LEGAL ACTION IN COAL STRIKE WILL NOT STOP

BOOM COOLIDGE FOR PRESIDENT

Sweeping Victory for Massachusetts Governor Makes Presidential Timber

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—A boom for Governor Calvin Coolidge for the Republican nomination for the president of the United States was launched today following his sweeping victory with a "new order" slogan in the Massachusetts election yesterday. Some halted the governor as the next Republican candidate for president, a running mate for Governor Lowden or some other man from the middle west.

Complete provincial today show that Governor Coolidge was re-elected by a plurality of 124,273 over H. L. Hoag, also manufacturer of Framingham, in the general election. Long had championed the cause of the striking policemen in Boston, saying that they had been punished sufficiently. He was accused of giving a heavy labor vote. The governor carried the industrial cities of Lowell, New Bedford and Worcester. The entire Republican ticket was swept along into office with the landslide for Coolidge. It was the heaviest vote in Massachusetts in 35 years.

Industrial Unrest Pictured As Hope Of Laboring Classes Now As In Past

REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS BOTH JUBILANT OVER RESULTS

Each Sees Public Endorsement and Vindication for Itself in Decisive Victories and Defeats in Yesterday's Elections.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—All Washington is jubilant today over the results of the industrial yesterday. Republican leaders are rejoicing in the election of Calvin Coolidge as governor of Massachusetts and Edward Edwards as governor of Kentucky. Democratic leaders are just as happy in the apparent victory of Albert Hitchell, gubernatorial candidate in Maryland, and Edward Edwards, the Democratic candidate in New Jersey.

Most significant are the elections in Kentucky and Massachusetts. The leaders here respect the fact that a Republican was elected in Massachusetts. It gave some satisfaction to the administration as it taken part in indication of endorsement of a strong governmental policy in handling the labor situation. Coolidge is regarded as a vindication of that attitude which he has taken in his attitude with regard to the police strike in Boston and his election is regarded as a vindication of that attitude, which his administration is now carrying out in the coal strike situation.

Republican leaders pointed to the election in Massachusetts as an indication of the next national campaign effort. They declared that the election in Kentucky had a national aspect and that the victory for the Republican party is a vindication of the national program of that party.

WETS WIN IN NEW JERSEY

Democrats Claim Victory After Campaign Fought Out on Wet and Dry Issue

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 5.—State Senator Edward L. Edwards, Democrat, who made his campaign on the "wet" issue, has been elected governor of New Jersey, according to claims made at his headquarters today. It was declared that the complete returns would show a majority of ten thousand for Mr. Edwards. Republican leaders, supporting Newton A. K. Blake, refused to concede Mr. Edwards' election "until the last ballot was counted."

Another wet victor was E. Roy Hunt, Democratic candidate for the state senate from Mercer county. Women are not allowed to vote in New Jersey.

FIRST BREAK IN UNION RANKS IN REPORTED

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 5.—L. L. Lewis, secretary of the River Coal Operators' association announced today that four small union mines in the Kanawha district resumed operations today and others would be placed in operation as fast as the miners showed a disposition to return to work. This is the first break in the union ranks in the Kanawha district.

MINING COLORED STRIKE WILL BE SHORT DURATION

DENVER, Nov. 5.—With approximately 6,000 of the 12,000 soft coal miners of Colorado already back at work, further conferences between representatives of miners and operators scheduled for today, it was believed that the strike in this district would be of short duration.

Additional national guardsmen have arrived in the southern fields.

SOCIALIST RUNS FASTEST OF ANY

Leads Ticket in Buffalo—Labor Mayor Elected Over Combined Opposition in Lackawanna

BUFFALO, Nov. 5.—Frank N. Perkins, socialist candidate for member of the city council, ran high of the six candidates in yesterday's election and he received the most votes. William W. Kraehmer, re-elected, ran second, and Senator Ross Graves ran third. Perkins had no newspaper support. He was recently ordered from the council chamber by the mayor. The Republicans elected six members of the assembly and the Democrats two. The county ticket was swept in Lackawanna, the coal city suburb. Mayor John Toole, who had the Democratic and Republican endorsements, was defeated by John H. Gibbons, who ran the Socialist ticket. The two tickets

ITALIAN MINERS ASK PANSORRY FOR HOME
CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—No more, no more, no work, no home. This, strictly by John Pansorry, president of the Italian miners, was the cry of the thousands of Italian miners in the United States when he and many other coal miners from the Baltimore, Md., coal district, appeared at federal building here, seeking passports back to Italy.

"No passports here," added Pansorry, "no home."

On being assured the desired passports would be issued, the Italian miners, who are working in the coal fields of the United States, said that they "don't care what happens in the coal strike."

U. S. Troops Are on Duty in Pennsylvania
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 5.—The first U. S. troops to come into Pennsylvania for duty during the coal strike were engaged today at Drumburgh, on the edge of the great open fields northwest of Pittsburgh. The 140 men in the force were in command of Colonel E. H. Prange and came from Fort Niagara, N. Y.

Non-union mines in the Brownsville territory yesterday established a record production.

The situation in the organized district of Pennsylvania today showed no change.

ANOTHER WET PERIOD.

The liquor problem is by no means settled by the derivative action of Congress in re-passing the prohibition enforcement bill over the president's veto.

It is quite possible that "war-time prohibition" will come to an end before January 10, when the federal dry amendment becomes effective. The president is said to intend revivifying the former clause of the war wolverine if the present treaty is ratified. War-time prohibition may then terminate, either automatically or by presidential proclamation. The enforcement act just passed would not apply then.

This, at least, is the contention of the liquor interests, who greatly desire an opportunity to dispose of their remaining stock before permanent prohibition settles down in January.

The possibility assumes new interest from the decision of a federal court in Louisville, Ky., to the effect that whisky held in bonded warehouses may be withdrawn by the owners. This decision is said to affect 70,000,000 gallons. If the liquor may be withdrawn, it can then be sold in case the prohibition enforcement law is suspended for any period. This is the ardent wish of the distillers in whose behalf the suit was brought.

A PENNY FOR ADVICE

A California newspaper carries a warning to farmers, stockmen and fruit growers against the so-called proprietary preparations which are offered them as cattle-dips, insecticides and weed-killers. Some of these, of course, are honest and really do the business they are advertised to do. There are others, however, which act like a snake and as such not only cheat the farmer who buys them but injure the good name of the home farm preparations.

Even the compounds which scientifically results, says this warning, are frequently only sold at all proportions for their value. One example is cited. A Berkeley agricultural professor recently published a formula for making a weed-killer. This formula is simple to prepare and costs the farmer who makes it for himself only 14 cents a gallon. A similar proprietary article costs two dollars a gallon and has about one-eighth the strength of the home-made stuff.

Even when the time it takes to make the preparation is counted in the cost of this weed-killer, the home-made variety still wins by a mile. As a result, they are coming back, and tens of thousands who intended returning to Italy are deciding to remain in America. It is a useful lesson, applicable to almost all our immigrant population.

Dr. Serge Voronoff, touted as a famous French physician, has discovered a simple operation by which he can restore lost youth. The doctor was formerly in charge of the Rockefeller Institute. From which it may be concluded that the restoration of youth may have for its purpose the adding of more years of productive work to men in order to permit maintenance of those who profit by the labors of others.

The trouble in the coal district seems to be the same old alteration over mine and mine. They call them "round tables" because the discussions are held in our want columns.

Another wet period. The liquor problem is by no means settled by the derivative action of Congress in re-passing the prohibition enforcement bill over the president's veto. It is quite possible that "war-time prohibition" will come to an end before January 10, when the federal dry amendment becomes effective.

Italy money link has been so cheap lately in bankers' language, "Italian exchange has been so unfavorable" that an American dollar will buy about two dollars' worth of Italian money. That is to say, instead of the usual 50 cents ordinarily obtainable for a dollar, the dollar is here exchangeable for 100 or more lire.

This fact, emphasized by Italian-American bankers has had a big influence in persuading Italians to leave this country for their native land. They could double their savings by turning them into Italian money! In large numbers they rushed to take advantage of this unexpected piece of good fortune. They turned their dollars into lire and took passage for Italy. And then they woke up. They found that something cannot be made out of nothing even in the realm of finance. Lire were twice as plentiful as dollars; but the necessities of life were twice as scarce—in fact, worse than that. They had to pay more than 10 lire for commodities that they could buy for a dollar in America.

Editorial Squibs

Economy is still worth cultivating. The way to increase production is to produce.

Cold storage when misused gives cold comfort. No government war produce except as a beverage.

Six hours is a pretty short time in which to do a day's work. The professor reverts the penny, the consumer holds it in contempt.

It should be thankful we don't have to eat clover seed at the present price. It should remind anyone who can't raise the roach that his landlord can't.

Peace evays come high. It seems, and the question raised is must we have them? That epäspūi energetic and active law of supply and demand is still looking for its job.

Winter fodders are to be a lot of voters, report says. California for high prices, perhaps.

A strike is recorded as about as cheezy a form of holiday diversion as a man can select.

LAD IS MISSING SINCE OCT. 28

Nothing Has Been Learned About 14-Year-Old Newton Woncott Who Has Disappeared

Newton A. Woncott, aged 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Woncott, living 3 1/2 miles southeast of Twin Falls has been missing for over a week. The lad went to high school on the morning of October 28 and his parents have seen or heard nothing of him since.

The parents have learned that he went to school that morning, laid his books down on his desk and then went to town. Where he has gone is a mystery although they are scouring the country for clues as to his whereabouts.

Outgoing freight trains have been searched and the police office has sent out a number of men to look for him.

It was thought that he might have gone to the home of a relative who lives in a small town about 50 miles from Boise but all hope of finding him there was shattered when a relative returned from there with no clue.

Nothing definite can be done as there is nothing to work on. Authorities have no information that would put them on his trail.

Newton had not shown the slightest inclination to run away, the parents state. He did not have a roving disposition and the parents can see no reason for his sudden departure.

Describing the incident Mrs. Woncott said this morning: "While I have no liking of his whereabouts I have a haunting fear that he went hunting and that something happened that I dread to think about. Newton was a larger boy for his age and could take care of himself. I am certain unless something unforeseen happened, I think it is highly probable that he would stick his neck work to do."

Any information that will lead to the home of his relative will be greatly appreciated. When last seen he wore a gray Norfolk coat, blue overalls, boy scout shoes and a black or blue cap. He was a freshman at high school.

Bohrer Resigns as T. F. County Agent

C. H. Bohrер, county agricultural agent, has resigned and will be succeeded by Floyd Coleman, formerly engaged in farm bureau work at Portland, Oregon.

Mr. Coleman arrived last night from Portland to take charge of the work. He has had a great deal of experience in this line and it is said he understands the business thoroughly.

Mr. Bohrер will stay in Twin Falls for a few days after which he expects to go to Pocatello to engage in the lumber business. He stated that he has not feltly made up yet but that he was considering a proposition which he expected to accept.

Directors of the farm bureau have been much pleased with Bohrер's work, stating that he has been wonderfully successful in this community. Mr. Bohrер said he had enjoyed his work as county agent here very much and that he hated to leave but that he thought it advantageous to his parents.

The people of the county are greatly surprised at Mr. Bohrер's resignation as he was said to be well liked by farmers with whom he worked. While regretting Mr. Bohrер's departure the farmers welcome Mr. Coleman and will co-operate with him in the same day they did with Mr. Bohrер.

County Canning Championship Is Won by Miss Nob

Ettie Nob has won the county championship in the canning project of the farm bureau junior work. Second place was won by Bertha McCleary and Bertha McCleary took third. The county winners are the ones who went to the state fair at Boise where they took second place. First place was missed by a very narrow margin.

Miss Nob submitted her story to the judges and in it she tells about the various steps taken until the fruit is canned. She describes several methods of canning the fruit, all of which have proven very successful.

"Y" Conference to Be Held Here Next Year

Twin Falls was chosen the meeting place for the state "Y" convention next year according to the six boys who returned Sunday from Pocatello where they went as delegates of the local high school.

Twin Falls has the largest representation of all the cities in Idaho except Pocatello. It delegates going from here, all but six being from the local churches. The boys reported a fine time and splendid meetings.

Inspirational talks by well known people of the Gem State were given and the whole convention was full of "pep" and optimism. Work of an educational nature was taken up and discussed and the boys stated that they felt a great deal of good has come through this and similar conventions. The boys obtained many valuable ideas about the organization of the "Y" club and the formation of this organization will be started at a meeting of the delegates with the rest of the high school boys in the near future at which time the boys will give a report of the work done at the Pocatello conference.

NEW METHOD TO SETTLE STRIKE

Senator Kenyon Would Have Commission Official Representatives To Discuss It.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—A special committee of three members, one appointed by the president to deal with the soft coal strike and attempt to arbitrate and settle the same, provided for in a joint resolution introduced in the senate this afternoon by Senator Kenyon, Republican of Iowa.

At Senator Kenyon's request, the resolution was referred to the senate committee on education and labor, and representatives of the labor and management sides of the coal strike were summoned to appear before the committee for the purpose of presenting their views on the strike.

Senator Kenyon's resolution provides for an appropriation of $100,000 for the work of the commission. It provides for the appointment of three members to the commission to call together representatives of the labor and management sides of the strike and to use all lawful means necessary to cause such representatives to consider and settle the differences involved in the controversy.

Section 2 sets forth:

"If within fifteen days after the passage of this resolution the differences have not been adjusted or terminated, the committee on its own initiative shall proceed to investigate the matter in controversy and shall, within fifteen days thereafter, publish a report setting forth the results of its investigations, a resume of the evidence received and its conclusions as to the proper concessions if any to be made by man or both of the parties to the controversy. Such conclusions shall be stated in simple form as to be capable of being acted upon definitely and promptly by the committee on its own initiative. The report shall expire on the termination of the strike or the publication of its report."

Advices Shipbuilders Not to Go On Strike

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Shipbuilders on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts were advised today not to strike by James O'Connell, president of the metal trade department of the American Federation of Labor. His action followed communications from the navy department and the emergency fleet corporation that they are without funds to pay the increase of eight cents an hour that is being demanded, and already threatened by a vote of the shipbuilders.

The shipbuilders on the Pacific coast have declined to pay increases in wages, unless the government, which is the government employer, and the emergency fleet corporation, and the navy department, think it would be very undesirable for the ship workers on the Atlantic coast to go on strike.

It is reported that the emergency fleet corporation will carry out the plan to build the Pacific straits.

Would Avert Insanity Of Building Big Navy

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—A decision to build a British navy against the United States, was the chief reason given today by Bryan Fisher, former secretary of the Admiralty, for publishing his memoirs.

Harold Fisher advanced the establishment of an Anglo-American union as a good way out of the difficulty. He pointed out that the United States and British navies could save the other nations of the world a great deal of money.

Harold Fisher's address on naval matters was heard at the Admiralty, and he was highly appreciated by the British navy officials.

Lusitania Hearing Is Published In Britain

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Why the Lusitania was traveling at reduced speed when she was attacked and sunk by a German submarine, off the coast of Ireland on May 7, 1915, was heard on today for a full "white paper" some details of court proceedings, which were held in June last.

Captain Turner, of the Lusitania, testified that he had been informed as to her location and was standing slowly because of misty weather.

Captain Turner explained that his ship did not have a zigzag course because he did not believe it necessary until the boat was sighted.

BANDITS GET LOTS OF CIGARETTES BUT LITTLE COIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Two bandits, called Archie and another, in employ of the firm of McGill and Higgins, came home from a recent court proceeding, which were held in June last.

Captain Turner, of the Lusitania, testified that he had been informed as to her location and was standing slowly because of misty weather.

WORKERS WILL RUN RAILROADS

British Union Man Tells What Has Been Accomplished By Organized Labor.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The emphatic declaration that the laboring union is going to help manage English railroads in the future was made today by Joseph W. Parker, secretary of the Trades Union Congress.

"I got a basket of letters from miners, every day. They claim they are prevented by work-munching hours a week to earn a living wage. Miners get 55 a day, but say they are for two or three days a week, the remainder of the week they are idle. Their demand for a five day week is really a demand for more work and less pay," said Mr. Parker.

"The union will not accept this condition in the past of mine owners to cut down the output and keep the price up," he declared.

He pointed out that the coal miners who are firm their determination to maintain a satisfactory settlement is made. Coal is becoming scarce in the industrial centers of Detroit, Grand Rapids and Birmingham.

CONFERENCE HAS 8-HOUR DAY UP

League of Nations Report Had Devious Paths to Trend to Get to Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The League of Nations report on the eight-hour or forty-eight hour week, was placed before the international labor conference here today as the first and most important business to come before that body.

The prepared report numbered 155 pages and went through many sub-committees before arriving here.

The report was read in English and French and was translated into Spanish, Portuguese, Italian and Japanese.

Local Farmer Gets Large Corn Yield

The fourth acre of Silver Mesa corn on the Amos Kell farm produced 250 bushels of corn and 10 bushels of sorghum.

Ground was measured by E. E. Farnum, a place to rods long and 1/2 rods wide. Corn was planted by E. Hays and was worked on by F. Hays, the results being given by the Amos Kell farm report of 1919.

"Kell's corn took first place in the county fair at Ellensburg last year. His corn was the best ever seen at his farm," said Farnum.

Kell has more than 600 bushels of stalks, the 100 in it twelve well filled ears. He has 100 bushels for stalks and will be glad to show his produce to anyone.

Miners Striking For Privilege of Working

LANCASTER, Nov. 5.—Declaring that the miners are striking for more work rather than for more money, Representative Joseph W. Parker, in a speech at a meeting of citizens here today said:

"I got a basket of letters from miners, every day. They claim they are prevented by work-munching hours a week to earn a living wage. Miners get 55 a day, but say they are for two or three days a week, the remainder of the week they are idle. Their demand for a five day week is really a demand for more work and less pay," said Mr. Parker.

PERRY PROBABLY FOUND A 'HOT OF GOLD'

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 5.—A new discovery today there's a lucky laborer knows only as "Perry". Perry is his first name. He is helping excavate the basement of a building here when his shovel struck the bones of a human and then an old chest. He tugged at the chest, made away from the scene as fast as he could and has not been heard from since.

His fellow workers believe he found a "hot of gold". He has failed to return for wages due him from the contractor.

Union Pickets Quit Plants in Indiana

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—For the first time since the steel strike was called more than six weeks ago, union pickets deserted the streets of Gary and Indiana Harbor today.

When the steel mills opened today the pickets failed to put in an appearance.

Steel mill officials declared the withdrawal of the pickets in the first acknowledgment that the strike was lost.

MASS MEETING FORMS UNION

Smoker and Luncheon at Bull Brings About Central Body and Now Members of the Labor League

(By Publicity Committee, Central Labor Union)

Formation of a Central Labor Union, organization of various local unions and lively recruiting of membership for the Idaho Labor League which was launched at Twin Falls last Sunday, were outcome of the labor rally held Monday evening in Tual.

A large delegation of unionists from Twin Falls were present. Henry C. Scranton, president; E. W. Shanks, secretary; and Thomas J. Cooney of the executive board, represented the Central Labor Union of Twin Falls.

C. O. Edwards, international organizer of the International Machinists' association, in charge of the lockout in this section for that organization, was the speaker of the evening. Mr. Edwards explained the Plumb Plan of operation of the railroads in a very interesting and enlightening way and pointing out the reason big business is spending millions of dollars to defeat the union.

Mr. Scranton spoke on "Brotherhood and Fellowship of Unions" and Mr. Shanks spoke on the "National Personal Antagonism in Union Politics."

Mr. Brown, former vice-president of the Idaho State Federation of Labor, gave an address giving his experience with the legislative committee of that body and the reason of its failure to get labor bills through the legislature. Mr. Nelson, the laborer local of Twin Falls, and others addressed the meeting. Of the latter mentioned persons Mr. Brown and Mr. Nelson are both connected with the Nonpartisan movement in the state.

The newly formed Idaho Labor League kept cropping out in several of the speeches made, showing the enthusiasm with which the league was received in Twin Falls last Monday.

Not to be outdone by labor in Twin Falls, Bull last night not only started a Central Labor Union under the leadership of the Twin Falls body, but also a number joined the labor league.

The meeting was held in a labor mass meeting which included a smoker and luncheon. The Twin Falls delegation expressed the opinion that Twin Falls would have a strong rival in the field and would be proud to hold its own. It is to hold their present reputation of having the best central body in the state. If the present effort of the Bull locals prevails in the future, the machinists' local had a delegation present but owing to the late hours arrived somewhat late and were disappointed in their arrival. It was remembered that the machinists are responsible for the starting of the labor league in Idaho.

NINE WORKERS SPACE CONVENTION CALLED OFF

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 5.—Because of unsettled conditions due to the strike, the state convention of the Illinois Mine Workers of America scheduled to be held at Peoria, Tuesday, November 11, has been indefinitely called off. President Frank Farrington announced today. He declared it would be of no purpose to hold the convention now as no agreement could be drawn up without a basic one from the national body for which the miners are on an strike today.

Non-Union Miners Go Out in Pennsylvania

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 4.—The first break among the non-union workers in the unorganized fields of Pennsylvania came today when several hundred men failed to go into the mine in Mercer county. It is believed all the men in the county will be closed. The men, it is said, have been holding secret meetings and decided to strike.

Another break in the non-union ranks was reported today from Allegheny. The Clear Field district, where 2,000 men were reported by President John Brophy, of the mine workers organization, to have joined the miners making 2,000 men out in the district.

Although the Johnstown mining district is organized, reports from there today said that practically every mine was operating, and a number of officials of different locals of the United Mine Workers had tendered their resignations.

PENNSYLVANIA PERMITTED TO REAR ELECTION RETURNS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—President Wilson's condition was so greatly improved that Dr. Grayson permitted the patient to receive the election returns in his sick chamber last night.

The returns were received at the telegraph room in the executive office and were relayed by messenger to the sick room where they were read to Mr. Wilson by Mrs. Wilson and Dr. Grayson.

The president remained awake until a late hour hoping to get final results from his own state of New Jersey, but when Dr. Grayson decided that he had taxed his strength enough the result in that state was left to doubt.

AMAZON HOPE OF FINDING MAX LOST IN SAWTOOTH

BOISE, Nov. 4.—All hope of finding alive Joseph Enger, the wealthy Philadelphia hotel man, who went into the Sawtooth country hunting last October 8, has been abandoned. Both the fish and game department officials and the state constabulary put forth every possible effort to find the hunter but in vain. Unless he was the victim of foul play, it is believed that Enger perished of cold in the mountains now heavily covered with snow.

TRANSCONTINENTAL AIR RACE OFFICIALLY OFF

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 5.—The army's transcontinental air race officially came to an end today, according to orders received here from headquarters in Washington. The contest closed with one entrant, Lieutenant B. B. Glay, still en route to New York. The regular stations at Buffalo, Rochester and Birmingham were ordered closed and their personnel returned to headquarters.

Cabinet Meeting Off on Account Elections

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The regularly scheduled meeting of the president's cabinet scheduled for today, has been cancelled on account of elections in Pennsylvania, Virginia and New Jersey.

Attorney General Palmer is at his home in Stroudsburg, Pa., to vote today, and will address the mayor of Pennsylvania cities on the high cost of living problems at Harrisburg tomorrow. Secretary of Treasury Clegg is at his home in Lynchburg, Va., and Joseph P. Taft, secretary to the president, votes in Jersey city.

In deferring the call for the cabinet meeting, Secretary of State Lansing found that there were no new developments in the coal strike and general industrial situation that required a settlement today, and concurred in the requests of several members that it be called off subject to the call of any member for special meeting should the need develop.

guided—and there will be average unrest. "The industrial conference was mere child's play. Wait until the employers are willing to confer with the unions with the desire for justice and fair play strong in their hearts. Then there will be happy results."

The miners in making for a 29 hour week are not making radical demands at all. The six hour day and the five day week are the miners' demands. It has been the desire of the miners of coal mining in the past.

"Nationalization of industries? No, I refuse to discuss that question just now. Remember the miners are asking for a fair wage scale. Think what the operators are asking for a ton of coal. The workers are demanding, and are going to get wages for fair living conditions. In the meantime they face a cost of living."
