DAWSON, N. M., Feb. 10.—A 200-foot shaft of miners entombed by the terrific explosion in Dawson mine last Thursday had been recovered by rescue parties. Recruits have not yet located any large number of bodies of victims in the mine but instead are finding them along the passageway as they penetrate further back into the labyrinth. Little difficulty is being encountered by rescue squads, other than clearing their way over piles of bodies which indicate that the blast was of terrific proportions.

BASKETBALL TEAM WINS 100 GAMES

New Jersey High School Team Claims to Have Won 100 Straight Games; Indiana Team Claims 86 Games to Their Credit.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—There are the days of basketball record. In the west the Vincennes, Ind., team has been attracting much attention in intercollegiate circles. During the last year the Vincennes team has won 100 straight games in the last 100 played. It is the only team in the N. J. high school five in the big league. The Vincennes team claims to have won 100 straight games. Intercollegiate games in football are the best interest in the college sport last year. A number of games were staged, not only by the colleges but the preparatory schools as well. Why not an intercollegiate game between Vincennes and Pacific? It would keep from the records of the two clubs that they are entitled to represent the west and east. Coach Blood of the Pacific team is ready to talk business with any high school team that disputes the right of Pacific to be called the national champion of their class.

Bill Hill is another one of the sensations of this week's averages. He bumped from 156 to 160. Charles Larsen dropped five points and now has an average of 162. Roy Kopp stepped up from 119 to 128. IT STARTS PROMPTLY IN THE COLDEST WEATHER

The behavior of Dodge Brothers Motor Car on zero days is a fair example of its fitness for the year round. You turn the switch, step on the button, and the motor starts—without undue noise or delay. The reasons are readily understood: The coordination of the power plant is well nigh flawless. The slightest impulse sets it in motion. The battery—6-cells, 12-volts—is unusually large. A high-vacuum carburetor so thoroughly vaporizes the gasoline that it ignites instantly under the spark. The electrical system is remarkably efficient and cuts to a minimum the usual voltage loss between battery and starter. Finally, the starter, itself—an admirable example of its kind—is directly united with the engine by a chain drive which is always in mesh—a fact having much to do with the promptness and quietness of its action.

JACK DAW IN MIDGETVILLE

Nearly Jack heard high-pitched voices. Then he noticed that a light was streaming through the bottom of the doorway. Getting down on his hands and knees he peered in. There sat several little midgets around a huge table. "Come on in young man," they shouted to Jack.

Jack crawled through the doorway, followed by Pip. "Where am I?" he asked. And a chorus of voices replied, "Welcome to Midgetville. Then one of the tiny folk stepped out. Jack was among the midgets who ruled Midgetville. That's they invited him to eat with them.

After a fine meal, Jack grew curious. "Why, it's the place where all the one of the folk. You follow us and we'll show you the wonderful buildings."

Business may look a little dull just now in Twin Falls but never mind, the Old Town has lots of "pop" left and when the spring days begin to warm us up we will all let loose and spend a little of this cash we have been hoarding and the world will still look bright and happy.

Several of our sister cities are wondering what is the trouble with Twin Falls that is tolerating such idleness as has been perpetrated recently by this audit deal and the publication of same. How long will an innocent citizenship put up with such jobs as this one and others which have been put over by a collusion of evil forces working for their own selfish gain.

A prominent business man of this city recently made the statement to the editor that if Twin Falls county had 20,000 cows it would be richer by about three million dollars. Because every cow is worth $100 each year as an income to the community and this is about the average valuation placed on them. Let's preach more livestock for Southern Idaho and this will give us a steady year-round income instead of one pay day each year. Think it over and do your part in this movement.

Taxpayer who wrote a communication to this paper the other evening is to be congratulated for his clear statement of fact by way of comparison on legal publications and the rate charged in the Observer. He showed clearly that there was a terrific discrimination between the price charged the Twin Falls school district and the city of Twin Falls. In fact, had The Observer charged the same rate for the city legal as they did the Twin Falls school board their voucher would have been about $200 in place of $800.

TRANSFER OF SCHOOL FUNDS

Let us assume for the sake of argument that E. F. Walton has no past; that he is a citizen who has always worked for the harmony of the community and the cultivation of the Twin Falls spirit; and what most we think of his latest movement? The Times agrees that all law should be enforced rigidly through legitimate channels and by the officers of the city, state and nation duly elected and qualified. It regrets that in regard to the regulation of official duties some statutes are mandatory and some merely directory and that officials and even lawyers are at times puzzled to decide which class statute belongs to. Let us suppose that it is true as Walton claims that there was an irregularity in the transfer of funds in the school district about three years ago, which left a deficit in the general fund. If the statute which is alleged to have been violated were mandatory, this could have been stopped by injunction at the time. That, and no later, was the time for this patriotic citizen to have acted. But suppose he was not on the job as watchdog of the treasury and this got by at that time without his knowledge, he had all the knowledge he now has in this matter before he filed his counter suits and long before the 20 mill levy was voted, or the election at which it was voted was called. There was nothing new in the Walton statement so far as the facts go. They were known to him and to the public when the levy was voted to replace the money from the general fund of the schools. Since this election and since receipt of money a long period has gone. The vote polled for the 20 mill in full knowledge of all the facts. Had they wanted to sue anybody instead of voting the levy, they would have done so. They did not exercise the right which Walton claims they had. His effort to disturb a condition endorsed by an overwhelming majority long after it is all settled, the money collected, turned into the general fund and dispersed will be judged for what it is worth, and he will be judged for what he is worth, by the people of this city.

The transfer may have been "technically illegal or dangerous," just as the transfer by the city of $3600 from the contingent fund to the general fund and from the general fund to the street fund may have been "technically illegal or dangerous," to quote the city attorney regarding this transaction. It may have been technically illegal, as the transfer of $1100 from the contingent fund to the general fund and from that the tourist park fund, may have been. But nobody seems to be taking legal steps in regard to these last. If Walton should raise this issue against the present administration two years from now, after they have been thrown out of office by indignant voters, The Times will protest as strongly against that belated action as it does about the demand of Walton regarding the school board.
