Strict Quarantine Regulations Successful in Scarlet Epidemic

A threatened epidemic of scarlet fever in Twin Falls county was halted when new and more strict quarantine and program regulations were put into effect, it was revealed Tuesday by Dr. James W. Hawkins, director of the Twin Falls health unit.

When the measures were first put into effect about October 18 at a average of 19 new cases of the disease were being reported each week, Dr. Hawkins said. The health regulations were put into effect, it was revealed Tuesday by Dr. James W. Hawkins, director of the Twin Falls health unit.

RUPERT JAYCEES TO ASSIST UNFORTUNATES

RUPERT, Dec. 8.—Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce is now in the midst of a campaign to assure that the more unfortunate children of the community are not forgotten this Christmas.

The program was inaugurated here the latter part of last week when, with the co-operation of the city manager, manager of the Wilson theater, a picture show was featured for the youngsters of the county. Children under the age of 12 were admitted upon the receipt of any respectable toy.

With the combined co-operation of the Boy Scouts and high school shop classes these toys will be repaired and distributed. To obtain material necessary for the renovating of the toys, the local jaycees have installed bottles in business places downtown in which the general public can chip in with their individual donations by way of helping out the cause.

REDUCTION SHOWN IN FREIGHT AT RUPERT

RUPERT, Dec. 8.—Freight levied on the Rupert yards during the month of November past was 44 cents less than freight levied during the corresponding period a year ago.

A total of 41 cars of freight were shipped out of the local yards during the month of November, 1935. This included 23 cars of alfalfa, two cars of beans, 138 cars of potatoes, two cars of cattle, seven cars of sheep, 129 cars of hogs, and 10 cars of wheat.

Freight levied upon Rupert during the month of November, 1935, totaled 23 cents less than the same month of 1934. Contributing factors are poor average loads in rural districts and influx of transients.

One case of epidemic meningitis developed two weeks ago but the patient was immediately put under observation and no new cases have been reported.

Because of the severity of the reactions observed during the immunization and because of the consensus among many outstanding pediatricians that immunization proceeds only against the disease, the public health department does not advocate this form of scarlet fever immunization as a public health procedure, Dr. Hawkins said.

By the last of December the unit will have completed the immunization of 100 school children for small pox and diphtheria.

RUPERT-PAUL FACTORY CLOSES 1936 SEASON

RUPERT, Dec. 8 - Nearly 200 men will be laid off here today as the Rupert-Paul sugar factory wound up its 1936 beet-grinding campaign.

According to an announcement made here last week, the local plants close its run for a successful season, during which time the Rupert-Paul refinery ground a total of 80,000 tons of sugar beets.

Checks to the amount of nearly $30,000 to growers on the Minidoka project were sent out more than a week ago as the initial payment for beets received during the month of November.

Employing about 200 men throughout the grinding campaign, all but a hand full of year-round factory attendants will be laid off at this time.

"ALL-BRAN KEEPS ME IN SHAPE EVERY DAY"

"When I had eaten a heavy breakfast, I would feel lousy. After a couple of days of this, I would have to take a laxative."

"One morning I had a dish of ALL-BRAN. Believe me, it beats any laxative, as it keeps me in shape every day." - Wm. C. Billings, 1330 17th St., Denver, Colorado.

Why not try it a few days, when a delicious cereal will make you feel so good? Because ALL-BRAN has "bulk" which absorbs moisture within the body. Then gently sponges out your system, wipes away the irritations, - the "blues," the headaches.

Scientific tests prove this natural food is with a more effective - works better than taking patent medicines. ALL-BRAN is guaranteed. Take it a week. If not satisfactory, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company.

Serve as a cereal or use in cooking. ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamins B and iron. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

ARTIST SUES FOR $100,000 DAMAGES

Accused of Making Love to Almee, Temple Worker Charges Slender

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 8 (AP)—A secular artist, Ernest Thomas Zado, plunged into the temple today, charging that Rieba Crawford, 30, had seduced him and accused him of making love to Almee Temple McPherson.

Zado, who bills his profession as Angelus temple, filed suit for $100,000 damages from the one-lime "mad broadway."

Artist Disgraced — Miss Crawford said this, Zado charged, to Willet Andrews, attorney for Mrs. McPherson who filed the slander suit today. The statement, with others, Zado complained, was false and maliciously defamed, disgraced and ruined him and made him the object of hatred, contempt and ridicule.

Helps END A COLD Quicker

The 3-Minute VapoRub Massage

Massage VapoRub briskly on the chest, throat and back (between and below the shoulder blades). Then spread it thick over the chest and cover with warm cloth.

Almost before you finish rubbing, VapoRub starts to bring relief two ways at once—two direct ways:

1. Through the Skin. VapoRub acts direct through the skin like a powerful anesthetic.
2. Medicating Vapors. At the same time, its medicated vapors, released by body heat, are breathed in for hours—about 18 times a minute—direct to the inflamed air-passages of the nose, throat and chest.

This combined poultice-and-vapor action loosens phlegm—relieves irritation—helps break congestion.

Chapter 22
Supper In The Garden

It was mid-afternoon before Sally found time to rest a moment. She remembered then that she had eaten no lunch and that she had had only coffee for breakfast. Although she wanted no food, she felt weak and shaky. She had decided to go out for a sandwich when Philip Page rang the bell from the office. Sally got her pencil and knocked at his door.

"Do you see letters?" he inquired, without looking at her.

Sally seated herself beside him and began to look at the mail. Philip spoke rapidly but seldom asked to have anything changed. When she was through and Sally had risen to go, he called her back.

"Wait just a minute, Miss Warren," Sally agreed obediently. She was wondering how much longer she could stand up without something to hold her. Her knees felt weak and there was a light that seemed to dance before her eyes.

"Do you mind telling me just why you took Mary-Morris to the McDonald's house?" Philip was saying.

"Why, no, I don't mind telling you," she said. "I was angry with her about that. Then to be so ungrateful. I wanted to give Mrs. McDonald some more work and, more than that, I wanted to see some of the terrible houses her father owned. I wanted her to see why it is you're so incensed in my leaving her father."

"You think that will help us," demanded Philip. "Do you think Mary-Morris will be willing to fight for decent houses for her father's tenants?"

"I don't know," Sally's voice sounded to her as if it belonged to someone else. She made a stumby effort to reach her chair. Philip got up and stepped her, put her into the chair, and left hastily. She closed her eyes again when she was with a glass of water.

"What's the matter, Sally?"

"Nothing, I'm all right in a minute. Sorry to interrupt you."

"You trouble at all. You're looking very pale. As soon as you get up to the shop downstairs, take some rest."

Sally did not want to go home, but she felt that she must. She slipped on and put her into the car. She could walk, but she was none too steady on her feet. She turned to the open window of the car and let the breeze blow on her face. Suddenly she knew that she could not go home with her car and face her family.

"Please don't take my home," she said. "I can't think of any place to go, but I can't go home."

"All right," said Philip. "Suppose we drive for a little while."

Confession To Philip

Sally decided, afterwards, that nothing of all that meeting day was so remarkable as Philip Page's silence as he drove her far into the country so that she could recover from the faint she had so nearly had in his office.

Two feet in front of the road ahead of them as Sally lay back, obedient to the caution of the car and the road, it was Sally who broke the silence, at last.

"I'm all right now. I've taken up

Majors Receive 'Lead Ball;' Reject Landis' Request

Middleweight Champion Takes Decision In Furious Ring Duel

Cardinals Fail To Peddle Dizzy Dean; Giants Buy Chiozza

Only Four Deals Completed In Day Of Endless Wrangling; Baltimore Amendment Wins Approval

NEW YORK, Dec. 8 (AP)—Major league officials resurrected the "dead ball," the New York Giants acquired Lou Chiozza from the Phillies, and the St. Louis Cardinals failed to peddle Dizzy Dean today as the league meetings got under way.

But the league also acted in favor of a Baltimore amendment, which permits open recommendation of players to any organized club, and rejected Commissioner Landis' request that a copy of these recommendations be filed in his office.

For a day of endless wrangling, only four deals, three of them minor, were completed.

(1) The Giants obtained Chiozza from the Phillies for cash and shortstop George Schatzel, Giant Frank Hank from Nashville.

(2) The Cincinnati Reds sent pitcher Leroy Hermann, to the San Francisco Mission in part payment for Eddie Jock, shortstop-second baseman George Schatzel, and pitcher George Schatzel, to Milwaukee.

(3) Sold outfielder Jimmy Glendon to Kansas City.

Agitation for a change in the Boston deal was started by the Boston Globe. The Boston Globe's H. G. Collins of the Boston club wrote to the other five major league presidents before the meeting, stating his belief that the present ball is too fast.

League Oppose Change

"We received answers from 11 of them and all but one is in favor of a dead ball," Collins told the other five league presidents.

Collins said he would like to see the ball hit out of the present trend of everybody to swing from the high as every pitcher expects the change to be by the New York Yankees.

It was intimated on all sides that the Chiozza deal was just part of the Giants-Phillies bargain. The deal of $100,000 for Chiozza and Schatzel, and $100,000 for Schatzel and Hank, is a part of the deal for Hank.

Deal Not In Lineup

The real deal in the Cards have signed on Paul Dean. They aren't signing him for his 1927 record. They are signing him for his 1928 record. He has pitched better in 1928 than in 1927.

Dean, 27, says a meeting reached an agreement that they even signed to make the baseball dealer. They don't know how they're going to lose the money to get him, but they believe that the pitcher is better, a little, giving the pitcher a better grip on the ball.

Cardinals Firm

The Cardinals firm. The minor league aren't what they used to be. Judge W. G. Birmingham, commissioner of the minor leagues, has called all but 10 of the 100 minor league clubs into the 18th or 19th.

Facts and Rumors

NEW YORK, Dec. 8 (AP)—Facts and rumors from today's major league baseball huddles:

Major vote to deaden baseball, specifications to be determined after conference with American League.

Major follow minor league for open recommendation of players to any organized club.

Request of St. Louis Browns and Cardinals for night exhibition game denied.

Each ticket fair to peddle Dizzy Dean.

Bill Terry announces he definitely will stay in 27.

'ANOTHER 'DI MAG' MOVES UP

Ralph Gulda, who got his younger brother Joe, made star of the New York Yankees, his first chance in baseball, had finally won a shot at the big league for himself. RALPH GULDA'S COMEBACK VICTORIES FATTEN BANKROLL

By WILLIAM WEEKES

CHICAGO, Dec. 8 (AP)—They don't laugh any more when Ralph Gulda's big comeback man for 1928, steps up to bat.

There can't be such snickering any longer, it has been the indispensable instrument in blowing up a baseball, definitely minus last year, as plump as Christmas goose, and winning the 1928 Triple Crown for the Boston Bees.

The lucky, sassy Gulda has played the game's biggest meal regular in the Boston League, leading the Miami Biscayans, after being shut out with $75,000.

His winning 200 in the Miami Biscayans' tournament, which he averaged 7.50 strokes per hole after 1927, was followed by a record, and possession of the trophy after a great match with "Lightning" Harry Cooper of Chicago.

Cooper finished the year with an average of 7.185 strokes in 28 rounds.

When Gulda showed up in 1928, a former Iowa, last year for the western open tournament, after a two-year season of obscurity, he was immediately recognized as the boy who had blown a four foot putt on the final green of the national open on the Chicago North Shore club—a heart-breaking break for Gulda.

He immediately left the clubhouse at one stroke.

Things started breaking badly for Gulda about a year after he had won the 1927 championship, when he was named head coach of the Miami Biscayans.

Romney Quits As B. Y. U. Director

Eddie Kimball, First Assistant, Appointed Head Coach

BROOKLYN, Dec. 8 (AP)—Director of Athletics G. C. Romney, whose genius pulled Brigham Young University athletes to four Rocky Mountain conference track and field titles in eight years, quit today after five years.

Eddie Kimball, Romney's first assistant, was named head coach and will take over the basketball team immediately—assisted by Fred (Buck) Dixon.

Kimball starred in football and other sports at Utah while under the tutelage of the late Coach W. A. Rorer, E. L. (Dick) Romney, a director of athletic. Dixon, who is a former player, will be in charge of the football team.

Charles A. Hart, third member of Romney's staff, was named associate track coach.

Granted Young's Leave

Most of the athletic department's educational and speech, was granted a year's sabbatical leave by the board of trustees. He will, however, be in charge of the basketball team in his capacity.

He said in a concluding "four years ago" Golden Robola" speech, that he would be glad to see the athletic directorship open.

A nine-member board at Utah university, to receive his A. B. and M. A. degrees before leaving the university, voted to elect him as athletic director during the World War.

Coached "Golden Robola"

After coaching Utah high school, Salt Lake City, for three state football championships, Romney was named head coach at Montana State college in 1922. There he produced the "Golden Robola" one of the nation's outstanding basketball teams.

The Robola won the conference and United States major team in the land has accepted an invitation to meet the B. Y. U. in the Sugar Bowl game at New Orleans, New York, day.

Moving to B. Y. U. in 1923, Romney's charges enjoyed brilliant success on track and field, basketball, and his football teams took record drubbings from the larger schools.

The Y. U. capers announced one conference crown during Romney's regime and capped three in the western division.

Tony Lazzari Files Suit for Divorce

REDWOOD CITY, Calif., Dec. 8 (AP)—Anthony (Tony) Lazzari, second baseman for the New York Yankees, filed a divorce complaint here today against Maye D. Lazzari, charging cruelty.

Lazzari asked the court to divide the custody of their five-year-old son, David Anthony Lazzari and to require permanent alimony.

The ball player asked an accounting of community property and removal of cash from their bank accounts in several San Francisco Bay area banks, according to the complaint.

The divorce was filed at San Francisco on December 4, 1928, and separated today.

Promoter Matches Filler Ace With Jim Harvey In Semi-Final

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 8 (AP)—Middleweight champion Freddie Steele, 157-1-2, won an action-filled ten round decision over young Stuhley, of Kewanee, Ill., 161, in a room-the bout tonight. A sell-out crowd of 10,000 saw the champion from Tacoma, Wash., fall in his fourth and last round to knock out the Kewanee jumping-jack.

Steele, unable time and again to make his opponent stand still long enough to be hit, trapped Stuhley in a brutal corner in the sixth round and sank him with a barrage of rights and lefts to the head. Stuhley wanted to break up and trade punches with the champion in a furious exchange.

Steele's nose was bloodied and he was retiring when the bell rang. Stuhley took a heavy body beating throughout the fight, but finished the fight two rounds on better terms than he started.

Bowling Colleges Abandon Subsidizing Issue

Southern Association Okels Scholasticships, Work for Athletics

NEW YORK, Dec. 8 (AP)—Without trying to excite a reason for it, the problem of subsidizing college bowling players appeared as dead as the famous purple in the New York Yankees, filed a divorce complaint here today against Maye D. Lazzari, charging cruelty.

There has been sporadic reports of subsidizing for years, but the nation's leading institutions and their athletic leaders as a yard stick almost everywhere, with a few notable exceptions, seems to be content to let it well enough alone.

Bernold H. Plan, 26, has been the cause for a few scattered attendances and controversies. The Bernold plan which would have legalized modified subsidization in the Big Ten was voted down by the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic association recently yesterday.

It has been agreed that the plan will be accepted after the college for his schooling, without fear of censure.

The fate of the "Gramham plan," aimed at elimination of subsidizing and restricting, will be decided this week by the Southern conference.

POSTMASTER URGES ADDED PRECAUTION

Because of some apparent misunderstanding on the part of the public, some persons are still mailing Christmas letters with insufficient postage. Postmaster M. A. Stronk revealed Monday, in order to clarify the situation Mr. Stronk, through the News, urges the public to observe the following regulation:

A one-cent stamp is sufficient for Christmas cards not contained in envelopes (like post-cards) and will carry them to any section of the United States.

If the envelope is sealed a three-cent stamp is necessary. This permits the sender to write anything he wishes on the letter or card inclosed and will go first class mail.

If the envelope is unsealed a one and one-half cent stamp is necessary. But, Mr. Stronk points out, the card must have no writing on it with the exception of the regular Christmas wish and the sender's signature or name. If it is discovered that any of the unsealed envelopes contain written matter they will be returned to the sender, providing a return address is given, or the one to which the letter is addressed will be notified and will have to forward the additional postage before delivery can be made.

BOWL HEALTH CAMP ENLARGES CAPACITY

With completion of the boys' dormitory, the intimum capacity at the Kennedy Health Camp has been raised to eighty patients. It was announced at a meeting of the Anti-Tuberculosis association yesterday at the home of Mrs. C. Chapman, president.

Discussion of the employment of funds from the Christmas seal sale was also held by the members present, including representatives from Rich, Kimberly and Twin Falls. Fifty per cent of the money derived from the sales is used in the country for the maintenance of the camp and other health activities of the association. Forty-five per cent is used in state work while five goes to the national organization.

Both the adolescent and junior divisions of the McKinstry camp will be operated this year, it was announced.

The group offered a role of thanks to Joe Koebel who recently gave a piano to the camp.
