

WHERE THEY ARE GOING NOBODY KNOWS--LEAST OF ALL DO THEY KNOW

Flopping, Headless Chicken Fully Aware of Its Destination, Compared to Democratic Delegates in San Francisco

(By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS, I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—A chicken with its head cut off flopping around the back yard, knows exactly where it is going compared to the hosts of delegates gathered here to select their candidate for the next democratic presidential election.

With a two-thirds vote necessary for a nomination, instead of only a majority as with the republicans, the chaos of Chicago pre-convention days descended upon San Francisco log and luggage leaving the arriving delegates confused and confounded.

Williams Jennings Bryan it is claimed by some, with his "dry" backing can prevent the nomination of anybody who doesn't suit him. It will take but 365 votes—a third plus one, of the total of 1022 delegates—to do this.

But the old friend of Governor Edward J. Edwards of New Jersey, do not overestimate his power. He will control at least 350 votes in the convention and it is asserted and in their turn can prevent the nomination of any candidate unfavorable to him.

Senator Robert Owen of Oklahoma will form a coalition with William Jennings Bryan and precipitate hasty and tumble opposition the moment the censors of the administration burst upon them and our ratification of the league of nations plank. And with not a few behind them many believe this combination will be able to rally more than a third of the delegates to their side thus blocking the selection of a "Wilsonian" nominee.

Again from the two thirds rule, now unusually jarrerome to the democratic, the problem of a nominee is worrying them. They are every bit as hot as to their choice of a standard bearer as were the republicans in Chicago.

Counting William G. McAdoo and President Wilson and no list of democratic presidential possibilities is considered by the party delegates now here to be complete without the names of both; there are pretty near a score of candidates in the open for potential, already under consideration.

Alphabetically there are Bryan, Cox, Clark, Cummings, Davis, Edwards, Glass, Gorard, Hatchcock, McAdoo, Marshall, Merriell, Owen, Palmer, Payne, Sims, Smith, Tammey, Tammey, Tammey, Tammey, Tammey, Tammey, Tammey.

The McAdoo boom has refused to stay dead, its corpse persists in coming back to life. Finished, stoned and buried does McAdoo himself insist his boom must be considered, the managers of other candidates now here drumming up support for their men keep on talking of McAdoo. In the same breath they treat him as a dead man and yet one still to be watched.

"McAdoo," they say, "is entirely out of the race. Whatever support he ever had is now gone, split up among the other candidates. But if McAdoo's name is presented to the convention—then follows a long argument on why McAdoo cannot win proving it is still very much favored by the other aspirants."

The general belief here four days since the McAdoo-Bureau telegram is that McAdoo's name will be presented to the democratic convention and will be voted on. As to what will happen then, opinion is divided.

Some declare that after the first ballot or two when McAdoo will receive a complimentary and scattering vote, his name will disappear. Others say along about the eighth ballot or so McAdoo will be pitted across with a rush just as Senator Bradbury was in Chicago. A clever play of political maneuvering—that is what the latter school calls McAdoo's telegram revealing to consent to his being placed in nomination.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—Unless something is forthcoming from the White House which will change plans now in the making, it is certain that no less than fifteen names will be presented to the democratic convention here next week as possible recipients for nomination honors.

Aside from the name of Woodrow Wilson, four names stand out prominently today as the vanguard of the delegates began to arrive.

There are Williams G. McAdoo, Edward J. Edwards, Vice President Thomas R. Marshall and Governor James E. Cox of Ohio.

The continued silence from the White House on the question of a third term or on any other matter up to date has created a situation similar to that existing in Chicago right up until the Saturday upon which Senator Harding was nominated. The delegates and political masters already here are uncertain which way to turn for guidance in the crisis.

There is a distinct feeling among delegations that the silence from the White House is soon to be broken—that the president will in a few days eliminate himself or else he will throw the tremendous weight of his support behind some one of the fifteen men in the running.

Charles E. Hughes, Commissioner in daily communication with the White House. He has access to Pennsylvania Avenue both by private telephone wire and by telegraph. He has talked this week with Secretary Tammey and with others of the political and social family. The results of these conversations have been carefully withheld. If President Wilson has issued any orders they have not been relayed here to any of his numerous lieutenants on the ground.

It is, however, known to politicians here that Senator Wilson, the acknowledged leader of the party, will allow nearly 1,000 unregistered delegates to sit in a free and open convention without some idea as to how the White House stands. Here again there was a quiet out-side of the conference which is similar to that existing in Chicago; everybody is waiting nervously for word from a "nick man" who lays at the end of a private line many miles away from the scene of action.

The uncertainty of the situation has resulted in "flying" San Francisco a stock of rum, which completely overthrows the convention.

One of these current today was that the president had decided to pay a long standing debt and throw the weight of administration support behind Champ Clark, the Missouri Democrat, in 1912. The former speaker, Bradbury, had been considered an contender in this race. The LINCOLN, Neb., June 23.—In discussing the probable choice of other democratic national candidates for president in the event of a convention, Woodrow Wilson may have on that honor again. "He does not mean 100 per cent on prohibition," said Senator Merriell and against Woodrow, stated Senator Owen of Oklahoma and Secretary Merriell of Iowa.

Referring to the president, he says: "I am loath, when the president need not be supported, what would have been done—such strong have been thrown out nationally, no one candidate to speak for the president's cause enough to be assumed, to express his wishes, has anticipated his candidate."

After which he stated that as "Wilson," says Palmer it has disappeared by his failure to stop profligacy and the opposition of labor, while McAdoo's relationship to Wilson and his influence on the treaty bar blue.

HOUSE, June 23.—Senator William E. Borah arrived home today from Washington after an absence of two and one-half years. An informal reception was held for him, but he declined to go into detail on his return.

He declared that when he left that he believed President Wilson will be the democratic nominee. He declared he had nothing definite to base his belief on, but said,

"I don't know what makes me feel, but I have all intuition to the effect that he will be nominated."

There are two reasons why I desire a third term for the president, first I believe he should be vindicated in the second place, I believe the president is entitled to finish the war work which he began. I believe he should carry through legislation for reconstruction which has been blocked by the republican congress.

I don't believe the people meant to tie

RAIL UNIONS
NOT TALKING
STRIKE, SAID

CLEVELAND, June 23.—None of the fifteen railroad organizations have thus far even discussed a strike, declared W. G. Lee, head of the brotherhood of railroad trainmen, here today.

"However, we are going to meet in Chicago on Friday and I am unable to say at this time what will be the outcome of that meeting."

"The rumors of a general railroad strike are flying thick and fast," continued Mr. Lee, "but so far they are all unfounded. The present situation is nearly normal, according to reports from the railroads, and the strike is not likely to come up before the middle of the summer."

This present dispute is caused by a few who have lost their jobs by going out unauthorized, and who are getting others to join them because they like company. However, the few walkouts of the past few days do not cut any figure as far as the number of walkouts from the brotherhoods.

"The brotherhoods have not yet authorized a strike, although, as I have said, I am not in a position to say what will be decided upon at the meeting on Friday."

CHICAGO, June 23.—Developments of the Italian demand seems to indicate that features of the "red railroad workers" unions are working for a gradual extension of the resumption of the switchmen's and yardmen's strike, which began several days ago in Baltimore and Philadelphia.

From Savanna, Ill., came a report that switchmen and trainmen on the St. Paul railroad were on strike and a dispatch from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, stated that reliable freight was not being acted upon by the agent of the St. Paul, who said that the rail workers there were expected to quit work.

On Friday a mail train was to be held in Chicago, under a call issued by John Grunau, it was reported here today.

The uncertainty of the situation has resulted in "flying" San Francisco a stock of rum, which completely overthrows the convention.

One of these current today was that the president had decided to pay a long standing debt and throw the weight of administration support behind Champ Clark, the Missouri Democrat, in 1912. The former speaker, Bradbury, had been considered an contender in this race. The

WILSON STAMPEDE IS CONSIDERED, RESULT THIRD TERM BOOMING NAME WILL BE IN NOMINATION AT S.F.

By DAVID M. CHURCH

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—Possibilities of a stampede in favor of a third term for President Wilson in the democratic national convention were seen here today by party leaders following the announcement of Miss Mary Fay, who said she would cast her vote as delegate for Woodrow Wilson for the democratic nominee for president.

Miss Fay, recognized as one of the most able women leaders in the party was positive in her determination to present the name of the president to the convention.

She intends to suggest to the convention that a strong vice presidential candidate be named and President Wilson will be my candidate and will be chosen over all others in view of the fact that he has done so much for the nation.

As far as I am concerned, he is the best candidate for president.

STILL DIGGING DANDELIONS

WITH Great Falls, Montana, just closing a successful campaign against the dandelion pest, Billings, in the same state, preparing to initiate a similar warfare, attention of Twin Falls people is directed again to the advisability of joining this campaign of extermination.

A recent Great Falls dispatch tells of an immense community picnic given to hundreds of school children at the finish of their dandelion drive beyond the outskirts of the city, after having stripped the city itself clean of the pest. More than a million dandelion plants were brought as trophies to the civic committee directing the campaign.

Another dispatch, coming from Billings, delegates the dandelion to the nuisance class and mentions the Billings city council as taking up the fight with ordinance, forcing residents to uproot the dandelions or pay fines for their omission. This power was one of the factors in the successful dandelion war of Great Falls. The Billings council is not content with the hap-hazard campaign waged against dandelions by those who have a wine recipe, says the Billings dispatch, a full and official state of war has been declared.

What has been done or is being done in the Montana cities could, without doubt, be done in Twin Falls. The practical demonstration at Great Falls has made it easy. With these communities showing the way, all that we need do is follow them out of the dandelion wilderness.

CITIZENS' SAFETY LEAGUE

THE Chicago police department is to have organized support in its effort to make Chicago streets safe for motorists and pedestrians. The Motor Safety League, numbering 500 members, plans to act as first aid to the "traffic cops."

These safety leaguers cannot make arrests, carry weapons or wear badges, and they are forbidden to impersonate police officers, their chief usefulness seems to lie in their own positive interest in promoting general safety in Chicago streets. Members will not only pledge themselves to observe traffic regulations and safety measures, but will warn other citizens who have shown carelessness, report violations of traffic rules to the police and carry on a general campaign of propaganda.

Five hundred citizens organized for the purpose of promoting safety ought to do considerable good in bringing about an era of fewer accidents. A smaller number would serve the same cause equally well in a smaller community. A single group so organized and working enthusiastically ought, in time, to increase its membership to include practically every citizen within the municipal limits.

Speaking of Bryan, he is entitled to a place in history with Lincoln and Washington, having tried three times to get from Lincoln, (Neb.) to Washington, (D. C.), says Miller, Evans, a Tennessee writer.

VOTING AT LONDONDERRY IS SPREADING

Weak Outbreaks Between Unionists and Sinn Feiners Results in Casualties

REBELS KILLED: June 21: One person killed and several others wounded in another outbreak of street fighting between unionists and Sinn Feiners.

At Londonderry during the night the fresh outbreaks of hostilities followed a brief lull Tuesday afternoon. The fighting was particularly sharp and covered a wide area of the city. Several buildings in the business district were burned. A woman was killed. Fires were started by explosives. British troops that put out one gang after another were held at Londonderry early today.

Several hundred rebels armed with heavy rifle fire had been held in the city for a period of over two hours.

The "reign of terror" is apparently over. Armed Irish volunteers ended the fray at Londonderry early today.

The undant followers of Sir Edward Carson held a meeting to debate the advisability of marching to Londonderry to help out the rebels.

BED FOR 6 LONG MONTH COMMISSION TAKES RECESS

Able to Be Up In Three Weeks After Taking Tank
—Gains Twenty Pounds

I was in bed for six long months with a stomach trouble and the morning after I "panake alone deserves the credit," said George Green, a popular Los Angeles man of 27 who had lost 20 pounds while in bed and gained 20 more pounds back to his former weight. "I never sick a day in my life," he continued.

My trouble started a year ago. My wife left me and what I forced myself to eat would not agree with my stomach and it caused me to lose weight. Meats were almost like poison to my system; I got so weak as a result that I could hardly drag myself out of bed, too, and my heart ached so bad I didn't sleep over. My heart ached so bad I would spit and I would get up, I had to hold to something to stop falling. I lost sleep, and I was completely down and out.

Meals helped me so much that I got out of bed in three weeks and I am like a different man. All my troubles are entirely gone. I am now strong again and can do my work with me. I never let bats or my life and I give "panake all credit for my splendid health." "Panake is sold in Twin Falls by Pharmacy and by the healing arts in every town," Mr. Green said.

Atorney W. P. Guthrie is back from the national republican convention at Chicago which he attended as delegate from Idaho. He stated he was disappointed in the men nominated as well as in the platform drawn up by the republicans and predicted a sweeping victory for his party in the fall contest to determine who will be the next president and vice president of the American republic.

Local Legionaries to Attend Big Jerome Banquet

Members of the local post of the American Legion were invited last night to a banquet to be given tomorrow night by the Jerome post at the Hotel Jerome. Representatives of the north Idaho towns organization met with local legionaries in Twin Falls and issued the invitation.

It is expected that from fifteen to twenty men will make the trip to Jerome to attend the meeting, while Governor D. W. Bush and other Idaho notables will be present. Plans to make the event a red letter day one in the history of Jerome county have been practically completed.

RYAN TO TALK ON "PENDING PROBLEMS"

William Jennings Bryan has an engagement to speak on "Pending Problems" on July 1 at 8 o'clock. He will be in Twin Falls to discuss his engagement on the Chautauqua.

Owing to the Democratic convention being in Mr. Bryan cannot be here until Saturday, but he will make his speech on the Tuesday. His talk will be held less than 1,000 people only. Hundred students will be able to hear the peerless orator. Those holding Chautauqua tickets will be admitted to the theater free of charge. This will leave very little room for single admissions.

EDITOR AND AUTHOR WILL SPEAK HERE

There is nothing less in show business than Uncle Sam," says E. B. Pash, the star of the show. "He is a son of the labor market to fight industrialism and who appears before Chautauqua audiences on the second evening. He sold recently in a public address:

"Americans believe in a square deal and Uncle Sam will see that they get it. We are all Americans, whether we work with our muscles, our brains or our money. The spirit of America is the spirit for us."

Fish has been sweeping the "red" side of politics since his recent patriotic work. He has been talking to his fellow laborers whenever he could find them assembled and they have listened by the thousands. He is now editor of the "Labor and Industrial Journal," of Seattle, a magazine which is the first of its kind. The author of a book just published, "The Cause and Cure of Industrial Unrest."
