Sweden May Protest Red Cross Bombing; Indignation Rising

Ethiopia Threatens Confiscation of Property In Retaliation For Use Of Poison Gas

War Developments In Brief

(By The Associated Press)
STOCKHOLM—Sweden considers protest to Italy over bombing of ambulance unit; indignation high.
ADDIS ABABA—Communications says 28 Ethiopians killed, two Swedish doctors wounded in Red Cross bombing; setbacks to native army in the north disclosed.
GENEVA—Ethiopian protests to league against what she termed use of poison gas by the Italians.
ROME—Italy calls for 15,000 air force volunteers; expresses regret to Sweden for ambulance bombing.

(By The Associated Press)
Italy moved to make her already big air force more formidable Thursday by calling for 15,000 pilots and 4,200 base workers to volunteer.
At the same time the nation expressed regret to Sweden over the bombing of a Swedish Red Cross unit in Ethiopia, explaining it was in retaliation for an Ethiopian atrocity. She warned Stockholm, however, against "tendentious versions of the incident."

Allegations that modern warfare as practiced in Africa includes the beheading of captured enemy officers and the use of poison gas, the bombing of Red Cross units and the burning of churches were made Thursday in word battles.

Sweden, unwittingly drawn into the controversy, considered sending a protest to Italy against the attack last Monday of a Swedish Red Cross unit. Indignation was high.

"Symbol of Death"
An Ethiopian soldier said 28 Ethiopian soldiers together with the Red Cross unit were killed by the Red Cross bombing. He said that two Swedish doctors were injured.

Italy, through a spokesman, said the bombing was in retaliation for the decapitation of captured Italian pilots by three Ethiopian tribesmen. Concern at the bombing reports was expressed in Geneva by members of the International Red Cross. One said he wondered if the Red Cross is not becoming a "symbol of death" in the present war.

The incident probably will come before the council of the League of Nations when it meets next.

New Italian Threat
Ethiopia, in another of a series of protests to Geneva, said if Italy did not stop using poison gas the property of Italy in Ethiopia would be confiscated.

The note accused the Fascists of burning churches and of attempting to exterminate the civilian population.

An informed source in Rome said the "secret" weapons were in reserve may be used if the Ethiopian war practices make it necessary. The day's conflict was a battle.

Ethiopia's main northern army, headed by Minister of War Ras Mulat, has not serious success checks. Details were not made available in Addis Ababa.

LIGHTS AND SHADOWS In Day's Events

(By The Associated Press)
SAN JOSE, Calif.—An automobile struck Christ Christensen, 37, and tossed him into the air when he was walking across a street here today on top of the car and remained there until lifted down and taken to a hospital in an ambulance. He was received only minor lacerations and a wrenched shoulder.

Can't Take It
PORTLAND, Ore.—A cup of steaming coffee, directly directed by a woman clerk, routed two would-be holdup men.

The pair entered a drug store and informed Mrs. J. H. Wall, attendant, that a stickup was to be held. Instead, Mrs. Wall tossed a cup of coffee into the face of one of the men. Both fled.

Don't Argue
SANTA MARIA, Calif.—Justice of the Peace L. J. Morris often gets letters "begging off" on speeding charges.

Yesterday, however, he received a check for $20 from Mrs. Hazel Z. Shively of Los Angeles, and a plea to let him drive the car home where Justice Morris sent the check back and told Mrs. Shively to multiply it by ten and send a new one.

Surprise
OAKLAND, Calif.—The most surprising event in Oakland yesterday was John Miller, an unemployed cook, whose wife, Lorena, presented him with a $100 check.

Miller said he "never knew" of the impending event and refused to believe anything until he visited Mrs. Miller at the hospital where she was being treated for pneumonia.

Mrs. Miller said she knew her husband as she didn't want to worry her husband about expenses as they already had three children.

RAIN, SNOW BOOM U. S. PROSPECTS FOR WHEAT CROP

New Year's Storms Bring Badly Needed Moisture to Nation's Bread Basket; Oklahoma's Dust Settled

(By The Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Jan. 2—Snow and rain, the New Year's gift to the nation's bread basket, boosted wheat prospects generally tonight. The year started with light snow or rain over all the wheat belt except the extreme western parts of Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas. Moisture was needed badly.

St. Louis ranged up to eight inches in northeastern Kansas and northern Missouri.

Best in four years. Dust, which had begun to blow again in western Oklahoma, was settled. Boise City and Ogden, in the "hatched" spot, missed most of the moisture but Texas, Oklahoma, formerly a big wheat producer, had a "25-inch" snowfall.

Harry B. Cordell, president of the Oklahoma board of agriculture, said the "hatched" spot, "best prospects for a wheat crop in four years."

Dodge City, Kansas, didn't mind when its New Year's day "just blew" football game and a buffalo hunt were called off because of heavy, wheel-omalous residents view the moisture in terms of dollars and cents.

Storms Plague Chicago
CHICAGO, Jan. 2—Snow, rain, hail, sleet and lightning-plagued Chicago today.

Transportation was hampered. Motorists encountered a double handicap in slippery streets and poor visibility. Pedestrians slithered through slush three inches deep.

A freight and thunder brought countless telephone calls to fire and police stations.

Several lives were lost in the Chicago area. Mrs. Miller, 28, and the two small daughters he sought to rescue from a burning house.

Two of them were in serious condition from burns and asphyxiation.

Fire Sweeps Hospital
CLEVELAND, Jan. 2—Firemen took sixteen aged patients from a hospital here today.

Two of them were in serious condition from burns and asphyxiation.

COMMANDANT DIES
SAN DIEGO, Calif., Jan. 2—Captain David A. Weaver, 58, commandant of the San Diego naval station, died today.

He was killed in a crash landing of his plane.

Law Claims Victory in Race

With Death by Seizing
rammy Touhy

CHICAGO, Jan. 2—The law claimed a victory in a race with death today with the capture of "Tommy" Touhy, head of the "Hill Country" gang.

Without the firing of a shot, the 44-year-old founder of the gang known as "Al Capone's" was captured in an apartment on the north side.

Paid from his friends—variously by the law or by Touhy himself—when the officers awakened him with the command: "Come out with your hands up."

Because of his precarious physical condition, authorities paid at once to Touhy for a special car. Touhy said he would serve prison term before his mandatory tax is paid.

Police said they would institute proceedings at once on the basis of the arrest. They said they would not let the gang which robbed a mail truck of between $40,000 and $50,000 two weeks ago go free.

CONGRESSMAN TO Answer In Court
WASHINGTON, Jan. 2—Representative Zwick, of Washington, will answer in court today a charge that he was drunk and disorderly New Year's morning.

He was arrested after a "boisterous" party in an apartment house "summoned police who said they were looking for a drunken man who was causing a disturbance."

"I have absolutely nothing to say," Zwick told newspapermen.

According to the congressional committee, Zwick was drunk and disorderly on New Year's morning. He was arrested after a "boisterous" party in an apartment house "summoned police who said they were looking for a drunken man who was causing a disturbance."

New-Enthusiasm, Without Results, Marks Lion Hunt

CINCINNATI, Jan. 2—A lion hunt at Cincinnati's book store grew in enthusiasm tonight, but not in results.

Fifty county officers, armed with high-power rifles and shotguns, hunted for a lion in the woods around the book store.

For three days they have searched, and found nothing but "lion's mane."

Scientific opinion, as represented by the Cincinnati zoo—which has missed any of its charges is that the animal is a puma, variously known also as a cougar or mountain lion, rather than an African "king of beasts."

"Two men who said they saw it" were called in tonight, bigger than a dog.

NEWSMEN TO VIEW BRUNO'S EXECUTION

New Jersey Prison Official Discusses Arrangements For Press

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 2—Press arrangements for Bruno's execution were discussed today.

Declaring the execution would be "no show," Colonel Kimberling announced witnesses at the execution would include representatives of the major press associations and news agencies and about 100 newspapermen.

No women will be admitted to represent any newspaper or press service.

No news reels or feature pictures will be allowed on prison property.

wealthy Senator (R-Mont.) had not yet offered to support his candidacy. At one time in the past it was reported that Coughlin had no intention of running for office. However, in the article he branded as "blind partisanship," any efforts to deprive the supreme court of authority to modify acts of congress, and the power did not originate, with the supreme court, he said, but had its origin in the constitution.

He replied to other questions that he had no further political speaking dates than the one January 21 in Brooklyn; they left the reporters to "dig" for themselves. Coughlin gave out in advance of publication of the magazine.

WEATHER

FORECAST FOR TODAY AND TOMORROW— Idaho: Partly cloudy, with scattered rain; wind becoming unsettled. Eastern: Partly cloudy, with scattered rain; wind becoming unsettled. Western: Partly cloudy, with scattered rain; wind becoming unsettled.

Weather Unsettled
In Southern Idaho

A secondary low-pressure center over northern Utah, depending from a large depression center over the Dakotas, has caused unsettled weather conditions in northern Utah, western Colorado and southern Idaho. A small wedge of high pressure, over the northern part of the state, is the secondary center, reinforcing the wind system.

High winds are expected in the northern California-Oregon coast with a strong abatement of precipitation in the northern part of the state. California authorities reported, however, San Francisco reported a rain-fall of rain in the past 12 hours.

Temperatures are higher in the western states, averaging above normal. Low pressure over the great plains and the Great Lakes region has caused unsettled weather over the central states and the east, with continued moderate temperatures prevailing.

High winds are expected in the northern California-Oregon coast with a strong abatement of precipitation in the northern part of the state. California authorities reported, however, San Francisco reported a rain-fall of rain in the past 12 hours.

BORAH'S QUESTS AT EXECUTIVE MANSION

Senators McNary of Oregon, the Republican Tribune, and Captain of Kansas. James J. Doolittle, head of Democratic National Committee, and New York mayor, Fiorello La Guardia, were both guests.

The senator has numbered six in his list of guests, and the representative, Lily Page, said.

Lily Page, senator's spokeswoman, was presented to two groups of numbers with high hopes enough to give her voice one of his best shows.

Cornelia Olla Skinner chose from her repertoire "The Nurses' Day Out" and "Being Presented" as an entertainment.

The honor guests, Vice President and Mrs. Coughlin, have recently been having such a series of dress-up affairs on their Oriental tour.

With Senator Harry Byrd was his pretty debutante daughter, Miss Western. Byrd, present of course was Senator Robinson, the Democratic leader, with Mrs. Robinson.

Senator Sheppard of Texas, a son of the eighth president, was there to gaze on the two high American women—served at such a high level.

Senator Johnson of California, with Mrs. Johnson helped Senator McNary. McNary represented the Independent Republican.

Candidates To Face
Pension Plan Issue

LONG BEACH, Calif., Jan. 2 (AP)—Dr. F. E. Townsend, creator of the Townsend old age pension plan, announced today that he would be named as the Democratic and Republican parties will be asked to state their stand on the pension plan.

"We will ask a yes or no question," he declared, "and we will take your unequivocal answer. If you say yes, we will try to make it a question, we shall consider that tantamount to denial of our proposals. We will give them plenty of time to decide, but we can get along without them."

Dr. Townsend said his leaders are prepared to bid, to launch a third party on a week's notice. He would not name the probable candidates for the national ticket of such a party, saying the time is too opportune.

Dr. Townsend said he is 70 years old and his leaders will meet soon in Washington to complete drafting a new pension bill.

Hoop Teams Launch 1936 Campaigns for Honors in District

Unbeaten Rupert And Oakley Squads Clash In Feature Game; Doubleheaders On Programs In Many Towns

After intensive training sessions and a number of pre-season skirmishes, south central Idaho's basketball combinations will swing into their respective campaigns this evening on 12 fronts. At most of the places doubleheaders will feature appearances of both boys' and girls' teams.

Headlining the Class A competition two unbeaten outfits, Rupert and Oakley, will tangle at Rupert and the result is scheduled to shed some light on what is forthcoming during the season. Rupert, with a team of veterans back in suit, is favored, but both squads are highly rated.

Wendell and Jerome will play at Jerome in the only other Class A game. Both teams have been defeated and should provide a fast battle. The girls' teams from the two schools, however, are scheduled to provide the better of a present season's first contest.

Leading at Rheoson
The other Class A teams will vie with Class B opposition with Gooding playing Shoshone at Shoshone, Buhl invading Murgha and Buhl playing the Jemts across the river at Heyburn. Or press-outside the Shoshonians are favored to capture both ends of their doubleheader and Buhl is expected to win the second.

Texas Governor Goes on Wild Motorbike Ride

By ALAN GOULD

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

PASADENA, Calif., Jan. 5 (AP)—Governor James V. Alfred of Texas took a wild ride on the back of a police motorcycle, but he had the laugh today on a practical joker back home.

The young chief executive, who likes to play jokes himself, received a telegram as he watched the Southern Methodist football game in the Rose Bowl.

The message, supposedly from Bob Taylor, secretary of the Texas senate, warned him that the acting governor, William Cullen, had abruptly called a special session of the legislature on January 2. It implied immediate action was imperative.

But the governor smiled, and remained until the game was over. Then, with his secretary, Paul Moreland, he climbed in his police-protected automobile and headed for the hotel.

"We were caught in a terrible jam on the back of a motorcycle," he said, "but I don't think that perhaps we'd better hurry on." Moreland said, "He was certainly kidding me."

But the governor said, "I don't know exactly who sent the telegram, but the governor has his suspicions."

He said he was not sure who sent the telegram, but the governor has his suspicions.

National League Experiments on Restricted Basis

By ALAN GOULD

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—It appears the Cincinnati Reds are unlikely to have much, if any, company in offering baseball under the lights for 1939—despite striking success of the major league experiment last season.

Night ball is still taboo in the American league, notwithstanding the reported success of the experiment last season.

In the national league, which voted to continue on the experiment, the high season was a maximum of seven games, with each league team in its own league city. The Reds seem to be the only club seriously considering an extension of the Cincinnati experiment.

The Reds, however, will continue to utilize their $60,000 lighting plant.

HUM LAW UNDER ATTACK IN COURT

Three Local Establishments
Join Forces Against Injunction

Three local establishments accused of keeping and selling liquor in violation of Idaho's liquor control law, today joined forces in their attack in the district court here yesterday.

The suit was brought by Attorney Edward Nabholz.

The suit was coupled with attorneys' arguments on demurrers interpreted by the accused establishment, and Judge Adam B. Baskin, at the close of the day took under advisement a wide variety of questions raised in the course of the hearing.

During the day-long argument, there was indicated on the papers all and pertinent to the case, the opinion that the liquor control law contains serious incongruities.

The law is in the hands of the courts and those dealing with abatement and penalties.

Defendants Be-Sale

FARMERS' JUBILANT OVER SNOWSTORM

Moisture Accumulates
White Blanket Covers District

Farmers of south central Idaho were given cause to be jubilant yesterday morning when they awoke to discover a blanket of snow ranging from two inches to a foot in depth. Hereals the greatest bonanza of the year to most summer crops. The snowstorm started at 1 a. m. yesterday, and under the impetus of a driving windstorm that created a blizzard, swept the district leaving deep drifts in its wake. Warm temperatures yesterday and additional precipitation in the form of rainfall did away with the majority of the snow, but the last remnants of the snowstorm were still in evidence when the sun came out.

NEW LAUNDRY BUILDING ON WAY TO COMPLETION

If weather conditions remain favorable it is expected that work on the new local plant of the Troy Laundry will be completed within thirty days, according to Carl Roberts, in charge of the construction.

Fifteen men are now employed on the work, all the steel is on hand to finish with a carload of lumber. It is expected that the red will be in place within the next 30 days. M. E. Talver, owner of the plant, is at the construction site as a result of an auto accident early this week but will probably be discharged within a few days.
