WOOD'S MANAGER ADMITS USE OF $27,000 FUNDS... Frank Hitchcock Says Other Wood Allies Know More Than He; $15,000 in One Deal

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.—Do not think that he had any knowledge of the use of "black funds" in Wood's campaign was made today by former Political General Frank H. Hitchcock, of the Wood's managers, before the senate subcommittee appointed to investigate the espionage wars and contributions for presidential aspirants of both republican and democratic parties.

Hitchcock was the first witness called by Senator Johnson, chairman of the subcommittee. Hitchcock professed to have a very slight knowledge of the extent of the Wood campaign and said he was acting only in a supervisory capacity in the Wood campaign and contributed to the Wood campaign in the various treasurers of the Wood campaign and did not.

Hitchcock said he was not in charge of the Wood Wood headquarters at Chicago, Wood headquarters being able to shed more light than he one else on the Wood expenditures contributions.

RAILROADS ASK ONE BILLION MORE REVENUE... Say This Is In Addition to $1,000,000,000 for Wage Increase

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The railroad trustees for revenue and just decision on their petition for freight increases that will produce more than $1,000,000,000 additional revenue, at formal hearings opened today by the interstate commerce commission. Howard Elliott, for the association of railway activities, has the case of the carriers, and laid before the commission a mass of data showing the transportation needs and the necessity for more revenue to sustain the roads.

Under the new act, Mr. Elliott said, "two very pressing questions are under consideration, one relates to fair adjustment of wages for two million or more men who maintain and operate and manage the roads, the other relates to fair compensation to the roads so they will receive enough to pay these high wages, all other costs, taxes and such charges on their properties as will induce the industrial investor to put part of his capital each year into the transportation business."

The new labor board now has before it requests for increases amounting to $1,000,000,000 a year. This sum is necessary to meet the present bills of wages, cost of fuel, and improvement, and does not include any part of the one billion a year now under consideration by the labor board.

WASHINGTON DOUBTS PRICE ON VILLA'S HEAD... Do Facto Government and Villa Negotiating Well, Is the Report

WASHINGTON, May 24.—No official report of the Mexican revolution has been received at the capital of Francisco Villa's "deal or alive" has been received at the presidential residence here. It was announced today. In the absence of official news, reports are being circulated that Villa's reports were not credited by the government.

Had reports, negotiations between the de facto government and Francisco Villa were progressing satisfactorily, says the statement made at the agency. The officials here are watching with interest the Mexican federal congress which convenes today in Mexico City for the election of a provisional president. Belier was expressed that Adolfo de la Huerta, governor of Sonora, and political head of the revolution, would be the choice of congress, though it was admitted that Francisco Villa has a chance. If the congress proceeds in an orderly fashion with due regard for constitutional procedure it is believed that the consolidation of a new government will be considerably delayed.

RAMSEYER ON TRIAL MURDER OF J. R. ABEL... Fatal Quarrel Over Water Having Aftermath—Jury Selecting Proves Slow Work

With the prosecution moving down jurors in large numbers and the defense apparently preparing to defend, there was strong probability that the trial would be concluded by the afternoon and a special panel summoned before the trial of H. P. Ramseyer, charged with murdering J. R. Abel, will be ready to proceed.

The state excused for cause, H. A. Vannoy, No. 1; E. M. Herrick, No. 2; C. E. Wright, No. 3; J. H. Stricker, No. 4; and D. H. Davis, also No. 5. The defense excused Alfred Patterson, No. 6. At the noon recess the jury box was occupied by E. J. Schuch, D. P. Clark, H. E. Williams, R. O. Kelly, J. W. Denny, Geo. F. Beck, W. A. Galt, J. A. Gillette and A. M. Barnett.

Ramseyer, who is a former resident near Pittsburg, was first indicted for murder as the result of the shooting of his neighbor, J. R. Abel, on April 23, 1923. He was charged with a bullet wound in his right leg, inflicted, it is alleged, by Ramseyer, in a quarrel over division of a mining tract.

I formerly came from North Carolina where I was engaged in the raising of cattle and horses. Arizona, and for four years raised cattle and horses and carried on a dairying business on 80 acres. I bought 80 acres in your Santa Cruz Valley in March, 1919, as I considered it better property by far than I could find in the Salt River Valley. I have always thought very highly of Salt River Valley. I may recall there, but I saw better opportunities here, due to low price of land, rich soil, plentiful supply of water, and fine low climate. That land looked good when I bought, but now it looks 100% better. At the rate your project is developing, I don't should go to $100 an acre. Every acre in Santa Cruz Valley is worth two times as much as the best farming advantages that Arizona affords—without the disadvantages. Sure soil, sure water, sure climate, sure markets. No off seasons. No droughts, no damaging frosts. No humidity. No hard long winters. Climate in some respects exceeds that of Southern California. Read our big free illustrated book and learn all about this unusual proposition. Read what our buyers say. Read what old settlers say. Study the actual photographs of activities throughout the valley. Learn the absolutely provable facts about America's greatest farming opportunity. Write or call for the booklet today.

Santa Cruz Valley Farms (SUBURBAN TO TUCSON, ARIZONA) $200 to $250 per "DOUBLE-CROP LAND" WITH WATER $75 an acre cash, or approved certificates—balance $25 per acre per month. Interest 6% per annum, payable semi-annually. First payment due Jan. 1st, 1922.

The success of Santa Cruz Valley Farms far outstrips that of any other farm land offering in the history of Western irrigation projects. When over two million dollars worth of this land is purchased by level-headed, experienced farmers in less than a year's time, there must be something unusual about the proposition. Santa Cruz Valley is unusual. Unusual soil, crops, climate, water, markets, transportation and educational advantages. Unusual opportunities. Unusual values. Here are all the best farming advantages that Arizona affords—without the disadvantages. Sure soil, sure water, sure climate, sure markets. No off seasons. No droughts, no damaging frosts. It is not only our duty to make the right known but to make it prevalent.—EDMUND BURKE.

POSSIBLE DOUBLE BOLT

Such things have happened in American politics as have been convictions of both major political parties. Debs, who has been nominated by the socialists, says that he expects a bolt in the republican and in the democratic conventions this year.

Bryan is about the only figure who could originate and engineer a bolt of respectable size in the democratic ranks, and the Bryan question is the only possible one he would bolt on, and the two "wets" will hardly be strong enough to force him to that course.

Phillip Francis, a writer for the New York American, says that it is possible that the wets may control at San Francisco and nominate Governor Smith of New York. Mr. Francis believes that Smith is the only man who could carry New York state on a league-fairing platform.

Then there is Governor Edwards of New Jersey who has pronounced opinions on the liquor question, but Bryan has just said that Edwards talks as "crazy as a man with the delirium tremens," and of course that absolutely settles that governor's goose and political fortunes.

Bryan went down into Alabama to oppose the re-election of Underwood to the senate, but Underwood was elected. Bryan will have power at San Francisco, but he will also have enemies. The main vein in which Bryan will figure will be in influencing the convention to frame a platform which will get the liberal vote.

The independent and the liberal vote—counting the labor vote as both—will decide the election of the president this year, and the party which gets a large majority of that vote will win. The republicans seem to realize that such is the situation. Johnson's strength is indubitable evidence of that fact.

Yet, if the report that Wall Street is trembling for fear of a panic soon be true, and the panic gets in the least underway during the next four months, then it will require no prophet to tell what party will get the liberal and independent vote and elect the president.

As Mr. Francis says, "as a matter of fact there is no great desire for the San Francisco nomination evident among prominent democrats, and I feel pretty sure that all those whom I happen to know will be glad if Mr. Wilson finds himself well enough to be the candidate."

Arent the same phase of the matter of one party's nominee, it has been said that Mr. McAdoo has remarked to some of his intimates friends that he "did not care to play a losing game," meaning that he was not anxious for the democratic nomination.

American history affords an instance of a man refusing the nomination of one of the two major parties for the presidency. Four years ago there was talk of Justice Hughes not accepting the republican nomination. He sincerely refused to seek the nomination. When notified of his nomination he at once resigned from the supreme bench and President Wilson, with a befitting graciousness, at once accepted his resignation.

There is hardly a likelihood of a bolt in the republican convention. After the republicans show solidarity the democrats will hardly throw away one chance for winning themselves by making two nominations. Therefore, it will be a contest between them to see which party can so frame its platform and name its candidates as to get the large part of the independent vote.—Idaho Free Press.

The vote of Oregon for Senator Johnson was most significant. Oregon is the one state in the far west which went for Hughes in 1916. Oregon is a republican state. Recently, it can be said. As goes Oregon so goes the republicanism of the union. It is better for Johnson to win Oregon than Washington even though the latter has the larger number of delegates. The Oregon primary has a redoubled significance; the G. O. P. leaders will doubtless lead an ear to its meaning.

I do the very best I know—the very best I can; and I mean to keep doing so until the end. If the end brings me out all right, what is said against me won't amount to anything. If the end brings me out wrong, let angels swear in I was right, would make no difference.—Abe Lincoln.

Now is the time to revise one of Abe Lincoln's old sayings: "It was just thinkin' about th' old Bryan banquet—wilted lettuce and tri-colored ice cream."

News report says Europe is getting U. S. food by mail. The way the service is arranged here no wonder so many European babies are starving.

It is a mere coincidence that so many candidates for president have a cure for high prices just as the conventions are about to meet!

"You Palast to plan German revolt," says news headline. He ought to get plenty of soldiers if he has the old style toilet.

Possibly one reason why Billy Bryan is so strong for prohibition is that he likes to be both heard and understood.

Seems like to us that there would be more sense in not using sugar than in joining an overalls brigade.

EFFECTS OF CALIFORNIA'S Vote.

Whatever effect the primary election vote in the State of California may have, it seems quite definitely to have determined the course of Senator Johnson in his present and future attitude toward the so-called conservative leaders of the Republican party. The primary elections were held, Washington news dispatches announced that Senator Penrose, ostensibly speaking for the conservative, had agreed to be the intention, or desire, of the faction of the party which he represents to bring about the nomination of Johnson.

Cooperators in politics. It was in 1917, at the Swearing-in Cooperative Congress, that the cooperative movement in Great Britain came to the momentous decision that the time had arrived for the movement to abandon its non-political basis upon which it had rested, up to that time, and seek direct parliamentary representation. It would be difficult to overstate the importance of this decision.

So far, the political work that has been done in the United States preparatory. At first, the proposal to devote funds to political purposes met with a considerable degree of opposition, and the question was ultimately taken to courts. The decision of the courts, however, in the test case of the Barheld Society was entirely favorable to the new movement.

The most important aspect of the question is, undoubtedly, the attitude of the new party toward the Labor Party. The party rate temporarily determined recently at a meeting of a joint committee. The two parties do not intend to antagonize, but to cooperate in all matters that will do good work separately. The Cooperative Party, therefore, will retain its separate identity.

As far as actual achievement is concerned, the co-operators have already one representative in Parliament, namely, Mr. A. E. Waters, returned for Kettering at the last general election. On the whole, however, the co-operator in politics is still largely an unknown quantity. In certain towns and districts, the members of the "Co-op" are undoubtedly sufficient numerous to turn an election, but in other places, with politics so long excluded, the co-operator, like other people, has formed his own party allegiance, and the co-operator is not so readily broken.

WANT ACCEPTS UNITARIAN CAMPAIGN CHAIRMANSHIP

BOSTON, May 23.—Former President William Howard Taft has accepted the honorary chairmanship of the Unitarian Campaign Committee, Boston, in an announcement made today at the offices of the committee, Unity House, 7 Park Square, Boston.

Even more important than the raising of funds, the committee believes, is the adequate telling of the story of Unitarianism and the unification of the Unitarian effort in all parts of the United States. They are of the opinion that not one person is able to do this, and that the principles of their belief, and wishing to impress upon the country that Unitarianism fits in even better with the conditions of today and that it is a religion of service as exemplified through the lives of its members, they are now perfecting the organization that is to spread their message.

JAPANESE MAKING STRIDES IN THE FOREIGN TRADE

LONDON, May 24.—Japan has increased her foreign trade threefold since the outbreak of the war. She has abundant and well-disciplined labor, gladly accepting about the same rate of pay as the British workers. Her textiles and silk goods sell from Lancashire to the United States. She is taking the place in world trade once held by Germany.

The experienced East India merchant laughs at Japanese competition. He says that the Japanese are not so good as they seem to be. He says that the world is already returning to its normal state.

The old timer is partly right in his estimate. The Japanese conduct business according to a standard of their own. This is not a high standard, but their methods are improving, and every year we feel their competition more keenly.

The great Japanese industrial organizations work hand-and-glove with the government. This is not a matter of political expediency, but of national interest. The Japanese government, when it became a free trade nation, was essential for foreign trade.

"The factories grew to a hundred thousand workers, half a million workers, seven hundred thousand workers. The Japanese factory laws had to be passed. At the same time the Japanese began to buy their raw materials outside their own country. They were hampered by European and American restrictions.

"Europe, after a time, gradually abandoned the idea of building her own ships in place of buying them from us; that was a mistake. She was making a mistake only for herself but for her neighbors, and that is the mistake that she is making. She is making a mistake in her own mind.

CHAPTER 12 OF ECCLISIASES

Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I please myself; while the sun or the light or the moon or the stars be not darkened, nor the showers or the rain; in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and thy grinding cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be broken.

R. A. DENNISON, owner and manager of the printing house, who has been in the boot him right back on his feet again, after he had been in bad health for over a year. Declares he is feeling like his old self now.

"For the past year or more I have been in bed, practically all the time. I feel good at all, but last April I had an awful attack which my stomach which would not eat and I have been worse ever since. "About the best way I can describe the way I felt is to say it was just like a heavy weight on my chest and all in, I really did not have strength to keep going and I have up all kinds of things and I have been in bed for a long while. I had no appetite but would eat anything though my food never seemed to do me any good. "I would go to bed at night, and would sleep but apparently did not rest for I would get up just as tired as when I went to bed. I got just what I needed to get me up and I would have to stop and rest. "When I read about the Kopyon eye and that reminded me that a friend had spoken about the same medicine, so I got some and began to take it. I had been taking it for a week or so one evening, after supper, I started to walk and about 10 o'clock I had a headache and I felt like I had about 14 blocks, and never felt it at all and then I realized that the tonic was helping me. "I have taken four bottles now and am just feeling real good again. I would like to thank the Kopyon eye tonic. Yards every one who has had such an ailment as I ever had I get up refreshed in the morning now and I feel like I am a new man. I can enjoy "three good" square meals every day. Anyone who needs a good tonic should try the Kopyon eye tonic. I have taken it for a week and I feel like I am a new man. I can enjoy "three good" square meals every day. FIRST PRACTICE TAKEN BY LOCAL TENNIS SHARKS

H. W. Robinson, Frank Bronough and Others Warm Up at New Court Yesterday

Frank Bronough, J. L. Slov, Howard Robinson and several other local tennis sharks appeared for initial practice on the new Tennis Club court on the Hill school grounds here yesterday morning. The "old times" only warmed up. This is not done to avoid at first. They expect to be in perfect trim soon. However, and some good matches are scheduled for this fall.

At the present time the membership is approximately 25, some of which are full members and entitled to the use of the court any time, others are notified once, eligible to use it at any time except on Sunday mornings, and after 6 o'clock in the evening. The full membership fee is $25 while the modified is $10.

The court is in perfect condition and is rolled and dragged almost daily. There is only one court now but the ground surface is a high fence is large enough for two, and number will be constructed shortly, according to H. W. Robinson, tournament player, who is at the head of the new organization.

The ground is hard and smooth and will remain so throughout the season. It is believed, as it is covered with shingles.

Tennis has been a dead horse at Twin Falls for some time, during the war and afterward, but there is still enough devotees of the game here to insure its thorough packing. Mr. Robinson is highly elated at prospects for a successful season.

A new list for the second court has been ordered and is expected to arrive at any time. Work on the first court was delayed because the dirt had to be hauled in and dumped on it in order to make the surface level.

It is interesting to note the increase in membership after the court has really been made. People who had not played for years are now in the spirit and lure of the game strongly and immediately allied themselves with the associates of the tennis members. Mr. Robinson promised to have the court made and in playing condition in a certain time and fulfilled this promise.

BAR GELDINGS FROM BIG RACING STAKES

Expected to Increase Number of Horses for Breeding.

Present-Day Demand for Stallions Needed at Remount Stations is Insistent—Purchase of Good Animals is Difficult.

The fact that geldings will be ineligible for some of the more valuable racing stakes of the future, is expected to increase the number of horses for stud purposes in the United States. While there is a strong undercurrent against the movement to bar the gelding from some first class studs, nevertheless the plan has the support of many progressive turfmen, who believe that while the gelding has his sphere in racing, he has no right to participate in the greatest of tests which are given for the guidance of the breeder of the country.

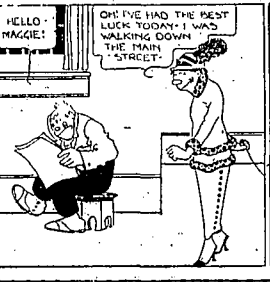

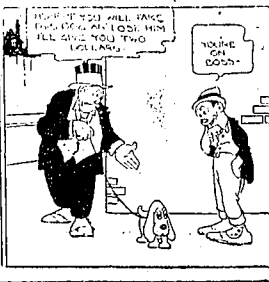

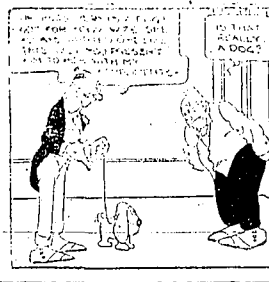

The gelding is unknown in many foreign countries, and some years ago, when C. K. G. Billing's champion trotter, Urban, 1:56 1/4, was shown in Paris, the breeders of that country were indignant at his exhibition, and went on to know who had dared to deprive future generations of the services of such a splendid horse. Stallions and mares work in the same teams in the year round in Russia. Game has made the mares tractable, and it is a hard thing to find a vicious horse.

The present-day demand for stallions of the type needed at the remount stations of the Federal Government is insistent, and members of the commission having in charge their selection are unwearying in their search for the right type.

The fact that there has been but little money available for the purchase of good horses has made the task of the commission exceedingly difficult, and most of the best horses secured to date have been gifts from breeders and turfmen in sympathy with the movement to improve remounts, and also from the Jockey club, whose chairman, August Belmont, gave the nucleus of what is now the Front Royal Stud in Virginia. Given an appropriation such as Count John de la Roche's Royal Prussian Stud had at his disposal and the result would be easy, as there are horses racing every day on metropolitan courses that would be ideal for the purpose. It is related that the count, while on a visit to England, saw the famous sprinter Luffkin in action, while waiting up. Just the horse to give our German cavalry horses more speed," was his comment, and he strategically negotiated the purchase of the animal for $20,000. It was the same sprinter, however, by plenty of money, which caused him to buy almost $100,000 for the English Derby winner Ard Patrick.

BRINGING UP FATHER

OLD CY YOUNG IS ONLY MAN IN DIAMOND HISTORY TO WIN 500 BASEBALL CONTESTS

Cy Young

Christy Mathewson

Joe Wood

In all baseball history only one man has won more than five hundred games. And that star of stars was Cy Young, who garnered a total of 508 victories in 1887 games during his 22 years as the best pitcher. His yearly average was 23 victories against 15 defeats for a percentage of 60.1. During all the years of Young's career, his motto days, his pride and his ending power—he struck out an average of three men per game and yielded only about 1 1/2 bases.

Christy Mathewson alone challenged the supremacy of Young, but the mighty "Big Boy" fell far short of the record of the veteran of bygone days. Mathewson pitched only 17 years as a pitcher, during which time he scored 372 victories. His yearly winning average was 22 victories against 31 defeats for a mark of 41.1. In all these 37 years Mathewson issued only 717 bases on balls in 2573 games—showing that he pitches an excellent exhibition.

Looking back over the records for the three best consecutive seasons of the great pitcher, it is interesting to note that Walter Johnson and Cy Young are tied in the matter of total triumphs during such a period. Wood during 1912, 1913 and 1914.

won 54 out of 67 games for the remarkable average of 80.4. His yearly showing was 18 victories against 4 defeats. Second place in the percentage ranking belongs to Chief Bender, who, from 1903 to 1910, pitched with an 80 out of 77 games for a mark of 73.9.

The three best years that Cy Young ever knew were 1891, 1892 and 1893. He won 37 and lost 30 games in that period. Walter Johnson did his best in winning 37 victories in 1912, 1913 and 1914. But the showing of Johnson surpasses that of Young because while Cy was losing 30 games Walter dropped only 29. Walter's average for the three years was 75.9. Young's was 79.1.

Won 80 Games.

In addition to Young and Johnson only three other pitchers ever won 80 or more games for three straight seasons. Those men are Mathewson, Alexander and Jack Cibola, the famous Yankee pitcher of 41 years ago.

Florida, by winning 41 games in 1905, set the mark that no one has been able to fracture since that time. 43 Wash made a desperate effort to beat out Cleveland in 1905, but 63 victories was the best he could do. Christy Mathewson, with 37 victories in 1908, made the best National league show since 1904.

PRICE OF ATHLETIC GOODS DUE TO SOAR

Poor Man is Barred From Privilege of Exercising.

Walking is Only Thing That Won't Cost More if It is Done in Bare Feet—Increase Hits Every Sporting Article in Sight.

Exercise is no longer a poor man's privilege. Inaugurating feeling sporting goods dealers showed that prices of all sporting goods are coming up this year.

The only thing that won't cost more is walking if you do it in your bare feet. Hiking shoes will cost from $10 to $15, an increase of 20 per cent.

The increase shows every sporting article in sight and even that which, last, Athletic underwear is on the upward grade.

There'll be twice as many baseball teams this year as last year," predicted an official of a big sporting goods house in colors.

The only new trills in sports this year will be in golf. Bloomers for women and a new set of iron clubs which allow the golfer to hit the ball from any angle are being displayed.

There are ten clubs to the set. Swimming suits will be one piece and fair this year—both for men and women. Men's suits will be the baggy affairs of old, but women will have a cretion in colors.

Under the new list of prices, just out, baseball will cost 20 cents more. Tennis balls will cost $2.50 apiece. Balls for sandlot games will cost 50 cents. Baseball gloves will cost as high as $25. The cheapest will be $1.50—a boy's mittling glove. Baseball

TOO OLD AT THIRTY TO LEARN SPORT WELL

Dr. G. L. Meylan

Columbia University Medical Director Sets Age Limit For Average Man To Take Up Golf or Tennis—Thinks Bicycling Is Only Sport Adapted To All Ages

The average man, or woman, of 30 or 35 is too old to learn a new form of sport well.

So says Dr. George L. Meylan, professor of physical education and medical director of Columbia University. Consideration may strike many a young man when an authority of Dr. Meylan's standing speaks thus radically. His statement is almost a warning as that of Dr. Oiler, who aroused a world-wide controversy while he was Johns Hopkins by declaring that a man had no excuse for living after he reached the age of 60.

Dr. Meylan expressed this opinion recently while discussing the merits of bicycle riding. He toured Europe on a bicycle several years ago and rode in the late 50s when throngs of eccentrics parked the Fenway in Boston and Riverside Drive in New York. He is a firm believer in the use of the bicycle as a means to good health.

"The bicycle is particularly valuable as a gentle exercise for men and women of middle age and elderly people who did not have in their youth the privilege of learning other forms of exercise—such as golf or tennis," said Dr. Meylan.

"You know," the doctor continued, "the average man or woman cannot learn a new form of sport well after they have reached the age of 35."

"Of course, people take up golf, tennis, and other sports this late in life. But, in the average case, they cannot yield to the necessity of being taught the right ways in order to get down their playing the necessary, balanced maximum of beneficial exercise."

Bicycling Is Different

"Bicycling, however, is different. Anybody who can walk can ride a bicycle. There is no more strain on the heart and lungs from riding than there is from walking. When we walk, the weight of the body is involved and it must be supported. When we cycle, however, the body's weight is removed

MANY QUESTIONS ARE ANSWERED BY REV. MOORE

Christian Church Pastor Replies to About Twenty Queries Sunday

Speaking before a capacity crowd at the Christian church last evening at his regular monthly "Question Night" service, Rev. W. A. Moore answered 20 questions submitted by the members of his congregation. The questions covered many phases of thought and indicate the trend of the public mind.

One member of the congregation wanted to know if sinners are always a true guide. Mr. Moore's reply was that Paul had a good conscience while persecuting Christians, but he was in the wrong. Conscience urges us to do right but does not tell us what is right. Know the truth from your bible and then obey the truth. Another wanted to know if it is wrong to cheat in a lawsuit. Reply: Man is the only animal with the power to cheat. He should use this power every day of his life. To cheat is to lie.

The question, "Can God be seen by human eyes?" Mr. Moore quoted John 1:18, "No man hath seen God at any time," and that ought to be quoted in an individual or newspaper willfully publishing false news, the pastor said. "There ought to be a law with a generous penalty against giving false statements to newspapers as well as against publishing the same. It should be remembered that the editor is not always to blame for false statements published in newspapers. The public should be more appreciative of the papers and assist in giving news correctly."

Another questioner wanted to know if he could be nerred like the thief on the cross without being baptized. Answer: "No you cannot, you are not a thief; you are not on a cross; Jesus is not by your side to assure you of forgiveness. You must obey the gospel, believe, repent, confess, be baptized and live a Christian till death. That's how."

In reply to several questions on the economic problems the answer was "There is nothing the civil needs production, transportation and frugality."

"Is it sinful to get angry?" brought the answer, "Anger is a sign of weakness—a kind of insanity." A strong plea for self control was made.

"What should a young man do to a man who makes improper advances?" brought the answer, "If your conversation allows and you know you are a lady. If after this he insults you—over in Kentucky they would shoot him."

One young man was puzzled to know whether he should date with

Asked as to whether the bicycle was ever prescribed professionally without the exercise or observation, Dr. Meylan replied: "Doctors prescribe riding. On countless occasions, I know hundreds of people who have benefited greatly from a practice of riding a bicycle regularly. Exhausted bodies and weary minds yield readily to a bicycle. It is a machine that can quite take the needless pace of bicycling as a general tonic."

"Derived from a restriction of health-building qualities of the bicycle," Dr. Meylan said: "I am excited by the growing interest here in the bicycle. I deplore that the Americans ever seemed to drop it. There is no reason for it. The bicycle is just as available and as comfortable today as it was two decades ago."

"Automobiles do not replace it. They cannot replace it for auto riding is lay and bicycling is stimulating."

In France, England, in fact everywhere but here in the United States, the bicycle is used as much today as it was 20 years ago. Frenchmen and Englishmen appreciate its benefits to good health and good spirits as well as its utility. There is no excuse for its limited use in this country; unless it can be attributed to the American tendency to get into anything all over with maximum enthusiasm for a period then to drop it like a hot cake for the next few years.

"The bicycle is not a fad. It is here today with all the advantages that it originally offered to bicyclists. It is the common sense American people are showing by using the bicycle more for pleasure, exercise and as a utility."

"It means better health in the long run."

"Learning to ride a bicycle is very simple. The average boy or girl accomplishes it the first day a bicycle is lowered or even hurried to a half hour. It is easier than learning to swim."

"The bicycle is not free from abuse. There are unwise people who persist in riding wheels too large for them or with too high gears. Young enthusiasts sometimes overdo when they go on too strong for racing or record breaking, just as they do in other lines of activities. Fooling is a bad habit of young men every year, but it will be a popular sport. Fewer people are injured from overdoing in cycling than in any other sport."

"The whole body is more thoroughly exercised in riding a bicycle than in any other form of exercise. Yet the bicycle is so perfectly adapted to bodily needs that the fatigue of a ten-mile ride for pleasure, exercise and as a utility in walking a tenth of that distance."

"A result of bicycle riding is the strengthening of one's muscles, not only the lower extremities but of the abdomen, chest and arms, and which are constantly excited to contract."

"Bicycling is one of the few forms of exercise that is adaptable to both sexes, to all ages and particularly to all degrees of strength."

"A woman who exposes her back to the weather. The pastor replied, "Climber with those whose style of dress she imitates and keep clear not only of the habit but of all sin and dress like her."

"What is the evidence of a broad-minded man?" was answered by "The absence of the narrow-minded. How patient was Jesus with those who did not catch his viewpoint?"

How to make the most of one's self was answered by "Be a Christian."

VIRGINIAN MOB OF YOUNG MEN WANT NEGRO

One Hundred Chivalrous Braves Would Supplement the Law

ALEXANDRIA, Va., May 23.—A mob of more than one hundred young men which formed in the streets here early this morning and marched on the Arlington county jail in which W. L. Turner, a negro, is held following his alleged confession, that he shot and killed T. M. Moore and attacked Miss Pearl Clark, Moore's fiancée, was diverted from its purpose before reaching the jail and the U. S. soldiers from Fort Myer, who with bayonets fixed on guarding the prisoner were not called upon to act in his defense. Though feeling against the negro was still running high among the farmers of Arlington county, Sheriff A. C. Clements stated he was confident of his ability to guard the prisoner.

"We have got that negro in a burglar proof cell," said the sheriff. "I could give you my whole bunch of boys and you could not get him out. He will stay where he is until his trial comes up, which will probably be in June."

PRESIDENT OF FRANCE HAS SERIOUS FALL

PARIS, May 21.—President Paul Doumergue of France had a narrow escape from death when he fell from the door of a moving railway train at Montigny-lez-Toulouse. He was picked up unconscious by workmen who believed him dead when he was revived but insisted that he was the president of France. Mr. Doumergue's condition is not serious. He was lying in the doorway of his compartment when the accident occurred. The Times Job Printing Department is thoroughly equipped to do first class work—at reasonable prices.

ing. And the new fields, roads, woods and towns keep his mind occupied just enough to exclude the worry of business. Cycling is a mental stimulant as well as a mild form of physical exercise.

"There are any number of men even in advanced years who resort to the bicycle for their exercise," the doctor cited Dr. Charles Elliot, former president of Harvard; Richard C. Moore, secretary of the International Y. M. C. A. committee; John D. Rockefeller; Thomas Edison; A. A. Adee and many others.

"But the bicycle is not merely an old man's sport," he continued, "nor yet a boy's hobby."

"Bicycling is one of the few forms of exercise that is adaptable to both sexes, to all ages and particularly to all degrees of strength."

RUPERT IN LEAD WITH OUT EFFORT

Jerome Smothers Burley and Paul Drags Buhl Down—Talk Twin Falls Team May Enter

Standing of Teams table with columns for Name, W, L, Pct.

Yesterday's Results

Jerome H. Burley 1, Paul H. Buhl 1.

JEROME, May 21.—Yesterday's ball game could not be called a slaughter of the innocents because the Burley pitchers are certainly seasoned enough to know better than take that kind of a beating, but it was a slaughter just the same. The home team scored early, late and often, until their total reached 11 while the Burleys fared one-hoss-shoe little tally into their dugout. Chick Freese is ticked to base in the way his pitchers are finding their stride after a brief from Rupert last Sunday. It was opening day at the Jerome park and a large attendance gathered from the north and south sides of the Snake.

Paul H. Buhl 1, PAUL, May 21.—The home team scored things with its crack ball club on the ball for yesterday, pulling up a plurality of 11 to 1 before a large opening day crowd.

Obituary Out of It

RUPERT, May 21.—With the day breaking out of the cloudy rain to play Wednesday ball, the first ball in the league ranks found Rupert yesterday without an opponent. The ball was thus able to gain leadership of the league without an effort. Burley and Buhl being to Jerome and Paul leaving those four clubs known at the 600 mark.

Talk of a club in Twin Falls is being revived with the box game referred at landing a berth in the league. Bill, last night's Pella player face with Oakley, is getting behind the move and hopes to line up a string club with Bight and Patton in the probable battery. Bill, Victor, Newman, Whitall and other prospects to draw on. The market muddies are now in the Oakley line up.
