

THE TWIN FALLS DAILY TIMES

Leading Newspaper of the City and County of Twin Falls
Published Every Evening Except Sunday by The Times Publishing Company, Twin Falls, Idaho.

L. H. MARTENS

Editor-Publisher

Entered at the Twin Falls Post Office as Second Class Matter as a Daily Publication, April 31, 1918.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Daily, one year	$10.00
Daily, six months	5.00
Daily, one month	1.00

SHOULD ATTEND COMMITTEE AND CONVENTION

Every county central committee member of all parties, democrat, republican and progressive, should attend the committee meeting at the courthouse at noon Saturday to help organize. Every delegate elected to the county conventions of these parties should attend the conventions Tuesday. Only in this way can they perform the duties entrusted to them by the people.

THE PLAN THAT FAILED

Walton says that a number of republicans went into the democratic primaries to vote for his candidates. He probably means for five men whom he brought out to the anti-Alexander健康会 to have fled, according to his statement to Jack Dunfield. One of these, on his own statement, was City Attorney S. D. Davis, who told Ed Finch he was against Alexander and referred the letter to Walton for further explanation. Anyhow, all of Walton's anti-Alexander delegates were defeated. So republicans who went into the democratic primaries to put them over failed.

WALTON AND THE JUDGMENT

The Observer takes up a lot of its space in this issue today making an argument as to why the E. W. Walton settlement was right. Indeed, it points Walton as something of a martyr. It says among other things, "the single sum of $350 will not cover the actual damages sustained by Mr. Walton." The Times is not arguing that part of the case, or rather of the combined cases, for in the last trial the E. W. Walton case and the Elite Millinery company case were tried together. Two juries passed on this matter. In the first trial the jury in the Elite Millinery company case, which was then tried alone, could not agree, so it is not clear from that trial that anything at all was owed to the company. In the second trial the jury found total damages aggregating $162,76 for the two actions combined. Walton says that the total damages should have been over $350, the jury which heard the case said that they amounted to $352. This sum the city would have paid, with $200 more, which for the reasons set forth in The Times on August 3 it is considered legally correct. But Walton put in a cost bill $47 above that sum. In other words his estimate on that point was even higher than his original, than his present estimate on what he lost. He estimates that the city should pay more than three times what is a fair amount of witness fees, just as he now says that the city should pay about three times the amount of what a jury could award him as actual damage.

In taking the jury verdict as correct, The Times does not mean to say that there was not another side to this. A lot of folks thought that the jury gave too high a verdict in this action and that the losses were purely nominal. If this paper were so inclined and desired to attack the jury by implication, as Walton does, it could make a very plausible argument along that line. But the jury heard the evidence and gave a verdict thereof, which, as stated, had the cost bill been right, namely, had it been $147.55 lower than it was, the city would have paid at once. They were likely about right.

What the city paid others under the Elbridge administration is immaterial. Clearly, they did not lose the same thing that Walton claims that he did. If the best business block in town had been swept away, with a vast stock of goods, Walton would no doubt quote the terms of settlement to prove that he should have all he asked in his complaints in court.

What he did ask was $500. For the damages which he sued the city, "Compared with the effort to get 17 times 100 more damages in automobile accidents, he should be entitled to a sum not far short of $500," he said. More than $500 was paid him.

"But, after all, what's the odds?" Doesn't Walton assure us that it costs the taxpayers nothing. "At the outset," says The Observer, "it is well to bear in mind that the taxpayers of the city do not hear this expense. It is paid from the revenues of the waterworks department, and no part is paid from taxation." This is certainly consoling to those who pay water rents. While a share of all taxation, except on unearned increments, is shifted to the ultimate consumer or user, the laying of extra burdens on the waterworks department strikes a large number of people immediately, than any other method of collecting public revenue. According to the Walton logic nobody would suffer the city paid the $600 asked in the original complaints, since the sum would have been paid out of the waterworks department and not part from taxation."

Real Estate Transfers

G.O.D. Corp. N. Calvert et al vs to Mrs. C. M. Nichols 81 SW 512-8-14.

W.D. Claude Marks et al vs to James Watt #98 Lot 4-BIN 147-Twin Falls.

Troy Haplin
True happiness rests in contentment and is a state of mind rather than a condition of the body. Please let me know if you are interested in my book, "True Happiness," and I will send you a copy. It is the one great reality through whose power the world is forever overcome.—Suzo K. Bow.

Vulcanized Fiber.

A novel substance known as "vulcanized fiber" has a surface much like leather. It is made of wood pulp, cotton, and other materials.

It has proved itself a good insulator, is pliable, can be sawed, bent or punched. Various electrical appliances are now made from this material, which comes in various forms in the form of tubes, rods and sheets.

The Ideal in Life.
The Ideal is the historically unique, the divine, the spiritual. That is it, the one great reality through whose power the world is forever overcome.—Suzo K. Bow.

Russians Have Sunk To Cannibalism

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 10.—In extremity of starvation, Russia is sinking to cannibalism, according to a letter received in this city by a friend of L. A. Trellmon, a Russian resident here. The friend, fearing the Reds, refused to allow his name to be used.

Starvation has led to as challenges to the life stories of soldiers killing, robbing, eating their children, or dead bodies, robbing a hospital, despatching patients.

The letter, smuggled out by the secret service, reveals possible cannibalism among the Reds. In the letter the writer says: "A terrible nightmare, daily growing worse."

"The terrible pictures I see," says Trellmon, "are those of men who, when driven to the wall, eat their own flesh, leaving Russia, brands it in the scroll work of the door."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

"We have a chance to flee."

"There is no hope," he adds.

"I am afraid that the people who have been captured by the Reds will be eaten by them."

</div

Times Want Ad Page

4000 Subscribers read your "Want Ad" in this paper every issue. If you take an average of four readers to each family this would mean 16,000 readers for your advertisement. You take no chances with Times Ads, since we have the largest sworn circulation in Twin Falls County.

Help-Wanted

For Sale Miscellaneous

WANTED—Housekeeper on ranch. Small family. Permanent employment for right party. Phone 7154.

WANTED—Two horses to carry deer traps. Reward at $100.00 per head.

WANTED—Lady to assist with housework. Call 124. 1st Avenue North or phone 1742.

Wanted—Miscellaneous

WANTED—Return trip ticket to Northern Pacific, 5 cent. Times.

WANTED—Dove traps. In good condition. Price 15¢.

WANTED—Four horses, 14 hands, 140 lbs. weight. 1st Avenue North or phone 1742.

WANTED—Clean cotton rag. John son Auto Co., 121.

I am in the market for the smallest amount of used Funds. Will pay spot cash. A Central Garage, 311 Main Street, 1st Avenue South.

For the highest producing桑树, the High Larche Lumber Association's territory. Address L. B. Underwood, Dist. Agent, Durley, Idaho.

WANTED—To sell palm and half palm trees. I will send a palmier and estimate your work. Will we pay you money? Phone 6. Moon's Shop.

For Sale Real Estate

Two-room cottage, in Kimberly. Well located. Rich shade. Desired right. $750. Selling because of move.

WILLIE YOUNG, box 100, Twin Falls. 100x120' farm place, lot of 160. For sale. Low price, say terms. Residence, 126 Lincoln Street.

For Sale—Automobiles

FOR SALE—CHEAP—Four touring car in good running order. 118 Wm. H. Smith.

FOR SALE—Four-door touring car almost new. Price $1,000.00. G. E. McVean, Twin Falls.

FOR SALE—Buick model P-14. 1920. 4 doors. Average well.

FOR SALE—Two 1920 Oldsmobiles. The Orlane, 147, and another north.

FOR SALE—Ford roadster for sale. Cheap! Overhauled and new parts put in. Replaced with a new one. We can get it for $100.00 or call at 119 1st Avenue East and examine the car.

FOR SALE—Miscellaneous

A. H. Hall, Chase Tires. Used and new bought and sold. P. O. Box 100, Times 712.

Curtains—Washed or stretched. Special orders. Call 124.

CHAMOISINE SHEER SILK—GIRLS' CHAMOISINE WORSTED. Nothing equal to it. Brown, Blue, Red & Yellow. Call 124.

IN COLLEGES—M. C. Bradbury, 100 N. Main Street, College, Idaho, concerning, courses, self-support, "men," special week-end rates and other advantages.

FULLER MAN, Phone 747-748.

USERS CONCERT—PIFY KNOCKING! It's the best, the most, the easiest way to knock. Price $1.00. Postage Paid. M. C. Bradbury, 100 N. Main Street, College, Idaho.

DOVE HUNTING—Poultry Farm. One dove, white Lebec. Taxidermy. 1222 1st Avenue East.

WANTED—Hops of any kind. 7 A. M. Flynn, Phone 7181.

FOR SALE—Four horses. White Lebec. Taxidermy. 1222 1st Avenue East.

FOR SALE—Work horses. New Western grain box. John Deere. Black. 14 hands. 140 lbs. weight. V. V. Vizet. 4 miles south and 1/4 mile east of town.

FOR SALE—Thoroughbred Spanish pony. 1200 1st Avenue West.

Twin Falls Poultry Co. pay spot cash prices for all times for poultry. Poultry Farm. 100 N. Main Street. E. Smith, Mgr.

Clothing Counter: How-ever, and grecian even in common speech is that sense which we call contrast. It is transmuted, altered, transformed, turned the world.

Jesse T. Field.

FOR RENT

FOR SALE—Electric washer. Phone 4254.

Apparel for sale on the Howman. Call 119-4.

FOR SALE—McCormick blower. Call 2111.

FOR SALE—Woodcock. Under. Phone 4110.

FOR SALE—Antique candlestick. Price 25¢. Call 2111.

