

TWIN FALLS DAILY TIMES

VOLUME 4 NUMBER 275.

TWIN FALLS, IDAHO, TUESDAY, MARCH 7, 1922.

OLD VOL XIII - NO 65

RARE MEN GET HIGHER WAGE THAN OTHERS

Twenty-Nine Western States
With 4327 Industries Get Low-Wage Than Railroad Men; Cost of Living Decreased 2.3 Per Cent Since 1920—Decreases Asked by Employers.

CHICAGO, March 7.—Railroad employees in the West, who work in other industries, are getting greater wages than the railroad men. In 4327 industries in 29 western states and territories, the average wage for nonsupervisory employees, Illinois, who represented 101 western railroads, stated.

He submitted a statement of wage rates for 1921 which showed he now has more than 80 per cent of employees in other industries in Arkansas, Arizona, Kentucky, Michigan, Montana, New Mexico, Oregon, Texas, Washington, and Wyoming.

Eighty to ninety per cent of employees in Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, Texas, Utah, and Wisconsin receive less than railroad men, according to the survey, while in South Dakota, fifty-five per cent of the employees are paid less than railroad men.

Colorado, Illinois, Missouri, New Mexico and Washington.

"Male's Wage Is Less."

In Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, North Dakota and Oklahoma, forty-six per cent of nonsupervisory employees in 101 industries receive less than railroad men, according to the survey, while in South Dakota, fifty-five per cent of the employees are paid less than railroad men.

"Cost of Living Dropped."

He submitted figures tending to show that the cost of living has fallen 2.3 per cent since the price reached its peak in 1920.

Higginson supported the request for wage decreases by the western railroads.

Employers paid an hourly basic wage ranging from four cents to 70 cents an hour.

For farm and common laborers, in mines, mills, lumber camps, quarries, around shop, station and platform employes, wages requested to pay prevailing rates in territory employed.

New rates for inexperienced clerks based upon the length of service, were proposed, ranging from $100 to $150 per month.

For drawbridge tenders and canal-boat drivers, rates in territory em- ployed.

$600 FOR TWO STARTS.

GRAND COUNCIL OF THE AMERICAN BEET SUGAR COMPANY, based in Twin Falls, sold sugar, $600. An envelope copy of the "one-cent stamp" issued in 1920, brought $600.

For drawbridge tenders and canal-boat drivers, rates in territory em- ployed.

COLORADO BEET SUGAR COMPANY OFFERS $5000 STAMP.

DENVER, March 7.—Whether Colorado will be the first state to put a stamp on the declaration of growers in the beet sugar districts to tally actual production and to determine the market price of sugar, was decided yesterday.

Groves have threatened to abandon beet fields and destroy the land in those crops if the market price of sugar does not increase to at least one-half dollar before state's sugar industry.

Six People Killed In Big Tornado

JAMES B. C. MORSE, Twin Falls personnel were killed and about 40 injured by a tornado and rainstorm which swept the western portion of the state early yesterday. No official reports reached here this afternoon.

Six dead and 26 injured were reported at Warrenville.

Twenty-four reported injured at Sulphur.

Property damage will run high.

Both Warrenville and Sulphur are entire towns.

Twenty houses were reported destroyed at Warrenville and ten at Sulphur.

Wire communication was destroyed.

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on a hill at Sulphur was blown intact 200 yards and sat down on the porch of a house.

The door was not damaged.

The dead are:

Dorothy Wood, 14; Fred Horner, 12; Dolly Mitchell, 12; Mrs. L. Manday, 40; Mrs. A. Boyd, 40; Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 40, were reported injured, but were not expected to live.

and God supplies have been dispatched to the two towns.

Several injured, rushed home from Warrenville, are being treated in hospitals.

Mark stories of miraculous escapes and storm freaks were told here by injured.

A small garage located on

AMERICAN FALLS APPROPRIATION IS GIVEN EXPLANATION

HONOR ROLL FOR HIGH SCHOOL IS ANNOUNCED TODAY

The following is the high school honor roll for the school period just closed, announced today by Principal A. E. Kroll:

Kate Avote, Alice Baker, Mary Ethel Heunzel, Violet Holzeman, Leona Johnson, Marion J. Jones, Helen Williams.

Horace L. Johnson, John D. Bowes, Alvin Dene, Alice Henn, Clio De Weit, Jean Dunkelacker, Ruth Farnum, Charles H. Gandy, John Gandy, John McArthur, Louise Green, Wallace H. Hargrave, John H. Hart, Harold Hinman, Bertie Johnson, Bertie Sparks, Una Stanford, Emma White, Dorothy Wellner, Melvin White, George Winters, Winchell, Merle Jameson.

Stephanies:

Netta Amdahl, Geline Asulin, Ida

Mariah Farmer, Irie Lexington, Kaitlin

Leigh Layne, Vay Glass, Kaitlin

McKee, Ethel May, Mary

Audra Heel, Jack Heschler, Viola

Hieck, Edgardo Huettfert, Delmar

Jones, Freda Kress, Bert

Freshman:

Mary Adams, Robert Anderson,

Adeline Eldred, Leona Ellsworth,

Elmer Hammons, Jim Harlan,

John H. Hart, John H. Hart,

Janet Jackson, Anna Mae

Sorenson, Lona Gerlach, Jaraman,

Edna Gerlach, Ruth Gerlach,

Merle Gerlach