ADVOCATES PEOPLE OWN PACKING AND STOCK YARDS

STONE HAS PLAN TO LOWER LIVING COSTS SINCE GOVERNMENT IS MAKING NO MOVE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Packing plants and stockyards owned and operated by the farmers and workers were described today by Warren S. Stone, chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Enginemen and president of the Plumb Plan League, after making the statement that "the government has done nothing to reduce the cost of living and will do nothing."

The people must take the situation into their own hands," said the brotherhood chief, who began the cost of living agitation which led President Wilson to call the first industrial conference. "With nothing to expect from the government they must find relief themselves."

YANKS COOL TO GERMANS ON RHINE

PARIS, Feb. 4.—The American treat the Germans with more calmness and severity than any of the troops in the occupied zones along the river Rhine, according to Theo Blum, a French writer, who has just made a tour of the occupied portion of Germany.

At Mayence and in other towns in the zone occupied by the French Army Blum finds the Germans quite content.

General Mangin, who is as much a diplomat as a warrior, has felt the importance to our future relations with the Rhine people of the present occupation, writes Blum. "He has not attempted to oppress the natives. He has in every way attempted to recall to the Germans of the Rhine country the time when they themselves wished to be French. He has encouraged all manifestations tending to develop an economic relationship between France and the Rhine people."

Blum further recalls that General Mangin, surrounded by officers of his staff, attended a representation of a Wagnerian opera in the opera house at Mayence.

But at Coblenz the French writer finds that the civilian population avoid all contact with the American troops.

"We are not so well treated here as at Mayence," he quotes a German hotel proprietor as saying. "The discipline has relaxed a little since the first days of the American occupation, but the Americans treat us harshly and with great contempt. They have plenty of regulations to govern us and for the least fault they punish us severely."

"At first view, the English sector at Cologne has the same appearance as the American sector," continues Blum. "But there is less of the calmness that one sees at Coblenz. The English are not, like the Americans, the grave and thoughtful conquerors. They get on with even a little more of the 'let-things-go' the same carefree attitude of the French toward the Germans. In the beautiful shops of the Hallesstrasse I have seen the English and the Germans chatting freely in a familiar manner."

LIST OF HEROES WOMEN MAKE IN BUSINESS LIFE

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—Here are the main criteria women make in every-day business life given by Mrs. Evelyn L. Stern, head of the women's division of the Federal Securities Corporation.

"Neglecting to keep such receipts readily accessible.

"Inability to keep check-books balanced.

"Ineffective handling of valuable business papers.

"Attaching signatures to documents without proper understanding of their true meaning.

"Tendency to live beyond current income.

"Failure to conserve income and to consistently reserve hope of comfortable old age.

"Tendency to invest money on dangerous hazy without proper knowledge of facts.

"Failure to encourage the habit of thrift partially started during war conditions."

ILL LUCK HAUNTS MANSION SOCIETY TONGUES BUZZING

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The "Curse of Castlewood" has claimed another victim—the millionaire—millionaire mansion built in Colquhoun Point, Newport, a number of years ago by Louis Bruguere, and eventually sold to pay off the mortgage upon it, is said to bring bad luck to its occupants. The last of whom was the late Mrs. John Hanan, who died recently.

The linguists' tongues buzz and conjecture—like many theories they recall!

Many people remember the sensational exploits of the Bruguere family. What will they do next? The general comment upon the venture of their native son—Louis—in those days nicknamed by "Nation News" "Louis le Grand"—was the youngest of the four sons of the millionaire, millionaire of Newport, to storm the gilded gates of society. He became a favorite of such social arbiters as the late Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Harman Delbach. He gave charming bachelor parties and finally he bought a slice of land on Colquhoun Point and named "Castlewood" at a cost of $1,000,000.

When the new house was nearly completed Brother Emilie, poet, musician and artist, appeared on the scene and produced an opera called "Baroness Fiddlesticks," ridiculing well known persons of the set in "Louis le Grand" and his associates.

But this had disastrous results for the "le Grand's" ambitions.

Debt and financial embarrassment followed in the wake of the Bruguere family after the San Francisco fire made it necessary to mortgage "Castlewood" and finally to sell the property to meet demands. It was said at this time society "think"—supposed to be interested in Louis—became "worried" but need very kind at this time to Louis and his mother, the widow of Emilie Bruguere, a "starry-eyed" girl who had almost forgotten, although it was known that their fortunes were ebbing and they were living in debt.

It was about this time that Mrs. Pendar Bruguere, now divorced from Pendar, another son, came to share the gay town by the sea. But she was not the same. Her mother, who had left her almost $100,000, although it was known that their fortunes were ebbing and they were living in debt.

ANNOUNCEMENT

In these days of extremely high prices, are you interested in the idea of starting a Rochdale co-operative store? The real center of the Rochdale plan, which has been so successfully carried out for many years in other places, is the return of all net profits above expenditure and interest on stock to the farmers in proportion to the amount of business they have given to the store.

The Twin Falls County Farmers' Association unanimously think that the time has arrived to start this movement, and upon the suggestion of the Department of Agriculture are sponsoring the movement. At two recent meetings of farmers held in Twin Falls some $10,000 was pledged, the general opinion prevailing at both meetings that at least $50,000 should be collected before making a start.

Do you believe that we could, as farmers, deal collectively for our Groceries, perhaps Shoes and Clothing, Hardware, Lumber, Tires, Sacks, Coal, etc, and thereby make a saving, through collective bargaining?

Do you believe that such a store could help us as farmers in selling some of our products to better advantage?

If so, are you willing to do your bit to start the ball rolling?

Are you willing to buy stock at $10.00 a share and not more than 10 shares, the same to draw the legal rate of interest providing enough shares are sold to assure its success from the start?

If so, sign the attached coupon stating the number of shares you would like to have. In order to get this store started we must act quickly, as many as possible must take the limit of 10 shares.

At any rate, please sign the coupon and let us know what you think of the plan.

JOHN E. WHITE, Secretary.

FILL IN AND RETURN THIS COUPON TO DR. JOHN E. WHITE, SECRETARY, P. O. BOX 441, TWIN FALLS.

I am interested in what the Twin Falls Co-operative Store is doing to establish a Rochdale Co-operative Store in Twin Falls and am willing to do my bit.

I will buy _____ shares of stock at $10.00 per share, the same to draw _____ rate of interest at 6% conditionally upon the necessary amount of money being raised to assure its success.

THINK SAILOR KILLED GIRL

CLEVELAND, Feb. 4.—All information secured by the police today, expressed the belief that Mrs. Francis Blackwell, mother of a young girl, died at the hands of the man wearing a sailor's uniform who was seen with her 14-year-old daughter on the night of her death.

The girl, who was named as being a victim of the crime, was found dead in her room at the home of her mother, who was reported to have been killed by the man in the sailor's uniform.

The police are now conducting a thorough investigation into the matter and are expected to make an announcement in the near future.

W. S. TRAINING CORPS FOR WOMEN SEEK USE OF CAMPS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Members of the United States Training Corps for Women are endeavoring to have Congress pass a bill providing for the use of army property and equipment by camps of that organization.

In a letter to members of Congress, Miss Margaret A. Knight, dean of women at the Pennsylvania State College, declares the purpose of the campaign is to give the "use" of camps and equipment to women in industry needing healthful holidays where systematic training is done.

"The reasons are outlined as follows:—

1. Women in these camps will receive good training that will make them of better service to the country in time of public crisis.
2. There are not adequate private camps in the country adapted to that purpose.
3. These unusual camps and equipment could not be put to a better purpose than toward forwarding the health of the working women of the country."

In her letter to members of Congress Miss Knight says:—

"My own two years of war work in camps in France make me certain that the regular training of camp life is most beneficial to the physical well being of women."

Jenkins Is Kicked Out by Mexicans

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The Mexican government has cancelled the assignment of William G. Jenkins, American consular agent, to the office of that position until further notice.

This action makes Jenkins a persona non-grata to the Mexican government and will result in his removal as an American consular agent. The state department has not been officially advised of the action taken.

It was announced at the state department that custom does not permit a protest against this action. It was also stated that the status of the

Little Hope of Relief For Victims of Catarrh

Unless Old-Time Obsolete Treatment is Discarded.

Doublets during the mid-summer months you have enjoyed some relief from the disease, because there is always less enjoyment of the membranes during the summer months. You may be mistaken in thinking that your Catarrh is gone, for the very first raw, wintry day the delicate linings of the membrane will begin to again become irritated and sore. The air passages will begin to clog up, and soon you will find that your catarrh is still with you, making a winter as follows:—

What are you going to do about it? If you have had the disease for any length of time, the chances are that you have used enough local remedies to confine you, but there is no cure for the disease by the method of treatment. An eye-dropper to drag through another winter, with a warning and a little spraying constantly in an effort to keep the throat up air passages, will result in a winter as follows:—

HUMAN PRISON DISCIPLINE

It seems quite likely that if one penetrated the remote parts of the least civilized lands one would find practices little just about all the forms of cruelty and inhumanity which have ever existed. It is not pleasant, however, to realize that a good deal of inhuman treatment is still legally accorded to persons within our own territory.

The Atlanta Humane Society has been investigating the use of flogging as a disciplinary measure among city and state prisoners in Georgia. As a result of its findings the humane society has caused the prison committee of the Atlanta City Council and the State Board of Public Welfare to take immediate action to do away with this evil. An order has been issued by the council to stop flogging at the city stockade pending a thorough investigation. The "backing chair," in which it is alleged prisoners are strapped to receive their flogging, has also come under general condemnation.

Any one who is shocked at the fact that within recent years men and women have been flogged in Georgia prisons would do well to inquire into local prison regulations to see whether his own state is wholly free from cruel practices. No sane citizen would advocate, condoning crime or condoling criminals. But the day has passed in which enlightened men and women favor brutal and inhuman treatment of such persons. Cruelty and inhumanity do not compensate society for the wrong previously done by the criminal. Neither do they cause the prisoner to repent of his crime and seek to atone for his wrongdoing. They are far more likely to instill a feeling of revenge, and to increase rather than cure viciousness. The nearer we come to abolishing such evil and inhuman practices, the nearer we shall come to finding the real and lasting means of rehabilitating wrongdoers into good citizens and of protecting society from incorrigible criminals.

Did you ever notice that patriots who are always bragging about their "old-fashioned winters" stick pretty close to the fire when one of them comes along?

Hotel men are talking of charging for rooms by the hour instead of by the day. They ought to give a guest a rebate, then, if he misses any sleep.

No wonder hats cost more, when there's such a demand for them to throw into the ring.

POPULAR ASTRONOMY

Having completed our return journey from the sun and arrived home on our own planet, let us continue our travels into the realms of space and make the acquaintance of those members of the sun's family who are known as the superior planets, because their orbits lie outside of ours. Mercury and Venus being known as inferior planets.

The first in order we shall encounter the planet Mars at a distance of about 140,000,000 miles from the sun. It is next to the smallest of the planets, having a diameter of only about 4,000 miles, and consequently a surface less than a third of ours and a bulk of only about one-fourth. It makes its journey around the sun in about 22 of our months, and has a diurnal motion nearly the same as ours.

Leaving Mars behind, we shall then encounter what most astronomers regard as a record of a catastrophe in the family. Between Mars and Jupiter is known as a space of about 200,000,000 miles where there is no large planet, but in its place there are about 200 small bodies from a few miles in diameter to some about the size of our moon that are circling around the sun in orbits of their own and are known as asteroids, or starry bodies. These were formerly supposed to have been about the beginning of the last century, and at the time of my taking an interest in this subject there were only four known. These are what I have referred to as the "big" grand children, for it is now generally conceded that a large number of these planets or some reason broken up into fragments which continued to revolve in independent orbits and, it is supposed, about the same velocity as that of the original body from which they were formed.

But we must hurry along in our little balloon, as that is the name of the balloon, when I was fortunate enough to know used to say when we were planning an excursion to the moon. "Let us start on early, for life is short and science is long."

During our journey to approximately 200,000,000 miles, we arrive at Jupiter, the monster planet of the solar system, some 1200 times as large as the earth, and larger in bulk than all the rest of the planets combined. We see this clearly as we know that its mass is much less, in comparison to its bulk than the most of the other planets. This means that its magnetic force is much less than that of the earth, and continues to be a suspicion that I have always held, that, according to the latter hypothesis, in which we may have used to say something in the future, the planet may not have yet cooled much below the gaseous state. It rotates on its axis in a little less than 10 hours, hence the velocity of a point on its equator is many times more than ours. It makes its journey around the sun in about 12 of our years. When in opposition (which will be on Feb. 23) it will be a beautiful object, and with a good telescope its appearance is such that it has eight, can be seen. Its density is only about 1/4 that of the earth, yet its mass is so great that its attractive force is about 2 1/2 times that of the earth, so that a body weighing 100 pounds on the earth would weigh by our scales some 225 pounds on Jupiter.

Let us be on our way, for should we travel at express train speed, our entire trip would take about 6,000 years, provided that we did not come in collision with an asteroid or some satellite.

When we land arrived at a distance of about 200,000,000 miles we should come to the planet Saturn, the third remnant of the planets known to the ancients. It has a diameter of about 75,000 miles, and rotates upon its axis in a little over 10 hours. It has a year about 29 times as long as ours. It is well supplied with appendages. In addition to three moons, three brilliant ring rings, so that its light must be well adapted to shining on the front gate, facing on the surface. It is the lightest of all the planets, so light, in fact, that it could be thrown into an immense sea. It would float on its surface like a chip. The rings were discovered by Galileo in 1610, but he did not know what the nature of them was.

Treaty Friends to Meet Saturday

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—A meeting of the "friends of the treaty" on the Pan-American side was called for Saturday by Senator Hitchcock, the administration treaty manager, upon their return today from Omaha, Neb., his home city.

A plan for limiting debate not only on the peace treaty, but on all future legislation, was considered this afternoon by the senate ratification committee, of which Senator Knox, republican of Pennsylvania, is chairman.

A proposal to reduce the number of senate committees and to also increase the membership of the larger committees was also discussed. Senator Knox was authorized to appoint a sub-committee to consider the most objection of the senate adopting permanent closure and other aggressive reforms which would prevent filibustering and other hindrances upon legislative procedure.

A BIG BARGAIN in a new 5-room bungalow; has furnace heat, cemented basement, hardwood floors throughout the house; good sleeping porch; garage. Price with furniture, which is new, $5000, or will sell without furniture.

GROOM HOUSE, modern except heat, garage, etc.; lot is 100x125, and has all kinds of nice fruit. Price only $1500, and $1000 will handle this good place.

We have one of the best-built bungalows in Twin Falls. Has the best floors, the best basement, the best garage, close in. Price $6750.

We have two 4-room bungalows, one at $3200 and the other at $2900. Small payments will handle these splendid locations.

We have some good bargains in small houses with small payment down.

HOTEL FOR SALE

We have the biggest bargain in the state in hotel proposition. On account of poor health of owner this house will be sold at less than half what it would cost to replace. Think what it would cost you to build a building with 32 rooms; put in good hot water heating plant, two public baths and private baths in part of the rooms. All guest chambers are light and roomy, and no dark rooms in the building. All furnishings go with the building, including such as large carpets, large curtains, tables to seat about forty people in spacious dining room, dishes, office furniture, bedroom furniture; in fact, everything goes. The lot is worth at least $5000, and is 140x150 feet, in splendid location. Now, we can sell you this place, which we crowded practically all the time for less than half its real value. It will only take about $1500 to handle this place, and we can give you exceedingly easy terms on the balance. I have the exclusive sale of this place, and if you want a real money-maker, come in and let's get together.

we have to support our families? "It is true that wages have advanced considerably in the past few years but statistics show that the average increase has been 38 per cent, while the necessities of life have increased nearly fifty per cent. (Half the cost of living is reduced it will be necessary to maintain a wage corresponding so that the working people may be able to support their families.)

"I wonder what the employers association of Twin Falls would say if the working people of the cities were to do all buying through mail order houses and it appears to me that this would be the proper thing for them to do under such conditions, or better still, to establish for themselves a co-operative store."

The best definition of the word Re-Construction as applied to We Average Folks, is

Work---Produce Save

Opportunities for work are more plentiful than at any time in history—and Production. More Production is the cry of the world.

Would we consider this great problem as individuals, and from a strictly personal standpoint we probably would find that we are more lax in the matter of saving than any other one thing.

Thirty-eight per cent of the necessary expenditures of the average family is for groceries, hence the matter of purchasing groceries is important, in respect to saving.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH AWAKE

Great Movement Known As the Nation-Wide Campaign Being Started

A great movement known as the Nation-Wide Campaign is striking the life of the Episcopal Church throughout the country. This is hardly a journal of any size in any town of the United States that is not putting conspicuously before its readers this new birth in efficiency and consecration. In the last few years, every man, woman, and child in America, has felt a new pride in America. Every one has worked and sacrificed and given for a common cause. Never in the history of our country has there been so much loyal devotion expressed by its citizens. The religious life of America is slanting to capitalize all this patriotism in terms of religious devotion and service. It is this patriotic fervor that the Episcopal Church is having a very real part.

At the General Convention of the Episcopal Church held in Detroit in October 1919, the Church in convention assembled, endorsed this movement so enthusiastically that every delegate to that convention was nearly 1000 in number, went back to their respective States and cities and towns as messengers of this new revival in the Church. They returned as patriotic and as serviceable as the state. The organization is so complete that in no diocese is there a layman who is not a member of the Church. It is a layman's movement. The clergy have endorsed it but the laymen are doing the work. It is an attempt to utilize the strength to meet the problems and to realize the opportunities of the Episcopal Church.

About a year ago, an office was set up in New York City and a most efficient organization was organized. Then into the general budget, prepared at the central office, went the amount needed for missionary work. The work of this office is to collect, and the work of social service. The campaign is going so enthusiastically over this country that leaders believe that the amount of money which goes up into many millions of dollars, will be over subscribed and that the amount of money required to carry out this work, there will be hundreds and thousands of new workers in the ranks of the Church. Mr. Louis B. Franklin, the director of the Liberty Loan Campaign, is actively at work in the direction of this campaign. This fact alone encourages those who are undertaking the enterprise to believe that it is to be a large success.

This spirit of adventure has struck Idaho and the men and women of the Episcopal Church in Idaho are enthusiastically entering into this movement. The details have been worked out by the Church leaders, and the same cases as the parties of the Episcopal Church are already the same cases that has been over subscribed. When all the returns are in, it is felt by those in charge that the name of Idaho will stand as a most honorable place in the Episcopal Church life in America.

Diamond Hardware Showing Modern Army Equipment

The Diamond Hardware company is attempting to stimulate interest in the army by displaying a number of articles used by the army at the front.

Some of the articles shown are: Gas mask of shelter tent, canteen, mess equipment, Springfield rifle, sawed-off shotgun, German carbine, Crampton gun, Lewis gun, Stokes mortar, hand grenades and foot operating device. The exhibit is attracting much attention for it is one of the best ever seen in Twin Falls.

England Stops All Importing of Cotton

LONDON, Feb. 4.—The importation of cotton was stopped in England because of the unprecedented fall in the exchange rate on the English pound. Some cotton shipments were turned back.

The stoppage of imports is the first telling effect of the exchange rate reaching a point where it does not pay traders to import goods, said the Daily Express.

HEALTH RULES ARE LAID DOWN

City Department Gives Advice on How to Keep Well and Thus Prevent Disease Spread

A set of rules to observe to aid in the prevention of sickness has been issued by the city health department as follows:

The lovable "MICROBE" is all powerful when conditions, such as "UNCLE SAM'S DUES" aid in its propagation to destroy the peace and happiness of mankind.

How to Prevent Sickness

There is nothing mysterious about the prevention of sickness. Clean hands, clean food, clean hands, clean teeth, clean milk, pure water, fresh air, sanitary privies, war on flies and mosquitoes—these are the things, yet they are the things which will prevent much sickness.

Are you sure you are doing your part?

Do you keep your home clean and well aired?

Is your drinking water safe? If it is from a spring or well, are you sure that no drainage from a privy, cesspool, or stable can pollute the water?

Do the milk which your children drink either pasteurized or sterilized? Do they each receive three glasses of milk daily?

Does he get plenty of fresh air and is he kept out of the hot, stuffy kitchen? Do you know that bottles and cans should have orange juice each day after the first month?

Do you know that flies and mosquitoes carry disease, and do you keep them out of your home by proper screening?

Do you know that all colds, coughs, and sore throats are communicable diseases and that sickness is often spread by dirty hands. Do you always wash your hands before eating or handling food?

When any of your family is ill with scarlet fever, measles, diphtheria, whooping cough, typhoid fever, or any other communicable disease, is your health officer always notified so that he can help to keep the disease from spreading in your home?

Do you know that yearly medical examinations are useful in detecting early signs of illness and so prolong life? If you can answer "yes" to all these questions, are you certain that your neighbor can't? Don't let his carelessness endanger your health! In this great emergency the government looks to all of its people to give it their whole-hearted support.

Kitchen Shower—In honor of Miss Beale Berry, whose marriage to Mr. C. W. Berry will take place this month, Mrs. Samuel Hart entertained at last evening at a kitchen shower at her home. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Winnipeg Club—Mrs. A. E. Mann was hostess to the members of the Winnipeg club yesterday afternoon at her home. As time was spent in sewing and conversation and at the close of the afternoon-delicious refreshments were served.

WORKER HERE TO AID IN RAISING ARMENIAN QUOTA

Rev. Paroungian Says Far East in Dire Need of Assistance From America

Armenia and Armenia are in dire need of assistance, according to Rev. W. M. Paroungian, Sunday school superintendent of the Methodist conference in Oregon, who is in Twin Falls in aid in raising the $200000 quota for relief work in the far east.

"Never before was there as great a need for money to use in Armenia and Syria," said Rev. Paroungian this morning. "Many are starving there and the wretched condition of the people is a thing to be pitied. Although there are now 400,000 workers in those countries and a system of relief rationing has been inaugurated, thousands will starve unless aid from America comes in the near future."

America, according to Rev. Paroungian, is gradually waking up to the need of money for these countries. They are in a far away and an unknown, speaking from the angle of the American, that a realization of the distress there is almost impossible.

In addition to the above and the fact that the people of these countries, there have been other factors which are making it an unenviable transportation facilities and the general primitive methods used there.

FORMER WIFE OF DEMPSEY GIVES HELP

Refutes Alleged Statements That Champion Is Blacker or Tried to Bo

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8. Mrs. Maxine Dempsey, divorced wife of Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, today in a sworn statement before a notary public repudiated former statements alleged to have been made by her that Dempsey was a slacker and that he purposely evaded the draft law, claiming that she was dependent on him.

Mrs. Dempsey also appeared before Colonel Thomas, who is conducting the investigation for the department of justice into the Dempsey slacker charges, and presented to him the affidavit sworn before the notary public. Mrs. Dempsey also made a complete denial that she had at any time been in her possession of any money which she had written to her by Dempsey asking her to help Dempsey evade the draft law.

EVERY YEAR WOULD HE LEAP YEAR IF THIS IDEA PREVAILS

LONDON, Feb. 8.—Of course women should have the right to propose. They should have that right not only during leap year, but in any other year. Having that right, or maintaining that right, would be more likely than not that their march toward the new freedom will win full recognition of the new plank in their platform.

These are some of the conclusions from the discussion of leap year with which the year 1920 has opened in London.

The Drivng News 'Wagon' It with alarm.

"Since last year," says the News, "women have acquired the vote, women have been named on the P. and a woman sits in Parliament."

"Will the emancipated sex make a combined onslaught on the more valuable man's remaining prerogatives and leave him with only the second-hand of paying infatigably?"

The paragraph possibly was written by a mere man.

The testimony of the women on the right of proposing differs with the interview.

"Nowadays men seem to be so shy that it will become necessary for Miss Shirley Kellor, musical comedy star, and wife of Albert D'Arville, the producer, "that they often make the best husbands."

"Certainly not," says "Oleette," a woman writer. "For women it dispenses of all the romance of marriage and robs them of their most effective taunt. 'Well, you clinch me old doc!'"

As from Miss Rosemond Smith, treasurer of the Society for Equal Citizenship:

"Many women will feel different about proposing, but there is no reason why a woman should not 'put the question.'"

"It is really rather unfair that men should always suffer the humiliation of being refused."

"There should be an equality between men and women," says Mrs. Underwood, secretary of the Women's Freedom League, "and as women are becoming more and more independent economically, why should not they have the same right only in leap year?"

"Certainly not!" says the Hon. Mrs. Dennis Wyndham, daughter of Lord Halifax and a well-known English actress. "If a man had any authority he could not refuse if a woman proposed to him, and a marriage under such circumstances could only lead to disaster."

Mrs. Gertrude Wenworth-James, the authoress, wins for original mental reach by the subject of the subject.

"Women who do men's work," she says, "and can men's incomes should have men's privileges. Therefore, if they wish to propose they should do so."

"All the same, if a man wants a woman he will ask her. If he doesn't he has no authority to ask her to make him think he does by suggesting that she should become her husband."

"Also the flattering pleasure of being wanted is surely one of the great compensations for being a woman—and if we propose we miss all these sweet advantages as well as such a feminine need as elegance, silk stockings and accent."

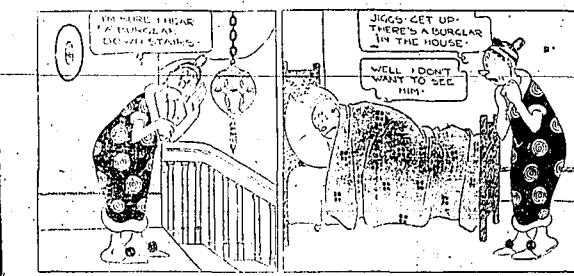

TO PROBE EXCHANGE RATE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Congressional attention was directed in the subject of high exchange rates and its effect on United States export trade this afternoon by Senator Thomas, Democrat of Colorado, who served notice that he will call up a resolution for the investigation of the money and exchange situation next Tuesday.

LEGION OUTLINES TRAINING PLANS

(By The Stars and Stripes Service) INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 4. State American Legion commander will move his national headquarters to American Legion, Indianapolis, Feb. 9, to take action to define more clearly the official policy of the Legion in war military training.

It is held that the wording of the resolution adopted at the Minneapolis convention is not quite clear, and terms "university" and "conservatory" both being used, and there has been question as to which was meant.

At Washington, D. C., the Legion, through its legislative committee, has again placed before Congress its universal training plan. On the Senate side this has virtually been originated in the Woodworth bill, which would require all young men when 15 years old to serve at least four months in military camp and then be enrolled for five years in the reserve.

In the House, however, the bill has been made and it is a fifty-fifty vote in committee.

Thomas W. Miller, of Delaware, chairman of the Legion's Legislative Committee, told the House Military Committee that "this country should adopt a policy of universal training for its young men as the only fair, desirable and adequate system of defense."

Opposed to Miller are:

The Legion is strongly opposed to universal training, the plan of the House.

Under the Legion's plan, Mr. Miller explained, that the initial cost for training the citizen army would come from the amount of recruitment. This would gradually diminish, he said, as the reserve became smaller. The total cost, both parties agreed, would be about $100,000,000, or $200,000,000 as at present.

JOHNSON IS ANXIOUS TO RETURN HOME

Negro Ring Champion Tries to Arrange Armistice With the Authorities

PHOENIX, Feb. 8.—An "armistice" offer for return to the United States "if he does come back to face a prison term" has been made by the Negro Ring champion, who has been kept over his head since he has some a further justice. He has been kept in a letter received today by Federal District Attorney Charles E. Jones from Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion.

The letter reads as follows:

"I am returning to Chicago in February providing this letter meets with your approval. I want to leave Mexico via Cuba and New York, my going will do a favor for me by arranging matters so I may come to Chicago without being molested or sent to New York."

"I am forced to ask you to give me thirty hours to arrange my departure and other things before the flight of my plane, which is at present, ready to leave."

"I will come one day to New York to meet you. I hope you will attend to the matter at once so I may be able to leave the early part of February."

District Attorney Clapp reiterated his stand that the government cannot accept any such offer.

JEWISH STATE LAUNCHES FIRST SHIP AT JAFFA

LONDON, Feb. 8.—The proposed Jewish State of Palestine is going to have a fleet, but it will comprise ships of trade and peace, not warships.

Israel Cohen, Zionist organizer, says the first Jewish ship, the Shalom, has been launched at Jaffa, and it will be used to repatriate Jews from Russia.

"But a Jewish nation will never indulge in war-ships," said Cohen after his return to the Holy Land. "If we have a fleet, it will be a fleet of peace, and we will be a peace-loving nation, and we will be a peace-loving nation, and we will be a peace-loving nation."

"I don't expect to see the Great White Fleet," said Cohen, when asked if he intended to leave by ship.

RIVAL FACTIONS SEEK POWER IN INDIA

LONDON, Feb. 4.—Two factions are fighting for supremacy in India, one for Indian independence and the other to maintain British authority and development.

No better reflex of this situation can be found than a simultaneous meeting recently at Amritsar where British soldiers are alleged to have massacred unarmed men and women, one for and one against British control.

Hakim Ajmal Khan, president of the Muslim league, reviewed British "transgression" and dealing with Muslims affecting the Khilafat and other holy places in the Ottoman Empire said:

"Muslims cannot be expected to forget that over these lands, the cradle of Islam, no non-Muslim can have the semblance of right to mandatory or other rule. Trampling on Muslim sentiments will create no transitory but permanent ruin in the Moslem world."

In another part of the city 8,000 delegates at an Indian national congress thanked the King of England from the grant of a new system of Indian government and welcomed the forthcoming visit of the Prince of Wales.

Jama Healy, writer on Indian affairs, asserts that Britain never deliberately set out to conquer the East, but just "got in for it" not because England wanted to govern India and the rest of these lands, but because "England merely wanted" to trade and to business there. He continues:

"Just at the more touch of the west and western blood the Mogul Empire, the most powerful government established in India during 1,000 years, collapsed like a house of cards."

"There was no secure government. Our unhappy traders had to fortify their factories and depots. And from that we have grown our Indian Empire and all our present interests in the East."

"Every administrator, from Clive and Hastings onward, has tried to avoid taking over the government of new territories, has done his best to keep out of them (but always with a good round eye on the revenues which the writer overlooks), and when forced in the interest of our ideals (the same British commitments and obligations) to justify them, has proferred to buttress up some native ruler (it was less expensive) rather than the rule of the British Empire (which was disliked).

"And the native ruler has not been fit for the job, the old anarchy has now returned, and it has meant another little march for the British soldier."

The writer points out that despite official instructions not to enforce upon native authority the force of circumstance caused annexations.

What a job! Try a "Ghation Wanted" ad in our want columns.

RE-STATEMENT

Under the Legion's plan, Mr. Miller explained, that the initial cost for training the citizen army would come from the amount of recruitment. This would gradually diminish, he said, as the reserve became smaller. The total cost, both parties agreed, would be about $100,000,000, or $200,000,000 as at present.

RE-STATEMENT

"I am returning to Chicago in February providing this letter meets with your approval. I want to leave Mexico via Cuba and New York, my going will do a favor for me by arranging matters so I may come to Chicago without being molested or sent to New York."

RE-STATEMENT

"I don't expect to see the Great White Fleet," said Cohen, when asked if he intended to leave by ship.

RE-STATEMENT

"Every administrator, from Clive and Hastings onward, has tried to avoid taking over the government of new territories, has done his best to keep out of them (but always with a good round eye on the revenues which the writer overlooks), and when forced in the interest of our ideals (the same British commitments and obligations) to justify them, has pro-

Three Drop Corn Killer

"Ole-It" Stops Pain Immediately and Corns Go Quick.

The way to handle corns is the tried and true "Ole-It" way. The way that millions have found reliable, easiest, safest and most reliable.

A few drops of "Ole-It" knock out the pain of "blistering" corns and soon loosen it as if it were a piece of wax. It is so simple and so comfortable! How grand to walk and move with a single "Ole-It" drop! Why not try it twice? Why not try it every time you feel a corn coming, guaranteed money-back corn remedy, sold in all drug stores. Alberta Seed Takes First Prize

At the Annual Idaho Seed Show at Pocatello, Jan. 12th to 15th, seed grown at Brooks, Alberta, took the first prize and one second. The first prizes were Red Clover, Beans, Peas, Wheat and Oats. The second prize was for White Clover. Think what it means for a big new country, where quantity has been the slogan, to drop down into one of the best seed-growing states, where experts have for years nursed their first products for show purposes, and carry off the first prizes.

At Brooks they grow besides Clover, Beans, Wheat, Oats and Peas, Spuds, Sugar Beets, Alfalfa, Flax and all kinds of garden truck in quantity and quality that are second to none. It means, further, that you can buy Irrigated Flax in Alberta for 80¢ per acre that produces on a year with 4000 bush in Idaho. The terms of this 400 bush are most inviting, three bush down, second payment due in four years, then sixteen equal annual payments, well within the first two years at 2% per cent. less 6% per cent.

CLAIM GERMAN GOVERNMENT IS TRYING SHIELD WAR CRIMINALS

Lerner's Refusal to Transmit List to Berlin Authorized by Government, Said

PARIS, Feb. 4.—Hans Kurt von Lerner, who resigned as head of the German peace delegation, rather than submit the allies list of alleged German war criminals to Berlin, acted under the authority of the German government, it was announced this afternoon by the diplomatic secretary.

This announcement put a much more serious aspect upon the incident as von Lerner's action in announcing his resignation and returning the allied list of German war offenders, along with the "Liberation Letter" to Premier Millerand had been regarded as merely reflecting von Lerner's personal attitude. It was said.

An unconfirmed report was in circulation that the allies may permit the trial of the wanted German officials—including army officers and high officers of state—in Germany, with the allies acting as prosecutors. The evening papers regarded the situation in a serious light. The "Liberte" demanded that Germany observe Lerner's action. The council of ambassadors which met hurriedly at noon to consider the new situation arising from von Lerner's move is expected to issue a statement tonight.
