

POULTRY FOR EGGS

Washington, Feb. 28.—A temporary injunction restraining the United States shipping board from selling the former German passenger vessels was granted by District Judge Hearst in the supreme court of the District of Columbia.

Hearst Is Granted Ship Injunction

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The United States shipping board has estimated that the cost of duplication of twenty of the former German passenger ships, seized by the United States during the war, is $16,219,847.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.—The United States shipping board has estimated that the annual depreciation on the same vessel is $1,467,520. Commissioner Stevens said, contending that the depreciation marked-off was too great.

The International Maritime Marine and Engineering company, according to John York, former "dollar a year" man in the shipping board, in his testimony before the senate commerce committee today.

PIGS NEED MINERAL MATTER

Excellent Practice to Mix Mixture of Charcoal, Lime and Salt in Salt-Feeder.

Pigs kept in confinement, which is usually the case when they are being fattened for the market, are generally not fed enough mineral matter in order to satisfy their craving for minerals.

COMPOST SAVES FERTILIZER

Good Means of Supplying Needed Organic Matter for Soil—Expense of Pile is Small.

The compost pile is one means of supplying needed organic matter for the farm. The materials which can be used are ordinarily wasted, and the expense of making the pile slight when compared with fertilizer.

ACCURATE RECORDS OF MILK

Only Way of Knowing Just What a Cow is Producing—Study Details Before Culling.

The only way of positively knowing that a cow is a profitable milk producer is by keeping accurate and complete records of production and it is profitable to cull a cow to be slaughtered before these records are studied in detail.

Turns Over a New Leaf

On March first this store will go on a CASH BASIS. We make this change after due consideration and experience of three months in business in Twin Falls.

We absolutely know that by adopting the cash system we will be able to offer groceries at a greater saving to our patrons than it would be possible for us to do were we to continue the credit system.

By adopting the cash system, we eliminate almost half of our running expense. That means at least a saving of seven per cent on your grocery bill. As every merchant will tell you that their running expenses are from 15 to 20 per cent. And that must be added to your groceries.

A number of our town customers have discontinued their credit and are paying cash or asking us to send their bills C. O. D. and while we have a large farmer trade, we are glad to say that almost every farmer that comes into our store pays cash for everything he buys. And we feel that it is an injustice to our people and patrons that pay cash to charge them an excessive price that naturally must be and will be charged by every merchant who operates on a credit basis.

In turning over this leaf and making this change we feel that we are doing every customer a favor and we wish to thank each and every one that have patronized the Mitchell Grocery since Dec. 8th, 1919.

Out of Chaos

The Telephone Company's greatest asset is the co-operation of the public; it is a big enterprise, in the successful operation of which both the company and the people are vitally concerned. As a unit in the great Bell System it is universal in the scope of its service. It has the biggest, hardest work imaginable, for it has as many patrons to please as has the President of the United States.

The past few years have been full of perplexing and disappointing problems and conditions. No business organization can be any more perfect than the combined intelligence, sincerity and industry of its human management. A corporation is subject to all the trials and tribulations of the individual, but in an increasing ratio to its magnitude and responsibilities.

There is no avenue of human activity that has not been paved with sacrifice during the past four years; there isn't an individual who has not contributed in some way to the winning of the world's greatest war at discomfort to himself and by voluntary self-denial, and every business organization has contributed its share of service. Out of the chaos of the world a new day dawns pregnant with promise of a happier condition of affairs. As you look forward to a more prosperous, brighter era, the Telephone Company looks forward to increased efficiency, better service, and, above all, to pleased and satisfied patrons.

PEOPLE ARE THINKING

One of the most helpful signs of our national life is the fact that a large portion of our people are discussing the things that affect their country. Political interests are being more widely diffused. Issues long thought remote from the average citizen are being brought before his notice. His mind is aroused and his judgment is sharpened.

Nowhere in this world more appears it than in the revival of what may be termed pamphletizing. For a generation, or even more, America has been practically without small publications for the dissemination of opinion. We were long unique in the absence of a form of opinion which is the most common brand of the profession of ability in other countries. Our present brand of the day succeed. Our Chief Way, and our more and more to anonymity, uniformity and conformity. The purveyance of news without interpretation, without comment, without the last type of journalism. The editorial page fell into desuetude and was kept alive only for the benefit of the "journalist" or "conformity." That the news should be made entirely in the telling was the aim of the commercial school, while "biased" or "biased" presentation of the day's happenings was the desire of the more worthy journals.

As a result of the war, and the upheaval of government consequent upon the conflict, not only has the editorial page "come back" but a whole flock of journals of opinion has arisen in the land providing scope and articulation for this sort of shade of thought and opinion, or voicing a violent expression of rebellion against existing conditions. The radicals number best; but the entry of our naturally demands response by its opposite, until now the dissenting reader who wants to know what anybody thinks may search his mind and empty his pocket at any first-class news stand.

It is a hopeful sign, a condition that ought to be encouraged. It stimulates thought, provokes discussion of the issues, three things that make for an enlightened citizenry and good democracy.

Just the same, if Lord Grey belonged to the United States government instead of the British government, we rather think something would be done about that treaty.

Steven K. Stevens' Attack on Auction Of German Liners

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Twelve days before the senate commerce committee. Vice-Chairman Stevens of the shipping board continued his attack on the Senate plan to auction 30 German liners.

Stevens declared that he believed that the American merchant marine should be privately owned and operated eventually, but that if a fair price cannot be received by the government for the former German ships they should be held until they can either be sold at their real value or congress authorizes us a matter of public policy, to sell them below that value for the purpose of aiding the American merchant marine.

His offer for the German ships should be privately owned and operated eventually, but that if a fair price cannot be received by the government for the former German ships they should be held until they can either be sold at their real value or congress authorizes us a matter of public policy, to sell them below that value for the purpose of aiding the American merchant marine.

"The value of these ships ranges from nearly twice the amount of the bid to nearly three times," Stevens said. "Another fact which confirms me in my opinion that the bids are too low is the fact that the bids are among the bids submitted were four for foreign interests. One of these exceeded the highest American bid $200,000 and the other three were practically double the highest American bid. Furthermore, the American Steamship Association, through its chairman, Mr. Frank O'Brien, has recommended that the cargo ships be retained from $225 to $200,000, and to $100,000 and the other three were practically double the highest American bid. Furthermore, the American Steamship Association, through its chairman, Mr. Frank O'Brien, has recommended that the cargo ships be retained from $225 to $200,000, and to $100,000 and the other three were practically double the highest American bid.

Stevens said he believed that with necessary precautions the bids offered could be operated for a profit by the government; that it would be unfair to attempt to judge the future possibilities of loss.

"If American shipping can compete in the future with foreign shipping, they can be sold when that is demonstrated at their market value," Stevens said. "If it cannot, they will have to be sold at a less value. In my opinion, our final decision should be based in the light of important information and not in the present uncertainty and doubt."

SMARTNESS AND COMFORT

THIS OXFORD HAS BOTH Smartness itself from the tip of the long vamp to the edge of the daintily curved heel.

And comfort in every line and curve, with a special sole that bends with every movement of the foot. For it's a Red Cross low shoe, wholly comfortable. In brown, golden brown and black. Priced moderately at $12 and $13.50.

A COLONIAL PUMP THAT'S FULL OF DECEIT—REALLY!

You see it here and you think it's just a very trim, demure, little thing wholly content to be simply its demure self. But it isn't. Hidden under its throat, there's a black band and into its sole something has been processed that makes it plain to you that it bends with the highest movement of your foot. In colors Black and Brown.

BRINGING UP FATHER

EXTEND HOSPITALITY TO BEHEAVED MOTHER
OAK CREEK, Oct. 20.—Plans are being made here to extend the hospitality of this mining camp to Mrs. Karline Miller, of Monticello, and to lighten her burden when she arrives from southern Europe.
Mrs. Miller is somewhere on the Atlantic on her way, as she believes to spend her declining years with the one son left of a family of eleven—five sons, four daughters, the husband and herself—she writes.
Steve Miller was the oldest of nine children. He came to America a number of years ago and sought employment in the coal fields of Illinois and Colorado. When the United States entered the great conflict, Steve enlisted in the army of Uncle Sam. He spent 18 months overseas, was severely wounded and was awarded the D. S. C. as well as a French decoration for bravery in action.
When Steve was discharged from service last May he returned to Colorado and resumed his occupation as a "shot-firer" in the Pinnacle mine here. During the war Miller father and five brothers were killed while fighting with the Hill Mine concentration army. His four sisters were captured by Austrian soldiers and have never been heard of since. So Steve decided to send for his mother, that she might have a little comfort in life and to assist her fragile frailty she had passed through during the past five years.
Miller was killed in the coal mine here when a "shot" exploded prematurely. And further sorrow awaits the beheaved mother upon her arrival.

T. F. HOOP TEAM MEETS GOODING SAT. EVENING

Blue and White Mean to Avenger Defeat Handled Team Recently At Gooding

The Twin Falls high school basketball team will attempt revenge on the Gooding high school aggregation on Saturday evening in the local high school gymnasium.

TWIN FALLS MUST HURRY TO GET INTO S. I. LEAGUE

Magnates Meet Here to Put Proposal Up to C. of C.

If Twin Falls succeeds in becoming an American Falls to a berth in the South Idaho League this season it will mean prompt development action on the part of those interested in keeping Twin Falls on the map.

lines and forfeit to enforce its rules. These rules assure a well-balanced circuit, and security of earnings, the principal requisites in success. With a player limit of 12 men, the talent is backed up by lines and favorable forfeits from the field, official authority being supported by police protection. A special committee will be made against "flag cheating" and "roadfights".

Neighboring towns are said to be watching the Twin Falls action closely. Mr. Demarest, a Jerome banker, who represented the Jerome club at last night's meeting here, even expressed the belief that Jerome would have a Twin Falls return as a personal injury and a refusal to cooperate with neighboring towns in building up the end of the state.

Among the league representatives here last night were President J. H. Davis of Park, head of the Adams Printing Company, and E. S. Moss of Idaho, banker and sportsman of that city, who attended the meeting with Councilman Ethna of Buhl and others from the west and secretary, Mr. Moss acted as playing manager of the Buhl club last season, and is a popular attraction for entertaining the western towns in the control of the league. President Davis is a prominent agriculturist of the east and is one of the best known business men of southern Idaho.

Yellow Mustard For Rheumatism

A good hot mustard plaster or poultice is really sure to overcome most rheumatic pains and even sciatica and even when it's a "long" affair and generally bilateral.

It is absolutely necessary if you want permanent relief, they're Mustardine made of true yellow mustard with other pain relievers as well as a hot plaster and cannot blister.

Besides rheumatic pains and swellings Mustardine is specially effective for lumbago, backache, neuritis, pleurisy, bronchitis, sore throat, chest colds and all aches and pains because heat causes pain—20 and 60 cents.

Grip, Influenza

Hamlin's Wizard Oil's Reliable, Antiseptic Preventive
During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and sniff the mixture up an antiseptic wall of defense against "Grip" germs.

Chill colds and sore throat lead to Grip. Stop them at once with Wizard Oil before they can develop into dangerous influenza.

Get it from drugists for 30c. If not satisfied, return the bottle and get your money back.

Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Purifier, a little pink pill, 50c at drugists. Guaranteed.
