ITALY WILL HAVE RADICAL CABINET SOON

Mussolini Will Form New Cabinet and Sensation Is Caused When Report Went Out That He Would Include Socialists and Populists in His Cabinet; Will Rule Without Parliament.

ROME, Oct. 30.—Italy today had bowed to the Fascisti and Benito Mussolini busied himself forming a cabinet.

The demand of Mussolini, leader of the Fascisti that complete control of the government be handed over to his organization was met by King Victor Emmanuel when Mussolini was asked to form a ministry.

Back of Mussolini's demand was his army of 300,000 adherents ready to aid if the government was not handed over peaceably.

The Fascisti leader refused to accept a compromise. His invitation to form a ministry only came after he had refused point-blank to participate in any cabinet headed by former Premier Salandra.

Mussolini was expected in Rome today. He has left Milan where he has been in conference with leaders of the party. According to reliable information the new premier stopped at Stazia Garde to confer with Gabriele D'Annunzio, Italy's poet-airman. This is taken to mean that the Revolt of Fiume may become a power in Italian politics.

To Rule Without Parliament

The Fascisti will rule Italy without the consent of parliament, the majority of whose members are socialistic and bitterly opposed to the strong monarchistic tendencies of Mussolini. It is believed that parliament will be dissolved by Nov. 4, when it convenes and that Mussolini will appeal to the country for support.

The Bourse in Rome has been electrified by the Fascisti took government of the opposition newspaper.

Upon forfeiture bonds which had been raised by the nationalists was turned over to the military after Mussolini had been invited to become premier.

The coup of the Fascisti who had concentrated at several points in Italy and were prepared to fight their way into power, was marked with only a few disorders.

"Black Shirts" Killed

At Cremona six Fascisti were killed by police when the "black shirts" attempted to force the city government. One man was killed in Rome yesterday afternoon in a conflict between the Fascisti and socialists.

The socialists were very light considering the scope of the political upheaval, which had every aspect of a revolution.

Socialists to Be in Cabinet

A sensation was caused when it was learned that Mussolini plans to include Socialists and Populists in the cabinet.

Mussolini plans to reserve for himself the important posts of minister of foreign affairs and minister of the interior. He may hand over these portfolios to others later, but intends to retain these important posts.

Rome today is virtually cut off from rail communication with the remainder of the country.

The Fascisti believe it was ordered that they would be handed the reins of government, tore up the railroad tracks, the apparent purpose being to prevent rapid transportation of troops from the provinces to Rome.

ROME, Oct. 30.—Assumption of the premiership by Benito Mussolini, the leader of the Fascisti marks the end of a regime of twenty years of statesmanship. The old school has given the helm of young blood in Italian affairs.

Mussolini, hailed in Italian circles as the man who for twenty years has kept Bolshevism from the free distribution and indiscriminate enfranchisement of the illiterate way made in the Italians in the trenches.

War Promises Failed

Obviously tired of the promises could not be kept, which caused resentment to smolder throughout the country and resulted in many Socialist victories at the polls in 1919.

In 1921 the Socialistic having had their first taste of power occupied many industrial plants throughout the land.

This marked the turning point in the situation and was the beginning of a reaction on the part of the conservative elements which culminated in the occupation of Rome by the Fascisti.

KANSAS WILL OUST K.K.K. FROM STATE

Series of Raids, Kidnapings and Floggings Have Been Laid to Door of Klan; Governor Allen Has Made Special Investigation of "Night Riders" and Is Against Them; Secret Conference of Klan.

TOPEKA, Kas., Oct. 30—State officials today rushed plans to locally expel the Ku Klux Klan from Kansas.

Attorney General Hopkins was drafting an injunction to prevent enrolling of members in Kansas while reports were circulated that other legal maneuvers would prevent the invisible empire from functioning in any way in the state, if granted by court.

Governor Henry J. Allen, in a speech at Coffeyville Saturday night attacking the klan, announced he had determined to make "parading with pillow slips" an unpopular pastime. He laid at the door of the Ku Klux Klan the recent flogging of the mayor of Liberty, and declared that important information for legal action had been gathered by operatives.

Governor After Klan.

Governor Henry Allen, who on the eve of an election, declared war on the klan, was in western Kansas today carrying his appeal to the people to rid the state of the white caps.

Spoken Attorney General Hopkins was in private conference with state executives preparatory to drafting injunctions drastically curbing operations of the klan.

It was reported from a reliable source that one of these injunctions would prevent further enlistment of members and would declare the organization as a whole could be brought to court.

Action apart from Kansas every detriment to the klan is strongly underway, Governor Allen admitted before leaving for the western part of the state.

Three States Opposing.

Joint action by officials of three states, or at least the element opposed to the K. K. K. was predicted today at Topeka.

Activities of raids, kidnaping and floggings, attributed by Governor Allen's investigators to the K.K.K. led to his unprecedented step in pledging to make Kansas a secret order.

The whipping of Mayor Schirman of Liberty, Kan., some days ago, was secondary to the kidnaping of Rev. Carleton and one that "necessitated prompt and drastic action."

CARLETON WOMAN WAS NOT INSANE WHEN SHE SHOT MINISTER, CLAIM

HAVIR, Mont., Oct. 30—Mrs. Jos-ephine Pyle, mother of Mrs. Margaret Carleton, sought evidence today which would warrant her asking the 30th county district court to dismiss the investigation which followed the shooting and fatal wounding of Rev. Leonard Christler by her daughter and the latter's suicide here early Friday morning.

Mrs. Pyle, who appears to have recovered from the first shock of the tragedy, has been joined by her husband, Joseph Pyle of Butte. The two spent yesterday and today digesting letters and facts purporting to have been parts of correspondence between Mrs. Carleton and Rev. Christler relative to the alleged friendship and between Mrs. Carleton and members of her own family, dealing with her illness and nervousness.

Woman Was Not Insane

Mrs. Pyle's action was taken to indicate that she does not agree with the verdict of the coroner's jury which decided that Mrs. Carleton shot Rev. Christler while she was temporarily deranged. Agitation by Mrs. Pyle and the move than general belief here that Mrs. Carleton may have shot Rev. Christler because of an earlier refusal to marry him, it is said, have halted for her and failed apparently was borne out by letters found in Mrs. Carleton's effects and from accounts of Mrs. Carleton's actions on the fatal night.

One of these letters was from Judge Lindsey and was dated Los Angeles August 25. It indicated that no legal divorce had been obtained either by Judge Carleton or Mrs. Carleton.

Husband Urges Divorce

"Dear Margaret," the letter read, "Margaret I have been thinking a great deal lately that it is not fair that you should bear any legal responsibility upon you. You are making your own life and are entitled to your own freedom."

IMAGINARY JEALOUSY IS GIVEN AS CAUSE OF HAMMER MURDER

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 30—The state today expected to close its case in the trial of Mrs. Alberta Meadows charged with beating Mrs. Alberta Meadows to death with a hammer.

"Imaginary jealousy" over Mrs. Phillips' husband is said to have caused the killing.

Exceptionally long cross-examination of Percy Caffee, chief girl witness" to the murder was declared the only thing that would drag out the state's case, the last witness, further today, the prosecution expects to call about ten additional witnesses, mostly employes of a hotel, to tell that Mrs. Stayed there the night of its crime.

Police and sheriff's officers, who brought Mrs. Phillips back from Tucson where she was arrested, were also among these final state witnesses.

The prosecution intimated that a surprise witness may also be called to verify certain parts of the testimony of Percy Caffee, who Friday on the stand described how, she alleged, Mrs. Phillips lured Mrs. Meadows to a lonely spot and killed her.

Mrs. Phillips is released by bail memorandum of the alien to remedy under why, Governor Allen admitted before leaving for the western part of the state.

The mysterious caller then hung up the receiver.

No wage that is not based on a "living wage" can be just and reasonable, Gompers stated.

It was the intent of congress in passing that section of the railroad law calling for a "just and reasonable wage" to provide a living wage, Gompers declared. In rejecting the living wage principle in favor of a just and reasonable wage, the board created a stigma on congress and the people.

... AT THE ... THEATRES

"Turn to the Right" Opens at Orpheum

Rex Ingram, producer for Metro of "Turn to the Right," which comes to the Orpheum theatre today and Tuesday, is the first motion picture director whose work has received academic recognition as fine art. The recognition came from Yale university, which awarded Mr. Ingram the honorary degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts for his production of Ibanez's "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse."

It was with "The Four Horsemen" that Mr. Ingram rode to fame in the motion picture world. Only twenty-nine years old, he already had to his credit the Metro production of "Shore Acres" and "Hearts Are Trumps." B "The Four Horsemen" gave him his greatest opportunity. With "The Conquering Power" that followed, he confirmed the belief of the Yale authorities that an artist of great imaginative force had arrived in motion pictures.

With "Turn to the Right" he returns to the New England atmosphere of his first big success, "Shore Acres." The new picture is an adaptation by June Mathis and Mary O'Hart of the John Golden stage success by Winchell Smith and John E. Hazzard. Indications are that it will even excel "The Four Horsemen" in popularity.

Mr. Ingram, at thirty, has gained a leadership in motion pictures that had its ideas in the application of sculptural ideas to the screen. A sculptor himself, he dreamed as an art student of revolutionizing picture production by the use of new methods.

His chance did not come until after his war service as a member of the Royal Flying Corps. Prior to the war he had served his picture apprenticeship as actor, scenario writer and director. But "Shore Acres" was his first big opportunity.

Mr. Ingram was born in Dublin, Ireland, the son of a professor at Trinity college. He came to the United States at nineteen on an adventure trip that landed him as a railroad checker at New Haven. There he met Professor Lee O. Lawrie, who induced him to enter the Yale school of fine arts.

In "Turn to the Right" he had the assistance of John F. Seitz as cameraman and A. J. Myers and Harold Grieve as technical directors. The production is presented by John Golden and Marcus Loew.

There were no photographers to record the dress and customs of the day when the barbarians overthrew ancient Rome. Nevertheless, Cecil B. DeMille has produced an historically faithful reproduction of this for his latest Paramount picture "Manslaughter," coming to the Idaho theatre today for four days.

The episode in question is a historical cutback, which vividly depicts the descent of the barbarian hordes upon Rome. Weeks of research work on the part of the director scenarist, and art director, preceded the filming of the scenes.

Ambition to get ahead combined with a course at Link's Business College will place you beyond the necessity of worrying about a job. The job will be looking for you.—adv.

WILL BORAH VOTE GO TO ALEXANDER

BOISE, Oct. 30—Where will the Borah vote go on November 7? This question was frequently heard on the streets of the state capital immediately following Senator Borah's address at Meridian on October 10, but it is no longer asked by anyone who pretends to be well informed on the political situation.

Friends of Senator Borah in the republican ranks have definitely decided to remain outwardly "regular" and vote the Democratic state ticket as a purely defensive measure on the 7th day of November. This is not only true of Borah's friends in Ada county but is true in practically every other county in the state. Occasionally you will find a Borah man who asserts that he may vote for Samuels but, statements of this kind are few and far between. Close political observers in Boise now, estimate that seventy-five per cent of the Borah vote will go to Alexander, ten per cent may possibly go to Samuels and the remaining 15 per cent will drift back into the Republican ranks. Had the Progressive party developed any considerable strength prior to the arrival of Borah in Idaho, it is possible that this vote would have gone to Samuels, but the Progressives have failed to make the necessary showing of strength, and the Borah men have therefore definitely reached the conclusion that a vote for Samuels is a vote for Moore. They are opposed to Moore for two very definite reasons. First they have no confidence in any "death bed" confession of faith in the "Direct Primary" even in the improbable event that the same could be secured. Second, they do not propose to assist in the election of a candidate for governor who would fill the state house full of Gooding-Davis appointees, and thus vote salaries and state transportation to men who would turn heaven and earth to defeat Borah in his campaign for renomination two years hence. Either one of these reasons, they contend, is sufficient to foreclose any effort on the part of the old line Republicans to bring about an understanding between Borah and C. C. Moore. They propose to remain outwardly regular but record their votes on November 7 in a manner which will be most effective in breaking up the so-called Gooding-Davis-Moore machine. To make their votes effective they must vote for Alexander and the other Democratic nominees, and that is precisely what the friends of Senator Borah are going to do.

TWIN FALLS WILL PLAY MOSCOW HERE ON ARMISTICE DAY

(By MUDGUARD.)

At last, the Armistice Day football game is decided.

November 11, Twin Falls will meet the cross town squad from Moscow high school on Lincoln field. Aside from that fact that they have been walking over the teams they have played this year, nothing definite is known concerning the Moscow aggregation. This Friday Twin Falls will meet Jerome to decide the district championship. The game will be played on Lincoln field. Twin Falls has been exceptionally lucky in arranging to have games played here this year.

The Armistice day game has nothing to do with the standing of the teams in regard to the state championship, as it is merely a scheduled game between the two schools Provided we are fortunate in our game this Friday with Jerome we will play the winners in the eastern district to determine the team which will play for state honors. However, we are getting ahead of the time and will have to wait until we beat Jerome first.

MIDWEST CHAMPIONSHIP IN FOOTBALL UPSET BY PRINCETON'S VICTORY

Michigan's Victory over Illinois Shows That Coach Yost Will Figure in the Big Ten Conference This Season; Chicago-Reid Loses over Princeton in Early Part of Game.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30—Interest in midwest collegiate football today centered in the big ten championship race, with the chief intersectional contests out of the way.

Although Chicago went down to defeat before Princeton, the big ten followers found their consolation in the fact that Iowa had defeated Yale and the "prideful" opinion was that the Hawkeyes were the superior of the maroons.

Without figuring the Chicago defeat of Saturday by the Tigers, the western conference eleveus still had clean slates with the season half advanced. The Maroons, Michigan, Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin have not met defeat.

The improved showing of both Minnesota and Michigan has been the outstanding feature of the season thus far. Both have conquered Ohio State, in recent years one of the outstanding conference eleveus.

The defeat of Illinois by Michigan Saturday by the imposing score of 24 to 0 was ample evidence of the strength of Coach Yost's squad.

Indiana did the expected and walked over the Illinois Aggies, 14 to 6, while Purdue fell before the mighty Iowans 56 to 0.

Notre Dame's win over Georgia Tech 13 to 3 gave the South Bend squad the edge in the dope over their recent rivals, Indiana, in the game next Saturday.

STRONG LINE MAN

O. P. MINNICK.

Of football the best back in the world is little more than a mummy if his line fails to hold.

The fleet backs to get anywhere must be able to get away to a good start.

If the forwards are unable to stop the charging of the opposition, this is impossible.

While most of the story of the Iowa victory was passed to Locke and Parkin, the Iowa line is deserving much praise.

In this connection the work of no player in the line stood out more prominently than O. P. Minnick, who hails from Des Moines.

TOMMY HILTON MAY LOSE RIGHT EYE AS RESULT OF AUTO ACCIDENT ON SUNDAY

Milton, with the sight of one eye already impaired, is in danger of becoming blind as a result of the accident.

Bennett Hill won the race yesterday, making the 100 miles at an average of 114 miles an hour.

JOCKEY WAS INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE COLLISION

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Oct. 30—Chas. Grows, well known jockey, was seriously, perhaps fatally injured here today when an automobile in which he was riding collided with another car and overturned. Grows was pinned beneath the car and his chest crushed. Physicians say his injuries are very grave. Grows was scheduled to ride at the Tia Juana track when the winter racing season opens on Thanksgiving day.

Secret of His Success.

He gets the best service out of them and the tools which perform their bidding."—Exchange.

Vote Correction—In his sermon on world prohibition yesterday Rev. W. H. Tolliver of the Baptist church corrected his hearers, to forget party lines and vote for the men who would enforce the eighteenth amendment and make this country and state "dry." The speaker stated that the "wet" forces were planning a tremendous campaign between now and the 1924 campaign to elect as many congressmen as possible in favor of their campaign. He stated that this "fight wine and beer" propaganda was only a preliminary to this move.

Perfumes Prevent Nausea

A New York physician reports that he has been very successful in preventing the nausea so apt to follow an anesthatic by the application to the nostrils of the patient of a pleasant perfume, preferably oil of bitter orange peel, as the ether or chloroform is discontinued. He elevates the patient's head a little and turns it to one side, fastening a little adhesive plaster to the tip of the nose and administrating this with cologne. Or if the patient has a mustache the perfume may be placed on that. He says the result is most effectious in preventing nausea after the anesthetic but in many cases it is.

CHAPTER I

ABOUT the clear, deep waters of Lake Superior, and bounding the northern sands of Michigan, lies a region of forest and of heights, rugged, wild, alluring—rich in copper and iron as are few other regions of the world. Kingdoms, which were wide indeed, have owned for its manner materials of power; empires has warred with empire for stakes built as great.

In fact, France and her Indian allies long ago overthrown there the "prideful" opinion was; that the Hawkeyes were the superior of the maroons.

Twin Falls ministers yesterday urged their people to forget party lines when they go to the polls and vote for men who will support prohibition. Yesterday being World's Temperance Sunday, this question of prohibition as related to the coming election was quite generally discussed.

—o—

After all is Senator Borah making a fight to keep from being read out of the party in 1924. The direct primary will help him to prevent this therefore he wants to re-establish this direct primary. If we continue the convention system the old guard might be able to keep him off the ticket and also prohibit him from running independent. The majority favor the direct primary regardless of Borah's wish in the matter.

—o—

The three candidates nominated for county commissioners by the county democratic convention are men of sterling worth and much ability. One of them has served the county in this capacity and for several years and during that time was very economical with the taxpayers' money. The other two men are thorough-going business men and are farmers and know the needs of Twin Falls county as few men do. You will make no mistake in supporting these men and we predict that they will give Twin Falls county a thorough-going business administration.

—o—

This nation needs a great leader like Washington or Lincoln to come forward and dispel some of the bitter feeling which permeates the people of this nation today. This feeling has never been so prevalent since the nation's inception and this spirit is manifesting itself today as never before among the voters of America. Throughout the length and breadth of this nation there has been a decided lack of interest in our present campaign. Voters have refused to register and are taking scarcely any interest at all in the campaign. They seem mad at one political party and disgusted with the other one. Some great leader or force who can harmonize all these forces is needed as never before.

FREE PRESS MISREPRESENTATIONS

In his present speaking campaign over Idaho, Senator Borah is frankly and honestly telling the people to beware of those who come before them and discuss our taxation problems only from the standpoint of state taxation. Borah has labeled as a mountebank and a candidate unworthy of their confidence any candidate in the present campaign who tries to make the people of this state believe that their big problem is state taxes (indefensible as they are) are the big evil. Alexander is cunning enough to realize and take advantage of the popular prejudice against the present statehouse crowd and their "cabinet" government.

What Senator Borah has in mind was most forcibly pointed out by Mr. Samuels, the progressive candidate for governor, in his speech at Caldwell last Saturday night. Mr. Samuels showed completely and clearly just what relation the many "special privilege laws" of Idaho and the nation have to our taxation load.

Those who have an opportunity to hear both Samuels and Borah in the present campaign are not likely to be humbugged into voting for Mose.—Idaho Free Press.

Frankly and honestly Senator Borah is doing just the opposite to what the Free Press says. He is emphasizing the importance of cutting state taxes, he is insisting that, so far as the state is concerned, the big economic need is to abolish useless bureaus, "Cut out one-third of the useless offices and save the people of Idaho hundreds of thousands of dollars," to quote his exact words in the presence of the vast audience at the lavering last Thursday night. And he emphasized the importance of the economic issue. To say that Senator Borah has even by remote inference branded Governor Alexander as "a mountebank and a candidate unworthy of confidence" is a wilful, deliberate lie, and anyone editorially publishing such deliberate falsehood is unworthy of the consideration of decent men or the respect of decent journalists.

The remedies mentioned by Alexander are neither chimerical nor unconstitutional. That can be and will be carried out under the democratic administration which takes charge of the state government in January, 1923.

So emphatic was Senator Borah regarding the importance of state taxes levies that he pointed out that from 1915, which was under Alexander, to 1920, which was under Davis, the state taxes had approximately increased from $1,000,000 to $3,000,000 and from $5 to $16 per capita. He said that unless this tendency were changed, it would seriously threaten the state and nation.

A Representative of the People

The voters of Southern Idaho and especially on the Twin Falls Tract will be pleased to learn that W. P. Whitaker of Pocatello is a candidate for Congress on the Democratic ticket.

Mr. Whitaker is a veteran of the

W. P. WHITAKER.

Spanish-American war, having served in the Utah infantry. He served during the entire war and was honorably discharged as a lieutenant.

Upon returning home he entered the employ of the Oregon Short Line, and filled different positions of responsibility.

He served two years as Mayor of Pocatello, and since that time has been manager of the Intermountain Farmers' Equity.

Mr. Whitaker is meeting as many voters as possible on this trip, and extends a cordial invitation to the people to come out and hear the issues discussed.

TRANSPOSITION OF RICHES—For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.—2 Corinthians 8:9.

Statement of John W. Hardin, Candidate for State Senator on Republican Ticket.

I have always been in favor of a state-wide direct primary and since my nomination at the Republican Primaries of Twin Falls County, I have endeavored to ascertain the sentiment of the voters of the Republican party concerning a state-wide direct primary, and feel that I can safely say that a large majority of my fellow Republicans are for it.

I believe in a majority rule, and consider myself in no wise bound by the Republican state platform on that subject inasmuch as I was nominated at a primary election held weeks prior to the Wallace convention.

Therefore, if elected to the senate, I shall support and work for a state-wide direct primary measure.

I also favor any measure for the relief of the veterans of the great war and any measure having that end in view shall receive my wholehearted support and effort.

If I am elected to the office for which I am nominated, it shall be my sole aim and purpose to support any legislation that may be proposed for the benefit of the majority of the people, and shall give every attention to any legislation that the people of Twin Falls County may from time to time suggest.

JOHN W. HARDIN.

EXCITEMENT IS INCREASING IN THE CAMPAIGN

Whitaker and Johnson to Speak at the Lavering Tonight; Moore and Black Tomorrow Night; Republicans Say Progressives Will Get a Large Vote in County.

Excitement is increasing in the present political campaign and it is believed that the present week which is opened by the address of W. P. Whitaker and Elmer Thompson at the Lavering tonight will be an interesting contest. Congressman Addison T. Smith has already spoken in Pocatello. Tomorrow night, the republicans will have on C. C. Moore and Attorney General Roy L. Black, who will present the other side.

Base Hopes on Progressives.

Republicans freely admit that they largely base the hope of carrying the county on a big progressive vote. "I look for a large vote and a neck and neck race between Alexander and Moore with a progressive vote of 1600," said one leader yesterday. The democrats deny that the progressives will poll anything like that number of votes and claim that Alexander will carry Twin Falls county by at least 600. They charge the republicans with spreading the report that the fight is between Alexander and Samuels in order to get some of the discontented republicans who do not like to vote a democratic ticket to vote the progressive ticket, and thus cut down the Alexander majority.

The progressive state committee is claiming this county in its statements in the north and is here claiming 20,000 majority for themselves in the north. They deny any collusion with the republicans, and declare that they hope to win. Senator Perky speaks here November 8, at night.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB DINNER PLAN HAS BEEN PREPARED

Arrangements are almost completed for the "get-together" dinner of civic organizations to be held Friday evening at Tom's Cafe. The committee from the Twentieth Century club has prepared the following program:

- "What May the Chamber of Commerce and the Twentieth Century Club Do for the Betterment of Our Town?" —Mr. C. E. Wright.
- "The Twentieth Century Club as Viewed by Rotarians."—Mr. M. C. Mitchell.
- "Need for Cooperation of All Civic Bodies in Twin Falls."—Mr. M. J. Sweeley.
- "Business Women's Part in Civic Activities."—Mrs. H. J. Youngs.
- "Juvenile Betterment."—Judge Oliver Duvall.
- "Aspirations of Twentieth Century Club."—Mrs. C. J. Schroeder.

There will also be orchestra music during the evening.

Tickets for the dinner may be obtained at the office of Dr. Iula Sawyer.

Kiwanians Hear of Twentieth Century Club

The speakers at the Kiwanis club luncheon today were Mrs. J. C. Schroeder, president of the Twentieth Century club, and Mrs. E. M. Wolfe of the welfare department of that organization. They invited the members of the club to join them in a community dinner next Friday evening at Tom's cafe. They spoke of the various organizations that would be represented at the community dinner and also stated that the director of community singing from the Albion State Normal school, Mrs. H. W. Clouchek will be toastmistress on this occasion.

R. D. Smith, after a droll introductory speech presented Newell S. Wight with a new baby chair in behalf of the club for a wedding present. Mr. Wight responded in an embarrassing fashion but very much to the point. J. W. Graham presided in the absence of President M. J. Sweeley who was detained at home on account of Mrs. Sweeley's illness.

Rex Ingram, who directed "Turn to the Right," once was a tally man in the New Haven freight yards.

LEONARD WAY IS SLATED FOR GOOD CAPITAL POSITION

Following the Buhl meeting Saturday night, which was addressed by Senator Frank R. Gooding, in which the junior senator emphasized his opposition to high freight rates, it was reported that Leonard Way would go to Washington as his private secretary when congress meets in December. It is reported that Attorney John R. Graham will actively take charge of the freight matters of the Southern Idaho Traffic association. Mr. Way was formerly traffic expert of the public utilities commission of which Mr. Graham was a member.

TWIN FALLS COUNTY STOCK EXHIBITED AT THE SPOKANE SHOW

Minnie Miller's Thousand Springs Fine Stock Is on Exhibition at the Western Livestock Show in Spokane This Week.

MOSCOW, Oct. 30—The University of Idaho college of agriculture is sending four carloads of livestock to the Western Royal Livestock show at Spokane October 28 to November 2, according to Dean E. J. Iddings. The university exhibit consists of one car of Holstein and Jersey cattle, including Matador, the university's grand champion bull of last year's show; two cars of beef cattle, including purebred Hereford heifers and bull calves, and one car of sheep especially fitted for the fall shows.

Advance information received at the office of Dean Iddings indicates that approximately 4000 head of livestock will be exhibited. This will result in unusually keen competition in all classes.

Thousand Springs Herd on Exhibit

For the university this will be particularly true in the case of Hampshire sheep. The fine herd of Mrs. Minnie Miller of Thousand Springs, Ida., which won the largest part of the Hampshire premiums at the International show at Chicago last fall, will enter against the university herd which took all honors at the Interstate show this fall against a very strong showing.

Particular care has been exercised to put the university herds in the best possible shape for the coming show. Some of the animals will be sent also to the Pacific International show at Portland.

FIVE HOUR CLOSE ARMISTICE DAY IS SUGGESTED

Chamber of Commerce Recommends That Period in Order That All May Witness Legion Program and Football Game at 11 a. m. and 4 p. m.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce today after canvassing the situation and taking into consideration the American Legion and football programs for Armistice day suggested that all places of business close between the hours of 11 a. m. and 4 p. m. on November 11. This is in the nature of a recommendation. The Legion program will begin at 11 o'clock and the football game between Twin Falls and Moscow at 2 o'clock so that there will be ample time to finish both and get back to places of business by 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Progressives Think Dow Dunning Has No Chance to Win

BOISE, Idaho, Oct. 30.—Because of representations from labor unions that the chances of electing Dow Dunning to congress were nil, and his candidacy served only to divide the votes of those seeking to secure progressive legislation, the national organization of the progressive party has made representations to the state organization, asking that Mr. Dunning withdraw from the race.

Shriners Had Fine Time in Pocatello

Amid a driving snow, a great concourse of Shriners including a large delegation from Twin Falls, paraded the streets of Pocatello Saturday. The members warmed up putting on the work during the initiation of 70 candidates, however, and their hearts warmed at the banquet of the Eastern Star. Frank L. Stephan was the sole victim of the initiatory ceremonies from this city, but he thinks his experience enough for a multitude.

There was a luncheon at the Y. M. C. A., a parade to the Technical Institute, the big banquet, the initiation and the final reception and ball.

Rex Ingram, director of "Turn to the Right," has made it a rule in his picture work to pick his characters for their type—not for their names. That is one reason why Rex Ingram productions are all such outstanding successes.

WILL ADDRESS THE VOTERS OF TWIN FALLS COUNTY
TONIGHT, Oct. 30, at 8 o'Clock
—AT THE—LAVERING THEATRE

Mr. Whitaker will tell you about House Bill 77 and Congressman Addison T. Smith's failure to properly represent the people of the State of Idaho, on account of his support of legislation which is directly responsible for the depreciation in the price and the lack of market of our farm products. Mr. Whitaker is a man of the people and a fearless speaker.

Mr. Thompson is an ex-service man and a speaker of ability. He will discuss state issues.

C. C. MOORE ON RECORD AGAINST DIRECT PRIMARY

Here is the record of Lieutenant-Governor C. C. Moore, on the Direct Primary:

One page 395 of the Journal of the State Senate for the Sixteenth session of the State Legislature, January 3rd, to March 5th, 1921, appears the following:

"Moved by Featherstone that the Senate refuse to concur on the adoption of House amendments to Senate Bill No. 294, and a committee be appointed by the President (C. C. Moore), consisting of five Senators and the President of the Senate to be an ex-officio member of such committee from the House, and that we ask of the House such a conference. Motion carried 22 to 11. President Moore appointed the following committee: Senators Kerrick, Smith, Whitcomb, Thomas and Featherstone."

The House amendment referred to above is in reality a State-wide Direct Primary measure. On page 503 of the Senate Journal appears the following report from the committee of which C. C. Moore was an ex-officio, and to which is attached no minority report:

"Mr. President:

"We, your committee appointed to confer with a like committee of the House for the purpose of conference upon Senate Bill No. 294, as amended by the House, beg leave to report as follows:

"That we have had several meetings with the committee appointed by the House and have tentatively submitted to them the following propositions:

"1. An amendment of the present law so as to discontinue a county convention and have the electors choose delegates directly to the state convention.

"2. A change in the present law so as to allow candidates to be elected for congressional office at a direct primary.

"3. The submission of a referendum to the electors at the next primary election as to whether they preferred a State-wide Primary Law or a State-wide Convention Law.

"Each and all of said tentative offers were rejected by the committee from the House. The House Committee made no recommendations other than the Senate concur in the amendments made by the House to Senate Bill No. 294, in which event they would consent to the referendum above stated, but not otherwise.

"WE ADVISE THAT THE SENATE ADHERE TO ITS DETERMINATION NOT TO CONCUR IN THE AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE HOUSE TO SENATE BILL NO. 294. KERRICK, CHAIRMAN."

Senate Bill No. 329 was a bill which proposed to submit the State-wide Primary question to a vote of the people. On roll call in the Senate on this question four of the five members of the committee appointed by Lieutenant-Governor Moore to Confer on the Direct Primary amendment to Senate Bill No. 294, voted against such a referendum. Lieutenant Governor Moore not only packed the committee with enemies of the Direct Primary system, but served himself on the committee and openly opposed the bills which attempted to carry into effect such legislation. For the vote on Senate bill No. 329 see Senate Journal, Page 511.

BORAH, MOORE AND THE PRIMARY

In July, 1915, at the Roswell-Parma picnic in Canyon County, Senator Borah made the following statement:

"Some people in the state are urging that we repeal the primary law, * * * For my part, I want to be heard upon the question, and if I live and hold my health I SHALL be heard. I want to be frank with my party and with all concerned. I would support no man for a responsible office who was pledged either to its repeal or to its emasculation, AND I WOULD UNHESITATINGLY DENOUNCE ANY PLATFORM IN WHICH SUCH A DOCTRINE WOULD BE WRITTEN. I have given long years to its consideration and to its advocacy, and though the people themselves should want to be rid of it I am so convinced of its ultimate benefit that I would utilize ALL the power I have to put it back."

The republican platform adopted at Wallace repudiated the direct primary and nominated a gubernatorial candidate who is personally opposed to the principles advocated by Senator Borah.

In commenting upon the work of the (Wallace) convention, C. C. Moore is quoted in the Boise Capital News in its issue of August 30th, 1922, as follows:

"The platform adopted at Wallace is right. It is water-tight."

A primary law must have the signature of the governor in order to become a law. Mr. Moore says plainly that his signature will be withheld. Will the friends of Senator Borah vote to perpetuate the convention system or re-enact the direct primary?

U. S. STATISTICS TELL TALE

Washington, D. C.—The department of commerce through the bureau of the census, announces that the costs of government for the State of Idaho for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1920, amounted to $7,361,383, which was a per capita cost of $16.04. In 1917 the per capita was $7.03, and in 1914, $5.42, the totals for these years being $2,823,115 and $2,000,691, respectively. The per capita costs for 1920 consisted of expenses of general departments, $8.57; payments of interest, $0.62, and for outlays, $7.34.

The total revenue receipts in 1920 were 6,619,603, or $15.23 per capita. For the fiscal year the per capita excess of governmental costs over revenue receipts was therefore 1.71.

STATE TAX 17 PER CENT

Republican speakers claim that only 8 cents of every dollar paid in taxes is used for State purposes. Charts used by them cover only "picked localities" where extensive local improvements have increased ratio of county taxes over those paid to state. Here is what a State House audit shows on this subject:

State tax total, 1919 tax rolls, $3,795,059.09; 1920 tax rolls, $3,217,311.08; 1921 tax rolls, $2,933,592.22 or total for three years of $9,945,962.39. All other taxes, including state, county, schools, highways, cities, villages, sewer, paving and sidewalk, etc., are as follows: 1919 tax rolls, $17,592,945.70; 1920 tax rolls, $20,653,985.07; 1921 tax rolls, $21,176,191.54, making total for three years, $59,723,122.31.

The State tax total, as shown above for on each dollar paid during the past three years 17 cents of same was for state purposes.—Howard Snell, Public Accountant. Attest: E. E. Eddge.

MOORE GETS SCHOOL FUNDS

How many farmers in Idaho have made application for school loans only to have their applications rejected? Not so with C. C. Moore, Republican nominee for Governor, and L. H. Nash, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee. Here is the State House record:

Loan No. 1577, dated Dec. 27, 1916, to C. C. Moore of St. Anthony in the sum of $7500. Past due and interest from January 1, 1922, unpaid.

Loan No. 3070, dated January 1, 1921, to Ira W. Moore of St. Anthony, son of C. C. Moore, in sum of $2,000. Interest past due.

Loan No. 2605, in sum of $800.00 to L. H. Nash, of Preston. No interest paid since July 24, 1920.

Who Is Snell, the Public Accountant?

Howard Snell is an honorable man and one of the best accountants in the state."—John D. Robertson in the Capital News, under date of September 24th, 1922.

John D. Robertson is an appointee of Governor Davis, chief statistician for the Republican State Central Committee, and at the present time head of the State Bureau of Taxation. He is quoted above for the reason that practically all of the State House records submitted to this pamphlet have been assembled by Howard Snell.

Republican testimony as to his ability and integrity may perhaps counteract charges which are certain to be launched by Republican speakers against his fairness and honesty as soon as this pamphlet is given to the printer.
