NATIONAL SUFFRAGE TREMBLING IN BALANCE, 10 STATES VOTE

SEVEN STATES OUT OF TEN NEEDED TO RATIFY AMENDMENT—IDAHO WILL ACT TODAY—SOME REFUSE TO MEET

Situation is Viewed With Doubt Although Some Suffrage Leaders Profess Confidence That Needed States Will Approve

Biese Now is Not Quite So Obese

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Through one of the most remarkable surgical operations on record, Paul Biese, well-known military surgeon, and one of Chicago's hospital men, in two weeks has lost 100 pounds of extra weight. The operation was performed by Dr. Max Thorek, who removed 100 pounds of extra fat from Biese's abdomen. "The operation was a plan-nature," said Dr. Thorek. "It was impossible for the excess fat to return. With the removal of the extra fat, the skin was cut away and tightened so that fat can no longer grow about the skin. Biese will later have fat removed from his neck and face. He will be completely recovered in two weeks, Dr. Thorek said.

1400 MINERS OF L. W. W. STRIKING

Increased Wage, Better Conditions and Eight-Hour Day Demanded

RAILROAD CITY, Feb. 11.—Between 1300 and 1400 lead, copper and silver miners are on strike in Idaho following a strike order issued by the mine and mill industrial workers' union No. 606. The mining branch of the L. W. W. which went on strike at 7 o'clock yesterday morning and four large underground mines are closed this morning as the result.

Despite alerts and guards are on duty to prevent any disturbances. The L. W. W. fight started, so far as is known, has been quiet. Six men were arrested yesterday for carrying dangerous weapons. Although they did not desire to go on strike, they were released upon their promise to leave town at once, they were taken to the jail at Radium. Although they were released upon their promise to leave town at once, they were taken to the jail at Radium.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The federal suffrage amendment giving women the right to vote in national elections is trembling in the balance. Needing for ratification purposes seven more states out of a total of ten, the measure is in a doubtful position. It is beginning to look as though only the heroic intervention of one or two of the big parties can save the measure from defeat. In the event of a presidential election is concerned. This intervention, it is believed, may ultimately come about, for women's suffrage generally considered eventually inevitable with some sixteen million votes dependent thereon, male politicians here are prepared to resort to drastic measures to prevent their particular party from having to bear the blame of defeating the movement. Today Idaho will cast her vote for or against national woman's suffrage. For the Arizona legislature in special session will do likewise. On Monday New Mexico will follow suit, and though none of these states is considered a certainty, the national suffrage party here is hopeful. Oklahoma probably will vote next. Governor Robertson of that state having been urged to call a special session of the legislature for February 23. An Oklahoma already adopted woman's suffrage, it is believed who will ratify the federal amendment. It is anticipated, in a regular session this month, and is expected to ratify, but the legislature is expected to meet in Vermont, Delaware, West Virginia and Washington—the future is hazy.

In some of these states the governors are opposed to the amendment and refuse to call the special session necessary to pass upon it. Wealthy Banker Defending Suit of "Irish Rose"

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 11.—O. H. Gray, millionaire banker of Evansville, Ind., defendant in suit for $500,000 for breach of promise brought by Miss Ann O'Connor, "Irish Rose" of the city, is defending the suit. Gray is in his own defense and flatly refused much of the girl's testimony regarding the alleged matrimonial agreement. Gray told the jury he had never seen the girl until she came to his quarters at night during his stay in London. He said she had never arranged for Miss O'Connor to come to America, although he said he had not refused to do so. Probes Other Schemes Used For Newberry To Beat Ford

Government Charges Helms Was Paid to Run Against Ford at Michigan Primary

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 11.—The government took a new tack today in steering the prosecution of Senator Truman H. Newberry, and his campaign aide, taking to the candidacy of James W. Helms, Henry Ford's primary opponent.

A dozen witnesses were placed on the stand to testify that their signatures to petitions placing Helms in nomination were forgeries. The government contends that Helms was induced to run by Newberry's managers and paid for making the race. Special Assistant Attorney John Daily, announced that he would prove that the petition containing the forgeries were, stipulated by agents employed by the Newberry senatorial committee.

ASSEMBLYMEN QUARRELING AMONG THEMSELVES WHILE HEARING SOCIALIST CASE

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 11.—Disension again broke out today among members of the assembly judiciary committee which is seeking to determine the fitness of five New York socialists to sit as members of the house.

The statement made last night by Assemblymen Bloch and Evans, both members of the committee, protesting against the manner in which the "case" is progressing, provided the "canon belli" today. No member had Chairman Martin trapped for order than Louis Carter, Tammany member from New York, asked to be heard.

"I want to go on record," he said, "as opposing as a member of this committee, the statement made by members Bloch and Evans that they would not be surprised if a majority report would not recommend seating the socialists. Their statement also says that:

"Loyalty is a test. It is a test dangerous to representative government because the question of what is or is not loyalty is an opinion subject to change."

Republicans Toning Down Reservations

Lodge Agrees to Revision of Demands by Mild Reservationist Faction

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—A new compromise on the disputed Lodge reservation to Article X of the League of Nations covenant was agreed to this afternoon by Republican leaders seeking ratification of the peace treaty.

Framed by the Republicans "mild reservationists," the new proposal embodying a modification of the Lodge reservation will be offered when the senate takes up the treaty again on Monday, it was announced.

Republican leaders expressed the hope the proposal would prove acceptable to the Democratic side and would pave the way to the breaking of the deadlock on Article X.

The text of the compromise reservation, which is to be offered as a substitute for the original Lodge one, is as follows:

"The United States assumes no obligation to preserve, by the use of its military or naval forces, its resources, by the economic boycott the territorial integrity or political independence, or of any other country, or to interfere in controversies between nations, whether members of the league or not, under the provisions of article X, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose, unless in any particular case the president, under the constitution, has the sole power to declare war, shall by act or joint resolution, so provide."

Senator Lodge was understood to have said he would give his support to the new proposal.

MAINTENANCE AND SHOP MEN PRESENT STRIKE ULTIMATUM, HOTLY DENOUNCING IMPORTATION OF MEXICAN LABORERS

Head of Union Declares No Agreement Would Be Broken and Leaders Are Ready to Go to Jail if Lever Act Is Brought in Play

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—"We will deliver an ultimatum to Director General Hines that our demands be granted or we strike," said J. H. Malloy, grand vice president of the Maintenance of Way employees organization this afternoon following a conference of committee sent here to meet with Director General Hines. Malloy declared the leaders of the organization were "not afraid to go to jail" if the Lever Act is used. "We want the ultimatum to go to jail. Name of us are afraid to go to jail for a principle, and our principle is a living wage."

Malloy said the committee was instructed to accept nothing less than their demands. Washington, Feb. 11.—Declaring railroad maintenance of way employees "have been ignored in their numerous petitions to the railroad administration to have their wages leveled up to a wage where a man can support his family as an American should," J. H. Malloy, grand vice president of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way and Shop Employees declared today that his organization was breaking its agreement by calling a strike for February 17.

Malloy declared the railroad administration is reducing the railway workers to the "Mexican standard of living," by the small rate of pay, and declared the agreement granted his union covers hours of service and working conditions only, and does not refer to wages in any way, shape or form.

Malloy said the railroad administration "for the past eighteen months has been asking the officials of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Shop Laborers, who represent these men, to wait a few weeks until an investigation of wages demanded could be made."

"The different boards, bureaus and bureaucrats of the railroad administration have held night conferences and many investigations and have not even taken the time to make an average daily wage of the section men as reported by the interstate commerce commission is the amounting sum of $1.25 per day. Dockweiler May Get Lane Place

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 11.—Attorney Isadore B. Dockweiler of this city may enter President Wilson's cabinet as secretary of the Interior to succeed Secretary Lane, according to confidential dispatches from Washington and it was said, he is seriously considered for the White House. For several years Dockweiler was a member of the board of Indian commissioners of the interior department. He has been a democratic leader in southern California and a national committee man from California.

OIL BILL IS NOW PASSED BY CONGRESS

Success Grows Six Years After Western Members Open Public Lands

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The oil bill, which has been passed by the House of Representatives, is now being considered by the Senate. The bill provides for the leasing of public lands for oil and gas, and for the payment of royalties to the landowners. The bill is expected to pass the Senate in the next few days.

DECLARES OTHER WOMAN HAS HER BABY

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 11.—A strange story of a mother declaring that her baby was retained in the hospital and threatening to take her claim into the courts, the other mother insisting she has the right child, has come to light here.

Mrs. John C. Garner, No. 25 1/2 street, West End, and Mrs. E. L. Pittman, No. 18 Haygood avenue, are the mothers involved.

They are the mothers of baby girls, both born the night of May 22, 1919, in Grady Hospital.

Mrs. Garner declares Mrs. Pittman has her child. Mrs. Pittman insists she has her own child.

"It's a poor mother that doesn't know her own child," said Mrs. Garner.

Mrs. Garner bases her claim to the Pittman baby on the ground the other three Garner children have been eyes and dark hair, "saying" their mother said that the baby she gave her was endowed with red hair and blue eyes, and that Mrs. Pittman herself had red hair and blue eyes.

"The baby," began, according to Mrs. Garner, a few hours after the birth of Mrs. Pittman's baby in the Grady Hospital.

The night of May 22, 1919, the babies were each sent to a crib.

"I, a night, or about 2 o'clock in the morning," said Mrs. Garner, "I asked for my baby. All the regular nurses had been called to the operating room because there was a rash of cases, and a negro girl we called Little came in with a baby in her arms.

"Whose baby is this?" Little asked, according to Mrs. Garner.

"None. It got a tag on its arm?" "My name is Garner," said Mrs. Garner.

"Well, it's your baby, then," Little said, according to Mrs. Garner.

Mrs. Garner continued her story: "I was dark and I didn't notice until the next morning that it didn't have a tag on its arm. I knew it wasn't my baby because my baby had a little scar on her face. The girl had been wrapped with a nurse's milk."

"Mrs. Pittman had my baby," I tried to tell the nurses that Little had swapped the babies but they said she didn't. When my husband came, I told him of the swap. Little told him and that he didn't care, but it's a poor mother that doesn't know her own child."

"I have been twice to see Mrs. Pittman and my husband has gone three times. The child is blond, light, and has the right hair, but it is mine."

"My baby, the one Mrs. Pittman has, looks exactly like my oldest child but in what was six months old. And if Mrs. Pittman had my baby, I would like to get my own."

Mrs. Garner has three other girls living. The oldest is blond, light, and the others are Virginia, Dix, and Cecile four.

Mrs. Pittman has a little girl, besides the baby.

Mrs. Garner's husband is a conductor on the Whitehall-Peachtree car line.

Mrs. Garner declared she has gone to New Jackson, superintendent of Grady Hospital, about the alleged swapping of infants.

The nurse and Little say:

babies weren't swapped," said Superintendent Jackson. "Mrs. Garner brought her baby to me with her. I told Mrs. Garner to have Mrs. Pittman bring her child to me, too, and if she didn't, I'd give to her. But the nurses and I didn't say they weren't swapped."

The Garner-Pittman baby case recalled the King Solomon case, and the case of Holkie Duhar, the kidnaped daughter of Opelousa, La. One of the judges of the Fulton county courts, if truly were filed by Mrs. Garner, would have to be the modern King Solomon.

Senate Reconsiders Peace Treaty Action

(By J. Hart Campbell)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The senate today re-considered the ratification of the peace treaty of Versailles.

A motion by Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, providing for a suspension of the senate rules to permit a re-consideration, was adopted by a majority of Republican and Democratic members favoring ratification.

A roll-call was made necessary to secure the adoption of the motion when Senator Norris, Republican of Nebraska, objected to unanimous consent for a suspension of the rules.

These earlier motions Senator Lodge's motion were: North, Idaho, Maryland, Connecticut, Kansas, Michigan, Georgia, North Dakota, Knox, Pennsylvania, Vermont, Illinois, Michigan, Nebraska, Pennsylvania, Washington, Sherman, Illinois; all are Republican except those favoring ratification.

The vote on Senator Lodge's motion was 62 to 9.

The committee was to be instructed to report it back to the senate promptly. It was expected it do so tomorrow.

Calvin D. DeLoach would then follow in a speech which would be given in his own behalf.

Senator Lodge's action brought the treaty before the senate again for the first time since ratification was blocked on November 19, when the League reservation was voted down by the Democratic side.

Plenty of Water Is Assured at State U.

MOSCOW, Feb. 10.—After more than five months of additional effort planned by unusual difficulties, an abundant water supply has been assured at the University of Idaho.

Tests made with a heavy air compressor over a 42-hour period have produced a flow of 150 gallons to the minute, or approximately 200,000 gallons per day, a total more than three times as great as the present consumption of the university; and, according to H. J. MacIntire, professor of civil engineering, who has supervised the work of sinking the well, even these figures may be exceeded by the use of a large steam turbine pump.

A system which causes a delay of six weeks and a strain of hard labor for 200 feet in depth were the principal difficulties encountered in penetrating to an adequate supply. It had first been struck after 8 feet of quicksand, clay, loam and snags and then a drift of the drill and for many weeks the shaft went through the limit of the rate of only a few inches per day. Fifteen feet of soft, water-bearing sandstone, the source of the well's supply, and 10 feet of blue clay were penetrated before work was stopped, making the total depth 230 feet.

"Sandstone" has been put to tests for chemical and bacteriological analysis, but we have no reason to believe that the reports will be adverse. The water will be used for every purpose about the university, making the institution entirely independent of Moscow city mains, but the two systems will be "tied in" with one another in order to guard against possible emergencies.

A pressure will be applied by pumping the water a total of 210 feet to the university's 50,000-gallon tank.

High School to put a stamp in the property of Denver beauty shops.

Recently Miss Anne McLean Shuler, woman dean of the University of Denver, heard a rumor circulating among powder puffs. Miss Shuler declared that a beautiful new ring that adorned the finger in front of a large crowd at the institution was being sold in the women's study at the university was becoming "horribly popular" because so many girl students lined up in front of the mirror to see their powder puffs. Although she said, men students breeding through the corridors can see the unadorned fingers of the women's study.

At a meeting of the Mothers' Congress and Parent-Teachers' Association a report was read from the boys of South Denver High School denouncing the follies of girl students who "doff themselves up" in drug-store capes, and having a warning that youthful schoolgirls who appear in class room attire like chorus girls will be ostracized from social functions.

"We like that too long, in checks that bloom like a drug-store blush will appear at a dance with us," the boys told the Mothers' Congress.

DANGEROUS DAYS

THAT is what this treacherous changeable, winter weather is. In the cold drafts, overheated rooms, and working places, sloppy walks, lurk many dangers of colds, influenza and sore throats.

Take Care of Your HEALTH

INFLUZONE

Influenza is an infectious disease easily spread thru the air. The germs enter the nose or mouth. Spray the nose and gargle the throat night and morning. Keeps you free from Disease Germs. Five and one-half years of constant use by the French proved the value of INFLUZONE in the world's war.

Big Value in Tires for Small Cars

Back of the manufacture of Goodyear Tires for small cars is the same purpose to supply high value in the product that is behind the manufacture of the Goodyear Tires that equip the most expensive automobiles built.

This purpose is expressed by the enormous resources, extraordinary skill and scrupulous care applied to the manufacture of Goodyear Tires in the largest tire factory in the world devoted solely to the 30x3, 30x3 1/2, and 31x4-inch sizes.

The effect of this endeavor is noted in the fact that last year more cars using these sizes were factory-equipped with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

It is also noted in the fact that, if you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car requiring the sizes mentioned, you can secure Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes at the nearest Goodyear Service Station.

30x3 1/2 Goodyear Double-Cure $2.00
Fabric, All-Weather Tread

30x3 1/2 Goodyear Single-Cure $1.75
Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casing property. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes set little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3 1/2 size fits motor. $3.00 proof bag.

GOOD SENSE AND HEALTH

Recent vital statistics indicate that 1919 was a record health year. Mortality rates in many communities were far lower than during the war years...

One of the reasons given for this is that the general public really learned a lesson from the influenza epidemic of 1918. Children and adults alike have begun to heed the old advice against coughing and sneezing openly...

This year is not starting off so well, perhaps, in regard to general health. But even the flu which gives signs of becoming epidemic is not so virulent as that of 1918...

THE MAKE-UP OF MEN

The worth of a human being is a difficult thing to determine, and something which many people consider it wrong to try to reduce in dollars and cents.

According to the calculator: "The average man of 150 pounds contains constituents equivalent to 100 dozen eggs, enough iron to make four ten-penny nails, fat contents sufficient for 75 candles and a good-sized piece of soap...

It reads something like a list of things to be taken on a camping trip, but unfortunately consciousness of one's own food and fuel elements is not enough to support life in a wilderness.

The queer thing about Hoover's humor is that nobody seems to know what party he belongs to, any more than they knew about Gen. Grant in the spring of '68.

Americans would feel more kindly toward the rest of the world again if, just for a little while, the rest of the world would stop trying to borrow money from us.

The public is less concerned with how much money the coal operators made during the year than it is with how much they are producing this winter.

Old King Winter is a patriot, any way. Look at his increased production of ice!

Bolshevism in Russia is succeeding just so far as it ceases to be Bolshevism.

Face on Cedar Log Mute Evidence of Affection.

Proof of Truth of Romantic Story Found by Hunters After Many Years of Searching.

Manistee, Mich.—On an old cedar log in the hills of Central Michigan was discovered the face of an Indian braves great love for his squaw. The unspoken expression is in the form of a carving of an Indian maiden, the circles around which tell of a love as devoted as in any modern love story.

There was a young brave who took his squaw from Marquette and came to Ford river to trap. He was very fond of her, and she loved him dearly, but he couldn't keep his eyes off his squaw. The canoe rolled into some brush near shore and capsized.

The brave escaped, but the squaw did not come up.—The young brave wouldn't go away. After they dry the log in vain. All that summer and fall he searched. The river never gave up the body.

In despair one day he gave up, and on a large cedar tree near the river he carved a picture of her as a memorial. It was his last effort. He left this region and never returned.

The Sanders brothers were impressed with the legend and started a hunt for the carving. This was in 1906. Their first search was fruitless. But they did not give up.

Fourteen years later they again took up the search. Again they failed to locate the carved image. They began to doubt the story of Indian John.

Two years passed and again the Sanders brothers went North to hunt for their own Foot river. They again failed. The day while waiting for their own Foot river they saw the cedar tree. "And there" was the carving, weathered but clear.

Mr. Sanders chopped it out and had it framed, and it is now in the possession of Mr. Sanders, who has had it copyrighted.

PIG, NOT BRITISH COLONEL

Italy's Chamber Gave Laugh Over Glory of Mistaken Identity of "Colonel" Caraceni.

Rome.—In the general debate on the reply to the Anglo-American Committee's report on the treatment of Italian, belongs to the socialist group, denounced several figures in the army, and the Chamber gave a hearty laugh.

When in Albania, Frota said, his general had a pig farm from which he sent daily suckling pigs to his soldiers, accompanied by an officer, to sustain the Quartermaster's staff. The pigs were shipped on a transport to friends of the general in Italy.

The entire chamber was convulsed with laughter over this revelation.

Dyed Children's Hair Red to Keep Them From Dad

Detroit, Mich.—John Ewert, a member of the Toledo water board, is seeking the Congregational court in reconnection with his five children, the oldest fifteen years old, who, he alleges, were taken by their mother when she deserted her home and came to Detroit, about a month ago.

Ewert located his children after a long search. His wife had changed her name to Clara E. Ewert, and also changed the names of all the children, and had ordered their hair red-dyed.

Ewert learned that his wife was employed in the United States government store at the corner of Michigan and Congress streets, Grand avenue, and was living over the store.

Rough Sea Cured Deafness

Paris.—A new cure for deafness has been discovered by M. Ignace, under secretary of state, who accompanied French Circassians in London recently. The channel was unusually rough and M. Ignace suffered terribly from seasickness when he landed at Dover he found he had fully recovered from deafness with which he had been afflicted for years.

JUDGMENT ON PLAINTIFFS IN LAND CASE

Idaho Farm Development Company Sued Against Clark and Brackett

Judgment in the case of Clark and Brackett vs. Idaho Farm Development Company was given in the district court yesterday. The judgment was in favor of the plaintiffs, Clark and Brackett, and against the defendant, Idaho Farm Development Company. The court found that the plaintiffs had established their title to the land in question, and that the defendant's claims were without merit. The judgment was entered by Judge W. A. Throckmold for the first time in the district court. The case had been pending for some time, and the court had heard testimony from both sides. The plaintiffs had presented strong evidence in support of their claims, and the court was convinced by their arguments. The defendant had failed to provide sufficient evidence to support their claims, and the court found them to be unavailing. The judgment is a significant victory for the plaintiffs and a setback for the defendant. The case had attracted considerable attention in the community, and the judgment is expected to have far-reaching implications for similar cases in the future.

TIMES AGAIN PROVES ITS LEADERSHIP

Display Window for National Products Is New Move for Small City Newspapers

THE TIMES, always first with new ideas in newspaper affairs, has completed the installation of a window display for city smaller than Ogden, Utah, to carry out this idea. Papers like the New York Journal, Chicago Tribune and News, South American of Philadelphia, San Francisco Call, Los Angeles Times have used this means of creating interest in products which are advertised in their columns, but THE TIMES is the first small city daily which has attempted this idea.

This week K. C. King, powder is displayed in a most appealing manner, and the number of people who have stopped and gazed at the window is surprising.

THE TIMES is the only way to link up an advertising campaign. Perhaps one feature about this means of cooperation is the fact that THE TIMES advertising manager, Mr. E. H. Stroubeck, considered one of the finest display men in the West. His original photo of windows at national contests and has invariably been a winner. In one contest he first prize, consisting of a larger and finer store, such as Meier Frank of Portland, The Mode, Boise; The Bon Marche, Portland; the local five Yards, and many others of the leading department stores of the country. This will assure National editors that the House which they are closed on account of the smallest.

'KEEPING FIT' EXHIBIT IS WORTH SEEING

Many View Exhibit and Have Roadruck in Charge

The "Keeping Fit" exhibit for men and boys on display in connection with the Idaho School of Methods in the Christian church is attracting much attention. The men and boys and prominent leaders who saw the exhibit last night expressed their great appreciation of it and the hope that every boy and young man in Twin Falls and community will see it. Roy S. Roadruck, a member of the faculty who is responsible for bringing the exhibit here, had this to say about it last night:

"The 'Keeping Fit' exhibit was prepared by the Oregon School Hygiene Society. I saw it exhibited in the Portland city auditorium during the meeting of the National Educational association at the summer of 1917. Prominent educators at that meeting approved the exhibit and thought it should be displayed in all parts of the land. The time has come when we must give our young men a better physical education than we have given them in the past. For days and days he practiced his body and young men debating

Doug Fairbanks Like Little Boy

There's absolutely no secret about the wonderful ditty Douglas Fairbanks displays in doing his best, for there is just like a boy who has never grown up. He is constantly trying out new perilsous feats that keep everyone around his studio in a constant state of breathless suspense.

During the making of his latest production "When the Clouds Roll By," which will be shown at the Gen Theatre today, Doug decided that one thing would be increased if he practiced a standing back somersault. But he had never done such a stunt and did not know quite how to go about it. For days and days he practiced in his gymnasium at the studio and incidentally got some other things into his head. Still he would not give up. And when the day finally arrived for the filming of this particular feat he did his back somersault without the slightest bit of trouble.

Gronna Guarantees for Rail Dividends

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Opposition to the agreement of the houses and again conference on the railroad bill is developing in the senate. Senator Gronna of Michigan, a member of the committee, has announced his opposition to the provision guaranteeing a 6 1/2 per cent earnings on the railroad. The chairman of the committee, however, is not making a definite statement to guarantee the workmen on the railroad their fair share of the earnings. Senator Gronna declares that he will not support the bill for myself. I believe, however, there will be considerable opposition to this provision.

The representatives of the workmen and the management of way men are being attracted by the other union officials, because of their strike threat. They need water and take part in the conferences of the other unions.

HAS THE JURY... ALL GUESSING

Changes Mind With True Feminine Faculty Until Slacker Case Is Muddled

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—The federal grand jury continued today its investigation of "the heavy muddle" as the charges and counter-charges over the heavy-weight champion's case, have come to be described by federal officers conducting the probe.

The motives behind the continuing interests of Mrs. Blaine Dempsey, the first charge of "the muddle," proving her former husband a "slacker" and later repudiated the statement, given under inquiry today by the grand jury.

This is the way federal officials and others were wont to describe today the original slacker charge against Dempsey Jack Dempsey by his former wife, Blaine Dempsey, the alleged statement made here before a federal grand jury investigating the slacker case, that the feisty has letters proving Dempsey a "slacker."

Mrs. Dempsey's motives were a point of inquiry with federal officials before the jury session. The investigation is continuing today.

It is said Mrs. Dempsey, under oath admitted to the jurors that she had such letters and that she admitted she swore falsely when she stated they existed.

WHO WANTS HIM?

CLIFF LARWIN, Minneapolis Member Who Is Being Sued by Bryson—Of the Other Fellows

BRINGING UP FATHER

FROM THE PRESS BOX JUG

Cliff Lewis, local middle-weight wrestler, who is so good that any manifestations of desire for excitement on the part of other grapplers have been carefully directed away from him, is pining for action.

Since coming to Twin Falls, some months ago, Cliff has been sadly neglected. He got one or two openings at first, but seemed in such a hurry to get the other fellow's shoulder blades to the floor that before long he was ostracized by his fellow grapplers.

Meanwhile, challenges have been being laid out, and each time Cliff would hopefully peek in his little sealed bin on the contract to throw the challenger. But nobody would look at his bid. They don't want any of Cliff's game, and may the situation be becoming acute. This shadow stuff is all right in its place, but a sport likes to sink his teeth into real meat once in a while. If someone really don't get up their nerve and accept his challenge, Cliff will be getting sharp warning from him on the shelf.

Cliff has challenged and dared everybody he can think of, to come and test the mark or throw the cloth of his shoulder. He has tried to pry his way into some of the Bull Butts, but they have been content to settle their clamorous without his help. Cliff would like to get Sepp over at Caldwell, but that gentleman has consistently sidestepped him, he says. Charlie Olson or Al Gustava would also be highly acceptable, and it is possible that one or the other of them will be matched with the local man. Olson is at present in Montana, and Gustava is in Oregon. Both have wrestled before local fans and are rated as good men. Lewis himself is a comparative stranger, having had no opportunity to show his wares.

Lewis works at the 155-pound mark, the same level on which both Gustava and Olson operate. He is rapid fire in action and is lucky from toe to top knot. Any little muss that he succeeds in stirring up will be patched with interest.

MINOR LEAGUE CHIEFS SEEK CONCILIATION

Break With Majors to Be Patched Up by Agreement on Draft of Minor Players

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—A committee representing all of the minor leagues, 34 in number, met here afternoon to discuss ways to meet the break with the majors over the drafting of 1925. A program which was expected to carry a $250,000 limit sale price, an amended agreement on options and a plan which will result in all other league contracts being respected by the majors was to be adopted for presentation to the big league league tomorrow.

Al Terany, president of the Three-I league as chairman of the committee, others attending were Walter Smith, Texas League; Cal Eichel, Pacific Coast League; Ed Stanton, Washington League; J. T. Martin, Southern League; Tom Hickey, American Association; three Pacific International, and John Farrell, Secretary of the Major League Association. The western league meeting to adopt a 1925 game schedule, opening about April 24.

HIS TWELFTH ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE UNSUCCESSFUL

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 11.—G. K. Sparks, of Roseburg, Ore., still lives today, but police declare it was his fault.

He failed in the twelfth effort to commit suicide. The last time he was discovered lying on a bed with his throat cut and with a razor in his hand. He was removed to the General Emergency Hospital and his life saved.

The official authorities said this was his twelfth attempt at suicide. He said the officials he was dependent because of ill health and domestic troubles.

BASEBALL PROBLEMS TO ENGROSS BIG LEAGUERS

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—This is going to be a busy week in baseball.

All trails lead toward Chicago, where the major leagues will hold their annual joint meeting tomorrow and Wednesday.

The most important item on the major league slate is the appointment of a new chairman of the National Commission to succeed Gary Herrmann, but the owners have other matters.

Right among the big league circles has been anything but brisk this winter. Aside from the high school, not really big swarms have been made and there are plenty of rumors being rung.

With one of the most important items on the agenda of the meeting, the club owners are doing everything in their power to put the strongest possible conditions at the table. League matters should be strengthened here and there to give a number of clubs the right balance.

The playing schedule for 1925 will be ratified at the Chicago meeting, though it is no secret that they have been drawn up and are now ready for announcement. The major league clubs have their little meetings at the National Association, and it is said that the players may ask for representation of the National Commission.

If the big league should decide to reorganize the ruling body, giving the minor leagues representation, a move that has been discussed by both major and minor league magnates.

The selection of a new commission chairman, however, overabundant everything else that the club owners may do. Speculation regarding the identity of the right man for the important position has been rife for the past few days.

Judge K. M. Landis, Chicago; William (Big Ed) Edwards, internal revenue collector of New York; Henry J. Killeen of Milwaukee, said to be the favorite of the National Association; Major Robert H. Young of Washington, Clark (Triton) Tamm, former justice of the peace of Brooklyn, favored by President Charles H. Ebbets, and John Conaway, of New York and Philadelphia, who handled organized baseball's defense against the National and other Federal League suits, are among the men who have been mentioned at various times for the chairmanship.

The joint committee representing the two big leagues, which was appointed more than a year ago to select a new chairman, is composed of

Alberta Seed Takes First Prize

At the Annual Idaho Seed Show at Pocatello, Jan. 15th to 18th seed grown in British Columbia, took the first prize and our seedling, the first prize was won by White Clover. This seed means for a 100 per cent. yield, a quantity has been the slogan, to drop down into one of the best seed-growing states, where experts have for years secured their finest products for show purposes, and carry off the first prizes.

It breaks their grain, besides Clover, Beans, Wheat, Oats and Peas, Spuds, Sugar Beets, Alfalfa, Flax and all kinds of garden truck in quantity and quality that are seen to none. It means further, that you can buy irrigated land in Alberta for $20 per acre that produces on a par with $200 land in Idaho. The terms of this 500 acre are most favorable—tenth down, second payment due in four years, then stream equal annual payments, with interest the first two years at 2 per cent, then 6 per cent.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Co. will go still further. They will loan $200 for making improvements on the same terms, can you afford to let this opportunity slip by?

Come in and arrange to make a trip of inspection with us at once.

HE LOVED HER MUCH TOO MUCH

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—How much should you love your wife? This is the all-absorbing question being asked by the divorce action of Mrs. Leigh M. Stewart, who asks her husband, Commander Stewart, because he loved her too much.

The divorce action is being brought with actions because "love can mean" today to determine the reverse—the right to divorcing a man who loves his wife too much.

"A modern cave man was Commander Stewart," according to his wife. A cavewoman with gentle human kindness, but overpowering in his love.

"This is the picture Mrs. Stewart paints of her husband: "His love for me was an overpowering, so terrible in its intensity, that it killed my own love for him. As I look back over the period of five years of our married life, something tells me it had loved me less. I could have loved him more."

"I don't know whether that is where he swept me into his net. It was primitive—instinctively I had to be his arms, kissing me, never allowing me to be able to careen me enough."

"I got married. It is easily imagined how he won me by this love, but later, incessant as it became, it tried me. I was never free from the overpowering desire."

"Life became hateful. I am a dresser—and my husband is a gross materialist. He has no interest in me in his arms, kissing me. To me, love means the soaring aloft of two united souls, not an everlasting suspension of the soul."

"Can you imagine sitting at a breakfast table with a man who is practically paralysed by the love of his wife? I can. I can imagine how he would have thought up a new love poem, the kind he always regarded with so much vantage and I would have been able to do it."

"I love my wife," the defendant said, "and was daily trying to kiss her."

"Thirty days in the workhouse," answered the magistrate.

Zangwill Says Hope of Jews Proves to Be Mirage

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The reason why so many Jews are identified with the Russian Bolshevik movement, which has cropped out in other lands, causing such a stir in the world in general, is explained by Israel Zangwill, the "Bernard Shaw" of the Jewish world.

"It," he says, "there is a certain revolutionary ferment in the world traceable to Jewish origin, it is due partly to the immemorial Hebrew aspiration for justice, but to the ever-wandering, time-thinking Jew, unaffiliated in soul as in body—by his parents and with no fixed anchorage in the land of his birth, the ever-varying of the Jewish problem."

"It was thought that the allies had solved the solution to the Jewish problem by the restoration of Palestine to the unhappy race. Palestine, where the Jews' statistics fail to record a single crime against the Jewish inhabitants, still is the most important prospect turns out a mirage. What is now being proffered in Paris is a scheme for justice, but it is a scheme now being refused, a scheme under which a free-born Jew returned to Palestine would find himself treated as a foreigner in his own land."

Reform Him First, Then Marry Him
CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—"Never marry a man to reform him. Make him reform himself first," says the motto of this advice was given to women in general by Judge Samuel H. Tilden, after hearing a case of non-support in which the defendant said he loved his wife's ways before she married him, but that she took a change, believing her love would break him away.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Pollockman, a Mulligan might, if properly approached, consent to be a Sir Walter Raleigh for some fair dammed in distress, but not for the sake of the pitiful patent letters of one of his own men.

While tooting his traffic whistle at a street corner, Policeman Mulligan was approached by one Frank Vister (a) for some fair dammed in distress, but not for the sake of the pitiful patent letters of one of his own men.

The Times job printing department is thoroughly equipped to do first class work—at reasonable prices.
Reluctantly Mr. Vister shook the policeman's hand, and then walked out into the mud.
