

CLEVELAND TAKES GAME TODAY 1-

RECORD SHOWS EXACT SAYING OF PRESIDENT

Charge of Senator Spencer Seems to Have Been Based on Misinterpretation.

Report Made Public

Transcript of Plenary Session of Peace Conference Disclosed Today.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11 (UPI).—The white house today added another chapter to the controversy between President Wilson and Senator Spencer of Missouri, by making public a summary transcript of the president's remarks at the eighth plenary session of the peace conference.

Spencer charged that at this session President Wilson made a statement concerning the military aid to Siberia and Rumania, if those two countries were attacked. The president replied that Spencer's statement was "false."

"Quies President" Republican leaders and Senator Reed of Missouri, a democrat, came to Spencer's support.

Spencer quoted the president as addressing Premier Bratianu of Rumania as follows at the eighth session: "You must not forget that it is for the sake of the final guarantee of public peace, if the world is again troubled the United States will send to this side of the ocean their army and their fleet."

As quoted in the transcript given out here today the president said during the course of his remarks concerning guarantee of world peace: "How can a power like the United States, for example—for I can speak of no other—after signing this treaty, if it contains elements which they do not believe will be permanent, go three thousand miles away across the sea and report to its people that it has made a settlement of the peace of the world? It cannot do so."

And there underlies all of these transactions and expectations, on the part, for example of Rumania and Czechoslovakia and of Serbia, that if any covenant of this settlement are not observed, the United States will send her armies and her navies to see that they are observed.

No comment in Secretary Tumulty made public the transcript of the president's speech. He announced it was voluntarily sent to the president's personal stenographer, by F. A. Carlson of Chicago, the official shorthand reporter who reported proceedings of the eighth plenary session.

Tumulty's only comment was: "The letter speaks for itself."

Carlson said he had sent Spencer's remarks to the state department and gone over his notes. "I can find no such statements as alleged in the St. Louis dispatch."

The St. Louis dispatch was an account of the president's speech.

COUGHLIN BABY WAS SMOTHERED

Confession of Death of Child, Is Made by Paasquale, the Police Declare.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 11 (UPI).—Frankly Coughlin, the missing Harrisburg boy, was accidentally smothered and was later buried near Egg Harbor, N. J., by August Paasquale, who confessed to the kidnapping in the jail at Harrisburg yesterday.

Paasquale revealed the complete details of the kidnapping. Major Adams said he declared Paasquale sent for him and confessed to killing the Coughlin baby.

Paasquale told of entering the Coughlin home and placing the child under his coat while he made his getaway. Adams said. Some distance from the house he unbuttoned his coat, and found the child dead, according to Adams.

Adams declined to give out the information obtained from Paasquale relative to the exact place the baby is buried.

Captain Gearhart has been sent to that vicinity to search for the body of the missing boy, Adams stated.

MRS. PEETE TO TESTIFY SOON

Woman May Contend That Body Found in Collar Is Not That of Denton.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 11 (UPI).—Continuing her solemn-like silence, Mrs. R. C. Peete, one of the principal witnesses in the Denton murder case, resumed at her hotel here today. She promised to baro all knowledge she has of any connection with the slaying of J. C. Denton, wealthy mine owner, to the grand jury when it convenes Thursday.

Zenton, a friend of Mrs. Peete, was found slain in a house formerly occupied by Mrs. Peete. His body had been placed in a room in the cellar and the room sealed.

Mrs. Peete was not allowed to testify at the inquest here Saturday. Following the inquest, a statement was issued in which it was intimated that she would contend that the body found was not that of Denton.

Farmers Accused of Holding Crop

Head of Grain Dealers' Association Says Growers Would Force High Prices.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 11 (UPI).—That farmers are forming organizations throughout the country to force legislation to enable them to combine to hold their crops until the price offered had reached the figure they wanted was charged here today by P. E. Goodrich, president of the Grain Dealers' association, speaking before the International Grain conference.

"The next movement in this country will be an agrarian movement," said Goodrich. He declared farmers were being misled by sublimous politicians into forming organizations aimed at securing legislation which would surpress advantages obtained by labor.

"The farmers, nearer 100 per cent American than any other class, have been all overpowered that they are abused by the entire country, that..."

LEAGUE PARK, CLEVELAND, Oct. 11

Cleveland defeated Brooklyn in the sixth game of the world's series here today by a score of 1 to 0 in a thrilling pitching duel between Walter Math and Sherrod Smith and a one-run count of the series to four to two in the American leaguers' favor.

It was a thrilling game from every angle and the crowd was so big that Malle, the Indian left hander, was at the top of his speed. In spite of loose pitching by the Indians' first defencer, the left hander, Sherrod Smith, he came down with three centered hits and kept them away from the plate without a sign of trouble. When he retired Cleveland's second batter, he had pitched sixteen consecutive scoreless innings.

The lineup: BROOKLYN: Olson, ss. Sheehan, 3b. New, cf. Griffith, 1b. Myers, if. Konechky, 2b. Miller, p. Smith, p.

CLEVELAND: Wambly, 2b. Smith, cf. Hurst, 1b. Gardner, 3b. Wood, rf. Sevel, ss. O'Neill, c. Malle, p.

Umpires: Conroy, American league, at plate. O'Day, National league, at first. Dineen, American, at second. Klein, National, at third.

Brooklyn: Olson struck 1, called. It was a curve that cut the edge of the plate. Strike 2. Ball 1. Olson fled to Evans almost against the left field wall. Sheehan up. Strike 1. Strike 2. He attempted to bunt. Ball 1. Sheehan fanned, letting the third strike go through the infield corner.

Smith up. Strike 1. He swung. Strike 2. swung. Ball 1. Ball 2. Ball 3. Nels out, Wambly to Hurst. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Balls worked coolly and carefully. He showed a sharp curve and his last one had lots of smoke.

Cleveland: Evans up. Ball 1. Ball 2. Strike 1, called. Strike 2. Olson singled through Sheehan. It was a hard drive that banded off the young third baseman, "Wambly" up.

Smith up. He attempted to bunt. Evans out, stealing. Miller to Olson. He did not attempt to slide. Smith broke up a hit and run play by pitching out. Strike 2, called. Wambly fled to Nels back of first. Smith fanned. He had no chance. Speaker up. Foul, strike 1. Strike 2. Speaker lost his bat while attempting to bunt. Ball 1. Ball 2. Ball 3. Foul. Strike 2. Speaker fanned to Miller. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Smith was breaking his curve nicely so he had little trouble with his control. He was working the left field side of the plate constantly, evidently profiting by Grimes' experience with Smith yesterday.

Second inning. Brooklyn: Wheat up. Ball 1. Ball 2. Strike 1, called. Ball 3. Strike 2, called. Wheat fanned, swinging hard at the last one. Myer up. Foul, strike

ORIGIN OF MAN TALK SUBJECT

Paleontological Facts Used by Dr. Meldrum to Establish Proof of Divine Origin.

Establishing proof of the divine origin of man by means of the sciences offered in the facts of nature was the subject of Dr. Meldrum's address at the Christian church Sunday evening.

Two books contain all we know about man, according to Dr. Meldrum, who made this statement at the beginning of his discourse. They are the bible and the book of nature, the first readily enough understood, so far as it has to do with man's duty and his relations with God. The other is a greater mystery.

The results of paleontology furnished the speaker with most of the material he used in his arguments of the divine origin of man. Tracing back through the different periods of the earth's life and the various forms peculiar to each age fails to disclose any evolution of man from a lower to his present high state. The fossil remains of man are of prehistoric days by a very small amount which is exactly like the present day man, according to skeletons that have been found, but no such thing of progressive development as is usually established by paleontologists for the human race.

The human race of the tropics where the past-life apes are known to the natives, the rules tribes hold to the belief that the ape is a deformed man, thus revealing the attributes of the human race. The scientific facts that would otherwise be afforded them. There are local fossils of just this nature which need to be cared for.

"Which would you rather do?" asked Dr. Meldrum. "I would like to be in heaven, or as some teachers would have us pray, 'Our father who art in heaven, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.' Our father who art in heaven, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

STOCK CONTROL TO BE RETAINED

Dehydrating Company Refuses to Grant Option for Selling of Stock.

Refusal to grant an option of stock was voiced Saturday by the stockholders of the Twin Falls Dehydrating Company at a meeting called to discuss the matter. Jack Deane had made an offer to accept an option on at least fifty per cent of the capital stock, but the stockholders refused to consider his proposition. The operation of the plant during the fall campaign will continue for some time. The crop of apples is now being put in the bins and it will remain to keep the plant busy for several days at least. Forty tons of prunes have already undergone the dehydrating process, and apples are now receiving attention.

The company's books show that the capital stock is worth ninety-five cents on the dollar, after depreciation is allowed on plant, equipment, and machinery, according to a statement of President W. L. Priebe this morning. If the plant were given a valuation at the hands of an expert, the stock is worth one dollar and a quarter a share.

The split at Saturday's meeting which was held at the company's office, was enthusiastic. The consensus of opinion was that with a return in normal financial conditions, when money for operations would be readily secured, the chief problem of the local industry would be solved.

Republicans Open Headquarters Here

Headquarters for the county work of the republican party were opened this morning in the two rooms in the rear of the office of the Exchange Realty Co., at 112 main avenue east. Capt. C. L. Longley, a veteran of many campaigns, is in charge of the office and will have active charge of the work.

Campaign literature having bearing on some of the vital issues of the day will be distributed to those who are interested. Meetings will also be held at which speakers of local, state and national prominence will be heard.

Miss Cannon, head of the state department of agriculture, and Roy Bowers, former congressman, are expected to appear here within the near future. Other speakers who have not definitely been assigned are expected to be heard.

Captain Longley is needing about half a dozen chairs to complete the furnishings of his office and will be glad to hear from anyone who can donate them until after the election.

ASK FUNDS FOR CHARITY WORKS

Pressing Need Exists for Money to Help Local Needy Folk Through Salvation Army

A request for funds to carry on the work in the Twin Falls district is made in a plea that is being circulated by the Twin Falls corps of the Salvation Army. Attention is called to existing conditions in the town, where the social probability exceeds the ordinary citizen.

Among other things, Miss Natta calls attention to the fact that the local corps has received funds from Seattle, Wash., to carry on work that needs to be done in Twin Falls. Girls sent away are taken to the homes in Portland and Spokane where they receive care that would otherwise be afforded them. There are local cases of just this nature which need to be cared for.

There is one fact in particular that the local officers are desirous that the public take note of and that is that every penny given to the Twin Falls corps will be used in local work. Money given stays at home.

Contributions in Twin Falls will be received by H. B. Grant at the First National Bank.

ENDORSEMENT IS GIVEN TO PLAN

County Farm Bureau Gets Behind Cooperative Wheat Selling Idea.

Enthusiastic endorsement to the plan for cooperative selling of wheat grown by farmers in the Twin Falls tract was given by the Farm Bureau at a meeting Saturday called especially to consider the matter. The proposition came up for action as a result of the activities of the Northwestern Grain Growers' Association in starting to organize in the county.

The matter was fully examined by the bureau at the meeting Saturday. Plans of the new organization call for operation on almost identical lines followed by California, where four different projects of wheat and alfalfa are handled by a combination of growers and controlled by the growers. Following the presentation of plans by Bruce Langston, organizer, the vote in favor of endorsement was unanimous.

Scathing arraignment for their part in bringing the wheat price down to a level where the grower's profit money was given a board of trade operators who without ever having a grain of wheat, nevertheless have been instrumental in lowering returns almost a dollar a bushel.

A meeting is to be held this evening at Mortough where Mr. Lamson and Dr. John E. White will make talking forth the plans of the association. If seventy per cent of the wheat can be tied up in a selling agreement, the farmer will have something to say to the price he receives. At present he is the only business man in the country who receives dictation from the prices he shall pay for what he buys and accepts what the world best, irrespective for what he has to sell.

It is not only our duty to make the right known but to make it prevalent. -EDMUND BURKE.

BOLDIERS NOT FOR LEAGUE.

CAPTAIN "EDDIE" RICKENBACKER, the American Army arrived recently in San Francisco, and he had something to say about the present campaign.

"I feel it is my duty to speak for the men who give their all for their country and who unfortunately are not in position to tell their friends and comrades at home that they were willing to fight and die for America and not for countries which were not theirs and which they know nothing of."

"The men who fought in Europe are not for Mr. Wilson's league nations or for Mr. Cox's either. I know this because I have lived with hundreds of them. They do not make a fine argument on the subject but they feel deeply."

"The way they look at it is this: They went over to Europe and fought for their country—that is—the United States. I do not believe that any one of them ever thought one that he was fighting to set up a league of nations or to help establish a United States of the World. I know that Mr. Wilson and Mr. Cox say they do not. I do not think that these gentlemen realize what the fighting was fought for or the result."

"I do not know a single man in the A. E. F. who thinks we ought to talk on the Cox-Wilson league, especially the obligations in Article X. Every one of them would like to fight for the United States again but none of them would fight for the purpose of fixing the boundaries of some country in the Balkans or Asia or Africa. They really don't care how England and France and Spain divide up the land around the Mediterranean or who gets what part of it. If you ask them they will tell you that is European business and not American."

"They realized enough in Europe to know that the European countries are looking out for themselves and not for us and that all of them think of their own interests first. So they feel it is best for America to look out for Americans and not sign any contract with the league of nations; to settle other people's quarrels before we look after troubles of our own."

FIRE APPARATUS COULDN'T WORK NEW AT JEROME FOR 8 MONTHS

Motor-Driven Outfit Takes Place of Antiquated Equipment in Northside Town.

JEROME, Oct. 11.—Jerome's new triple-combination motor driven fire apparatus ordered by the city council eight months ago, has finally arrived and is now in commission. This machine arrived several days ago and, since then, has been out and George S. Kenley, a demonstrator from the manufacturing company at Elkhart, Ind., has been instructing members of the local fire department in handling it.

The machine is the American-Lorain type and is capable of making an official run and test was carried out before the mayor, city council, members of the department and a number of citizens. From out of town, Chief Jack Hutchinson of the Elkhart fire department was also present and was also Town Marshal L. D. Allen and J. E. Minsor of Elkhart, representing the citizens of that town who are interested in the subject of fire fighting machinery.

The test of the pump of the equipment was made at the surface tank of the Jerome Water Works company at the wells in the east part of town. The pump is capable of throwing ten streams of water at the same time and two lines of hose were fastened and arranged to connect with results as follows:

The nozzles were one inch and one and one-half inches respectively. With a nozzle pressure of 25 pounds the one-inch nozzle showed a nozzle pressure of 165 pounds and a discharge of 365 gallons a minute; the one and one-half inch nozzle showed a nozzle pressure of 90 pounds and a discharge of 255 gallons a minute.

Three other tests showing the power and capabilities of the machine were made and all were highly satisfactory. Following the tests the city council met and accepted the machine. During the run the machine carried members of the city council, fire department and as many citizens as could find room to see it and it made plenty fast enough time for the most fastidious ones even on the dirt streets to say nothing of the paved ones.

The installation of this machine marks an epoch in the progress of Jerome as it is the first of its kind long looked forward to by members of the department, some of whom are charter members of the local organization. Boards of trustees under the village and later the city council have wrestled with the proposition and scribbled over the inadequate and antiquated equipment and are now much relieved that up-to-date equipment has been made possible.

It is considered by the city council that the installation of this machine marks an epoch in the progress of Jerome as it is the first of its kind long looked forward to by members of the department, some of whom are charter members of the local organization.

RECORD SHOWS EXACT SHOWING OF PRESIDENT

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 11 (UP).—Standing by his original declaration that President Wilson rammed bananas and Serbia military protection at the eighth plenary session of the peace conference, Senator Stephen P. Spencer, in a statement today declared there is no difference in substance between the report of the senator made public by the president and the official stenographic report from which he quoted.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 11 (UP).—The transcript of President Wilson's speech at the eighth plenary session of the peace conference was made by Fred A. Carlson, Chicago, shorthand reporter. Carlson sent the transcript of his shorthand notes to the question when he read of the controversy between Wilson and Senator Spencer regarding sending of troops to Rumania and Serbia.

Carlson said he reported the proceedings in full and was the only shorthand reporter present. He said the official reporter for the senate submitted an amended transcript.

Carlson was a doublet and was on the floor of the senate.

MIKE IS PLEASED WITH HIS MOUNTAIN IRRIGATED LAND

Read his letter to his friend Sid at Hazelton, Idaho:

I've been thinking of you lately and especially since I harvested by crop of alfalfa. It is the best I have had for years and come and be a neighbor some more. Why, just think, Sid, you can get four or five acres here with your own money. How would you feel with a 400 acre field of alfalfa that would average 40 bushels per acre? It only takes two years to pay for it, and later on when you get so much work and worry. Let's see, you are paying about $30 per acre in value in the deferred payments on your alfalfa, and later on when you get the labor and when you come to figure it all out the two hundred and thirty dollars, you can't tell how much you are getting for it, and if you had values should think just a little it would be worth the money you are paying for it, and the deferred payments on your alfalfa, and later on when you get so much work and worry. Let's see, you are paying about $30 per acre in value in the deferred payments on your alfalfa, and later on when you get the labor and when you come to figure it all out the two hundred and thirty dollars, you can't tell how much you are getting for it, and if you had values should think just a little it would be worth the money you are paying for it, and the deferred payments on your alfalfa, and later on when you get so much work and worry. PLAYERS WILL GAIN REWARDS

Each Man Will Share in Profits Gained From the World's Series.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 11 (AP).—With the five world series games completed in which players of the contending teams share proceeds, the amount to be added to each player's bank balance became known today. If Cleveland wins the world series, each player will receive approximately $12,225, while if the Dodgers are victors, each player will be paid $12,225. The discrepancy is due to the fact that 27 Brooklyn players share the money, while there are only 25 Clevelanders. The loser's share for each Clevelander would be $2,225 and for each Robin $2,537.

CLEVELAND WINS TODAY'S GAME

Matta was as cool as a cucumber and took his time with every delivery. With the count three and one on Smith he showed his nerve by curving two across the plate and Smith threw his bat away in disgust.

Cleveland: Evans up, Strike 1, called. Ball 1. Paul, strike 2. Sewell lined a sharp single to left. Miller to O'Neil up, stealing. Miller to Olson, when Smith broke up a hit and run play by pitching out.

O'Neil threw his bat and called for a strike. Strike 1. Ball 1. O'Neil out. Nidoff to Koney. Pete fell as he took O'Neil's roller but climbed to his feet in time to make a sacrifice.

Ball 1, Ball 2. Strike 1, called. Matta out, Sheehan to Koney. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Both pitchers were working fine machines and the game seemed to have settled down to an old fashioned pitcher's duel. Smith was by Miller and Smith broke up a Cleveland hit and run play for the second time.

Brooklyn: Nels up, Ball 1. Ball 2. Ball 3. Nels walked on four straight balls and O'Neil went out to talk with the "duster." Wheat up, Paul, strike 1. Back attempted to hit down the third base line. Strike 2, waving. O'Neil caught Nels off first by a snappy throw to Burns. Strike 2 on Wheat. Paul, Wheat out, Sewell to Burns, on a sparkling stop by the catcher. The throw was low and Burns dug it out of the dirt a second before Burns crossed the base.

Ball 1. Strike 1. Called. Myers out on another pretty play. Sewell taking his grounder behind second base and pitcher hit out by hitting a second. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Cleveland: Evans up, Strike 1, called. Ball 1. Ball 2. Evans popped to Koney who backed him short right to make the catch. Wambly to Burns out, Olson to Koney on an easy play. Speaker up, Strike 1, called. Speaker hit a double to left. The crowd came to its feet begging Burns for a hit. Burns up, Ball 1. Burns doubled to left, scoring Speaker with the first run of the game and the first of Smith in fifteen innings of the present series. The crowd went crazy with delight. Gardner up, Gardner hit out by hitting a second. No runs, no hits, no errors.

'Burns' double was a tremendous hit between Wheat and Myers which banked close to the left field and at goal bounced into the stand. The crowd gave him an uproarious ovation when he went to first base at the end of the inning.

Brooklyn: Koney up, Koney out. Wambly to Burns on an easy roller. Kilduff up, Kilduff hit out by reaching the ball and showed it to Connolly, who threw it out of the game and substituted another. Strike 1, called on Kilduff. Strike 2, waving. Ball 1. Kilduff fanned. O'Neil dropped the ball and threw him out to Burns. Ball 1. Miller up, Ball 1. Miller flied to Evans. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Matta was working easily. His curve was breaking sharply and his fast one was keeping wickedly.

Cleveland: Wood up. As the last half of the seventh started big drops of rain began to fall though the sun was shining. Wood up, Strike 1, called. Ball 1. Ball 2. Wood sent a long high fly to Myers. Sewell up, Ball 1. Sewell out, strike to Koney sacrifice way.

Ball 1. O'Neil up, Ball 2. Ball 3. O'Neil was busy at the decision and walked around and straddled back to the box while the crowd booed. Strike 1, called. O'Neil knocked a long roller into the left field stands. Foul, strike 2. O'Neil out, Sheehan to Koney. No runs, no hits, no errors.

The rain apparently didn't mean it seriously and the big drops stopped almost immediately. Smith was back in form and pitching as beautifully as ever.

Brooklyn: Smith up, Smith out.

Gardner to Burns, on an easy roller. Olson up, Olson draws a vicious double to the far corner of left field. The crowd groaned. Sheehan up, Sheehan popped to Gardner. It was a feebly attempt. He reached for a bad ball to hit. Krueger batted for Nels. Krueger up, Paul, strike 1. Krueger hit to Gardner who tagged Olson on the line as he came into the field. No runs, one hit, no errors.

This was Brooklyn's big chance but Sheehan and Krueger were not equal in it.

Cleveland: Griffith now playing eighth field for Brooklyn. Matta tied Smith's record in the eighth, having pitched fifteen consecutive scoreless innings in the series. Matta up, Ball 1. Smith kicked on Connolly's decision and walked to the plate to tell it to the umpire. Strike 1, called. Strike 1, swinging. Ball 1. Matta fanned, swinging hard at the last one.

EYES OF SPORTING WORLD ARE FIXED ON GREAT RACE EVENT

WINDSOR, Ontario, Oct. 21 (AP).—Eyes of the horseracing world turned here today on the eve of what is expected to be the greatest horse racing event in history. Two of the world's fastest race horses will thunder over the track here tomorrow with the thoroughbred championship of North America.

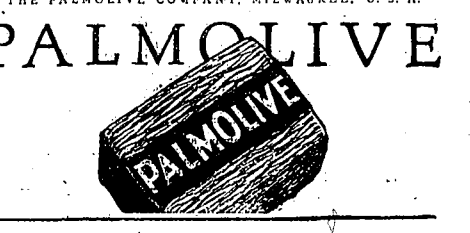

Southworth track, one of Canada's newest and best equipped courses, has been especially enlarged to handle the crowd expected. The race for a purse of $25,000 and a gold cup valued at $5,000. Man of War, owned by Samuel Hilditch of Philadelphia, is the American entry. Sir Barton, owned by J. K. J. Ross of Montreal, is the Canadian. Man of War is a three-year-old and has been beaten but once in 19 starts and in two years of racing has earned $175,000. Sir Barton is a four-year-old. His gross earnings last season were $50,000. Both seasons are Kentucky bred. Man of War is a five-in-one favorite. Man of War will be ridden by Clarence Kammer. Earle Sande will be jockey.

Records and more records went into the record. There was a series of "first happenings" that shocked the crowd for almost half a trace.

Beautifying with soap and water

HERE is a way to make washing your face an actual beauty treatment. It will keep your complexion smooth and soft. You must use Palmolive soap, because of its soothing mildness. You must massage the creamy Palmolive lather gently but thoroughly into your skin, so that it penetrates every tiny pore. Then, when you rinse this lather off, all clogged-up dirt, oil secretions and dried perspiration come with it. Your skin will be clean—thoroughly, healthfully clean, with no poisonous accumulations left to cause ugly blackheads and disfiguring pimples. Dry skins also need Palmolive Cold Cream, often before as well as after washing. This supplements the lack of natural oil and keeps the treasure skin smooth. You couldn't risk such thorough cleansing with ordinary soap. There would be danger of irritation. But the bland, creamy lather of THE PALMOLIVE COMPANY, MILWAUKEE, U. S. A.
