Watch your step is an old saying but it is just half as important as "watch your tongue."

Stonewall Jackson's dying words were, "Let us cross over the river and rest under the shade of the trees."

Our young people should remember that, "If a man employs his purse into his head no man can take it away from him."

Toll rates through the Panama canal approximate $1000 per hour. We would like to own the canal for a few hours at least.

France has admitted the claim of the United States to a part in the costs of maintaining the army of occupation along the Rhine. The French ambassador expressed regret that the American troops had been withdrawn.

Of forty-five cities listed, Birmingham has the lowest per capita municipal expenditure, city government in Birmingham, costs, annually, $143 for each inhabitant of the city, reading, 12,282, has the next lowest per capita, $13.99, and Scranton, Pa., third from the bottom of the list, $17.15. Who will tell us where Twin Falls ranks in this list.

Did you notice the new list of splendid books received at the Twin Falls public library as published in this paper last evening? If you haven't anything good to read call at the library and look this list over, and if these do not appeal to you ask the librarian for something good to read.

The spelling contest which was held last evening in the Twin Falls high school will accomplish much good. It does not matter so much who won the rash prizes—but the large number of young people who have been thus inspired to become better spellers is indeed gratifying. Asher J. Wilson is to be congratulated for spending a part of his money in this fashion.

Many people of this community will regret to hear that the Catholic Sisters have planned to give up the La Merced hospital. Those who have taken treatment there have praised the service rendered in a most remarkable fashion. It has been suggested that the Sisters might be able to manage the county hospital to good advantage. At least those favoring such a plan argue that it would relieve the county of a great burden.

Few farmers and business men in this community sense fully the real value of the sugar factory located on the Twin Falls tract. This factory distributed in this community last fall about $700,000. This helped to relieve the business depression which has been felt here for some months to a considerable degree. Such an amount released this fall will be well spent greatly in this community. This same company pays into the coffers of our county treasury about sixty thousand dollars in taxes each year. If the county should lose this tax the loss would be felt keenly by the balance of us. If the city of Twin Falls should lose this big payroll it would be felt very keenly. Will you do something to actually prevent this loss?

The citizens of Twin Falls have a serious problem confronting them. It is the selection of proper men or women to run the government of this city. There will be plenty of candidates regardless of the real merit in the new form of government, but the great question is to get the proper men to accept the responsibility of those places of trust. Our taxes are dependent largely on the ability of those men as business managers and we will entrust to their care the financial budget of this city. If we select men who are business failures in their own particular calling how can we expect them to handle the city's affairs successfully? Let's do some thinking and then do some work to get these better citizens to accept this responsibility. The trouble is generally that we do not devote enough time and attention to these civic problems and they go by default more or less.

SUGAR BEETS WARMLY URGED BY COMMITTEE

Executive Heads of Farm Bureau, Farmers' Advertisers and Friends of Twin Falls County, Idaho, Urge Farmers to Adopt This Form of Diversification

Sugar beets are strongly recommended in resolutions adopted by the executive heads of the Farm Bureau, Farmers' Advertisers and Friends of Twin Falls County, Idaho, which were made public today, in which their value as a crop is set forth and the need of diversification is urged.

The resolutions, adopted at a meeting of the committee, which is also headed by L. S. Dillie, E. B. Wood, H. L. Parks, J. A. Water, and T. R. Nichols, urge the executive committees of the Twin Falls county farm bureaus to call the attention of the farmers to the urgent need situation in Twin Falls county. At present there is only one sugar beet acreage in the state up to the Farmers' Bureau sugar beet chapter and unless there is a great reaction on the part of the farmers, Twin Falls will be the only place in the state to grow sugar beets next year. We realize that this is a very serious situation which calls for the immediate action of the people of the community both through the payment of taxes and for labor in the land and all the same time have been asked to do nothing more than sit over this tract. We believe that the farmers here will do well to practice more diversified farming and that sugar beets are an ideal crop to start into any system of crop rotation.

There is great danger from species混生 (cross-pollination) if we plant any one crop. A real system of crop rotation with livestock, hay, grain, fruit, vegetables, etc., will do well to practice more diversified farming and that sugar beets are an ideal crop to start into any system of crop rotation.

Sugar beets, therefore, can be planted with livestock, hay, grain, fruit, vegetables, etc., excellent food for stock and man. Farmers should take full advantage of it.

Canal Company Will Appeal Boiley Case to Supreme Court

Avalyn will be taken at once from the decision hands down yesterday by Mr. W. B. Boiley in his case against the Twin Falls Canal company, according to Judge James J. Palmer, attorney for the defendant.

Holby claimed certain water rights which the canal company did not have and that he was entitled to compensation, ordered the water delivered.

Sweeney represented the canal company, and Holby was identified with Judge Holby in the defense.

BUSINESS IS GOOD WITH HUDSON AND ENSEN

So says Mr. Johnson, manager of Hudson and Ensen's Drug Store. As the weather begins to show signs and the indications generally point to spring the outdoor life of pleasure and business has turned to the necessities of getting hair in shape.

The feeling of confidence generally expressed by the public indicates for the opportune time to purchase their new car. Look around in order to decide just what car you will buy. You will find many have experienced a great change in the past thirty days and are looking forward to a good business during the coming year.
