Bennett. Small, a Democrat, was indicted for his conduct during his service as state treasurer. Many officials in Illinois, including former state attorney general Fred C. Morrisey, state's attorney of Saline County, were the chief prosecutors. The defense team, headed by George T. George, President Alexander Babin, Winkelman, and Warner Schroeder of Milwaukee.

Small, 45, had offered to resign up to the last minute when Judge Edwards asked how many thought they should be excused from jury duty. Most of the jury, however, refused to excuse several of the first examined.

Gerard Says Russo-German Treaty Builds War Machine

Germany Has Been Forced into Corner by Demand for Great Summs and to Meet These Payments Has Formed an Alliance With Russia—Commercial Language Was Germanic, May Lead to Military Alliance.

By JAMES W. GERARD
Former Ambassador to Germany

NEW YORK, April 24.—What I have for a year or more predicted in speeches and articles has happened.

Germany, forced into a corner by the demand for sums greater than can be wrung from the German people, has chosen to make an alliance with Russia and to seek from the economic benefits to be derived from such an alliance the wherewithal to pay her pressing creditors.

Few people realize that for years the commercial language of Russia was German, that the educated part of the population of the Baltic states is Germanic, and that from these men of German descent in these states were chosen many of the best generals and administrators of the old Russia.

And as surely as night follows day there will follow a military alliance between Germany and Russia.

France may well fear the day when the hordes of Russia, drilled and disciplined by Germans, with all the vast resources of Russia administered by Germans, will pour across Europe in that constant drive to the west which seems a brute instinct of all Europeans.

The new Poland will disappear, once more partitioned between Germany and Russia.

No more important and startling event than this alliance has happened since that Armistice Day, when the Kaiser's empire fell.

PROPER FOOD TRIED FIRST ON WHITE RATS
THEN GIVEN TO MAN

SEATTLE, Wash., April 24.—That mouth-watering gas about the husband who fed his wife's request for rat meat to his wife has been revived on the University of Washington campus.

Mrs. Mabel Kochan's experiments with white rats, to determine what may happen to the body when fed with rat meat, were discontinued yesterday. The test is a part of the laboratory work of the school of home economics.

Miss Kochan, "the discovered scientist," is interesting things about foods as fed to rats. A rodent fed on bread, meat, and potato will live longer than one fed on bread alone, while the regular life of a rat is three years. Rats give the little fellow a balanced diet of starch, fruit, and vegetables, meat, milk, butterfat, margarine, fat, salt, and, he'll be normal, and healthy. "Necessary items" omitted from the diet shorten the life of a rat, Miss Kochan says that these omissions are common ones for human beings, who as a rule do not eat a balanced diet. She also found that the poorly nourished rats gradually die of malnutrition. The food intake is lowered and throughout the body fluids are decreased. Foods are consumed, and the rodents given as much as they can consume. The more under-nourished, and well-nourished rats, however, show the same amount of food.

White rats are fed because they occupy less space than other animals, and are easier to care for, Miss Kochan said. Observation of the rat tests is a regular part of the home economics course, and may a husband will be a good cook.

Miss Kochan's experiments have been conducted in the basement of the dormitory, where she has been working hard to grow on the same study of the feeding habits of rats.

GRAM-OPHEUS TOOK BLIND IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, April 23.—Gram-Opheus stampeded on the Chicago board of trade today after a strong opening.

The market was still in a condition due to heavy selling of short interests.

The decline was also influenced by reports from Kansas that the wheat crop was about 25 to 30 under the May quotations in Chicago.—Reported from the Gulf also that No. 2 winter wheat there was here at prices 50 cents lower than the Chicago quotations.

Liverpool cable telegrapher, Weatherhead, said the market in all grain, especially corn was sharply decreased. Receipts were here in record volume.

Provisions lower.
