

GOMPERS BEATEN BY PLUMB PLANNERS

Gather Kindling For A Democratic Platform This Fall

Not Meaning to Knock the Party, but That Seems to Be What's Happening—Western Delegates Hold "Pre" Meeting for Own Interests

By ELIAS H. MARTIN, I. N. S. Staff (Correspondent) SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—There will be no dearth of material for the construction of the democratic platform.

Already with but a fraction of the delegates and national committee on hand enough material has been preferred to erect one of staggering size. Of course, the main timbers and principal parts of the platform will come from Washington in charge of Senator Carter Glass.

The "wet" and "dry" issue looms large before the platform committee and perhaps later before the convention. There is more pre-convention talk among arriving delegates on this subject than on any other issue, despite the tendency of the leaders here to soft peddle discussion of the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead Act.

Labor, suffrage and Irish leaders do not intend to pass up any opportunity for their cause before the democratic convention. Samuel Gompers and Matthew Kelly of the American Federation of Labor will arrive here today before the formal opening of the convention.

Samuel Gompers and his supporters in the administration do not want the federation to continue to do more than government contractor.

Two field marshals of the suffrage forces are on their way here and a score of suffrage workers are already busy here. Alice Paul and Abby Baker, who led the picketing in Washington and directed the demonstration during the republican convention in Chicago, are expected to arrive early next week.

With the first "get-together" meeting of the national committee tentatively set for noon Friday, members of that body were arriving today from all sections of the country.

Of 14 of the party veterans to arrive today was Norman E. Macgregor. He has been attending conventions in 1892 and has been a member of the national committee for 20 years.

Announcement in Washington that Attorney General Palmer expects to attend the convention came as a surprise to leaders here. He had previously indicated that he would remain away from the convention.

Considerable significance attached to the announcement today of Gavin McNab, leader of the California democratic delegation that a majority of the delegates from the states of California, New Mexico, Arizona, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Washington and Oregon have responded favorably to an invitation to hold a pre-convention conference to determine upon concerted action on matters affecting the Pacific coast.

While the talk for the moving cent out by McNab was extremely qualified it was reported today that a general discussion of the western political situation and the political and legislative needs of the states affected will be held at the first meeting.

Father Swindled By Fake Kidnaper—Loses $12,000

Delivers Money on Threat, When Assured of Baby Coughlin's Return, but Promise Not Kept—Swindler May Not Have Had Child

CORLEIGHTON, Pa., June 17.—(O. H. Nugent, father of Dickie Coughlin, who was kidnaped on the morning of June 7, today stands awed out of $12,000 with his child still missing, according to a sensational story which Coughlin told 'Chief' of the Philadelphia Record today.

With the revelation that the $12,000 has gone, some additional facts made public for the first time by the Philadelphia Record. He said at first he supposed the abductor of the baby demanded by him $4,000 for the safe return of baby Coughlin.

Is Ignored In Stand Against Endorsing A Socialistic Idea

Would Have to Recognize Same Plan for A Other Industries, Says Frye—Not Policy of Trade Unions—Morrison Favors Plumb Plan

(By MILDRED MORRIS, I. N. S. Staff Correspondent) MONTREAL, Que., June 17.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, suffered the worst defeat of his long career of labor leadership this afternoon, when the American Federation of Labor convention endorsed government ownership with democratic control.

Gompers had led the opposition in person, in a bitter two days fight that raged in the convention. He was finally defeated by an insurgent faction led by the miners and railroad men.

At the last moment Gompers was deserted by some of his trusty aides who had fought side by side with him in many labor troubles in the past.

The endorsement of the resolution of the chief underlying principles of the Plumb plan was contained in a minority report of the committee on resolutions.

(By MILDRED MORRIS, I. N. S. Staff Correspondent) MONTREAL, Que., June 17.—President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor is engaged in a bitter fight to prevent the endorsement of the resolution of the chief underlying principles of the Plumb plan for government ownership and democratic control of the railroads.

Samuel Gompers and his supporters in the administration do not want the federation to continue to do more than government contractor.

The whole fight hinges upon the minority report of the committee on resolutions. The majority report rejected the demand for endorsement of the Plumb plan, modifying it to give the government control.

There were exciting scenes in the convention when Secretary Frank Morrison and Fourth Vice President William Green, both members of the executive council, were opposed to the Plumb plan.

Morrison was absent for several minutes by the "Inauguration" of G. G. Brown, secretary of the national committee for organizing steel workers, declared this afternoon that the committee is in doubt of commission and that all future plans for organizing steel workers were abandoned.

DENY LIQUOR CAUSED MEADS KILL MARONEY

Dartmouth Shooting Result of Small Debt, Students Say—Meads in Jail

LANOVER, N. H., June 17.—A quarrel over a small debt and not whiskey as first reported at the Dartmouth College, was responsible for the killing of Henry E. Maroney, a senior of Massachusetts, and the arrest of a murder charge of Robt. E. Meads, a senior, of Illinois, authorities investigating said today.

Reports that young Meads sold liquor and that he quarreled with Maroney over a bottle of whiskey were today denied by students. They said Meads had liquor but consumed all he secured. Dartmouth authorities were much concerned over the slaying at that liquor was at the bottom of the slaying of Maroney. This theory, it was explained, probably arose from a statement by Meads after his arrest. He said:

"Maroney had stolen a bottle of whiskey from me and after thinking it over for awhile I decided to go after him."

He added that he shot in self-defense. Students say Meads had been drinking prior to the shooting.

Meads is a prisoner in the little county jail at Woodsville today, waiting the September term of the grand jury. His father, Albert H. Meads, a Chicago lawyer, was on his way east to defend his son. Maroney's father and mother were here—the mother in a state of collapse. Maroney, it was learned, had wanted a fight against a craving for liquor. Through the whole year the young man had practiced total abstinence as he had agreed to do. Maroney had passed his final examinations and was awaiting his degree at commencement, June 18. He had come through his final class, college authorities said, when he met his death.

In the fall of 1916, Meads, then a freshman, shot Norman F. Arnold, a classmate. On his death bed Arnold signed a statement saying the shooting was an accident.

Missouri Bandits Display Cold Blood—Victim Loses One Hand and a Foot

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo., June 17.—Missus Ella Jeff and her left hand, severed by a train passing over the rails to which he was bound after being robbed, George Underwood of Carrollton, Mo., restaurant proprietor, was in a hospital here today.

Stopping from a train here, Underwood was commanded to enter a motor car by two strangers who pushed passengers at him. A mile from Excelsior Springs they halved their car, took Underwood's valuables and then gagging him with strips torn from his own shirt, bound him to the rails with leading wire.

After desperate efforts Underwood succeeded in freeing himself with the exception of his left foot and left hand before the arrival of the train. Surrounding towns have been given a description of Underwood's captors, who are believed to be headed for St. Joseph.

WOMAN IS NO LONGER BOOR NAT—NEFFRAIGHT

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, June 17.—"Women are not going to be the same poor man's best friend any longer," Mrs. Effraight declared today.

"There has been a feeling among women that political parties didn't intend us to vote in 1920," Mrs. Effraight continued.

"I trust political parties myself more than men and more than many women do, but the feeling is that the parties have not planned to permit women to vote this fall."

"Danahy thinks he can have North Carolina. The Vermont people are for us, all but the Governor and he is an 'ant'—and wet. Such a miserable two-legged man is between us and freedom," declared Mrs. Effraight, referring to the efforts to have the Vermont Legislature meet in special session and to the thirty-sixth-first State to ratify the Federal Suffrage Amendment.

"If we could only take some kind of an attitude that would get the 'old grandfathers' attitude out of us we would be better off."

15 COUNTRIES ENTER OLYMPIC STARS IN SIXTH SHOW

LONDON, June 17.—The Sixth International Horse Show, which opened at Olympia today, is expected to surpass its records in both spectacular display and quality of horsemanship. Some $200,000 has been appropriated to make Olympia attractive, the huge amphitheatre being made to appear as a country estate, with lawns, trees, a mansion and woods in the background.

There are 116 classes in the competition and about 15 foreign countries will send their best horses to contest titles, entries having been made from Canada, the United States, Argentina, Brazil and other places.

One of the spectacular events is the ride past of 162 mounted policemen who will march and salute the King on June 22, afterward the policemen will compete in riding events for $1000 in prizes.

The Grand Prix Marathon of twelve miles from a London suburb, finishing at Olympia stadium, will be held as in previous days.

The military ride from Aldershot, forty miles by road and with a strenuous course to be completed at the start and again at the finish, is also to be revived.

NIP FALL CLOTHING PRICES

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Thirteen high prices for fall clothing are to be nipped in the bud by the department of justice. Howard K. Figg, a special assistant to Attorney General Palmer, today announced the beginning of a drive aimed at the high prices of fall wearing apparel which will be along the same line as those which brought spring prices tumbling.

The plan is to organize public sentiment against heavy hoarding, at the opening of the season when the high prices will be at their peak if they are high at all. "Wherever this plan falls the department's special agents will start legal proceedings in any case where the prosecution seems justified."

CONSTRUCTIVE DESTRUCTION

TODAY'S census report shows the 1920 population of Great Falls, Montana, to be 21,121, an increase of 10,174 or 72.4 per cent in the last decade. This fact is not stated with the intention of launching a publicity campaign in behalf of Great Falls.

Make your city an interesting place in which to live. Entertainment and educational advantages are powerful drawing cards. Make your city a good and wholesome place in which to live.

Elimination of the dandelion, therefore, is prevalent primarily of the interest of civic growth, though it cannot fail to strike a sympathetic chord among those property owners who have watched with pride thoughts, its devastation of carefully nurtured blue grass lawns.

There is no pretense that the absence of dandelions made Great Falls. But it most assuredly helped it. It was one of the circumstances which made Great Falls a good place in which to live.

But, with her good example absorbed, never mind Great Falls. We are concerned with Twin Falls. We want, in general, to show Twin Falls can handle a community problem as a community and to make Twin Falls a better place in which to live.

ANOTHER MASTERY OF THE AIR

MASTERY of the air compared to which flying is but an indifferent accomplishment is promised by H. H. Platt, a mechanical engineer and scientist who addressed the American Society for the Advancement of Science in Philadelphia lately.

Mr. Platt has worked out a process which he believes will be successful in utilizing atmospheric pressure for the production of power. With the practical completion of the machinery which he suggests, he thinks it will be possible to obtain light, heat and power, and to furnish cooling plants as well.

HIGH COST OF CARELESSNESS

THE National Board of Fire Underwriters has been analyzing the nation's residential fire losses, as distinguished from the destruction by flames of other classes of buildings.

In 1917 it was found that 65 per cent of all reported fires occurred in residences, the loss representing 28 per cent of the aggregate damage. The cause of greatest damage to dwellings was shown to be defective chimneys and flues.

SILAGE AND SHEEP

By R. B. MILLAN, Sheep Specialist, University of Idaho Extension Division.

It is rapidly coming to play an important part in the feeding of Idaho sheep. Owners of large flocks who have not yet made it are building silos and those who have made it are building more, after having thoroughly justified themselves of its many desirable qualities.

When used with alfalfa in fattening operations, it cuts down the cost of their feeding operations, keeps the sheep in good health, assists in preventing the sheep from going "wala" when feeding alfalfa hay alone for a long time, and causes ewes to produce more milk for their lambs.

These lambs made an average gain of 31 pounds a day each. Part of the corn used cost 25 cents per bushel and cost $2.25, and the alfalfa cost $15 per ton. Allowing 15 per ton for the corn silage, it cost $1.75 to put 100 pounds of silage on the lamb. The gain required 246 pounds of corn, 482 pounds of alfalfa, and 1072 pounds of silage.

KNOLL CHURCH WELL FILLED LAST SUNDAY

Children's Day Exercises Are Given—Union Meetings Will Be Held

The Knoll church was well filled last Sunday morning when the pastor gave a talk on the human heart to the children. A blackboard was used showing how fruitless the efforts to reform while Balaam possesses the heart and Jesus stands outside knocking for admittance. Let Jesus in through the door of faith and all will be well. In the evening there was a packed house to see the Children's Day Exercises. The orchestra added much to the program, which was well rendered.

Beginning this week Wednesday there will be union prayer meetings in preparation for the Bible League to be held in Knoll church July 4th to 11th, when Rev. W. H. Pike a noted Bible teacher from the Bible League of Los Angeles, Calif. will be here. Mr. Pike does not have any religious prejudices in his teaching, but is in line with the Bible. Next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the pastor's theme will be: "Evil Thoughts of Salvation. In you know you are saved." Come and out. In the evening the pastor will lead a series of stereoscopic lectures on the Bible beginning with Genesis. Don't miss this first lecture. The pastor is preaching in the school houses at Berger every first and third Sunday at 2 p. m. All are invited to these services.

CAR STEALING IS PREVALENT

Authorities Searching for Stolen Cars—More Trouble as Summer Approaches

Car stealing is becoming more and more prevalent in Twin Falls with the coming of summer months when vacation places and resorts attract young men to them. If they have any way of traversing the required distance many of them resort to automobile theft. Artisan City lecturer them as do in many other places and as a result many Twin Falls car owners are minus their transportation facilities. Whenever it is proved that a lad has taken a car he is dealt with severely in an effort to check or stop stealing. In every day more cars are being stolen and the matter is said to be growing serious. A short time ago a stolen car was found on the streets of Hurter, while others have been recovered elsewhere.

To Aid Buhl in Approach Matter

Preliminary plans for assisting Buhl in securing funds for the construction of approaches to the Owlley's bridge were furthered last evening at a meeting of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce. Everyone present was in favor of assisting the west end and it is expected some workable plan will be devised and executed soon.

Miss Doud Bride of Wilmer Harrison

A very pretty home wedding took place Tuesday afternoon at the home of H. E. Halloway, when Mrs. Halloway's sister, Miss Glenna Doud, became the bride of Wilmer Harrison. Promptly at two o'clock the wedding march was played, and the contracting parties took their place in front of a bank of flowers while the ceremony was performed by Rev. Guy W. Jones, pastor of the Knoll Baptist church, of which church the bride and groom are members.

Only the immediate relatives and close friends were present. After the wedding a delightful luncheon was served. Later in the afternoon the happy couple left by auto for a trip through the Sawtooth mountains, stopping at Shoshone, Guyer, Boise and other places in the northwest. Many beautiful and useful presents were received, including silvers, engravings and furniture. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison will be at home on the Salmon to their many friends.

BURLEY-BUHL SUNDAY AT BUHL

Tennis Tied for Leadership of League Will Battle for Supremacy

Even though the Mach City team boast of a baseball team, local fans will have a good change to see some well ball playing Sunday, June 21, when the team from the west end city unites up with the Hurley club at Buhl. The Buhl and Burley teams are tied for the league leadership and doctors of the postage can go to Buhl with the expectation of witnessing a fight to the finish.

Buhl will probably use Post in the box while the choice for the Coatsville county senders has not been announced although it is understood a capable hurler will be on the plate. Buhl will have no loss and half as good ball and the crowd expects to witness up his usual clout for the day's fray.

From Burley, Sewell S. Wright, secretary of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, is back from a visit of numerous days in Boise and vicinity on business. While there he also visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Graham on Second Avenue East.

Jim King's Joint Relieved of $35

Jim King's eating house on 34th and Shoshone street was robbed this morning about 2 o'clock of approximately $35 in cash by a burglar who held up the night man. The authorities are diligently searching for every clue but none has been found yet. Chief of Police William Taylor was summoned this morning and is collaborating with the county sheriff's office in an effort to effect a capture.

K. P. CONCLAVE ON AT KELLOGG

Delegates Arrive in Special—Interesting Program Planned

The state convention of the Knights of Pythias began yesterday at Kellogg with delegates from practically every lodge in Idaho arriving on the special train. The town was swarming with visitors at an early hour and it was evident that the lodge had taken possession whether or not they were given the customary key to the city.

The election of officers is expected to be the big event but there are other important matters to come up for discussion during the three day session which will be brim full of big dollops of interest in the visiting men and women representing the Pythian lodge.

The Twin Falls delegation arrived all o. k. and expects to take a prominent part in the gathering. Several speakers of note in the state have been engaged and there will be other meritorious features of the program.

"Separating Suckers from Their Money"

The old circus advertising is being worked to a frazzle this spring in Twin Falls. The charitable stores in Twin Falls are giving all their merchandise away in the local press.

In April and May when business was rotten for them they were selling $35.00 Suits for $50.00 and $60.00, now they are selling $35.00 Suits for $35.00.

We are not selling out but we will meet any sale price quoted in Twin Falls and discount it 10 per cent on any merchandise handled in a first class reliable clothing store.
