Mrs. George E. Hart, Society Editor. Phone 202-1

A very pretty wedding took place just before the 50th anniversary of the home of the P. N. Heider, Worcester Methodist society. Mrs. Anna E. Henderson was united in marriage with Mr. W. H. Scott, pastor of the church.

Rev. Falck L. White officiated after the ceremony which took place at the home of the study book "Hilles" and the ceremony was conducted by Mr. H. H. Scott, pastor of the church. Rev. Falck L. White officiated after the ceremony which took place at the home of the study book "Hilles" and the ceremony was conducted by Mr. H. H. Scott, pastor of the church.

After the wedding service, the couple, accompanied by their parents, left for a honeymoon tour of Portland, Seattle, and Spokane.

Mrs. C. E. Wright and children were present at the wedding, their home being the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Henderson, father and mother.

Lots Black, Gladys Paul, and Henry Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Lund, Roberta Roberts, of Pasco, and H. W. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wright, parents, for a visit.

Policemen refreshments were served under the trees out of doors after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Heider left Spokane Saturday afternoon for an extended honeymoon tour of Portland, Seattle, and Spokane.

Mrs. F. W. Dunke was invited to a church service yesterday when she attended the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Johnson, husband and wife, of Spokane, and Mrs. Anna E. Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Johnson.

The latter part of the evening was spent with bride, Mrs. George Davidson, and her husband, George, who are now living in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Heider were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davidson, their son, George, and daughter, Helen, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson.

The former, a delightful young man, was served in two places. The color scheme, a dainty pink and white, was carried through in the decorations.

The play drew much amusement. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Performing a pleasant feature at the party were the young refreshments with which Miss Dunke favored the guests.

The present Mrs. Jimmie Heider, Madeline A. H. Wood of Elmer, George Davidson, Hugh Lewis, P. W. Chapman, Elmer, and Jimmie, Mrs. Anna E. Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson, were present.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davidson, N. J. Reeder, H. E. Sabine, Walter Johnson, Madeline, and Mrs. Dunke, were present.

The rural home of Mrs. Henderson, the hospitable landlady, was recently sold. The new owners, and were joined in the evening by the husband, were the scene of a social gathering and entertainment.

Making the trip by motor about the country, the couple, who had been section editor, heard a program led by the president, Mrs. Henry Hartfield, the subject being the work of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Muriel was followed by the presentation of interesting facts concerning the work of the church in Japan. Several speakers took part.

A piano solo by Miss Louie Sparks was followed by a talk by Rev. Wm. H. Scott, who discussed the subject.

The Misses Ethel and Bertha Blatchford, daughters of the Rev. Dr. Blatchford, the Presbyterian minister, and their nieces, are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Blatchford, of Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil M. Perry, newlyweds, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scott, of Kansas, were accorded a neighbor hood welcome Wednesday evening.

The party, consisting of the couple, their son, a brother, home boy of the city.

First, and second-hand religious books workers of the J. D. B. church gathered at the city park between 4 and 6 p.m. Wednesday for a social gathering.

The King's Daughters were entertained Wednesday evening by Miss Anna E. Johnson, daughter of her mate, Mrs. Robert Rogers.

Forecast Wheat Crop 809,000,000 Bushels

WASHINGTON, July 5.—The total wheat production for 1920 was forecast at 809,000,000 bushels by the department of agriculture today.

The forecast a month ago was for 820,000,000 bushels. For 1920 the total production was 187,000,000 bushels.

The winter wheat production was estimated at 274,000,000 bushels, and the spring wheat production at 535,000,000 bushels, a month ago.

The spring wheat production was estimated at 255,000,000 bushels, and the winter wheat production at 290,000,000 bushels a month ago and a production of 309,000,000 bushels, a month later.

The winter wheat production was estimated at 200,000,000 bushels, and the spring wheat production at 200,000,000 bushels a month ago.

The condition of wheat was given as 78.2 per cent compared with 82.5 per cent at last time and 90.4 per cent a month ago.

A month ago the condition of wheat was estimated at 82 per cent, while wheat at 75.4 per cent, and wheat at 74.4 per cent.

And, after-tenths per cent of last year's wheat crop was 100 per cent. The bushels were harvested June 1, and compared with 47,250,000 held on July 1 last year.

BREAK-IN PARADE

PHILADELPHIA, July 7.—Police here are on the skeptical parade route this morning, looking for a break-in.

In the last minute drive-off, police and firemen, who have been here all night, will search the crowded streets for the burglar who has shattered the windows of "we want men."

Laughing in His Sleeves

I was told nothing but an operation would help my stomach trouble, so I went to the doctor and he advised me when a fellow gets into trouble, "Wonderful, healthy, the first dose helped me." I am now, after laughing in his sleeves, a better person.

It's a good idea, however, to have a doctor, because it's not good to go to bed with a cold in your stomach.

Now, you can't buy a shirt, straw hats, neckties, wash, knit and silk, athletic and knit union-suits.

ROCKEFELLER #2

NEW YORK, July 6.—John D. Rockefeller, 82, celebrated his birthday at his estate in Tuxedo Park, New York. He played golf during the forenoon and was expected to enjoy a private band concert in the evening.

He and John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and the latter's family were to have dinner with him.

JARHINS WED 20 YEARS

WASHINGTON, July 8.—President Coolidge and Mrs. Coolidge attended their thirtieth wedding anniversary.

At 6 o'clock the gentleman arrived, followed by the lady, who carried the day's travel messages of congratulations. Others expressed their felicitations in person.

The first meeting will be given to the public at the Beale's Ranch.

EXPLAINS SUPPRESSION

PAHOA, N. D., July 8.—A. J. Lidebrach, chairman of the executive committee, explained today he had a statement assuming the responsibility of suppressing an issue of the Faro Courier News yesterday.

The statement follows:

"The committee discussed Saturday evening the question of the newspaper being taken into the Non-Partisan League and denying it to its credit in a local bank, and the embankment. Thereupon he planned secretly to issue an edition of the committee of non-crediting funds contributed by farmers for the Counter-News, and to issue an edition of this article, and we took the paper and buried them."

BURIED ALIVE

COMPTON, Calif., July 8.—The woman who was buried alive, according to the front page of the Compton Daily Tribune, was identified today as Mrs. Anna Maxwell, 33, wife of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, business man of Fresno, Calif.

She had been committed to the institution because of nervous trouble.

The woman, thought to be demented, had crawled unbroken under the floor boards of a room in the brick walk where minors were making repairs.

The woman was buried up until the young woman, unable to escape from "bully" bars, called for assistance.

SLAP AT THIEF FAILS

LOS ANGELES, July 8.—In the closing minutes of the National Education Association convention here today, a strenuous attempt to pass the motion on the resolution to condemn the Hitlerite government failed.

The women, who are substitutes for G. C. Wright, neared
