Special Session Ends After Battles Over Policies Of Governor

Legislature Writes Ross' Social Security And Supplemental Appropriations Program Into Law

(By The Associated Press)
IDAHO STATEHOUSE, BOISE, July 31.—The third extraordinary session of the 23rd legislature—interrupted frequently by eruptions over Governor C. Ben Ross' taxation policies—adjourned this day at 5:55 o'clock tonight after writing into law the executive's social security and supplemental appropriations program into law.

The four-day convocation—fifth in the six-year regime of Idaho's gray-haired, former cowboy executive, who now is an aspirant for the Democratic nomination for the United States senate seat William E. Borah—has held—30 years—was described by veteran observers as one of the most caustic on record.

PARSONS STRIKES AT INDIRECT LEVIES

Sales Tax Raises State's Take $2.67 to $22.67, Auditor Avers

(By The Associated Press)
EMMETT, Idaho, July 31.—Harry C. Parsons, Idaho state auditor, charged in an address here tonight that the 1935-36 state sales tax "takes the crust out of the hungry and the rags on the backs of the beggars to relieve the corporations of their just share of governmental cost."

"The passage of the sales tax act was not necessary for the raising of relief money," Parsons, Democratic candidate for reelection to his present position, declared.

"Had the legislature seen fit to raise the property tax, for state purposes, $100,000 of valuation—which is the lowest state property tax in the history of Idaho—just $11.3 million for the state would have been a month's relief, to have paid all the expenses of the operation of the state government and would have had a surplus in the treasury."

"Your taxes, for state purposes, have been raised from $11.3 million of assessed valuation to $22.67 by the addition of the sales tax."

No Change—WHEELING, Va.—"Got a dime, mister, for a cup of coffee?" inquired a handmaiden.

"Sorry, buddy, have no change."

The stranger grabbed Oliver's hand, slapped him with a knife and ran away with the $5.

MONTANA VILLAGES ISOLATED AS FIRE RAGES IN FOREST

Flames Converge on Mining Towns of Landusky and Zortman; Blaze Spreads Over Indian Reservation

(By The Associated Press)
HAYRE, Mont., July 31.—Three Montana villages were isolated tonight by a raging fire that ate a path four miles wide through the Lewis and Clark national forest.

Roaring flames which have turned more than 30,000 acres of once green forest into charred and smoldering snags converged on the isolated mining towns of Landusky and Zortman, and on Hayre, tiny community on the Fort Belknap Indian reservation. It was feared all buildings, including homes of the miners and Indian agency employees would be destroyed unless the wind shifted.

Reporting by portable short wave radio from the fire sector, Supervisor W. D. Willey, of the national forest, said today the fire had cut a path 12 miles long and four miles wide through the preserve and was spreading over Indian lands.

Women, Children Leave

Women and children in Landusky and Zortman, with a combined population of about 600 persons, at the southern end of the reservation, were taken out to safety in airplanes, autos and on horseback earlier this week. Last night Hayre's population of 400 was evacuated.

Remaining behind to fight the roaring fire that swept down from two directions were men of the villages, including many Indians, already fearful by a week of toil against the changing flames in the fierce heat.

As shifting winds brought new peril to the fire-fighters and hand-labeled their efforts, the local police blaze in which three men perished Monday, swept down from the north toward Zortman and Landusky, while the fire from Mission canyon, which broke out this week, roared out of the west.

Mill in Flames

The Ruby mill, west of Zortman, owned by the Ruby Creek Mining company, caught fire today, but the flames were soon extinguished.

Indian service workers and men recruited by the resettlement administration office at Malta were rushed into the fire area, along with more ranchers and volunteers from a dozen nearby towns.

As the red wave swept down Mission canyon last night, earth bogs were piled up around historic St. Paul's Indian mission, maintained by Jesuits and Ursuline nuns, and its buildings were saved.

Governor Shifts Taxes to Aid Big Interests, Chapman Avers

Orr Chapman of Twin Falls, Democratic leader, charged in a broadcast address here last evening that Governor C. Ben Ross, candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States senator, "has made the Democratic party of this state an instrument for the promotion and preservation of the rights of property, of big business."

Average Man Pays

The effect of these indirect taxes, chief among which he listed the sales tax, Chapman said, "has been to relieve the large corporate interests of the state of their burden of taxes and distribute it out among the farmers and laborers and small business men; in fact to the average man."

Alplane Delivery

The G-men were called in on the case by Shirley's producers in Los Angeles as soon as the note was received. The case was opened three days after the May 15 deadline set for delivery of the $25,000.

The sheriff quoted the letter as saying:

"Unless $25,000 is dropped from an airplane near Grant, Nebraska, on May 15, the life of Shirley Temple will be endangered."

How the G-men turned to Powell for not disclosed in Hoover's formal announcement of the arrest.

The sheriff said Powell was a good student at the Grant high school and that his parents lived in comfortable circumstances.

They were last reported in San Francisco on their trip up the coast. They checked out of a hotel in that city Wednesday.

The seven-year-old star has been elaborately guarded against possible kidnapping since she was 10 months old.

Defy Court Ruling

(By The Associated Press)

Two other convicts, James J. Hamilton, 39, shot through the back, and Joseph Dupuy, 34, shot through the hand, were taken to the guards in the infirmary which followed the gunfire and put in the prison hospital.

A moment later the yard again was a seething mass of yelling, shouting prisoners, milling around and serving an ultimatum to the guards. James Lewis that they were not going to return to their cell blocks.

When answered cryptically: "They are."

Tear Gas on Ground

A detachment of state police, equipped with tear gas, appeared preparatory to an ultimatum to the guards in the infirmary following a planned assault, began carrying food out into the yard as supplies of food were being distributed.

The riot broke out in the commissary yard, apparently following a planned assault, began carrying food out into the yard as supplies of food were being distributed.

ADVISED TO EAT BRAN FOR HER CONSTIPATION

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Helps
Miss Hanson

Read this enthusiastic, voluntary letter: "Just a line to let you know how much I appreciate Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. I was troubled with constipation. I asked my doctor what to do. He said to eat bran."

"I tried other brands but they weren't so good. I tried Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, and it is just wonderful. It makes delicious muffins, too." — Miss Agnes Hansen, 450 N. Cicero Ave., Chicago, Ill.

ALL-BRAN provides mild "bulk" — mulling in the average meal. This delicious cereal also furnishes vitamin B and iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN absorbs moisture, and gently exercises and cleanses the system. It is often more effective than that found in fruits and vegetables, as it does not break down within the body. ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamin B and iron.

Isn't this natural food pleasanter than patent medicines? Just eat two tablespoonsful daily. If not relieved, see your doctor.

Sold by all grocers. ALL-BRAN is much more effective than part-bran products. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
