

COLORADOANS FLEE FROM HOMES WHEN TWO DAMS BREAK

Warning Sends Residents of Two Towns Racing Into Hills; Highways and Railroad Tracks Washed Out

(By The Associated Press) HOLLY, Colo., Aug. 28.—Roaring flood waters burst through two small dams early today, sent the 1000 residents of Holly fleeing into the hills, drove a dozen residents of Kit Carson, Colorado, from their homes and inundated Syracuse, Kansas, across the Colorado line.

All reports indicated no loss of life or substantial damage to property in Colorado. Although for several hours Holly was under one to four feet of water, main highways from Kansas to Colorado and the Santa Fe and Union Pacific railroad tracks were washed out near Holly, and Kit Carson and Wild Horse, Colorado.

Residents Warned Reports that Horst Creek dam, a FERA project nine miles north of Holly, had broken were telephoned to Holly about 10:30 a. m. A flood burst a short time before sent the waters of the creek, which run through here, on a rampage.

Narrowed on Hill About 250 of them ran to a high hill in a short time they were surrounded by water, said Frank Davis, telegrapher.

I was awakened by water in my home. Holly, I said, my wife and children and fled. Davis made his way to Granada, a short distance away, and returned to his home and his wife and children before he could return to his home and his wife and children.

Duce Asserts England Has Nothing To Fear; Ready For Sanctions

Mussolini Prepares to Denounce African Nation

(By The Associated Press) WITH THE ITALIAN ARMY, BOLZANO, Italy, Aug. 28.—Sanctions will lead to the "most serious complications" but at the same time England "has nothing to fear from Italy," Premier Mussolini declared tonight at an extraordinary session of the cabinet.

Italy has taken necessary steps to face sanctions, the communique said. A section of the statement dealt with the Italian government's attitude toward the economic sanctions, entering into Italy's efforts to make herself as independent as possible under foreign countries for raw materials.

Preparations Made These provisions include: Forfeiture conversion of foreign credit held by Italian banks; limitation of dividends of companies to six per cent; a tax on per cent tax upon dividends; and a transformation of all automobiles and trucks into charcoal gas-burning vehicles so as to save gasoline.

Sanctions may lead to the most serious complications, but the fascist government has already taken the necessary measures to face them.

Shallow Grave Gives Up Body of John Hamilton, Last Of Dillinger Gang

Federal Men Announce Gangster's Death Following Gruesome Discovery At Illinois Gravel Pit

OSWEGO, Ill. (By The Associated Press) The grisly career of John Hamilton, machine gunner and one of the most vicious of the Dillinger gang in life, ended today with the finding of his body in a shallow grave bordering a gravel pit near here.

Three federal agents found the outlaw's moldering remains, concluding a hunt which had been intensified after Hamilton, with John Dillinger and other members of the mob, shot their way out of a government trap at Little Bohemia resort in Wisconsin, April 23, 1934, killing two men, one a federal agent.

To Washington the agents sent their report and Thore J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the federal bureau of investigation, made the first announcement, to set at rest forever many conflicting rumors as to the fate of the accused slayer of three officers.

No bullet wounds were apparent in a cursory examination of the body. The federal agents said they identified the corpse as Hamilton's from the teeth.

HOPKINS VETOES IDAHO PROJECTS

WPA Chief Would Have Used New York Laborers in Far West

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP)—Two major reclamation projects of Idaho yesterday failed to meet the requirements of the works relief program as set forth by Harry L. Hopkins, works progress administrator.

The projects are the Fort Hall irrigation development estimated to cost $350,000 and the Boise valley survey estimated at $400,000. The Fort Hall project, on the Fort Hall Indian reservation, fell by the wayside when Hopkins turned down the entire program of the Indian bureau for projects totaling $35,000,000.

Representative D. Worth Clark, Postoffice Democrat, said today Hopkins would have agreed to at least a part of the program if he had been permitted to take 3000 laborers from New York and other eastern cities. Hopkins refused to sanction the use of any Indian labor on the proposed program, Clark said.

Although Hopkins refused to consider the Boise valley survey, the representative did believe it would be possible to obtain funds from the reclamation bureau, the state and the state works progress administration for the work.

HOPKINS REVIVES CWA RELIEF PLAN

September Dole Reduced to $75,000,000; Job Making Speeded

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP)—Funds for the September dole were slashed to $75,000,000 as Harry L. Hopkins prepared yesterday to give work relief jobs—mostly of the old CWA type—to hundreds of thousands during the coming months. The dole-cutting recommendation by the work relief allotment committee coincided with signs that President Roosevelt's demand for speed had endangered CWA non-federal aid housing projects, benefits many other heavy construction projects. Earlier, Secretary Ickes, who apparently was not consulted in the president's decision to fix a series of deadlines for speeding up allotment of the $4,000,000,000 fund, made no attempt to minimize difficulties in his conduct of the program. The allotment committee will hold its final meeting on September 17 only a day after Ickes' own deadline for the preliminary step of submitting PWA applications.

Although the committee recommended $30,121,700 for 23 non-federal public works projects, the bulk of its $284,121,700 state completed $181,751,649 for 170 works progress jobs. It also decided to send back for revision 386 PWA applications from cities or more than 100,000 which were rejected by Hopkins because of their high material cost.

The committee also decided that all exhibits must be left at the show until closing time at 10 p. m. Recent reports to the committee indicate that gardeners from Edna, Hazelton and Jerome will also enter exhibits in addition to the exhibits from Twin Falls gardeners. SCHOOLS OF BUHL SCHEDULE OPENING

Registration Dates Announced Previous to Beginning of Classes

BUHL, Aug. 28 — Buhl public schools will open next Tuesday, September 3, and final plans and arrangements are being completed and the out-of-town instructors will arrive in Buhl this week. The different teachers' meetings will be held on Saturday and Monday previous to the date of the opening of school.

The enrollment and registration plans are as follows. All parents to attend the Buhl schools this year who were not in school in Buhl last spring are to report to the different school buildings, Saturday, August 31. It is important that all new pupils in the Buhl schools meet the principal this week in order to insure proper placement. This is especially true for the beginners in the first grade.

Primary Pupils

Pupils enrolling in the primary grades 1 to 3 are to register at the P. B. Buhl building. Parents of beginners are especially urged to enroll children who are to enter school for the first time. Children who will be six years of age on or before December 1 may be enrolled as beginners. All parents finding it impossible to enroll their children Saturday may do so on Monday afternoon.

Pupils enrolling in grades 4 to 7-inclusive are to register at the Lincoln building. New pupils only, up to 8-2 are to register at the high school building, in room 12. New pupils are to enroll Saturday, August 31 and all others need not report until September 3.

High School Enrollment

All high school pupils who have not enrolled in Buhl high school are to register at the high school building on Friday or Saturday, August 30 and 31. All pupils who were in the eighth grade of the Buhl schools last year need not report to the high school until Monday, September 3, at 9 a. m.

Pupils are urged to secure used text books before the opening of school if possible. First grade pupils should not purchase books until advised by the teachers at the building when they enroll. A second hand book exchange will be conducted at the different buildings but few good text books will be available this year. Used high school books may be left at the high school building on Friday or Saturday of this week. New books will be on sale at the Boring Drug company.

Buildings Renovated

All three school buildings have been put in first class condition during the summer months. The walls in the high school have been retiled and painted. New shower baths have been installed in the boys' dressing quarters to take care of the increased number participating in athletics. One of the large rooms on the ground floor has been floored and prepared for the vocational agriculture work.

Books have been thoroughly cleaned and re waxed. Floors have been cleaned and oiled or painted, heating plants and plumbing have been checked and repaired in all the buildings. Most of the labor has been done by the three regular janitors;

Air Races Director Rests Easier --Women Fliers Get Their Way

CLEVELAND, Aug. 27—Clifford W. Henderson, managing director of the national air races is much happier today than he was a year ago.

Then he was being criticized by the women fliers of the country because he wouldn't let them in the races unless they met qualifying tests. This, they were unwilling to do.

This year, when plans for the races were being formulated, the airwomen got in touch with Henderson to see what would be done about them this time.

It didn't take Henderson long to make up his mind. The ladies are in a definitely.

More Women Than Ever

Amelia Earhart Putnam is sponsoring a closed course race for women pilots, and Ruth Chatterton is sponsoring a transcontinental derby which is open to women.

Henderson says the races this year will have more women participants than in any year since they leaped into the aviation picture.

Among the women eligible to participate are: Mrs. Phoebe Omlie, Blanche Voyce, Laura Ingalls, Miss Hazelin, Jean La Renz, Betty Lund, Louise Thaden, Ruth "Ricer" Riser, Robert J. Brooks, New York society patron, Viola Centry, Helen Ritchie, Henrietta Lantz, Edith Fowlering, Mrs. M. T. Davis, Florence Lee, Harriet and Margaret Cooper—the veritable "who's who" in feminine aviation.

Glad He "Compromised"

"The 1935 national air races, because of the women's race, the presence of Hollywood stars who fly in them, and the fact that they will be here," says Henderson, "promise to set a brand new high in aviation achievement."

The women will be in the foreground "compromised" with the ladies, the actress-flier, is sponsoring a transcontinental derby, and Amelia Earhart Putnam (left) is sponsoring a closed course race—both for women pilots.

Henderson, a complacent smile on his face, says he is very glad to have the women will be in the foreground "compromised" with the ladies, the actress-flier, is sponsoring a transcontinental derby, and Amelia Earhart Putnam (left) is sponsoring a closed course race—both for women pilots.

More women fliers will take part in the national air races this year than ever before, according to the director, Cliff Henderson, the actress-flier, is sponsoring a transcontinental derby, and Amelia Earhart Putnam (left) is sponsoring a closed course race—both for women pilots.

Japanese Authorities Free Two Americans

TOKYO, Aug. 28 (AP)—Two young Americans have been cleared by Japanese authorities of suspicion of espionage. Their names were given as Philip Maas, a Stanford University graduate, and William Felix. They had been aboard the American freighter Golden Mountain, which was detained at Port Tokuyama when authorities believed photographs had been taken of a fortified zone.

Maas and Felix, who had left the ship before its detention, were allowed to continue their rail journey to Kobe, said a Tempo dispatch to news agency dispatch.

Commanders said they found a small camera and three rolls of film aboard the Golden Mountain belonging to a member of the crew. The pictures were amateurish, they said, but they were destroyed.

LITTLE MINISTER CASE

ST. PETERS GLASSBORO CHURCH, Glassboro, N. J., real-life counterparts of the stern elders in Sir James M. Barrie's "Little Minister" have found a controversy here.

Still frowning on dancing as a "pastime of the devil," the elders have suspended from church rights for six months a Presbyterian by the name, John Murray of Dorchester, who allowed children to dance at a party at his home.

"It was only a children's party," defended Murray, "and you can't expect old heads on young shoulders. None of my family ever went to public dances. There is no alternative for me but to break with the church."

FRANCE MAKES OWN SAFETY PARAMOUNT

Laval, Seeking New Name for Events in Africa, Gets Free Hand

PARIS, Aug. 25 (AP) — Premier Pierre Laval's design for removing the war clouds from Europe by giving a new name to the Italo-Ethiopian situation, other than "war," won him today the French cabinet's authority to proceed freely at Geneva.

He obtained approval to place France's safety above the possibility of an Ethiopian war.

The cabinet heard him for four hours. Then it voted him a "free hand," told him he could go as far as he wished on any suggestion of sanctions or threats of force and made no request—beyond that he leave France the friendship of both Italy and Great Britain.

One of Least Evils

It was the longest cabinet session in years and President Albert Lebrun presided. Laval, who had tried to compose British and Italian differences of viewpoint in the unsuccessful triplicate conversations and, since then, had continued his efforts to avoid the danger of war by talking to the Italian and British ambassadors to France, explained his efforts and offered his plan as "one of the least of several evils."

He was pessimistic, an informant said, about the chance of effecting a peaceful settlement of the East African situation, but was confident the spread of war to Europe, if war comes, can be prevented.

Asks Strong Assistance

Laval's insistence that he be given strong assistance at Geneva indicated the gravity of the situation. He asked for Edouard Herriot, minister of state, for Paul Boncour, minister of commerce, and for the last-named pair being presidents of the foreign affairs committee of chamber and senate respectively. Joseph Paul-Boncour, France's permanent delegate to the League, will also go to the League council meeting which begins September 4.

Officials explained after the cabinet meeting, that the "German menace" is spurring the premier to utmost efforts to maintain the three-power front in which France, Britain and Italy have been allied.

Hamilton was also accused of the machine gun slaying of a policeman in the East Chicago bank robbery of January 1934.

Among the other bank robbers in which Hamilton was accused as a participant were forays at Orenco and South Bend, Indiana, and St. Mary's, Ohio—perpetrated in October, 1932, soon after the Michigan City break—the robbery of the American Bank and Trust company at Racine, Wisconsin, the next month.

The list included also the holdup of a bank messenger at Gas City, Indiana, and raids on police stations in Auburn and Peru, Indiana, in the mob's search for reasons.

"This winds up the Dillinger gang," said Melvin H. Purvis, retired chief of the Chicago "O" men, when told today of Hamilton's fate. Hamilton was the ninth follower of the Hoosier hoodlum to meet violent death; Dillinger himself was

Offers Control of Ethiopia

When the League council meets next week, it was learned from informed quarters, Great Britain formally will renew an Anglo-French offer to give Italy wide economic and partial administrative control of Ethiopia.

Anthony Eden, minister of League of Nations affairs, in his opening speech containing the offer will state this is the furthest the British government is prepared to go to meet Mussolini's demands, these sources reported.

Former Emperor Lij Yassu, who has been living in Garamouta, 100 miles from Harar, a report indicated, has offered to fight against Italy provided Emperor Haile Selassie will furnish him an army of 10,000 to 15,000 troops, Selassie, the report added, declined the offer because of lack of confidence.

Yassu, an advised informant said, is living in complete comfort in a palace especially built for him by the emperor. His wife and child are with him and he is a prisoner only to the extent that he is not allowed outside the palace compound.

Emperor Haile Selassie ordered a gas mask drill today to familiarize natives with their use.

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 25 (AP) — The body of Frederick C. Schramm was lowered into a grave in Ogden, Utah, today following services for the 71-year-old business man, who died at his home here this week following a prolonged illness.

More than 1,000 persons gathered in the Masonic temple here at funeral services for the fraternal and business leader. He headed a chain of drug stores in Utah and Idaho and was a high official in a national drug store organization.

The veteran business leader started his career in Ogden, his family home, where as a young man he obtained a job as an apprentice in a drug store at a weekly wage of $1.25.

MORNING STAR

BY MARIAN SIMS

SYNOPSIS: Emily Fallon has been graduated from Admore College with nothing much to do, and with her three best friends out of reach. Judith Carroll has married her brother David, who is Emily's love, in China, and the girls' next suggests a year of play—and Emily is sure that her mother's plan includes doing Ed-Ed's mother's plan.

Chapter 14. ABOUT JUDITH "I'm sorry, Emily said finally, laying a hand on his. 'I wish I could say I'd marry you, but I never love any more, yet, and I don't love you that way. 'But you do like me? And there's no one else?'"

Her predilection to Jack Cushing was justified. "The organized a bridge club of two tables that was to meet once a week for luncheon. It was at the end of the year that twenty-five girls met, which was to be given to the winner instead of a prize."

She rebelled at the Woman's Club. They needed "new blood and new enthusiasm," she said, but she decided that there were plenty of years ahead for that.

And so she laughingly resisted Frances' attempts to enlist her interest in the Woman's Club. "This was to be my year of play, darling! Before long I'll have to go back to Antimony to get some rest. Give me a year or two of grace and then I'll give up frivolity and turn my attention to civic projects."

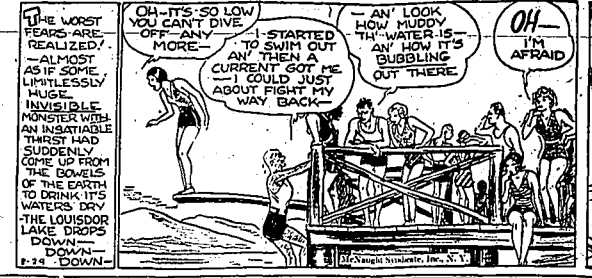

And Frances, who had the gift of yielding in relatively unimportant things the better to win in important ones, had dropped the subject.

Occasionally she "helped out" at the Elton Public Library. The salary was small and unexciting, but she liked the contact with books and with people who came to read.

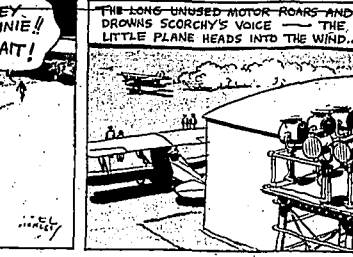

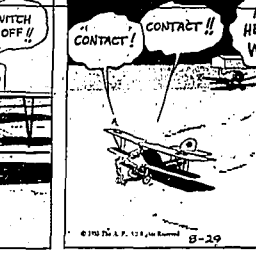

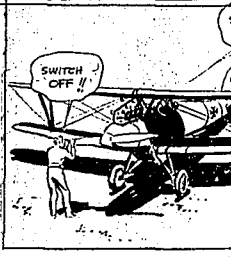

The two of them took long walks, talking eagerly of the things that they had known for a long time, and it seemed to him that he was happy to be with her.

INDICATIONS POINT TO LOW BEAN CROP

Field Near Twin Falls Shows Yield of Ten Bushels - Per Acre

Initial indication that Twin Falls county's 1935 bean crop will be exceedingly low was revealed here yesterday by a farmer residing south of town. A field of pinto beans yielded but ten bushels to the acre, in the dirt.

This yield, according to Idaho Bean and Elevator company, is less than one-third of a normal yield for the land and some property near here generally yields up to 40 and 45 bushels to the acre. Disease is blamed for the low yield.

Bean company officials contend that the indication will probably speak for the entire crop in the county, although in the east the general information is that Idaho is flooded with beans. For the past several weeks no prices have been quoted by local bean men due to inability to trade on the eastern market.
