Sudden---Easter Monday Revolt Is Rumored

Senate Bill Is Passed By Parliament in Hot Debate

Premier Lloyd George Likens Ireland to America and South Before Civil War—Carson Says
Too Much Bunk Like "Safe Democracy"

TWIN FALLS, March 31.—Revolts seemed a high pitch today in a revolt to be launched in Ireland Easter Monday.

Huge drafts of British troops are being moved into south Ireland as a pre-involutionary measure.

According to lie, rumors the Republicans contemplate a rising similar to that in Dublin in 1916.

LONDON, March 31.—A three hour battle between an armed attacking force of the British troops was reported from Skibbereen, Ireland today. The military barracks near Skibbereen were heavily attacked after three hours of fighting the attackers were driven off.

LONDON, March 31.—Twenty-five members of the Sinn Fein party in Ireland have been taken to Queenstown and lodged in a ship en route to a dispatch received here today.

LONDON, March 31.—The new Irish home rule bill passed the Commons, by a second reading this afternoon after a brilliant speech by Premier Lloyd George. The vote was 345 to 94.

Speaker compared Ireland to the American south before the Civil War. Professor E. De Valera, the Sinn Fein "president of the republic," said the bill gives Ireland powers more extensive than those given to the American states, and the premier: "Wales, and Scotland, and the same measure of self government was ofcourse acceptable to British parties would at present accept it."

Ireland—they would say overwhelmingly that they are a republic."

It is in exactly the same position as Jefferson Davis in the American Civil War. If he insisted, it will lead each side to a state of suppression as the northern states of America did.

"We demanded a republic; we would resist. And yet Wales is not as amenable as any other in the world."
