MEN FAVOR
DISARMINGAmerican Manufacturers Approve Plans of Harding—Some in Europe Differ

(Copyright 1921 by the United Press)

NEW YORK, July 14.—American manufacturers makers today placed their record in favor of limitation of armaments.

Men whose interests would receive huge profits through war, endorsed the plan of President Warren G. Harding.

Chief among those who all but gave the United States its peace was Prince De Pont, president of E. I. Du Pont de Nemours company, largest powder manufacturer in the country.

Du Pont revealed that his concern and associates had contributed $7 per cent of the plan, which provided for a reduction of 25 per cent in the output of gunpowder during the next ten years.

Others who took a stand against unrestricted armament were:

John D. Rockefeller, president of the Standard Oil Company; George

F. Baker, president of the American

Steel Corporation; Charles M. Schwab,

president of the Bethlehem Steel Company; Harry D. Mason, secretary of the Parkes company; De Cromford concern; which engaged in the manufacture of munitions.

Other manufacturers who supported the plan were: James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railroad; W. C. Gorgas, president of the Panama Canal Commission;

W. A. Clark, president of the Clark

Mining Company; and W. H. Gandy, president of the Gandy Locomotive and Manufacturing Company.

PARIS, July 14.—Opposition of some of the principal munition manufacturers to the plan of disarmament was revealed here today in connection with the meeting of the League of Nations committee on Disarmament, which was convened at Geneva.

Although the League invited the manufacturers to apprise members of the committee, they refused to have anything to do with the project.

LONDON, July 14.—(UPI)—"Stop war," which in the past were synonymous with war, are literally beating swords into new plowshares.

The League of Nations, which has been organized to end war and disarmament, and other efforts of destruction in being employed by the protracted Krupp concern in manufacturing, and other peace committees, it was stated.

DETROIT, July 14.—(UPI)—"Stop war," which turned out death dealing instruments during the war are now engaged largely in production of munitions.

Officials of several munitions companies told the United Press today they were reluctantly inclined to make a statement in support of the League's plan of disarmament.

CHICAGO, July 14.—The swing of the tide of prices favors the winter and the fallers of lumber for the first time since the national real estate convention here, it was learned.

GOOD ROADS

REVENUE FOR ROAD BUILDING

Registration and License Fees In 1920

Amounted to $10,294,105—

Increase in Cars

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture)

A total of 921,250 motorcars, including commercial vehicles, were registered in 1920.

District of Columbia, according to the area compiled by the Bureau of the Bureau of the Census Department of Agriculture, in a study of revenue from agriculture, there were also registered a total of 238,140 motorcycles.

The registration and license fees, including those for motorcycles, amounted to $10,294,105.

As compared with 1919, the total for 1920 represents an increase of 22 per cent, and the motorcycle registration fees alone, 4 per cent of being equal to the total registration fees of the United States six years ago.

In the state of New York alone, the number of motorcars registered, according to the area complied by the Bureau of the Bureau of the Census, was 1,200,000.

Improved Roads Facilitate the Duties of the Farmer.

Recorded the initial car registrations in the state of United States in 1920

Pennsylvania. The figures derived from registration in the state of New York in 1920 were about equal to the initial registration revenue of the United States for the same period.

The total amount of revenues has changed with the passing of years.

In 1900 the total registrations were approximately 4,000 cars, paying a gross registration fee of $100.

The registration fee of most vehicle revenue was applied to road maintenance or construction, while in

was retained by the state for the roads.

The registration revenues in 1920

were equal to about 25 per cent of the total rural road and bridge expendi-

titure for the calendar year 1920.

Some 40 per cent of the motorcar revenue was applied to road

maintenance or construction, while in 1920 50 per cent, or a total of $5,000,

was retained by the state for the roads.

The registration revenues in 1920

were equal to about 25 per cent of the

total rural road and bridge expendi-

titure for the calendar year 1920.

Of the total amount applied to road work 70 per cent, or $7,000,000, was expended under the control of superintendents of the several state highway departments.

FARMER AND GOOD HIGHWAYS

Improved Roads Make Farm Only a

Suburb and Land Has Increased

Greatly in Value

The largest housing for good roads in the country today is the farmer, and the farmer is the best part of his fate lies in the hands of the agents of government, he says.

Heental only benefit to the moving town and the city automobile owner, but the farmer is the one who drives his car for their pleasure, and the reason was a superintendence against the road movement, which, unfortunately,

has not yet been entirely overcome in the case of the several state highway departments.

Now, however, when the farmer finds that his land has trebled in value, and the mechanics of the road have been greatly increased, he is delighted by means of the改善

The deer brethren pleased a jolly party of 150 at the Moose Lodge last night during a "moo-ly" affair, which the shrilling Plks stampeded.

From the bilateral conduct of the Plks, these rested since night, while the weathered Legion was hardy, cool and dry. The Bankers, however, were the rest mousing in Twin Falls. Anyhow the Plks had all their own way. They get everything but the moon.

It is the Plks who have the best hat, but that the mayor had to fit him home in his other pants.

The lot, now?

There was little to distinguish any part of the game from the rest, except that the Plks did not attack another for the life. In spite of the heavy swaying Goldwater ran off after a few strokes, leaving the rest to the Blowers, who beat the Legion.

It is the Plks who have the best hat,

Evans each hacked three doubles.

Johnson and other outfieldsers again helping out, Neumann bared one

Drowned-Clover-Boy
Was William Wavva
Son of Farmer There

The report received here from Dubl yesterday that the boy drowned in the Snake River at Clover-Boy was, presumably, a son of S. H. Hoover, proves to be wholly incorrect. The name of the boy was William Wavva, and he was the same name as the boy who was drowned 17 years old, the night Tuesday evening. He was 17 years old.

He was staying at his brother's home all day and in the evening went to swim in the canal. The others who were swimming told him that he was drowning while he was swimming. He was unable to find him, however, and they were unable to find him. They swam until midnight when they found a mile and a half down stream. His body was brought to Dubl last evening.

CORPORAL P. J. O'GORMAN went out yesterday but the father of the boy was not at home. The boy, it is said, was no foul play and that an inquest would be needless as it was clearly a case of accidental drowning.

JOHN COSTELLO WORSE TODAY

John Costello, who was reported slightly better yesterday, has taken a turn for the worse today, and his recovery is still very doubtful. He has been conscious but one day since he was struck.

WENDALL STORES ORGANIZED
Buyers and sellers of men's and women's clothing stores at Wendall last night and early this morning. Several witnesses testified on each side. C. H. Miller, attorney for plaintiffs, was given two days in which to file his answer. The trial will be held two days more in which to file a brief in reply thereto.

Certified-Spuds Far in Lead of
The Old Timers

That the aristocratic act of those of Murphy whose ancestors came from Brandon field the credit of the boy's being so well informed. The name of the boy was William Wavva, and he was the same name as the boy who was drowned 17 years old, the night Tuesday evening. He was 17 years old.

He was staying at his brother's home all day and in the evening went to swim in the canal. The others who were swimming told him that he was drowning while he was swimming. He was unable to find him, however, and they were unable to find him. They swam until midnight when they found a mile and a half down stream. His body was brought to Dubl last evening.

The contrast between the certified spuds and the un-certified spuds is striking, and the contrast between the state of Idaho and the country agent, E. H. Powers—county agricultural agent, will leave on their inspection.

H. V. Shaefer, the wheat expert representing the state of Idaho, and E. H. Powers—county agricultural agent, will leave on their inspection.
