WASHINGTON, May 22.—Holland does not consider that the United States is satisfactorily justified in the seizure of the Dutch ships which were taken over in American ports and now are in the American transport service.

TORNADO IN WISCONSIN. MADISON, Wis., May 22.—Five were killed and 30 were injured, a number of whom are expected to die, when the village of Lone Rock, 40 miles west of Madison, was partially wiped out by a tornado Tuesday night.

Both Sides Claim a Victory in Senate

SENATE AUTHORIZES A SWEEPING INVESTIGATION. WASHINGTON, May 22.—After two weeks of parliamentary maneuvering the senate today in a 50-40 vote reached a semblance of settlement in the Chamberlain resolution and authorized a sweeping investigation into inquiry into the air craft situation.

Resolved that any expenses incurred by the committee in connection with the administration of the affairs under the provisions of senate resolution 48, heretofore adopted, including the expenditure of employing assistants and traveling expenses shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the senate.

Last Effort to Get Telegraph Peace Made

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The national telegraph union will make a final effort today to obtain from the telegraph companies full consent to submit the grievances of the commercial telegraph to the adjustment machinery of the board. After sitting in executive session for an entire day, the union today announced that no results had been reached and that they were still mediating.

BETHUNE FILLED WITH POISON GAS BY THE GERMAN ARTILLERY

Town Appears to Be Objective to Be Sought By the Next Drive—Real Intentions of Teutons Yet Unknown—Raids of Allies Prove Successful—Boches Surprised at the Number of Allies Confident But Under Nervous Tension.

Evil since Monday morning German artillery has been directing the district indicated by Bethune with a tempest of gas shells. The area is being saturated with poison.

Official reports issued by the British war office both today and yesterday dwell upon the violence of the bombardment. Bethune lies on the southern end of the Flanders battle front and is one of the local objectives of the Germans in their attempted sweep to the channel.

So far as can be judged by the varying indications in the great battle the Germans may be making preparations for a new drive in the direction of Bethune. They have previously attempted to storm the British defenses of the town, but their attacks all broke down.

Another element in the war situation which is coming to light is that the German high command is becoming alarmed over the growing numbers of Americans that are taking their place on the front. Every one in a while the boys in khaki bob up in some unexpected place along the battle line and the Germans are surprised by finding themselves opposite sons of the great westward republic.

Henry C. Wales, (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent). TWIN FALLS, Idaho, May 22.—The Russian front has been quiet since the beginning of the war. Since the lines were solidified on the Pliardy and Flanders fronts, the allies have scored numerous minor successes, particularly in retreating their gas.

County Far Exceeds The Quota Requested

Total Will Probably Exceed $100,000. Twin Falls has Over $145,000—Much Doubles Quota. Unceasing lies the head that wears a lion's helmet. If the American manufacturer can get a shot at it, as the condition of the German helmet on the Red Cross page indicated this morning, three bullets from unknown riflemen had gone through it.

The first day of the second Red Cross drive was a tremendous success. All seemed to fully appreciate the worthlessness of the cause and all gave freely and willingly. The only regret being that they could not give more.

Up to noon today the total amount collected for Twin Falls districts was $145,000. Although the second drive was scheduled to continue through the week, it will close in this section tonight.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Reports of contributions to the second war drive by the American Red Cross received at the national headquarters today indicated that far more than the desired $100,000,000 had been secured.

LIEUT. TAYLOR CHASED BOGHE TWELVE MILES BACK OF LINES.

Two-Other's in The Ozone. Patrol Battles at Several Points Result in Victory For Our Boys In Every Instance Where Mixing Took Place.

NEWTON C. PARK, (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent). WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, May 22.—Lieutenant William H. Taylor of New York, early today shot down a German two-seater machine over the German lines after the enemy had been driven off the front.

Patrol Battles at Several Points Result in Victory For Our Boys In Every Instance Where Mixing Took Place. One of them died in a hurry. The other went tumbling down-four thousand feet straight into the ground and spun madly his escape.

Another extraordinary active patroling last night, both in the Toul and Lunville sectors. In the Toul sector one of our patrol southwest of Apremont established contact with the enemy.

Another patrol north of Apremont hit the cable which the Germans used to charge their barbed wire out of the front.

In the Lunville sector one of our patrols consisting of an officer and seven men met an enemy patrol of six men. A sharp fight resulted. The enemy took refuge in an old trench, but the Americans attacked vigorously.

The artillery activity on the Lunville sector is slightly above normal. The enemy has been driven off the front. A sharp fight resulted. The enemy took refuge in an old trench, but the Americans attacked vigorously.

Continued Knitting Encouraged by War Department, But All Such Articles Should Be Distributed by American Red Cross

Ebba Huber Church:
 WASHINGTON, May 22.—American women, the American Red Cross will take care of your knitting.
 Although there has been a ruling by the war department that no more "comfort packages" may be sent to France by parcel post, the Red Cross is still allowed to send whatever is needed for the comfort of the boys in the trenches. Moreover, the Red Cross will see to it that the comforts go where they are needed.
 You may feel certain that when your knitted efforts are turned over to the Red Cross, they will be placed in the hands of some soldier who needs them. Before the recent order of the War Department went into effect some of the boys over there were flooded with more comforts than they really needed by their friends. Bill Smith's mother knit him a muffler and sent it to him from the Iowa town, Kanakoo. Bill's sister, who was in Vassar, at Poughkeepsie, also sent him a muffler, and his girl, who was at Smith in Northampton, likewise knit a muffler and sent it to Bill. As a result of all of this kindliness, Bill was pretty nearly muffled to death in the trenches. This condition of affairs is not so when your knitting is distributed through the Red Cross.
 Be sure to knit what the Red Cross wants. Their representatives are in close touch with the boys at the front and know what they need. In the boys' need socks most the Red Cross will tell you so.
 Secretary of War Baker, in making a statement endorsing knitting as a year occupation for American women, said: "An apparent misunderstanding has arisen in some quarters regarding the attitude of the War Department toward the knitting of sweaters and comforters for our soldiers. The department has in no sense discouraged the furnishing of such garments through the American Red Cross, and is appreciative of the spirit which prompts American women to their knitting for the troops. It is true that a sweater is not included in the regular equipment of the army, and it is not regarded as an absolute essential garment. However, a knitted sweater is a garment of great serviceability and constitutes a welcome addition to a soldier's equipment when the soldier is in duty in the vigorous winter climate of France. While the department itself has not officially called upon any organization to supply sweaters, certain divisions of the army have made such requisitions and have been gratified that the supply was available. The work of the American women who desire to add this comfortable article to the clothing supplied the soldier by the war department is worthy of encouragement.

 So knitting may continue the chief summer sport for women and the American Red Cross will see that the knitted comforts reach the right place.
KANSAS G. A. B. YETTERANS MEET IN CHANUTE
 CHANUTE, Kan., May 21.—The thirty-seventh annual occupation, Kansas Department, Grand Army of the Republic, will open here this evening at the First Methodist church. Judge S. C. Brown, of Chanute, will deliver the address of welcome, and responses will be made by officers of the department and the auxiliaries.
 Tomorrow the annual camp fire will be held in Central Park Auditorium, with A. W. Smith, past commander of the department, as presiding officer. A series of fifteen minute talks by prominent citizens of the state is scheduled. Among them will be Governor Copper, Lieutenant Governor W. G. Morgan, former Governors George H. Hodges, W. R. Stubbs and W. J. Bailey, former Senator J. L. Crittwell and C. F. Scott, and Senators C. C. Curtis and W. H. Thompson.
 The department will raise $100 for the Southern Memorial Fund. The Iowa Post will present a petition asking that veterans of all wars be added to membership.

Defends LaFollette Before Committee

Wisconsin Lawyer Pleads for Senator and Repeats Story of Alleged Bryan Hoaxing

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Senator Robert M. LaFollette this afternoon called upon the senate privileges and elections committee to dismiss the charges of disloyalty against him by the Minnesota Public Safety Commission last October.
 The Wisconsin senator was not present in person at the committee meeting but was represented by his attorney, Gilbert E. Roe, of New York.
 Several piles of petitions, including many from Wisconsin, demanding Senator LaFollette's expulsion from the senate, lay before the committee during the hearing.
 "There never was a more baseless attack made upon the character and reputation of a public man than that made upon Senator LaFollette by the filing of the charges in question."
 "In a brief submitted to the committee, Mr. Roe said: "I respectfully submit that this honorable body should report such charges to be wholly unfounded."
 Mr. Roe asked the committee to take the affirmative action to exonerate Senator LaFollette and not to merely drop the case.
 "To pass over these baseless and wanton charges without appropriate action by the senate would not only be a great wrong to Senator LaFollette but to the public as well, and would furnish a vicious precedent from the evil consequences of which no senator in the country could be safe," Mr. Roe urged.
 Mr. Roe told the committee Senator LaFollette was prepared to submit detailed proof to back up the statement in his St. Paul speech that former Secretary of State Bryan, four days before the Lusitania sailed, warned the president that the ship was carrying six million rounds of ammunition besides other explosives and that the ship was in violation of the laws of the United States.
 Secretary Bryan, as is well known, resigned from the cabinet and went publicly as one of his reasons the fact that the president would not warn passengers not to travel upon munition laden ships, said Mr. Roe.

CLOSE-UPS IN SPORTSDOM

Allan Markley.
 (U. S. Staff Correspondent).
 NEW YORK, May 21.—There has been probably no call so common from the track to the stock farm for breeding purposes which will have greater value at a nursery than that of the famous Belmont's, which is a stamp of success, he will probably be of as much value to his owner there as in the stud.
 His sire, Negocio, one of the most successful of the younger generation of French sires, was a son of the richly bred Black, who in turn was a son of the great St. Simon and the world famous race horse Platane-terre, his dam, Kobrouze, was the daughter of Hoche and Nebulose.
 On the side of his dam, Hour Glass the French sire, who also had a priceless racing heritage. She was the daughter of Rock Sand, son of Santino and Requiebrado, and Huestoso, daughter of Belmont and Huet.
 Hourless began his career in this country as a two-year-old, winning the Juvenile Stakes at Belmont Park, leading field, among the victors, Black. When he ran unopposed in the Great American with Campfire, Irony, Blue, Tick and Home, which was a feat of him. He then lost to Tremont, Ticket and Star Gaze, and his Saratoga Special led again to Campfire and Tom McGarrig.
 His first accomplishment that season was winning the Grand Union Hotel Stakes, beating Irony by Tom McGarrig. In the Nursery he finished first but was disqualified with Straight Forward finishing close behind him. He then went to the other part of the season, winning several races of importance.
 As a three-year-old he conquered all the runners who had beaten him the year before and proved to be one of the sensations of the year.
 Finally came his great race when the two outstanding runners of the turf, Hourless and Omar Khayyam, met at Saratoga. His great race will live as long as the annals of racing are preserved by a turf-loving world.

Demanded Legal Test For the Sinn Feiners

London Paper Says They Should Be Proven Guilty in Regular Tribunal of Country
 LONDON, May 21.—The Star in a leading article on the Irish situation today said:
 "Public opinion, not only in Ireland, but in England and America as well, will demand."
 "1. That the complicity if the arrested Sinn Feiners in German plotting be legally tested."
 "2. If the guilt of all or any is established the due penalty will be imposed."
 "3. That those found not guilty be released."
 "An ex parte statement will not satisfy justice."
 The Star's article is seen as a move to force the government to a showdown as against the agitation in certain quarters that the Sinn Feiners whose complicity is proven be jailed without trial.

"SIDE DOOR PULLMAN"
 PASSENGERS DECREASING
 ALBANY, N. Y., May 21.—Uncle Sam is severe on Pullmans. As a result, railroad officials say there is a noticeable falling off in travel. In the good old days a "puller" by a railroad "hull" only meant a few days in jail and a few good meals. Now it is all different and the floating element of the population, the "hul" who prefers the "roads" to the "cushions" has strangely faded.

"A great net of mercy drawn through an ocean of unspeakable pain"

Women of America!

What's the worth of one baby's life?
 The time has come when you must put a money value on it.
 So much Red Cross money available, so many babies restored.
 A little less Red Cross money available, so many babies lost by default.
 It's as plain as that.
 When you made that first Red-Cross investment you had a fairly clear idea that there was plenty to be done and that the Red-Cross would make every dollar of money and every minute of time count.
 But have you now a clear picture of what price somebody will have to pay for one delayed dollar or a hundred dollars withheld?

You can't read a casual page of Red Cross-reports from anywhere "over there" without endangering the coolness of your decision as to "how much."
 Suppose you had found "another use" for your Red Cross money a while ago and a corresponding part of the piece of work described below went undone:

"Gas bombs were being used; 750 children suddenly thrust upon the Prefect's hand. Twenty-one of the children were infants under one year and the remainder were under eight years—herded together in an old barracks, dirty, practically unfurnished, and with no sanitary appliances. Sick children were crowded in with the well and skin disease and vermin abounded. Within two days the Red Cross workers had cleaned all the children, provided new barracks, provided medical care and nurses for the babies; secured suitable food and classified all the refugees to prevent the separation of members of the same family."

Was that money well spent?
 Were those babies worth while? Well, how much were they worth, per baby?
 They are the future of France---the hope and pledge of civilization. We are in their debt for what their fathers and mothers have paid already---in hunger, in cold, in mutilation, in slavery.

We shall pay up, too. Your first instalment was there in time---now how much?

torney, should not forget that it is quite immaterial how the question of veracity between himself and former Secretary, Bryan is settled... LaFollette charged that Bryan warned President Wilson before the Lusitania sailed that she carried munitions and that she was sailing in violation of certain statutes of the United States.

The sinking without warning of a passenger ship was murder when it resulted in the death of the passengers, regardless of whether some immaterial rule of port or civil statute of the United States had been broken or evaded.

Germany declined to acknowledge specifically that the sinking was a violation of international law on two grounds. One of these was that she was an auxiliary cruiser of Great Britain and was therefore not entitled to immunity such as a regular private trader would have been.

It will be recalled that a short time after the resignation of Secretary Bryan Germany announced that liners would not be sunk without warning, and that she offered to pay indemnities for the lives of Americans lost on board the Lusitania, though declining to admit in specific terms that the vessel was sunk illegally.

Any way war did not grow out of the Lusitania sinking. So that LaFollette's effort to hawk that into the case is an evidence of an effort to dodge the real issue.

"A great net of mercy drawn through an ocean of unspeakable pain"

YOUR Red Cross is an all-American, largely volunteer organization, authorized by Congress, headed by President Wilson, audited by the War Department, enthusiastically approved by your Army, your Navy, and your Allies.

The work covers both military and civilian relief in every war-torn Allied country and full reports of all expenditures are continually being published, or are available through the Chapters.

It stands beside our boys in training here or "over there."

It watches beside the pillows of battle-broken men, and offers rest and sympathy to war-torn fighters on brief respite from the front.

It carries food and clothing to hungered mothers and little ones in ruined villages.

It helps rebuild the scattered pile of brick and stone they once called "Home."

It brings back to the hopeless mother's arms her long-lost child.

It helps care for the orphans of the men who died that civilization might live.

It helps care for the thousands that have fallen prey to dread tuberculosis.

It nobly represents in deeds of mercy, relief, and restoration the more than twenty million members that have made its great work possible.

Will You Do Your Share to Keep This "Hand of Mercy" at Its Work?

Every cent of every dollar received for the Red Cross War Fund is spent for war relief. All administration costs, relief work for other than war purposes (such as the Halifax and Guatemala disasters) are taken care of out of membership dues, and the interest accruing from the banking of the War Fund has made available for war relief at least $1.02 for every $1 contributed.

CHILD GETS HEATED OVER WAR—COOLS OFF IN JAIL

PINE BLUFF, Ark., May 22.—August Child undercool to chill the efforts of the United States to help Germany. Now Child is cooling off in jail, waiting action of the Federal grand jury. Child, despised his worldly prosperity, remained loyal to the Fatherland and when the United States entered the war against Germany Child got busy. He is specifically charged with obstructing the draft, failing to register as an alien enemy and declaring publicly that the Germans would win the war and that within two years Americans would be living under German rule.

Giant Outfielders Bristle With Class

McGraw Has Trio Which Should Make Some Record If Held Together Until End of Season.

Jack Velock (I. N. S. Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, May 22.—The regular outfield trio of the champion Giants is one of the classiest combinations gotten together in the National League in years.

There are several outfielders in the blue which may stack up as more deadly with the bats, but for all-around baseball ability you have to go a long way to beat George Burns, Benny Kauff and Ross Young.

First of all, each of these players has a good many years of baseball ahead of him, and it McGraw is lucky to should hold on to his triplets for three or four years at the very least. Burns and Kauff were seasoned players when the season of 1918 opened. There was no doubt about their ability. But there was some doubt as to whether Ross Young could successfully fill the shoes left vacant by Dave Robertson. That doubt has been swept aside for Young has made good with a vengeance. He has made Polo Grounds fans forget Davoy.

I. W. W. Warned Each Other In Trouble

Letter Written to Bill Haywood Revealed Methods—The Term "Wooden Shoes" Meant Sabotage

CHICAGO, May 21.—To show how the I. W. W. kept its ear close to the ground and watched closely the movements of their lieutenants and how they got into the meshes of the law they were warned, excerpts from a letter written to "Big Bill" Haywood was read today by the government in its prosecution of 112 members of the organization charged with sabotage and violation of espionage laws. The letter read was written by Charles Schultz, August 24, 1916, and was a copy of a copy by or about Arthur Dose, G. J. Dourge and Ted Fraser, who are among the defendants.

The excerpt of warning reads: "Just a few lines to let you know the authorities are on a sharp lookout for you and watch out for you. You have been seen in judgment against him for taking part in the murder of Myron and an ending you a clipping re that if you know in Chicago you can warn him. Several of the rebels in Duluth, members and non-members think that if Dose is brought here to face the charge it will be detrimental to those already in jail.

"Millarism and war is upon us," Dose wrote to Haywood July 10, 1916. "We have watched the frightfulness in Europe and know what is in store for America. Especially those like you who are at the head of militant organizations are firmly convinced that many of them will fight for a better world to live in regardless of consequences."

Under date of February 23, 1917, Bourge wrote Haywood asking "For any fellow workers in Chicago who wears wooden shoes," to help him with a strike. "Wooden shoes" means abstinence to the I. W. W.

AMERICANS DEMANDS GOOD TREATMENT FOR PRISONERS

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The American government, addressing Germany through the Spanish embassy at Berlin, has asked the kaiser's government if it will permit German representatives to meet American representatives at Berne, Switzerland, to discuss the treatment of prisoners of war. The British, French and Italian governments have already held such conferences with the enemy with the result that better treatment of captives was brought about. It was announced by the state department into this afternoon. Strong representations by the government have brought about marked improvement, it is stated, after being presented through the Spanish embassy, but it is believed they could be bettered by conference.

PARK SPOONING OKAY, SAYS CLEVELAND CHIEF, IF CONFINED TO BENCHES

CLEVELAND, May 22.—If the cops in your town won't let you spoon in the parks, come over to Cleveland. It is all fixed here and Cupid has the key to all park gates. Cupid (that is, Chief of Police Smith) says the police will not bother lovers in Cleveland parks if they do not annoy other park visitors. Rowdies and others will not be allowed to "spoo" them with flash lights or embarrass them in any other way. Smith orders, under pain of arrest. But the chief also advises the loving ones to stick to the park benches for their spooning. Instead of searching out the real dark spots, as the benches are secluded enough for loving and the amount of disturbance is less in the open than in the secluded spots, the chief opines.

Lumber and Coal. Twin Falls, Idaho

Hail is H

When your crop is devastated and you did not carry hail insurance! What would you do about those obligations you have to meet if your crops were wiped out by hail?

You never before had so much invested in your crop and you never had such urgent demands on you for money. Where would it come from if you were left out? Each a loss, this year would mean financial ruin to many.

You can not afford to take the chance. Think it over and then come in and insure your wheat, beans, etc., before it is too late. Landlord or tenant can insure a share of crop and pay insurance only on the part insured.

"A great net of mercy draws through an ocean of unspeakable pain."

THERE is only one way to give to the Red Cross—give till your heart says stop. A little contribution is only a salve to pride.

This is not to say that contributions of only one dollar, or even of only one nickel, are not desired—and needed.

For you to give $5 when you can give $25—-for you to give $25 when you can give $100, or to give $100 when you can give $500—-is to dodge the heaviest obligation that this war has laid upon you.

For remember, this is not a charity.—this is a duty.

This is not a time to give because others give. This is a time to give because others need.

No man can tell you how much you ought to give. Except this: that "Over There" the need is so great that only by cutting to the quick, only by giving—all that you think you can give and then more—only by giving not a little of your excess but much of it—only by taking from your own children and from your wife and from yourself, can the needs of the men who are fighting for you and the needs of the children of the men who have died for you be met.

Ask your own soul how much it should be!

Every cent of every dollar received for the Red Cross War Fund goes for War Relief.

The American Red Cross is the largest and most efficient organization for the relief of suffering that the World has ever seen.

It is made up almost entirely of volunteer workers, the higher executives being without exception men accustomed to large affairs, who are in almost all cases giving their services without pay.

It is supported entirely by its membership fees and by voluntary contributions.

It is today bringing relief to suffering humanity, both military and civil, in every War-torn allied country.

It plans tomorrow to help in the work of restoration throughout the world.

It feeds and clothes entire populations in times of great calamity.

It is there to help your soldier boy in his time of need.

With its thousands of workers, its tremendous stores and smooth running transportation facilities, it is serving as America's advance guard—and thus helping to win the war.

Congress authorizes it.

President Wilson backs it.

The War Department audits its accounts.

Your Army, your Navy and your Allies enthusiastically endorse it.

Twenty-two million Americans have joined it.

"A great net of mercy drawn through an ocean of unspeakable pain"

OUT of the bleeding heart of Europe there comes a cry heard above the moan of the broken body racked with pain. The Soul of Freedom, at bay with Death, cries out to save Liberty for the race of men.

It is your Liberty, your nation's freedom, your children's birthright, that is fighting for its life.

All that life holds for you as an American is at stake in this war, and you must fight for it to the utmost limits of your power.

We cannot all be in the trenches, but every one of us can—and must—sustain those who are.

Not as an act of mercy, but as an act of war—as a Soldier of the Nation—help the Red Cross heal, support, cheer our Soldiers and Sailors of Liberty that they may fight the sooner, the harder, the longer in this Holy War.

Give to the Red Cross every dollar, every cent that you possibly can—give till your heart says stop.

Every cent of every dollar received for the Red Cross War Fund goes for War Relief.
