Washers Meet—A meeting of the American War Mothers was held yesterday afternoon in the Red Cross rooms. During the afternoon the ladies made a layette for Miss Thelma McCall, public health nurse, for use while she is in the city. Mrs. G. A. Grant states that quite often the patients she is attending have no proper clothing and the war mothers are supplying her with this essential.

Snow at Henry's Lake—The region around Henry's lake is a well known blanket of snow, according to a telegram recently received by A. N. Gregg. Henry's lake is at the head of the Snake river and this means a beautiful water supply for the coming season. No snow fell in this region until January 1 last year. Henry's lake is about 16 miles from the entrance to Yellowstone park.

Club to meet—The M. B. & S. club will have a social time party evening, October 31, at the old Woodhead ranch. All members and their families are expected to dress in their club clothes for the occasion. A prize will be awarded to the one wearing the most appropriate costume. The affair will doubtless be one of the most enjoyable and successful as great preparations are being made for the party.

Gift Party—A delightful tea was given yesterday afternoon by the Episcopal guild at the home of Mrs. George Sprague. The affair was in honor of Mrs. E. C. Sprague, president of the organization, who with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Hale, is leaving for Blackfoot where she will make her future home. Mrs. Sprague enjoyed the afternoon and Mrs. White was presented with a number of beautiful handkerchiefs by the members of the guild.

Party—One of the most interesting parties of the local social season was the one given by Mrs. E. M. Williams Saturday afternoon in honor of her son Robert. The party was at the home of her mother, Mrs. N. P. Anderson. Appropriately for the occasion the rooms were attractive and a lovely birthday cake with five candles formed the centerpiece. Several little games had the time of their lives during the afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Williams at the close of a delightfully spent afternoon.

Miss Baker Hostess—Miss Audrey Baker was the hostess for a number of friends Friday evening at her home in honor of Miss Lena Hamilton, who will leave soon to make her home in Effingham. The evening was enjoyed during the evening. The decorations were those of Halloween and delicious refreshments of cider, doughnuts, apples and nuts were served at the close of the evening. Those present were the Misses Margaret McAtee, Lena Hamilton, Irma Best, Margaret Thacker, Audrey Urant, Alleen Bots, Annabel Ford, Benah Trossdale, Alice Brown, Frances Ball, Dorothy Son, Edna Ducker, Eula Duke, Helen Phillips, Lore Musker, Orpha Markie, Pauline Ware, May Franklin, Martha Parzer, Mary Newman, Mildred Leubehmel, and Marion Wasson.

QUICKSILVER BIG RESOURCE OF GEM STATE

Fern Mining Company Operations in Yellow Pine Basin Are Going Forward

With what is said to be the richest deposit of quicksilver in the world, the Yellow Pine basin of Idaho is rapidly becoming one of the richest mining districts of the state. The possibilities of this new resource of the Gem State are regarded as boundless by those who have investigated its character and extent.

A number of local investors have interested in the Fern Quicksilver Mining company which is now engaged in publishing development of the property. An extensive exploration program has been outlined for the coming year and it is expected that the company expects to be shipping heavily.

Among local mining men who have inspected the Fern property are Tom Pacific and William Peterson, both of whom were deeply impressed with the appearance. Paul F. Savic, representative of the company, is here from Boise at present connected with Mr. Peterson, Mr. Durick and other local stockholders. He states that the company will be heavily engaged in operation within the near future, now being engaged in marketing the last of its stock.

Baptists Will Hold Revival Services

Bringing next Sunday morning revival meetings will be held at the Baptist church with H. G. Conrad, J. Owen in charge. The plans for these meetings were made some time ago and the pastor believes they will be very successful as revival meetings have not been held in Twin Falls for several weeks.

Music will be furnished by the Baptist church choir, which is made up of a number of talented singers under the able direction of Leonard Wood. The Baptists are endeavoring to make this series of evangelistic meetings the best ever held in the history of the local church. The choir will furnish appropriate music at each service. The soloists of the choir will render several selections and there will be a number of special musical features by the entire organization. Rev. Owen, extends a cordial invitation to the public to be present at all of these meetings.

Come with Mr. Damm, Mrs. Damm and the whole Damm family to the Lavering theater Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Notice I have closed my market booth for the winter. D. K. Frost.

Facts You Should Know

Did you ever stop to think that there is but one fair and honest price on an article of merchandise? Have you considered what that price should be? You realize that no merchant with a reputation for honesty is going to make the alluring promise to give a dollars worth of merchandise for 50 cents. It cannot be done. A Fair Price Is the Lowest Possible Price Affording a Merchant a Legitimate Margin Above the Cost of Merchandise - A Margin You Would Expect If You Were to Exchange Places With Him.

THERE IS BUT ONE FAIR PRICE— The United Stores asks but one price, everyday from everybody no extra margin tacked on to be deducted to fool the public.
