WILL PRESENT HOME RULE IN HOUSE MONDAY

Lloyd George Has New Plan for Ireland Nature of Which Is Kept Deep Secret.

PAPERS COMMENT ON IRISH ATTACK

Liberal Press Generally Condemns Sinn Fein and British Government for Attempt to Assassinate Lord Lieutenant.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—Interest in the Irish situation shifted from Dublin to London tonight.

President Lloyd George will introduce his new home rule plan for Ireland in the house Monday.

There was much speculation on what effect the attempt upon the life of Viscount French, first lieutenant of the north, will have upon the premier's home rule plans.

Irish circles were silent, while the press generally was inclined to support the activities of the Sinn Fein with the attempt.

Dispatches from Dublin did not indicate any serious connection with the investigation into the ambush of the viscount's automobile, but it is believed the conspiracy might prevent the introduction of the bill of the program, which is being made.

Liberal newspapers generally joined in condemning the government, as well as the Sinn Fein. Most of them professed to hold the government very largely to blame for the acute situation in Ireland.

The news said the attack was not unexpected in view of the government's policy of delay, following bitter opposition which has been aroused in Ireland.

The Mail pleaded for a "liberal measure of self government" for Ireland, declaring that the only thing that happened would be for the government to also upon their rank crime as excuse for further oppression and deterring of self government.

The Chronicle was "not surprised" and hoped the government would feel the need of settling the Irish problem.

What Ireland needs, the Chronicle asserted, is a fundamentally just settlement of the problem, provided an improvement will follow.

23 ARE DEAD IN CANADIAN WRECK

Some Killed by Impact, Others Burned to Death When Blaze Attacks Debris

OSAWA, Minn., Dec. 20.—Officials of the Canadian railway announced tonight that 23 persons were killed or burned to death when an eastbound freight train with an attached passenger train bearing 300 English immigrants, here here today.

The death toll was raised when more bodies were found as the wreckage was cleared away.

Working in the intense cold of a Maine winter under the rapid flow of high searchlights and floodlights, wrecking crews and rescue squads were toiling tonight over the wreckage.

The wreck is said to have been caused by the failure of the train to stop for a signal to allow the special train right of way.

The uninjured were taken to nearby towns, while the track can be cleared for continued use by the end of the month, citizens were offering the hospitality of their homes.

The bodies of the dead taken from the wreckage in the wrecked coach could not be recovered.

The Times Platform for a Greater Twin Falls City and County: Democracy at home; Metal, brick, best and power in city and county; Electricity in public schools; etc.

What a Goodly Outside Falsehood Hath! Rumors have floated around Twin Falls for several days that one or two or three respected merchants had been caught profiteering...

Profiteering is a crime that demands darkness. It doesn't want publicity. It doesn't advertise itself. So if there are any profiteering stores in Twin Falls, it is likely they will be found among those who refuse to give publicity to their business efforts.

There is a lot of hue-and-cry about high prices nowadays. Back in the olden trade days of 1914-1915 a grocery trade journal carried full-page advertisements urging grocers to "get the money" that everybody was doing it.

But the buying public is getting just a little tired of the constantly increasing scale of prices, and is anxiously awaiting a downward turn. The housewives of Twin Falls look over the columns of The Times for advertisements quoting prices for goods.

How prevalent is the practice of buying from a mail order house is made clear by the number of parcel post and express packages which come to Twin Falls in the course of a week.

The only way to overcome mail order buying is to offer better opportunities to buy at home—and advertising goods and prices in The Times is the only means of reaching the people with announcements contracting the alluring announcements in the catalogues.

GETTING AHEAD, AFTER ALL: The number of persons who are forehanded or well-to-do increases more rapidly than the population, according to an authority writing in a recent magazine.

Of course there is poverty, of course there is continuous struggle for the necessities of life; but the world is growing sadder, thriftier, sounder, in spite of all this, and in spite of the lamentations of the pessimists and agitators who are using minority cases in the hope of unsettling the majority.

The furnishings which go to make homes pleasant and more comfortable are being sold today in greater quantity than ever before, and being paid for, too. Bank deposits creep upward steadily in spite of hard times. A comparison of number of depositors and population shows four bank depositors to every ten inhabitants. These are facts to dwell upon in the midst of the upheavals and disturbances which are agitating the surface of our society.

Every person who adds his name to the list of financially sound citizens adds a brick to the wall which is being built to safeguard American homes and institutions from the violent and improvident whose jealous impulse is to destroy.

GERMAN MONARCHISTS: There is a strong monarchist party in Germany. That is natural. The old order always dies hard.

In an interview with an American correspondent, Col. Max Bauer, one of the foremost leaders of the party, declares that the royalists propose to elect Hindenburg president at the coming election.

Could you believe it! The brutal and ruthless Hindenburg, standing in the eyes of the world-wide as the personification of Prussian aggression and military barbarism—that man for president of a supposedly reformed and repentant Germany!

Germany might do it, that. But if so, the allies will have something to say about it.

A resourceful and determined man can get most anything he wants except a medium hot-bottled eye or half a cup of coffee.

Price fixing means false deal. The object of price fixing is to give every person equal opportunity in price, in buying and selling.

Price-fixing makes every man stand on his own bottom, so to speak. No one could get what did not rightly belong to him under cover of price.

Price-fixing means COMPETITION IN SERVICE; EQUAL OPPORTUNITY IN PRICE, AND LIBERTY FOR ALL.

The following story will illustrate, in part, how the plan will work: In our city there are eight coal dealers. Every dealer interviewed, estimated the amount of coal brought in during the year at about 25,000 tons.

Now, if the reader of this story will carry this story over to the coal operators (coal producers) at the other end of the line, we will see that the better service mentioned, the government will get a larger revenue from excess profit tax.

GOOD RECORDS OF PIG CLUBS

Boys and Girls Improve Methods of Management and Increase the Number of Purchases.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Members of boys and girls' pig clubs are the pioneers in introducing improved methods of management in many parts of the South, where the swine industry is making unprecedented progress.

This is true in a marked degree in Georgia. Among the six clubs, the total sum represented by the hogs and pigs in the hands of the pig club members of the state last year was almost a half million dollars. The increase in the number of purchased pigs raised by the club members in 1918 over 1917 was more than 100 per cent. This increase in profit on hogs raised in 1918 over the previous year was more than 91 per cent.

Pig clubs were carried on in connection with school work in many localities. Fourteen school pigs in one county, raised on the waste from puple's lunch baskets, add for $200 at an auction sale. Twenty-two schools in another county raised 22 purchased hogs last winter on waste from the pupils' dinner baskets. One town of 2,000 people produced 15,000 pounds of pork from pigs raised in hog farms. The white boys of the same community raised 112,500 of meat hogs, and the negro boys $2,250 worth.

An all-union county reports an increase of 2,000 hogs in 1918. Fifty-seven pig club members in one county raised 520 head of registered Hampshire. The amount invested was $7,000. At an auction sale 80 of the registered pigs were sold, and the returns from the sale, together with the value of the remaining hogs, represented $7,000.

Pig club members had a prominent part in the swine exhibits at the two fairs held in the state and carried off many prizes. Of the 2,105 hogs exhibited at the Southern fair, 1,000 were owned and raised by pig-club boys who won 31 ribbons in the opening. Three of the prizes were Junior champions. Of the 520 registered hogs at the state fair, 87 were owned and raised by pig-club boys who won 20 ribbons in the open class and $225 in prizes. One of the ribbons was a Junior champion. With 28 club pigs one county won 27 ribbons and prizes amounting to $312.50, including the state championship.

The state pig-club champion was the 17-month-old son of a small farmer who bought his pig at an auction sale for $37.50. At the end of the contest his hog was worth $300. In one county six pig-club boys, who started in the club work with one small pig each, will start hog farms this year. Three of the boys already have their hogs and bred.

PEDIGREE IS NOT ESSENTIAL

Officials of Department of Agriculture Are Trying to Eliminate Inferior Animals.

Thousands of purchased sows are scattered through this country, several of them being the offspring of the United States Department of Agriculture, who are devoting their efforts to eliminating inferior pedigree animals. The pig is a staple in all kinds of live stock, but is perhaps more general in the hog industry. Pedigree is necessary and important in the breeder, but the pedigree is the means of selling a lot of farmers, particularly those who are about to start into the purchased hog business and who have not had enough experience in judging to select animals of good standard type. Buyers should be contented simply with purchased animals, but should see in addition that the animals they are about to purchase have good quality, say the department hog specialists.

WILLIAM DUNCAN VIATAGRAF STAR

William Duncan opened the football season in September with a big address battle in the first episode of his new Viatagraf serial, "Smoking Harriers." Mr. Duncan, who attended the University of Pennsylvania, declares college activities outside the classroom are more beneficial than the study of textbooks. He is enrolling in one of the prettier groups of his own college days by incorporating them as comedy elements in his serial.

Duncan hails from Dunbar, Scotland. After his university course he became an athletic instructor and a writer for physical culture magazines. He first graduated on the stage with "Smoking the Strong Man," and later he was graduated into drama, touring the country at the head of his own company.

He was particularly suited to comedy by reason of his athletic ability, his dramatic talent and his keen sense of humor. He is described as well as star in "Smoking Harriers."

Harvard Eleven Is En Route to Pasadena

BOSTON, Dec. 20.—Harvard's football eleven tonight left for Pasadena where it will meet and give battle to the lucky University of Oregon team on New Year's day. Just a score of hundreds of Harvard students that crowded the South station the team, accompanied by college officials and coaches, left here shortly after 7 o'clock today. The "Elk" team was in high spirits and every man appeared in the "pink of condition." The coaches felt confident that the eleven will return victorious after the westerners.

Oregon Is Ready to Meet Harvard

Palm Olive Plant Goes Up in Smoke

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 20.—One of the most spectacular fires ever seen in Portland destroyed the local plant of the Palm Olive company this afternoon.

The three story brick structure was totally destroyed, the loss being estimated at nearly $40,000. An enormous amount of greases and oils was destroyed in a short time, causing the flames to shoot at least 200 feet above the top of the plant and out of all the windows.

Firemen had difficulty getting close to the structure for 45 minutes. The origin of the blaze is not known.

Changes on the Moon

Though a dead world, witnesses of "big" changes on the moon are occasionally noted. Recently studying the interior of the great lunar crater that is seen from the observatory at Flagstaff, Arizona, astronomers were obliged to find one of the numerous small craters buried in a reddish lava which afterward spread over the whole of the northern portion of the moon's crater, and they disappeared.

The appearance was that of vapor, a strange, gaseous observation of supposed clouds of volcanic gas in the same crater.

ANARCHIST ARK READY TO SAIL

Will Carry Large and Varied Assortment of Reds Both Rough-neck and Parlor Variety

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—History some times requires a few centuries to repeat itself. In the case of the "Ark," it was exactly 4237 years.

It was back in 2348 B. C. that Noah ran his excursion boat to Mount Ararat. Tonight final preparations were being forward for the sailing of the good ship, "Anarchist Ark," officially known as the C. S. S. "Anarchist Ark." The vessel is being fitted out for some place in Russia.

"Among the three hundred of male and female radicals in the cargo of the 'Anarchist Ark' were listed plain and fancy 'reds.' Both rough-neck and parlor bolsheviks, communists, anarchists and wholesale mass agitators were charged with criminal offenses. Others, to judge from their titles, were apparently charged with sedition.

Chief among the hater's prospective passengers were Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman, anarchists extraordinary who loudly proclaimed their joy at the prospect of returning to "free Russia" and then sought deportation even unto the same prospect.

Whisky Smugglers Are Charged With Murder

Since the ruling of the United States supreme court upholding the prohibition law, American distillers are reported sending great quantities of whisky across the border and into Juarez. Whisky running also has increased since the court ruling.

FRANK CHANCE ONCE DARED JIM CORBETT

Accused Champion of "Framing" With Kid McCoy.

Former Baseball Star Started Out With Intention of Giving Pupillot a Thrashing—Daring Interfered at the Right Time.

The best fighters are not in the ring. Many athletes in line for removal from the wake of the ring, could hardly with more effect than some of the boys who earn their money meeting the lads in their class in the glove game.

Of all athletes in recent years who might be depended upon to give a good account of themselves in any sort of engagement, Frank Chance, faded in the manager of the Chicago Cubs a few years ago, was a real champion. He was always in first-class condition and was as game as a mountain goat.

Chance was going to whip former champion Ed Hahn, but he was interfered with by Jim Corbett in the latter's place of business in New York on one occasion, and only the rare presence of mind on the part of a bystander prevented the two from having a real encounter. Chance, with some friends, had witnessed the Corbett-McCoy fight in the Garden City Casino in August, 1909. That was the last in which both fighters were accused of having

SCULLING CHAMPION BY CHANCE REMARK

Alfred Felton Turns "Pro" After Hearing Criticism.

Australian Holder of World's Title Entered Rank of Cash Seekers on Strength of Opinion Made by Englishman.

The recent victory of Alfred Felton, the Australian, over Ernest Barry, the Englishman, for the professional sculling championship of the world, was somewhat surprising to many who saw this difficult aspiration of the Antipodian to secure the unbroken title.

The event responsible for precipitating Felton into the professional ranks occurred at the inter-collegiate regatta on the water at Harlow, held in conjunction with the American athletic conference. Felton, who was a member of the Australian expeditionary force, secured the entries for the single sculls, and, owing chiefly to his powerful build and smooth, yet effective style, attracted a lot of attention along the Stret.

Among the men who were much impressed with the sculling prowess of Felton, was a certain Englishman of Cambridge university, the amateur sculler champion of England. He is a shrewd student of the habits of the modern blade, professional and otherwise. In a nonchalant sort of manner he remarked one day to a few who were watching Felton that the Australian could beat Ernest Barry, the professional, the best day he ever saw. The remark was reported to

CLOTHING MEN NEXT ON PROBE

Gougers Will Be Given Opportunity to Retire Gracefully or Face Prosecution

Washington, Dec. 20.—Prosecution of the road-made clothing trust may be the next objective of Attorney General Palmer as his fight to reduce prices.

Palmer has ready a big stick to swing over the clothing manufacturer and like the one used in forcing a settlement with the packers.

The attorney general, however, plans first to use diplomatic methods.

Ample opportunity for managers in the clothing to withdraw gracefully from their entanglement of high prices will be afforded at a conference here here in January. The call for this conference will be sent out Monday. It will include clothing manufacturers and wholesale and retail dealers.

TENNIS IS NOT MAJOR SPORT

Harvard Student Council Votes Against Awarding "H" to Players—Coach Favored.

Keen disappointment was felt at the recent action of the student council at Harvard when it voted that it was not in favor of making tennis a major sport and awarding members of the team the "H," but it did favor the granting of a tennis coach for the varsity team and the awarding of an "H" to Harvard men who win the singles or doubles event of the intercollegiate tennis tournament. At the present time, to gain an "H," a Harvard tennis man must win the singles title in the intercollegiate meet.

PLAYER SHOULD KNOW RULES

Outside Kick Is Legitimate and Working Fins are Allowed in Illinois—Tennis Game.

No better example of the necessity of all the players at eleven being thoroughly grounded in the rules of the game and aware of all the fine points of the Illinois tennis game, when the Illinois men were working the outside kick. It was many days since that play had been used, yet it was legitimate and in the working form, as shown by the success the Illinois had with it.

THE TIMES JOB PRINTER

Many clove men have big heads, but so have many lunatics and imbeciles. The weight of the brain is in some degree to the quality than the size of the head. (Other things being equal, brain weight corresponds with intelligence. The average weight for a man is from 41 to 52 ounces of a woman from 41 to 47 (in latter fact for advocates of the superiority of the father sex). The heaviest human brain known was Dr. Abernethy's, which was 62½ ounces, and Cuvier's, the great French naturalist, his was only a half ounce. It falls to the lot of a few geniuses, however, to have this test applied to them. The brain of a man, on the whole, is about one-fourth of the weight of his body; of a dog, but one hundred and twentieth. Only two kinds of animal, the whale and the elephant, have larger brains than man, but in both, these the proportion to the weight of the body is greatly less.—Stam Magazines.

STONEHAM BUYS REAL HORSE

Owner of New York Giants Purchased Bally, Winner of Jerome Handicap, at Auction.

Having bought a race track within the past few weeks, Charles A. Stoneham, owner of the New York National League team, bought a real race horse the other day at Empire City. He purchased Bally, a five-year-old son of Hallat, at the auction sale of the horses in training from the stable of James Butler.

Stoneham runs under the name of the Cocco Stable. But the horses that have run in his colors have been selling plates at very poor quality.

His purchase of Bally, who won the Jerome Handicap, and for which he paid $1800, would seem to indicate that the owner of the Giants is going to build up a formidable stable. An owner with John A. McGraw of Oriental Park in Havana, Cuba, Stoneham probably thinks that he should have a few top thoroughbreds representing him on the track.
