FANS RACE TO GET SEATS AT OPENING GAME

Philadelphia Carries Away Honors in Spirit for Bleachers at Brooklyn.

Woman Shares Honors Picking the Winner in First of Series Is About Tossup Among the Fans.

By Harold H. Jacobs, Staff Correspondent. BROOKLYN, Oct. 5.—The 1920 open baseball championship game to Philadelphia.

Woman Wins Title Pennsylvania made a clean sweep by also taking the women's title.

The first match Brooklyn in line was held at Philadelphia on the fifth place. He arrived at practically the same time as Harry Leonard and James Martin.

1,000 A. in Line When the men team in Brooklyn it disclosed about 100 fans huddled in the bleachers.

JUST BEFORE THE BATTLE; BOTH TEAMS CONFIDENT OF WINNING

WILBERT ROBINSON: "The boys are all in good condition and anxious to go. We are all confident. I know Cleveland has a good ball club, but I think we're better. We have better pitchers, a bunch of game-winning batters and fighters to boot.

BORAH PLEDGES HIMSELF TO WORK FOR HARDING'S CAUSE

MAHON, Ohio, Oct. 5.—All doubt as to treaty irreconcilables standing behind Senator Harding yielded today with publication through headquarters here of a telegram from Senator Burns of Idaho pledging himself to the senator and election to the ticket and defeat of the league of nations.

In view of reports it is true that you know my speeches in future will be along same lines as at Danburg and in the senate," Borah wrote. "I want you to win and I want to see the treaty rejected. The rest of my life I shall devote my time to the achievement of both propositions."

This demand was designed by Borah to set a red runner that he intends to desert the camp. Senator Hiram Johnson, according to his latest speeches, is working the stand of Harding on the league.

He plans to speak on the league question at Des Moines Thursday and probably will answer, indirectly, at least President Wilson's request on his speech. The republican nominee is scheduled to net speeches at St. Louis, Omaha, St. Joseph, Mo., Kansas City, Mo., and Oklahoma City.

BATTLING INDIANS REGISTER VICTORY

In the second inning, resulted from Koney's misjudgment of Burns' fly Wood's walk, a single by Sewall and a double by O'Neill. In the third, third run was cashed in the fourth, when Wood doubled and scored on another two-bagger by Steve O'Neill. The Robins' only injury came in the seventh, when Zane's chest doubled. Went to third, while Sewall was throwing out Myers and scored on an infield out by Koney. Bagby was released as Cleveland's most likely pitching selection for tomorrow's finale. For Brooklyn the choice seemed to lie between Berry Smith and Ortes.

By Henry L. Farrell, United Press Staff Correspondent.

EBBETS' PITCHING—Brooklyn's Cleveland's Indians and the Brooklyn Robins fought the first game of the 1920 world series today on a field swept by a chilly autumn wind and bathed by bright but warm-lacking sunshine. The field was in fair condition, though a little heavy in spots because of last night's rain.

Outside the park long lines of fans trailed away for blocks until the gates were thrown open and the rush for the bleachers nearly choked the stadium.

Weather is held Fortified by overcast, with turned up collars, knots of fans gathered in the big stadium, but they were cold to snuggle much, enthusiastic when Uncle Robins and his crew stepped on the field.

Big Al Mananay one of the pitching hopes of Flatbush, however, who had a substitute who took the field for batting practice. A row of lucky kids scattered about the infield and picked up the numbers and watched the ball around the bases.

Robinson headed the ninth Brooklyn crew onto the field a few moments later. Wrapped in all voluminous Speaker, came on the field at 12:40 o'clock. They were dressed in new gray uniforms with a black moiré band on the left, in memory of Ray Chapman, their late shortstop.

The Cleveland players mingled with the Robins in a general handshaking festival. Speaker and Robinson posed for the movies, as also did the Johnston brothers, "Doc" and "Jimmy," on opposing teams.

Pitchers Work Out—The battering of the game were still a matter of conjecture. Tuba Marston, depend to be Robins' favorite, broke his batting practice in a big sweater. Grimes also took his turn behind him.

While the Robins batted the Indians kept close to their dugout, peering out only on the call of a regiment of photographers.

As the Brooklyn players lined out the ball in batting practice it was evident that the wind might cause the outfielders considerable trouble. It was blowing across the field into the right garden.

The Indians took the field for batting practice at 1:15. While went to the mound, while the stands gave them a generous hand.

Jim Bagby took the pitcher's turn in the batting order but the bunch went to the mound. Blaney Coveleskie stepped right up behind him.

This Speaker took hold of one of Uhl's slants and gave the ball a ride out of the park amid great applause.

Games Open at 1:30—At 1:30 o'clock the alternating and silent crowd was given its first chance to loosen up a bit when the gates in center field opened and the New York crowd's departing band, blaring out a stirring march, marched across the field. Behind the musicians and escorted by a huge policeman who carried the New York City flag, came Mayor Hylan of New York and the various borough presidents.

At 1:36 the Brooklyn club took the field for batting practice and the first cheer of the afternoon went to Mayor Robinson batted to the infield with Krueger working at the plate. Piffner and Schmandt batted to the outfield.

The lineup:
CLEVELAND: Burns, cf.; O'Neill, ss.; Evans, if.; Marquard, 2b.; Speaker, cf.; Wood, rf.; Gardner, 2b.; Koney, 1b.; O'Neill, c.; Krueger, c.; Coveleskie, p.
THE INDIANS: Klem, National league, at plate; Connolly, American league, at first base; D'Arcy, National league, at second base; D'Arcy, American league, at third base.

Infield is "Poppy"—Marquard for Brooklyn and Coveleskie for Cleveland warmed up in front of the stands and apparently were the pitching selection.

Marquard quickly engaged in some poppy work. The outfielders ran way back in the field for the long ones but had some difficulty with the flies. Killup at first showed some excellent work around second and brought applause from the stands. The crowd gave the Cleveland athletes a rousing welcome when they took the field for practice.

The players took their places and Captain Klem called "play ball" at 2:02 p. m.

First Inning
 Cleveland—Evans up, Ball 1. It was high and inside. Strike 1, called. Foul, strike 2. Evans out, O'Neill up, strike 1. O'Neill fouled pretty. Wamby up, Foul, strike 1. Wamby bunted on the third base line. It was a beautiful attempt but Johnston waited and let it roll foul. Foul, strike 2. Wamby lined to Wheat in deep left. It was a vicious shot and Wheat made a pretty yanking catch. Speaker up, Strike 1, Foul, strike 2. Speaker fouled. The third strike was called. No runs, no errors.

Marquard worked a beautiful first inning. He was showing a fast breaking curve that obviously had Evans and the slugging Speaker puzzled. The ball struck on Speaker broke cleanly across the plate.

Brooklyn: Olson up, Olson filed to Wood on the first pitched ball. It was a slicker hopper. Johnston on strike 1 (called). Strike 2. Johnston swung so hard he threw his hat away. It was retrieved by Gardner, Johnston fan, swinging him at the hat. One. Griffith up, Griffith out, Sewall to Burns. Burns making a pretty catch of a wide throw. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Coveleskie also pitched beautifully in the opening round. He worked cool and slowly, intang a curve ball with a fast one.

Second Inning
 Cleveland: Burns up, Burns popped in front of Koney for a single and Burns scored all the way from first when Koney threw the ball past third. Gardner up, Strike 1, called. Strike 2. Ball 1. Gardner out, Olson on Knechtly. It was a snappy play. Wood, up, Ball 1, Strike 1, called. Ball 2, Strike 1, called. Ball 1. Sewell up, Strike 1, called. Ball 1. Sewell singled to right, bringing Wood to third. It was a beautiful drive over Second Base and Kilduff's head. O'Neill up, Strike 1, called. Ball 1, Strike 2. Strike 2 called. O'Neill doubled to left, scoring Wood and sending Sewall to third. Coveleskie up, Strike 1, swung, Coveleskie out to Koney unassisted and Sewell was trapped off second. Koney in Krueger to Johnston. Two runs, three hits, one error.

The wind was responsible for Cleveland's first, only Koney misjudged Burns' fly and then threw the ball away in an attempt to catch him at second.

Brooklyn: Wheat up, Ball 1. Foul, strike 1. Wheat filed to Speaker, who made a beautiful rousing catch between center and left. It was a typical Speaker play. Myers up, Strike 1, called. Myers fouled to left. Wood who made a nice catch skated the right field wall. Koney up, Koney out, Sewall to Burns. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Coveleskie was as good in the second as in the first round. He was breaking a pretty curve and pitching cool and confidently.

Third Inning
 Cleveland: Evans up, Ball 1. Ball 2. Ball 4. Evans walked, Evans walked on four pitched balls. Wamby up, Wamby sacrificed, Johnston to Koney. Evans took second. Speaker up, Strike 1. He swung hard. Strike 2, called. Ball 1. Speaker filed to Wheat. Burns up, Ball 1. Ball 2. Strike 1 called, Burns bled to Johnston and Evans was caught between second and third Johnston to Kilduff. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Marquard was very unsteady. He pitched slowly and carefully, but had much trouble getting them over. Koney and Olson cheered at him constantly to encourage him. Brooklyn: Kilduff up, Strike 1, called. Kilduff cut, Sewell to Burns on a half line decision which caused the Brooklyn players to yell. Krueger up, Ball 1. Strike 1, called. Ball 2, Strike 2, called. Ball 2. Krueger out, Gardner to Burns on an easy roller down the third base line. Marquard up, Strike 1, swung. Marquard out, Gardner to Burns. No runs, no hits, no errors.

The Indians tried to cross the Cleveland infield by laying down a bunt, but did not succeed. Coveleskie's pitcher was working perfectly and he had his hold on his prey.

Cleveland: Gardner up, Ball 1. Ball 2. Ball 3. Strike 1, called. Gardner out, Kilduff to Koney on an easy play. Wood up, Wood doubled to left center field. It was a tremendous drive that left the fence on the first bounce. Sewell up, Ball 1. Krueger went out to encourage Marquard. He slipped the big pitcher on the back. Strike 1, called. Sewell filed to Myers and Wood was held at second. O'Neill up, O'Neill swung to the ball pin to warm up for Brooklyn. Ball 2, Ball 2, Strike 1, called. O'Neill doubled to right scoring Wood. It was a vicious drive to the fence. Krueger again went out to talk over with the ball. Coveleskie up, Strike 1, Ball 1. Coveleskie out, Kilduff to Koney. One run, two hits, one error.

The Cleveland batsmen laid the wood barrel on the ball throughout the inning and kept Marquard constantly in trouble. O'Neill's double was his second in two times at bat.

Brooklyn: Olson up, Strike 1, called. Ball 1. Strike 2, called. Ball 2. Olson singled over second. It was the Ball 1. Speaker filed to Wheat. Burns up, Ball 1. Ball 1. Johnston forced out, Olson, Wamby to Sewell. Griffith singled to center, sending Johnston to second. Speaker filed his drive nicely and cut off a possible double. The crowd was on its feet howling for a rally. Wheat filed to Evans who collided with Speaker in making the catch but hung onto the ball. He limped back to his place in left field while O'Neill, Wamby and Coveleskie consulted around the rubber. Myers up, Ball 1. Myers bled to Wood. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Brooklyn had its first real chance in this inning but Wheat and Alvarez failed to come through in the pinch. Coveleskie worked steadily with men on bases and didn't seem to mind the crowd.

Fifth Inning
 Cleveland: Evans up, Evans filed to Wheat on the first pitched ball. Wood up, Strike 1, called. Ball 2. Foul, strike 2. Wamby fouled, swinging weakly at a slow one. Speaker up

Break Your Chains Be Strong and Well

Why drag along through life—half-weak and tired out all the time? You can be strong and well—full of energy and vitality—glowing with health, and thrilled with the joy of life. You can enjoy life.

Rich, healthy blood makes the whole body healthy.

Nature intended that everyone should be strong and well, and there is no mystery about Nature's laws.

Oxygen is the life giver—necessary to maintain life. REOLO absorbs oxygen from the air in the lungs and carries it into the blood—rapidly oxidizing or revitalizing the red blood cells and increasing the amount of hemoglobin in the blood, sending throughout the body a stream of rich, healthy, giving blood that nourishes and strengthens the nerves, tissues, brain and

REOLO

It is not only our duty to make the right known but to make it prevalent.—EDMUND BURKE.

THE VOTERS' GUIDE.

IT is easy for any one to explain why a change of administration is needed in Washington:

1. The present administration went into power in 1916, upon a deliberate misrepresentation in the appeal to the United States. It claimed the merit of having kept us out of war, when among of officials in Washington war was known to be inevitable.

2. Being unprepared for war the administration, in meeting the rapid expansion demanded by the war, became lavish in expenditures and wasteful in method to such a degree that needless billions of debt have been unbalanced on the people of the United States and their posterity.

3. The administration represented by Woodrow Wilson has brought back to America for its acceptance a treaty of peace, and a movement as to a League of nations, which even now by Article 10, here quoted, binds the United States to participate in all bodily struggles of all members of the League of nations.

4. "The members of the league undertake to respect and preserve against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the league. In case of any threat or danger of such aggression the council shall advise upon the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled."

5. A change of administration is needed because although war ceased in November, 1918, the present administration has maintained official war conditions, war tax measures, and war legislation, to the continued annoyance of every buying or selling citizen of the United States.

WHEN THE DEVIL WAS WELL.

G GOVERNOR JAMES M. COX, who brought smiles to the faces of his hearers during his recent California barn-storming expedition by his claims to being the only "progressive" in the field, is a recent convert to the word, according to advices from his home state received in San Francisco.

During the Cox gubernatorial campaign of 1914, when Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was alive and able to answer such claims as Cox and his running mate, Fifth Consul Frank, now make, motion picture slides were being prepared for Cox's glorification, reading "A progressive governor who does things and does them right."

Candidate Cox, fearful that this might seem to align him with the Great American, wired the motion picture producer:

"Please stop that word 'progressive,' it is taken from the 'shibboleth.' It was done, and today, six years later, the American politician and unprincipled business man are trying to lay claim to the political mantle of the great and beloved 'T. R.'"

The Dayton telegraph files, however, have misreported the story.

WHO'S CANDIDATE?

AS the only millionaire ever nominated for the presidency, Mr. Wilson's candidate for the succession is naturally desirous of portraying his less wealthy republican opponent as the subsidized puppet of multimillionaires. As the only first choice of Tammany Hall ever nominated for the presidency, Mr. Murphy's candidate is naturally desirous of diverting himself in the public mind from the Tammany losses of New York, New Jersey, Indiana and Illinois, by portraying his republican opponent as so much puffy in the hands of political conspirators, says the Boston Transcript.

As the candidate of the New York Times and the New York Evening Post, Mr. Cox is naturally desirous of making the public forget his own Wall Street affiliations by portraying Mr. Harding as the favorite of big and wicked business. These are the political plays which Candidate Cox thinks will net him the most votes.

We are all eager to see Senator Harding elected and all that is necessary to bring it about is to keep Cox on the road and let him talk.

DO YOU DESIRE TO MAKE CIDER A LEGALITY?

It is the calling of the Prohibition Enforcement Department Government to the State Manufacturer.

The prohibition enforcement department has ruled that it is permissible for any person to manufacture or to have manufactured for himself cider for use in his home from his own apples, up to a reasonable amount.

Any person may take apples in cider mill and have cider made there from for use in his own home, but not for sale.

Cider, being made by non-intoxicating in fact and not necessarily more than one-half of one per cent alcohol by volume. No permit will be necessary. Neither is a bond required.

However, if in addition, such cider is sold to the general public and for making into applejack and other alcoholic products, or for conversion into vinegar, a permit is necessary and a bond required in the sum of $1000 dollars.

Cider made for commercial purposes intended to be sold as sweet cider must be preserved at the time of manufacture, and so preserved sweet cider may be sold for conversion into vinegar, only upon the receipt of a permit in purchase.

Jerome News

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Zink attended the Burley fair last Wednesday. Mrs. Zink is visiting Jerome here.

Quite a number from Jerome are attending the state fair this week. The following club boys and girls who secured a free trip are Norris Atwood, Robert Weyerhaeuser, Thomas Bohlske, Lizette O'Hara, Allen McCabe, Edwin Adams and Emily Lewis.

Mrs. St. John of Seattle is visiting here with her daughter, Mrs. S. Foster. County Superintendent J. L. Kearney leaves today for Boise on business connected with her line of work. Her daughter, Mabel, is already in the capital city, where she is acting as secretary in the state election of the republican organization. She will remain until after the election in November.

Quite a number of our citizens are enjoying the Eden Fall trails today. There have been planned races for old and young and a great time is being had.

T. A. Walters of Caldwell, democratic candidate for governor, spoke in Jerome Thursday evening. A few of our citizens went over to hear him speak.

Sherriff E. D. White made a business trip to Hazelton early in the week. There is $120 being raised for the American Legion Adams Lake park fund.

Ernest Witt has bought the Bremer 80 two and one-fourth miles south of town on the main road. A number of the farmers in that section are combining and are going to pipe the city water, building that pipe to be shorter than putting down wells. Telephones and electricity have already been installed along this highway and with the addition of the city water it will be the living in town.

Mrs. Aycotte of Twin Falls organized a women's auxiliary of the non-partisan league here Saturday afternoon. Rev. Flanagan and W. P. Bos left on last Tuesday for Idaho to attend a meeting of the Central Idaho Baptist association.

Mrs. Adams returned to her home in Twin Falls on last Thursday after an extended visit with Mrs. J. L. Lemons.

Mrs. Turfelle of Seattle, who has been visiting relatives here, returned to her home on last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Summers and family of Eden visited friends here during the week and attended our county fair.

Mr. J. A. Johnson returned on last Thursday from his business trip into Washington.

Mrs. W. K. Henry and grandson of Salt Lake City are visiting at the W. J. E. Tucker departed on last Saturday for an extended visit with relatives and friends in Oklahoma and Kansas.

Quite a number from here are attending the state fair by Boise this week.

CALDWELL POPULATION MUCH LARGER THAN TWENTY YEARS AGO

CALDWELL, Oct. 5.—Five thousand one hundred and six, the population of this city, as announced by the census department of the federal government falls below common expectation, but does not affect adversely the spirit of the citizens who are striving for its progress. At no time within the past 10 years has the city been featured by a boom any measure, but its progress has been steady and of a sound character and its population is fast being increased within the last two years through the rapid growth of the College of Idaho, the leading educational institution of Southern Idaho. The fact that within the last six months building expending expenditures closely approaching $500,000 have been completed, are considered or are in course of completion along these lines adds to the optimistic view of the future. That is the distributing center of the most agricultural sections is also taken to be of no little import.

"ONE" SAYS AUTO DEALER: "TWINS" EMPLOYE ASSENTS

WAUKIPKAN, Ill., Oct. 5.—"Shake," smilingly declared A. C. Rice, automobile dealer at Libertyville, his employee, Frank Wilson, "and have a sign." For the better of the new baby which the store has just left at "our house," Wilson was whistling "Congratulations," replied the employee, "have two signs on me, the store has just left with at our house."

THOMPSONVILLE, Oct. 5.—Fishing for whiskey is the latest. A local man, arrested on a drunkenness charge, was locked up in company with $2000 worth of bottled goods. He couldn't reach it, but with a long wire, bent sufficiently to meet the need, started to fish through the bars of his cell. They bit well, but fell off. He finally bit the hook. Fished a big one. This morning it was found his confinement had failed to sober him.

COMBINATION SALAD SCHEME

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (UP)—At almost any garden party this fall you may see a woman in a dress of Homage, tangerine, tomato and plumage red, piped with a delicious bit of pistachio or entire grey. This vegetarian color scheme was announced by the Texas Color Card association to rule falltime America.

In choosing the shade of her new outfit, if one is conservative and not inclined to "ride the fashion colors" as many are apt to do, she may content herself with resolute blue or turquoise, porcelain or the reliable old navy blue.

EXHIBITS ARE BEING SET UP IN CITY PARK

Equipment to House Concessions Now Going Up; Additional Entertainment is Being Arranged.

Tents, tables and materials for the Harvest Home festival are being placed in the city park today. Already 20 army tents are set on their frames and one-half dozen larger tents for shows and amusements are being erected.

A merry-go-round is being placed on the grounds and all committees are at work getting together materials for the concessions.

A special arrangement has been made with the Salt Lake Costume company and a special representative of that firm is here in Twin Falls a large assortment of comic and festive costumes which will be used in the night parade and carnival.

Additional entertainment and concessions are being added to the program each day. The show is now arranging a half-dozen amusements in booths, which include Kewpie Dolls and Scatolo Dolls, Candy Machine, Eskimo and the famous "Wampus Cat".

Salvation Army is Asking for Support

The work of the Salvation Army is out for reelection for another year in Twin Falls county, and they are asking you, the citizen of Twin Falls, your vote by ballot, in order that they may serve the people in Twin Falls.

First—The Army asks for money only because it is obliged to use it in its work.

Second—The Army has never been accused of extravagance. An Army camp, which is one grade above a captain, receives thirteen dollars per week salary, out of which he buys the most, but the best clothing; this does not tend to create extravagant habits.

Third—The Army is self-sufficient. One that the Salvation Army officer never forgets, it is a part of their daily life.

Fourth—The Salvation Army officer finds real joy and happiness in serving others.

Fifth—The Salvation Army officers of Twin Falls are receiving thousands from their provincial headquarters in order to tide them over in their work until this present campaign.

Contributions to the Salvation Army Home Service Fund may be made to H. R. Oram, First National Bank of Twin Falls, or by letter, provided for in the notices sent out.

BOND ELECTION DATE CHANGED

Date Previously Set Found Illegal; New Date Fixed November 9.

The city council having discovered that the date for bond election proposed one day of legal length of time for publication, they therefore repudiated the ordinance setting Oct. 29 as election day and ordered November 9 as the new date.

They also postponed the day set for the sale of bonds and fixed Nov. 15 for the first Monday after bond election.

W. L. Johnson of the Twin Falls highway district having completed a set of regulations for the handling of traffic, the council decided to take them as a base for a new ordinance to govern such traffic.

Among the new features of the proposed ordinance was the governing of the use of headlights on automobiles, recommending that they be equipped with illuminated mirrors.

Farm wagons and barges are now required to display a light in the rear.

A bond of $5,000 was accepted from the Warren Construction company to complete the paving.

An estimate of $12,000 for completing was passed and approved. The council decided that the paving be started at once and fixed up in their agreement and instructed their city clerk that they would be required to pay the salary of a party, whom they would hire to do the work.

A warning was issued by the city council to meat buyers against buying meat that was not inspected.

The law allowed farmers to kill and sell their own meat and to sell it in their own stores.

SWEEPING VICTORY SCORED AT STATE FAIR BY HIGH SCHOOL

A sweeping victory was scored at the Idaho state fair by the stock judging team from the department of vocational agriculture in the Twin Falls high school under the direction of Warren E. Cabrera.

The lead boys, Robert Nicholson, Orel Tucker and John Owens, who composed the team, have thus brought home to the community by retaining with the silver judging trophy to the winning team as well as two first medals, placing thirteen points over the next competitor.

The team entered ranked in the following order: Tracy Hall, Donnie Blackett, Meridian, Nampa, Eagle and Boise.

As the highest individual grade of all vocational competitors, John Owens, Robert Nicholson and Orel Tucker of Twin Falls placed first, second, and fourth respectively.

Robert Nicholson was high man of the contest on dairy cattle, thus winning the first medal within the class. John Owens won a first medal for being high man in the pig contest.

Exceptional training is each day bringing its possibilities. These boys from Twin Falls are live-up-to-the-points relative to live-stock improvement and entered the contest with the confidence to show the skeptical observer that they were competent judges.

The team is now hoping that arrangements may be made for it to enter the contest at the Lewiston fair where the boys feel sure they could capture another victory and carry the Twin Falls banner to Portland.

The high school team is being should feel proud that their interests are strongly backed by the high school judging team for these boys are pushing their better excellency in being stock.

JOBS SCARCE IN CITIES WARS SALVATION ARMY

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Reports given by the employment agencies of the Salvation Army and the Knights of Columbus state that jobs in the cities are scarce and many young men in the agricultural districts to keep away. Wire reports show great falling off in the demand for unskilled labor, and as many men are found seeking jobs as there are jobs available.

ENGLAND SHOWS WEAKNESS

LONDON, Oct. 5.—England's policy of repression in Ireland is a mark of weakness, former Secretary for Ireland Lord Morley declared in a letter published here.

More denunciations reprints by the police and declared failure to work them was an admission of failure on the part of the government.

The statement of Arthur Griffiths, Sinn Fein leader, that republicans not only were condoned, but were a part of the government's policy, was denied in an official statement.
