RFC Chief Helps Pull Pilots From Burning Airplane

Jesse Jones, at End of 7000 Foot Plunge to Earth, Credits Eilers With Saving Passengers' Lives

(By The Associated Press) DALLAS, Texas, June 12 (AP)—Jesse Jones, chairman of the reconstruction finance corporation, rode a flaming monoplane 7,000 feet to earth today, helped pull two badly burned pilots from their compartment, but escaped injury.

Jones gave them full credit for saving his life along with the lives of former Governor and Mrs. E. H. Hobby and Joe Tommy of Houston, Jones' secretary.

Hobby received a slight cut on the forehead, Mrs. Hobby and Tommy were not injured. The blazing monoplane, with the pilot and the co-pilot grimly facing the flames, in their determination to land it safely, died in a race terminated by Heffley at 275 miles an hour.

Plane Lands in Field It landed in a field on C. Edwards' farm near Ferris, 20 miles south of Dallas, skidding to a smoking halt on its belly after the landing gear had been torn off.

Jones and his fellow passengers leapt open the door. The pilot, Heffley, and co-pilot, Eugene Schaefer, also of Houston, were less seriously hurt. Schaefer said he and Heffley landed a gasoline leak while they were cruising south from Dallas at an altitude of 7,000 feet.

Blum Works for Labor Legislation France's Premier Seeks Quick Passage of 40-Hour Week Bill

PARIS, June 12 (AP)—The chamber of deputies set a bill giving workers of France a 40-hour week to the senate today, and Premier Leon Blum sought quick passage of his labor measures by the upper house in order to speed a settlement of smelting strikes.

A "back to work" movement throughout the nation seemed to be spreading faster than wild fires. A 40-hour week was one of the principal demands of the strike movement, which at its peak had nearly 1,000,000 workers idle.

Line of Defense "In our national life, public and private, the very nature of free government demands that there must be a line of defense by the yeomanry of business and industry and agriculture."

Any elemental policy, economic or political, which tends to eliminate the dependable defenders of democratic institutions, and to concentrate control in the hands of a few small, powerful groups, is directly opposed to the stability of government.

Republican Convention Nominates Knox As Landon's Running Mate In Bid For National Administration

G.O.P. Choice For Vice President Chicago Publisher Becomes Party's Candidate For Vice Presidency By Unanimous Vote Of Delegates

COLONEL FRANK KNOX, Chicago publisher, named by unanimous vote of the Republican national convention as running mate for Governor Alf M. Landon, the party's nominee for president of the United States.

Landon Launches Fight For Victory

TOPEKA, Kas., June 12 (AP)—Vigorous and outspoken Governor Alf M. Landon topped his first day as the Republican presidential nominee by asserting tonight that he favors an immediate fight against the enemy.

Two Question Marks were left behind by the tumultuous convention. One stood after the name of Senator Borah, whose choice of a lesser one, questioned whether any irremediable scars had been left by the proceedings.

In a final session curiously stifled as compared to the riotous gathering that acclaimed Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas last night, the convention pulled itself together at the last minute today to prevent open discord over completion of the ticket.

After a long night of negotiation, at least part of the Landon legion opened full force for a drive for the nomination of Senator Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan. But the drive miscarried.

Vandenberg Makes Decision Close upon the adjournment of a hotel-room meeting after which Vandenberg said later he had been asked to take the vice-presidential nomination, a letter he had written beforehand withdrawing his name—was read to the convention.

National Committee Names Hamilton Chairman

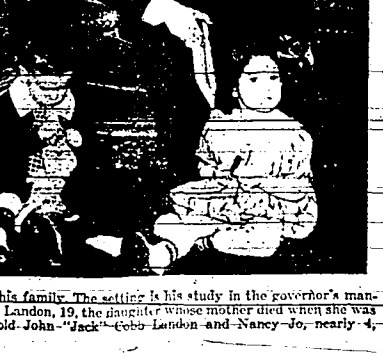

(By The Associated Press) CLEVELAND, June 12—A vigorous, hard campaign to elect Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas to the presidency was pledged today by John Hamilton upon assuming the chairmanship of the Republican national committee.

With his elevation to that office, renounced by Governor Landon, the forces of the Kansas completed their capture of the national party organization. Moreover, a sub-committee, sponsored by Hamilton, was authorized to name all other officers and substitutes.

WPA Composer's Song For G.O.P. NEW YORK, June 12 (AP)—A musical prediction, "Better Times Are Coming," bearing the imprint, "official Republican campaign song," was disclosed here today as the work of a WPA composer, Perry Bradford, a Negro drawing a regular check from the federal theater project.

Silver Delegates Assured Landon Leaves 'Door Open'

CLEVELAND, June 12 (AP)—Delegates from three western states emerged from an afternoon session of the Republican national convention today and declared they were assured Governor Landon had "left the door open" to a possible selection of silver in his inaugural program.

CHARGE AGAINST GIRL DISMISSED

Judge Promises 'Square Deal' for 16-Year-Old Martha Adams

BONNERVILLE, Idaho, June 12 (AP)—The 16-year-old Martha Adams against the custody of her "cuddly" mother because through the preliminary stage today when she was cleared of a delinquency charge. Probate Judge E. B. Schutte, assigned to the case, said he would "square deal" the charge on motion of Prosecutor W. J. Nixon.

Immediately Mrs. Grace Davis, county school superintendent, petitioned the court to declare Martha legally an adult because of her parents and a hearing was set for June 24. Nixon said he knew of nothing to substantiate the delinquency charge and indicated it had been filed only to "square deal" the case to the court.

Martha, disliking what she termed the "cuddly" activities of her father, John Quincy Adams, filed from his home with her mother, Edith, and started to Barstow, Calif., and started life anew under the care of Mr. and Mrs. George Adams.

Recently Idaho officers returned her here. Adams, who claims descent from the state president of the United States, denied her custody charges.

Both her parents, Martha insisted, pulled her hair and made her weep in playing sessions and started her as punishment.

Mrs. Davis shared the Adamses had refused to take reasonable care of Martha, forced her "to abstain from eating, sometimes for periods of as long as three days," and "compelled the child to unnatural practices by infliction of physical violence."

MICHIGAN SENATOR PLAYS MAJOR ROLE

Sweep of Landon Boom Oddity in Republican Party's History

By KIRK SIMPSON (Associated Press Staff Writer) CLEVELAND, June 12 (AP)—The Landon and Knox Republican ticket to carry the state of Michigan in the November election was born as strange an anomaly of political convention forces as any national political rally has ever known.

The sweep of the Landon boom last year was a party oddity. Democratic conventions have been swept away like that before; but not the Republican.

Yet even that demonstration that "new forces" have been generated within the party in the last four years was greeted in Landon's case by completion of the ticket with a convention mandate for "Ooloo" and "Becky" offer.

That last scene of the convention revolved around one man's will. At a moment's notice Landon's name was written on a sign.

Young Peoples' Groups Suggest Outdoor Menus

Summer time means picnic time, and with it the ever puzzling question of what to take for a good out-of-door meal.

Probably you have a favorite spot where you like to spend quiet hours with your family or a few friends. Perhaps you know a place where the pines grow tall and a sapphire lake lies smiling at your feet, or perhaps it's the place and the hour that sends the purple shadows of distant mountains slanting over miles of desert.

Anyhow, wherever you are going, the out-of-doors is more completely yours to command if you know what to take and how to prepare your own supper or dinner when you are hungry.

Here are some recipes that have been recommended by various young people's organizations. The Boy Scouts of America, the Girl Scouts of America, the Camp Fire Girls, the Young Women's Christian association, the Young Men's Christian association, and the Four-H club have suggested these recipes because of the minimum of equipment and the very little preparation and cooking time which they require. They have been compiled by G. Frances Loomis, editor of publication, Camp Fire Girls of America.

Chili Con Carné Supper
Invite the crowd in for a Chili Con Carne and cook it on your outdoor fireplace, if a mountain outing is not the order of the day. Serve with it fried corn meal or corn bread, tea with quince jelly and cream cheese and crackers for dessert.

- 1 cup finely sliced onions
- 2 teaspoons fat or suet
- 2 cups suet
- 1 can tomatoes
- 1 can kidney beans
- 4 teaspoons diced green peppers
- 2 pounds chopped beef
- 1 pint boiling water
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 3 tablespoons Chili powder
- 1 clove garlic
- Cook the onion and green pepper in the fat or suet in a skillet until tender. Add the chopped meat, and stir in the macaroni, firmly combined in various appetizing ways, make satisfying one pot campfire meals. With a sweet-corn fruit, carrots, and milk or coffee, they are complete. With fruit or tomato juice at the beginning, and salad, macaroni, radishes or cucumber sticks for green stuff, they are extra special. A typical one pot recipe is:

- Outpost Spaghetti
- 1 box spaghetti
- 1 pound bacon
- 2 onions
- 1 pepper
- 1 can tomato-soup
- 1 teaspoon salt
- Place bacon and fry. Lift out the bacon and fry the cut-up onions and pepper until soft. Cook spaghetti in two quarts of rapidly boiling salted water until al dente. Add bacon, onion, pepper, tomato-soup and salt. Mix thoroughly and let it stand over a slow fire for five minutes. All sorts of variations of this may be made. Rice, macaroni or noodles may be used instead of spaghetti; canned tomato-soup instead of tomato-soup. Ground meat, ham or sausage may be substituted for the bacon. Peas or beans may be added, mushrooms, sliced stuffed olives, or a cup of grated or broken cheese. For dessert with this, serve fresh or canned fruit.

Meat Patties
The meat patties for this camp fire stew may be made at home, though they require very little time to prepare at the fire.

- 2 pounds ground beef
- 1 onion
- 1 egg
- 2 cans vegetable soup
- Make patties of beef and roll them in flour. Sauté sliced onions in fat and add patties and when done add vegetable soup. Cover and allow to simmer over slow fire. Potatoes diced and boiled in the kettle while the stew is in the frying pan make this a substantial meal.

Mock Angel Food Cake
Cut crusts from loaf of white bread. Out bread into inch cubes. Dip cubes first in condensed milk, and then into cooking-oil. Fry over fire as you would marshmallows.

Ration Meals
When you are not fishing, or the fish aren't biting, and you have to depend on the rations you brought with you, here are three main dishes that are easy to prepare in variety.

- Dried Beef and Peas
- 1/2 pound dried beef
- 1 large can evaporated milk
- 1 can peas
- 4 tablespoons butter
- 4 tablespoons flour
- Shred beef, add butter, fry and simmer over slow cooking fire until beef is crunchy and breaks in small pieces. Rub in flour with back of sie upon until it is brown. All butter absorbed. Add milk made to strength-of-fresh-milk-by-adding equal parts of water. Allow to boil until desired thickness. At the last minute, add peas, with or without the liquid in the can, depending on the thickness of the gravy. Serve over slices of toast. For the canned milk and peas, powdered milk and dried peas may be substituted. Boil half cup of peas over night and boil them until soft before using them in this recipe.

Ham-Apple Dumplings
Cut a thick slice of smoked ham into pieces for serving. Lay them in the bottom of your kettle. Wash two cups of dried apples and put them on top of the ham. Add water to cover and cook slowly for forty minutes. Add water or milk to one cup of biscuit mixture until you can drop it from a spoon (half a cup or a little more), then drop these dumplings into the kettle and put the lid on tight. Cook for twenty minutes. This makes a good dessert with just the apples and dumplings, in which case, add a tablespoon of sugar to the dumpling mixture or some flavored raisins. If you have no biscuit mixture you can make dumplings by mixing one cup of flour with one teaspoon of baking powder, a half teaspoon of salt, and a half cup of milk or water, perhaps a little more.

SOLUTION TO PROBLEM OF LEFT-OVER MEATS

A question asked so frequently by homemakers and particularly by young brides, whose families number two is: "What shall I do with the left-overs?" Sometimes the first time a dish is served if is excellent, the first time fair, and by the third time it is only acceptable, and that with reservations.

The secret of using left-overs satisfactorily is to disguise them so that they are not recognized as left-overs, such as grinding the last bits of a roast or pot-roast and making it into a tasty meat loaf, or slicing it and reheating it in a spicy sauce. It should be remembered that in preparing any dish from a meat left-over, the meat has been cooked and therefore needs only enough cooking the second time to reheat it throughout.

- Tasty Meat Loaf
- 2 cups cooked ground beef
- 1 cup cracker or dry bread crumbs
- 3 eggs
- 2 slices bacon
- 1 grated onion
- Salt and pepper
- Meat broth or milk
- Left-over gravy or
- 1 can cream mushroom soup
- Combine ground beef, bread or cracker crumbs and seasonings. Moisten with slightly-beaten egg and-milk-or-meat broth until quite moist. Pack into a loaf pan lined with bacon slices. Pour left-over gravy or mushroom soup over the top and bake in a moderate oven until the mixture is thoroughly heated through and set.

Sliced Beef in Sliced Tomato Sauce

- Sliced roast beef
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 cup tomato ketchup
- 1/2 cup cold water
- 1 teaspoon prepared mustard
- 1 tablespoon vinegar
- 1 tablespoon brown sugar
- Blend flour and butter. Add the other ingredients and cook until boiling, stirring constantly so that a smooth sauce will be made. Reheat the sliced roast beef in this sauce and serve on steamed rice.

"STRAWBERRIES ARE SUCH BARGAINS NOW... I WISH I HAD BETTER LUCK WITH JAMS AND JELLIES!"

"USE CERTO, AND THEY'LL BE PERFECT! YOU'LL GET HALF AGAIN MORE GLASSES TOO!"

EASY RECIPE FOR STRAWBERRY JAM
Cup (2 pounds prepared fruit)
7 cups (2 pounds) CERTO
14 bottles CERTO

To prepare fruit, strip about 3 quarts fully ripe berries or crush completely, one layer at a time so that each berry is reduced to a pulp.

Measure sugar and prepared fruit into large kettle, stir over hot fire, and bring to a full steady boil and while boiling, stir constantly in CERTO. Remove from fire and turn for just a minute to cool slightly. Paraffin hot jam as done. Make about 10 glasses (8 fluid oz. each).

The reason is that with Certo you boil such a short time... only 15 minutes, for jellies; a little longer for jams.

WHY YOU GET BETTER FLAVOR
That short boil is the reason, too, that you get better flavor. All the flavor stays right in the fruit, instead of boiling away in steam, as it does by the old-fashioned method! Jams and jellies made with Certo have all the rich lushness of the fresh, ripe fruit! No "boiled-down" taste!

You get so much more from your fruit, too, when you use Certo. Half again more glasses than you would get by the old, long-boil way. That's because no juice is lost, by wasteful long-boiling.

This wonderful Certo, that makes jam and jelly making so easy, is a product of General Foods.

FREE RECIPE BOOK
Underneath the label on every Certo bottle is a book of tested recipes for jams and jellies. So in all, because different fruits require different boiling times, be sure to follow each recipe exactly.

student-It's a case of selling another man's story.
An eighteen-year-old lad in Buffalo marketed a story with the American Magazine for three hundred dollars. He was paid and the story was printed.

Can he plead, like the high school boy, that he "didn't know" there was anything wrong about it? And will there be, as in the previous case, a lot of sentimental people with mislaid morality rushing to the rescue of the poor fellow on the back, and weep over the fix he has got into and the way society misunderstands him?

Stealing is stealing, whether the stolen goods are money or literature. The virtues of honesty, fair dealing, good faith, have to be repeated by the deprecator of the machine age. If they are allowed to lapse, whether through sentimentality or indifference, society crumbles.

MODERN FARM WOMEN (Dallas News)
The 6,500 farm women who listened to an address by President Roosevelt represent a long step in advance of the farm women of earlier days.

Such conditions still exist in too many instances, but the status of most farm women has undergone a change for the better. Electricity, lighting, refrigeration and other conveniences to the farmhouse, while additional improvements have lightened the work of the farm woman, she still has a long way to go.
