FEELING OF SECURITY SWEEPS OVER COUNTRY SAYS HARDING

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 4.—Tribute to the soldier who fell in the world war was paid by Senator Warren O. Harding when he unveiled a bronze tablet in their honor at Spiegel Grove, near here, today.

Governor James M. Cox was invited to the ceremonies but cancelled the engagement. The meeting was non-political.

Harding concluded his speech with a tribute to veterans of the world war.

Security Is Felt "Somehow there is a feeling of renewed security throughout the republic," Harding said. "This is not alone for what you have done under arms but in the sense that you have shown you will do in peace. You world war veterans are the new leaven in patriotic citizenship of the republic, the real life force in our country."

For half a century to come, it was your republic before, but there is a new intimacy wrought in its armed forces. A republic worth fighting for in Europe is even more worth living for at home. The men who bled for American rights, American honor, and American home, must hold the American whose rights are beyond question, whose security is guaranteed right through the ages, be unquestioned at home as they are sure about these things, the dead of Sandusky county, the nation, shall never waver."

Interpreting an American sentiment right across the country, Senator Harding's speech was well received and said he knew he would be remembered by the people of the future. Harding held a similar address in Sandusky, N. Y., last week.

BOND HOLDERS NEGLECT DUTY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—Liberty bond investors of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District holding approximately $70,000 worth of permanent bonds are neglecting their duty by not converting them into 4-14 per cent permanent bonds. Local banks throughout the Twelfth Federal Reserve district who handle exchange operations for Liberty bond investors free of charge have been thousands of dollars in advertising to spur their clients to exchange their permanent bonds for 4-14 per cent permanent bonds carrying a higher rate of interest. Despite their efforts, the fact that the accrued interest on the permanent bonds is to terminate the privilege of getting the 4 per cent bonds on a 30-day notice, for 30 days, and hot securities remain unconverted in this district.

Through the conversion privilege afforded by the Federal Reserve Act of the treasury as yet, and six months' public notice of such withdrawal will be given before the privilege is terminated to secure the benefit of a 4-14 per cent bond on November 15, 1920. Holders of 4 per cent bonds should be interested in any bank for conversion in that the bank in turn may forward the bonds to reach the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco on November 14, 1920. Four per cent bonds received by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco on November 15, 1920, or on or before May 14, 1921, will be counted, but the increased interest of one-quarter of one per cent will not become effective until May 1, 1921.

It secures the benefit of a 4-14 per cent bond on December 15, 1920, or on or before June 14, 1921, or on or before June 14, 1921, will be counted, but the increased interest of one-quarter of one per cent will not become effective until June 1, 1921.

Temporary 4 per cent bonds converted, permanent 4-14 per cent bonds will be delivered.

OPPOSITION TO WILSON GROWS

Governor Eppol Declares That Women Voters Are Not Pleased With Mr. Cox.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—(AP)—The opposition to the Wilson administration is tremendous according to Governor Eppol of Pennsylvania, who is on his way to attend the convocation of the Thirty-third degree Masons.

"I have been outside of Pennsylvania in the adjoining states for the last three weeks," Governor Eppol said.

"The women voters are not for Mr. Cox. They don't like his method of approach to the presidency. On the other hand they are impressed with Harding's reverence for the place and the spirit of humanity with which he discusses things vital to the republic. They want no more cocksure people or know-all politicians."

"The opposition is real and determination among the republicans wherever I go. They are not talking much, but they are determined."

"In my own state the republican registration and enrollment has increased 40 per cent. The democratic registration and enrollment is almost negligible. West Virginia I find in good shape."

Governor Eppol believes also that Cox is growing weaker in New Jersey.

Police said Zelenska admitted that he was in Brooklyn at the time of the explosion. He denied knowledge of the plot, however.

"Dynamite Is Found" Six sticks of dynamite, amounting to 25 feet of tube and a number of detonating caps were found in a yellow suitcase the prisoner carried, when arrested.

Determined to establish a medium of exchange, at least, one of the business firms offered as currency its own business cards, bearing above the proprietor's signature the words "Good for 25 centimes," one franc, or two francs, as desired.

The practice of marking up goods preparatory to a sale is unknown in this store. Realizing that truth in advertising is a principle which builds business, this firm has at all times adhered to this idea. Whatever we state in our advertisements can be taken as authentic and customers knowing our regular prices realize that we never misrepared. It does not require weeks of preparation and work to cut all prices twenty-five per cent. It is but a matter of a few hours' work to arrange for a legitimate sale, such as ours. Hence the large crowds and enthusiastic buyers that crowded this immense store Saturday.

It is not only our duty to make the right known but to make it prevalent.—EDMUND BURKE.

COX AND SALESMANSHIP.

With James M. Cox, owner of the Dayton News, before the people as a candidate for president, thousands of commercial travelers throughout the United States are turning in new and pointed interest to editorial attacks on their printing by the newspapers of Governor Cox.

This attack appeared out of a clear sky on August 15, 1914, when the Dayton News pinned these advance agents as parasites and definitely termed them "public nuisances" and "unmitigated bores."

Later the Springfield Daily News, another of Governor Cox's papers, gave emphasis to the insult by reprinting the Daily News editorial.

The unexplained and unprovoked attack speaks for itself, and carries its own commentary in the fact that Governor Cox is "on the road" in a nationwide effort to sell a half dozen different varieties of democratic doctrine, including a side-line of internationalism.

The editorial in full is as follows:

SELLING COBBLER.

The art of salesmanship is a good deal of substance to the public. It is the art of the peddler who has no intention of selling anything and from whom he has no intention of buying anything, but who comes to you and asks you to buy something which he does not want and which he does not need.

There is no purchasing agent anybody else has to submit to. Interruptions of salesmen who are uninvited bores. If a man would exercise the first impulses of his heart and kick them out of his office they did not take the first hint. That the salesman escapes with a whole skin in every instance speaks volumes for the good nature of the long-suffering business man.

If these statements apply to the "Traveling Man," what shall be said of the activities of the "Salesman" who has no intention of selling anything and from whom he has no intention of buying anything, but who comes to you and asks you to buy something which he does not want and which he does not need.

Personal salesmanship has exceeded all reasonable limits. It is being exaggerated to an abnormal degree. There are hundreds of people running around the country trying to sell you things you do not want and at prices for them that are excessive because the cost of selling is excessive.

QUOTAS AND QUOTAS.

DISPATCH from New York quotes James W. Gerard, the new millionaire collector of democratic campaign funds, as follows: "Why not get all we can get and call that the minimum."

This is very interesting, with Governor Cox raising a tremendous amount about quotas. No quotas for Mr. Gerard. In the comprehension of Mr. Cox himself, "the sky is the limit" for the man who is responsible for results.

AFTER THE BALL IS OVER.

REGARDLESS of denials, I will continue to press the charge until the second of November.—Candidate Cox. Very well, if it amuses you. But why stop them? Take all the time you want. You'll have plenty of it.

If all the men who have wild-eyed plans were backed up, how many would be able to get a lot more work done.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who got his reputation on being poor but honest?

In these days of rapid intercommunication you can't fool any of the people any of the time.

If lightning rod agents are still doing business they are not so busy about it.

Elsie Ferguson in Novel Role in New Film "Counterfeit"

Another of the beautiful capable heroines which Elsie Ferguson portrays so well on the screen is the central figure in the star's new feature "Counterfeit" which will be on view at the Idaho theater today.

The story is said to be novel and exciting, portraying Miss Ferguson as a southern girl who is repulsively but fairly falling fortunes secures a position in the general service and finds up a case of counterfeit money.

Supporting Miss Ferguson in the chief male role is David Powell, a well-known leading man and the rest of the cast includes Helene Montrose, Charles Gerard and Charles Kent.

The scenario was made by Ouida Hargreaves from an original story by Robert Harter. George Zimmanow is the director. It is a Paramount Aircraft picture.

MOVIES

A competitor to the famous "Fatty" comedies is being shown at the attraction in the person of Paul Powell, director to Mary Miles Minter, the Reelart star.

It's fine when you have a competitor that is as good as you are. It's not so fine when the competitor is a kind of a rival.

Mary Allen, now playing in the William D. Taylor special production for Reelart, the name of which has not yet been announced, says she's not so much affected by sun and wind.

Herbert Votaw, sister of Presidential Candidate Warren G. Harding, recently made a visit to the Reelart film studios.

Constance Hinnay has just returned from Cuba where questions for her latest Reelart picture, "Something Different," were taken.

"Please, boys, don't work so hard!" This spoke Wanda Hawley as she stepped to the edge of a Reelart yacht cabin and gazed down at the twelve bukkies who were furnishing the "ocean waves."

Publicity Photographer thinking for a day off: Mr. Ford, do you want me to take pictures of you every day?

Harrison Ford (leading man in Reelart's "Oh, Lady, Lady!"): "No, very good!"

TAKEN UP PLUMBING.

Two Y. W. C. A. secretaries who ran a camp near Chicago this summer and worried nights over frequent plumbers' bills are going to study plumbing this winter, so that they can handle some of the minor jobs themselves. "Every time anything went wrong we had to call a plumber; out from town and pay him three or four dollars for a few minutes' job. We can learn a few of the water trade tricks at least, like cleaning a brush and priming a pump, and save that time and expense," says one of them. If they can't learn the art at some trade school they are going to a city plumber as apprentice.

The Times will start a new column in the Want Ads. It will be devoted exclusively to advertising Auction Sales for the farmers.

By grouping these advertisements together on one page, they will be easily found by those interested, and the cost will be much less to the farmer as it will not require so large a space to get the attention of the reader.

Get the habit of watching this column, and when you see advertised what you want attend the sale. You will be able to buy the article at your own price. Surely that is fair enough.

EVERYTHING IN READINESS TO OPEN WORLD SERIES TOMORROW

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—"Baro were going to win" Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn club, said today to the United Press.

By Henry L. Farrell, Called News Staff Correspondent.

ROBINSON, Oct. 4.—Eugene Wheeler, Robinson's National League champion, held the fort alone today in Flatbush.

Contrary to the custom of previous years when both halves of the exhibition cast did warlike warming-up stunts before a free house on the eve of the battle, Trix Specker passed up the chance of acting as the "coney's" camp and first baseman.

The Indians are not due until tomorrow.

"Nothing is all ready," Charlie H. Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn club, said today, and his words fit the feeling of Manager Robinson and his lack of interest.

The seats purchased in advance, some that were ordered months before the game, "Tony" looked knacker when he ran the rack up on the field, he was not to be trusted.

Major John P. Flynn will toss out the first ball tomorrow and the first home run will be hit by the home team.

The home of a hand and the minor suits of "song plucking" singers, who kept the game in the hands of the home team, will be the prominent state, city, military, naval and political personages.

THIEVES WHO ROB HANSEN HOME IN COUNTY JAIL NOW

Capture Made by Sheriff's Force Saturday Afternoon; Confess to the Crime.

Port Skutumpah and McKinley Tilton were taken into custody by the Sheriff's force when Hansen Saturday morning.

The men robbed a house near Hansen Friday night. They stripped the house of its furnishings, and also took a large amount of lumber from the building, which they brought to the city and stored near Skutumpah's house.

It was the lumber that proved the finding of the thieves. The sheriff took up the case early Saturday morning and made the capture of the men.

This is the second crime that the men committed in about a week, according to the confessions obtained by the prosecuting attorney and sheriff.

About a week ago they broke into the home of Mrs. Verle Pickett and stole a photograph and records, a trunk containing a number of articles of clothing and a black cat.

PROFITING FROM BOXING

Uncle Sam is on the trail of the boxers. The publicity seeking boxer and his manager who are wont to let the chief switch all sorts of fabulous amounts for entering the ring have never made out an income tax voucher commensurate with the amount they have been paid.

Bill Hooper, sports editor of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, writes that he has learned on splendid authority that the system has been devised at Washington.

The holding of a yacht race 5,000 feet in the air might tend to confuse into thinking a bit of some one's mind.

Writers on boxing are prone to uphold the sport as a manly and beneficial one, and to decry those persons who set forth the argument that it is a brutal and bloody sport.

The Los Angeles Athletic club will make a determined effort to secure the 1921 national championship of the Pacific Coast boxing championships.

INDIANS FEEL CONFIDENT ON EVE OF GAME

(CLEVELAND, Oct. 4 (UP))—"We will win the world series if our pitchers hold out, and I see no reason why the pitched ball that has carried us through the regular season should falter in this world series."

With every returning American pitcher from the Olympic games comes another story about the alleged incompetency of those in charge of the boys who competed for the Stars and Stripes.

There are many who believe that Mrs. "Ad" Tupperman, well known to schoolers on the Pacific coast, is the best woman in the world.

The Scoreboard

Yesterday's hero—Grover Alexander. The National League's leading pitcher beat the Cardinals in a 17-inning game, 3 to 2.

Cleveland made sure of at least a tie in the pennant race by splitting New York's double hit with the Tigers.

The Brooklyn regulars beat the Giants 4 to 3 in the first game, but a team of second string men lost the second game, 4 to 3.

COAST PIGSKIN STARS COMPETE

Football Season Gets Under Way Today With Gridiron Games on the Schedule.

(SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2 (UP))—Although a bit slow getting started, the Pacific coast football season was gaining a little momentum today.

Southern California made its start with one game scheduled, Pomona playing the University of California, Southern Branch, at Claremont.

In northern California the day's schedule was spoiled by an attack of fever or influenza, hitting the Santa Clara college squad and forcing the cancellation of the University of California-Santa Clara game set for this afternoon.

The More Island naval base team will meet the Hellekoytes instead. This will meet the St. Mary's-Santa Clara game at Palo Alto the big game of the day.

MIKE IS SURE PLEASED WITH HIS MISTAKEN IRRIGATED LAND

Read his letter to his friend Sid at Blackfoot, Idaho:
Dear Sid:
I've been thinking of you lately and especially since I harvested by crop and I wish you would send that farm of yours and come and be a neighbor once more. Why, just think, Sid, you can get four or five acres here to your one here. How would you feel with a 400 acre field 1 grain with wheat that would average to 100 bushels per acre? It only takes two years to pay for a place here and there isn't much work and worry. Let's see, you are paying about $25 per acre in interest on the deferred payments on your land, and then you have the taxes and the labor and when you come to figure up and the taxes, interest, mortgages, Sid, you can't tell how long the prices are going to stay up and if land values should tumble just a little it would sure hurt. Besides the values are so high, besides I grow just as much per acre as you do and then my land is double to you in the next few years. Why, Sid, you can't possibly double and it's doubtful if I ever get any bigger. And again I get more for my labor than you do. Sid, you can't tell how close to the big milling center, in the east. I don't want to discourage you, but I've done so much better here in my range than you do. The trouble with you is that you're not getting the right kind of crop. I don't want to discourage you, but I've done so much better here in my range than you do. The trouble with you is that you're not getting the right kind of crop. WOMAN BOARD LEADS TO A SCUM BETWEEN FRIENDS
NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—A scolding match between two women, William Morris, 21, admitted to the 4th Avenue court that had been held before Judge James Conroy, 22, late irresponsibly on information furnished him by the girls here.
"Three months ago," he said, "I met my old friend, Mrs. Morris, and she told me she had been married to my father." "That evidence doesn't go here," said the magistrate. "Not even the police department remands the girls here."

FRATERNITY IS AWARDED HONOR

Loving Cup Becomes Prize for Attaining First Place in Scholarship.

MOSCOW, Oct. 4.—Having attained for the first time the honor of being the Idaho undergraduate organization for the 1919-20 collegiate year, the Idaho chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta yesterday afternoon presented a handsome silver loving cup offered by Mrs. Elizabeth Kilday Lindley, wife of H. H. Kilday, former university president and now dean of the University of Kansas.

Mrs. Lindley announced last spring her intention to offer the cup in question, regulations made at that time providing that the trophy is to become the permanent possession of the organization which scores in three years. Every group on the campus is eligible for this honor.

Presentations of the cup was made by Dean E. M. Hulme of the college of letters and science at the close of yesterday morning's assembly. Miss Florence Bator of Idaho, president of the Kappa Alpha Theta chapter, received it on behalf of her organization.

Dr. George W. Knepper, pastor of the First Christian church of Spokane, was the principal speaker at the morning session, emphasizing the importance of Bible study to the college student, declaring that every phase of modern day activity is influenced to a very definite degree by the Book of books.

GRAIN BUT LITTLE DAMAGED. FULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 4.—Threatened rain and high winds last night were unaccompanied by any weather conditions are ideal for harvest and the only trouble is obtaining full crews, many of the transient men having left during the night.

Little damage, other than the destruction of a few stacks, was done. A few farmers report some sprouting in fall grain that was lodged and uncut and some, which had been cut and stacked, and some which had been turned to permit drying sprouted in the stack. The damage in such cases would be approximately 15 cents a bushel.

Rice which is quoted today at $2.00 and wheat at $2.04, a recovery from a low of $1.80 for wheat the day of Saturday. No selling is reported.

COMPLETE FLANK HOME IN NAMPA SHORTLY. NAMPA, Oct. 4.—The magnificent home of the local klick's last night was completed and occupied within the next hour. A wonderful growth for the lodge in providing for the necessities for membership, notwithstanding that the lodge was formally launched through the initiation of a new member the month after the lodge is to meet on Thursday night and it is probable that quite a number of candidates will be initiated at the meeting of this week.

FIREBURN BELIEVED ACTIVE. WASHINGTON BANCHES. EVERETT, Wash., Oct. 2.—What is supposed to be the police box "fire-burner" is held responsible for the destruction by fire of the allegedly "equipped" dairy barn with its contents, including this season's crop of thrashing machine, reaper and some feed contents and three filled cans owned by C. E. Wrege at Fire-burner. This is the fourth destructive fire occurring here in the past year.

TARIFF ISSUE FAR FROM DEAD

California Farmers Recognize It Is Very Much Alive as to Their Business.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—Domestic production of beans is estimated with a heavy show of confidence that "The tariff is a dead issue," and that farmers are not interested in it. It is estimated that the tariff is worth thousands of dollars through their bean crops falling in the Pacific states, and that the tariff is a very much alive issue as to their business.

In all the large bean growing districts of the state, the farmers are organizing for Harding and Coolidge, and reminding their neighbors that a complete republican victory is their only assurance of tariff protection against the ruinous competition of Japanese importations, grown with complete immunity.

They are not against the democratic administration, so far as the American bean growers are concerned, and are the full force of the tariff issue is being dealt with the Japanese growers in coming to light, the western farmers are determined to make a repetition of those two disastrous years impossible.

Despite the fact of the congressional investigation, little regarding the democratic administration's attitude toward the California tariff is being reported to the general circulation. Transcripts of the testimony now available, show these astounding facts:

"The tariff issue is 'larger' than all these shipments of Japanese beans amounting to hundreds of thousands of bushels.

"That in placing orders for the tariff strict orders for severity were given by the democratic administration. That all the time these heavy Japanese orders were being placed California bean-growers were almost to sell their crops, but were told by government bean agents that there were no other alternatives, and so the beans were being bought just then.

"That a moisture test of 16 per cent was allowed Japanese beans while only 14 per cent was allowed on previous California orders—a pecuniary of 2 per cent.

"That an official nature of the transactions involving Japanese beans is shown in the following telegram and statements read of beans at the hearing. A copy of the telegram, regarding 110,000 bush of beans from A. L. Kutner, of the Western Import company, San Francisco, sent by Kenneth B. Kimball, the former administrative appointee, reads:

"I have arranged disposition entire quantity of beans going New York tonight. Will wire explicit shipping instructions. THIS ENTIRE PLAN MUST BE KEPT ABSOLUTELY CONFIDENTIAL."

In his testimony Kimball said: "It therefore became necessary in handling these foreign beans to purchase as far as the domestic growers were concerned, should be on a quote or on a confidential basis."

In another place in Kimball's testimony the transcript reads: "I remember, Mr. Kutner's only recourse was to the San Francisco broker who plants in Japan were about 75 cents a bag on white beans, but the government agent was not to be taken in by that, and Mr. Kutner made a recommendation that the beans be sold to the government, but that Kutner did not sell the information all over the west coast because he knew that some Japanese beans, which might create some dissatisfaction, to place that order to take care of those and meet the requirements for cheaper stuff."

It was a little later in his testimony that Mr. Kimball was forced to admit that the beans were a little cheaper only because the tariff had been 'forgotten.'

There is the transcript on this point by Mr. Turner—"Now the price that you were paying Japan, the duty was paid on that, which was not the case with the American farmers, wouldn't they have cost more than was paid for the California beans?"

Mr. Kimball: "I agree with you there, if the duty was paid it would have equaled it or more."
