CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—A hard of ex-convict murderer Joe Lanus, who was shot to death, "in his garage," according to an allred confession obtained by police, was killed because he had been told he would be shot if he went to jail for speeding but I don't believe that," DePalma said.

SPEED DEMON PUT IN JAIL

MADERA, Cal., Dec. 5.—Ralph DePalma, a famed auto racing driver, was held without bail for 10-day sentence for speeding.
True to his promise more than $10,000 was raised by the

MAY TRY LAD FOR KILLING PLAYMATE

LANSING, Ill., Dec. 5.—Parents of Herman Weller, who died from gunshot wounds, today asked the state's attorney, 13, to confer tomorrow to determine whether they
and a woman were held pending further investigation of the case. No warrant was made by Morris Hirschfeld and named Larry Heffernan as the killer. Weller was killed in a rooming house in Milwaukee automobile last.

All of those said to be involved were street boys, Herman and Hirschfeld stated. Herman, Otto Christensen, Will Ham Cramer and Billie Miller, who are accused of killing Weller, were held yesterday.

released after he agreed to go to jail

Weller was shot while play-unable to move. When he tried to run, he fell and was captured.

"Weller did it, para. He should be hanged," DePalma said.

Hecker denied the shooting but said he placed the gun against a tree and it was accidentally discharged.

The other boy, however, was
released after he agreed to go to jail

Weller aimed the gun at each of them and finally pulled the trigger as he turned the weapon on Weller.

After an arraignment of friendly greetings, Clemensau is to be allowed to conclude the execution that America
should again wield her mighty influence

Hecker denied the charge.

We know a cheerful cuss who refers to his automobile-owning relatives as gas connections.

One man blows out the gas and kills himself. Another steps on it and kills somebody else.

The allies are seeking a united front on Turkish issues. They'll be lucky if it doesn't prove to be a hollow front.

Elections used to be affirmative; now they're mostly negative. Instead of voting for candidates and platforms they like, people vote against those they dislike.

The new British government, one observes, having ousted Lloyd George because he threatened war against the Turks, is threatening war against the Turks.

The American automobile association says the time has passed for gaudy billboard posters on the highways. 'Yep—people go by too fast to read them nowadays.'

New York husbands have filed a husband's bill of rights with the supreme court. Just so it doesn't interfere with the wives' right of will, the wives should worry.

Before Henry Ford builds that factory in China to make five cars for the Chinese, he'd better ask the manufacturers of laundry appliances what the yellow man does to Caucasian machinery.

OUR CONSTITUTION

Several European countries are enjoying a boom in the cabinet-making industry. But how much more enjoyable in our own country when an adverse vote in congress does not call a convention to control of governmental affairs. The longer we live the more reason we have for acknowledging the wisdom of our forefathers in framing the Constitution of the United States of America, comments the Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

That right now is the time for every live and nearly dead city to not only start thinking, but start working toward a strenuous era of development.

That important forward steps should be taken to improve the social, commercial and industrial conditions of their city.

That no city has an excuse for not adopting modern methods of growth-and-development.

That no city is so big or important that it can't be improved.

That any city that thinks itself perfect should quit "kiddin' itself" and wake up or it will be passed by in the march of trade.

That it is better to keep awake and keep working than to wake-up later to find out how foolish they have been.

That in these days of fierce competition between cities, the city that does not keep on its hustling clothes will find itself left behind.

That the progress of modern cities is determined, greatly by its enthusiasm of community spirit.

That the life-without-spirit are just travelling along.

That many cities today are enjoying a healthy growth on account of the organized business men who have grasped every opportunity to help their city.

That these men with determination, intelligent co-operation and the advertising of the advantages of their section are doing wonders—Shawnee Oklahoma Board of Commerce.

CONSERVATIVE UNCLE SAM

"Because the United States, of all countries, offers the best promise of a more human life to the masses, it is strong enough to answer the 'bulldog challenge,'" says Colonel Raymond Robins of Chicago, expert sociologist. He adds:

"The present social order of our country is able to meet this challenge because of a certain confidence and trust in our political, economic and religious institutions. But it cannot be long if any nation in the Old World."

These are facts worth calling freshly to mind every time some exorable patriot raises a new cry of alarm regarding some radical measure or other.

Anyone who closely studies the political history and social tendencies in the various countries of the world usually concludes that the United States is the steadiest country in the world. Even England, with its freedom broadening slowly down from precedent, is more radical than America—but, it is political and economic evolution moves faster. And this American steadiness is not of one class only; if it were it would be dangerous. It permeates all the classes except a fringe of radical extremists who are as bad as to be of little influence.

America is liberal; but our liberalism is what almost any European country today would call conservatism.

The reason for this national conservatism is plain enough as Colonel Robins suggests. Americans know when they are well off, and don't lightly take any chances of changing for the worse, in sudden hope of a millennium. That is why the Reds, of any type, never have a chance here.
