TWIN FALLS CANAL COMPANY APPROVES RESERVOIR

WATER USERS IN FAVOR OF PLACING LOW TYPE OF DAM

Small Number Want
High Reservoir Built at the Start

FEW OPPOSE THE STORAGE PROJECT

100,000 Acre Feet Is Share of the Twin Falls Trace

Approval of the low type dam for water storage at American Falls was delayed yesterday in checking up on the financial situation as submitted by the Twin Falls Canal Company to its stockholders. Against the 28,291,02 votes for the low type dam, the total opposition, which included those favoring a high dam as well as those opposed to any storage whatever, could only muster about 19,000 votes. The high type of dam 5,491,42 votes, while 8,213,42 were cast in opposition to the low type.

The Twin Falls tract thus goes on record in favor of the American Falls storage project, which is being considered by forty-one canal companies individually. The local tract's share of the expense is proportion to its acreage, or $1,000 per acre, or $100,000 per acre foot, or $100,000 per cubic foot. This cost is proportionately larger than for construction of the high type of dam as purchase and removal of the town of American Falls is necessary before even a start on dam construction can be made. The low dam, therefore, bears this expense.

The local company is so far without information as to how the reservoir proposal is being received by other tracts interested.

WOMEN LAWYERS TALK SUFFRAGE

Uniform Laws on Marriage, and Divorce Discussed—Last Message
Given by Head

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—Women lawyers of the country, met here today in collaboration with the suffrage convention. They discussed the uniformity of laws concerning women.

Miss Stephen, president of California, advanced uniform laws for governing marriage and divorce. Among recommendations she made were that the limitation in marriage for girls should be 18, and for boys 21; that there should be marriage for all; that they should be married in a natural and orderly way.

"This conference is to enable the weak co-operative organizations to profit by the mistakes of the strong."

This discussion was made after Mayor W. H. Sharp, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, addressed the All-American Farmer-Labor Congress.

"The only solution of the present crisis confronting us," he said, "will bring the producer and consumer into closer contact." This in turn, it was felt, would be a natural and orderly way.

"The name interests which have been exploiting the producer, the farmer and others are exploiting the consumer."

The middle class, the All-American Farmer-Labor Congress, said that public clinics should be established to disseminate information to married persons; and that measures should be taken to prevent child birth among defectives and criminals.

The conference, which will make a first record of significance an important group in the "victory" convention today took first steps towards a political plan that will abolish monopolies that keep prices up, stifle progress and deprive working children of their nutrition, man Carter.

This took place at the conference on "food supply and demand."

"In other days," read the message,

"our members and friends have been our best friends in the campaign to disseminate the propaganda for their common cause, to cheer and encourage each other; to council as to ways and means of insuring further progress."

On the platform were called together to rejoice that the struggle is over, the aim achieved and the women of the nation about to enter into the enjoyment of their hard-earned political liberty.

We, together express the joy with our hearts can feel with the success of our cause."

On the platform stood the State Organization and the Ship Owners' association and the Ship Owners' association inviting them to be present at the site of the former German Embassy Monday evening. It will be held at 10 o'clock in the office of Comman-

Canal Board Footballers Reveal Need Of Detweiler

Boys, page Mr. Detweiler.
The former canal board director who was charged with trying to play football up to the last minute before the last election seems to be model indeed. There is apparently a little name of football and the absence of the older bulkhead seems to have weakened the team. Nobody is able to tick a goal.

Mr. Detweiler, son in the same house he was sent by that body to Salt Lake where he secured a loan for the company at a rate of interest 2 percent lower than could be secured here, a considerable saving being reflected to the stockholders. Later Mr. Detweiler was compelled to resign his position with the company, and he has since been a member of the board which the same interest rates could be obtained and shortly after the last election he returned bringing the four loans from Salt Lake. Campaign Detweiler was needed at the time, however, and several of the stockholders, including the chairman of the board, were induced to agree to the transfer.

Yesterday the same colleagues, as members of the new board, visited the same source that Mr. Detweiler advocated and asked for the same proposition, the same rates of interest, and to carry the ball forward. This time, however, the local source declined to meet with the board, although it was said that if negotiations could not be concluded elsewhere the proposition might be given further consideration.

Unless the local source relents it looks as though the canal board football squad made a bad haul by defeating the game when Detweiler wanted to hit the ball. "Playing the ball among various other banks or trust companies, the higher rates of interest were paid, and the ball was not carried more than 100 yards."

It is felt that if the negotiations cannot be concluded elsewhere the proposition might be given further consideration.

1809 LINCOLN 1865

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure.

We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We are here to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this, but in a larger sense we cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow—this ground. The brave men living and dead, who struggled here, have rest. It is for us, now, not for us alone, but also for our posterity, to do all we can to honor their memory.

It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

319 Families Pledge Stock For Rochdale Store System

GOVERNMENT BARES WIDE CONSPIRACY ON RAILWAY LINES

Three hundred and nine families of stockholders have pledged their stock in the new system, the Rochdale store, which is being established in Twin Falls by the Twin Falls County Farmers' association. It was announced at a meeting of the farmers last evening in Twin Falls.

John E. White, secretary of the association, announced today that 325,000 in subscriptions are in.

The plan is received with wide approval and enthusiasm wherever it is expected to meet Saturday night.

Four Arrested, Many Others Expected to Fall Into Net

EX-EMPLOYEE IS HEAD OF SCHEME

Coast to Coast Ring Is Broken Up by Move at Portland

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 12.—Numerous other arrests stretching from the Pacific to the Atlantic ocean, are expected today in connection with the United States railroad administration counterfeiting fraud exposed here by Miss Estelle Field, beautiful Chicago girl, who died on Wednesday from pleurisy. Miss Field, who had planned to retire from the stage and be a matron, had recently undergone a number of operations for the affection. She appears in international fame ten years ago when the overthrow of the Portuguese monarch revealed that ex-King Manuel had been infatuated with her and had abandoned her with costly gifts. She was arrested in Los Angeles in 1911 in connection with the counterfeiting of all electrical engineering, the last time being last autumn. The funeral is expected to cause the greatest turnout of theatrical people and their devotees Paris has known in years.

CHICAGO EAGER FOR CONVENTION

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—In addition to conventions getting in, the "cold shoulder" is being held by Chicago, as even out of the nation conventions that have been staged here. Nevertheless, Chicago is looking forward, with keen anticipation to the disease, Red Cross doctors and nurses who have had valuable experience with it in Europe and in America, have made elaborate preparations for the thousands of visitors that are expected.

For forty years Chicago has been, with three exceptions, the meeting place of the Republicans of the nation, their candidate for the presidency and the vice-presidency. In 1880, in 1884, in 1888, in 1904, in 1912 and in 1916 the conventions were held here. In 1892 the Republicans met in Minneapolis; in 1896 in San Luis and in 1908 in St. Louis. The next convention next July will be the 86th consecutive meeting of the Republicans that Chicago has entertained.

Most of the conventions that have assembled here have men in the historic Coliseum, and this structure will house the 1920 gathering. The same arrangement will be followed as that which has had far-reaching effect upon the political history of the nation. It is regarded as fitting, therefore, that the 1920 convention, which politicians believe will be one of the most important in the history of the Republican party, will assemble in this auditorium.

A plane that already have been drafted by candidates in charge of arrangements for the entertainment of delegates and visitors in the convention indicate that everything will be ready for the 1920 gathering. Those who attend when the convention assembles, Local Republicans concerned with the arrangements are determined that nothing shall be left undone that can be done to demonstrate that leaders of the O. P. O. act wisely when they awarded the convention to Chicago.

In 1916 when the last Republican convention met here, there were approximately 50,000 visitors in the city. Chicago hotel men predict that there will be 100,000 persons demanding accommodations for the 1920 gathering. They say the number of visitors will be twice as great.

There will be able to take care of at least 100,000, as hotel accommodations have increased considerably since 1916, although the apartments and furnished rooms will be lacking this year, due to the rapid growth in Chicago's population that has created an unprecedented demand for accommodations of this sort.

There will be 354 delegations accredited to the 1920 convention. The Convention Center, which will accommodate 12,000 persons, and plans are being made to provide seating arrangements for that number. About 12,000 were seated in the Coliseum when Chairman Hillis called the 1916 convention to order. The Convention Center will be able to accommodate 12,000 persons, and plans are being made to fit up for the accommodation of committees, newspapermen and other adjuncts of the convention.

The Republicans will make their headquarters in the Congress Hotel, and reservations of head-quarters of the National Committee and numerous other Republicans already have been made. Aspirants for the Presidential nomination even now have established headquarters in this hotel, and from these offices many are now directing their political campaigns.

With all space available in the Congress Hotel, it is pretty well reserved even now, other hotels in the city are being flooded with requests for reservations. Hotel men warn those who intend to be present at the convention that they must speak for their accommodations early, as they will likely find themselves without a place to lay their heads when they are dancing professo-

"Oh, if your father had only been here in his prime," says the court reporter, "he would have been a dancing professor." It is pointed out, however, that those who fall to obtain quarters in Chicago will find it possible to go to other day-off cities which are better known for their dancing facilities.

Arrangements for the convention here are largely in the hands of committees appointed by Mayor William Hale Thompson, who led the fight Chicago made to obtain the convention when the Republican National Committee met here several weeks ago.

Fred W. Uhlman, national treasurer of the Republicans, is chairman of this committee.

The direction of the convention hall during the meeting probably will be in the hands of William Stone, who was sergeant-at-arms for the 1916 convention. He will be in charge of the hall and duty of a plan for char-

"GOAL SHORT IN BOSTON"

BOSTON, Feb. 11.—The coal shortage in Boston, intensified by another snowstorm, reached a point so alarming yesterday that appeals were made by Mayor Peter C. Conroy, Goodwin, to Federal Bureau of Investigation. They informed him by telegram that the coal supply was very low, with danger of the schools being forced to close, and asked that coal designated for export be shipped here.

SPANISH INFLUENZA SCOURGE RAGES IN POLAND

PARIS, Feb. 12.—Spanish influenza, in a form so virulent that it is baffling medical authorities by the suddenness of its attack and its extreme fatality, is sweeping through Poland. The death toll is mounting rapidly, and the Polish government has declared a state of emergency and has prohibited all travel.

Polish officials declare that they were baffled by the almost instant coming and the quick developments that are accompanying the present epidemic.

The third influenza epidemic in Poland since 1918, and the most severe one. Patients seldom live more than 24 hours after they have contracted the disease, and the complications that bring on hemorrhage of the lungs frequently develop much sooner. As has been the case in previous outbreaks, the disease seems to begin suddenly, and after some punctions that odd.

War is given over to a continuous procession of funerals, with the bodies of the victims laid out in the parlors of their relatives. The country, though pale at night, still bears the marks of the terrible sickness.

Local Red Cross is helping to fight the spread of the disease with medicines, physicians and nurses, and Red Cross truck drivers have given their services to the sick.

The bulk of proper conveyances, coaches are soon borne on the shoulders of members of the marching families, in this Poland where disease and death have so long ravaged the population that there are often only a few people left to mourn. The corps consisted of only a half a dozen, while carried on women and a child.

Dr. H. Mackowski, chief of the Polish ministry of health, has issued a statement expressing his regret at the valiant efforts of the Red Cross in fighting the disease, and added, "Although this is the worst and most vicious disease we have ever had from influenza," he stated, "the help given us by the American Red Cross has been better than any combatting it than we would have had otherwise."

They say the number of cases will be able to take care of at least 100,000, as hotel accommodations have increased considerably since 1916, although the apartments and furnished rooms will be lacking this year, due to the rapid growth in Chicago's population that has created an unprecedented demand for accommodations of this sort.

"DABBERS' MEDIM DID NOT AID HIM IN THIS INSTANCE"

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—Come before Judge John Richardson in his court on April 1st, and you will see one Anton J. Dabber, 30, a man who has sold and used over the years after 1918, it appears that Anton was unable to tell the mysterious future of Mrs. Anna Slobodan, and telling her about it for earthly recompensation when he was pinched by the police.

"If your powers are as great as you claim read my mind and tell me what I'm going to do in my case," directed the judge.

Anton passed his hand across his brow three times and went into a reverie.

"Now if a joker with a kind heart, good Anton. And the judge he is saying to Anton: "You are a honest business man and I will give you your freedom without finding you nowhere."

"Ten thousand dollars and costs," "Oh, great!" wailed Anton as he said his lit and left. "My mother decayed me."

DANCING KINGS GET LARGER SALARIES THAN WARRIOR

PARIS, Feb. 12.—Harry Stoen and another Paris dancing king earn more money than Marshal Foch or any other great warrior of France.

Lamont Henry Bourgeois, French Academy, in an article in "Monde Illustré upon the birth of an "old man," says that the salary of a marshal of France is but what dancing professor would content himself today with the salary of a marshal? Also, our marshals only learned how to take steps along the Mena and the Meuse and the Rhine so the experts would not be able to teach them.

"Oh, if your father had only been here in his prime," says the court reporter, "he would have been a dancing professor." It is pointed out, however, that those who fall to obtain quarters in Chicago will find it possible to go to other day-off cities which are better known for their dancing facilities.

"No Rheumatics" is a Mighty Poor Reason for Wearing a Wooden Leg

NO sting or hot burnin' is a mighty weak-kneed recommendation for tobacco. But when tobacco is mild and cool, and yet as full of "fun" as a barrel of monkeys—well, that's another story—that's Velvet.

And 'cause why?

'Cause Velvet is brought up—not jerked up by the hair. It's raised as carefully as a favorite child. It's cured in the big fresh air. And it mellows away for two years in wooden 'hogsheads' 'til it's smooth and rich as cream. The wonder would be if Velvet wasn't a whacking good pipe smoke.

"Oh, if nature mellow yo' tobacco an' that tobacco will shore mellow yo' nature," says Velvet Joe. And he's pretty nearly right.

NATURE-AGEING in the wood does more to make tobacco friendly than any camouflage you can cover it with—and don't you forget it. See, taste, smell, feel the "real tobaccoconess" in Velvet. Why, you can almost hear it. Velvet's the tobacco you can judge with your eyes wide open and specs on.

There's a whole lot in Nature's way of making good tobacco better. And it's all in Velvet.

Here's to a full pipe and a friendly one.

SURE RELIEF FROM ITCHING SKIN DISEASES

Will Never Come From Salves,
Ointments, or Other Local Treatment.

A million gallons of lotions, ointments, salves or other forms of topical treatment will not give any real permanent relief from skin diseases. Get this fact firmly in your mind, and there is hope for you.

If you have ever been afflicted with eczema, tetter, boils, eruptions, or other similar skin irritations you can appreciate the real terrifying discomfort that comes from these disorders. Is not misery the mother of all sins? And may not the terrible suffering caused by these skin diseases cause you to cry out, "Alas, alas!"

True relief, therefore, can only be expected from a treatment which cures these complaints at their source and removes them entirely.

Such a remedy is S.S.S., the reliable oil of balsam purified. It cures the disease and sends a new supply of rich red blood coursing through the veins.

S.S.S. has been used successfully in the cure of the skin which causes these complaints. It cures S.S.S. sores, acne, eczema, and it can be relied upon to cleanse the skin, heal the sore, remove the trouble, and strikes at its cause.

Such a remedy is S.S.S., the reliable oil of balsam purified. It cures the disease and sends a new supply of rich red blood coursing through the veins.

Follow the teachings of science and you will be relieved of your affliction by the blood, and naturally, also, you can obtain some without then, the condition of your skin cost, by writing to Chief Medical Adviser, 13 Swift Laboratory, Atgill, Okla.

CHICAGO EAGER FOR CONVENTION

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—It's publicized that conventions are getting to be "old hat" for Chicago, as even out-of-town conventions that have been held since 1880 have been staged here. Nevertheless, Chicago is looking forward with keen anticipation to the national convention of the Republicans June 3 next and is making elaborate preparations for the thousands of visitors that are expected.

For forty years Chicago has been, with three exceptions, the meeting place of the National Convention when they gathered to nominate their candidate for the presidency and the vice-presidency. In 1880, in 1884, in 1888, in 1894, in 1896, in 1912 and in 1916 the conventions were held here. In 1884 the Republicans met in Milwaukee; in 1888 in St. Louis; and in 1896 in Philadelphia. The convention next June will be the fifth consecutive meeting of the Republicans that Chicago has entertained.

Most of the conventions that have assembled here have met in the same building, the Auditorium, with the exception of the one with which the 1920 gathering. The Auditorium has witnessed stirring scenes that have had far-reaching effect upon the political history of the nation. It is regarded as fitting, therefore, that the 1920 convention, which is probably to be the most important in the history of the Republican party, will assemble in this auditorium.

Plans that already have been drawn by committees in charge of all details of the convention, the political, social and financial, as well as the cultural, and those that are not yet ready for the accommodation of those who attend when the convention assembles, Local Republicans concerned have volunteered their services to auxiliary offices.

For lack of proper "conveniences," which have been the bane of the meeting, the politicians have been asked to do without.

John H. Macdonald, chief of the political leaders of the G. O. P., acted wisely, when they awarded the convention to Chicago.

In 1916 when the last Republican convention met here, there were approximately 10,000 persons in the city, and the arrangements were considered to be excellent.

Chicago's plan that ticked off the mistakes made in 1916, and the better facilities for the 1920 gathering, in combination with what we would have for that number, Chicago, they decide will be able to take care of all the requirements of the 1920 convention.

Chicago has increased considerably since 1916, although the apartments and furnished flats that were available then, are likely to be lacking by day and seen into the middle of the year, due to the rapid growth to over 2,000,000 persons that took place in the last four years.

ENGLAND "ON HER OWN" AGAIN

The much-argued question of British loans seems to have been finally disposed of by the explicit statement from the British embassy, declaring, as has been more than once in the British parliament, that "It is entirely contrary to the policy of the British treasury to incur fresh indebtedness in the United States."

Great Britain has borrowed no money in the United States since last June. There have doubtless been private loans, made in the normal course of business, but none in which either government was concerned. British securities are on sale, of course, in the American bond market, but nobody is under any obligation to buy them.

In this connection, there seems to have been an unnecessary amount of confusion resulting from the British request for the co-operation of the United States in further measures for the relief and reconstruction of the most stricken parts of Europe. It was in response to this appeal that Secretary Glass asked for credits of $150,000,000, which the House ways and means committee has cut to $60,000,000. The general impression in this country has been that the United States was expected to carry the sole burden of such relief. The British government explains that not only does this not involve any British borrowing from the United States, but that Great Britain herself is advancing a large amount of credit for this co-operative work, and several other countries are helping.

There may have been a feeling abroad some time ago that the United States was an "easy mark" upon whom all the rest of the world, especially our allied friends, might draw at libitum. If so, that feeling seems to have disappeared. The claim for cash is dying out, to the benefit of everybody concerned, allying the resentment of Americans and promoting the self-respect of Europeans.

It is particularly pleasing to find that Great Britain now finds herself able to stand on her own feet, and takes a proper pride in doing so. Such a stand promotes better relations between the two countries that necessarily carry the two foremost roles in world reconstruction, and makes Americans ready to play their part in international affairs.

NO MORE HAPSBURGS

Nations seem to learn surprisingly little from history, even when it is their own history. Hungary, after all she has suffered from monarchs, has voted for a return of monarchical rule. And for a monarch she wants another Hapsburg!

"Ordinarily—it would hardly be considered anybody else's business what Rhud of Hungary might have. But it is different in this case. The war started by the Hapsburgs, which in origin and character was quite in keeping with the Hapsburg history and traditions, has led to a stern resolve on the part of the dominant powers that never again will that unprincipled dynasty be tolerated."

Europe is fed up on Hapsburgs. The Allies have therefore served notice on Hungary that "such a restoration of a dynasty which to its subjects represented a system of evasion and domination in alliance with Germany over other races would not be consistent either with the principles for which this war has been fought or with the result of the liberation of subject peoples which has been achieved," and that the choice of a Hapsburg would be at variance with the peace settlement, and can be "neither recognized nor tolerated."

Hapsburgs are fed up on Habsburgs, too, and any attempt set up of that breed on any throne will call forth a similar prohibition.

This incident, however, shows that the curse is seated deeper than most people have thought. The evil is not eradicated when the autocrats are removed. Like Aspin's frogs, the foolish people may still clamor for a king, and court their own destruction. The monarchial idea is strong yet throughout Central Europe. There is still too much Hapsburg in Hungary and Austria, and too much Habsburg in Germany. Before the world is really safe, the people themselves must be democratized. That is a slower process than kicking frogs off their throats.

Don't blame Congress too much for failure to enact desired legislation. It has such a lot of investigating to do—there are 61 investigations under way now.

Woolen men predict cheaper clothing soon. Aw, quit your kiddy'

Atlanta, Ga.—The proprietor of a hotel tells the story of a clothesline bridge which he asserts was a guest bridge at his hotel for several hours, or until she could procure lodgings from a friend.

After his departure the hotel man a lover, a young couple registered at his hotel and the next day guests began a quarrel in progress in the bridal suite.

Soon afterward the husband came home with two girls, a maid and a boy who was then about four years old, and left his wife's toilet set as security for their room rent, after stating his wife would be down soon.

Shortly after his departure his wife returned home to the hotel.

Upon being told of his absence she exhibited him had taken with him all of her clothing except in embroidered apron and a pair of shoes.

It was hours before she could reach a friend and procure wearing apparel suitable for the street.

GOING UP FACING SON OF FITZ

By JACK VERNON
International News Sporting Editor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Young Bob Fitzsimmons has a hard row to hoe. The youthful son of good old "tubby Bob" is trying to hammer his way to popularity, pre-empting "about" the role of "the woods" and he is finding his way from the thing they care for.

"A chip of the old block," yes, as far as looks go, he's something like his dad. But, while it comes to punching ability, Bob Fitzsimmons gains only, and that's where the rub comes in.

Now, Young Bob made up his mind to earn a new livelihood exchanging rights and lefts with the man-and-exgers in this section he was well received. In fact, he was welcomed with open arms by promoters and boxing fans all over the country. The late exhibition would be bound to show right off the red. And they were all appointed.

"Young Fitz displays a lot of cleverness and looks considerably like his father. He knows a lot of angles, too, and is a quick study. He's got his future." His punches might weight in his recent bout against Eddie West at Jersey City the youthful star cut his man to ribbons and won the battle handily enough, but the ringmasters say—"he didn't have enough zip."

"Texas Pete" name was never given to Smith who will be without having to read a wide variety of criticisms about himself. But he

ADVANCE HAS BEEN STEADY

Moderation Was First Sought, Not Until 1847 Did Demand for Abolition of Strong Liquor Make Itself Heard.

Chicago.—Prohibition sentiment, culminating in the epoch-making amendment to the federal Constitution, has been growing steadily in this country since 1847, when records indicate the first heard of the movement of the Methodist Episcopal church. At that time a demand for moderation in the use of ardent spirits arose following ten years later by an even more powerful demand for prohibition of ardent spirits and for moderation in the use of malt liquors. This in turn gave way in 1851 to sentiment for abstinence from all absolute beverages.

MITT AND JEFF IN NEW GUINEA

There is no denying the potency of "Mitt and Jeff" the peer of all amateur farce comedies, which is underwritten at the best offering at the Lyceum theater, Tuesday, February 13.

The laughing twins, now in their ninth year's edition, are an attractive and popular sight. They are a company of six people, all capable of entertaining as ever. This season their particular field of merry-making is the early new version of the enduring "Jeky-lens" is offered and the result is one of the most brilliant evenings ever witnessed in any theatrical company, while the costumes are referred to theatricals. The girls are bold and more original than ever. There is nothing to do in the last suggestion of variety or glee,
