Congressman Says New Yorkers Show High Handed Methods

SHARP FIGHT DUE OVER RESOLUTION

Another Skirmish Next Monday Will Test Rival Strength

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The action of the House in passing the resolution to seal five Socialist members was denounced tonight by Representative Dellinger, Massachusetts chairman of the committee that recommended the exclusion of Victor Berger, Milwaukee Socialist...

Dellinger claimed there is no similarity between the action of excluding Berger and New York Socialists.

"If it can be shown that these Socialists were guilty of giving aid and comfort to the enemy, as did their chief, Victor L. Berger, justification for their exclusion from the New York assembly would exist."

"That these five Socialists should be denied their seats, even pending a hearing, because of a simple fact that they are Socialists, is a most high-handed proceeding."

"Such an exercise of arbitrary power by a legislative body is as unwarranted as it is improper."

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 24.—When the assembly meets Monday night, more than twenty will be set off in connection with the suspension of the five socialist members.

Assemblyman William Ames, New York Republican, has introduced a resolution to let Monday's session which will come for debate Monday.

The first of these resolutions provides that the socialists be reinstated, the second that all acts of the assembly and the resolutions of the assembly be null and void.

The third resolution provides for the nullification of the suspension and the restoration of the seats of the five socialists.

The fourth resolution provides that the attorney general be directed to institute proceedings to nullify the action of the assembly.

The fifth resolution provides that the attorney general be directed to institute proceedings to nullify the action of the assembly.

The sixth resolution provides that the attorney general be directed to institute proceedings to nullify the action of the assembly.

SLAYERS OF SERVICE MEN FACING TRIAL

Armed Day Tragedy at Centralia Revived in Trial

MONTESANO, Wash., Jan. 24.—The aftermath of the Armistice Day massacre at Centralia, when four American legion men were killed by bullets fired from the I. W. W. headquarters, is scheduled to break here Monday.

Ten alleged I. W. W. members charged with murder of Lieut. Warren Grimes are to come to trial before Superior Judge John M. Wilton, Emeritus Smith, Rod attorney, is to be tried at the same time on a charge of knowing the shooting was planned.

"The jury may order all ten charged, the crime which the lieutenants are charged with committing while the parade was passing the I. W. W. hall on the afternoon of Nov. 11."

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 24.—That a labor jury may be sent to Montesano to sit as an auxiliary in the trial of the eleven accused I. W. W. charged with the murder of four American legion members at Centralia was indicated here today by a letter from Attorney Smith, Rod attorney, is to be tried at the same time on a charge of knowing the shooting was planned.

"The labor unions charge in this matter that the coroner's jury did not find a charge of murder definitely on any of the defendants, that the coroner's jury was biased against the I. W. W. and that they will not receive a fair trial at Montesano because of the strong sentiment against them."

Reports from Montesano today indicated that preparations for the opening of the trial here commenced.

FLU SPREADS RAPIDLY AND IS CAUSE OF MUCH ALARM

Wave of Dread Disease Is Covering Entire Country Rapidly

HAS NOT REACHED EPIDEMIC STAGE

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Dreadful steps to stop the wave of influenza were taken tonight at an emergency meeting of the board of health.

At intervals of 20 minutes from 7 p. m. to 4 p. m., the theatres will be allowed open.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The wave of influenza has spread throughout practically the entire country, according to reports to the United States public health service tonight.

It has not yet reached the epidemic stage, however, and every effort is being made by Surgeon-General and other officials of the health service, to prevent the country from getting "influenza panic."

Latest advices to the health service headquarters here tonight showed that the malady has appeared in twenty states. These are: New York, Kansas, Minnesota, Virginia, Illinois, Montana, Michigan, Florida, Connecticut, Wisconsin, Iowa, Idaho, Vermont, South Carolina, North Carolina, Rhode Island and West Virginia.

Figures on the total number of cases in the entire country and the comparative state with have not been compiled. However, it was said that there would be a great increase in Monday.

Reports so far are scattering and the disease is generally milder than during the epidemic which swept the country.

Medical science of the world is still at a loss for effective means for combating influenza. Throughout the country bacteriologists are working to solve the mystery of the disease.

The vaccine which were depended upon to check it are practically worthless was admitted tonight. This opinion, voiced by Dr. H. H. Hensley, chief of the bureau of the most noted bacteriologists, was concurred in by Dr. McCoy, of the U. S. Hygienic Laboratory, Dr. Hensley's opinion that the vaccine values, are based on eighteen months' experiments and fighting the disease.

CHURCHILL SAYS HERD REDS ALONE

Give Them Chance to Work Out Nitty Ideas Where Others Need Not Suffer

LONDON, Jan. 24.—Negotiation is the simplest and most effective course, according to Winston Churchill, secretary of state for war, declared in a article which will be printed in tomorrow's Sunday Herald.

Churchill warmly praises the United States and Switzerland for their recent denunciations on "Reds." He answered a deliberate, world-wide "opinion cannot be combated by force."

"Whether this is true or not he says it is certainly true that those who are in a deliberate, world-wide conspiracy should be dealt with by force."

Churchill says the United States and Switzerland are merely paying lip service to the cause of the "opinion cannot be combated by force."

"I would not understand," he adds, "that bolshevism is a definitely 'un-American' activity, and that it is a crime to export it and to import it."

Churchill says the United States and Switzerland are merely paying lip service to the cause of the "opinion cannot be combated by force."

"The ruling is expected to affect the aliens now under arrest at Ellis Island, and throughout the United States. Most of them are charged with being members of the communist party."

It indicates that the government will continue its policy of wholesale raids on radicals, unless the courts intervene. Palmer has still warrants for approximately two thousand aliens which are unexpired.

THE RULES OF FRANCE.

The election of a French president, with the spectacular defeat of Premier Clemenceau, has been a striking reminder of the essential difference between the French governmental system and ours. Two things strike the American with surprise.

One is that the French president, instead of being elected as ours is, by popular vote, is elected by the parliament, and so only indirectly represents the people. It is as if our Congress should choose the president. Any suggestion of such a method in the United States would be regarded as a step away from democracy.

The second peculiarity concerns the term. The French president has no authority. He serves on most occasions as a presiding officer, and represents the republic officially on ceremonial occasions. This he is made the master of an American city which has a "city manager" for the executive work. More strikingly, he is a constitutional monarch in a constitutional monarchy like that of England.

Democracy, however, has its way in France, as in America. Our president, deriving his authority direct from the people, really rules. His power is exercised by the French president, who, though not formally elected by popular vote, owes his power wholly to popular support, and must resign whenever that support fails him. This, too, is of course the British system of a "responsible ministry" with the premier at its head. In some ways it works more democratically than ours. France can get rid of its national executive in a month, or a week, if it wants to. In the United States, the change may be a matter of years, because the executive's term of office is fixed.

As far as Clemenceau is concerned, in losing the presidency he loses nothing that a man of his energy need lament—no power, nothing but an honorable sentence. He has been the real ruler of France, in some of its greatest years. For him, the presidency would have been a step down. This aged fighter still has big work left in him. He may accomplish more as a newspaper editor than he could as president, in the constructive era now beginning.

SHOES FROM SEA LIONS.

Bring on the sea lions! Their hide, it is said, is capable of being tanned and made into marvellously durable shoes. In fact, the hide is so tough that therein lies the chief obstacle to its adoption as shoe material. One pair of shoes would last so long that shoe dealers would have to give out sizes every year until their feet had attained their full growth.

Harrassed purchasers feel willing to try any kind of shoe that is cheaper than the ones on the market now and that is guaranteed to wear at least until the family shoe bills are all paid.

There is another thing in favor of shoes of sea lion skins— or, rather, against the sea lions. They are said to destroy thousands of terrible fish every season. A grown sea lion is reported as requiring fifty pounds of fish a day. Cod, halibut and salmon seem to comprise their favorite diet.

Certain kinds of work gloves could be made of this material, too, as well as saddles and other articles.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

From a "Fifty Years Ago Today" column we glean the pleasant information that "good overcoats" were advertised then at $6 apiece, clothed overcoats at $9 and "appendix, wool-lined overcoats" for $12; also that coats sold for 50 to 85 cents, and the best kid gloves for 70 cents a pair.

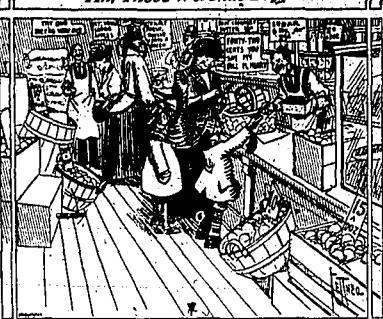

Ah, those were the good old days, were they not?

That, however, depended on the point of view. From the same column we learn that on that same day in January, 1870, there were $50,000 men and as many women out of employment in New York City. That was a good deal for the New-World of half a century ago. And imagine what must have been the total unemployment in our country.

People are inclined to think that conditions are pretty bad today. But just about everybody who wants to work is working at good wages. And after all, an overcoat at $75 is cheaper if you have the $75 than one at $12 if you haven't got the twelve.

When the truth finally gets around about North Dakota taxes, the anti-farmer crowd will be loud in declaring that the question is one of democratic principle rather than of exact figures.

SUNFLOWER TO MAKE BUTTER

Novel Experiment to Be Conducted at Kansas Agricultural College With Nestleus-Plant.

"Sunflower butter" may become a popular trade name as a result of an experiment running at the Kansas State Agricultural College.

It is to be given a diet of sunflower oil for a number of weeks, a close record of her milk production being kept during the test. It is done better, or as well, as sister cows who are subsisting on sorghum or corn silage, college experts believe that the status of the sunflower, Kansas' most persistent weed, will be changed to that of one of the state's most useful plants.

A silo at the experiment station has been filled with the common wild sunflower, the state flower and the favorite of Kansas poets. The feeding test will be started in the near future.

Dairymen are hopeful that sunflower may prove of value in making butter as well as poetry.

VALUE OF MELILOTUS PLANT

Melilotus, Reported as Weed and Nutritive to New Halted as Important Farm Crop.

Sweet clover, otherwise known as melilotus or bee clover, has been commonly regarded as a weed and a nuisance, but experiments made by practical farmers to determine its adaptability to various climates, its feeding value and its effect upon the soil, have shown it to be an important farm crop.

It thrives in great extremes of temperature and grows readily in soils too poor for alfalfa and where other grasses failed to produce a crop.

INCREASE INCOME FROM LAND

When Saved and Applied to Soil Manure is Valuable Waste Product—Also Fertility.

Farm manure is a valuable waste product when saved and applied to the soil. "Ricker" soils are needed to produce larger crops and at less cost. Store barnyard manure will enrich the soil and thus increase the income from the farm.

ALL IS READY FOR BURLEY CONFERENCE

Special Train Going From Twin Falls—Governor Davis Will Be Present

All is in readiness for the big Reclamation Conference that will take place Tuesday at Burley and a special train will run from this city. The Chamber of Commerce, it is understood, has made every arrangement for the train and the required number of people have signed up to make the trip. Twin Falls is certain to be well represented at this conference and a great deal of interest is being shown in the event. A number of reclamation experts have been secured to speak at this meeting. Governor D. W. Davis will be present to talk on the opening of the Brunneau tract and Frank R. Gooding is also planning to attend. Major Fred Reed, of the state reclamation association, will undoubtedly be the dominating personality at the sessions. He is very optimistic over the outlook for the reclaiming of arid lands and at the Burley meet will explain the methods to be pursued to obtain reclamation on the Brunneau tract in the speediest manner. There are 650,000 acres in this fine-looking piece of land and engineers have made many surveys to learn whether or not the project could be watered. The result of these surveys has in each case been gratifying.

Instead of accomplishing the purpose of preventing the opening of the Brunneau-Boise propagandists have united the people of southern Idaho in a strong effort to block reclamation will be made. Well known experts on irrigation will be present at Burley. There are many prominent farmers with representatives who are waiting at the station to meet the train and the Brunneau and several irrigationists will present plans for so doing. Burley is making every effort to get the delegations from every section of Idaho organized that are expected to throng the city. The local Chamber of Commerce has been assured that ample housing facilities will be provided. Much is being done for the entertainment of the visiting reclamation boosters by the people of Burley.

Canada Will Seek Far East's Trade

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 24.—To care for Vancouver and western Canada a large share of the trade with the far east, the local board of trade has arranged for a tour of representative business men in the orient, according to plans divulged here tonight. Representatives of prominent shipping and manufacturers are issuing invitations for the trip. This would be the first excursion of the kind ever attempted from Canada and considerable enthusiasm has been aroused over it. San Francisco and Seattle have heretofore taken most of the trade in it is explained here and the enthusiasm shown in this city has been aided by the withdrawal of Canadian shipping for transport services during the war. This advantage it is thought is offset by the loss of the orient. The Times job printing department is thoroughly equipped to do first class work at reasonable prices. ANTONIO MORENO
VITAGRAPH STAR

When Antonio Moreno, at the age of fifteen, walked on the plank from the Gibraltar docks to an American steamship, he was in reality crossing the bridge from nonentity to fame. "Abroad the Boat" was one of America's most distinguished actresses. Miss Helen Ware. Her attention was attracted to the handsome lad with the dark eyes, and she became interested in him.

"What do you intend to do when you reach America?" inquired Miss Ware. "Make a fortune," promptly replied young Antonio. "What means do you have in the theatre if you choose to become an actor?" "The prospect is now being realized," Antonio boasted as the star of such Vitagraph serials as "The Iron Ties" and "The Thunder Mountain," is earning international fame and a considerable fortune. While in New York recently he signed a two-year contract with the Vitagraph Company and is now engaged upon a new serial production dealing with secret service, entitled "The Invisible Hand." It is reported that he will also appear in some important feature productions.

ORCHARD MEN FORM SOCIETY FOR WARFARE ON TREE PESTS

Preliminary Steps Taken at Big Meeting in Parish Hall Yesterday Afternoon—Farmers From All Sections of Tract Attend

Preliminary steps in the organization of a horticultural society were taken at a meeting of orchardists in Parish hall yesterday afternoon. Fruit growers from all sections of the Twin Falls tract were present to co-operate in the movement, which has as its purpose protection from insect and other pests.

The call for the meeting which follows gives a suggestion of how acute the necessity for such action has become. "The proposition to organize such a society, was approved and a committee consisting of Granville Haight, J. A. Waters and T. George Hildebrand of the Cooperative orchardists, was appointed to prepare by-laws and report to an adjourned meeting to be held at the Farms Bureau at 2:30 Saturday afternoon, January 31.

Announcement was made that Chief Inspector J. C. Vandenberg had appointed J. A. Waters and Mr. Hosking local inspectors for the district. It was agreed that as the time for the first spray is not far off, that a large quantity of material will be required and that all such material must be tested by inspectors. The members of the tract must act in unison and act together if disaster to the industry is to be prevented. A motion was made to adjourn the meeting to the next meeting of January 31, to be given the widest possible publicity and that every man who has an orchard, large or small, be urged to attend.

Among those present at the meeting were Granville Haight, Nelson Hayward, J. R. Butteville, Joe Nolan, Roy Stewart, Guyon Green, J. Waters, W. A. Chadlin, George L. Watt, L. M. Campbell and T. George Hildebrand.

Following is the form of call: To the Fruit Growers of the Twin Falls Tract: Every orchardist in this tract is in danger because of the insect and other fruit pests from which we have been comparatively free because of our own orchards. We all know now that the laws of many states, Idaho among them, are being enforced to the extent of making it illegal to sell infected fruit. The Commissioner of Agriculture of this state has given due notice that the laws of Idaho in this regard are to be enforced this year.

TOURNAMENT OF BOWLERS IS ARRANGED

Will Be Held By Telegraph, Thus Assuring Competition of Very Best Talent

Promoters of the first International Industrial Telegraph Bowling Tournament report that to date over one hundred and twenty-five teams are expected to enter for the big ten pin classic to be held on February 21 of this year. Over one hundred and fifty more concerns have promised a team, and they are actively delaying the sending in of their entry until the last minute in order to be more able to select their best bowlers and have the strongest team possible in the field.

Entries will be received only until January 23, and those teams from this city which have the most will have to get their lineup in before that date. This is the first time individual concerns have been brought together in competition in the ten pin sport, and the manner in which the meet is being conducted, by wire, insures many crack pin men as participants, since bowlers from all over the country taking part.

Telegraphic tournaments have proved themselves successful, particularly in the western coast, where the Pacific Coast Bowling Association has been making them during the past few years. This time, however, the meet will be the greatest telegraphic bowling ever held in the history of the bowling game, as it already warrants over two hundred teams, and in itself is a record breaking entry for wire events.

Born at the foot of Devil's Tower in Crook County, Wyoming, he has naturally had to pretend that he was a villain, but some day he may play a gentleman's role and get rid of the villainous beard. Just now he is "Bulldog" in "Smashing Barriers," the new William Duane serial. He also starred with Mr. Duane in "The Fighting Trail," "Vengeance and the Women," "The Man of Might," and "A Fight for Millions."

ZBYSKO READY FOR ALL COMERS

Will Arrive in New York February 12 for Tour of National in Defense of Title.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—Standard Zbyszko, the European heavyweight wrestling champion, who is due to arrive in New York on February 12 for his American tour, will meet all challengers for the world's championship regardless of weight, color, or affiliation according to announcements today by his manager, Jack Herman of Chicago. Zbyszko will be ready to go to the mat with any wrestler in the country within ten days after his arrival.

Herman is being deluged with offers for the Polish giant, a great favorite with the American wrestling public, and it is likely that he will start his tour in New York, meeting one of the top notch American wrestlers. After filling a half dozen engagements in the east, Zbyszko will probably work westward, where offers are awaiting him. Judging by the stacks of offers the country is receiving daily, it seems that every wrestling promoter in the country, as well as hundreds of Polish organizations, are eager to arrange dates for Zbyszko.

anta and challenger, and can do it again.

Herman, who directed Zbyszko's affairs on his former trips to the country, is mapping out a pretentious tour, which will take the Polish giant to practically every wrestling center in the United States and Canada. Two of the largest arenas in the United States have already made offers for Zbyszko's services during the summer months, and Herman is also considering an offer from M. M. Alvarez, the leading promoter of Buenos Aires, for a tour of South America beginning June 1st.

BIG LEAGUE WILL START ON APRIL 15

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Eight National league teams will get away for the 1920 pennant race on April 15 and will traverse 164 laps up to October 1.

John Hayler, president of the National league, made this announcement here tonight following a return from a hunting trip with Dan Johnson.

Scenes of the four inaugural bids were not announced, as the details are to be considered at a league meeting Feb. 12.

Selection of a national commission is one of the vital problems to be solved during "baseball week," starting in Chicago Feb. 9. Choice of the men who will step into Herrmann's shoes depends almost entirely upon the joint committee of both leagues, appointed more than a year ago to recommend a new chairman according to the National league rules.

"Mr. Johnson and I have nothing to announce, we do hope, however, that the committee will get together and decide upon some agreeable to all parties."

Along with three boxing titles there came rumors from Albany this week, the legislature would be asked to repeal the Sunday baseball ban.

IT IS POOR ECONOMY TO UNDERFEED STOCK

Object Should Be to Carry Them Through Winter Cheaply.

Heavy Feeding of Calves and Yearlings Is Expensive—Cows Can Be Wintered on Good Hay Alone—Provide Shelter.

The principal object in wintering stock cattle is to carry them through winter cheaply. This is done by feeding them the right kind of feed. It is poor economy to underfeed cattle in winter and let them starve through the winter. It is better to feed them the right kind of feed and let them live through the winter. It is better to feed them the right kind of feed and let them live through the winter.

Some weather is advisable in winter. Even though only a little rain. When there are plenty of trees, cattle can often get along very well with their shelter. The following are some representative ration that might be used in wintering stock where fattening is the object: (1) 20 pounds alfalfa hay, (2) 20 pounds corn hay, (3) 20 pounds corn silage, (4) 20 pounds clover hay, (5) 20 pounds cottonseed cake. (6) 20 pounds corn or better silage, one pound cottonseed meal, 2 lbs. Bray, 1 lb. "Live Stock in Colorado."

SHARED VELVET BAG IS NEW

Attractive Model Designed for Evening Use as Well as for Dress Occasions.

Chiffon velvet shirred on a green-gold frame makes a bag that is smart enough to be a welcome rival of the hand bag which has held sway for so long. There have been many novelty offerings in the past months to take the place of the shirred bag, but there was none of them either in manner or in design good looking enough or elegant enough to attract my attention from women who really dress well.

This shared velvet bag is truly smart because the frame is made of such very beautiful and the velvet is only a minor part. The frame is green gold with the shirred in an elongated oval with the shirred at the top. The shirred, which may be in a shade to match the frame, is slipped to the frame, which makes it the very best of the bag and is double opening, not flat and the closing a well-timed interior. This is to be carried in the evening for all dress occasions, but is equally suitable for shopping.

WOOL PRICES TO GO UP, IS VIEW

D. F. Detweiler Advises Farmers Not to Hurry in Selling Season's Yield.

D. F. Detweiler of Piler, who has just returned from the wool growers' convention at Seila-Lake City, states that wool prices will be higher this season and that farmers should not be in a hurry to sell.

Mr. Detweiler also looked into the affairs of the Mutual Coal Company, and is very enthusiastic over the outlook for cheaper coal for the stockholders in the company. He states that subscriptions for stock are coming in rapidly, and that it will only be a short time before the entire block is sold. Mr. Detweiler, who is interested in the company, sold 500 shares in a few days, and states that it is an easy matter to sell the shares as the proposition appeals to those who are financially able to buy. The price is $10 for each, and each shareholder is entitled to buy two tons of coal at cost for each share of stock he holds as long as he holds the stock. The share holders will get back one-half of the amount they pay for their stock the first year in saving in coal.

The shareholders are required to place their orders so that the coal can be delivered each year before the first of September. This arrangement will enable the company to hold its organization together during the slack season, and enable them to produce more heavily during the busy season, when their output will be sold at current market prices.

The City Coal company will be the distributors for Mutual coal in Twin Falls. It is expected that the mine will be shipping coal by the first of June.

Dog Meat or Beef Steak

When, over a hundred years ago, the Lewis and Clark expedition crossed Idaho, they found traveling very difficult and the food question a constant source of worry. They were often glad of the opportunity to buy from the natives a worn-out horse or even a gaunt dog to replenish their meat supply. At that time homes and home decorations were unknown.

A score of years ago the settled settlers of the Twin Falls tract found traveling much easier and the food problem practically solved.

They built homes and attempted decoration with the materials at hand.

They were a long step in advance of the Lewis and Clark days, yet still primitive, as judged by modern standards.

Today in most of the things that go to make up an up-to-date American city Twin Falls folks are in the van.

But in things decorative they're still backward, still pioneers, as it were.

Are you satisfied to remain behind the times, deservingly speaking, or do you wish to modernize your home or office?

If you're really looking for something distinctive and up to the minute, let us tell you of the beauties of "Anonotous," Academy Blends, Tiffany Blends, Dappled Work, etc.

We'll use your favorite flower or idea in a harder design and give your room originality and up-to-the-minute.
