FEBRUARY WILL BE VERY PECULIAR MONTH

February, 1929, will be a peculiar month. February 1 falls on a Sunday, and February 29, the last day of the month. There will be seven full moons in February that is, for bankers and others, but for the common workman but five. There are five Sundays in February and the customary two legal holidays, Abraham Lincoln's Birthday and the anniversary of George Washington's birth. Such a February has not been experienced since 1829, and there will not be a similar one until 1948, a full century hence.

WOMEN AT CONVENTIONS

Women are certainly getting into politics with both feet. They are going to be a good many of them at the big national conventions this year. Many have already been named as delegates, formally or informally, and the number is sure to grow.

Imagine anything like that in the olden days! How Mark Hanna or Grover Cleveland would have gazed incredulously at the prospect of any such profanation of convention halls!

For profanation it would have been according to the masculine notions of that time—and, be it said confidentially, profanation it is even this year of grace, drouth and feminism. For the men are not inviting the women to those conventions because they want them there. The party leaders say they want them, but they do not. It is fear, rather than love, that prompts them.

Each party is afraid that if it does not welcome the women to full fellowship, or at least a semblance of fellowship, in the inner circle, the other party will do it, and then the women will flock to that other party. Or, if neither of the big parties does it, the women may form a party of their own. So it is an official endorsement for many women of the male politicians. Hence, they cannot get along without, and the glad hand and set smile for any ally who may drift conventionward unofficially—but drop down in the hearts of those politicians, discomfort and doubt.

For it is embarrassing to have the women around at such a time and place—any man can see that, though few women will see it, and few men are honest enough to admit it. For one thing, a convention will have to be more orderly and respectable, more on its good behavior, with the women in attendance. That may be easier now than in pre-prohibition years, but the forced toning down of conduct and proceedings will still come hard to the old-timers. Less noise, less profanity, less free speech in general, less scuffling, less scuffling, less insanity on the floor of the convention hall.

Those conventions will just have to be a bit civilized, don't you know? And perhaps a little more straightforward. Women have such a way of demanding the simple truth, of knowing what they want, and going straight to the point and refusing to be put off with subtleties and compromises. To think that the representatives of great parties should ever be driven to that!

BREAKING THE DEADLOCK

Lord Grey, whose mission to the United States seemed a failure, may really be the means of breaking the treaty deadlock at Washington. His letter to the London Times has done much to clarify public opinion in both countries and speed up official action.

As a result of that generous and statesmanlike utterance, the British and American understand each other's viewpoint better. The British begin to see more clearly that there are real difficulties, constitutional and traditional, in the way of full American acceptance of the treaty as it stands; that great numbers of Americans are sincerely desirous of promoting the cause of world peace and helping less fortunate nations out of their troubles, and have been influenced by conscientious Americans rather than selfishness and indifference.

BOY SCOUTS' MONTH

If there are any parents whose 12-year-old sons are not Boy Scouts and who know little about the movement, this is the month for them to learn something of this great and growing organization.

Ten years ago the Boy Scouts of America were organized. Today there are active divisions in every state in the Union, in Hawaii, Porto Rico and Alaska. There are now thousands of adult leaders and 750,000 boys.

What things is this small army of active boys learning? Every Scout is pledged to do a good turn daily for other people—any act of friendliness, without thought of reward, from genuine good will. Scouts are trained to be useful to other people, to run errands, to lend a hand in emergencies by helping the stalled autoist, putting out a fire, rescuing drowning or injured persons, preventing panic. Scouts know how to build fires, too, at the proper time and place and in the quickest, most efficient way. They are trained to work with skilled hand and cool head and to give unselfish, voluntary, intelligent service.

The Scout oath, which every Scout in the land will renew on the evening of February 8, is very readable over and thinking about. It furnishes a guide to daily living which any boy or girl, man or woman, could adopt with pride and self-respect. It is:

- "On my honor I will do my best:
"1. To do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the Scout law;
"2. To help other people at all times;
"3. To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight."

This is a comprehensive pledge and one not easy to keep. But it is not a great thing to have 750,000 American boys doing their best to keep it.

SUFFRAGE IN FRANCE

Miche France, with all her supposed backwardness in matters concerning the political rights of women, will yet beat the United States in woman suffrage.

A suffrage bill introduced in the Chamber of Deputies by Jules Guesde, the Socialist leader, is said to have the support of nearly all the party groups in the Chamber, and is therefore pretty sure of passing. It is a thorough-going document. It provides that "all registered dispositions establishing the inferiority of women as compared with men are hereby suppressed," that "women are admitted to benefit by all laws which hitherto have applied only to men," and that "all future laws will affect the human being without distinction of sex."

That last provision is especially noteworthy. When there are no laws permitted except laws that "affect the human being without distinction of sex," it will certainly be a recognition, at last, that "women are people." And in France, too, without any suffrage movement worth mentioning? It is to marvel, and there is something new under the sun.

TRAMPS GOING TO WORK

Thoughts of work used to drive hoboes to drink, but now prohibition is driving them to work. An official of the New York Central Railroad recently commented on the fact that there were no more regular tramps today.

During war days anti-lounging laws got after these social wanderers in many localities and forced them to engage in some productive occupation. And now that they have had a chance to regain their old habits of idleness, they find themselves deprived of the warmth of the auto-stove, the filling qualities of the free lunch and the drinks that brought these with it.

If former hoboes are really turning to regular work to fill the vacant hours left by the passing of the saloon, they may get the surprise of their lives when they find that genuine satisfaction and pleasure are to be derived from honest toil, and that a little cash in the bank will enable them to travel with self-respect and comfort when the roving spirit returns.

SELF HELPING COMMUNITIES

The Indian at the party, served with viands from a side-board, remarked:

"Too many people helping Indian. Indian will help himself."

And he proceeded to do so.

A great many Americans would find it easy to sympathize with the red man's point of view. As we look back, it is apparent that an outstanding fault of many past social service activities has been "too many people helping Indian," and not enough people helping Indian to help himself.

The average man and the average boy object to being forced over. The experience of War Camp Community Service drew that fact hard upon the consciousness of the community workers whose business it was to minister to the comfort and recreational needs of the enlisted men. It was found that, given the tools, the opportunity and a touch of leadership, the unformed men would go a long way in working out a satisfactory recreation programme. It was not that they did not need guidance. They did, and appreciated it. But they did not need and did not appreciate a condition in which there were "too many people helping Indian," that Indian had no chance to help himself.

Social relations, having in the past been so largely dictated by whim, tradition or prejudice, are seldom logical (unless consciously and intelligently realized). Then, too, there is always the paradoxical situation that the more people there are to know in any one place, the harder it is to know any of them.

One of the present day social phenomena is the extent to which the words "Community Service" have got into the current vocabulary. It would be going too far to characterize Community Service as a new idea. As the term is used nowadays, though, it could properly be said to stand for a new attitude—"community service" meaning the outgrowth of War Camp Community Service, meaning the individual by organizing the community, by making community life a conscious activity.

It is impossible to establish community life by decree, just as it is impossible to establish friendship by compulsion. There are those who imagine that people can be ordered together, commanded to be sociable and left to their fate. Desirable community life is a growth. Moreover, there can be no community life where there is no community service. Unless community life is a growth, it is without root and exists as a superimposed structure. All of that throws us back to the starting point. It is the business of organized Community Service to see to it that there are not so many people helping Indian that Indian has no chance to help himself. Organized Community Service really supplies the stimulus, the impetus and initial direction, but the community must stand by reason of its own strength.

DEMAND LEAGUE RECOGNIZE SUFFRAGE

LONDON, Feb. 8.—The League of Nations has got to fully recognize the Woman Suffrage movement in every way or the women of the world will have to take drastic and telling action.

This was the declaration made by Miss Christ Macmillan, first secretary of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance, on her return from Spain, where she has been for the purpose of attending for the International Convention of the organization next May. This will be the first international convention held since a year before the world war, and in the meantime many changes have occurred, several countries having granted full or partial suffrage to both sexes.

"In spite of the fact that many of the countries of the world have granted equal rights to women," continued Miss Macmillan, "it is a fact that there are many so-called intelligent nations which deny equal rights to women. Italy and France in this hemisphere and all the South American nations in the Western world refuse to recognize the right of women to have an equal division with the men in vital matters of social or political interest. This is going to be altered and all the energies of the Woman Suffrage Alliance are going to be devoted to seeing that these nations, together with China and Japan, give us what we should have."

"After seven years the International Alliance is going to hold its full convention in Madrid from May 2 to May 8 inclusive. This meeting, held at so critical a period after so many years of separation, is of supreme importance. Since our last convention, held at Budapest in 1913, thirteen new countries have given the suffrage to women, but many still remain in darkness.

"We also the women of the West, for many of whom the work of emancipation has hardly begun. Even in the countries which have the suffrage for women there is much to be done, for in no country does there exist an equal moral standard, full economic opportunities or equality in marriage relations. This must be altered and we must—and will insist on our rights in these matters.

"The League of Nations must incorporate in its rules such amendments or orders required by the free women of the world. The time has come when we can demand that the League of Nations shall be studied by the various governments of the countries interested."

RUPERT WINS FROM LOCAL LEGION TEAM

The Rupert American Legion basketball team defeated the Twin Falls Legion aggregation Saturday evening at Rupert by a score of 23-19. The Twin Falls team fought hard from start to finish but was unable to overcome the lead the Rupert boys acquired early in the game. The Rupert fans said it was the hardest battle seen on the home floor this year. Rupert is coming to Twin Falls next week and the boys are planning to get revenge. They will no into the contest with blood in their eyes and try to even the score. The defeat at Rupert is the first one handed the local team and the Twin Falls boys mean to show the fans here that they have a team worth supporting.

George Dow Is Laid to Rest

The funeral of George M. Dow, who died recently from the effects of an operation, took place yesterday at the Methodist church. A large crowd thronged the building. There was music by the choir and the sext sang a solo. Representatives of the various lodges of which the deceased was a member were present and occupied reserved sections of the house. Rev. Alexander G. Bennett delivered the funeral sermon. Burial was made in the Twin Falls cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the Noble Order of Odd Fellows, Rebecca and many friends and neighbors for the faithful services rendered us during the illness and death of our lady, Mrs. M. R. Barnes. Eden, Id.

DON LYMAN'S Real Estate Bargains

5 ROOM MODERN house, one of the very best-built houses in the city; beautiful oak floor, smooth tile, bath, throughout; the house has a roomy bath, with good fixtures; clothes shoot to basement; full-sized mirrors running full length of closet doors in bedrooms; glassed-in sleeping porch; the back porch off of kitchen is also glassed in; a fine cemented basement, all partitioned off tight for each department, such as: bath, laundry, kitchen, dining room and coal room; has hot and cold water in basement, basement drain, stationary laundry tubs; good lawn and plenty of shade; also has a fine large garage for two cars, good floor and pit. This property is close in, and for the man that does not wish to walk one to two miles to his business, this is the only real bargain I know of in close-in residences. Price $6500; $3500 cash.

FARM LANDS

For the man that wants lands that are cheaper and the most productive lands in Idaho, I have them, and I do not want you to take my word for this, and do not pay any attention to what a knocker may tell you that knows nothing about the true condition, but investigate for yourself; use your own head, and then decide for yourself.

40 ACRES that is as smooth as a table; not a ripple on it in any way; has fairly good and neat improvements; deep well, fine soft water; has 10 acres in red clover for seed to plant; 10 acres in winter wheat that is looking fine; balance ready for anything you want to plant. Price $200 per acre. No better land in Idaho.

40 ACRES, and a splendid 40, all in hay; has small house; deep well; fine soft water; some of the best potato land in Idaho; close to loading station; all right for raising cantaloupes or any early strain you would want to raise; cuts four crops of alfalfa. Price $175 per acre.

56.1-3 ACRES, as pretty a piece of land as you would want to see; about half in hay, balance was in corn last year; has two small houses, one 4-room and one 2-room; good shade and beautiful lawn; family orchard; abundance of shrubbery; good granary; chicken house, potato cellar; good well; not a foot of unutilized land; all fenced. I do not care what the knocker says, this land has produced the record-breaking crops, and will do so, and isn't that what you want? Price looks good, too. Only $12,000.

I have many more splendid bargains that are good, and I am looking for the best things all the time, and if you want lands that are worth the price, come in and let us reason together.

My office is at 141 Madison E., opposite Booth's.

S. A. WORKERS ARRIVE IN T. F.

Temporarily Located at Perrine Hotel—Will Begin Work As Soon As Possible

Ensign and Mrs. John Naton have arrived in Twin Falls from Salt Lake, where they are in charge of the Salvation Army organization in the district. Both are experienced workers and are very enthusiastic over the prospects. The present S. N. Healy, of the local advisory board, met them at the train and took them to the Perrine hotel where they were quartered at the present time. They expect to be located in a suitable building in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Naton have a large working force in Twin Falls and they plan to begin at once as soon as they have a pleasing personality and it is predicted that they will be very successful in their new location. Some time ago a Great Salvation Army leader for the entire northwest, gave a talk before the local post of the American Legion, explaining the purpose and aims of the organization both in time of war and peace. His talk convinced the people of the need of a corps of workers here and arrangements were immediately made to bring Ensign and Mrs. Naton to this city. The new workers have not outlined their plans yet but will do so in the near future. They expect to work along the same lines as in other cities and will endeavor to be very thorough.

THREE SKELETONS ARE FOUND IN BRITISH MINING GROUNDS

LONDON, Feb. 8.—A flood of great historical importance is reported from the district of Surrey, where three skeletons, nearly perfect in preservation and believed to be the remains of Anglo-Saxon warriors who flourished in the fifth and sixth centuries, were dug up. Two of them are believed to have been chieftains. The roots of a tree were found tightly wound about the bones, which indicate more than a half-century of decay. Two awards of superior workmanship, a bronze belt buckle and other relics were near the bones. In all cases the teeth were nearly perfect, although some of the bones of the body had crumbled away. No trace of coffin was found, but the bodies had been carefully prepared for burial. One warrior had been a fine figure of a man, standing six feet, three inches high. He was wearing a "BRITISH" sword. Miss Edith Kappen, of Seattle, gave a most interesting address which was much enjoyed by the young people. Miss Kappen is an excellent speaker and everyone who missed hearing her missed a treat. Mrs. V. C. Willey of Boise, who was substituted for her in Twin Falls with Mrs. C. G. Lippincott, was unable to attend.

DEATH FOLLOWS CRASH OF CARS

One Killed and Seven Hurt in Sault Lake City Crossing Week-End Yesterday

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 8.—One woman was killed, and seven persons were injured, three perhaps fatally, when two automobiles collided here yesterday afternoon at a street crossing here late yesterday.

Mrs. Melvina Clark, 53 years of age, was instantly killed when her body was hurled from the automobile, her head striking an asphalt machine forty feet away. The injured: Miss Sabina Clark, 20; Mrs. Louisa Lawson Clark, 20; Miss Clark, 20; Mrs. Viola Clark Wilcher, 24; Richard Clark, 10 months; and Lieutenant William Walker, U. S. N., 24 years old.

Mrs. Clark and relatives were on their way for the cemetery to attend the funeral of her daughter when the accident happened. The news reached the newspapers and arrangements could be made for the joint burial of mother and daughter.

Lieutenant Walker, driver of one of the cars, was held on an open charge at the city jail, his bond being fixed at $5,000.

FILE DEMURER TO PETITION

Canal Company Alleges Petition Does Not State For Whom Votes Were Wrongly Cast

Declaring that the amended petition filed recently by Frank DeKloze and others making no mention of the late canal company election does not state for whom the ballots were wrongly cast and it is not specific in stating whether the Twin Falls Canal company and Kennedy, Barker, Lincoln and Brown, the defendant directors, have filed through their attorney, James H. Lockwood, a demurrer. Their demurrer runs, in part: That the petition is uncertain in that it can not be ascertained from same whether or not said or what votes, if any, were cast for F. A. Kennedy, or what votes, if any, were cast for Leon Ahlborn or what votes, if any, were cast for J. H. Barker, what petitioners allege to be illegal, nor can it be ascertained therefrom whether or not said by the number of shares that those on behalf of whom it is alleged votes were cast by proxies or otherwise.

That paragraph 8 of said amended petition is uncertain in that it fails to state for who the bundle stockholders were that refused the right to vote or whether or not said or bona fide stockholders requested that privilege and it fails to state what persons were not bona fide stockholders were allowed to vote in aid of persons who were bona fide stockholders or in what numbers of the amount of shares were refused the right to vote and in their stead those who were not bona fide stockholders were allowed to vote in aid of the alleged illegal votes were cast.

JANUARY RECORD MONTH AT TWIN FALLS LIBRARY

The past month has been a record month in the use made of the Twin Falls Public Library. The circulation totals about 6900 volumes, and during the month of January, 6320 volumes were checked out. It is to be expected that the larger part of these were books of fiction. However, the use of technical books, books of history, and current interest has been greatly increased. Over two hundred new members were also added to the library during January.

Special attention is being given to books for his grade. The library in the schools have cooperated with the librarians, in supplying a type written list to each child of the best books for his grade. The librarians to have a sufficient number of these books so that each child may obtain one suited to his age and grade.

Among the new magazines subscribed to by the library this year are: The Saturday Evening Post, Current opinion, and Scribner's.

The Times job printing department is thoroughly equipped to do first class work at reasonable prices.

Daily and Sunday Times, $7.50.

ARE YOU GOING TO RAISE WHEAT?

I have two samples of wheat on my desk.

One was raised at Goose Lake on land that cost me $25 an acre; $125 a net for water, and 400 an acre taxes. I got $2.01 a bushel, and the yield was about 40 bushels an acre.

The other sample was grown on land at Coeur d'Alene that I value at $300 an acre; $3 an acre for water, and $2 an acre taxes. The yield was about the same as the other, but I got $2.50 a bushel less for the same grade of wheat.

Let me tell you more about this proposition.

Twin Falls Times Business Guide

FORTY PIECES OF POPULAR SHEET MUSIC BY THE BEST COMPOSERS enclosed in a neat folio will be given away each week by The Times for its Advertisers in this Guide.

FIND THE MISSING WORD "CONTACT"

Seven letters have been purposely omitted from the advertisements on this page. The seven letters will spell "Contact" when correctly arranged. Find the missing letters, write down the names of the advertisements where the letters were omitted and mail your answer to Guide Manager care of Twin Falls Times. Neatness, originality and correctness will count.

HOW ABOUT YOUR SUPPLY?

Kindly take note:

Cal. Product News, Jan. 24—"Something like $3,000,000 in Eastern Capital has gone into Cal. vineyards and necessary Dehydrators the last six months. It is no secret that practically 80 per cent of all the so-called "Grape Syrup" made this season by boiling down grape juice is being used in private homes for making wines by distilling the same. This "Grape Syrup" is a concentrated product and eliminates the high freight costs so fast now the man without a Dehydrator is out of luck."
