U-BOATS SUNK BY LINER ON WAY ACROSS

THRILLING EXPERIENCE REPORTED BY PASSENGERS ARRIVING TODAY... Attacked On Starting From Europe... First Bombable Sent to Bottom by Destroyer—Last Was Shot Up by the Guns of the Merchant Ship Itself.

Fred J. Wilson (General Manager I. N. S.)... AN ATLANTIC PORT, June 11.—Certain destruction of one German submarine and the possible sinking of two more allied destroyers extending her was reported by the captain of a big liner, which reached this port today after a voyage crowded with events as thrilling as any met with on the high seas.

The U-boat barely accounted for by gunfire from a liner after an attempt to ram the latter... Naval regulations forbid banning the ship which sunk the liner.

When our liner—with several other large steamers left its home port for America, it was evident that the trouble from U-boats was expected.

The liner went down again. Later we learned that the rear most destroyer on the port side had sighted a periscope, hoisted the danger signal.

Officers of the liner, were all confident that one U-boat would murder us before it could destroy us.

With the break of the day the high fog was blown away, and then it was seen that the liner was being attacked.

Instantly every gun on the bridge was turned on the "something," and each pair of eyes tried to make out the outline of the vessel.

"Something ahead, two points on starboard," was the first cry.

I LOOKED FOR... BUT NONE THERE

W. Wolf G. Parks, (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)... THE AMERICAN ARMY... I was on the boat...

The other night a squad of ten men entered the German first line trench and prowled around without finding a soul.

SENDS MESSAGE TO THE ANNUAL CONVENTION IN ST. PAUL

WASHINGTON, June 11.—High tribute to the manner in which the American workmen are backing up the soldiers on the battle line was expressed by President Wilson in a telegram to Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

The message conveys to the thirty-eighth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor its congratulations upon the patriotic support which the members of your organization have given to the war program.

Transport Whips Three Submarines in Battle... Captured Crew of One, Crippled Another and Drove Off Third—Won Second Light Later

AN ATLANTIC PORT, June 11.—News was brought here today of a battle victory scored over German U-boats by a United States transport on May 30—a grand Memorial day celebration.

STERN RESISTANCE MEETS GERMANS IN EFFORTS TO BREAK THROUGH

French Army Retires Slightly on the Oise and Takes Position Near Ribcourt to West and Southwest—Fighting Now More Violent That at Any Previous Time Since Great Drive Began—Tentons Waste Men Lavishly in Effort to Crush Resistance—Only Small Engagements on Aisne and Marne Fronts or in Flanders.

(By Frank Charlton, I. N. S. Cable Editor)... The Germans have intensified their efforts to break through on the twenty-one mile front south of Noyon and Montdidier, but are meeting with stern resistance everywhere.

Not only have the French recaptured Mery (between ten and eleven miles northwest of Compiègne) but they hurled the German back from the Aronde river and bringing their line south of Belloy through St. Manr and south of Marquennes.

By concentrating tremendous pressure with reserves against the French center the crown prince's army was able to press the French back to the Aronde river, but before the Germans could organize their gain, the French launched a swift counter assault which hurled the Germans back.

On the right wing of the fighting front, where it lies astride of the Oise river, the Germans threw every available reserve into the combat, striking at the French positions with terrific force.

Ernest P. Orr, (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)... PARIS, June 11.—French troops in a dashing counter attack have recaptured Mery from the Germans on the Montdidier front where the latest German offensive is under way.

The Germans continued their furious assaults all along the line last night but met with sturdy resistance everywhere.

Further west the French positions extend along the line south of Belloy, St. Manr and Marquennes. (The Aronde river flows into the Oise a mile and a half north of Compiègne.)

PARIS, June 11.—The fourth German offensive, which began on Sunday along 21 miles of front between Noyon and Montdidier, is proving a costly failure.

The fighting field is piled high with corpses and the trenches are level with the ground with corpses.

FRENCH WORRIED BY TERRIFIC HUN DRIVE

Gordon Knox, I. N. S. Special Correspondent... WITH THE FRENCH ARMY, June 11.—The German offensive is continuing energetically and further occupation of French soil is contemplated with some anxiety.

WORKER WARNED AGAINST HASTY STRIKE IN WAR

President Wilson Urges Co-operation During Conflict... Declares Government Has Set Up Instrumentalities Fair and Adequate For the Adjustment of Differences of Opinion.

Considered Interruption Is Opposed.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Solomon warning that the "war can be lost in America as well as on the fields of France" was voiced by President Wilson today in a telegram to the American alliance for Labor and Democracy now in session at St. Paul.

"No controversy between capital and labor should be suffered to interrupt it until every instrumentalities set up by the government for amicable settlement has been employed and its efficiency has been tested to the utmost."

The test of the telegram, which was addressed to Robert M. La Follette as follows:

"The American Alliance for Labor and Democracy has my earnest hope for a successful convention that will give added strength to future activity."

"The war can be lost in America as well as on the fields of France, and ill-considered and unjustified interruptions of essential labor of the country may make it impossible to win it."

Effort to Kill Lenin Report From Moscow... Driver of Car Is Fatally Hurt—Pro-Car Movement Is Progressing Among Muscovites.

LONDON, June 11.—Another attempt has been made to assassinate Nicholas Lenin, the Bolshevik reformer of Russia, according to information received here today.

LONDON, June 11.—Another attempt has been made to assassinate Nicholas Lenin, the Bolshevik reformer of Russia, according to information received here today.

AMERICANS IN BELEAU WOODS EXTEND GAINS

CAPTURE LARGE PIECES OF ARTILLERY AND SOME MACHINE GUNS

Our Boys Have Fought Themselves Into the Confidence of the French and Are Getting Loud Praise In All Quarters.

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)... WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY AT THIS MAIN, June 11.—The United States marines the Devil hounds as the Germans have come to call them, on account of their fierce fighting qualities, have again extended their gains northward.

The success was gained by the first attack made by the marines. The attack was delivered at four o'clock Monday morning.

The Americans had to advance through heavy artillery fire and the Germans sprinkled the fighting field liberally with shells.

On June 6, they made an attack, capturing several German machine guns. This is the second time this month that the Americans have captured a single hand-held a dozen straggling German prisoners.

Newton C. Parke (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)... WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, June 10.—The American army has fought its way into the confidence of the French.

"The French and English, while published before, have been confident they were 'wanted to be shown.'"

There the test came at the Marne. There the Americans (some of whom had never before) won a victory that the rest of the world had never seen.

The attempt was made on June 2. It was stated that the pro-car movement is spreading fast in Russia.

It is assumed that the attempt on Lenin's life was made in Moscow, which city the seat of the Bolshevik government was moved some months ago.

Sergeant Lloyd James Tels of Peeling and Shows Anxiously to Be in the Fight

Dear Mother:
I received your letter of April 11 and was glad to hear from home again. It came quicker than usual. Today is mothers' day for the U. S. soldiers, and everyone is expected to write to his mother. I am sure they will all write to their mothers. It's sure a fine idea to set aside a day for that purpose. There will be a mooding this afternoon and the chaplain will speak to us and also a program all about mother, so you see we do not forget our mothers if we are a long way from home, and the same is true of father and the rest of the family. The weather is fine, only rained one day this week. The sun shines most all the time, and if it begins to look like summer here, I mailed you another copy of the Stars and Stripes and hope you get it. For you see more in it than I can write. I hear that sailor will soon be home with you. It will sure be fine to have her home after seven years of absence. Tell Earle to write to me and tell me what branch of the service he is in. I hope he will like the army. I wish he could be in the camp. I may be able to see him when he gets over here.

It would be fine to meet your brother in a foreign country. Jack Knight and Paul Harmon are in Co. L of the 15th Infantry. I hear from Paul quite often. I guess you got a letter that I wrote to my girl. I don't know how much that is, mine or the censor. It's likely to happen any time. I see the news that the Liberty Loan was over subscribed and that everyone in the U. S. is out to win. That's something good to us boys. Well, mother, you would be surprised to know how fast the time flies over here. It does not seem like I have been here more than four months. We have had to make to take part in the fight yet, but we are sure ready at any moment. Have been training New York men for six weeks. I believe I have written all I can think of this time. With love to all.

USEFUL VACATIONS
(V. G. Backman)

It is time now for men and women who can possibly arrange to do so, to choose employing clerks who are putting in extra hours getting stuck on the shelves and overworking in readiness for the hay-making and mowing season, so that their clerks can get out on the farms and fewer will be needed to handle the trade during the rush.

While the stronger men of the community are working on the farms at the heavier labor, such as plowing and mowing, the younger generation can be doing its share to the great enterprise by taking hold of the weeding and hoeing, which would otherwise keep many of the stronger men out of the hay field. Boys can irrigate, too.

Women can take a great part in this emergency, by tending to the home gardens and the many lighter chores which would otherwise take up much of the men's time. The men can then spend more time in the field. It should be remembered from the start that this will be no season of eight hour days. Men should expect and be glad to work as many hours as necessary to save the crops and serve the boys in France.

Churches all over the land can help with the crops. Their preachers could preach immediately an opportunity to get out in the open for a few weeks or a month. Congregations can spare him from excessive pastoral duties and arrange some sessions for the summer while he serves his country and the needs of the world in the harvest field. This is especially true of rural churches, whose congregations never come to church in the summer time anyway.

Every man or woman or boy or girl who can and has the opportunity should lend their aid toward putting up the crops. The mountains and the streams with their sparkling trout are always a great temptation, but we imagine they will find a good deal in the peace of their usefulness this year. For people are going to spend their vacations in usefulness.

Runaway Team Hurts Boy In Kimberly
(Hickens in Town Felled by Approaching the Eclipse—Theatre Has No Play)

Thursday evening the team driven by Ralph Steelsmith and his brother to the city at the home of Jay Scott, "mildly frightened at the" baloon bar and ran away dragging the buggy for a short distance, badly mauling it, and slightly injuring one of the boys. The accident occurred just outside the Scott yard, when the team attempted to pass the buggy driven by Miss Hazel Wood.

Many people could be seen trying on the front porch lawn last Saturday afternoon peering into the heavens through smoked glasses of various descriptions. The boys and girls, most thought, however that Brother Sol did a mighty job of catching. They expected the chickens to go to roost. Some were disappointed because they did not for we saw them around the hen house about that time.

The Star theatre has installed a fine piano player in place of the old type of instrument which they formerly used. Mrs. Hamlin helped install the new one and now says she enjoys playing the records.

BRINGING UP FATHER :: :: By George McManus

THE DAILY TWIN FALLS TIMES

Published Every Day Except Sunday by the TIMBS PRINTING & PUBLISHING COMPANY Twin Falls, Idaho. News of the World to the Hour L. Langley, General Manager J. B. Whelan, Associate Editor

Entered at the Twin Falls postoffice as second class matter as a daily publication, April 11, 1916.

The TIMES is an independent Democratic newspaper. It knows no politics as opposed to the most united and vigorous prosecution of the war that is possible. Therefore, it is not a party man, Democrat or Republican, caught throwing hardware into the machinery—either with his hands or with his mouth. If this be "partisan," make the most of it.

PATRIOTIC DISCRETION

The present is a time when all usual rules of action are at a discount. It is well known that our country, even including a rural and isolated settlement community like this one, is permeated by enemy propaganda and propagandists. This in itself is calculated to create an atmosphere of suspicion and distrust; and when there is added to this inconsiderate, carelessly made and almost universally directed, accusations of disloyalty, the situation becomes deplorably bad.

goes around with a list of decided cases written indelicately on his memory the query seems a poser, and part of the audience get the impression that the courts, right or wrong, are always on the side of the big interests. Some courts have been, it is true, and perhaps some are yet, but the proportion of judges who are corruptible is not greater than the proportion of men susceptible to improper influences in any other honorable occupation. The fellow who wins always claims that he won on his merits. The loser always says the thing was unfairly decided on a technicality. You never hear a man say he won a law suit on a technicality.

CAUSE FOR CONGRATULATION

The Democrats of Oregon are to be congratulated on the reputation of Chairman Chamberlain of the senate military committee at the primaries. Former Governor Oswald West, a protégé of Chamberlain, is said to have rejected the leadership of his former chief and thereby won the nomination for the short term senatorship. W. H. Hornbrook, at one time a Twin Falls editor and Idaho state senator, and more recently minister to Spain, won hands down as administration candidate for national committeeman. Both beat Chamberlain men.

Among those who journeyed to Hazelton for the eclipse are: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bouton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitfield and daughter Edwyna, J. E. Pothman and family. The Pratt house vacated by Mr. Gray, will be occupied by Mrs. R. E. Weaver and family.

Mr. G. W. James motored to Twin Falls Thursday evening for the purpose of bringing back his family, who have been visiting there for a couple of days.

The efforts of the base ball team to raise money by canvassing are in every way a success. The boys are working hard for the championship of Twin Falls county and look to us for assistance. Though the championship this year is a small matter, because many towns have no teams representing them, yet it requires work on the part of the team to win from those teams that are in the field.

Mr. W. F. Klumaver motored to Twin Falls Thursday evening.

DECIDED FOR NATION

Yesterday afternoon the supreme court of the United States handed down a decision involving valuable mineral lands in Colorado claimed by the Exploration company, a corporation, in which the title was held to vest in the United States. This is only one of the many cases in which the highest court in the country has decided cases against capital and for the people. It is a common practice for a soap box orator to ask a question like this: "Can you name a case where a court decided a case for the people against capital?" As nobody

Since taking it, I didn't feel much benefit from my first bottle, but by the time my second bottle was gone I felt a general improvement. My appetite picked up and since that time I have had no more pain or smothering spells.

Good Out of the Great Conflict

Professor Says Increase in Variety of Foods Used is a Good By-product of War

This great war, with all of its attendant horrors, will have done some good if it increases the variety of food of the American people, according to the school of home economics of the Utah agricultural college, who are very insistently the need for a greater number of dishes in our daily eating.

Don't think that wheat bread is the only kind of cereal food. The government asks us to save wheat to send abroad to our soldiers and the allies. Let the North try the Southern corn bread and the South the oatmeal of the North.

On that day you will be asked to sign a personal pledge to buy WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

War Savings Stamps are a direct loan from you to Uncle Sam. Nothing can lessen their value. They're always at par. Keep his clips full of cartridges. And shoes on his feet. See that he has a "tin hat."

Get ready to sign your Pledge of Patriotism on National War Savings Day. And buy W. S. S. until you wonder how you were able to do it.

You'll pay $4.17 for each W. S. S. on June 28th—and you'll get $5 for each of them.

Clover and Alfalfa Aphids Is a Menace

Farm Bureau Issues Warning to Fight Pest

Declaring that a large part of the clover and alfalfa crops of Twin Falls tract are threatened by clover aphid, warning grass raisers and stock raisers that if they think they haven't the aphids, to pull down the leaves at the side and find them and telling how they hurt seed, the Twin Falls county farm bureau has issued a call to farmers to help fight the evil.

As soon as the clover heads begin to open, the aphid crawls in among the little flowers where the seeds are forming. Here they feed and reproduce, and fill the head with "honey dew." The aphid injures the clover: (1) by sucking out the vital juices of the plant, thus stunting its growth and preventing the formation of normal seed; (2) the mature clover head becomes saturated with honey dew so that the seed cannot be removed by the harrow, while the seed that may be obtained sticks together as though it were gum.

How to save this year's seed crop—It is absolutely necessary to clip red clover for hay. Put off clippings as late as possible, not earlier than the 20th of June, and July first would be still better.

As soon as the hay has been removed, and on a hot, bright, sunshiny day, go over the field with a spike-tooth harrow or a light, light, sunshiny day, go over the field with a spike-tooth harrow or a light, light, sunshiny day, go over the field with a spike-tooth harrow or a light, light, sunshiny day.

drag. Allow another day to elapse before turning on the water.

Aphids is much more difficult to handle than red clover because it grows more densely and the stems spread out on the ground. Thus so much is left by the mowing machine that the aphid find considerable protection from the heat of the sun.

Flooding Where fields can be flooded, all of the aphid may be destroyed. Immediately after removing the hay turn on enough water to completely submerge all of the stubble. Keep the stubble covered for at least 30 hours.

Remember—There is danger of infection. All clover, along roads, slides, fence rows, irrigation ditches, and old clover stands in orchards is infested with aphids. Such clover must be plowed under or grazed into the ground with sheep before the seed crop begins growth.

ARRESTED FOR ARSON

ST. LOUIS, June 10.—William B. Whitford and his wife Mary are being held here today following their arrest yesterday charged with being leaders of an arson gang that has burned scores of buildings in this city. St. Louis county, Kansas City, and East St. Louis, Ill. Both refused to make any statement as to their arrest. Detective Sergeant E. J. Doyle of this city, one of the officers who made the arrest, stated that at least forty-four fires in this city and vicinity during the past five years could be traced to the alleged arson gang of which Whitford is said to be the leader.
