

VOL. II, NO. 351

TWIN FALLS, IDAHO, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10, 1920

OLD VOL. XIII, NO. 14

WITHDRAW COMPROMISE ON ARTICLE X

MAKES CLAIM NEW DID NOT MURDER GIRL AS ADMITTED

Sister of Convicted Man Uncovers a Sensation

SAYS MISS LESLER KILLED HERSELF

New Finally Talks, Since He Believes End Is Near at Hand

LOS ANGELES, March 10.—Startling developments which may even include a grand jury investigation of the New trial are expected to follow today close on the heels of the conviction of Harry S. New, Jr., reputed son of United States Senator New of Indiana, child Freda Lesler, the girl, whom young New was convicted of killing, allegedly committed suicide today from along the proposed route and the territory affected. Contact with a large representation and others were given from Fish, Castle, Ford, Hollister, Miller, Jerome and elsewhere.

It is said by relatives to be suffering from tuberculosis although prison authorities deny this. It is a delicate condition. Miss Lesler made New alleged "suicide" statement in the form of an affidavit corroborated by H. P. Dixon, New's former employer.

"The truth" according to the affidavit, is that Miss Lesler killed herself because he (New) told her he was "not going to have anything more to do with her" after she had told him she had not been true to him. This, it is said, did not mean that he was to go to the West Canyon but on the Venice road near Culver City, New declared he made the statement because he felt he would not live a month in the prison jots and wanted the truth known before he died. The statement was made by the reputed son of United States Senator New of Indiana, 14-16-New's first statement of how the tragedy occurred since that in which he told the police he killed Miss Lesler. Even to his lawyers he has not always been silent.

RURAL LEADERS TO MEET SATURDAY

A meeting of district rural leaders scheduled for Saturday at the office of the county farm bureau at this meeting it is expected that plans for the annual conference between farm bureau women and farm bureau leaders will be made.

THICK ICE ON LAKES BOATERS FISH

LAKEVIEW, Mich., March 10.—John J. Dale says fish in the small lake on the state are being taken as a result of the long and cold winter. The ice is of almost unprecedented thickness and is smothering the fish in New York lake where it is nearly two feet thick, holes are being cut to give the fish air.

YOUTH COUNCIL

PARIS, March 10.—Council of war has been announced at Cologne under the president of Germany, who is to consider means of insuring the execution of all the treaty terms, the disarmament of German fortresses, and the surrender of German territories, the Journal announced today.

REDUCE RAILWAY SERVICE

PARIS, March 10.—The railway lines are considering a reduction of passenger service because of the coal strike in the coal fields in the department of the north. A mass meeting of the miners in the northern French coal fields was called for today, it is reported.

Income Tax Facts You Should Know

THE SOLDIERS' INCOME TAX. Those who served actively in 1919 in the army, navy, or marine corps, whether on or off duty, including those who were in the United States in 1920, are entitled to a special exemption. Those who were released during 1919 must consider all of the retired pay as taxable income; also any pay for active service received in 1920.

Many Gathering Today for Railroad Conferences

Business men, farmers, miners and many, accompanied by H. E. Van Sancher, are gathering in Twin Falls today at invitation of the Idaho-Tri-State and Tidewater Railway Company to discuss the corporation's proposal to build a line from Twin Falls to Wells, Nevada, thus linking this section up with direct rail connections with the Pacific coast.

WILL USE ALL MEANS TO GET BONUS THROUGH

Ex-Serviceman in Congress Is Determined to Push Legislation on Subject

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Every means possible will be used by the friends of soldier bonus legislation to bring the bill through the committee of the present month if possible. Representative Royal C. Johnson of South Dakota, an ex-serviceman, said today.

Potato Breakfast Tomorrow Night

Plans are practically complete for the annual Potato Breakfast which will be held in the high school auditorium tomorrow evening. The Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce has been in charge of the event, which has not been held during war times. Special prizes will be given and a good time is in store for all attending. Tickets may be bought at the Majestic Pharmacy.

NEW BISHOP FOR UTAH

LAWRENCE, Mass., March 10.—Episcopal Bishop Whipple Motion, for twenty years pastor of Grace Episcopal church here, today accepted the post as bishop of Utah for the Episcopal church.

WILSON ENJOYS RIDE

WASHINGTON, March 10.—President Wilson today enjoyed a ride in his automobile.

COURT'S RULING ON ARTICLES X AND XIII MAY BRING BIG COUNTRY REVENUE

New Legislation May Be Required to Cover Millions Lost

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The supreme court decision that stock dividends are not taxable as income would cost the government approximately $600,000,000. Legislation is being considered that would require the government to pay for the loss of revenue.

Three Fatal Air Accidents Occur

MIAMI, Fla., March 10.—Three airplane crashes in the last few days resulted in the deaths of three men.

SLANDER SUIT FILED BY ROSS

Former Manager of Citizen's Shop Asks Damage in Sum of $200,000

ROSS, N. C., March 10.—An investigation was under way today of the airplane accident which occurred at the home of the late Charles Ross.

Clark Will Attend Salt Lake Meets

It is expected that Clark will attend the Salt Lake Meets in Utah.

Reverse Conviction of Mrs. Rose Stokes

ST. LOUIS, March 10.—The United States circuit court of appeals, in an opinion handed down here today, reversed the verdict by which Mrs. Rose Stokes was convicted in Kansas City in June 1918 of violating the espionage act.

WATER-POWER CONFERENCE ENDS

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Without reaching an agreement to send water power conferences on the water power bill adjourned today because several delegates were engaged with other matters.

TOWN IN URIP OF 'GULL'

CHESTER, N. C., March 10.—Chester will look to God to wipe out the influenza epidemic.

Sims Charges Delay Cost PLAN REVOLT OF DEMOCRATIC SENATORS IN PEACE FIGHT

Huge Losses in Shipping During Early Part of War

Vacillating Policy of Navy Department, He Says, Prolonged the War at Least Four Months When Lives and Property Paid.

Wilson's Aloofness Is Causing Annoyance in the Ranks

FEW AGREED TO NEW COMPROMISE

Lack of Pledges Causes Republicans to Give Up the Effort

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The new compromise on Article X, which the Republican and Democratic senators have been working to suddenly withdrawn by the Republican leaders this afternoon.

MARY WINNOR AT SENATORS

Causes Stir in Cafe—Will Carry Fight for Rights Into Congress, Said

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Feminists here today are halting Mary Winnor of Haverford, Pa., as the Susan B. Anthony of the "smokes for women movement."

WOOD DENIES FIGHT ON HAYS

CHICAGO, March 10.—Vigorous denial that any one connected with the presidential campaign, of General Wood, will attempt to attack Hays.

Bloch Arrives to Vote on Suffrage

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 10.—A largely favored vote for women reports to the contrary position announced declared Senator Bloch, who made a record making dash across the country to vote for the national suffrage amendment.

BIOTS AT CUMK

CORK, Ireland, March 10.—Serious fighting of the royal constabulary was reported from Cumk, Ireland, when they attacked the local constabulary.

RELEASING

William and Arthur Smith of Oklahoma recently arrived at a charge of being accomplices of G. W. Lewis, had check writer now serving time in the state penitentiary, were yesterday released by Judge C. R. Dwyer.

DANCE TO FORGET

PARIS, March 10.—The only happy women in France today are those who were girls in 1914. The war has left an indelible imprint on the minds of all others. In whatever fashion they may try to wipe it out, the fact is certain—it will not lead to happiness.

The women of France are in process of adjustment to a new social life, one which they never expected. They are forced to accept in a few years, a development for which there are no precedents. Young women of the middle class, who were in their teens when the war began, had been brought up with the idea of marriage. They dreamed of nothing but the happiness of home. France lost a million and a half of the flower of her manhood in the years of conflict. Owing to the enormous disproportion between the number of men and women today, the social life is changing. Women have had to take the places of their brothers in all branches of industry. Hundreds of thousands of young women are today called to duty.

As for those who were married at the beginning of the war, their lives are now a series of conflicts. Long separations, both husband and wife were subjected to a process of evolution. The husband acquires habits of command, the wife those of independence. The Frenchwoman does not like that. She likes to obey, it is true, but she does not expect to be ordered.

You will tell me that the life of Paris has never been so gay as it is at present. Dancing is not always an expression of joy. But dancing is practically the only amusement which is still available to the masses today. There has never been such a riot of dancing under colored lights and amid the music of orchestras and symphonies as the dance halls, hundreds of women, always the same, tango and fox trot in Paris. Just as they are doing in London and Berlin. They are dancing in the restaurants of the boulevards and the cafes of the outskirts of Paris. They are dancing in the windows before the war, no one ever saw anything of the legless creature and the graying of the hair, the wrinkles, the mazes of one of their provincial dances.

One parent has often told me how quickly France recovered after the disaster of 1870-71. What we were able to accomplish in the dark days of defeat seems incredible achievement on the morrow of victory. The heart of France is still torn. Her soul, after the sublime effort of the war, has not yet returned to its less sublime but none the less necessary peace of peace.

Buy any of these little dancers in her slip and clinging gown, together in the midst of the gay whirl in which she seems to be trying to fly from herself. Look in her eyes, listen to her laugh. You will discover in her soul, with all its vain, petty thoughts, a certain nobility, a sense of melancholy, the desire which is almost a disease to forget yesterday and tomorrow, to forget even that she is alive.

SECURE MASTERY OF THE AIR

LONDON, March 10.—Will England gain command of the air in the future, as she now has command of the seas? In the question which is agitating the minds of many leaders of affairs here at present—with, to a certain extent, the hope and belief that this is what will determine the outcome of the war—there is no doubt that the expenditure of money into the hands of the Government will result in the mastery of the air. The English Ministry of Air, and the only reason why cash is not being used is because the Government has its own money to spend. It is not thought advisable to show in official reports the expenditure of money in this way. Much interest is being displayed in the efforts now being made to develop a system of aerial mail. The air mail service with its own control, operated by the Government. The separate services are being worked in such a way as to make commercial aviation a success.

Major-General Sir W. S. Braucher, one of the directors of the Aircraft Transport & Travel Company (their name is "A.T.T.") stated that his organization and management were needed at the present moment in order to make commercial aviation a success.

THE AIRCRAFT SERVICE HEAD OFFICE SURVIVING MEMBER

WARREN, Ohio, March 10.—In a deserted Ohio village, occasional survivors of the abandoned United States fleet for the benefit of its one surviving member.

This is the unusual situation in Warren, Ohio, where a ship with two Mr. Worthens, Warren has become deserted since the railroads took over the business that once went to the factory of the ship.

Although Mrs. Lavinia Jackson, 76, is the sole surviving member of the crew of the "A.T.T.," she has been in the service since she held it from time to time for her benefit.

W. VIRGINIA LOOKS DARK

Another Anti-Pops Up to Vote in Deadlock—Blotch Is Racing Against Time

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 9.—Anti-populists felt today that they have the upper hand in their fight to prevent ratification of the anti-trust amendment to the state constitution. Senator A. H. Montgomery, said to be an opponent of ratification, who has been making his home in Illinois, is expected to visit here in the next few days. His visit will break the deadlock. Montgomery presented his resolution to Governor Campbell last night, but it was never accepted. Nothing was heard today from Senator Blotch, who is rushing from the state to catch his vote in favor of ratification.

Mr. Black Blocks It

CHICAGO, March 10.—State Senator Jesse A. Bloch is to break the deadlock in the West Virginia legislature on ratification of the federal anti-trust amendment. It will be possible to speed train racing from Chicago to Cincinnati to make connections with the West Virginia senator, gets him to the Ohio city in time.

It was planned to make the Chicago-Cincinnati race by airplane, but the pilot, Mrs. Bloch, who is the sponsor's arrival from California, prevailed and the special train was dispatched upon instead. It left Chicago shortly after noon.

Jerome News

(Special Correspondence)

Keith Ferguson and wife of Chicago are located in Jerome. Mr. Ferguson will open a law office here. J. J. Elkins of the Consolidated Wagon and Machine Co., who was severely injured when his car fell from a hill in the city, is at home from the hospital following and recovering satisfactorily.

Born, Saturday, Feb. 29, to Mr. and Mrs. Van Hise, a daughter, Mrs. May Hildebrand and daughter, who lived at West Park California to visit at the parental Cuth home.

Quite a number of farms have been sold in this vicinity to people from Twin Falls. A recent sale was that of the 20-acre ranch north of town.

Those who had the privilege of hearing Dr. Boyd of New York City speak at the Presbyterian church on Friday evening felt that it was a delightful and interesting hearing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wright of Payette are visiting at the home of their son, L. A. Wright.

Mr. H. H. and wife have moved from their ranch north of town into the Leamy property. Their son Elbert will farm the ranch.

Mr. Rowland, one of the proprietors of the White House department store, has purchased a new residence in the Heger subdivision.

The W. W. Halsey is recovering from his illness of last week.

Mrs. Blackwell of Mountain Home is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Taylor.

Mr. J. L. Lisle enjoyed a few days visit from his brother Ernest of Chicago during the past week.

The Frank McCann was well at the Saturday afternoon. We are sorry to lose the McCanns from our city.

Mr. C. A. Varman enjoyed a short visit last week from his brother, C. W. Varman of Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers, who have been visiting the H. H. Waldron home, have purchased a residence property here and will become permanent residents.

Paul Kartako, who recently underwent an operation in a Boise hospital, is at home convalescing satisfactorily.

Mrs. Green is visiting friends in Idaho on a visit to her home, also visiting through the home of her daughter, Mrs. Weidley.

Wildes Vesale and family left on their way to their home in Portland. They have a large circle of friends who regret losing this estimable family.

Mr. C. A. Varman, who was examining the pupae at Canyonville Thursday.

Mrs. Emma Alexander is visiting friends in Idaho on a visit to her home, also visiting through the home of her daughter, Mrs. Weidley.

C. Stratton, who has been suffering for some time with rheumatism, has gone to Hot Lakes, Oregon, for treatment.

Born, Wednesday, March 2, to Mr. and Mrs. W. Davis of Canyonville, a daughter.

M. C. Clayton and family left early in the week for Durban, where they have rented a ranch. Their son Kenneth, will remain and finish his first year in high school here.

BEYOND THE ANNIVER TO NORTH

SET IN RIVER TO NORTH

HELLE PLAIN, Kan., March 10.—A bottle containing a sheet of paper, which was written "Miss Anna Lela, Belle Plaine, Kan., August, 1914," was thrown into the Ninneshot river three and a half years ago. A few days ago Miss Lela received a letter from R. S. Baldwin, an engineer for the Pugee Sound Light and Power Company, Seattle, Wash., who had found the bottle while out riding on Washington Lake (Canal, near Seattle).

The sheet contained under discussion here now is the bottle found its way to the Pacific coast.

PHETTY MISS, SMOKING.

STARTLES OHIO TOWN

URIHANA, Ohio, March 10.—Just to prove that this little Ohio town is not a backwater, a young woman, who had just returned from New York City, was seen smoking a cigarette.

It is the latest craze among the young women here, who are smoking and smoking a cigarette.

It did so attract attention and comment that the young woman who was smoking a cigarette.

With a long ladder in her mouth and putting away with the utmost abandon, she was able to create some fireworks.

GIRL HAS BAD DREAMS IN TWENTY-ONE HOUR

NEWTON, Kan., March 10.—Adeline Bluck, fifteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bluck, upon returning home from the funeral of her grandmother, fell asleep here a few days ago and remained in a state of coma for twenty-one hours. A physician was called, but was unable to awaken the girl. When she awoke she was in a normal condition but said she had been dreaming about many dead persons.

SIGNS COMPENSATION

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Director General Hines today signed a compensation contract with the Peoria & Pekin Union Railway company for $255,512.

Got Something You Want to Sell?

Most people have a piece of furniture, a farm implement, or something else which they have to get rid of and which they do not know what to do with.

These things are put in the attic, or stored away in the barn, or left lying about, getting of less and less value each year.

WHY NOT SELL THEM?

Somebody always does some things which have value if not to you.

Why not try to find that somebody by putting a ready advertisement in THIS NEWSPAPER?

BANDITS GET BIG HAUL

BALTIMORE, Md., March 9.—Four automobile bandits smashed a plate glass window in the James H. Armiger jewelry store in the heart of the downtown district today and escaped with $40,000 worth of jewelry.

A citizen who attempted to seize one of the robbers was shot and poignantly wounded.

Styles of a Newer Inspiration

VALUES IN KEEPING WITH OUR REPUTATION

No worry about STYLE—that is solved every when you buy a United States Garment, because every Garment on sale at this store is the last note in style.

COATS

We invite you to inspect our showing of Coats. You are sure to find the one you want and besides we take pleasure in showing these beautiful creations.

PRICES DOWN TO $24.50

SUITS

Our showing of Suits embraces all the latest and best in style and fabric. A suit for every type and taste and at usual prices, that are extremely low.

DOWN TO $34.75

DRESSES

Possessing that air of individuality necessary to the well dressed. An elaborate display of Plain and Printed Georgette, Voile, Taffeta and Combinations. All the better shades and colors.

PRICES DOWN TO $24.50

THE UNITED STORES

TWIN FALLS, IDAHO

The FRIEND OF THE PEOPLE

UNIQUE SCHOOL TEACHERS DEAF CHILDREN TO READ

NEW YORK, March 10.—How much would you have learned in your school days if your education depended solely on what you saw, not the quick observation of your eyes?

At Public School No. 47, New York City, three hundred children are being patiently and slowly trained, to read and write because they cannot hear.

This is the Municipal School for the Deaf, where up-reading takes the place of reading.

The little ones sit on diminutive chairs around "teacher," and with Miss C. W. Kruman, principal of the school, seek to watch the primary steps of lip-reading.

In the teacher's hand was a small slip of white paper. She held it before the eyes of the children, and then she read the words. "Teacher," Miss Sarah Douglas, made the "m" sound, blowing it against the paper. Her lips charged with the sound, and then more consonants were sounded.

To sound the vowel Miss Douglas took a small card and placed it to her throat, making the "e" sound. The five-year-old with "up-reading" alacrity repeated the sound and then, after a few trials, made it alone. A mirror is also used so the pupils can be shown how to shape their lips to produce a given sound.

Children were classes in all branches of housekeeping, millinery, dressmaking, flower making and other trades, these accomplishments are being demanded by the regular school.

Good spirit toward others is shown throughout the school, when the children have for several years cared for a French half-orphan, Maria, who is now deaf, a similarly afflicted child being demanded by the regular school.

A number of graduates at Public School No. 47, are being trained to attend regular high schools. Being well lip-readers, their deafness is no barrier to "normal" association with others. A few have secured their success as far as entering college.

The school began in 1906. At that time there were only six children here for the training of the deaf and a number of private schools, but to place a child in any of these would require the payment of $100. Deafness is not an affliction that will tempt a parent to send away his child to be educated.

Now there are three hundred pupils, this being the largest school of its kind in the United States," said Miss Kruman. "Children come from all parts of the city. Some older persons usually accompany the younger ones, as the older children help through crowded streets very well."

It was found necessary to have all the children, including the children of the deaf, in the same school. At first, several classes were provided in schools for the deaf children, but each, by boys and girls were put in the smallest one. This prevented any sort of constant teaching, as the children got completely mixed up.

Here there are eight grades, and a total of about seven years to complete the course.

The Better the Printing of your stationery, the better the impression it will make.

Moral: Have your printing done here.

THE IDAHO MEDICAL COMPANY OF BOISE, IDAHO, specializes in the treatment of skin and venereal diseases of men and women, diseases of the kidneys and bladder, piles, fistulas, and all other medical disorders of the urinary organs. A woman's man blood test is made in blood and skin diseases.

Correspondence strictly confidential. We do not treat prescribes for anyone without a personal examination of the office. Consultation free.

Idaho Medical Company
6, 7, 8, Odd Fellows Bldg.
Boise, Idaho

All Traveling Expenses

Printing a Salesman Who Travels Cheaply

Traveling expenses I can't

Good printing on PRINCEVILLE BOARD

costs you little and does much for you.

Use more printed salesmanship. Ask us.

Your Desire for Success

You have business ambitions—a longing to advance?—We are with you.

A bank account goes hand-in-hand with business success, but we are interested in you in other ways.

We invite the confidence of our patrons, and are ready with honest counsel and financial guidance in your investments, outside of your bank account.

MEMBER

Twin Falls

Capital Stock $10,000

Advertising a Sale!

YOU don't leave your sign in the road and to a fence-post to send a mile bill to you? You don't expect the other fellow to do it.

Put an advertisement in this paper. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign.

One Extra Buyer at a Sale Extra the Cost of the Ad.

Get That Buyer

Put an advertisement in this paper. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign.

Advertising a Sale!

YOU don't leave your sign in the road and to a fence-post to send a mile bill to you? You don't expect the other fellow to do it.

Put an advertisement in this paper. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign.

One Extra Buyer at a Sale Extra the Cost of the Ad.

Get That Buyer

Put an advertisement in this paper. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign.

Advertising a Sale!

YOU don't leave your sign in the road and to a fence-post to send a mile bill to you? You don't expect the other fellow to do it.

Put an advertisement in this paper. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign.

One Extra Buyer at a Sale Extra the Cost of the Ad.

Get That Buyer

Put an advertisement in this paper. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign.

Advertising a Sale!

YOU don't leave your sign in the road and to a fence-post to send a mile bill to you? You don't expect the other fellow to do it.

Put an advertisement in this paper. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign.

One Extra Buyer at a Sale Extra the Cost of the Ad.

Get That Buyer

Put an advertisement in this paper. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign.

Advertising a Sale!

YOU don't leave your sign in the road and to a fence-post to send a mile bill to you? You don't expect the other fellow to do it.

Put an advertisement in this paper. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign.

One Extra Buyer at a Sale Extra the Cost of the Ad.

Get That Buyer

Put an advertisement in this paper. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign.

Advertising a Sale!

YOU don't leave your sign in the road and to a fence-post to send a mile bill to you? You don't expect the other fellow to do it.

Put an advertisement in this paper. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign.

One Extra Buyer at a Sale Extra the Cost of the Ad.

Get That Buyer

Put an advertisement in this paper. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign. It will tell you the value of your sign.

Published Every Evening Except Sunday, and Sunday Morning by The Times Printing & Publishing Company, Twin Falls, Idaho.

ONLY IDAHO PAPER WITH TWO LEADED WIRE SERVICES The International News Service and the United Press Service The Times and its Readers.

D. M. DENTON, President; LOUIS O. HILL, Vice President; I. M. FINNEY, Secretary; GEORGE E. HART, Editor and General Manager; THOMAS W. STRAETER, Assistant Manager.

Entered at the Twin Falls postoffice as second class matter as a daily publication, April 11, 1918.

SUBSCRIPTION RATE: Daily and Sunday, $7.50; Daily, Except Sunday, year, $65.00; Sunday, $20.00.

SALUTE THE FLAG: I Pledge Allegiance to My Flag, and to the Republic for Which It Stands. One Nation, Indivisible, With Liberty and Justice for All.

THE TIMES PLATFORM FOR A GREATER TWIN FALLS CITY AND COUNTY

- 1-Democracy at home. 2-Mutual light, heat and power in city and county. 3-Efficiency in public schools. 4-Encourage manufacturing. 5-Railroad to connect with Southern Pacific to the south. 6-Conserve water supply by pumping waste water back into irrigals. 7-Install canals wherever possible during storage. 8-Swimming pool in summer and skating rink in winter. 9-Improve the city streets. 10-Improve the city streets. 11-Good roads throughout all tributary territory to city. 12-Electricity railroads of Idaho.

PIORT FIRE WITH FIRE

That the farmer-labor movement organized in Twin Falls county is taking business-like methods of retaliation against those who seek to injure and defeat its cause, is shown in a resolution submitted to the farmer-labor news meeting last Sunday at the Lavering theater.

For years the farmer and the laborer have been united, kept apart and held bound by cleverly directed publicity through controlled magazines and newspapers, subservient to the advertising and financial interests which support them.

The newspaper which dared lift its voice in behalf of all the people met some such situation as that confronting The Times, which is being made the target of virtual boycott by Twin Falls employers.

When The Times promised to upset the usual smug program by showing fairness to the employes as well as to the employer and to the farmer as well as to the non-farmer, the old weapons of pressure were instantly brought into play.

In many cases they brought their pressure to bear on others who would otherwise have favored fairness but were compelled to join in the movement when their effort was threatened. Then they sat back for what they believed to be a siege of The Times.

Now the farmer and laborer is beginning to realize that there is something more than newspapers concerned in the struggle. They realize as their enemies long ago realized that if their one outlet for expression is cut off they will have no further chance of redress or relief. It is indeed, more than a fight on a newspaper. It is a fight for continuance of an evil which the farmer and laborer must break if he continues to exist above slavery.

That is why the farmer-labor movement is determined to operate along the lines laid down in the following resolution, to meet first by fire and dispose of as possible of the "rule or ruin" spirit in Twin Falls.

That is highly important for everybody concerned to get straight that is, that whatever rate increase is granted shall be charged to the consuming public only once, instead of several times.

Walter D. Hines, former federal rail director, declares that or simply any increase in rates is multiplied by five by the time it reaches the consumer. The shipper, having to pay a little higher freight charge, adds to that extra charge in passing it along.

PAYING FOR PATRIOTISM: Says a newspaper that is supporting the so-called "compensation adjustment" proposal of the American Legion.

It is for the soldiers and others who took part in the war to say what additional compensation they desire. There is no need to draw fine distinctions or offer excuses.

Maybe so. But this sort of thing rather takes the heart out of an old fashioned soldier, who cannot bear even now to receive war service recognition to have much more the soldiers might have made if they had stayed at home, in whom their very sacrifice brings priceless compensations, remembered always with honorable satisfaction.

When asked by secret of eternal beauty, Lina Cavallieri said: "There is only one. Sleep every night with the face wrapped in veal cutlets!"

According to certain English critics the present-day girl is "spoiled." Still other commentators refer to her as "fresh." Now what can a poor girl do?

It stands to reason that the senate will do something about that twenty pretty soon, for until they do, the senators won't have time for the campaign.

WEEDING CARE, BAKED IN YEARS AGO, SERVED AT DINNER. COLUMBUS, Ind., March 10.—Small slices of a wedding cake baked forty-two years ago for the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Reed, of Hope, were served as dessert the other day at a dinner given by Mrs. O. L. Russell, a candidate in honor of the forty-second wedding anniversary of her parents.

NORTHWESTERN KASSAS SCHOOLS MEET TODAY. HAYS, Kan., March 10.—The twenty-second annual meeting of the Globetrot Educational Association—comprising schools in Northwestern Kansas, will begin at the Hays Normal School here today.

DANIELS FOR SENATOR SECOND NAVY YARD AT F. WASHINGTON, March 9.—Establishment of another navy yard at San Francisco bay was advocated today before the house naval affairs committee by Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Representatives of 17,000 anthracite miners this afternoon presented demands to the operators for a sixty per cent wage increase, a reduction of the work week to a five day week and other changes in mining conditions that were approved by the United Mine Workers of America at their convention at Cleveland last August.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—News of the strengthening of the naval fleet on the Pacific coast was explained and argued before the house naval affairs committee today by Secretary of the Navy Daniels in executive session.

DENVER, Col., March 10.—Governor Oliver H. Shoup's hat is in the ring for another term as chief executive of Colorado, but he wants no part of national politics for the present, according to a statement announcing his candidacy for re-election by the Republican "Big Six" people here.

THE E. R. PARKER SYSTEM in Dentistry has done for the masses what old style dentistry did for the few. It has made it possible for everybody to have their teeth skillfully cared for at prices they can afford to pay.

Lyons & Healy Piano. The modern upright for the modern home. Among people who have a cultivated knowledge of music and who seek the best medium for expressing it, the Lyons & Healy Piano is a favorite.

Better Teeth for Everybody. THE E. R. PARKER SYSTEM in Dentistry has done for the masses what old style dentistry did for the few. It has made it possible for everybody to have their teeth skillfully cared for at prices they can afford to pay.

Let a Times Want Ad Do It For You. You can buy, sell, rent, trade, secure positions, find lost articles, etc., by the use of Times-Want Ads. Handy Want Ad Order Blank--Use It.

Gold Horseshoes. Expense is not efficiency. Don't pay for gold horseshoes when you buy your printing. Sensible printing on sensible paper. Hammer and anvil will save you money and get results for you.

SEALED OFF GOVERNMENT MINING STOCK GOES TO 50 CENTS

Operations on Well Known Property to Begin April 1st

The treasury stock of the Sea Foam Gold Mining Co., will, after March 31st, be sold at 50 cents per share. The operations on this well-known and rich strike will begin April 1st, and the management expects that this advance in price will be well warranted. The striking property, owned by Pittsburgh people with a capitalization of 1,000,000 shares, is now selling at 50 cents per share, or half par. This proves our contention that Sea Foam Gold Mining stock is worth more than what we are asked to pay for it.

The sale of three groups of mining stock on the Sea Foam Gold Mining company's property, moving the worth of other mines, showing the worth of the mining stock. The Sea Foam Gold Mining Co., will operate four claims right in the heart of this great mining area. Three of these claims have elapsed one from an act of development, on which 500 feet of tunnels have been built. The local grade are averaged 400 feet to the ton and was not when first discovered, averaging 100 per cent, making the ore worth $200 per ton. But now silver values have been discovered, the ounce ore to what it is worth $2500 per ton. You can readily see what this means when this ore is shipped this summer.

More information and ore maps can be had at Room No. 217, Ferguson Building, W. W. Skiffington.

WENDELL GIRLS TO PLAY T. F. LASSIES HERE ON FRIDAY

The Wendell girls basketball team will play the Twin Falls ladies on Friday afternoon in the high school gymnasium here. Two weeks ago the locale, trimmed, the Wendell girls at that prominent city and that White do not think that the result will be radically different here unless the home team runs up a larger score. The girls who comprise the home quintet are, Lois Hartzel, Martha Stearns, Lida McCracken, Iva Laird and Stella Howell.

WEDDING

One of the prettiest weddings of the year was celebrated this afternoon at 2 o'clock when Miss Maud Pilgrimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Pilgrimer of this city, and William Grayson, native in half matrimony, Rev. W. A. Storer of the Christian church officiating. The young couple were unattended. The bride was carried in a motor car by a coach and georgette and wore a corsage bouquet of cream colored roses. The home was elaborately decorated in pink and white.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Snyder and son, Lee, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pilgrimer, Mr. and Mrs. William Grayson and family. The bride is a well-known and popular local girl while the groom is a prosperous rancher of Jerome and formerly resided near Twin Falls. They will be at home to their many friends after April 1 at their ranch near Jerome.

MINERS VOTE TO STRIKE

LONDON, March 10.—Official announcement was made by the federation of coal miners today that the rank and file of the organization by vote have authorized the government to call a strike to force the government to nationalize the coal mines. The miners have been persistent in their demand for nationalization since the armistice was signed. They have been supported by the other two branches of labor's triple alliance—the transport workers and the railway men. They were back on the general strike unless the government would meet their demands. The government opposes nationalization and conducted a long investigation through a special commission in an effort to arrange a compromise.

DECLARATION OF CONTEST

Theodore Konstantin, Ida Horg and Oregina Murray were the winners of the high school preliminary contest held last evening in the local school auditorium. There three will represent Twin Falls in the oratorical, dramatic and humorous classes at a big contest in this city next week. The place has not yet been decided upon. Charles Nord, Ben Burton Morse and Rev. C. L. Owen of the Baptist church were the judges.

Daily and Sunday Times, $7.50.

WE TAKE OUT ALL THE STRAY THINGS FROM FRESH DRY CLEANERS

312 So. Main St. Phone 111

WRESTLING TO OKINE WITH BOYS HIGH TAKES PLACE HERE FRIDAY

Blue and White Matmen Confident of Throwing Fighting Trim.

Six Twin Falls high school wrestlers will meet a like number of those from Friday evening of this week at the high school gymnasium. The different weights, 105 to 150 pounds will wrestle on the mat. According to D. H. Hooley, local coach, Hooley will have to work if they can't win. He has high hopes for his men especially when one considers that wrestling has been a dormant sport here for several years and doubts would not have been revived this year were it not for Mr. Hooley, who is a strong booster of the sport and that the matches are rightly conducted.

Many people believe that the coming matches are frame ups; that each one will win. This is an untrue statement, according to the local coach, who says they are going to the real bouts and the public will see some money's worth. During the week-end wrestling several wrestling matches were staged. One was between local athletes, Bertie Hines and Ed. Hooley, the latter throwing Hooley after a three minute fight but fair in end in a draw. Another match was staged during the evening of the final game but was made to throw him although the local boy took the offensive while Bertie Hines was in the ring, rather than to try for a fall and perhaps fall a victim to his own strategy or luck, which he had with deadly effect once he secures the advantage over his opponent.

Local News

Farm and city news, quick action, under L. Swain.

Entertainers—Mrs. Easley entertained the members of the Wednesday bridge club this afternoon at her home here.

Entertainers—Mrs. J. B. White entertained the members of the local bridge club this afternoon at her home here.

At Hollister—Mrs. Britton Wolf, wife of H. H. Wolf, entertained the visiting the Hollister school today. Yesterday she visited at Idaho.

O. N. K. Meeting—The Eastern Star met last evening in Masonic hall. A number of candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the lodge.

Leaves—Mrs. R. C. Osterlander has returned to her home at Lanning, Michigan, after spending some time with Mrs. E. S. Loring of this city.

To Bull—A. I. O'Connell, county club leader, is meeting the day at Bull's home on work connected with the junior club work. He expects to return to-day.

Returns—Miss Elsie Anderson, who underwent an operation recently at the Boyd hospital, has recovered sufficiently to be released to her home at Rupert.

Meeting—The Women's Mutual society of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Stinson on Thursday afternoon at her home on Second Avenue, North.

Alleged Daughters Meet—The Kings Daughters were entertained last night by Mrs. Thelma Hansen at her home. After an evening spent socially light refreshments were served.

Leave for California—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hart left yesterday for California points yesterday. Their daughter, Mrs. J. C. Grindler, and her husband have been in California for some time.

To San Juan—Mrs. A. G. Fisher left this morning for Nampa taking with her three crippled children who will be placed in the home there. The mother of the children went with them.

Canal Meeting—A meeting of the board of directors of the Twin Falls Canal company was held yesterday at the company office. Only routine business was transacted, according to Secretary W. O. Taylor.

Meeting—The regular meeting of the Brotherhood of American Women will take place on Friday, March 11, at I. O. E. hall at 8 o'clock. Visiting members will be welcome and refreshments will be served.

Enlists—Elton T. Southern enlisted yesterday for the Signal Corps School at San Francisco, California. Mr. Southern has a high school and has parents and relatives residing in Twin Falls.

Called East—Frank Baldwin has gone to Webster City, Iowa, called by the death of his father. Mr. Baldwin will be gone for several days, and expects to return to Twin Falls (there before returning to Twin Falls.

Funeral—Funeral services were conducted yesterday for Alice, the wife of Charles H. Allen, the late owner of the Golden Rule office. Services were held at the I. D. S. church with burial in the Twin Falls cemetery. Death occurred at 10:30 p.m.

Called East—Frank Baldwin has gone to Webster City, Iowa, called by the death of his father. Mr. Baldwin will be gone for several days, and expects to return to Twin Falls (there before returning to Twin Falls.

Funeral—Funeral services were conducted yesterday for Alice, the wife of Charles H. Allen, the late owner of the Golden Rule office. Services were held at the I. D. S. church with burial in the Twin Falls cemetery. Death occurred at 10:30 p.m.

Called East—Frank Baldwin has gone to Webster City, Iowa, called by the death of his father. Mr. Baldwin will be gone for several days, and expects to return to Twin Falls (there before returning to Twin Falls.

Funeral—Funeral services were conducted yesterday for Alice, the wife of Charles H. Allen, the late owner of the Golden Rule office. Services were held at the I. D. S. church with burial in the Twin Falls cemetery. Death occurred at 10:30 p.m.

MISTREATED SAYS THOMAS

S. A. T. C. Man Claims Service Men Should Have Received More Than $30

Stating that the 40 given the men who joined the S. A. T. C. units at the various colleges was not adequate, George B. Thomas, labor organizer, was seen today at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the "Home Sector" magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

"I wish to say that, when you take into consideration the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit at the University of Pennsylvania, and one time member of the S. A. T. C. of the University of Pennsylvania, left through the columns of the 'Home Sector' magazine, published by the S. A. T. C. and all other college S. A. T. C. units here.

MISS LADWIG INAUGURATE NEW WOMEN'S WORK

Dillinery to Be Taken Up by Ladies—Big Meeting Takes Place Saturday

Miss Edna Ladwig, former education agent, is planning to take up a new line of work, dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

The ladies decided to take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. She will meet with the ladies of the local Y. W. C. A. from time to time and will take up the matter of making, buying and reselling dillinery. This line of work is being taken up by Miss Ladwig and will be conducted in an indefinite time.

Laged Woman Accused of Murder Is Ill

KALAMAZOO, Mich., March 10.—

Martha Taylor, awaiting trial for the murder of her daughter, Mrs. Marie Taylor, whose body was found in a chest in the Taylor home last four years after her death, was in a hospital here today suffering with pneumonia.

Her illness followed her arrest on a warrant issued after a supreme court decision granted her to bail and ordered her to stand as a witness for the state. She is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

The original one against the girl was dropped, and entered proceedings have been begun at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill, husband of Mrs. Taylor, who is now in a hospital here.

ARE FEARED IN GERMANY

BERLIN, March 10.—Northwestward the optimistic views expressed in government circles regarding the improvement in conditions in Germany, the situation is far from rosy.

The Independents have no intention of allowing the bloodshed which took place outside the Reichstag in January to go unremembered.

The government by its rigorous repression of Independent meetings and the suspension of Independent journals, is sitting on a safety razor from which it is likely to be blown by a violent explosion. The organization of the extremists for action at a suitable moment is complete.

A number of causes are contributing to bring about a revolt of the proletariat, of which the food question is one of the most serious. Bread rationing is being reduced, 750 has to provide 90 per cent of the flour of the country instead of 81, the milk supply has been cut off even for the children over the age of six, and the government is already a forlorn ahead in the use of its provisions.

The labor question is again acute, the miners and railway men demanding a six-hour day, by which the already inadequate production and transport would be further crippled, and the government insisting on an eight hour day.

The men are threatening a general strike, which would bring about a rising of the Communists, and are confident that they will succeed.

In the meantime the Boyles are also watching the situation closely. They regard the independent Communist rising as their opportunity, and believe that with the forces they control they will be able to obtain the mastery of the situation and place the country under a military dictatorship which would be transformed into a monarchy. All parties are feverishly preparing for action and the situation is not likely to have an important effect on the future of Germany.

DOES BUSINESS ON OTHER MAN'S CASH

Capital of the Mail Order House Is Furnished by Its Customers.

It is a mighty nice thing to be able to do business on the other fellow's money, but there are few people who can do it. Probably the only business men who, as a class, are able to do this, are the mail order men in the big cities.

"Did you ever stop to think," you who have ordered goods from a mail order house and there are probably few who have not done that at some time or other—that you are supplying the mail order man with the small order man is doing business? You are well aware of the fact that your cash must be with your order if you expect to receive the goods, but have you ever stopped to think what that means? Do you realize that you are supplying the mail order business which is running in direct competition with your home merchants, upon whose prosperity and your fellow townsmen are dependent for a livelihood? The majority of mail order houses do not carry large stocks of goods. They do not have warehouses. The mail order man gets your order, he can take a part of your money and so to the manufacturer or the wholesaler and buy the article that is wanted. The rest of the money he can put down in his pocket after paying his operating costs, which are light when compared with those of the merchant who must carry a large stock of goods to meet the demands made upon him.

In class by themselves. There is absolutely no other class of men who furnish the capital furnished by their customers. Even the retail store which sells for cash only cannot do this for its must carry a large stock and its cash must pay cash for it in order to get prices that will enable him to make lower prices to his customers than can be made by the merchant who gives credit to his customers.

The mail order man doesn't need to have any of his own capital invested in his business—or any large amount of it, at least, in proportion to the volume of the business which he does. He does not have to pay interest to the banks on money borrowed to help him finance his business. The mail order man figures that about one-half of the amount he receives on any order goes to the wholesaler or manufacturer in payment for the goods ordered. Of the remainder a part goes for postage, printing, maintenance of office and cost of literature, etc. What is left, which is by no means an insignificant part of every dollar received, goes into dividends to stockholders in the mail order corporation. All this has been done without any capital other than that which may be required to pay the expenses.

Suppose, for a minute, that you did business with the local merchants on the town's capital. You would not carry any goods in stock, that when you wanted to buy something you would go to one of your local merchants, look in his catalogue and pick out an article that seemed to be similar to the one that you wanted, hand over the price as shown by the catalogue and tell him to ship it for you. The merchant would take your money and you would not get your goods until they arrived from a distant city.

Net 60 Analysis.

But the people who make up any community do not merely act as anxious furnish capital to the home merchant—the man who has "put his feet in the town"—as they are to the mail order man in the far distant city, who does nothing and never looking for the price who furnish him the money on which to do business. They insist that the home merchant shall carry a large stock of goods from which they can select what they wish, when they think it to be in their interest to buy from him. They insist that he shall stock his back with the goods he sells and make good any defect that may appear in them. They insist that he shall sell them what they wish and wait for the money until they get ready to pay it. They insist that he shall sell goods at the same price or lower price than the mail order house—charge for goods of poorer quality. And finally, they insist that the home merchant shall furnish the interest amount of capital that is required to conduct a business on this plan.

The mail order buyer may say that he has the right to spend his money anywhere he pleases and he is, legally. But he probably has never stopped to reflect on the fact that he is supplying the capital for the mail order man, a concern which is in direct competition with enterprises in which he is directly interested, for every man, woman and child in a town is directly interested in the success of the business enterprises in that town. If these business enterprises are not prosperous, the town cannot be prosperous. To supply capital to your competitor is not very good business.

WORKS ALWAYS ON 'VELVET'

Buyers Supply Money to Support Enterprise Competing With Those In Which They Are Interested.

(Copyright) 1933

There is nothing that is able to do business on the other fellow's money, but there are few people who can do it. Probably the only business men who, as a class, are able to do this, are the mail order men in the big cities.

"Did you ever stop to think," you who have ordered goods from a mail order house and there are probably few who have not done that at some time or other—that you are supplying the mail order man with the small order man is doing business? You are well aware of the fact that your cash must be with your order if you expect to receive the goods, but have you ever stopped to think what that means? Do you realize that you are supplying the mail order business which is running in direct competition with your home merchants, upon whose prosperity and your fellow townsmen are dependent for a livelihood? The majority of mail order houses do not carry large stocks of goods. They do not have warehouses. The mail order man gets your order, he can take a part of your money and so to the manufacturer or the wholesaler and buy the article that is wanted. The rest of the money he can put down in his pocket after paying his operating costs, which are light when compared with those of the merchant who must carry a large stock of goods to meet the demands made upon him.

In class by themselves. There is absolutely no other class of men who furnish the capital furnished by their customers. Even the retail store which sells for cash only cannot do this for its must carry a large stock and its cash must pay cash for it in order to get prices that will enable him to make lower prices to his customers than can be made by the merchant who gives credit to his customers.

The mail order man doesn't need to have any of his own capital invested in his business—or any large amount of it, at least, in proportion to the volume of the business which he does. He does not have to pay interest to the banks on money borrowed to help him finance his business. The mail order man figures that about one-half of the amount he receives on any order goes to the wholesaler or manufacturer in payment for the goods ordered. Of the remainder a part goes for postage, printing, maintenance of office and cost of literature, etc. What is left, which is by no means an insignificant part of every dollar received, goes into dividends to stockholders in the mail order corporation. All this has been done without any capital other than that which may be required to pay the expenses.

Suppose, for a minute, that you did business with the local merchants on the town's capital. You would not carry any goods in stock, that when you wanted to buy something you would go to one of your local merchants, look in his catalogue and pick out an article that seemed to be similar to the one that you wanted, hand over the price as shown by the catalogue and tell him to ship it for you. The merchant would take your money and you would not get your goods until they arrived from a distant city.

Net 60 Analysis.

But the people who make up any community do not merely act as anxious furnish capital to the home merchant—the man who has "put his feet in the town"—as they are to the mail order man in the far distant city, who does nothing and never looking for the price who furnish him the money on which to do business. They insist that the home merchant shall carry a large stock of goods from which they can select what they wish, when they think it to be in their interest to buy from him. They insist that he shall stock his back with the goods he sells and make good any defect that may appear in them. They insist that he shall sell them what they wish and wait for the money until they get ready to pay it. They insist that he shall sell goods at the same price or lower price than the mail order house—charge for goods of poorer quality. And finally, they insist that the home merchant shall furnish the interest amount of capital that is required to conduct a business on this plan.

The mail order buyer may say that he has the right to spend his money anywhere he pleases and he is, legally. But he probably has never stopped to reflect on the fact that he is supplying the capital for the mail order man, a concern which is in direct competition with enterprises in which he is directly interested, for every man, woman and child in a town is directly interested in the success of the business enterprises in that town. If these business enterprises are not prosperous, the town cannot be prosperous. To supply capital to your competitor is not very good business.

NO IMMEDIATE MINE STRIKE

KANSAS CITY, March 10.—Under Hoptel, president of Historic District Mine Workers, indicated today that he had no immediate intention of calling a strike as it is presently being held by the Industrial court. The miners of the 14th district today are on record through a resolution unanimously passed at their annual convention here promising to strike at their leader's call despite the drastic provisions of the law.

FIRE DESTROYS WAREHOUSES

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 10.—The American Cigar company's plant in South Peters street and the warehouse of August Passier were practically destroyed by fire early today. Warehouses operated by J. C. Morris & Co., and the Thomas J. Kelly in Thiboutaud street were badly damaged. The loss is estimated at $150,000.

Only and Sunday Times, $7.50.

DEATH TOWN VERY SELDOM RECOVERS

Community That Is Not Prosperous Cannot Attract New Residents.

People Are Stockholders and When They Spend Their Money Away From Home They Deplete Its Capital.

(Copyright) 1933

There is nothing denser than a dead town. It is hard as it may be to convert the fact, that the truth is written all over it so that he who runs may see. No amount of bluff and bluster can convert the true condition from anyone who comes within the limits of the community. A dead town is dead and that's all there is to it.

The worst of it is that once a town dies it stays dead. There have been exceptional cases in which dead towns have been revived, have taken on new life and prospered, but these are the exceptions that prove the rule.

The fact that a town can seldom "come back" is easily explained. The growing and prosperous town today is the one that can attract new residents and new capital. It is one that can offer attractive inducements for the location of new industries. The dead town offers no attraction to outside capital. A man looking for a place to launch a new business or a new location for an old industry, is not going to pick out a dead town. He is going to select a town in which money is plentiful, a town whose business men are progressive and whose residents, as a whole, are prosperous and contented. There are too many and thriving towns in the world for a man to risk his future in one that is dead. This is the reason that a town, once dead, almost always remains dead.

Town Like Corporation.

There is just one thing, ordinarily, that kills a town in the first place and that is a lack of money. A town is just like a corporation and the money possessed by its inhabitants is its capital. If it lacks money, a town is just like a corporation which has no capital is depleted through poor management and the result is failure. And just as the corporation which has once failed can seldom retrieve its lost fortunes, the town which has failed seldom recovers.

The capital of a community is depleted when its money is spent away from home in a way that brings no return to the community. A town, like a corporation, takes a great amount of thought, to be able to realize that the town, like the corporation, is spending its money in a way that does not spend and money. On the contrary, a prosperous town is one in which the people do spend money but when it is spent away from home, they either by being sent to the mail order houses or by shipping freight to other cities, the town's capital is depleted to that extent and if enough money is spent away from home in that way the town's capital is depleted to such an extent that it is forced into bankruptcy just as does the corporation which dissipates its capital.

The people who make up any community do not merely act as anxious furnish capital to the home merchant—the man who has "put his feet in the town"—as they are to the mail order man in the far distant city, who does nothing and never looking for the price who furnish him the money on which to do business. They insist that the home merchant shall carry a large stock of goods from which they can select what they wish, when they think it to be in their interest to buy from him. They insist that he shall stock his back with the goods he sells and make good any defect that may appear in them. They insist that he shall sell them what they wish and wait for the money until they get ready to pay it. They insist that he shall sell goods at the same price or lower price than the mail order house—charge for goods of poorer quality. And finally, they insist that the home merchant shall furnish the interest amount of capital that is required to conduct a business on this plan.

The mail order buyer may say that he has the right to spend his money anywhere he pleases and he is, legally. But he probably has never stopped to reflect on the fact that he is supplying the capital for the mail order man, a concern which is in direct competition with enterprises in which he is directly interested, for every man, woman and child in a town is directly interested in the success of the business enterprises in that town. If these business enterprises are not prosperous, the town cannot be prosperous. To supply capital to your competitor is not very good business.

WORKS ALWAYS ON 'VELVET'

Buyers Supply Money to Support Enterprise Competing With Those In Which They Are Interested.

(Copyright) 1933

There is nothing that is able to do business on the other fellow's money, but there are few people who can do it. Probably the only business men who, as a class, are able to do this, are the mail order men in the big cities.

"Did you ever stop to think," you who have ordered goods from a mail order house and there are probably few who have not done that at some time or other—that you are supplying the mail order man with the small order man is doing business? You are well aware of the fact that your cash must be with your order if you expect to receive the goods, but have you ever stopped to think what that means? Do you realize that you are supplying the mail order business which is running in direct competition with your home merchants, upon whose prosperity and your fellow townsmen are dependent for a livelihood? The majority of mail order houses do not carry large stocks of goods. They do not have warehouses. The mail order man gets your order, he can take a part of your money and so to the manufacturer or the wholesaler and buy the article that is wanted. The rest of the money he can put down in his pocket after paying his operating costs, which are light when compared with those of the merchant who must carry a large stock of goods to meet the demands made upon him.

In class by themselves. There is absolutely no other class of men who furnish the capital furnished by their customers. Even the retail store which sells for cash only cannot do this for its must carry a large stock and its cash must pay cash for it in order to get prices that will enable him to make lower prices to his customers than can be made by the merchant who gives credit to his customers.

The mail order man doesn't need to have any of his own capital invested in his business—or any large amount of it, at least, in proportion to the volume of the business which he does. He does not have to pay interest to the banks on money borrowed to help him finance his business. The mail order man figures that about one-half of the amount he receives on any order goes to the wholesaler or manufacturer in payment for the goods ordered. Of the remainder a part goes for postage, printing, maintenance of office and cost of literature, etc. What is left, which is by no means an insignificant part of every dollar received, goes into dividends to stockholders in the mail order corporation. All this has been done without any capital other than that which may be required to pay the expenses.

Suppose, for a minute, that you did business with the local merchants on the town's capital. You would not carry any goods in stock, that when you wanted to buy something you would go to one of your local merchants, look in his catalogue and pick out an article that seemed to be similar to the one that you wanted, hand over the price as shown by the catalogue and tell him to ship it for you. The merchant would take your money and you would not get your goods until they arrived from a distant city.

Net 60 Analysis.

But the people who make up any community do not merely act as anxious furnish capital to the home merchant—the man who has "put his feet in the town"—as they are to the mail order man in the far distant city, who does nothing and never looking for the price who furnish him the money on which to do business. They insist that the home merchant shall carry a large stock of goods from which they can select what they wish, when they think it to be in their interest to buy from him. They insist that he shall stock his back with the goods he sells and make good any defect that may appear in them. They insist that he shall sell them what they wish and wait for the money until they get ready to pay it. They insist that he shall sell goods at the same price or lower price than the mail order house—charge for goods of poorer quality. And finally, they insist that the home merchant shall furnish the interest amount of capital that is required to conduct a business on this plan.

The mail order buyer may say that he has the right to spend his money anywhere he pleases and he is, legally. But he probably has never stopped to reflect on the fact that he is supplying the capital for the mail order man, a concern which is in direct competition with enterprises in which he is directly interested, for every man, woman and child in a town is directly interested in the success of the business enterprises in that town. If these business enterprises are not prosperous, the town cannot be prosperous. To supply capital to your competitor is not very good business.

NEW SWEDISH CABINET

LONDON, March 10.—Mr. Branting, socialist leader, has formed a new Swedish cabinet, said a dispatch from Stockholm today.

Daily and Sunday Times, $7.50.

DEATH TOWN VERY SELDOM RECOVERS

Community That Is Not Prosperous Cannot Attract New Residents.

People Are Stockholders and When They Spend Their Money Away From Home They Deplete Its Capital.

(Copyright) 1933

There is nothing denser than a dead town. It is hard as it may be to convert the fact, that the truth is written all over it so that he who runs may see. No amount of bluff and bluster can convert the true condition from anyone who comes within the limits of the community. A dead town is dead and that's all there is to it.

The worst of it is that once a town dies it stays dead. There have been exceptional cases in which dead towns have been revived, have taken on new life and prospered, but these are the exceptions that prove the rule.

The fact that a town can seldom "come back" is easily explained. The growing and prosperous town today is the one that can attract new residents and new capital. It is one that can offer attractive inducements for the location of new industries. The dead town offers no attraction to outside capital. A man looking for a place to launch a new business or a new location for an old industry, is not going to pick out a dead town. He is going to select a town in which money is plentiful, a town whose business men are progressive and whose residents, as a whole, are prosperous and contented. There are too many and thriving towns in the world for a man to risk his future in one that is dead. This is the reason that a town, once dead, almost always remains dead.

Town Like Corporation.

There is just one thing, ordinarily, that kills a town in the first place and that is a lack of money. A town is just like a corporation and the money possessed by its inhabitants is its capital. If it lacks money, a town is just like a corporation which has no capital is depleted through poor management and the result is failure. And just as the corporation which has once failed can seldom retrieve its lost fortunes, the town which has failed seldom recovers.

The capital of a community is depleted when its money is spent away from home in a way that brings no return to the community. A town, like a corporation, takes a great amount of thought, to be able to realize that the town, like the corporation, is spending its money in a way that does not spend and money. On the contrary, a prosperous town is one in which the people do spend money but when it is spent away from home, they either by being sent to the mail order houses or by shipping freight to other cities, the town's capital is depleted to that extent and if enough money is spent away from home in that way the town's capital is depleted to such an extent that it is forced into bankruptcy just as does the corporation which dissipates its capital.

The people who make up any community do not merely act as anxious furnish capital to the home merchant—the man who has "put his feet in the town"—as they are to the mail order man in the far distant city, who does nothing and never looking for the price who furnish him the money on which to do business. They insist that the home merchant shall carry a large stock of goods from which they can select what they wish, when they think it to be in their interest to buy from him. They insist that he shall stock his back with the goods he sells and make good any defect that may appear in them. They insist that he shall sell them what they wish and wait for the money until they get ready to pay it. They insist that he shall sell goods at the same price or lower price than the mail order house—charge for goods of poorer quality. And finally, they insist that the home merchant shall furnish the interest amount of capital that is required to conduct a business on this plan.

The mail order buyer may say that he has the right to spend his money anywhere he pleases and he is, legally. But he probably has never stopped to reflect on the fact that he is supplying the capital for the mail order man, a concern which is in direct competition with enterprises in which he is directly interested, for every man, woman and child in a town is directly interested in the success of the business enterprises in that town. If these business enterprises are not prosperous, the town cannot be prosperous. To supply capital to your competitor is not very good business.

DEATH TOWN VERY SELDOM RECOVERS

Community That Is Not Prosperous Cannot Attract New Residents.

People Are Stockholders and When They Spend Their Money Away From Home They Deplete Its Capital.

(Copyright) 1933

There is nothing denser than a dead town. It is hard as it may be to convert the fact, that the truth is written all over it so that he who runs may see. No amount of bluff and bluster can convert the true condition from anyone who comes within the limits of the community. A dead town is dead and that's all there is to it.

The worst of it is that once a town dies it stays dead. There have been exceptional cases in which dead towns have been revived, have taken on new life and prospered, but these are the exceptions that prove the rule.

The fact that a town can seldom "come back" is easily explained. The growing and prosperous town today is the one that can attract new residents and new capital. It is one that can offer attractive inducements for the location of new industries. The dead town offers no attraction to outside capital. A man looking for a place to launch a new business or a new location for an old industry, is not going to pick out a dead town. He is going to select a town in which money is plentiful, a town whose business men are progressive and whose residents, as a whole, are prosperous and contented. There are too many and thriving towns in the world for a man to risk his future in one that is dead. This is the reason that a town, once dead, almost always remains dead.

Town Like Corporation.

There is just one thing, ordinarily, that kills a town in the first place and that is a lack of money. A town is just like a corporation and the money possessed by its inhabitants is its capital. If it lacks money, a town is just like a corporation which has no capital is depleted through poor management and the result is failure. And just as the corporation which has once failed can seldom retrieve its lost fortunes, the town which has failed seldom recovers.

The capital of a community is depleted when its money is spent away from home in a way that brings no return to the community. A town, like a corporation, takes a great amount of thought, to be able to realize that the town, like the corporation, is spending its money in a way that does not spend and money. On the contrary, a prosperous town is one in which the people do spend money but when it is spent away from home, they either by being sent to the mail order houses or by shipping freight to other cities, the town's capital is depleted to that extent and if enough money is spent away from home in that way the town's capital is depleted to such an extent that it is forced into bankruptcy just as does the corporation which dissipates its capital.

The people who make up any community do not merely act as anxious furnish capital to the home merchant—the man who has "put his feet in the town"—as they are to the mail order man in the far distant city, who does nothing and never looking for the price who furnish him the money on which to do business. They insist that the home merchant shall carry a large stock of goods from which they can select what they wish, when they think it to be in their interest to buy from him. They insist that he shall stock his back with the goods he sells and make good any defect that may appear in them. They insist that he shall sell them what they wish and wait for the money until they get ready to pay it. They insist that he shall sell goods at the same price or lower price than the mail order house—charge for goods of poorer quality. And finally, they insist that the home merchant shall furnish the interest amount of capital that is required to conduct a business on this plan.

The mail order buyer may say that he has the right to spend his money anywhere he pleases and he is, legally. But he probably has never stopped to reflect on the fact that he is supplying the capital for the mail order man, a concern which is in direct competition with enterprises in which he is directly interested, for every man, woman and child in a town is directly interested in the success of the business enterprises in that town. If these business enterprises are not prosperous, the town cannot be prosperous. To supply capital to your competitor is not very good business.

DEATH TOWN VERY SELDOM RECOVERS

Community That Is Not Prosperous Cannot Attract New Residents.

People Are Stockholders and When They Spend Their Money Away From Home They Deplete Its Capital.

(Copyright) 1933

There is nothing denser than a dead town. It is hard as it may be to convert the fact, that the truth is written all over it so that he who runs may see. No amount of bluff and bluster can convert the true condition from anyone who comes within the limits of the community. A dead town is dead and that's all there is to it.

The worst of it is that once a town dies it stays dead. There have been exceptional cases in which dead towns have been revived, have taken on new life and prospered, but these are the exceptions that prove the rule.

The fact that a town can seldom "come back" is easily explained. The growing and prosperous town today is the one that can attract new residents and new capital. It is one that can offer attractive inducements for the location of new industries. The dead town offers no attraction to outside capital. A man looking for a place to launch a new business or a new location for an old industry, is not going to pick out a dead town. He is going to select a town in which money is plentiful, a town whose business men are progressive and whose residents, as a whole, are prosperous and contented. There are too many and thriving towns in the world for a man to risk his future in one that is dead. This is the reason that a town, once dead, almost always remains dead.

Town Like Corporation.

There is just one thing, ordinarily, that kills a town in the first place and that is a lack of money. A town is just like a corporation and the money possessed by its inhabitants is its capital. If it lacks money, a town is just like a corporation which has no capital is depleted through poor management and the result is failure. And just as the corporation which has once failed can seldom retrieve its lost fortunes, the town which has failed seldom recovers.

The capital of a community is depleted when its money is spent away from home in a way that brings no return to the community. A town, like a corporation, takes a great amount of thought, to be able to realize that the town, like the corporation, is spending its money in a way that does not spend and money. On the contrary, a prosperous town is one in which the people do spend money but when it is spent away from home, they either by being sent to the mail order houses or by shipping freight to other cities, the town's capital is depleted to that extent and if enough money is spent away from home in that way the town's capital is depleted to such an extent that it is forced into bankruptcy just as does the corporation which dissipates its capital.

The people who make up any community do not merely act as anxious furnish capital to the home merchant—the man who has "put his feet in the town"—as they are to the mail order man in the far distant city, who does nothing and never looking for the price who furnish him the money on which to do business. They insist that the home merchant shall carry a large stock of goods from which they can select what they wish, when they think it to be in their interest to buy from him. They insist that he shall stock his back with the goods he sells and make good any defect that may appear in them. They insist that he shall sell them what they wish and wait for the money until they get ready to pay it. They insist that he shall sell goods at the same price or lower price than the mail order house—charge for goods of poorer quality. And finally, they insist that the home merchant shall furnish the interest amount of capital that is required to conduct a business on this plan.

The mail order buyer may say that he has the right to spend his money anywhere he pleases and he is, legally. But he probably has never stopped to reflect on the fact that he is supplying the capital for the mail order man, a concern which is in direct competition with enterprises in which he is directly interested, for every man, woman and child in a town is directly interested in the success of the business enterprises in that town. If these business enterprises are not prosperous, the town cannot be prosperous. To supply capital to your competitor is not very good business.

DEATH TOWN VERY SELDOM RECOVERS

Community That Is Not Prosperous Cannot Attract New Residents.

People Are Stockholders and When They Spend Their Money Away From Home They Deplete Its Capital.

(Copyright) 1933

There is nothing denser than a dead town. It is hard as it may be to convert the fact, that the truth is written all over it so that he who runs may see. No amount of bluff and bluster can convert the true condition from anyone who comes within the limits of the community. A dead town is dead and that's all there is to it.

The worst of it is that once a town dies it stays dead. There have been exceptional cases in which dead towns have been revived, have taken on new life and prospered, but these are the exceptions that prove the rule.

The fact that a town can seldom "come back" is easily explained. The growing and prosperous town today is the one that can attract new residents and new capital. It is one that can offer attractive inducements for the location of new industries. The dead town offers no attraction to outside capital. A man looking for a place to launch a new business or a new location for an old industry, is not going to pick out a dead town. He is going to select a town in which money is plentiful, a town whose business men are progressive and whose residents, as a whole, are prosperous and contented. There are too many and thriving towns in the world for a man to risk his future in one that is dead. This is the reason that a town, once dead, almost always remains dead.

Town Like Corporation.

There is just one thing, ordinarily, that kills a town in the first place and that is a lack of money. A town is just like a corporation and the money possessed by its inhabitants is its capital. If it lacks money, a town is just like a corporation which has no capital is depleted through poor management and the result is failure. And just as the corporation which has once failed can seldom retrieve its lost fortunes, the town which has failed seldom recovers.

The capital of a community is depleted when its money is spent away from home in a way that brings no return to the community. A town, like a corporation, takes a great amount of thought, to be able to realize that the town, like the corporation, is spending its money in a way that does not spend and money. On the contrary, a prosperous town is one in which the people do spend money but when it is spent away from home, they either by being sent to the mail order houses or by shipping freight to other cities, the town's capital is depleted to that extent and if enough money is spent away from home in that way the town's capital is depleted to such an extent that it is forced into bankruptcy just as does the corporation which dissipates its capital.

The people who make up any community do not merely act as anxious furnish capital to the home merchant—the man who has "put his feet in the town"—as they are to the mail order man in the far distant city, who does nothing and never looking for the price who furnish him the money on which to do business. They insist that the home merchant shall carry a large stock of goods from which they can select what they wish, when they think it to be in their interest to buy from him. They insist that he shall stock his back with the goods he sells and make good any defect that may appear in them. They insist that he shall sell them what they wish and wait for the money until they get ready to pay it. They insist that he shall sell goods at the same price or lower price than the mail order house—charge for goods of poorer quality. And finally, they insist that the home merchant shall furnish the interest amount of capital that is required to conduct a business on this plan.

The mail order buyer may say that he has the right to spend his money anywhere he pleases and he is, legally. But he probably has never stopped to reflect on the fact that he is supplying the capital for the mail order man, a concern which is in direct competition with enterprises in which he is directly interested, for every man, woman and child in a town is directly interested in the success of the business enterprises in that town. If these business enterprises are not prosperous, the town cannot be prosperous. To supply capital to your competitor is not very good business.

AUSPICES OF TWIN FALLS LODGE 1183 E. P. O. E.

RUTH ST. DENIS

Presents Her Nine Concert Dancers

ELLIS RHODES, Dramatic Tenor
BEAUTIFUL COSTUMES AND STAGE EFFECTS
THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CLASIC DANCING ATTRACTION
PAULINE LAWRENCE at the Piano
 Elaborate Lighting and Cycloramic Arrangements
NINE BEAUTIFUL AMERICAN DANCING GIRLS
 Prices $2.20 and $1.65 Reserved Seats Majestic Pharmacy

LAVERING THEATRE

MONDAY, MARCH 15

Seats Reserved 10 a. m. March 10-MAJESTIC PHARMACY

No Waste Motion Here

The packing business is noted for the elimination of waste in manufacturing.

Swift & Company is equally effective in saving waste in the distribution of products.

From ranch or farm to your meat dealer there is no loss of time, money, material, or motion.

Four hundred branch sales houses in large cities and towns, hundreds of regular refrigerator car routes reaching small towns, all directed by wire from a central point; bring meat products from our packing plants located in producing areas, to retailers in all parts of the country in the best possible condition, in the least possible time, at the least possible cost, and over the most direct route.

The total expense, for manufacture, freight, and selling direct to the retailer, is less than three cents per pound on all meat sold.

Our profit from all sources is only a fraction of a cent per pound.

Competition compels this close-cut saving. Large volume of business, a well-balanced, nation-wide organization, and expert attention to details by men who know, make it possible.

We are in your service—at least expense and profit.

Send for our 1932 Year Book and get the facts about our business. Address Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Illinois.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

MARK BIG WHISKEY HALL

NOMINATE SURGEON

BALTIMORE, March 10.—A darling sobriety was successfully exerted here today when twelve masked men, here called, rushed the three watchmen at the Mount Vernon distilling company's warehouse, and after putting a guard over them put a flood of franks in operation to get away with sixty barrels of whiskey. The whiskey stolen today was valued at $60,000.

HOOPER CLUB FORMED

TOPICKA, Kan., March 10.—The first Hooper Club President club organized in Panama is open for business here today. The club was organized by students of Washburn college.

BRYAN DOES NOT FEAR WETS

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Reports that the "wet" part of the democrat party may rally to the support of the yet plank in the party platform, did not make any deep impression on William Jennings Bryan.

In a telegram to the International News Service here today, Mr. Bryan declined to comment extensively on the question saying:

"I am not willing to admit the possibility of liquor forces controlling the convention."

LEARN HIC FAULTS

A man never realizes how many faults he has until he gets married—then his wife tells him.

HIGH BANK HOLD-UP

DUBLIN, March 10.—Motor bandits help up the Ulster bank at Athlone today, stealing 1,000 pounds.

Want a job? Try a "Situation Wanted" ad in our want columns.

Beans

We Are Contracting

Beans

Go to 7 1/2c lb.

Filer Seed Co.

Phone 92
 FILER, IDAHO

Closing Out Sale

As I would like my ranch I will sell at Public Sale

Wednesday, March 17

Five miles south and one-quarter mile east of the Twin Falls Elevator

15 head good matts and colts ranging in weight from 1200 to 1800 pounds

1 Roan Durham bull, eligible to register

Some extra good milk cows.

A few good Poland China hogs.

Machinery, household goods, spuds, hay, fruit, chickens, etc.

1400 pounds alfalfa seed; several thousand pounds reconditioned Dickweed Seed Wheat and Oats

TERMS—$10 and under cash, all sums over $10 to November 1st, 1932 with 10 per cent interest; 5 per cent discount for cash.

WM. S. THIETTEN, Owner
 H. E. LUE, Auctioneer
 C. A. ROBINSON, Clerk

Farming Is a Business

And like every business, it requires forms, records and blanks that give you the facts about your farm, just as a business man has about his business.

We print forms and ledgers (every business man should have) on Hammett Bond, the Utility Business Paper.

Let Us Show You What We Can Do for You

Beans

We Are Contracting

Beans

Go to 7 1/2c lb.

Filer Seed Co.

Phone 92
 FILER, IDAHO

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Send for our 1932 Year Book and get the facts about our business. Address Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Illinois.

MARK BIG WHISKEY HALL

NOMINATE SURGEON

BALTIMORE, March 10.—A darling sobriety was successfully exerted here today when twelve masked men, here called, rushed the three watchmen at the Mount Vernon distilling company's warehouse, and after putting a guard over them put a flood of franks in operation to get away with sixty barrels of whiskey. The whiskey stolen today was valued at $60,000.

HOOPER CLUB FORMED

TOPICKA, Kan., March 10.—The first Hooper Club President club organized in Panama is open for business here today. The club was organized by students of Washburn college.

BRYAN DOES NOT FEAR WETS

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Reports that the "wet" part of the democrat party may rally to the support of the yet plank in the party platform, did not make any deep impression on William Jennings Bryan.

In a telegram to the International News Service here today, Mr. Bryan declined to comment extensively on the question saying:

"I am not willing to admit the possibility of liquor forces controlling the convention."

LEARN HIC FAULTS

A man never realizes how many faults he has until he gets married—then his wife tells him.

HIGH BANK HOLD-UP

DUBLIN, March 10.—Motor bandits help up the Ulster bank at Athlone today, stealing 1,000 pounds.

Want a job? Try a "Situation Wanted" ad in our want columns.

Farming Is a Business

And like every business, it requires forms, records and blanks that give you the facts about your farm, just as a business man has about his business.

We print forms and ledgers (every business man should have) on Hammett Bond, the Utility Business Paper.

Let Us Show You What We Can Do for You