GERMANS TRY NEW STRATEGY IN HEAVY ARTILLERY OPERATIONS

Switch Bombardments From One Part of Line to Another—First in Champagne District and Then in Vosges Mountains, in Somme and Ancre Valleys and in the Nieppe Forest the Big Cannons Roar—Increased Activity and Many Small But Bitter Fights on Italian Front—Bombardment of Montdidier Near Where the Americans Are During the Night—Offensive Movement Still Undeveloped.

(Frank Charlton, N. S. Cable Editor) The Germans are employing new strategy in the use of their artillery by swift switches in their bombardments from one part of the battle front to another without following them up with any forcible infantry thrusts. It is true that the cannonades are sometimes the prelude to local enterprises, but the deadlock in the grand operations continues unbroken.

After the artillery activity yesterday on parts of the Peadary front in the Champagne district and in the Vosges mountains, the German guns suddenly became busy today in the Somme and Ancre valleys, north of Bethune, in the sector of the Nieppe forest, and in the sectors of Marle and Kemmel.

The French war office reports a success south of Brailles on the Peadary front about eight miles southeast of the British base of Amiens, where a wood was captured from the Germans. Also heavy artillery firing was reported from the districts of Montdidier, south of which point Americans are fighting shoulder to shoulder with the French.

PARIS, May 15.—French troops have captured the wood just south of Sallies, on the Peadary battle front, the French war office announced today.

ROME, May 15.—The Austrians are concentrating large forces of men and guns in the Alps and along the Friuli plain. The enemy is endeavoring to conceal his movements by transportation at night under cover of darkness. Austrian airmen are active, trying to prevent Italian reconnoissances.

AMSTERDAM, May 15.—Prince Leopold of Bavaria, former German commander in chief on the eastern front, has left Brast-Litovsk for the western front, according to information received here today.

Recent advices from various sources show that Germany is concentrating her foremost warriors on the western battle front. It is believed that Field Marshal von Mackensen will play an important part in directing the German armies when the drive is renewed on the Peadary and Flanders lines. General von Below and General von Gallwitz, who distinguished themselves in the Balkan fighting, are already in France. In addition, Field Marshal von Hindenburg, General Ludendorff, Crown Prince Rupprecht, of Bavaria, General von Arnim and other famous German fighters are there.

The investigation is being conducted at the instance of the war department and many prominent business and professional men have been asked to testify.

The Codling Moth How To "Get Him"

A circular which should be much interested to apple growers has been issued by the Utah agricultural experiment station. In past years the experiment station, through its specialist work on the codling moth from which Professor Hagan, the author of the information, has summarized the results of his experiments for controlling the pest.

The first spray should be applied three to five days after the larvae begin to fall, with the sole object of filling each calyx cup with the poison, and after heavy rains again if more than ten per cent are not wormy, a second spraying should be applied before the first of August.

The trees should be handled about the first of July, which is about the time that the larvae begin coming down from the trees. The spray provides a hiding place for the larvae, under which they crawl and remain. The hands should be removed about every eight days and the worms killed.

A free copy of the circular giving more detailed information on this subject may be obtained from the Utah Experiment Station, Logan, Utah.

All Ready For The Builders Convention

Large Delegations of Contractors Expected in Tacoma at Meeting Beginning May 23.

Arrangements for the war-time convention and organization meeting of building contractors of the northwest, to be held at Tacoma, Wash., May 23-24, are nearly completed.

The special importance of the purpose of the convention may now be said to have been officially recognized, as the regional director of railroads has on a recent date authorized a reduced rate to all delegates accredited to the convention.

The organization committee, together with other representatives of the northwestern states and British Columbia, has just issued a statement, of which the following is an extract: "Nearly five hundred additional delegates' cards have just been issued to northwest master builders."

"Increasing interest in the movement initiated here, is being shown by numerous associations of builders in disinterested states. "Master builders of ten mid-western states—in accordance with lines laid out here—will hold a preliminary organization meeting in Des Moines, Ia., during the present month."

At the Tacoma convention (May 23-24) the subject will be discussed by eminent speakers of national importance and one session at least—that of Thursday evening, May 23rd—will be open to the public and for general discussion. Subjects already assigned to that session are: "War time co-operation between contractors and the government." "The relations between organized labor and building contractors." "War time housing and building operations."

"Rural Industrial Insurance and medical aid systems." "Systems of Training to produce skilled mechanics." "All delegates are requested when purchasing railroad tickets to obtain ticket inspection, certification from 217, to qualify them for benefit of reduced rates."

The special report to the convention of the organization committee chairman (conspiring for weeks in eastern centers, and now in the national capital) is looked forward to, especially with reference to the prospective war requirements to be met by building contractors.

"Builders of the northwest it is only through organization and by taking earnest contact together that we can act in a fully intelligent, united and effective manner—that we can best adapt ourselves to the profound changes to be made in the building industry during war times, and render the best service to our country—then to ourselves."

Pro-Germans Against The Red Cross Drive

Chairman Doney Says Every Agency of the War will try to Intimidate the Work of Mercy.

BOISE, Idaho, May 15.—Every agency in Idaho that is pro-German in tendency, will attempt to interfere in one way or another with the Red Cross drive in this state...

German sympathizers realize that if they could control the labor of the Americans as to the Red Cross, they would have started the process of dividing the money for the Red Cross soldiers...

When we subscribe for war bonds, we make a good investment and a patriotic one. It is necessary that we take our share to help finance the war...

The soldier boy who is in France, or who is being prepared to go, wants to know not only about food and ammunition but about the care he will receive...

If the German propaganda being circulated in various parts of this country, and in Idaho, should affect adversely the coming Red Cross drive, it would cause a serious loss of money...

There are numerous instances of the German propaganda against the Red Cross being circulated. Every one recalls the false sweater yarn...

Of course, this propaganda will fall. The people of Idaho, and of the entire nation, will respond generously and so promptly to this call for financial aid...

Idaho is asked to subscribe $300,000.00 of the One Hundred Million Dollars desired to be raised in the nation...

The Idaho drive will start Monday, and continue one week. The state's quota of $300,000.00 will be divided among the counties and the share of this county is $21,000.

SCOREBOARD REFLECTIONS

Jack Volock. (I. N. S. Sports Editor.) Little Tragedies. A rookie pitcher sauntered to the mound. Said he, "This is the softest thing I've found."

Johnny Lavan' booted a game away for Washington, giving Cleveland the deciding runs.

Red Fisher outplayed Scott Perry, hitting the Athletics but three hits. The two used to be rivals in the Western League.

Joe Rodriguez, Cuban ally of the Giants, who has been rubbing for Doyle, poked out a triple that gave New York a victory over Pittsburgh.

The two Mages, Leo and Sherwood went on a hitting spree in Cincinnati, much to the discomfort of the Dodgers.

Old Gray Cavalry's double in the eighth inning won a seven run contest for the Phils at St. Louis. They said Garry was through.

Phillings filled the Cubs full of grief when he applied the alkaline muck, letting them down with six hits and winning for Boston.

George Whitted and Pickles Dilbeck of the Phils have joined the army and will leave the club next Monday.

King Lear may be popular in fiction but he could not make good with the Cubs, who have released him to Toronto.

Willie Welser, holdout outfielder of the Cardinals, has been purchased by the Cubs.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Lee Magee, who has been shifted from pitcher to first in the major leagues during the last three years, has come into his own at last as a member of the Cincinnati Reds.

Playing in the uniform of the team which represents his own home city for the first time since he broke into baseball, Magee is rated today as one of the most valuable members of the Brooklyn Matrons' team.

His fielding at second base, for the Reds this year has been consistent, even sensational, but the outstanding feature of his play has been his chronic in-and-outers in his timely hitting.

The latest averages show Magee hitting better than .280 and he gives promises of ranking with the "300 boys" by the time the season ends.

Magee has played with the Cardinals, Yankees and Browns and he was one of the stars of the Federal League, who brought a big price when the Brooklyn Dodgers bought him from the Braves. But there is nothing flashy in his work this year, for he is doing much as any other member of Matthewson's club to keep the Reds in the running for a commanding position among the pennant contenders of the National League.
