well as all fixtures in our various stores in Idaho and Oregon are entirely the product of local institutions).

The stock which we purchased of Mr. Straus will be completely disposed of during the remodeling of the store and we promise the residents of Twin Falls and surrounding country a large and complete stock in every detail in accordance with the progressiveness and advancement of this beautiful city. We are proud and happy to be with you and cordially ask your kind consideration.

McLaughlin has been named to fill it, according to a statement made by Superintendent Denman Saturday morning. Mr. McLaughlin has been deputy of boys and instructor in the high school during the past four years.

Horland Blimmons, for eight years social science instructor, has resigned to accept the principalship of the Preston high school. Dan T. Williams, of Malad, will succeed Mr. Blimmons. The resignation of Kenneth Barrett, science instructor and assistant athletic coach—the past year, has been accepted to permit him to become coach of the Glenn's Ferry high school. Miss Mary Barbery, Burley, has been elected to her position in her place. She has taught in the Kellogg high school the past seven years, is a graduate of the Burley high school and the College of Idaho. Clayne Robison, English and dramatics teacher, has resigned to enter private business at Zolite and Phillip Hrehrer was given a year's leave of absence to attend the University of Idaho. Neither of the two last named vacancies have been filled to date, said Mr. Denman.

Dwarf Who Shot Girl Sentenced To 30-Year Term

OSAGE, Iowa, Aug. 3 (AP)—Marshall "Shorty" Bascombe, the dwarf who loved a pretty waitress but shot her when she ran into his arms, was sentenced today to serve 30 years in prison.

He asked for it. The dwarf, who never grew taller than many a man's belt buckle, called officers to his jail cell this morning.

"There's no use my waiting two months in jail here for the grand jury to investigate my case," he said. "I want to plead guilty and get it over with."

County Attorney Carl Conway took him to Charles City where District Judge T. A. Beardmore was sitting this afternoon.

"Shorty" pleaded guilty to assault with intent to murder. The waitress, Marie Meszert, 23, who won a beauty contest here July 4, is showing steady recovery.

Judge Beardmore thought a moment after the dwarf pleaded.

"Which would you prefer?" he asked. "Ammons, infirmary or Port Madison prison?"

"I want to go to Port Madison," the dwarf promptly replied. "I'm older than you are. I've had enough of young people."

Poverty Drives Pershing Cousin To Hang Himself

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3 (AP)—John Pershing Heiner, a cousin of General John J. Pershing, hanged himself today in a closet in his mid-city apartment.

An unopened letter from his wife, urging him to bear up under his poverty, was found on the floor under his door. It had been delivered a few hours after he took his life. "You will not do any good by cashing in," the letter said. "Struggle along until your natural life comes to its end."

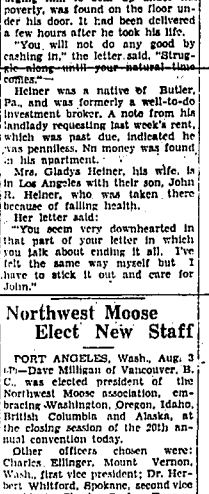

Heiner was a native of Butler, Pa., and was formerly a well-to-do investment broker. A note from his landlady requesting last week's rent, which was past due, indicated he was penniless. No money was found on his apartment.

Mrs. Gladys Heiner, his wife, is in Los Angeles with their son, John J. Heiner, who was taken there because of his health.

Her letter said: "You seem very downhearted in that part of your letter in which you talk about ending it all. I've felt the same way myself but I have to stick it out and care for John."

READY MADE WIFE

BY CORALIE STANTON
SYNOPSIS: Laurie is to marry her employer, Mark Albany. Because Albany has threatened otherwise to ruin the career of Rex Moore, whom Laurie loves, she has married Wanda Steele to marry him. Now Laurie learns that her young employer, Gladys, a divorcee, is running with Jimmy Dallas, and that old Lord Dagenbury, Jimmy's father, is about to make a flun out of it.

Chapter 41
DECEIT
When she got back to her little flat, Laurie's anxious mind was suddenly illumined by memory, which put the finishing touch to her misery. That odious anonymous letter had said that Gladys was going about in a "small way" and going to his rooms at night. That would fit young Dallas.

Gladys was still away. The trouble had gone further afield than Gladys. Next week the young man was to rest, but the following week they were booked up again, and there was no chance of seeing Gladys. And then came the climax. Unable to put her mind to anything, wanting nothing to eat, Laurie went about the little flat like a caged animal.

Laurie read an address with staring eyes. J. Dallas, Esq. 2 Belmont Place, S. W. I. Gladys handwriting! Three years were now a certainty. It was true. Great tears fell down her cheeks. Glad was meeting young Dallas secretly, writing to him. This she had probably been doing for some time. She had hidden it away in her handkerchief, and she had not told him about it, or thought she had not.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID TO ACCIDENT VICTIM

Laurie acted on one of her impulses. They had always been inextricably at the moment, but they had shaped her life, and no power on earth could have prevented them. She knew that subconsciously.

Sensational Bomber Reaches Top Form Ahead Of Schedule

Wild-Swinging Kingfish in Finest Condition Of Career; Ticket Sales Indicate Gross Gate of Around $200,000

By WILLIAM WEBER (Associated Press Sports Writer) CHICAGO, Aug. 3 (AP)—Stollie Joe Louis came to the end of a three weeks training stage tonight, ready to all appearances, to continue his devastating march through the heavyweight division at the expense of Chicago's King Levinsky next Wednesday night at Comiskey park.

After watching the Brown lumber belt five sparring partners stand and out, observers figured that Louis amounted to a 3 to 1 favorite to win his 24th consecutive professional battle. With his spectacular triumph over the lumberer only three weeks behind him when he started training, the Detroit Negro had no trouble getting in condition.

Work halted If anything, he reached top form a little ahead of the schedule. In the 93 pounds today, three and one half pounds under the weight he hunted against Garner. For that reason, his training maneuvers, which were to have continued through Monday, were halted today.

The noisy wild-swinging Kingfish, face to face with an opponent, is making the mental fight about that two round knockout administered by Max Baer last December in the Chicago stadium, will have a couple of days of work to be done. He too, has reached the finest condition of his eventful career.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 3 (AP)—The smallest boy became the biggest man today when 18-year-old Frankie Braddock, Brooklyn high school boy, stepped up before cheering thousands and was crowned king of the public links by the plaudits of a great chase.

SO THEY NEVER COME BACK, EH? Pitchers Also Rap Old Theory Blasted By Braddock and Moody

The year 1935 will go down in sporting annals as "the year of the big comeback" and baseball is contributing its bit in the persons of these big pitchers, all of whom are playing important roles as they regain former empires on the pitching mounds.

By JOHN STAIR (Associated Press Sports Writer) Whatever has become of that old notion of pessimism? "They never come back."

Maybe it, too, is washed up and won't ever come back to any rate. If the dramatic redemptions of sporting stories by James Jay Braddock in the ring and Helen Wills Moody on the tennis court this spring had not already discredited that old fable of frustration, the fiery-warming returns to form of the great-league pitchers would surely provide grounds now for re-asserting it down of the sports department.

In this year of sporting renaissance baseball may offer no individual case to match the drama and human interest of the Braddock or Moody story, but neither can it show such a parade of comebacks as are making their way into

B FRANK MARSHALL (Associated Press Financial Writer) NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Utilities led the list today as the heavy industry rallied to a new 1935 high in the heaviest trading for a Saturday since May 12 of last year.

Analysts said that although the heavy loss of trade afforded background for the rise, the continued pressure of surplus money in search of profitable work was likewise a factor.

JAMBOREE SCOUTS LOOK FOR LEADER

Area Executives to Choose Successor to F. H. Thomas

Leader of Snake River area's delegation of more than 30 Boy Scouts who will attend the national jamboree at Washington this month is to be named by members of the area executive board and jamboree committee at a meeting at the Ferrin hotel in Twin Falls late this evening. It was announced at area headquarters here last evening.

A new selection of leader was made necessary, by resignation of Frank H. Thomas, Gooding superintendent of schools who is to retire from that position September 1 to go into business at Idaho Falls.

Jamboree Camp
Scouts composing the area's contingents will go into camp for three days—August 7-9—under conditions similar to those at the national jamboree. For instruction in jamboree activities, including pageant, exhibit, theatre, program and camp fire. This camp will be in or near Twin Falls. In connection with the camp, a session of Twin Falls court of honor is to be held the evening of Wednesday, August 7, at which jamboree campers as well as a number of Twin Falls scouts will receive merit badges and other awards for which they have qualified.

Northwestern scouts at the national jamboree are to present a Lewis and Clark pageant, and their exhibit is to typify scouting on the Old Oregon Trail.

Boy On Bicycle Struck By Auto

Billy Hughes, 12, rendered unconscious when struck by a car driven by Charles Knefer at the intersection of Sixth avenue and Third street early at noon yesterday, was still under the observation of a physician last evening. He was riding a bicycle when the accident occurred.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hughes, 220 Seventh avenue east.

Willie Willis

"Pug's little brother ain't big enough to tag along with us. He ain't ten yet. I'll next week an' I'm goin' on eleven."

FINAL RITES SET FOR VICTIM OF STABBING

Funeral services for William Hubbell, 22 son of Mrs. Violet Hubbell, 277 Quincy street, who died yesterday morning at the Twin Falls county general hospital from knife wounds received at Arleson City shortly after midnight Friday, when he was allegedly attacked by Ben Gambell, Idaho Falls, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the White mortuary chapel.

Rev. C. H. Hiltgardner, pastor of the Church of the District, will conduct the services. Interment will be at the Twin Falls cemetery.

Mr. Hubbell was born January 9, 1913, at Ralph, South Dakota. He is survived by his mother and the following brothers and sisters: Harry C. Hubbell, Hattie E. Hubbell, Mrs. Oona Hubbell, Norma, Mildred, Clarence and Vernon Hubbell, all of Twin Falls, and Mrs. Gladys Rowe, California.

Extent of his injuries cannot be determined definitely until today. Knefer took the boy to the office of a local physician for treatment, and then to the Hughes home.

SHORT CROPS LAID TO MILD WINTERS

County Agent Comments on Observations of Conditions

A succession of mild winters is believed to have permitted increase in insect pests in sufficient numbers to injure crops in Twin Falls county's crop production, with the exception notably this season of wheat and beans grown from disease resistant seed. Harvey S. Hale, county agent, said last evening in comment on crop conditions as he had observed them on a trip through the county with J. P. Marshall, last Friday.

Exceptionally heavy yields of wheat, barley and oats are indicated, he said, increased acreage being a factor in increased production of the latter two crops. About one-third of the county's wheat crop has been cut. Beets grown from disease resistant seed are flourishing, while some of the fields in which the ordinary commercial type of seed was planted are total failures, as a result of the white fly's ravages, the county agent said.

Beans Below Average
The county's bean crop is below average. Blight has cut the contract seed bean crop about 50 per cent and reduced the prospective yield of Great Northern by 10 to 15 per cent, the county agent estimated. Great Northern acreage has increased this year over last, but on account of damage the yield probably will be less than last year, he said. There is more blight and mosaic than usual in Pinto beans and the indicated yield of approximately 5000 acres planted to this crop in the county is low.

DINGEL AND SMITH TO BUILD WAREHOUSE

M. A. Dingel and R. E. Smith, proprietors of Dingel and Smith Seed company, announced last evening the building of a new warehouse, to cost $7,000, excavation work for the new structure already being underway. Request for building permit was filed yesterday, and construction is expected to be completed within 45 days, the proprietors announced.

The concrete and iron structure will be 50 by 117 feet, and will serve as the company's seed cleaning plant. The building will be erected on the track line off of 6th and 7th streets. Headquarters of the company on Shoshone street will be maintained, and the two buildings will adjoin on a 15-foot alley.

HOME CONVENIENCES TOPIC FOR FARM DAY

Dealing with home conveniences, a lecture and demonstration by Miss Magdalena Clements, district home demonstration agent, is to be a feature of the program for New Era Farm Home day in Twin Falls next Wednesday, August 7, members of the committee on arrangements for the event announced last evening.

Funerals
HELMER - Funeral services for Charles E. Helmer will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the White mortuary chapel, with Twin Falls Masonic lodge No. 45, A. F. and A. M. in charge. Interment will be in Twin Falls cemetery. Masons are requested to meet at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Masonic temple to attend the services in a body.

MURTAUGH MAN HURT IN AUTOMOBILE CRASH

MURTAUGH, Aug. 3 - Arthur Menser sustained injuries to his shoulder and ribs Friday afternoon when the car in which he was riding, driven by his son, Harold, collided with a machine operated by "Bud" Murphy, of Hazelton, near Arleson. Neither party blamed the other for the accident. It was reported, as another car had just passed and the dust from the dirt road was so thick that they were unable to see each other. Both automobiles were badly smashed and were taken to Twin Falls by a wrecking outfit. No occupant of the Murphy car was injured.
